

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 751-760

Chapter 751

After chatting with Jessica for a while, Stella hung up.

Then she logged onto the website of Yuchi's company, entered her backstage, and saw unread notification messages.

Stella took a look and found that the resume she submitted had responded.

The other party informed her to go for an interview at eight tomorrow morning.

Seeing this interview notice, Stella's red lips curled up slowly.

It seemed that she was one step closer to her purpose.

The next day, Stella arrived at Yuchi Company on time, went to the front desk, and directly communicated with each other in fluent English, but she didn't expect the front desk to pop out directly in Chinese.

"Are you Chinese? Are you here for an interview?"

Stella nodded unexpectedly.

"Then you have a foresight. The Yuchi Group is the best group, and it treats employees well."

Hearing that, Stella smiled slightly, "Yes, I just came here after seeing the welfare and feeling good."

“Haha, that’s not bad, by the way, what position are you applying for?”

“Secretary assistant.”

“Ha, you really came to apply for the assistant secretary. I tell you, since that person came, the people applying for the company have become more and more popular. I said you, you are so beautiful, why bother? Secretary? Assistant, not good.”

The front desk gave her a distressed look, and then said, “You take the C elevator and go directly to the fifth floor. There is the interview place.”

“Thank you.”

Stella nodded, then turned and walked towards the C elevator.

She doesn’t want the front desk behind her to whisper to the people around her: “What a pity!”

Stella looked for a while, and found the place said at the front desk in the elevator with the most people. She was a little surprised. Seeing that the elevator was full of people, and all of them were young and beautiful girls.

The most important thing is the extremely heavy perfume smell on them.

A group of people gathered together, the taste was scary. Thinking of her pregnancy, Stella took a few steps back to exit the encirclement filled with perfume, and then looked up at the number of floors in the elevator.

“Are you Chinese?”

Suddenly, someone around her asked.

Stella turned her head, only to realize that there was a girl who followed him to the side. Compared with the group of people, she looked a little out of place. Because other people dressed up very well-dressed, but she was dressed very plainly, with a slap-sized face, delicate features, and she looked very young.

Seeing her looking at her, Stella was sure that she was talking to her.

She nodded, humming.

The girl was very happy when she heard this, and offered her a hand.

“My name is Luo Li, how about you?”

Loli??? Someone blatantly called so cute? Although...that she fits this name very well, after all, she is very petite.

“Hello, my name is Stella.”

“Great, are you here to apply for assistant secretary? Me too. We can go up together later.”

Stella came here originally for Walter. When Walter recovered his memory, she would return to China with him, so she would not stay here for too long.

After all, the Ye Group is still waiting for Walter to go back.

Looking at the little girl in front of her, Stella said bluntly: “You are applying for a position with me. We are now in a competitive relationship.”

She probably didn't expect that she would say this. The girl named Luo Li was stunned for a moment, and then laughed again: “It's okay, this doesn't affect our understanding. Anyway, it is the person above who decides the position.”

Unexpectedly, her mentality was quite good, Stella smiled faintly, nodded and retracted her gaze.

She doesn't know if it's because of her inconspicuous behavior or something, Luo Li still stood by her side, and occasionally said a few words to her, looking very warm.

Stella occasionally responded to her.

Although she doesn't get a good idea of such a self-acquaintance, it is not easy to find a job when she thinks that the other person looks so young.

And when she meets her compatriots abroad, she will definitely feel more emotional.

So Stella occasionally returned her a few words.

When the elevator came, everyone squeezed in frantically. Because of her pregnancy, Stella had been standing in the back and waiting, instead of squeezing the elevator with everyone.

Luo Li looked at her with a little surprise: "You are so calm, you are the calmest one of all the assistant secretarial applications I have seen today, and... you didn't make any special makeup, but you are already beautiful like this. Now, the temperament is very good."

Stella: "..."

She glanced at each other, and Luo Li looked sincere and lovely when she praised her.

Stella became a little embarrassed, subconsciously stretched out her hand to close a strand of blue silk on her cheek, and said in embarrassment, "Thank you."

“No thanks, let’s go in too.” Luo Li took her hand and walked forward.

Stella walked in with her.

When she walked to the door, the smell was so heavy that Stella frowned and she held her breath subconsciously. Because Luo Li walked in first, Stella was the last one.

But she didn’t expect the elevator to rang just as she walked into the elevator.

“Ah, she is overweight.” Someone yelled, because everyone watched Stella walk in last, so after hearing the words, they looked at her.

For a while, everyone’s eyes focused on themselves.

Stella was really embarrassed, and it was true that she was the last one to go up. As soon as she was about to take a step, she heard someone say from behind: “What’s the matter, you are overweight, you can’t go down?”

“Yeah, what is Lai doing here? She doesn’t think she won’t be overweight by relying on the elevator, and will send her up there?”

Stella twisted her eyebrows, pursed her red lips, and walked out.

She just stood there for a while, without time to react, this group of people just...

It seems that the people who are applying today should be very hostile to each other, and looking at each other is not pleasing to the eye.

After Stella came out, Luo Li didn't seem to be embarrassed either, so she coughed lightly and walked out.

"I'm fine, you don't have to be with me here, I'll just wait for the next elevator."

Luo Li didn't go in, blinked and said: "It's okay, we are compatriots, I will accompany you to wait for the next elevator."

After she said so, Stella didn't say anything. After the elevator closed, Luo Li suddenly leaned to her side and said something quietly.

"I know there is an elevator nearby, and I can go to the interview department on the fifth floor."

Stella: "?"

"You come with me." Lori took her hand and walked forward.

Stella could only follow her.

The road ahead was much quieter. After arriving at the destination, Stella saw that the elevator in front of her was different from the previous one. There was no one here.

"We can go directly to the fifth floor from here."

After speaking, Luo Li took her into the elevator.

Chapter 752

Stella was pulled into the elevator.

Ding...

Luo Li pressed the fifth floor, and soon the elevator door closed.

Stella looked at the rising floor, always feeling weird in her heart, so she couldn't help asking: "By the way, why don't you take this elevator? There are full of people over there, but there is no one here. "

Hearing, Luo Li couldn't help but chuck, "Don't you know?"

Stella looked curious: "What do you know?"

"This elevator is not accessible to ordinary people."

Stella: "?"

Luo Li: "It seems that you really don't know anything. This is the special elevator for the president of their Yuchi Group. Let alone those of us who are interviewing. Even the formal employees of the Yuchi Group don't dare to take this elevator. ."

Hearing this, Stella finally understood, she couldn't help but frown her eyebrows, "Then why are you still..."

"Oh, don't be nervous." Luo Li covered her mouth and smirked: "I also accidentally found this place when I was looking for the bathroom, and then... I checked the company forum and found out about it. Don't worry, I won't The one who took you into the fire pit is on the 15th floor anyway. We will go out when we arrive. The president will only take this elevator during work and off hours. Don't worry, we will definitely not run into it so unlucky. "

As soon as the voice fell, the elevator stopped on the seventh floor.

Stella: "..."

Luo Li: “???”

Oh my god!

Wouldn't it be so unlucky?

