

Chapter 771: Was not the same person

After all, when Lin Shunhe made things difficult for her in the auditorium, Lu Xingzhi's expression could be said to be frighteningly ugly. After the incident, Jiang Yao did not take Lin Shunhe's matter to heart. Speaking of which, sometimes, she was really magnanimous.

However, given Lu Xingzhi's degree of protection for her, she was not surprised that Lu Xingzhi would do something to force Lin Shunhe away in the future.

Now that Lin Shunhe had joined Holy Flag Hospital and Jiang Yao had heard the director's affirmation of his work, she had no intention of getting rid of him.

Firstly, she felt that it was unnecessary. Secondly, she felt that it was fine as long as Lin Shunhe had no problems with his work. In any case, she was fine and did not come to the hospital much. Lin Shunhe had a bad character as long as it did not affect his work.

The hospital director could not see any attitude towards Lin Shunhe from Jiang Yao's face. It was as if she was not happy to see an acquaintance, but she also did not see the disgust of someone she did not like, so she did not continue to ask.

After leaving the hospital, Jiang Yao took Ah Lu and da ke to visit Wu Zhong at Chen Zhibin's home. When she went, Wu Zhong was chatting with Chen Zhibin in the courtyard. It seemed that he had just finished eating and was killing time there, chen Zhibin happened to be on vacation today, so he was also at home.

When they saw Jiang Yao coming, everyone in the courtyard was very surprised, especially mother Chen. She had recovered a lot recently and was in good spirits.

Jiang Yao came over not only to see Wu Zhong's condition, but also to send medicine to Mother Chen. Mother Chen's condition was not suitable for surgery previously. Later, she did not have the time to follow up, so there was a slight delay. Fortunately.., mother Chen's physical fitness was not bad, and her recovery was very good. Therefore, she sent some medicine over to help mother Chen recuperate first. When, she would set a time for mother Chen's leg to be operated on.

"You came alone so late?" Wu zhong scolded Jiang Yao like a big brother. "Although the public security in Nanjiang city has always been very good, it is still not safe for a girl like you to come alone."

"I'm not alone. There are two people standing at the door. They're the bodyguards that Xing Zhi found for me. They'll follow me wherever I go," Jiang Yao explained. Then, she called Ah Lu and Da Ke in to introduce them to Wu Zhong and Chen Zhibin.

After checking Wu Zhong's leg, Jiang Yao was relieved. "Brother Zhong, your leg is recovering well. It Won't be long before you can try walking on the ground."

Jiang Yao was very happy, but she didn't forget to tell him, "However, you still have to take it slow."

"That's not a problem. I still have this bit of patience." Wu Zhong could feel that his leg was much better.

Wu Zhong responded while sizing up Jiang Yao's two bodyguards. The sensitivity of a soldier allowed him to see that these two people were not simple, so he didn't continue to scold Jiang Yao.

After leaving Chen Zhibin's place, Jiang Yao got into a taxi and went back to school. On the way, she called Gu Haoyu and Lu Yuqing to inform them of her return to school.

During this period of time, she took leave very frequently, so if she could go back for two days of classes, she had to try her best to go back for two days of classes. Otherwise, the school would probably go crazy over the news of her taking leave so often.

When Jiang Yao returned to the dormitory, it was not yet time to turn off the lights. However, the weather in Nanjiang city was still cooling down recently, so all the girls in the dormitory had taken a shower early and were chatting under the covers.

Chapter 772: Who's back?

The first person to notice Jiang Yao opening the door and entering was Mo. It recognized the sound of Jiang Yao's footsteps. As soon as it heard that Jiang Yao was back, it quickly jumped from Jiang Yao's bed to the ground and returned to its cat nest.

It had a premonition that if Jiang Yao came in and saw that it had taken over her bed, Jiang Yao, this narrow-minded woman, would beat it up.

"Oh my God! Look! Who's back? Tell me, am I Blind?"

In Jiang Yao's upper bunk, Wen Xuehui's voice was so exaggerated that it sounded like she was in a play. Jiang Yao thought that if this girl hadn't slept in the upper bunk and stood up with her head against the ceiling, she might have even stood up and gestured.

