

Super Rich Dad Chapter 771-773

Chapter 771

As she said this, Sally took out the booklet of the auction and looked at it with a somewhat disdainful expression.

‘Nominally a charity auction, so this time took out a lot of good things for people to see, this is also a kind of high class people show off their wealth law.’

Looking at the watch, Sally seemed to fancy a watch, excitedly pointed to Jiang Hao said ‘Look, this watch looks like quite good.’

Jiang Hao just glanced at a series of zeroes to amaze, a ten-year-old watch to seven figures!

Look at Sally as if a treasure look, Jiang Hao rolled his eyes helplessly said ‘forget it, ten years ago, but also sold for seven figures, used and sold so expensive, how he did not go to rob!’

Sally some helpless look to Jiang Hao, although the intelligence said Jiang Hao is the only bloodline left in the Shen clan, but at this time how Jiang Hao does not look like the Shen family people.

When the Shen clan can run rampant is not without reason, they are not only each person is a dragon and a phoenix, but also contains a mysterious power.

This point Sally has seen in Jiang Hao’s body, randomly did not suspect, but Jiang Hao’s taste is to let Sally some helpless.

After the two held the booklet for a while, Jiang Hao looked at the booklet on the Shen family’s piece of dragon and phoenix jade pendant smiled sorrowfully.

‘Do you think if I offer to buy the Shen family’s dragon and phoenix jade pendant, will the Shen family grab it from me?’

After saying this, Jiang Hao face look somewhat sympathetic look at Sally smiled ‘Or, tonight I will disgust a Shen Qing Shu that kid?’

Sally looked at Jiang Hao’s eyes, intuition tells her that Jiang Hao seems to have known something, otherwise it would not be so eager to make a move on the Shen family.

Half a long time of silence, she slightly hesitant to look at Jiang Hao said ‘Shen Yan, you have to know what the occasion is here, if you make a move this time, you are officially on the opposite side of the Shen family!’

Then Sally continued ‘I advise you better give up.’

Jiang Hao looked at Sally's eyes, she looked as if she really wanted to persuade himself to let go of hatred, but this is also his responsibility, where can say let go.

So he smiled and did not say anything else, but quietly watched the performance on the stage.

After almost half an hour, a man in a tuxedo walked onto the stage, and then looked at the celebrities from all walks of life and smiled, 'Welcome to Half Wall Villa!'

Looking at the crowd on stage stopped talking to look at themselves, the host smiled and then said haughtily 'I believe you all know what the theme of this evening is, so, please take your seats.'

During the conversation, a staff member soon came up to clean up the hall and send up a sofa.

The preparations for the auction were soon ready, and the first thing that came on was a blue and white porcelain, which was taken out by Chen Jingdao.

Since he handed over the company to Ning Kun, the whole person seemed to have completely given up fighting for profit and spent all day eating, drinking and playing.

But in order to hold on to his existing interests, Chen Jingdao still occasionally had to stand out to maintain his presence, and this was the case tonight.

The host looked at the blue and white porcelain vase carried up by the staff and smiled before speaking; 'First of all, Chen Jingdao's large blue and white porcelain vase, more than 300 years ago, with a deep history, the starting price of three million.'

Soon there was a bid on the stage, 'Five million, my company has always admired Mr. Chen Jingdao, I hope that you will not forget to come when you have free time.'

Sitting in the VIP room, Chen Jingdao smiled and nodded to the one who bid below, then walked to the window and opened it to look at the other party and smiled.

The other party looked to Chen Jingdao old gentleman actually personally open the window to see himself, excited face are flushed.

Perhaps it was because Jiang Hao started out befriending all the top people, so he simply did not understand that those people who looked very ordinary in his eyes meant something to others.

After a period of silence, just a few seconds later, someone soon came forward and said, 'Five million to invite Master Chen to dinner, you are too much to look down on Master Chen, I bid six million!'

A vase on the stage may not be worth so much money, at most four million capped, but the opportunity to invite Chen Jingdao to a meal is rare.

To put it bluntly, do not see Chen Jingdao now basically do not care about the company's affairs, but as long as he said a word, the new Cheng Group is still his.

Although Ning Kun is now the president of the New Cheng Group, but everyone knows that the group's people are all Chen Jingdao's loyalty.

Jiang Hao looked at the stage a group of people to eat with a bad old man and spend so much money, could not help but rolled his eyes some helplessly said 'this group of people are not afraid of crazy it.'

Sally faintly glanced at Jiang Hao, saw that he did not understand the twists and turns, so lightly laughed and said 'you do not understand, Master Chen is now very popular.'

