

Chapter 779

Looking at Yi Yan for so long without knowing what to buy, Yin Luo suddenly remembered Yi Yan's favorite thing about food, "I know what to buy, come with me."

So they went to the sugar shop together, and Yin Luo saw the white rabbit toffee in the sugar group at a glance, still in that kind of packaging, still in that kind of taste. Yin Luo came there, took a pack of white rabbit toffee, showed Yi Yan, and said, "I invite you."

Okay. Yi Yan didn't refuse either, maybe he only has this hobby when it comes to snacks.

Yin Luo nodded and said, "Then let's buy this one. The working hours should be almost here, and we should count the time to go back. It should be almost the same. I don't want to be late."

Yi Yan took out his mobile phone and looked at it. If he counted the distance, it was almost time to go to work. Only then was he willing to let Yin Luo go to checkout with her, and then send her back to the company.

After the two bid farewell, Yi Yan took the white rabbit toffee she gave him back to the company.

When he returned to the company, he saw another person he didn't want to see, Yin Luo's half-sister. She was really lingering.

She should have been stopped by the front desk from entering, so she stood there waiting for herself. Originally, Yi Yan wanted to walk in low-key without attracting her attention, but because he was holding a bag of white rabbit toffee, he was a bit conspicuous, and she recognized him immediately.

Seeing Yi Yan's arrival, Yin Hui hurriedly walked up to him and said hello, "I am Yin Hui, Yin Luo's sister, you should remember, hello."

I'm not interested in you. Yi Yan said coldly, and walked to the president's elevator.

Unexpectedly, what he said was so clear that a girl of her stepped forward and blocked his way, so he stopped to see what she had to say.

Mr. Yi, listen to me, this time I am not looking for you for my personal reasons. I want to cooperate with you. Yin Hui took out a file and explained in her hand, "You will only make money this time. Unfortunately, the president of the Wang Group and I are very good friends, so this time I want to talk to you on behalf of the Wang Group."

Yin Hui knew that if he came to Yi Yan directly, he would definitely reject her without hesitation. But if you talk about cooperation, it's different. He might think that her Yin Hui is also a person who can walk freely in business.

It was not easy for her to get this contract. Wang was always one of her suitors. For this contract, she was still caught by him... After that, she abruptly read a lot of technical terms that she didn't understand. It was really difficult to understand, but she still insisted on reading it.

Originally, when I saw Yin Luo's proud look when I was in the restaurant, I wanted to take out this contract, but I thought that it was inconvenient in the restaurant after all. Moreover, Yin Luo was still there at the time and it was even more inconvenient to be in front of her. So she left and waited until this moment. Seeing Yi Yan's appearance, he seemed to be quite interested, and it didn't take her so long to work in vain.

Oh? Yi Yan sneered, "Since it's so good, why don't you introduce this for the Wang Group and Yin Group to cooperate? That is the company your sister is in charge of."

I... Yin Hui was nervous for a while, and then said with a smile, "Mr. Yi, the Yin Group in our family is naturally no better than your company. Of course Mr. Wang is more willing to cooperate with you. Besides, you are now It's my brother-in-law, so it's all the same."

Really? Do you still know that she is your sister? Do you know that I am your brother-in-law? The Wang Group can't cooperate with Yin? Yi Yan said indifferently. Just standing with him, she felt a chill, wondering how Yin Luo spent with him every day.

Yin Hui nodded quickly and said, "Yes, of course I know. But the Wang Group can't be blamed for this. After all, in this society, the weak and the strong eat the strong and the fittest survive. Everyone knows your abilities and the abilities of your company. Obviously, if there is a business, I naturally want to cooperate with you. This Wang Group is also a large group in this city, not to mention comparable to your company, but also surpasses many companies, such as Yi Group. So, Look..."

Hey, he looks down on the Yin Group because he looks down on me, and if he looks down on me, he looks down on me. Yi Yan said suddenly, and looked at Yin Hui with cold eyes, and persuaded her, "You better don't mess with me. By the way, Tell your so-called friend, he is not suitable to be president."

After speaking, he ignored Yin Hui who was still in the same place, and had to go to the elevator alone.

Don't be Mr. Yi, I really do it for the good of you and your sister. Can you take a look first? Just one look. Yin Hui felt that he had no reason to refuse such a big benefit.

I said I was not interested. Yi Yan walked to the elevator coldly and warned her, "If you dare to follow, you can do it yourself. I know you should trust my ability."