"Go, go, Go!" Jiang Yao shook the supper in her hand. "I went around to pack it for you guys on the way back. Do you want to eat it?"

Zhou Xiaoxia was the first to jump out of the bed. She enthusiastically took the supper from Jiang Yao's hand and asked, "Now that you're back, do you have to go to class tomorrow?"

"For three days." Jiang Yao nodded. "I have a lot of things to do recently, so I might have to ask for leave frequently."

"You still want to ask for Leave?" Wen Xuehui was furious. "You don't know that the school has been guessing why you're asking for leave recently. Some people guessed that you're pregnant, so you take leave twice a day to go for a prenatal checkup. Some people even said that you might have to take a leave of absence from school next semester to have a child."

"Yes, because some people said that they saw you frequently entering and leaving the sacred flag hospital." Chen Siyang nodded and added.

Then, all the girls looked at Jiang Yao's lower abdomen with tacit understanding. Seeing this, Jiang Yao subconsciously reached out to protect her lower abdomen with a face full of fear.

"What kind of Look is this?" It was as if they wanted to see a hole in her stomach.

"Don't tell me it's real?" Wen Xuehui got down from the bed and reached out to touch Jiang Yao's stomach, she mumbled, "However, it feels flat. I really didn't expect there to be a small life inside. Your husband is so handsome and you are so good-looking. Your child must be very beautiful!"

“Go, go, Go! What nonsense!” Jiang Yao didn’t know whether to laugh or cry as she slapped Wen Xuehui’s hand away. “It’s nothing. I’m just busy with some private matters.”

“Because of your frequent requests for leave, our professional professors all went to my dad’s place to protest. But it’s so strange. My dad suppressed your request for leave and said that your situation is different from other students, so he treats you specially. As long as you don’t fail your exams at the end of the semester, it’s fine.” Wen Xuehui was only joking with Jiang Yao, of course, she knew that Jiang Yao wasn’t pregnant. After all, a person who had just finished her period wouldn’t request for leave to go for a prenatal checkup just because she was pregnant.

Jiang Yao smiled and didn’t explain, because even if she did, these girls wouldn’t believe her.

Just like how she had seriously explained that she was a major shareholder of sacred flag hospital the last time, but none of the five people believed her.

Speaking of which, it was really sad, wasn’t it?

After everyone fell asleep at night, Jiang Yao entered the system space again. She went in to check on Chen Feibai’s condition. When she was about to come out, Chen Feibai woke up.

Seeing Jiang Yao, Chen Feibai was quite surprised. He glanced at Jiang Yao but didn’t say anything. Then, he looked around and found that it wasn’t the same ward anymore. He asked, “Where is this?”

“Sacred Flag Hospital.” Jiang Yao lied without blinking. Anyway, the system Butler had said that it didn’t matter even if the patient found out about the system because the patient would forget about it after leaving the system.

Chapter 773: Very interesting, right?

“I’ve been transferred to another hospital?” Chen Feibai had never heard of the sacred flag hospital, so he guessed that it wasn’t the capital. He thought that the old man had found an authoritative hospital specializing in treating burns, so he asked again, “Why are you the one guarding me? Where are the others?”

“I’m your attending Doctor Now. You’re currently prohibited from visiting.” Jiang Yao curved her lips into a smile and put on the posture of a doctor. “How do you feel now? You should be much more comfortable than when you were awake last time, right?”

Chen Feibai finally felt it and nodded. It was indeed so. It seemed that he had changed to a different medicine. His entire body could now feel ice-cold. For him, who was burned, this was a temporary enjoyment, compared to the last time when the medicine was applied on his skin and made him feel uncomfortable, he felt much better.

When Jiang Yao said that she was now his attending physician, Chen Feibai felt that it was not very believable. However, when he saw how serious Jiang Yao was and how she did not seem to be joking, Chen Feibai felt that what she said might be true.

However, it did not matter who was his attending physician now. After all, if he was crippled, so be it. He was just a piece of trash. He could even be used as a test subject for his savior. That was also the use of trash. It was also the only reward he could give to Jiang Yao.

