

Chapter 781: Chasing or not

"F * ck! Commander Lu, do you have to be so fast!" Jin Mingdong roared from behind and quickly chased after him. The two green figures seemed to be natives of this mountain forest and quickly merged into the green.

"Are you going to chase or not? Do you want to tail commander Lu together with Jin Mingdong? Kill commander Lu once and directly advance!" The people at the side looked at those who were eager to give it a try. After all, the temptation was quite great.

"If you want to go, go ahead! I don't want to go against company commander Lu even if I have to go against anyone. We're from the same unit. Don't you know what company commander Lu is capable of?" Someone shook his head, "I'd rather collect other people's badges than go after him with great difficulty. However, company commander Lu tore them up."

After the few of them finished talking, they split up and left in a different direction. Everyone agreed that it was safer to find other badges. After all, they were from the same unit in Jin city. They had all witnessed company commander Lu's combat strength, they were just afraid that they would fail to get what they wanted.

Lu Xingzhi ran for about two kilometers before he stopped. Jin Mingdong, who was behind him, was not slow in his pursuit. After a while, he caught up. After confirming that there was no third person on the side., lu Xingzhi directly pulled out a badge from his body and threw it to Jin Mingdong in the air. He said, "At least two hours before you go out."

"I don't need you to remind me." Jin Mingdong touched the badge that represented Lu Xingzhi's one life as if it was a treasure. Then, he grinned at him, "Then I'll go through first and wait for you outside! Company Commander Lu, you only have four lives left. I'm looking forward to seeing if you can become my future comrade-in-arms in three days!"

"TSK, I can't be your comrade-in-arms!" Lu Xingzhi's lips curled up slightly. "I'll only be your leader! See You in three days!"

After saying that, Lu Xingzhi left swiftly. What he needed to do now was to find a suitable hiding spot and find the target he wanted to attack.

He was not a person who only defended and did not attack. What he preferred was to take the initiative to attack and take control of the situation in his own hands.

Three days was neither short nor long.

However, the commander in the command center gradually flew into a rage during these three days.

On the first day, the first person to be eliminated appeared. It was the daughter of the Chen family, Chen Feitang. This news caused the commander to momentarily not know how to report to Old Master Chen. He asked Chen Feitang about what had happened, but Chen Feitang did not say a word.

In the wee hours of the morning, the first person to be eliminated appeared. It was Jin Mingdong. Jin Mingdong walked out of the forest in the middle of the night. He held the badge that belonged to Lu

Xingzhi and walked out with a smile like a second master, there were still many scratches on his face, but none of them could stop his overly bright smile.

“So Fast?” When he saw Jin Mingdong come out, he thought that he had been eliminated. When he saw the badge in Jin Mingdong’s hand, he still asked the same question, “Why is it so fast?”

With Lu Xingzhi’s ability, it was reasonable to say that he would not be so fast. The bureau chief felt that he should at least last until the last day when his stamina was almost exhausted before Lu Xingzhi’s badge could appear. He did not expect that.., the first badge that belonged to Lu Xingzhi appeared in the early morning.

“Bureau chief, just take it that company commander Lu gave it to me. Anyway, I got it. The rules didn’t say that we can’t be friends and give in to each other. He still has four more chances. Bureau chief, what are you worried about?” Jin Mingdong quickly signed his name on the registration form and left after leaving Lu Xingzhi’s badge, “Great, two more days of vacation.”

Chapter 782: Who eliminated him

“You don’t have a wife to meet in a hurry. Why do you want a vacation?” The bureau chief was so angry that he wanted to grab the pen holder on the table and throw it at Jin Mingdong. Since he had said so, then the badge he got must have been made by Lu Xingzhi. However.., the rules did not say that the owner of the badge could not be given away.

That was true. There were only five chances in total, and they were facing all the examinees. Who would have thought that there would be someone who would give up a chance so easily? The bureau chief did not know whether to say Lu Xingzhi was crazy or stupid.

“I have two days. Maybe I can go to the county town for a stroll and really meet a girl that I like. Won’t I have a wife?” Jin mingdong retorted unhappily, he was bullying people like them who had yet to get a wife at their age.