Yin Hui was so scared that she stopped immediately, watching the elevator door slowly closing in front of her, and then the number of the elevator showed that it had been rising, and finally rose to the top floor. It's a pity that this cooperation failed, and her hard work was wasted.

Yin Hui was really frightened by Yi Yan's words and expressions in his eyes. It was terrifying. His eyes seemed to be able to kill anyone with a glance. Obviously it was quite hot, but standing beside him felt a chill. This man, with such a strong aura, is like what a mortal person can do. He is not a mortal thing, if he is in the world, then he is a stunner in the world, putting all the advantages together on his body.

What kind of man is he? She became more and more interested. The more things she can't get, the more she wants to get them. Especially Yin Luo's man, she must have a taste.

The better a man needs a better woman, so she will work hard to make herself worthy of him, and then replace Yin Luo and become his wife.

Thinking that if there was such a moment, she couldn't stop laughing.

Back to reality, Yin Hui had to sigh and leave reluctantly. He didn't expect that he was not interested in a profitable contract. But it's no wonder that he owns such a strong company and definitely makes a lot of money. Does he care about her? So she has to prepare for a stronger temptation in the future, and she doesn't believe that he will not take the bait.

When Yi Yan returned to the office, he asked Xiaotian to check the Wang family group that the woman just said. She even dared to look down on his woman, so she killed the chicken and the monkey, so that people like them who had hurt or tried to hurt Yin Luo knew that she was Yin Luo. It's not so bully. Now that she has him, he won't let people hurt them any more.

When a person respects him a foot, he will respect him a foot.

After a while, Xiaotian came in with the file. The photo in the file was of a potbellied man, who looked a little disgusting. Yin Hui just said he was a good friend? No wonder, you can see a person's character by looking at a person's friends.

Xiaotian looked at the information on the phone and said like Yi Yan, "His company is currently operating well, and its sales volume has been multiplying growth. However, it is said that Mr. Wang from the Wang Group likes women very much. As long as there are women around him, he But one will not let it go. He always talks witty when dealing with women, and often cheats and gets caught by his wife."

Hmm... Yi Yan looked at the information and said as usual, "Our next goal is the Wang Group."

Ah? Why? It's not too sudden for our goal to change so suddenly? Xiaotian asked, wondering what caused the president to suddenly change his mind.

Xiaotian, you're great. Yi Yan felt that Xiaotian's words had changed more recently. He was already a talkative person. When he first became his assistant, he was often scolded by him. After scolding, he talked less. Some, but without scolding for three days, you went to the house to reveal the truth, "Do you not believe in my ability, or do you believe in the ability of the company, or do you not believe in yourself?"

No, no, no. Xiaotian quickly denied, he didn't want to be fined again, how to eat, drink and have fun without the salary, "I don't believe in my own ability, but I must believe in the ability of the president and the company."

Unexpectedly, Yi Yan asked again, "If you don't believe in yourself, you just don't believe in the vision I chose you as my assistant?"

This... Xiaotian said helplessly, "Of course it's not. Your vision is so good, otherwise, how could you be attracted to such an excellent woman as the president's wife? Since the president believes in me so much, then I will believe in myself again."

Seeing that the president has indeed become more relaxed because he mentioned the wife of the president, I couldn't help but praise his wit. Therefore, in the future, you can not flatter the president, but you must shoot the president's wife. It is very effective, and it should be the best choice.

Yeah. Yi Yan nodded in satisfaction, handed the file back to Xiaotian, and said, "Since you are so confident, I can't wrong you. Just be a small assistant by my side. Leave it to you to be responsible."

The president raised his hand, and he couldn't let the president hold it all the time. Xiaotian took the file and said, "President, it's not that I am not confident, but that I really can't do it. If I do something wrong, you must scold me to death."

Moreover, doing so many things without raising wages. It's not that he is really unwilling to work for the president, who actually treats him very well. When selecting assistants, there were so many assistants with good qualifications, but the president chose him. Many people didn't understand at the beginning, but he still doesn't understand.

It is because of meeting the president, Bole, that he can do things for the president, and he has made a lot of money for so many years. Although the president often said that he was fined his salary, he was fined only for a month if he did a bad job.

This time he was really worried that he would ruin the president's plan.

Yi Yan patted Xiaotian on the shoulder and encouraged him, "You are the person I admire, and I think that the ability of people is okay. So you believe in me, that is, you believe in yourself, you know?"