“How long have I been asleep? Has Chen Feitang been eliminated?” Chen Feibai was most concerned about this problem, “After Chen Feitang is eliminated, let her come and see me. Even if I am asleep, she will wake me up. I want to see her disappointed and pained expression at the first moment. She loves Lu Xingzhi so much, but Lu Xingzhi has cut off her path. Isn’t that interesting?”

“The third round of the selection will only start tomorrow. Chen Feibai, thinking too much will not be good for your recovery.” Jiang Yao frowned. Chen Feibai’s current mental state was close to madness. This was not a good sign.

“Not thinking about it will be good for my recovery? Can you make me return to the way I was before?” Chen Feibai asked indifferently, then, he sneered, “Jiang Yao, I, Chen Feibai, will be like this for the rest of my life. I’m just a piece of trash who can only lie on the bed. The funny thing is, I’m clearly so innocent, but in the future, when others see me, they will scold me and say that I deserve it.”

“This matter is indeed unfair to you, but this doesn’t mean that your life is truly over. Regardless of whether you made a mistake or not, no one will forget that you were once a hero fighting against the flood! “Do you know what Lu Xingzhi said to me at that time? “He said that he watched you throw the child to him while you were dragged into the flood. He said that that was the first time he saw the spirit that a soldier should have in you. That was the first time he admitted that you were a qualified soldier. That was why Lu Xingzhi wanted to help you! “Also, let me tell you, after your accident, Jin Mingdong was the first person who wanted to overturn your case. He specially went back to the dormitory to put away the lighter that belonged to you, and later gave it to Lu Xingzhi. So, do you understand? “In the future, if you want to overturn your case, with this lighter and Jin Mingdong as your witness, you can overturn your case at any time!”

Jiang Yao was a little angry, “So many people are still not giving up on your behalf. What right do you have to give up first? “Chen Feitang is now in the limelight. Her limelight is built on your pain. What you need to do is to recover. Pull yourself together. If Chen Feitang can be in the limelight for a while, can she be in the limelight for the rest of her life? “When you have enough determination to overturn the case, it’s not too late.”

Chapter 774: As long as he’s still alive

What Jiang Yao wanted to say was that after Chen Feibai’s incident, there was definitely a gap between Chen Feibai’s parents and Chen Feitang’s parents. Once Old Master Chen left, the Chen family would definitely not have the unity they had now.

At that time, if Chen Feibai wanted to overturn the case, there would be no old master Chen who could stop him.

Chen Feibai was still young, so why couldn’t he wait?

Even if he waited for 10 or 20 years, so what?

As long as he was still alive, there was still hope, right?

Old Master Chen was already old, and he was still alive. As his son and grandson, he couldn’t bear to make things difficult for him. After Old Master Chen left, who would be able to stop Chen Shanhe and Chen Feibai from overturning the case?

Most importantly, Chen Feibai was now seriously injured, and with his previous deeds in fighting the flood, the army couldn't possibly give him too heavy a punishment. In fact, they couldn't even give him a punishment. However, Chen Feibai had to face this when he retired from the army.

"Do you also hate Chen Feitang who is thinking about your man? Jiang Yao? You hate her too, right?" Chen Feibai caught the obvious disgust in Jiang Yao's expression when she mentioned Chen Feitang.

"A woman who is always thinking about stealing my husband. Isn't it natural for me to hate her?" Jiang Yao snorted. "Do you have to be so happy?"

"Why not? Look, we actually hate the same person." After Chen Feibai said that.., he closed his eyes. It seemed that he was very tired after talking for such a short while. However, he still didn't forget to instruct Jiang Yao to tell the Chen family.., after Chen Feitang was eliminated, he must come here to see him immediately.

Chen Feitang was now a thorn in Chen Feibai's heart. Jiang Yao wasn't a psychiatrist, so she couldn't help him remove it. She also knew that even if a psychiatrist came, it would most likely be useless.

Seeing that Chen Feibai had fallen into a deep sleep again, Jiang Yao exited the system.

The only fortunate thing about this burn was that Chen Feibai didn't choke on his voice system. He could still speak as usual. When he was engulfed by the fire, he must have subconsciously protected his face. Therefore, the burn on his face was slightly lighter. In the future.., the scars on his face might fade a little.

However, the scars below his neck would probably still be obvious. This was also a great blow and torture for a young boy in his early 20s.