After Jin Mingdong left, the chief thought that he could probably have a good rest.

However, in reality, it wasn’t.

Two hours later, the second person to be eliminated appeared. It was from the female corps. Because the selection this time didn’t differentiate between men and women, the chief wasn’t too surprised to see that the second person to be eliminated was a female soldier.

It was not that he felt that the female soldiers were inferior to the male soldiers, but that the male soldiers had a natural advantage in terms of physical strength.

“Who was eliminated?” The commander saw the person and asked casually.

“Captain Lu of the Jin City Army,” the female soldier replied.

The commander grunted and let his men go back to their dormitories to rest.

The commander originally thought that this was just a coincidence and an accident. Lu Xingzhi coincidentally met a female soldier, so he eliminated the person he met. However, one after another, the commander realized that something was not right.

When he woke up after a night of sleep, he was stunned when he saw the scene on the field in the command post.

Out of the 20 female soldiers who entered the third round of selection, 12 of them had already started jogging on the field. In other words, after he slept last night, another 10 female soldiers were eliminated!

The bureau chief put on his clothes and ran down before he could even wash his face. He asked, "What's going on? You all came back in one night?"

"We're back. Commander Lu said that we should come back early to wash up and sleep." One of the female soldiers looked at Chen Feitang angrily as she spoke.

At this point, how could they not know the reason?

At first, when they were ambushed by Commander Lu in the forest, they only thought that they were unlucky. They hid at the place where commander Lu was hiding and were met by Commander Lu. When they went down the mountain, they only found out when they went to the command post, it was not their luck that they met company commander Lu. It was company commander Lu who deliberately found female soldiers like them and eliminated them one by one.

They were not stupid. During the first round, company commander Lu did not compete with female soldiers like them, nor did he show any contempt or contempt for them. There were even people who walked past company commander Lu, company commander Lu did not even lift his eyelids. He had no intention of attacking them.

In the first round, the female soldiers who were eliminated seemed to have been agreed upon by the men and women on both sides. Female soldiers versus female soldiers, male soldiers versus male soldiers.

In the second round, because of the limited quota, the mixed-gender situation was broken. However, in the third round, company commander Lu directly competed with the female soldiers and began to eliminate them one by one.

Company commander Lu's ability was there. They would not be foolish enough to think that company commander Lu was afraid of encountering male soldiers, so he would find female soldiers like them. After all, even if they were female soldiers, it would not be easy to eliminate them, there were even some female soldiers who worked together in twos or threes. Lu Xingzhi still made a strong move against such a small team.

Chapter 783: Commander Lu's Beloved Girls

After they went down the mountain, they saw Sergeant Lu had deliberately targeted the female soldiers, and the only reason for that could only be Chen Feitang!

The troops had reported the mistake when they burned the mountain in the second round. However, many people still said that Chen Feitang had caused that mistake, and Chen Feibai had taken the blame for her.

At the start of the third round, some people accidentally noticed that Jin Mingdong and the others had surrounded Chen Feitang. Therefore, they had believed the rumor was true.

Chen Feitang's mistake had caused the entire female regiment to suffer. If the rest of her companions were not angry at her, who else would they be mad at?

Even if they were angry with Commander Lu, would that serve any purpose? Their skills were not as good as his. However, if Chen Feitang had not made that mistake and offended Commander Lu, would they have been eliminated so quickly?

The bureau chief was furious when he heard reports from the female soldiers who had been eliminated.

"Lu Xingzhi—that brat will pay for this!" If there had been a table there, he would have slammed his palm on it so hard that it would split into two.

However, it seemed that the bureau chief had jumped the gun. On the second day, more people were eliminated—men and women alike. The bureau chief pondered on the situation with the male soldiers; he thought that it was still alright. However, his face darkened as he thought about the same problem with the female soldiers.

Those female soldiers were all in a good mood. Those who had been eliminated, no matter early or late into the rounds, would later ask, "Did Commander Lu also feel sorry for you in the forest? Is that why he told you to come back to rest?"