Luo Li was stiff in place, watching the ding of the elevator door, slowly opening from both sides.

At that moment, she had a kind of... what opened in front of her was not the elevator door, but... the door of hell!

Oh, why does she take this elevator, and why is it convenient? Why do you want crow's mouth?

She's not lucky enough, and it's over if she hurts the person she just met.

Ding...

After the door opened, several men in suits and leather shoes walked in. When they saw two women inside, everyone was stunned, but... after all, they were taking the elevator.

These thoughts only existed temporarily, and soon the limbs still made movements.

Luo Li shrank into the corner, Stella also stood on the other side to make room for them.

Her face was a bit ugly, and she didn't expect Luo Li to finish speaking when the elevator door opened, which was really unlucky.

Stella, who was originally calm, saw the last person who came in, her nerves tense instantly.

How could it be him?

Stella's pupils trembled, almost unable to control her body movements and stepped forward to hug him, but she quickly recovered.

No, Walter now has amnesia and doesn't recognize her anymore.

If she went up to hug him now, he would just ask someone to take her out.

And... her abnormal behavior when she first met.

So Stella hurriedly turned sideways when Walter looked over, half facing them.

However, there was not so much space in the elevator. Stella could only hold her breath and read silently in her heart, hoping Walter didn't see her.

Before she officially became an employee of Yuchi Group, she directly requisitioned the elevator dedicated to the president. Then... she didn't know if she had the opportunity to enter the company.

If it is remembered by Walter, and then thrown out, everything she planned will be ruined.

Stella knew Walter's temperament, he was only good to her before, but he was... still indifferent to others. Now he doesn't recognize her, and doesn't know if he will retain his original temperament...

Hope not.

“Alas?”

After Walter came in, he didn't pay attention to the two extra women in the elevator, because there were more management staff standing in the elevator, so he stood directly and faced the door.

There was only an eventful scream, and then asked Walter in English.

“Isn't this your special elevator?”

Walter nodded indifferently.

“Why are there girls here? Or Chinese girls? Is it the employee girl you brought from China?”

Stella, who just wants to reduce her sense of existence: “...”

What a gossip about this person, Walter didn't respond at all, as if he didn't see her at all.

It's fine now, it's all lifted up.

Walter's eyebrows frowned when he heard of a girl, but soon felt abnormal again.

No wonder when he came in, he seemed to smell a familiar and unfamiliar smell in the elevator, not like a man, but like a woman.

It's just that he didn't care, he was mentioned by them now.

Walter's gaze swept back for an instant, and Luo Li, who was shrinking in the corner, was spotted. At the moment when Walter's icy gaze, Luo Li instantly raised her hands and lowered her face in fear. head.

“Sorry, I didn’t intend to use this elevator... I’m really sorry.”

Stella subconsciously hid behind one of the tall men. He was standing not far in front of her. She moved two steps to hide her body behind him.

“Luo Li, Luo Li, don’t blame me.”

“I really can’t let him find out that I am here. After all, my purpose this time is him. As long as he recovers his memory, I will immediately let him follow me back to China and will not stay here for long.”

Although he knew that he was a bit selfish, Stella was really too scared.

She waited for Walter for more than a month, and although she got the news that he was safe, but the fact that he lost his memory and didn’t recognize her really shocked her.

If she loses this opportunity, she doesn’t know if she can think of other ways.

Walter frowned and looked at this extra woman displeasably. His eyes were sharp, like sharp blades. Luo Li’s back was cold when he saw her, her scalp was numb and her mouth was knotted. Keep apologizing.

The gossip just said, “Ha, don’t look at people like this anymore, you will scare the little beauties in the future, hello, Chinese girl, my name is George.”

While he was talking, he reached out to Luo Li and wanted to greet her with a friendly expression.

Luo Li: “...”

She blinked, and the emotion of fear continued to flow up. Under Walter's almost murderous sight, how dare she reach out and shake hands with this man who claimed to be George?

Unless she is desperate.

Although Walter's eyes were very cold and scary, but the thin lips he was pursing still cherished the words like gold and did not speak.

The elevator rises slowly

The atmosphere inside has fallen into weirdness.

Stella secretly raised her eyes and glanced at the number of floors of the elevator.

They were going to the 15th floor, but Walter seemed to be going to the 21st floor.

In this way, the elevator will stop on the 15th floor when the time comes. They will not go out, but she and Luo Li will go out.

Once she goes out, then... Walter will definitely see her.

How to do?

Seeing that the elevator reached the 15th floor immediately, it stopped slowly.

Ding...

Chapter 753

At this time, Stella should go out.

Even if the twenty-first floor is reached, when the person in front is gone, no one will stop her.

Luo Li was too embarrassed, her expression pitiful.

“That... can we go out?”

She asked.

Everyone was stunned for a moment, and George couldn't help laughing, “Of course you can, by the way, little beauty, are you an employee of this company? Would you like to leave a contact information?”

He seemed to be a foolish man, especially not serious, and the look in Luo Li's eyes was like a hungry wolf.

Luo Li was so scared that she almost cried: “I...”

No one went out for a long time, and the elevator door closed automatically. Luo Li was so frightened that she could only bow her head and walk out. After halfway, she seemed to think of something, and looked in Stella's direction.

Stella bit her lower lip, still hesitating how to get out.

Is he rushing out, still hiding here and waiting until the twenty-first floor before coming down?

While hesitating, Luo Li called her: “Stella, go.”

Stella: “???”

She hides so hard, is she exposed???

Finally, the man standing in front of Stella turned his head, gave her a smile, and then turned sideways.

Stella appeared in front of everyone without warning.

The sudden appearance of two inexplicable women in the elevator has already made Walter very upset. It's just that the other person looks very scared, it shouldn't be mixed in and tried to plot against him.

So Walter didn't plan to take care of it, there was actually one more.

Walter followed everyone's eyes and looked over.

Before he could see what the other party looked like, a pretty figure ran past him with a bag covering his face. Because he ran too fast and he happened to stand at the exit, the other party accidentally hit Click on his shoulder.

The faint, unfamiliar and familiar smell entered his breath like this.

Walter was stunned for a moment, and followed the charming figure with cold eyes.

There was only one back, she wore a white suit, her long hair was tied up and hung behind her waist, and the green silk was rubbed on her white neck when she ran.

Walter recognized her.

It was the strange woman who held her hand at the door that day and told him to stop making trouble and go back with her.

"Stella?" Luo Li reacted and quickly followed.

Soon the two figures disappeared.

“Huh?” George squeaked again, then bent down and picked up a bunch of things at Walter’s feet, dangling in his hands, making a jingle.

“It seems that the woman in white clothes just left?”

Walter glanced indifferently.

It’s a bunch of keys.

“It’s the key?” George’s lips curled up with an interesting smile, “What kind of guilty conscience did you run in such a hurry? And if you find out, she doesn’t seem to dare to look at you.”

Walter glanced at him, and George suddenly felt a chill in his neck and curled his lips: “Well, when I didn’t say it. But this key looks very important. I will give it away personally after the meeting.”

George has no hobbies, except after work, he just likes beautiful women.

He doesn’t know how many beauties he has played. The industry generally knows that his reputation is not good, so anyone who is willing to contact him is generally willing.