The next morning, Jiang Yao went to class with Wen Xuehui early in the morning. As soon as she arrived at the large classroom, Jiang Yao was surrounded by her classmates. There were many questions, and more people asked if Jiang Yao was pregnant. After all, everyone knew that Jiang Yao was married.

"Everyone, quickly return to your seats. The professor will be angry when he sees the chaos in the large classroom later." Wen Xuehui helped Jiang Yao disperse her classmates as she explained for her, "My Yaoyao isn't pregnant. She's just busy. Those who saw her go to the hospital, she's just visiting her friends."

In the dormitory, Wen Xuehui made fun of Jiang Yao the loudest. However, outside the dormitory, Wen Xuehui was a little like an old hen. Seeing that there were many people, she was afraid that her classmates would bump into the thin and weak Jiang Yao.

"I'm just doing some personal matters. I'm not pregnant!" The classmates were all kind and concerned about her, so Jiang Yao explained with a very good attitude, "Don't worry. Although I didn't attend class, I won't fall behind in the class."

"Hey! Seeing how confident you are, don't tell me you want to compete with us for scholarships?" A classmate pretended to be in pain. "Oh my God! Then won't I have another competitor?"

Chapter 775: Divine Doctor's Apprentice

"That's right." Jiang Yao nodded.

"This is really sad news." The student giggled, "Then we'll be waiting for you to give our department a long face!" "I heard from the seniors that our department hasn't produced the most beautiful freshman and representative for a long time. However, you single-handedly collected two honors. Moreover, once the semester started, you appeared in our Nanjiang City's newspaper. During that period of time, everyone knew of Your Heroic Act! "You've been missing classes so much recently that even the professors have their opinions. Many people are saying behind your back that you're a bad flower. Don't mind them. When the time comes, show them your results. Let them see how amazing the most beautiful freshman from our department is!"

"That's right. Our dormitory's Jiang Yao is definitely a genius!" Wen Xuehui agreed with this point. "The last time she came back, I tested her with my book. Oh My God, it's all right! So, I'm not worried about her final exam at all!"

Wen Xuehui felt that Jiang Yao's results were a bit of a mixed blessing. Jiang Yao's good results were like her pride, so she was showing off vigorously.

Wen Xuehui's words caused the entire large classroom to become lively all of a sudden. There were also people who chased after Jiang Yao to ask for learning methods. Of course, there were also those who hid behind and whispered sour words, but they were only a minority.

The professor came in with a book. When he saw Jiang Yao sitting at the bottom seat, he was surprised. Although he didn't explicitly say anything about Jiang Yao, after the roll call, he still said that this was the first time that all the students had arrived since the start of the school year.

It was a little exaggerated, but it was clear that the professor was still very dissatisfied with Jiang Yao's learning state, where she often missed classes.

Therefore, after class, Jiang Yao was called to the professor's office to talk alone. She was not surprised at all.

The professor was actually a pretty good person. He was a very fastidious and conscientious academic person. Jiang Yao knew that the professor often told his students to learn more knowledge in school so that they could save more people in the hospital in the future. What they were learning in the classroom now.., was the key to treating patients and saving lives.

"There's still more than a month before the final exam. Tell me, how long do you want to take leave?" "Although you're already married and can't avoid being dragged down by your family, it's not like you to take leave every two or three days," the professor said earnestly, "Your matter has attracted some bad attention in the school. If you don't restrain yourself, it will be very difficult for you next semester."

"Professor, maybe the principal didn't tell you about me because he wanted to protect my privacy." Jiang Yao liked this professor very much.

Before she was reborn, her personality was a little strange. She didn't interact much with her classmates and was always immersed in her studies. It was also this professor who noticed her abnormality and explained to her twice, saying that studying wasn't as crazy as her.

However, her personality was like that at that time. It was a dead end. It was useless even if the professor tried to persuade her. Therefore, after graduating and working for many years, she only had one friend, Wen Xuehui.

“Professor, have you heard about the huge change in the shareholders of Sacred Flag Hospital?” Jiang Yao looked at the professor whose brows were knitted into a single word and said helplessly, “I am that new shareholder. Therefore, there are many things in sacred flag hospital that I have to participate in sometimes. Also, professor, you should know about the Divine Doctor that has been rumored in the medical circle recently, right? “The Divine Doctor is my teacher. I’ve been following her and being her assistant to take part in some surgeries.