There were other conversations in the command post, as well.

"Commander Lu feels sorry for another girl again."

"Exactly, Commander Lu is soaking in rain and dew."

"Didn't they used to call him Hades Lu because he was merciless to everyone? Didn't they also say that he dotes on his wife? Now that he has to take care of so many girls, isn't he afraid that his wife would teach him a lesson when she finds out about this?"

By noon the third day, out of 20 female soldiers, only the soldier ranked second in the first round was still on the mountain. Since they did not have three people to fight for the result, that lone female soldier would pass automatically as long as she survived the next 12 hours.

It was like Lu Xingzhi had eliminated those 20 female soldiers.

"So, Lu Xingzhi didn't do anything for the past few days. Instead, he went all over the mountain to look for you girls!" Just as the commander had lunch, the 19th eliminated female soldier returned to the command post. The commander's hand shook in anger. He wanted to break the chopsticks in his hand if they were Lu Xingzhi!

"That's right. Commander Lu found me in the middle of last night, chased me for the better half of the night, and the whole morning!" The last female soldier sat down in front of the commander. "I avoided him twice, but he managed to find me again even though it was such a big mountain. When he saw that no one was after men, he chased me instead. I thought that I had done something to offend him while I was on the mountain that he kept chasing after me."

“As he chased me, I even thought that I had owed him money, and that was why he persisted in coming after me.” Another female soldier at the side recalled the funny incident where Lu Xingzhi went after her.

“The next time we see Lu Xingzhi’s wife, we should tell her that Commander Lu had chased after us girls. We don’t have to be so obvious, just enough to let his wife think that he’s a playboy. Doesn’t he still want his wife? Let’s let his wife take care of him for us!”

Chapter 784: Not a Single Female Soldier Was Left

Everyone agreed to the suggestion given by one of the female soldiers. They felt that it was the best way to take revenge on Commander Lu.

After all the female soldiers were eliminated, the ones eliminated next were all male soldiers—Lu Xingzhi had finally begun to make his move on the male soldiers.

The forest in the mountain was enormous; the further one went in to hide, the harder it was to find them. Therefore, the number of people who were eliminated decreased when it was afternoon.

On the last night, everyone in the command center could imagine how the competition was in the forest. They already had an initial thought about the outcome. However, to everyone’s surprise, the last person to be eliminated was the final female soldier.

Therefore, when the third round of assessment results was announced, not a single female soldier was left.

That last female soldier probably already had a sense of Lu Xingzhi’s attack, so she had avoided him in the large forest. It was not because she was afraid that Lu Xingzhi would attack her, but because she was scared that Lu Xingzhi would let someone else attack her.

She and Lu Xingzhi could not attack each other, but someone else could have attacked her.

When he saw the last female soldier come down the mountain, the bureau chief was no longer angry. When someone reported to the command center, he held his teacup and sipped his tea casually. Then, he asked, “How did you get eliminated?”

“I got lost twice in the first two days. Until tonight, I didn’t take the initiative to attack. I’ve been hiding and waiting for the assessment to end.” The female soldier was even calmer than the bureau chief.

“Later, Commander Lu appeared. Five people chased him, and he accidentally appeared at my hiding place. Those who chased after Commander Lu changed targets and turned to attack me instead. No matter how capable I am, it was only a matter of time before those five elites attacked me and got me eliminated. Among those five, three of them got my badges. The remaining two continued to go after Commander Lu.”

“Commander Lu still has four chances left?” the bureau chief asked.

The female soldier thought for a moment and shook her head. “No. When I saw him, he only had two badges left on him, so those two people must have chased after him fiercely. Also, Commander Lu is injured. I think I smelled blood on his body.”

“Then, the other two should still be watching the show in the mountains,” the bureau chief muttered. If it were him, he would also be happy to watch Lu Xingzhi’s show in the mountains.

Lu Xingzhi was injured—even a fool would know to go after Lu Xingzhi.

The number one contender in the assessment, Lu Xingzhi, had only two chances left. Since he was already injured, other people chased after him relentlessly.