Not happy, George will not force it.

He behaves so diligently now, is it because he fell in love with that strange woman???

“Here.”

An icy tone suddenly sounded in the elevator.

Before George could figure out who was talking, he realized that he had a pair of big hands in front of him.

What’s the situation?

Walter’s sharp gaze fell on his face, and George realized that the sentence just now was what Walter said. He shook the key in his hand and found the jingling noise again.

“You mean, you want this set of keys?”

Walter pursed his thin lips without denying it.

“What?” George was taken aback, looking at him as if he was eating shit: “Aren’t you usually the one who fears women the most? Now you are asking me for a set of keys? Wei Chishen, have I heard the rumors wrong?”

When the words were over, George felt that the aura on Walter’s body was suddenly cold, becoming terrifying.

His face changed, and he didn’t dare to provoke this young master who was lost and recovered by Mr. Yuchi. He quickly handed him the key and muttered: “Forget it, I’m afraid of you, just give it to you, isn’t it just a key? I want it, too much.”

After giving out the key, George stroked his chin, still feeling a little pity.

Seeing the two little girls together, he thought he could kill two birds with one stone this time, but now... he guesses there is no chance.

The thought that Luo Li was afraid of herself like a little beast made George feel particularly interesting.

But it doesn't matter, as long as they are in this company, they have the opportunity to meet again.

Ding...

The elevator door opened and their floor arrived. After Walter received the key, he stepped out and the people behind hurriedly followed.

One of the older ones, seeing Walter's action, smiled at the corners of his lips and under his eyes, and followed behind him, not knowing whether it was intentional or unintentional, and suddenly said something.

"On the 15th floor, is the interview department?"

Walter's steps paused, and his brows frowned again.

Interview department?

That strange woman, come here for an interview?

What does she want to do?

The key stayed in his hand for a long time, and it was still contaminated with his temperature. For some reason, Walter's eyes showed tears in her beautiful eyes again.

"..."

It's really weird.

Why would he remember a strange woman? Is it because she has a different way of approaching other people?

George didn't pay attention to the man's intentions, and curled his lips: "The interview department? Are you too courageous? How dare they sit in this elevator?"

"If you are a full-time employee, you definitely don't dare. Just because you just came for the interview, you don't know anything."

"That's what I said."

"By the way, although I didn't see the full face of the girl who ran out just now, I think her profile looks pretty good, she should be a beauty."

As soon as the voice fell, the person walking in front stopped.

The crowd also stopped, Walter looked sideways, and his cold eyes swept across the crowd.

"You are free?"

Everyone: "???"

Walter: "Why follow me?"

George was almost speechless, and he stayed for a while before he answered: "Didn't you...did you let us come up with you? He said there was something to talk about."

Walter: "..."

Is it?

He has forgotten.

However, I can't save face now, and sneered: "It's all right now, you can get out."

George: "My dear, you cross the river and demolish the bridge too quickly, right?"

"Forget it, it seems he is not in the mood now, let's go."

George looked speechless, and said, "What the hell? It's more uncertain than the women I know."

When the words fell, a murderous sight swept over, and everyone fled.

Chapter 754

And the other side

Stella held up her bag to cover half of her face, and ran out after seeing the time and exit.

When she ran to Walter, she accidentally bumped him. At that time, her heart was about to jump out. She always felt that Walter would tell her to stop or grab her in the next second.

But neither result happened.

She left the elevator area unharmed.

After running a certain distance, Stella stopped and stood in place panting.

Just now... Walter shouldn't see her, right?

Hope not.

“Stella!” Luo Li also chased up behind her and stopped beside her. “Why are you running so fast? I’m so tired after chasing you.”

Luo Li?

Stella was taken aback for a moment, and when she was nervous just now, she forgot about her.

Seeing that there was no anger in her eyes that was just left behind, Stella was a little surprised, “What are you doing after me?”

She felt that she had already told her very clearly that they were competitive opponents and there was really no need to hug together.

Luo Li smiled shyly, “Everyone is Chinese, I... I don’t know anyone here, so... I feel very kind when I see you, and I want to follow you.”

Stella: “...”

She thought for a while, and felt that the girl was really sincere, so she said: “I just left you and ran away. Don’t you feel angry?”

Luo Li said, obviously very slow.

“You just... left me and ran? We...” She tilted her head and blinked: “Didn’t you run out together?”

Girl, how big is your heart to feel that we ran out together?

“Obviously, I ran first by myself.”

Stella shook her head helplessly, and said, "You can have a snack."

After speaking, she went straight forward.

Luo Li quickly followed up again, behind her, like a tail: "You don't need to worry about me, I know you have no bad thoughts, but... do you know that person?"

Stella: "Who is it?"

"It's Master Yuchi."

Master Yuchi?

She was stunned for a few seconds before reacting, Walter was now crowned by the surname Yuchi, he was no longer called Walter, but Yuchishen.

"It doesn't matter if you don't want to say it. I just asked you curiously because you were scared to see him."

"Yeah." Stella nodded.

She just met the other side Pingshui, and couldn't trust her.

It's okay if the other person is a good person, what if... he is different from what he looks like?

After experiencing events like Karla, Stella now has difficulty trusting others.

"The interview is not far ahead, let's go."

"it is good."

When she arrived at the interview, it was almost overcrowded.

There were more people waiting at the elevator entrance just now, and it was still a multiple.

Seeing such a scene, Stella was a little dumbfounded.

“So many people are here for interviews?”

She didn't think it was weird to see the people in the elevator just now, but now seeing this crowded corridor, Stella was still surprised.

However, Luo Li seemed to be used to such scenes, and nodded: “Yes, I read on the forum and said that there were very few assistants to secretaries. After all, they were assistants to secretaries, thankless work. However, since Master Yuchi was appointed as president by Master Yuchi, it has been different...Every day, there are a lot of people who apply for secretary assistants.”

Upon hearing this, Stella finally understood why Luo Li had no intuition to regard herself as a competitive opponent at all. Because in her eyes... she might not even be an opponent.

There are so many applicants, what kind of talent do they want??? ?

Still missing her?

Maybe, she couldn't even make it through the interview today.

Stella suddenly became a little depressed, always feeling that things deviated a lot from what she expected.

Sure enough, the plan is easy, but the implementation is difficult.

“But...” Luo Li paused, her expression a little distressed: “Although there are many people who apply for secretary assistants every day, none of them can get on the job smoothly. It has been many days, and I still haven’t hired a satisfactory candidate.”

It turned out to be so, no wonder.

There were so many people staring at the position of this assistant secretary, and...most of them came for Walter, so they must be chosen carefully.

The thought of Walter being coveted by so many women now made Stella feel very uncomfortable.

Obviously... that’s her alone.

But now he doesn’t know her, and there are still so many women who want to...something happen to him.

The more she thought about it, the more uncomfortable it became. Stella felt that no matter what, she had to win today’s interview and get the position of assistant secretary.

Otherwise, she may be taken the lead by others.

However, she had no idea that her key had fallen into Walter’s hands.

There are a lot of people. Originally, Stella thought it would take a long time to wait for the interview. After all, she came late and didn’t know how long it would take to get her number.