Chapter 776: Just to make things difficult for you

No one would believe that she was the medical god, and she had to find countless excuses to explain her medical skills. Thus, if she directly said that the medical god was her teacher, then her medical skills could also be explained, and the matter of her taking a leave of absence could also be understood.

The old professor had yet to recover from the matter of Jiang Yao, a young student, being the new shareholder of the Sacred Banner Hospital. In the next second, the bomb that Jiang Yao threw at him was even more invincible.

Who in the medical circle had not heard of the matter of the medical god?

Especially in the capital. It was simply explosive. When it was spread to this side, it was even more so that it almost made people’s blood boil.

When the old professor heard of the Medical God’s deeds, he was so excited that he wanted to meet the medical god with outstanding medical skills. However, there was no one who recommended him. Later, he asked around in the circle, but not many people had seen him. They all heard that the medical God had a strange personality and did not like to meet people, even when he was performing surgery, he only used his own assistant and did not need anyone else.

After the old professor heard it, he thought that such a capable person might have a strange and arrogant personality, so he gave up on this idea. He did not expect that his student would suddenly tell him that the god of medicine was her teacher, she would be the god of Medicine’s assistant!

Why was the old professor not surprised? He was so surprised that the reading glasses on the bridge of his nose almost fell off!

“The god of Medicine is your teacher? You are learning medical skills from the god of Medicine?”The old professor was very excited. “Jiang Yao, can you help me introduce your teacher?”

Once he heard that the god of medicine was so close to him, the old professor did not care whether Jiang Yao asked for leave or not. With such an amazing teacher, giving her such a good opportunity to go on the operating table, no matter who it was, no one would ask for leave!

“Professor, this might be a little difficult. To be honest, my teacher has a very strange temper. Although I’ve known her for many years, I’m still afraid of her. She doesn’t like to interact with strangers. She did take over a patient in Nanjiang city recently, but that patient’s condition is very serious. She doesn’t leave her post 24 hours a day, so she doesn’t have time.”

Jiang Yao still treated him like a good kid who wouldn't even blink when he lied. She realized that this teacher, the god of medicine, could bring her many, many benefits!

However, she had no choice but to mold the god of medicine into a person with a strange temper.

Jiang Yao wasn't surprised by the old professor's mood at all. She had long guessed that everyone in this circle would be like this when they heard about the god of medicine. This was because.., the two surgeries she had performed on Lu Xingzhi and commander Lin in the capital were truly miracles in the entire medical world!

If it weren't for Jiang Yao herself having that medical system, she would have gone crazy when she heard about such cases before she was reborn.

"It's fine, it's fine. My request is to make things difficult for you. I've also heard that your teacher's temper is indeed a little strange."The old professor returned to his senses and waved his hand in embarrassment, "However, you said that the god of medicine is in Nanjiang City Now? Which Hospital is he in? After the school class is over, I can go and try to see if I can meet him by chance."

"Professor, you should rest. My teacher will be staying in the treatment room of the patient in her hands for the next few days. After that, she will probably leave Nanjiang city directly."Jiang Yao facepalmed. Therefore, the name of the god of medicine.., how many people went crazy over it?

Chapter 777: Saying thank you

If even the old professor wanted to meet her by chance, then other people would probably have the same attitude.

"Okay."The old professor sighed regretfully, "Then you should learn more from your teacher. However, you should try your best to attend the school's classes when you have time. Your teacher is so busy, so he might not be able to teach you everything. I'll copy my number to you. If you have anything you don't understand, call me at any time." "..."

The professor valued Jiang Yao very much. A person who could be accepted as a student by the god of medicine must be talented in this area. No wonder Jiang Yao was so experienced when she was helping patients with sudden emergencies, it turned out that there was an expert guiding her from behind.

Then, everything made sense. No wonder the principal said that he would treat Jiang Yao with special treatment.

After coming out of the professor's office, Jiang Yao was stopped by another male teacher. She turned around and saw that he had talked to her about her taking a leave of absence.