The third-ranked soldier was also a male soldier—he had only three chances left. His chances of winning were even greater than Lu Xingzhi’s.

At midnight, the alarm to signal the end of the assessment sounded in the mountains. To see the results immediately, those people in the command center ran to the foot of the mountain and waited.

They saw the first person to come out of the forest was the third-ranked male soldier. He still had two chances left. When he came out, he was in a sorry state. However, he smiled with incomparable happiness because he had passed the assessment.

After that, the people who came out one after another had smiles on their faces. Even if they did not have a badge in their hands, those who could stay until the end of the assessment still passed the test. Good at hiding was also an excellent skill.

Lu Xingzhi only came out when he could walk a little faster. The sleeves of his clothes were torn, and there were bloodied wounds on his arms. However, when he walked from the small path—from the darkness—to the intersection that was illuminated by the moonlight, he looked like a triumphant soldier, like a king who had returned in glory.

Chapter 785: The Girls He Chased

The two badges on his body hung on the front of his shirt. Not far behind him were the two male soldiers—they had to be supported and dragged out of the forest. They were the ones who chased after him, but they looked worse than Lu Xingzhi. Therefore, the bureau chief guessed Lu Xingzhi must have surrounded them in the forest until they ran out of strength before Lu Xingzhi turned around and gave them a beating.

Lu Xingzhi’s physical strength was the best among all the participants in that assessment.

The chief had initially intended to scold Lu Xingzhi because he had eliminated all those female soldiers. However, when he saw the look on the man’s face, he thought it was better to save his breath. After all, the rules did not mention that one could not eliminate all the female soldiers by themselves.

Lu Xingzhi had the ability and the mood to do that. What could he do if the man wanted to chase a girl all over the mountain?

After Jin Mingdong returned to the command post, he went directly to Lu Xingzhi and gave him a big hug. Then, he smacked Lu Xingzhi’s wound in a particularly nasty manner. “Alright, Brother. From now on, I, Jin Mingdong, will submit to no one but you!”

The selection process was unprecedented and would never happen again. No one would waste time and energy like Lu Xingzhi to purposely go after the female soldiers to eliminate them.

The female soldiers were smaller than the male soldiers. With their special attire, it would be challenging to find them in the jungle. It would be very easy to ignore them.

That was one of the advantages of female soldiers in jungle warfare.

However, Lu Xingzhi had dragged them out, one by one. Who else would be willing to do such a thing?

Jin Mingdong slapped Lu Xingzhi's wound maliciously. He frowned in pain and kicked Jin Mingdong, who kept him away. Then, he put his backpack on the ground and gave it a shake, the badge that belonged to someone else dropped onto the floor.

"Those who have registered, come and take this away. I'll go back to the dormitory to treat my wound." If his wife were to find out about it, she would cry. He did not know how to coax people, so he would be annoyed if there were tears.

Lu Xingzhi walked briskly. After he said that, he left the area. The third-ranked soldier went there and leaned in for a look.

"I saw it when they chased Commander Lu so miserably. I thought that I would be the champion this time!" After he said that, he bent down and counted them one by one. When he realized that something was wrong, he picked out the badges that belonged to the female soldiers and counted them again—eighteen.

He touched his chin and muttered, "It seems that I wasn't mistaken when I saw him chasing the female soldiers in the forest. Is this person crazy?"

The people beside him burst into laughter. The female soldiers who had been eliminated laughed even louder. "That's right; we were the girls that Commander Lu had chased after so crazily!"

Perhaps those female soldiers tried to accept reality, so they were relaxed and could joke about that.

Later, when Lu Xingzhi became a military commander, they mentioned that matter to their husbands and children with pride. "When I was young, I was one of the girls that Commander Lu chased so crazily!"

That was a legendary figure in the military world. One could show off if one participated in an assessment with him.

Lu Xingzhi had already walked far away, so he did not hear the laughter from the sports field.

Chapter 786: I Didn't Want This Either

He returned to the dormitory building. He saw Chen Feitang—she stood against the wind in her thin clothes. It was apparent she had waited there for a long time. She looked sick, but he was not surprised. The weather in the mountain was freezing cold—it was like that for a few hours, so it would be strange if she were not sick. However, she had brought that upon herself.