Unexpectedly, there were many people waiting, but the interviewers went in and came out in less than two minutes.

Stella and Luo Li waited beside them, and they were surprised to see this scene.

“Do you think they interviewed very quickly? Don’t worry, we will be like this later.”

Stella: “...”

What can they do for an interview in less than two minutes?

Stella suddenly understood why she had not hired a secretary assistant.

Gradually, people in the overcrowded corridors gradually left. Later, even the chairs were empty. Stella, who had been standing for a long time, finally found a place to sit. She and Li sat down and sighed.

It feels as soon as they leave, the surrounding air is fresh.

It’s not that she is sensitive to perfume, but that her physique is different from before, and if there are too many people, the smell will become messy.

No matter how good the original smell of the perfume is, it will become weird if you put it together.

After she sat for less than ten minutes, Luo Li, who was beside her, was called in.

Stella glanced at the time, and it was exactly one minute after Luo Li came out.

These people...how did they interview so quickly?

After Luo Li came out, there was nothing wrong with her face, and Stella was too embarrassed to ask her directly.

At exactly this time, her name was called.

Stella took a deep breath and stood up, then walked in.

Pushing the door open, she saw several interviewers sitting inside. After entering, Stella introduced herself first: "Hello leaders, this is Stella."

The Mediterranean uncle on the left flipped through her resume, with a strong interest in his eyes.

"I heard you used to be a designer?"

Stella nodded.

The female white-collar workers in professional suits around her sneered coldly: "It's strange, what kind of wind is our company recently, it's all about the beautifully dressed young girls, even the designers, and they just got here. Are we here yet?"

Chapter 755

Of course Stella knew that her identity as a designer would attract criticism from them.

Who would have thought that a designer would be an assistant secretary?

So when she filled in the information, she only said that she had a little experience as a designer, and her previous design works used English names.

This time she filled in Chinese, and her English name was randomly selected and filled in.

Stella smiled slightly, “To be honest, I originally wanted to apply for a designer position, but your company’s designers seem to have reached a saturated state, and... I’ve only been a designer for a while before. I have a lot of experience, so I was too embarrassed to directly apply for the position of a designer, so I had to turn to the next best thing and be a secretary assistant.”

Mediterranean was interested in what she said, “Oh? You mean, you did it for design?”

Stella nodded naturally.

“Of course, although Yuchi’s company is all-encompassing, the design is the best.”

Stella even lifted up a work designed by the previous Yuchi’s family, how she shines in fashion week, and how she appreciates this work as a designer.

At the end, Stella even added a pity with a sigh.

“It’s a pity that I’m light-hearted, and I don’t have any chance to get to know this excellent designer. If... let me meet up and get an autograph, it would be good.”

Female white-collar workers: “...”

Mediterranean blinked and looked at the female white-collar worker beside him: “The designer she said is like you?”

“Huh?” Stella seemed taken aback, “You are the designer of that work? Really?”

The female white-collar worker who had been very malicious to Stella just now felt embarrassed. Originally, she looked down on each other very much. After all, the people who came recently came for the above-mentioned Yu Chishen who was arranged to come in. But now there is a fan of her own.

And this fan didn't know her, and then expressed admiration in front of her.

Stella moved quickly, trying to open the bag, but stopped thinking of something.

The female white-collar worker who noticed her actions: "What are you going to do?"

Stella smiled slightly: "I want to wait for the interview to be over, and please help me sign my name. I really like your design work."

This sentence is true.

She really liked the design work of this female white-collar worker. She liked it the first time she saw it. Then she inquired about it, even went to look through the designer's past works, and then met her.

Stella was actually quite prepared to do it. Since she planned to take this plan, she naturally wouldn't let her wish come to nothing.

"I thought you were going to sign on the spot."

Stella shook her head: "I'm really sorry, I am a little bit forgetful, and almost everyone else is here, I am here to make you a compensation, but... I personally really like design, and I beg you to give me this opportunity to experience ."

Mediterranean closed her resume.

And the middle-aged woman on the right sat without moving at first, but now she became a little interested. She opened her resume and looked at it, and then asked: "What do you think is the significance of the secretary assistant?"

The meaning of secretary assistant?

Stella didn't expect that the other party would ask this question, so she turned her mind quickly and followed her words.

"Actually... I don't think the secretary assistant is of much significance."

"It doesn't have to exist, but sometimes, many things need to be done by one more person."

"I know."

The middle-aged woman closed her resume and put it aside.

Stella paused, and pursed her lips, not knowing that what she said was not what she wanted.

She had known the identity of this person a long time ago, and it happened to be the secretary of the former president. She had been a secretary for many years. Although she was only a secretary on the surface, she was trusted by Yu Chijin and she was particularly able to speak in the company.

This time, the recruitment of assistant secretary is also her suggestion.

The reason is that she is getting older and is unable to do many things.

People like this must be unwilling to steal her limelight, whether it's...beauty or ability.

Therefore, Stella could only retreat and say those words secondly to reduce her sense of existence.

Hope...success!

“Well, the interview is over, you can go out.”

Stella nodded, turned back before going out, and walked to the female white-collar worker, “Excuse me, help me sign a name?”

The young female white-collar worker took the small notebook in her hand, coughed lightly, and then signed her name on the cover, Stella held the notebook contentedly and left.

After they left, the Mediterranean took a look at the red-haired female white-collar workers, and said, “This is amazing, and I know how to do what I like.”

“What do you like?” The female white-collar worker was displeased: “Are you saying that she pretends to be my fan? Then why doesn’t she pretend to be your fan?”

The Mediterranean looked indifferent: “Who doesn’t know that you are arrogant, and the most difficult thing to do? How many interviewers in front of you were scolded by you? You have no points in your heart?”

Qiao Sier: “...You are talking nonsense! Why don’t people cry? Besides, if she is not a fan of me, she would never know my work. If you say that, you are jealous of me.”

The middle-aged woman on the side listened to the two people’s mutual quarrel, raised her lips and smiled, and said quietly: “It is indeed a powerful character. You both can actually quarrel for her.”

Stella went in for more than ten minutes.

When they came out, those who were still waiting outside were shocked.

“Wow, have you been in for a long time? How about the interviewer? Are you fierce?”

Because she was one of these anomalies, as soon as Stella went out, the rest of the people immediately surrounded her. Stella froze for a moment, subconsciously reduced the smile on her face, and said faintly: “It’s okay.”

“What are they asking? Why can you stay in there for ten minutes after interviewing for less than two minutes?”

Stella blinked, “Don’t worry, it will be here soon, and you will know what the interviewer is asking.”

Everyone: “...”

It can be seen that Stella is unwilling to talk more, and they did not force it anymore, and left a sentence, isn’t it just ten minutes? What’s the reason?

Luo Li stepped forward to hold her hand: “Are you ready for the interview? Let’s go?”

Stella: “? Are you waiting for me?”

Luo Li nodded.

“What are you waiting for me?”

What’s the matter with this little girl?

“Wait for you to go together.”

She didn't look embarrassed at all, but she reacted quickly: “Ah, is it inconvenient for you? Then... let's go downstairs together?”