Jiang Yao thought that he had come to talk to her about taking a leave of absence again. Unexpectedly, the teacher called out to her and didn't mention anything about her taking a leave of absence. Instead, he rambled on for a long time before suddenly saying thank you to Jiang Yao.

This inexplicable thank you directly scared Jiang Yao.

"Why did the teacher suddenly say thank you to me?"Jiang Yao was stunned.

When the teacher saw Jiang Yao's expression, he knew that she must have forgotten, "The last time I talked to you, didn't you specifically call me later and ask me to pay special attention to the stocks in my hands in November? "I listened to you and sold all the stocks on the 10th. Yesterday, the stocks began to fall! "Today, the stocks still fell. When the market opened, they fell by the limit. I couldn't sell them!"

The male teacher became more and more agitated, "I sold them early and made a small profit. When I sold them, my friends and relatives even laughed at me for being stupid. To tell you the truth, I was also thinking about listening to you at that time, but after thinking about it, I still believed you, so I decisively sold the stocks. Yesterday, my friend told me that I sold well. He sold a part yesterday, but it fell by the limit. He couldn't sell it anymore. He wanted to sell it today, but in the end, it fell by the limit again. He said that he still had friends who advised him not to sell. They said that it would rise again in a few days. However, he felt that he had to sell. However, he was worried that he might not be able to sell it."

"Mm, when it was rising before, he probably wouldn't be able to sell it after he didn't sell it. Ask your friend to set the price below the limit and sell it as much as he can. As long as he can sell it now, it's still considered a profit. Otherwise, he might lose so much that he won't be able to cry in the future."

Jiang Yao had been very busy recently and had forgotten about the stock market. Thinking about it, it was already mid-october and the stock market had started to plummet at this time.

Seeing the male teacher so happy, Jiang Yao was also gratified. She had changed this teacher's miserable life. It was pretty good. This was also the teacher's own fate. He listened to her advice, so this time, he avoided this disaster.

This was her rebirth, and also the rebirth of this teacher.

"Okay, then I'll tell this to my friend."The male teacher left happily. Therefore, he stopped Jiang Yao to specifically thank her. After hearing Jiang Yao's unbelievable words, he actually believed it very much, he didn't think to ask Jiang Yao, who didn't play stocks, how could she know so much about the future stock market.

Chapter 778: Your heart is really big

Looking at the teacher's cheerful laughter as he left, Jiang Yao stood there and shook her head gently. Probably, a happy mood was an especially infectious thing. As she stood there, she also smiled for no reason.

Before Jiang Yao could return to the dormitory, she was stopped halfway by Wen Xuehui. She was probably afraid that the stern old professor would make Jiang Yao Cry, so she specially waited for Jiang Yao there and thought for a long time about how to comfort her.

But when she saw Jiang Yao, she realized that this girl was still smiling.

"You have such a big heart,"Wen Xuehui sighed.

"The professor didn't say anything about me,"Jiang Yao thought to herself. Not only did he not say anything about her, but he also had a feeling of love and respect for her. Because of the medical god, the old professor especially worshipped the medical god, therefore, he also regarded her as the only student of the god of medicine.

“That’s strange.” Wen Xuehui didn’t really believe it. She always felt that Jiang Yao didn’t want her to worry, so she said that.

Her father was the principal of this school. She was very clear about the temper of the teachers in the school. From the moment she met the professor, she was especially afraid of that professor. The degree of fear was only a little less than that of her grandfather.

Jiang Yao couldn’t explain it. Just as she was about to find a topic to distract Wen Xuehui’s attention, her cell phone in her pocket rang. At this time, Lu Xingzhi was participating in the assessment, so it was impossible for him to call her. Jiang Yao picked it up a little carelessly.

After picking it up, she heard Lao Wu’s voice coming from the phone. She took it back and looked at the phone number on the phone. It was really Chen Xuyao.

“Old Five?” Jiang Yao was surprised. Old Four would call her and giggle when he was free. Old Five was a busy man and rarely called her alone.

“Third sister-in-law, it’s me,” Chen Xuyao answered the phone. Since it was his third sister-in-law, there was no need for him to hide anything. He directly explained the purpose of the call. “Third sister-in-law, can I ask you, do you know how to treat your throat?”