She could have given up and gone back instead. No one forced her to be there. She was the one who wanted to be strong. She insisted on hiding in the water and wasted everyone's time.

“Lu Xingzhi, Chen Feibai had taken the blame for me. However, it was the old master’s decision. What does it have to do with me? Why are you doing this to me? Why did you have to spare no effort to deal with me?” Chen Feitang growled hoarsely. “Why did you do this to me? Lu Xingzhi, why did you have to be so ruthless?”

After she yelled at him, Chen Feitang slowly squatted and hugged her knees as she cried as hard as she could.

She had always been a sensible person; that was the first time she had cried in a long time. She could no longer hold her tears back. For someone who wanted to be strong, the past few days of experience were as if the sky had collapsed.

“I didn’t want Feibai to be injured like that. After the fire, I only knew that he had been burned when I heard his cries. I wanted to save him, but the fire was so big that I could not even get close to him. When he was sent to the hospital on his last breath, I blamed myself; I regretted it, I was sad, and I was worried! I know that it was my fault. If I have the chance to do it again, I would never touch that fire. All of you blamed me; you blamed me. No one thought that I would be afraid, and no one cared about me!”

Chen Feitang’s cries gradually became muffled. “Lu Xingzhi, because of Chen Feibai, you eliminated all the female soldiers and made me everyone’s target.”

In those few days, she had to bear with the pain on her body and endured everyone’s indifference and disregard. Even though she was the Chen family’s daughter, no one wanted to acknowledge and curry any favor with her!

Not a single person!

Not a single person who cared about her!

The main culprit for all of that was Lu Xingzhi!

She initially thought Lu Xingzhi was cruel when he eliminated her. It was only later that she knew that the man had many ways to deal with people—so many ways to make her suffer.

Lu Xingzhi frowned as he looked at the wound on his arm. After he heard Chen Feitang’s words, he only asked coldly, “Are you done? If you’re done, move aside. Don’t block the way.” The woman had stood in the middle of the staircase.

No matter how much she cried, he could not bear to part with her. However, his heart was still hard and cold.

Chen Feitang still squatted there. She did not even cry. She just looked at him in a daze; it was as if she did not see him. She continued to look at that place in a trance.

Lu Xingzhi did not have enough patience, so he bypassed her directly. His arm was still injured, but he supported himself with the handrail and jumped. Then, he quickly walked up the stairs and left her behind him. He did not ask any more questions.

The first thing Lu Xingzhi did when he returned to the dormitory was to take a shower. Then, he used the medicine that Jiang Yao had given him to bandage the wound on his arm. As a soldier, there was no need for him to go to the hospital for such a small injury.

After everything was done, he looked at the time. It was almost two o'clock, but he still switched on his phone and called Jiang Yao.

Chapter 787: It Must Be Very Difficult

He had not heard her voice for three days; he missed her very much. Even if he knew that she should be asleep at that time, he wanted to listen to her voice, even if she were to yell at him.

On the other end of the phone, Jiang Yao was woken up by her phone's ringtone. She was a little confused, but she took her phone and looked at the incoming call. After she confirmed the caller's name, she picked it up. Fortunately, the ladies in the dormitory slept very well, so they were not woken up.

"Hello, Xingzhi?" Jiang Yao was wrapped in her blanket. She was unsure if the call was from Lu Xingzhi because he had never called her in the middle of the night.

It was not until Lu Xingzhi answered her and called her his wife that Jiang Yao confirmed it.

"The assessment has ended?" Jiang Yao asked. He had called her in the middle of the night. Had he been eliminated and needed her comfort because he was in a bad mood?

Jiang Yao did not know if she should ask about the results. If he had been eliminated, would her questions not like salt to his wound? However, if she did not ask the question, then her heart would worry. She did not know if something was wrong with him.

After about two seconds of hesitation, Jiang Yan decided to ask in another way. "The assessment must be tough, right? There are so many people staring at the three of you. In fact, this assessment is quite unfair to all three of you."