Stella faintly refused: “No, I was a little tired from standing before, and I want to sit here for a while, so let's go first.”

Luo Li was a little disappointed, and nodded: “Well then, I'll go first, and see you if you are lucky.”

“Well, bye bye.”

Chapter 756

After Luo Li left, Stella sat alone in the chair for a while.

It is true that she does not want to be too involved with the other party, and it is also true that she is tired from standing for a long time.

Since Walter's accident, she has been running around, busy and tired every day, including in the past few days, she has been running around constantly, trying to get close to Walter.

However, she was very satisfied.

He was right in front of her now, and when she was tired, she could also stop and rest.

Judging from today's interview time, she should... have a half chance to get this position.

She doesn't know how long she has been sitting for, until the interviewees are gone, Stella slowly patted her leg, then got up and walked towards the elevator.

She walked very slowly, because she had nothing else to do next, just go back and wait for the news.

She intends to stay for a while after leaving the company, she will go to the nearby supermarket to buy something to eat, and then go home to cook herself a meal.

As she walked, Stella seemed to feel something was wrong. When she looked up, she realized that this is not the elevator she just came out of? The elevator dedicated to the president is the elevator dedicated to Walter.

“ ... ”

Bad.

Stella said secretly, then turned around and left, planning to leave here, so as not to run into him here.

But she didn't want to have just turned around and walked a few steps, and there was a clanging sound behind her, which sounded like the sound of keys colliding.

Strange... Why is there a sound of keys here?

Stella turned her head and looked curiously, and saw a tall figure walking towards this side, with a straight figure and handsome facial features, with deep eyes as sharp as a falcon, and it landed directly on her. Face.

In this way, without warning, the two eyes met in the air.

One second, two seconds, three seconds...

Stella avoided his gaze, turned her head and left.

“Stop.”

An icy voice came from behind, and the image of Stella running wildly was set in place as if she had been cursed, but she did not move, biting her lower lip with annoyed expression.

What’s wrong with her?

Obviously she ran out before, but now... why did he send it to the door by himself?

Obviously, the interview feels half successful.

After meeting Walter now, Stella felt that...this half of the probability could not be reduced anymore.

He is now the president of Yuchi Group. As long as he doesn’t nod his head, how can she be an assistant secretary?

How to do? Does she want to run again now? Or... Explain to him directly?

Anyway, Victor Han explained to him that day that he had admitted the wrong person. If she said it again now, would he believe it?

Feeling the people behind her were always approaching her, Stella raised her throat.

“Turn around.”

The man's low voice sounded not far behind her, and Stella only heard it at this time. His voice... is much hoarse than before.

Is it a sequelae after the injury?

Stella's heart was so painful that she turned around slowly and looked up at Walter.

The beautiful eyes in the impression are exactly the same.

Only this time, there were no tears in her eyes, nor sorrow. Some... actually felt distressed???

What does she feel distressed about?

Walter narrowed his eyes and looked at the woman in front of him that made him feel very strange, but would think of it inexplicably.

Every time she sees her emotions seem to be different?

When Stella looked at him, she saw the exploration of his eyes and realized that she had accidentally expressed her emotions in front of him. She was stunned for a second and quickly put away the emotions on her eyes and face, and then turned towards Walter. Said hello.

"You, hello."

When greeted him, Stella was still a little nervous.

Walter wanted to explore the emotions in her eyes, but found that they had all disappeared.

The eyes without any emotions are clear, like unpolluted spring water, with delicate spirit in the clear spirit.

“Yes, what’s the matter?” she asked again.

Walter sneered, “I should ask you this sentence? I couldn’t get a conversation a few days ago, and now you still run into the company? Sneak in my special elevator? Is this your method?”

Stella: “...No!”

She hurriedly explained: “I’m really embarrassed about what happened that day. My brother has already explained it to you, but maybe I was too emotional that day, so you didn’t hear clearly. I solemnly apologize to you now, I’m sorry... I confessed the wrong person that day, did you scare you?”

“...”

The aura around him was a little more dangerous, and he took a step forward and approached Stella.

“Wrong person?”

Stella raised her head and leaned back, slowly avoiding Walter’s approach.

The breath is very close, as long as she stretches out her hand, she can hug the person in front of her.

But... he can’t recognize her now.

She can’t do this!

Grasping her mind, Stella slowly nodded under her sharp eyes.

“I’m really sorry, I confessed to the wrong person that day, so I... said that to you and acted like that. But I said, I really didn’t mean it.”

“Evidence?” Walter didn’t seem to intend to let her go like this, keeping her original posture, “How can I be sure that you didn’t covet me, but deliberately used a special method?”

Stella: “...”

What did he think, he felt...Is he talking to her? What was done that day was intentional?

Before she could speak again, Walter’s thin lips opened again.

“If you really admit the wrong person, how can you explain why you appeared here today?”

“I...I’m here...”

What would she say? Stella bit her lower lip and didn’t pick him up. If she said that she was here to apply for the secretary’s assistant, then he would definitely feel that she wanted him more.

But if she doesn’t say anything, if she really becomes a secretary assistant in the future, if she meets him again...

“What are you doing here?”

While Stella was still thinking about how to answer his question, Walter asked again, his voice was low, and it sounded slowly in front of her with a little hoarse, as if it had magical power.

Without knowing what happened, Stella opened her lips and said her purpose.

“I, I’m here to apply.”

When she said to apply for a job, the handsome man in front raised his eyebrows: “Apply for? Which position?”

Stella: “...Secretary assistant.”

After speaking, Stella almost bit her tongue, she suddenly stretched out her hand to cover her mouth, and stared at him in horror.

“Why did you just say so?”

Sure enough, after she finished talking about the assistant secretary, Walter looked at her a little more inquisitively, the expression on her face seemed to say, and she didn’t covet him?

Stella wanted to explain the feeling of powerlessness, so she could only say: “Although I have applied for the assistant secretary,... it is not certain whether I can get this position, I...”

Chapter 757

She really didn’t know what to say later, Stella could only shut her mouth, and put her hands down with a little annoyance.

“What happened that day...I’m really sorry, I really confessed to the wrong person, you have to believe me, I must not covet you, I came to apply for secretary assistant, and I was totally attracted by your company, so... I want to come in and learn. “

“Oh.” Walter replied with a cold face, “You mean, I am not as attractive as the company?”

Stella: “?”

“No, I didn’t mean that, I just...”

For the first time, Stella was so busy in front of Walter that she didn’t know what to say. When she was anxious, her delicate brows were kept tightly locked, and even her clean eyes were full of anxiety.

Seeing her helpless, Walter’s thin lips slowly curled up.

Unexpectedly, this weird woman... is quite fun.

Wrong.

What is he doing?

Walter reacted quickly, narrowed his eyes, and looked at the woman in front of him dangerously.

But his eyes are cleaner and his behavior is a little strange. Why is he wasting time with this woman here?

“Reach out.”

Stella looked puzzled: “What are you doing?”

Walter said impatiently: “Let you stretch out your hand, why do you talk so much nonsense?”

Helpless, Stella could only stretch out her hand.

