

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 76

Anna Yun bent over and leaned against the bed, her back completely blocked Zoey Gu's vision.

She couldn't see Alina Yin on the hospital bed, but could only hear Anna Yun's extremely gentle voice to the child.

"Alina Yin, do you know you are going to scare Auntie to death?"

"Do you feel any pain? Auntie will call the doctor and nurse over now, okay?"

"Guy Alina Yin, Aunt Yun is here, Aunt Yun will always be with you."

The steps that Zoey Gu lifted stopped in place, there was a moment of silence, and then gently retracted.

Why did she forget?

Even if she and Alina Yin are predestined, she is no less worried than Anna Yun. But Anna Yun is the one who will be Alina Yin's true mother in the future.

Here is their family of three.

And she was so redundant that she didn't even have the qualification to stop for a moment.

She glanced deeply into the ward, turned around and stumbled all the way out of the ward, and ran to the elevator not far away.

Inside the ward.

After Alina Yin woke up, the doctor came to see her for the first time, and she was out of danger. Then, she only needs to be treated in the hospital to recover.

But since waking up, the little girl has been staring at the direction of the ward first, and has been looking intently. Finally, I didn't know what was going on, and suddenly started crying without warning.

Anna Yun coaxed for a long time to no avail, so he had no choice but to look at Liam Lu.

"Liam, look at Alina Yin..."

Liam Lu had been sitting next to her daughter's bed, watching her crying silently for a long time, and then following her gaze towards the empty door, a dim light flashed in her black eyes.

For a moment, he turned his head to look at Anna Yun, and whispered.

"In the Yushifang in the south of the city, there are Alina Yin's favorite foods. You drive to buy them yourself."

Anna Yun just wanted to open his mouth and say something, looked down at Alina Yin who couldn't coax no matter how bad, nodded and got up and stood up.

"Well, I'll be back when I go."

Watching Anna Yun leave, Liam Lu looked down at his daughter for a moment, held her hand gently, and asked.

"Alina Yin has something to tell her father, but she doesn't want Aunt Yun to know, right?"

The little girl's head was wrapped in thick gauze, her face was pale and she looked very pitiful. She opened her mouth, but only called one person's name.

"Pretty auntie, Gu..."

Don't guess, you also know that she is talking about Zoey Gu.

Hearing this, Liam Lu's eyes suddenly became a little cold, and he asked in a deep voice, "Tell my father, is she the one who brought you back to the garden?"

"Do not..."

After waking up after a disaster, the little girl was extremely weak, and she was struggling to speak, "Alina Yin herself..."

It seemed that the explanation that was too long was too laborious, so she opened her mouth wide and said "Ahhhhh" to Liam Lu twice.

Liam Lu understood, and took possession of her and sniffed the line of her daughter's lips.

Although time has passed for a long time, there still seems to be a faint smell of cake in the little girl's mouth.

cake?

Liam Lu raised his eyes suddenly, his complexion changed, and his mind suddenly seemed to be filled with thousands of thoughts.

He suddenly remembered.

Yesterday was the birthday of her daughter Alina Yin.

Even more... Zoey Gu's birthday.

For a moment, Liam Lu's heart was hit hard, he fixedly raised his eyes to Alina Yin, and asked in a dumb voice.

“So, this matter has nothing to do with Zoey Gu. It's because Dad forgot your birthday and Alina Yin was angry and ran out of the house, right?”