Since Jiang Hao had heard of Chen Jingdao, many people were talking about how benevolent Chen Jingdao was back then, but never heard of it.

At this moment, looking at Sally's face, there was actually some admiration, so he wondered and said, 'Then what exactly did Old Master Chen do that made so many people look up to him?'

'Back then, Mr. Chen was just an apprentice, but his master died because of an accident, leaving only the orphan and the widow.'

Speaking here, Sally sighed slightly, then continued to speak 'many apprentices left at that time, only Chen Jingdao old gentleman hard kneeling in front of his master mother.'

Jiang Hao heard these words after a moment of silence, and then with a question spoke 'he raised the mother and his master's son?'

Sally looked at Jiang Hao smiled and nodded 'Yes, and a raised is raised for thirty years, and now his master's child in the new city group investment department, called Ran Sheng.'

Jiang Hao listened to the silence for a long time, a day as a teacher for life as a father such words although it is very simple to say, but to really do words in this world and how many people can do?

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao looked at the box opposite them silent for a while, some helpless sigh said 'only a pity, raised an untalented son ah.'

Sally naturally also nodded along, when the old Mr. Chen benevolent name of local no one knows, but is all corrupted in the body of Chen Minggang.

If not for the face of the old man Chen, Chen Minggang acted like that, has long been suppressed to lift up the head.

Thinking of this, Sally also some sighs spoke 'is also the old man Chen years ago accumulated contacts, otherwise, even if we do not make a move, Chen Minggang will not live much better.'

The crowd on the stage seemed to be corroborating Sally's words, and many people in the North Mansion had a blind worship mentality for Elder Chen Jingdao.

They may fear the Shen family, but in their eyes, the admiration for Chen Jing Dao was all too evident to be true.

Soon, one of Chen Jingdao's blue and white porcelain vases was sold for nearly seven million dollars, a price that had long exceeded the value of the vase itself.

Jiang Hao looked at those people tsk tsk and shook his head, it looks like the people below the room although they say it is a small family, but people this outlay is not just a simple ah of grandeur.

Just to have a meal with Chen Jingdao, but spent nearly three million!

Sally was playing with her nails while looking at the stage below the room with some boredom, and soon the second auction item was carried up.

Jiang Hao looked at the thing on the stage, a flash of strange color in his eyes, this thing is an iron, but Jiang Hao just a glance to know that this thing is definitely the Shang Dynasty!

Such a valuable thing should have been in the heritage museum long ago, why can still see in this place?

'Guests, the next thing is the Hu family's auction items, the specific time has been unable to examine, the starting price of 500,000! Have a look at the people who should bid when the hand ah!'

Sally heard these words eyes flashed a trace of disdain and said 'Hu family? Ch, this is a cheeky family.'

Jiang Hao at this time also like to sit with Sally a bit, although Sally generally will not speak, but every family seems to have some secret news she knows.

These news seem to come to seem not much use, but are Jiang Hao anxiously need the news.

So he looked at Sally and asked with interest 'What is the situation of this Hu family, how does it look as if you do not see them as well?'

Sally listened to a red face, to say that the Hu family's family that is not small, but the way they do things is really a little disgraceful.

Although the mall like a battlefield, but such as the Hu family what what means can be used, without a little bottom line of people, which who also despise them.

Jiang Hao saw Sally silent down and did not say, so the heart slightly anxious, pestered Sally is really no way after.

She had to some helplessly said 'more I do not talk to you, just tell you one thing, before Jincheng planning a large piece of land this thing you may not know.'

Jiang Hao nodded slightly and then said 'Well, and then?'

'And then this Hu family in order to get this piece of land, the second Hu family actually let his wife accompany the rival for one night!'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally, his eyes could not help but stare at the man sitting in the crowd on the stage from time to time to get close to people.

He pointed at the other side and said, 'You said Hu Lao Er, not, not that, I see his side of the people seem to dislike him.'

Sally looked over in the direction Jiang Hao pointed, and nodded after a red face, 'Yes, it's that dwarf, only 6 meters tall, but the hands are vicious!'

Jiang Hao looked at the crowd of Hu Lao Er slightly silent, and then softly said 'it seems that this person not only has no rules bottom line, I'm afraid that the eyes will only look at the interests, right?'

Sally nodded slightly, then looked at Jiang Hao thoughtful look and asked 'What, you want to go with him?'

To be honest Jiang Hao heart does have this intention, such a person as long as used well, it is definitely a sharp edge.

Hu Lao Er, although this person looks unattractive, but can make Sally are a little scare of people not many.