He threw the key into her palm, and Stella was stunned for a moment. After looking at the extra key in her palm, she recognized that she had brought it.

How could this key be with him? Is it just dropped?

However, she lost her key, why would Walter send it to her?

Thinking of this, Stella instantly raised her head in surprise, and her clean eyes were filled with surprises: "You are waiting for me here just to return the key to me?"

Walter: "...Who said I was waiting for you here?"

Stella: "No? Then why did you happen to be here when I came over?"

"Heh." Walter sneered, taunting her: "I just want to see what other means you have as a woman. Now it seems that you are not only more mindful, but also very affectionate."

The way he said these words seemed to be back five years ago...

At that time, she had just married into Ye's house, and Walter had just learned that she was a divorced woman, and when she was married on her behalf, his attitude towards her was so bad.

The appearance of Walter now overlapped with that of five years ago.

She realized in a daze that...Five years have passed, Walter is still Walter, his original temperament has not changed at all, but...then he changed it for himself.

For a while, Stella looked at him with emotion.

Because the two were close, Walter naturally saw the emotions in her eyes. At this moment, he saw her looking at him with great emotion, thinking that she was moved by the key, and feeling affectionately that he was deliberately here is the key for her.

Immediately, his face became cold, and his tone was a bit disdainful.

“I advise you to dispel those false thoughts as soon as possible. Once you get the key, you can leave.”

After speaking, Walter turned around and walked away.

Stella stood there, looking at his leaving back, slowly lowered her head to look at the key.

The key should have been held by him for a long time, so there is still the temperature of his palm on it, warm...

Stella lowered her head and rubbed the key with her cheek.

That's nice.

His body temperature... is real.

The news of Walter's presence at Yuchi's house was not transmitted back to China.

However, the news of Stella's sudden application for leave caused shock to the people in the company. Since she replaced Walter as the vice president of the Ye Group, she has been very busy every day. The company's affairs include many things because of Walter. She worked overtime to deal with the cancelled contract and everything.

Not a day is late, and always arrive early to the company.

But now, she actually asked for leave.

Everyone was a little surprised, guessing her behavior.

Victor Han and Su Jiu did a good job of secretive work. They didn't let people know about her going abroad. They only said that she had been taking care of the company's affairs for more than a month, and because there had been no news about Walter, they were exhausted. Can't support it, it takes a long time to rest.

Everyone thinks that she has indeed made a lot of contributions to the company during this period. Walter is not there. She takes care of so many things as a woman, and she really needs more rest.

As for the return date, it is uncertain.

Everyone sighed again.

But there is only one person who knows the truth, and that is Old Chen who has been caring for Stella during this period of time.

When she joined the company, Lao Chen always stood by her to support her, and later helped her through many difficulties, so Victor Han and Su Jiu found him the first time and told him about this.

Old Chen knew the news that Walter was still alive, so he almost burst into tears, stroking his beard, and bitterly said: "I knew that this stinky boy was dead. He used to anger me so easily, how could he die so easily? Oh? Hey, Stella is so blessed that she actually made him wait. Then...what is the situation with that stinky boy Walter now? Since everyone has been found, why not bring it back?"

Su Jiu smiled slightly and said, "Uncle Chen, this matter is difficult to explain clearly. It's a good thing not to stay alive and stay alive. As for other things, Mr. Walter...seems to have amnesia and can't remember everything before."

Old Chen's eyes widened in an instant, "What are you talking about? The brat has amnesia?"

Thinking of something, Old Chen suddenly said, "Isn't Stella..."

"Yeah." Su Jiu nodded: "Miss Stella stayed over there, saying that she must bring Mr. Walter back. Before she brings Mr. Walter back, many things in the company will be handled by Uncle Chen."

What this said, Lao Chen had a sense of justice and immediately patted his chest and nodded, "You can rest assured that this matter, since she has already decided, then I will take good care of the company during this period of time and prevent those with bad thoughts. People can take advantage of it."

His appearance really made Su Jiu amused.

"Uncle Chen, you are so interesting."

Victor Han also pursed his lips and smiled faintly: "No wonder Stella always praises Uncle Chen in front of my old brother. This time... Stella also told us in advance, only told Uncle Chen. A person."

When Old Chen heard that Walter was the only one who knew about Walter's affairs, his sense of mission became stronger and he was so touched that he almost shed tears on the spot, "Don't worry, I will always be with her Stella in the company. I won't betray her trust in me. Alas, it feels good to be trusted after living for most of my life."

When Walter was still in charge before, although he often refuted himself, but...many times he said that Walter, this stinky kid, would still implement it silently.

Now that the couple trust themselves so much, are they really moved?

Chapter 758

It took Stella a few days to clean up her house properly.

Although she checked in with a bag, there are many things in it that are not her favorite style, so Stella has changed the style of the bed to her favorite these days.

Although the house is not as spacious as the apartment in the country, it is worse than the light, direct sunlight comes in every day, and the area is not too noisy. There are supermarkets and all kinds of shops for daily needs not far downstairs.

She is still waiting for news from the Yuchi Group.

After returning from applying for the job that day, two days have passed, but she has not received a notice to let herself go to work.

Stella is a little worried, but worrying about it all the time is not a solution. She is thinking...If she is not qualified to be a secretary assistant, maybe...she can step back and start slowly from the bottom?

Think of it as starting to develop again, starting from the most ordinary employees.

Ordinary employee, she is always qualified, right?

As for other things, just wait for the Yuchi Group to figure out a solution.

She planned it this way.

On the third day, Stella finally received a call from the Yuchi Group, informing her that she had interviewed and will report on time at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

When she heard the news, Stella felt that her heartbeat had missed half a beat, and she did not react for a long time.

“Hey, can you hear me?”

The female voice on the other end did not hear the response here, so she asked.

Stella recovered and nodded immediately.

“You can hear it, thank you. Will you report it tomorrow morning?”

“Yes, congratulations. It’s your first interview in these days.”

Stella lifted her lips and said thank you seriously.

After hanging up the phone, Stella almost called out with excitement.

But soon, she began to think again. It was obvious that she had met him that day, and he also knew that she was applying for a secretary assistant...

But, he didn’t actually get in the middle? Originally, she waited for the news until her heart was cold, and thought that there would be no results today, so she just went to vote for ordinary employees.

Unexpectedly, the news came.

It seems that she believed her own words?

In any case, it is a good thing to join the company.

The next day, Stella went directly to the company to report. When talking to the front desk, the front desk was still very surprised and looked at her sourly.

“You are really lucky. When you came before, I thought you would not have a chance to be selected, just like them. I didn’t expect... You actually succeeded in the interview. Can you tell me how you passed the interview? “

The front desk went gossiping to find Stella. Stella was amused by her appearance, and said lightly: “How do you interview, how I interviewed, at least...how I passed, probably because I was lucky. Right.”

Front desk: “...I didn’t expect you to be rather humble, I thought you were the only one who passed, you would be very proud.”

Suddenly, the front desk felt like she almost knew why Stella passed the interview.

She is different from those who come for the interview.

The breath on her body is very clean, her eyes are the same, she doesn’t smell of perfume, she just wears a light makeup to show respect, and she wears it every day.