Upon hearing Lao Wu’s question, Jiang Yao subconsciously asked, “Are you talking about Chu Sheng, the girl?”

Chen Xuyao was stunned. Obviously, he didn’t expect Jiang Yao to hit the nail on the head so quickly. He hummed in acknowledgment and explained very seriously, “Third sister-in-law, Chu Sheng is very important to me. I’ve been looking for her for many, many years. When I met her, she could talk. Her voice is very nice, even more charming than when she smiled. I still remember the ballad she sang for me, her voice is as graceful as the breeze.”

This was the first time Jiang Yao had heard Chen Xuyao praise someone with such a graceful voice like the breeze. Such a description was also very rare. Jiang Yao thought that she could not imagine how beautiful the girl’s voice would be, but.., with such a beautiful smile, if the girl could talk, her voice would also be very beautiful.

However, Jiang Yao did not know the reason why the girl could not talk, and she was not sure if it could be treated. Although she had met the girl twice, she was not her patient. She would not casually spy on other people’s physical condition, therefore, she didn’t know if the girl couldn’t speak because her vocal cords were damaged and couldn’t be saved, or if it was some other reason.

“If you’re free, bring her to Nanjiang City and let me examine her before I can give you a definite answer,” Jiang Yao said. “Or if you’re not in a hurry, wait until I go to the capital during the winter vacation to see her.”

Chapter 779: I don’t want to wait until the winter break

“Let me find a time to bring her to Nanjiang City to look for you,” Chen Xuyao said. “I don’t want to wait until the winter break.”

“Okay, then give me a call when you get there. It just so happens that second brother is also in Nanjiang city these few days. You guys can get together too,” Jiang Yao agreed.

On the phone, Jiang Yao didn't ask Chen Xuyao about the relationship between Chen Xuyao and that girl and how they knew each other. Chen Xuyao was obviously not in the mood to talk about these things with her. After getting her answer, Chen Xuyao thanked her and hung up the phone, Jiang Yao heard a voice. There seemed to be someone beside the phone. It was not a voice, but more like the sound of someone throwing a tantrum and breaking something.

Jiang Yao originally thought that with Chen Xuyao's personality, he would immediately book a plane ticket and rush to Nanjiang City after hanging up the phone. However, she didn't expect that after waiting for a while, there would be no sound.

In the mountain forest of a small county town surrounded by mountains in province a, the dry autumn weather caused the exposed land of the mountain forest to be cracked.

Fortunately, this was the south. For a mountain forest that had just passed through the rainy season, there was no possibility of a drought this autumn. The lush grass and trees in the depths of the mountain forest were still damp, and water marks could be seen everywhere near the water source.

The mountain spring in the depths of the mountain forest was crystal clear. It looked very shallow, but when one stepped in, they would discover that the water was actually half the waist of an adult man.

At this time, even if the clothes on her body were made of waterproof material, Chen Feitang, who had been forced to soak in the mountain spring for nearly two hours, was already so cold that her lips had turned purple.

“Chen Feitang, why are you doing this? “At most, you will be eliminated. If you continue to stay in the water, your life will be in danger. Now, the weather is not summer. Look at your lips, they are already purple. You are also a girl. If you fall ill, how bad would that be? Don't you think so?”

Chen Feitang ignored Jin Mingdong, who was holding the dog tail grass in his mouth by the shore. Her eyes were fixed on the person sitting on the tree trunk behind Jin Mingdong, which was as thick as a large water tank.

“Lu Xingzhi, do you have to be so heartless to me?” Chen Feitang opened her mouth to speak because of the cold, and her teeth were trembling.

Jin Mingdong was in the front, and the rest of the Jin city army was behind him. They were all people who knew the truth about the mistakes in the second round of assessment. They were all people who were waiting to avenge Chen Feibai.

However, Chen Feitang was clear that these people were all centered around Lu Xingzhi. It was because Lu Xingzhi had spoken that they would do this.

Lu Xingzhi wanted to sweep her out of the competition and make it impossible for her to join the special forces.

No matter which side she went ashore from, she was bound to be eliminated by these people.

In this selection, there were no men or women. There were only opponents.