Even the Shen family Shen Wennian Sally did not put in the eyes, which makes Jiang Hao on this Hu Lao Er interested.

Sally see can not persuade down Jiang Hao, had to sigh, and then pressed a red button on the side of the sofa.

The host was surprised to see Sally's box flashing its lights and said, 'The third VIP box bid 500,000, anyone else want it? Anyone else?'

The crowd on stage did not want to talk to Hu Lao Er because of his personality, plus the iron did not look like anything good.

The rusty appearance does look a bit old, but thinking of Hu Lao Er's person, if it was something good how could it be taken out to others to see it.

So there were not many people competing with Jiang Hao on stage, but just when the host was about to contain the third voice.

A male voice suddenly rang out from the crowd, 'I'll give another million.'

His tone was plain, but the crowd couldn't help but cast their eyes over, simply because this man turned out to be Shen Qingshu!

Many people saw that Shen Qingshu had made a bid, and they were all a bit confused.

If put in the usual words, Shen Qingshu such a pride of heaven must be eager to clear the line with Hu Lao Er, but today is strange.

Some thoughtful people took a look at Hu Lao Er's expression at this time and saw that he had a surprised look on his face, seemingly not expecting that Shen Qing Shu would bid for the show.

Hu Lao Er just froze for a moment, Shen Qing Shu even smiled at Hu Lao Er and said 'Mr. Hu, let's play golf together sometime, there is a good place in the South Mountain.'

Hearing this, Hu Lao Er's heart but a trace of caution, to Shen Qing Shu reserved a smile and nodded as a reply.

Sally is also a bit confused, looking at Shen Qingshu bid just lightly laughed and said 'Yo, now really wolves and tigers go a piece, just as I do not want that sh*t.'

Jiang Hao silent look to the iron on the stage, intuition tells him that at this time it is best not to add too much at once, or Shen Qingshu afraid that he will directly press down.

People on and off the stage did not see that this is an antique of the Shang Dynasty, not to mention 500,000, even 50 million may not be able to buy!

Looking at Sally does not intend to bid, Jiang Hao heart anxious, then directly spoke 'people are bad, but things are not bad ah, this is the Shang Dynasty antiques ah!'

Sally sniffed and looked at Jiang Hao froze 'Are you sure this is an antique from the Shang Dynasty?'

Jiang Hao nodded frantically and looked back at the ironware on the stage and said in a deep voice, 'It's true, it's a double-eared iron horn cup from the Shang Dynasty, not to mention 500,000, even 50 million can't buy the thing, if you don't bid on it is no brain!'

Sally heard a moment of contemplation, directly called the old black in, and then let him go down no matter what to buy the bottle.

Old black nodded at the words, then walked down the booth and sat in the hall and raised his hand and said 'I bid three million.'

When the old black bid the moment, Shen Qingshu's heart is a sinking, the reason he wants to shoot this iron is not really fancy.

But just want to take this opportunity to play with the Hu family's second relationship, and then use each other in Jincheng's power to do something.

Chapter 773

But now Sally's people came forward to ask for this bottle, then the matter is a bit troublesome.

Slightly silent for a moment, Shen Qing Shu's face suddenly stretched out, as if he had thought through something, and without hesitation, he spoke; 'Five million.'

In the face of such a price, even the host on stage was a bit confused.

Such an unattractive broken ironware is worth five million? This is a joke to him, right?

He was not the only one who was also a bit confused, many people on stage were also a bit confused at this time, and seemed to not recognize Hu Lao Er.

He is such a person, but there are still people who pay such a large price to support him, it is like seeing a ghost!

Sitting in the middle of the hall old black did not even hesitate, after Shen Qingshu said the number five million, he directly said a six million!

Shen Qingshu is not like Old Black, Old Black just needs to get a word, as long as Sally wants it, he only needs to be responsible for shouting prices.

But Shen Qingshu has to consider the cost and so on, he does not mind spending a few hundred thousand of small money to invite Hu Lao Er to eat a meal, but very much mind spending such a large price!

But Tianzhu Villa's Sally also has no reason to think so highly of Hu Lao Er ah, slightly puzzled pondering for a moment, Shen Qingshu tentatively shouted again 'seven million!'

The result is that the old black is still directly back to the mouth of an eight million, the number is not at all 500,000 500,000 up, but a million million million up!

This makes the stage crowd confused at the same time, but also deeply stimulated Hu Lao Er!

At this moment, Hu Lao Er's heart suddenly rose a trace of regret, he is not like Shen Qing Shu will think of this and that.