Although it is normal for a girl to love beauty, it must be divided into occasions and suitable for what kind of person.

The group of people only wanted to use their beauty to attract Yu Chishen, but they forgot the original purpose. They were here for the interview, and the interviewer was not Yu Chishen.

“Nothing to be proud of, just luck. I’ll go up first.”

After Stella left, the girl at the front desk was too sour, and there was a smell of lemon when she spoke.

“Why is she so fate? How many people I have seen failed the interview, and she actually passed it in one shot? And...they don’t look very good, what’s the idea above?”

Hearing, she replied: “People are here for work, not for beauty pageants. Why do you want to look so good? Do you choose Miss World? Besides, I think... she is good looking, but not that kind. It’s a very bright type, but it definitely looks very comfortable!”

Because of the lessons learned a few days ago, Stella didn’t dare to take the president’s special elevator this time, and obediently followed everyone in waiting for the employees’ elevator.

Big companies are big companies, and there are really many people. When Stella arrived at the elevator entrance, she saw a lot of people waiting there.

Everyone looked busy, some even tilted their heads to make a phone call while buttoning their clothes.

Some hands even carry breakfast, and some even touch up makeup with powder.

This is actually quite common. For living in a fast-paced city, the subway or bus in the morning is already overwhelmed. It’s natural to be close to work, but if you’re far away, you have to get up early and catch the subway to catch the bus. In order not to be late and sleep a few more minutes, many people eat breakfast on the road.

The normal state of young people.

Stella smiled, how long has she not worked like this?

Fortunately, the house she rented is relatively close here, whether it is on foot or by subway.

“Stella?”

Someone behind her surprised called her name.

Stella turned her head and unexpectedly found Luo Li's figure.

Ok?

Why is she here?

Luo Li walked up with a surprised look, her white little face filled with joy: “It's really you, I thought I had seen it. I didn't expect you to pass the interview, congratulations~”

Stella was a little curious, and passed the interview by herself, what about her? Why is she here? Could it be because she also passed the interview? Secretary to help ideal find two people?

Luo Li approached her with a smile, “Are you wondering why I am here?”

Stella nodded.

“Actually, when I saw you go in for ten minutes that day, I thought I was going to be cold, but I was anxious to find a job, so I went to apply for an ordinary employee.” Luo Li explained.

It turned out that Stella suddenly realized that Luo Li would actually be the same as she thought.

If you can't be an assistant secretary, you can just be an ordinary employee. Anyway, you have to stay in the company.

Because she wanted something, could she ask Luo Li too?

Luo Li's smile looked very shy: “Anyway, even if the Yuchi Group is an ordinary employee, the salary is much higher than that of outsiders. I now...need too much money, so...that's all. It doesn't matter. , If I start from the bottom, I can learn more.”

Unexpectedly, this girl is actually quite optimistic and cheerful, Stella finally looked at her seriously, and finally reached out to her and smiled slightly, “Then I also want to congratulate you, congratulations on your official entry.”

Luo Li saw her proactively stretched out hand and was flattered: “You...”

Chapter 759

Luo Li was not indifferent to Stella's indifference and unfamiliarity before, so now she took the initiative to reach out to her, Luo Li felt...she should have accepted herself.

“Huh? Is it because we are not in a competitive relationship that you accept knowing me?”

Hearing that, Stella is also thinking about this issue. If the two were in a competitive relationship before, she has no reason not to accept knowing her.

However, Luo Li's enthusiasm made her feel a little scared.

After experiencing Karla's affairs, she feels... it is already difficult for her to know a stranger and believe in a stranger.

Especially, it appears at such a critical moment.

"I don't know if I will be discovered by others when I go abroad. What if... she is the identity arranged by others?"

Seeing that she didn't answer, Luo Li didn't force her, and smiled: "It doesn't matter, even for this reason, I won't be unhappy. You don't know, I have been working abroad for a long time, but...no one wants to Take care of me, maybe because I am not as good as others, but... when I was talking to you that day, you took care of me, so I think you are a good person."

Stella: "?"

Just because she took care of her, did Luo Li think she was a good person?

This little girl is too simple.

"Anyway, thank you, the elevator is coming, let's go."

The two entered the elevator. By coincidence, when Stella and Luo Li entered, the elevator rang again. The two were taken aback, then glanced at each other, and laughed together two seconds later.

The two of them laughed while riding the elevator up and down, no matter how the people inside looked at them with neurotic eyes, they kept laughing.

For a while, the two men stopped smiling.

At this moment, the relationship between the two... seemed to be much closer.

But this time, the two of them didn't try to take another elevator, but waited in place. When the elevator went down again, the two got on the elevator.

There was no one in the elevator this time. Luo Li asked her after pressing her own floor, and then asked, "Did you go straight to work after a while?"

Stella nodded, "Probably so."

Luo Li looked at her with an envious expression, "It's so good, I saw you go for an interview for so long before, I knew you would definitely get this position."

If it hadn't been because she had been inside for ten minutes, perhaps Luo Li might not have retreated to find another position.

After all, for her, the position of assistant secretary is naturally better than that of ordinary staff, and the salary is always higher.

What she needs most now is money.

But... her ability is not as high as others, so naturally she has to bow her head and admit defeat.

Stella didn't answer her very much, and smiled slightly. Soon, Luo Li's floor arrived. After saying goodbye to Stella, she left, and Stella went to report directly.

"Hello, I'm here to report, assistant secretary."

The other party glanced at her lazily, and pointed in a direction: “The secretary’s office over there.”

Stella looked in the direction pointed by her hand, and just saw the secretary’s room, so he thanked the person and walked forward.

The man looked at her back and looked up, then sat back.

When she reached the secretary’s office, Stella reached out and knocked on the door, and a middle-aged woman’s voice came from inside.

“Come in.”

Stella opened the door and walked in. As expected, she saw one of the interviewers sitting in front of the desk.

The older woman, her body is already a little blessed, dressed in a well-dressed woman, wearing glasses, she looked like a mother.

Stella stepped forward to greet her proactively, “Hello.”

The woman also looked at her and smiled, “You are here, come and sit here.”

Stella walked over and sat down on the sofa opposite her, and then handed over a contract to the convenience, “Look at this contract, you will have three months of internship next, but if you do not perform well in real time, If you do, then your salary will be calculated based on the salary of an ordinary employee. But if your performance is excellent and you are officially converted after three months, then the three-month salary will be calculated according to the salary of a regular employee.”

There is no problem with these, Stella nodded.

The woman looked at her amusedly: “Do you have any other questions?”

Stella shook her head, and just wanted to say no, but again felt...if she didn't ask, it seemed too bad.

She came here to work, but she must not let others see that she was here for Walter, otherwise... Then she left without even the internship period, then her efforts were wasted.

Although she had prepared for a long-term war of resistance before, but... now that she heard about it for three months, Stella was still a little worried.

She has been pregnant for more than two months, and after three months...her belly will not show up.

By the time...

Thinking of this, Stella's eyebrows frowned.

The woman on the other side frowned when she saw her, and asked, “It seems you should have a question for me.”