"It's not unfair. We had one round less than the rest, and we had three additional rest days too." Lu Xingzhi did not feel that it was unfair; he laughed in his heart. His little wife had underestimated him; she must have thought that he had been eliminated, so she asked about the situation in a roundabout way. She must have been worried that he was upset.

"If you participated in the second round, you would definitely pass it. Did you really want to have a few more days of rest?" Jiang Yao snorted. Only then did she start to care about his health. "Are you hurt?"

Lu Xingzhi had wanted to hide his injury from her, but when he heard her snort over the phone, he decided to tease her again. "Do you want to hear the truth or not?"

"The truth. If you dare to lie to me, don't come to Nanjiang City!" Jiang Yao was furious.

"I'm injured, and it hurts a lot." Lu Xingzhi sighed. "I'm bleeding, but I'm much better after using the medicine that you gave me. I'm in the dormitory now. After I'm done here tomorrow, I'll go to Nanjiang City to look for you."

"Is your injury serious? How is it now? Have you seen a doctor? If it's serious, you do know that you need to go to the hospital, right? You can't ignore it just because you think that it is nothing serious. If it gets worse, the doctor might not be able to treat it." Jiang Yao's tone changed when she learned about Lu Xingzhi's injury.

Lu Xingzhi had only wanted to tease her, so he deliberately did not say that he was scratched by a tree branch. However, he regretted that when he heard her tone.

It seemed like he had shot himself in the foot.

He wanted to hear that Jiang Yao was distraught about him, but he could not bear to let her worry about him because of his anxiousness.

Jiang Yao still urged him to go to the hospital over the phone. Lu Xingzhi said helplessly, "It's really nothing; a tree branch just scratched me. It's just a minor injury. There's a doctor on standby at the Command Center."

After Jiang Yao heard that, she still did not quite believe it. She knew Lu Xingzhi's character; if it were a minor injury, he probably would not even mention it. It was perhaps a little more severe than that. That was why he had told her in advance; it was so that she could be mentally prepared for the information.

Chapter 788: I'll Listen To You

The more Jiang Yao thought about it, the more anxious she got. If it were not because it was already two o'clock in the morning and she could not leave the school compound, she really wanted to take care of Lu Xingzhi that night.

When she realized that Lu Xingzhi did not take her words to heart, Jiang Yao got angry. "Lu Xingzhi, if you don't go see the doctor, I shall ignore you tomorrow! I'm at school, and I can't go out at night, so don't make me worry, okay? Be good, listen to me, and go see the doctor."

Lu Xingzhi was speechless. He had shot himself in the foot; he scratched his buzz cut in frustration. He thought he could take it if his wife were anxious for him.

"Okay, okay, okay. I'll listen to you. Don't cry." Lu Xingzhi decided to surrender. "I'll change my clothes and go see the doctor now."

"Then hurry up, and don't hang up. I want to hear the doctor's voice!" Jiang Yao sniffed. She was anxious, and she wanted him to hear her cry. It was the only trick she had to deal with Lu Xingzhi; Lu Yuqing was the one who taught it to her.

However, it was very useful, indeed. The person who had only given her a perfunctory reply was more obedient after that.

Lu Xingzhi placed his phone on the bed and sighed helplessly. Well, even he could hear his perfunctory words. What else could he have done if not obey her words?

The man was entirely at his wit's end because Jiang Yao had already started to sob on the phone. If he did not listen to him, what would happen if she were to continue to cry? They stayed so far from each other, so they could not even see or hug one another. How could he coax her? What if she started to cry even more violently?

He knew it. He hated it when women cried, and he hated it even more when it was his wife. He was afraid of her tears.

It was early the next morning. After Lu Xingzhi got dressed, he took his phone and left the dormitory. He coaxed Jiang Yao in a low voice as he walked toward the command centre's temporary medical center.

There were quite a lot of people in the medical office at that hour. Many of them had been injured in the forest. There were young nurses in the medical office, so if those male soldiers were wounded, they would rush over here.