Chen Feitang even knew that the reason why she could spend so much time with them in the water was because these people deliberately did not go into the water and deliberately played with her to get revenge on her.

Chen Feitang felt that it was ridiculous. When Chen Feibai was in the army, she had never thought that her arrogant cousin would have so many friends. Chen Feitang was very clear about Chen Feibai's temper. His temper easily offended people, if he did not put people in his eyes, he would not have any friends.

Therefore, these people all listened to Lu Xingzhi's words. It was Lu Xingzhi who wanted her to not be able to enter the special forces.

"Chen Feitang, everyone here knows the truth of the huge mistake of burning the mountain. If you feel wronged, why don't you think about whether Chen Feibai feels wronged or not? He is still your cousin! He's the biggest victim, yet he still has to take the blame for you!" Jin Mingdong scoffed, "I dare to do it, but I don't dare to accept it. Chen Feitang, do you know why I agreed to company commander Lu's suggestion so quickly?"

Chapter 780: Cold-blooded enough

Jin Mingdong stood on the shore, looking at Chen Feitang with a face full of mockery, "It's not just because of the great temptation that company commander Lu gave us. It's also because I don't want to see you join the special forces. I don't want to work with you one day. A person who doesn't even have the courage to stand up and take responsibility for his mistakes, what qualifications does he have to be our comrade-in-arms? "In the future, if we go on a mission together with you one day, how can we trust our backs to a comrade like you?"

"You let a hero who fought against the flood take the blame for you. Do you have any shame?" The person on the other side asked, "After you're eliminated, if you have the courage to stand up and admit your mistakes, we'll still respect you as a person!"

No matter what others said, Chen Feitang pretended not to hear them. In her eyes, she could only see the man who had been sitting on the tree for so long and had never looked at her.

Was Lu Xingzhi cold-blooded and heartless enough?

To people he did not care about, he was a cold-faced Hades who had no sympathy.

Many people said that Lu Xingzhi was unreasonable, but Chen Feitang knew that Lu Xingzhi was not like that.

He cared about a lot of people — his brothers, his comrades, and his wife.

However, of all the people he cared about, only she, Chen Feitang, was not one of them.

No matter how much she did and how much effort she put in to fight alongside him, he still could not see such a small and hardworking Chen Feitang in his eyes.

Lu Xingzhi, who was sitting on the tree behind him, looked at his watch and urged, "Alright, Stop Dawdling."

Other than the fact that he did not have the patience to continue waiting, he was also afraid that something might happen. After all, Chen Feitang was a girl. After soaking in the ice water for a long time, if something happened, the Chen family would not let it go. This was completely different from directly eliminating Chen Feitang.

Lu Xingzhi's words made the people surrounding the water below bow in gratitude and immediately jumped down.

After all, she was someone who could participate in the selection of the special forces. After being in the water for so long, Chen Feitang still had some leeway to resist. However, under the encirclement of so many people, it did not take a few seconds. The badge that belonged to her was quickly taken away, which meant.., she was eliminated in an instant.

Chen Feitang was dragged out of the water. After she went ashore, no one cared about her anymore.

"Lu Xingzhi, this is a matter of the Chen family. Why do you have to get involved?" Chen Feitang sat on the tree, paralyzed. She did not even have the strength to raise her head. Her entire body was shivering from the cold. She did not know how to describe that kind of despair.

The man she loved so much, the man she had loved for so long, just watched coldly as she soaked in the water. With a single sentence, he had shattered all her efforts and time.

Other than hatred, what other emotions could she use to face him?

"If I wanted to get involved in the Chen family's business, you would not be able to enter the third round of the selection. Chen Feitang, you were eliminated because you were not strong enough. It was also your own doing. It was not me who allowed you to be eliminated. It was what you did that allowed you to be eliminated. You are not qualified to enter the special forces, and no one would want to work with someone like you. Take care of yourself."

With that, Lu Xingzhi jumped down from the tree. With a height of more than three meters, he landed lightly like a jaguar. He turned around and glanced at Jin Mingdong. Jin Mingdong smiled knowingly. In the next second, Lu Xingzhi ran into the depths of the forest. In the blink of an eye.., his figure disappeared into the forest.