Hearing her voice, Stella immediately recovered and nodded, “Well, I want to ask, about this salary, will it be paid out every month before becoming a full member?” After finishing, Stella was still shy. Smiled shyly: “I'm renting a house here, so...”

“Haha, I know you want to ask this question. Don't worry, the salary will be paid normally. If you can officially become a regular member, then you will be officially filled in the first month. Isn't it a pleasant surprise?”

Stella could only show a surprised expression, echoing: “Your company's welfare is really great, no wonder there are so many people who come to apply.”

Hearing, the expression on the woman's face was a bit surprised, and then she shook her head: "Do you think they are here for the welfare of the company?"

Of course Stella knew it was not. Those people were all coming for her Walter.

It's just... Of course she can't say that now, she can only nod.

"Then you are wrong. Although the welfare of the Yuchi Group is good, it is not at the level of overcrowding. No, it should be said that there is no such horrible power. After all... job applicants have different goals, but they are similar. But those little girls who came to interview recently all have the same purpose."

"Same purpose?"

The woman smiled mysteriously, instead of answering her question directly, she stood up and said, "You will know later. By the way, if there is no problem, you can sign this contract. The next three You have to work hard in the next few months, you can call me sister Lin later."

Stella looked at the contract carefully for a while, and after confirming that there was no problem, she signed her name on it and handed it over.

"Thank you Sister Lin, I will ask you for more advice in the days to come."

Chapter 760

Assistant to the secretary.

It sounds like a high-level position, but to put it bluntly, it is to help the secretary to do errands.

The secretary is suffering for the president. When the secretary assistant is here, it will be even harder.

For example, on the first day of work, Stella ran up and down, receiving instructions from Sister Lin. Anyway, for three hours a morning, Stella was not in the secretary's office for two and a half hours. Run there, send information everywhere.

Big group...

The workload is different.

After finally waiting for her to have the time to sit down, Sister Lin took another very thick material to let her get familiar with the environment.

Stella sat on the sofa, flipping through the information and looking at it silently.

When she sent the materials in the morning, because she was not familiar with it, she ran to the wrong place. If she had to send it like this every day in the future, when she was familiar, her workload should be reduced.

Only...

Stella flipped through the information and frowned her eyebrows. According to what she did in her position, it seemed... there was no chance to get close to Walter.

Well.

Thinking of the meeting at the elevator entrance three days ago, Stella began to think again.

At that time, she had clearly revealed to him that she had come to apply for a secretary assistant, but he did not order her not to come to the company.

How is this going?

Did he deliberately release water to her? Or... he doesn't care about this at all?

After thinking about it, Stella felt that the latter was more likely.

After all, her position is not a threat to Walter at all, because she can't even see it at all.

The only one who could see Walter was the secretary, Lin Lin. She was regarded as the middleman between her and the employees below, taking everything down, and then sorting out and reporting to Walter.

As for Walter's news, it was also conveyed by Sister Lin.

Thinking about it this way, she really has no chance to approach Walter in the future.

If there is no chance to get close to him, how can she stimulate him to restore his memory?

Suddenly, Stella's expression became very upset.

"It's time for dinner, don't you go to eat?"

Suddenly, a question came from the top of her head, and Stella raised her head and let out a cry, but saw sister Lin standing in front of her.

She seems to have packed up, and is carrying the key.

“Sister Lin?”

“It’s time to order.”

Stella came back to her senses and glanced down at the time on the watch. It was really time for get off work.

“Oh, you are really attentive. There is no complaint. You are tired after running all morning? Hurry up and take a rest, and then go to dinner.”

“Thank you Sister Lin.”

Stella closed the book now. Sister Lin was not eating at the company, because she had to go home to cook for her children and would not go to work until one noon.

There was only one person back for Stella, and she was too lazy to run back and forth, so she planned to go directly to the cafeteria to eat.

As soon as she reached the elevator entrance, she ran into a familiar person.

“Luo Li?”

“Stella?” Luo Li saw her and walked over with a look of surprise: “I finally waited for you, let’s go, let’s go to the cafeteria for dinner.”

Stella: “Are you waiting for me?”

“Yeah, I was wondering if I could come and try my luck, but I didn’t expect to actually meet you.”

Stella: “...”

Come to my floor to wait for me, can you not meet me? But seeing that she was really short of people to accompany her, Stella said, "Let's go, go down for dinner."

"Hmm, I know where the cafeteria is, I will take you there."

The two got into the elevator. After Luo Li pressed a floor button, she asked her one after another: "Is the secretary assistant's work tired? Is it difficult for the secretary sister to get along? I heard that among the interviewers that day One is the secretary, isn't it?"

Luo Li kept asking questions like a curious baby.

"Well, the older one is."

"Eh, I guess I was right, then... the young..."

"Right." Stella interrupted her and smiled slightly: "Why did you think of coming up to me?"

Luo Li seemed a little embarrassed and bit her lower lip: "I...I don't dare to go to the cafeteria to eat alone. There are too many people there, so I'm the only one who is Chinese. Or I will come to you. Let's go together."

Hearing, Stella slightly raised her eyebrows, Luo Li's behavior was really strange.

"Have you never worked before?"

"Worked." Luo Li nodded, seeing her frowning eyebrows, thinking she was disgusting herself, and anxiously explained: "Don't get me wrong, I don't mean to hold my thighs. I have worked before, but It's in China. This is my first time going abroad. I... my English is not that good, and I think these foreigners are so fierce and not easy to get along with."

It turned out to be so.

No wonder she always wanted to hug her.

Soon, the elevator arrived and Stella walked out as soon as the door opened, while Luo Li followed her a little nervously, looking around in anxiety, making people want to laugh.

In the end, Stella still showed compassion and took her to dinner. When the two finally found a place to sit down, Luo Li gratefully said: "Thank you Stella, I don't even know I'm going to spend time without you. how long."

Stella also noticed that she was not modest, and her English was indeed not very good, because when ordering the dishes, Luo Li actually said several dish names incorrectly and she stammered.

It's hard to imagine that with this kind of English, she would dare to work abroad alone.

"How did you...how did you think of working abroad?"

Luo Li picked up a green vegetable and put it in her mouth, "You must think that my English is not good, but why did you want to work abroad? Actually...for this reason, I want to exercise myself, or else, my family Always laugh at me, I want to prove myself!"

It turned out to be the one who came here to study, and should still run out of anger, without money at all.

The little girl now, Stella smiled, took a sip of the soup, and did not answer her again.

When Stella was eating, she kept thinking about Walter.

As long as she is free now, her mind is full of how to stimulate Walter to restore her memory sooner.

After eating a meal like this, Luo Li also suggested to go downstairs and look around with her after the meal, anyway, there is still time.

But after running for a morning, Stella was already tired, thinking that there was a sofa in the secretary's room, she wanted to go there to rest, so she refused Luo Li.

After arriving in the secretary room, Stella sat on the sofa, took off her shoes and curled up, rubbing her calf with her hands.

It's been a long time since she ran so non-stop, my calf was sore.

While rubbing, the phone in the secretary's room suddenly rang.

Stella froze for a moment, then got up to answer the phone.

There was a cold male voice on the phone.

“Bring in a cup of coffee.”