"Commander Lu is here too?" Jin Mingdong glanced at Lu Xingzhi's arm at the door. He saw that Lu Xingzhi had his phone in his hand, and it seemed like he was talking to it in a low voice. He heard the man say that he was already at the doctor's office. Jin Mingdong was used to Lu Xingzhi's unkind words, so he did not know how to react when he heard the man's soft voice. Therefore, Jin Mingdong guessed that Lu Xingzhi was most likely on the phone with his wife.

It was apparent that the woman on the other side of the conversation knew that Lu Xingzhi had been injured. She must have urged Lu Xingzhi to see a doctor. However, she must have predicted that Lu Xingzhi would give hasty replies to the doctor if she were to hang up the phone. That was probably why she wanted to monitor the man via the call.

After Jin Mingdong understood the situation, he shouted at the top of his voice. "Everyone, move aside! Let the seriously injured Commander Lu go in first. Quick, Commander Lu's bones are exposed. Get the doctor to help him now! Quickly! Stop the bleeding! There are too few nurses here. Get more help to stop the bleeding! Commander Lu, hold on!"

The doctors and nurses were shocked when they heard Jin Mingdong's shout. They thought that Lu Xingzhi needed emergency treatment, so they dropped what they were doing and ran toward him. As soon as they reached the door, they saw Lu Xingzhi's cold face. His eyes were as hard as knives when he glared at Jin Mingdong. It was obvious that Lu Xingzhi's arm had been bandaged, and he looked fine.

Chapter 789: I'm Just Trying To Scare You

Jiang Yao had heard Jin Mingdong's words clearly on the phone. When she heard Jin Mingdong's first two sentences, she became really nervous, especially when she heard that Lu Xingzhi's bones were exposed. She was terrified. Later, when Jin Mingdong said that he wanted the doctor to press Lu Xingzhi's exposed bones back, she knew that the kid needed a beating!

Lu Xingzhi waved at the doctor. Then he handed the phone to the doctor and said, "Tell my wife about my injury."

The doctor was stunned. "Oh," the doctor replied before he took the phone. He told the nurse to remove the bandage on Lu Xingzhi's arm so that he could confirm it. At a glance, he knew that it was only a small injury. The man was fine. The nurse rebandaged Lu Xingzhi's arm while the doctor spoke into the phone, "Madam, don't worry. Commander Lu's injury is only a small one. It's not as scary as Jin Mingdong had claimed. He is only trying to scare you."

After he said that, the doctor received a gentle thank you from a lady on the phone. Then he returned the phone to Lu Xingzhi and teased him. "Your wife must have been anxious about you. It's already so late, and she's still not sleeping to supervise you."

Lu Xingzhi opened his mouth to explain that he had woken her up, but he decided against it. It would be better if he did not say anything so shameful. That would only let everyone think that his wife was worried about him.

After he put his clothes back on, Lu Xingzhi spoke to Jiang Yao on the other end of the line. "It's very late now; go rest. I'll look for you tomorrow. I still have something to do here, so I'll hang up now."

After he put away the phone, Lu Xingzhi took off his coat and handed it to a comrade so that they could look after it. Then, he walked toward Jin Mingdong and dragged him outside. Two minutes later, one could hear Jin Mingdong's screams and cursed from the field.

Five minutes later, Lu Xingzhi went back to the command center alone. He took his coat, thanked his fellow comrade, and left.

After about ten seconds, Jin Mingdong was back in the command center. He wiped the corners of his mouth and tidied his clothes. Then, he sat down in front of the nurse with a smile. "Little girl, I'm injured. Look, this time it's for real."

Did Jin Mingdong get injured because he could not defeat Lu Xingzhi and the man had beaten him up? Or did he not fight back on purpose so that Lu Xingzhi could release his pent-up anger and so that Jin Mingdong could get the nurse to help him?

At 8 am the next day, the candidates' final list for that selection process was out. Lu Xingzhi's results far surpassed the second-ranked soldier.

Even though the bureau chief was upset that Lu Xingzhi had single-handedly eliminated the entire female squad, he was still happy with the overall results.