He is a kind of person only he knows best, Hu Lao Er also knows what kind of reputation he has.

The first thing you can do is to ask for a meal with Shen Qingshu, after all, the Shen family in the North is not so expensive, after the Lin family, the Shen family is not like before.

But the Tianzhu Villa, not to mention Hu Lao Er, even Shen Wennian has not had the opportunity to go in, it makes no sense that he can go in!

Then the only reason that can explain the other side of this bid is only one, that is, this thing is really worth a lot of money!

Thinking of this, Hu Lao Er is already regretting his intestines!

At first, Hu Lao Er just to participate in this auction, and then make friends with the North House celebrities, to see if there are any opportunities to get rich.

Hu Lao Er nearly forty years old has seen some people, seen some things, living up to now he only cares about the interests!

People who do not give him benefits are like non-existent people, he will not waste time to befriend others, but there may give him the benefits of people, Hu Lao Er will find ways to set up relations.

Like today's big scene, he naturally will not be absent, so choose this is not known what is an iron throw over, as a ticket.

Originally this ironware is just he spent tens of thousands of dollars to collect it, when someone said it was their family heirloom.

But Hu Lao Er found a lot of experts also did not see a what, this time it looks like someone should see something!

Thinking of this, he looked up at Sally's box, his heart secretly pondered for a moment.

The other party must not be an ordinary person with such an eye, since it is better to sell the other party a face.

'Two people don't argue, I Hu someone has the honor to participate in today's party, I hope the third VIP can give face to have a drink with me Hu Lao Er how?'

After saying this, Hu Lao Er turned his head to look at Shen Qing Shu and smiled 'Shen Gongzi also gave me Hu someone face, and later, I will definitely accompany Shen Gongzi to have fun!'

Old Black looked at Hu Lao Er with a flat face, nodded after a moment of silence and got up to leave, taking the ironware on the stage with him before he left.

Shen Qingshu's intention was only to find an opportunity to get along with Hu Lao Er, and the reason why he bid at the auction was indeed as others thought, just to hold the show.

Since now Hu Lao Er himself promised to come to see himself, and face is also given in place, he naturally did not open his mouth.

Of course, the main reason is that, with the current state of the Shen family, Shen Qingshu really does not want to start another dispute with Sally.

The reason why he invited Sally to this auction was to let outsiders think that he had formed an alliance with Sally, not to let others see that he had a dispute with Sally.

Just when Shen Qingshu side lay down, old black holding the iron in his hand walked to the box and put it down.

Some strange looking at the ironware and said 'this ugly thing is worth seven million?'

Sally hurriedly got up to carefully examine the iron, while looking at the tone of some trembling said 'Shen Yan, you are sure that this thing is the iron of the Shang Dynasty?'

Jiang Hao carefully examined the iron, his expression is also a bit excited said 'found a treasure! Found a treasure! Seven million to earn 50 million, wrestling!'

Sally heard these words at once back to God, and then viciously glared at Jiang Hao said 'yuck, the money is my spending, but the things are mine!'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally a small woman look slightly froze, then cried and laughed at Sally flirted 'then at least have to give me a dividend, I helped you earn such a large amount of money no benefit?'

Sally white glance at Jiang Hao, and then carefully pick up the iron carefully put into the box.

'What do you know, if this thing is really from the Shang and Zhou period, it's a national treasure, how can national treasures be bought and sold privately?'

After saying this, Sally looked at Jiang Hao and laughed 'I'm doing this for your own good, otherwise you're breaking the law, you know?'

Jiang Hao rolled his eyes, to the old black spread his hands some helplessly said 'Come on, look at your old boss, do things dripping, get a bargain and still sell it!'

Although the old black also think so, but touched his nose still did not dare to speak, lowered his head and slinked out.

Sally looked at the back of the old black some smug glance at Jiang Hao, the eyes are quite some smug and provocative.

Jiang Hao sat on the sofa as if not seen, self-conscious to pour himself a glass of wine a sip down as if no one else said 'only small people and women are difficult to raise, the ancients honestly do not deceive me ah!'

Looking at Jiang Hao's strange appearance, Sally finally could not help but giggle out, reached out and patted Jiang Hao's shoulder.

The two looked at each other, and their laughter grew louder and louder.

And the old black outside the door heard the laughter in the room, also followed a faint smile, he can not remember how long Sally has not been so happy.

Just as Old Black followed the happy, suddenly saw a person who made him less happy.

That is, Hu Lao Er was walking up at this time with wine in his hand, and then stood at the corridor somewhat hesitantly sizing up Lao Hei.