"It's been hard on all of you for the past half a month. After the new year, you will get an official transfer document to your respective unit, and you will report to the new unit at the appointed time according to the document! I hope that the Special Forces will make you more outstanding in the future. I also hope that the Special Forces would become the biggest backing force for the troops!"

After the conclusion of the meeting, everyone packed up and returned to their respective units.

Lu Xingzhi was the first to run back to his dormitory and run out of the command post with his luggage. Everyone else stifled their laughter when they saw his fast pace. Commander Lu's wife was definitely a great magic weapon to control the man.

Chapter 790: That B * Stard

Jiang Yao did not sleep well because of Lu Xingzhi's phone call. When she woke up in the morning, she asked Wen Xuehui to help her apply for leave and Ah Lu and Da Ke to drive her to the hospital.

After she arrived at the hospital, she got Chen Feibai out of the medical ward and arranged for him to be placed in the special care ward. She guessed that after the selection process, Chen Feibai would definitely want to see Chen Feitang.

It was already one o'clock in the afternoon when Lu Xingzhi arrived in Nanjiang city. He went straight to the hospital where he knew Jiang Yao would be. He did not even go to the hotel first. He went to the hospital with his luggage.

“Wife.” Lu Xingzhi stood at the door and called out when he found Jiang Yao in the hospital director’s office. He waited until Jiang Yao, who was in a conversation with the director, raised her head to look at him before he walked into the room with satisfaction.

“Young Master Lu.” The director stood up when he saw Lu Xingzhi. He was already an old man, yet he stood up like a primary school student who had seen his teacher.

Lu Xingzhi gave the director a look and acknowledged his greeting. Then, he looked at his wife. “Are you done? Go and eat after you’re done.”

“Yes, we’re done here.” Jiang Yao nodded. She was there to ask the director to get someone to renovate the other operating theater on her floor.

When Jiang Yao stood up, Lu Xingzhi walked toward her, took her hand and led her out of the director’s office.

“When are you going back to Jin City?” Jiang Yao asked as she glanced at his arm. Then, she observed him to see if his steps were steady and strong. Once she was satisfied that he was fine, she was relieved that Lu Xingzhi only had a minor injury on his arm.

“The flight is at 10:30 tomorrow morning,” Lu Xingzhi replied.

Jiang Yao had wanted to ask why there was no holiday for them, but she gave up after she thought about it.

Since Lu Xingzhi was there, Ah Lu and Da Ke did not need to drive Jiang Yao around. Lu Xingzhi drove her to the restaurant.

After they sat down and ordered the dishes, Lu Xingzhi looked at Jiang Yao without blinking and asked, “Lin Shun and his grandson are in the Shengqi Hospital?”

“Yes.” Jiang Yao nodded. “How did you know?”

“His grandson hid when he saw me. He stuck his head out and stared at me like a thief. He thought that I didn’t know.” It was only a matter of seconds when Lin Shunhe turned around and hid when he saw Lu Xingzhi, but the man had noticed it. “Fire him.”

“There’s no need, right? He couldn’t stay in the army anymore. It was you, wasn’t it? As long as there’s nothing wrong with his work, there’s no need to do that. The hospital is lacking manpower recently. There’s no need to force him into a corner.” Jiang Yao shook her head.

Only then did she ask about Chen Feitang. “Has Chen Feitang been eliminated? Chen Feibai had woken up twice, but he had asked about that. He wanted Chen Feitang to see him immediately after she had been eliminated. He said that he would wake up whenever Chen Feitang’s there to see him, even if he were in a coma.”

“I told you that Lin Shunhe should be fired. People like him are petty. If he stays here and then finds out that the hospital is yours, he will do something behind your back. Something that would harm your interests.” Lu Xingzhi’s tone was very decisive. “Listen to me. I know him better than you do.”

Jiang Yao had wanted to observe for another two days before she made a decision. However, when she looked up, she saw Lu Xingzhi's decisive expression. It was not a discussion, nor did he want to listen to her opinion. That was his way to inform her. Jiang Yao smiled and shrugged. "Very well."
