

Chapter 781: Can't get out of Void

“Team 1 is in place. “Team 2 is in place.”

All the sequences of the bomb star are ready, the following is the turn of the sanctuary sequence. ”

On the outer wall of the northeast corner of a villa in the Lonely Diamond District, Sonia held down the combat communication device in her ear, Ruby’s eyes were calm, and she silently reported in her heart: [The fifth team of the Sanctuary is in place. Next to her, there are the little cast stars, Di Mi, Hyperbolic Sabre Yadas, and Shield Ji Aixia. Among them, Aixia is not even a Sanctuary Warlock. It can be seen that in the entire battle sequence, they basically belong to the melon eaters. treatment.

The effect came out. Girum, but Sunniru’s powerful hidden hand sword, “Trozhn Zhili University’s new master of the display device,” these sanctuary powerhouses who have been famous for a long time are basically compiled before the sanctuary. Three teams, that’s the actual order of operations closest to the front.

As for the village girl, the eldest young master of Vosloda, and the passerby king of the abyss, these young people who have just entered the sanctuary, even if others use them as cannon fodder, they have to measure whether they can delay the legendary invader for a second or two. If you encounter legendary magicians of the blood and necromancy factions, it's okay that they can't have the effect of yang blocking, in case they become the casting materials of legendary magicians", it is simply thrown into a foreign country by heaven and man.

Therefore, Sonia and her team are responsible for protecting the prophet Wen Aixia on the periphery, forming a second encirclement network. In case the Legendary Intruder really got out of the ambush, and his eyes were still in their direction, he would * Aisha all the way to track, intercept and signal as much as possible.

The time is now 6:58 pm, and the scheduled action time is 7:00 sharp.

Sonia looked up at the sky, the starry sky seemed to be more dazzling than usual tonight, they were clearly guarding the area where the street lights could not shine, and the little stars were still draped over them like a veil.

Seeing that the village girl was still distracted at this critical juncture, Dimi, Yadas, and Aisha couldn't help but express their respect. All of them were so nervous that their palms were sweating, Aisha kept biting her nails, Yadas kept stroking the handle of his dual knives, and Di Mi spent a lot of effort to maintain steady breathing.

In front of the legend, the unique family background, the experience of killing through the abyss, and the first-sequence spells are all meaningless. One legendary ultimate move could destroy their sanctuary, annihilate their bodies, and disperse their souls, and they might not even be able to raise the idea of resistance.

In order to let the sanctuary magician understand the threat of the legendary battle, before the action, the painter of Jianhua University's president "showed the power of the legendary magician – she took out the oil paint and drew it towards her neck. A bloodstain was smeared across the neck of the Sanctuary Warlock.

In front of the ultimate technique, any flaws will be magnified ten thousand times.

The most knowledgeable Di Mi in the base, but also the most feared one, because his father Zhuxing Gong is a real legendary magician. No one understands the horror of legendary magicians better than him. He still remembered the last time when he was sparring with his father, when Duke Zhuxing waved his sword, it was as if the whole world was about to split him.

Of course, the upper and lower limits of legendary magicians are also extremely large. Some legends raise their spells to the level of demigods, and some legends not only have no progress, but even fall into the realm over time; some legends can condense perfect pure color virtual Wing, some legends have phantom wings that are as mixed in color as Lala fat is rolling in paint; some legends have a whole set of four-wing magic spirits, and some legends have only one or two quadruple-wing magic spirits...

But in any case, a group of young people who are wandering on the edge of the sanctuary, now actually want to participate in the battle to kill the legend, how can they not be excited, how can they not be nervous and fear? Advanced Legendary Casting is not a legendary magician from generation to generation. The action called today. Maybe it will become the greatest of their cattle

Great achievement.

I was there when I killed an exotic legend!

The reason why the captain of Sanctuary Team 5 is Sonia is because both Timi and Yadas feel that they can't beat Sonia and have no face to compete for the position of captain, not because they recognize the leadership of the village girl. But now they saw that the village girl was so calm, and it was inevitable that they had some admiration despite being ashamed.

What they didn't know was that the sword saint who stretched his claws and claws was converting his sword-colored magic power into colorful magic power at this time. Last night, the three of them fought each other, and she, Yaxiu, and Diya all condensed a little bit of different-color magic power, which means that she can also be detected as a legendary magician. Fortunately, after she came back, she never used the magic power again, and kept using the eclipse dream secret poison to reverse the magic power, otherwise she would not be able to hide her secret. As for the fading dream secret poison can be converted to each other, Sonia also tried it today to know, after all, how can a normal magician convert high-wing magic power back to low-wing magic power?

Half a year from zero to become a legend, Sonia felt like a monster just thinking about it, she couldn't imagine how much waves this news would make, so she didn't plan to reveal her legendary four wings at all, unless she completely condensed the phantom wings Climb to the top of the stars with the highest sequence combat power.

However, although Sonia was reversing her sword-colored magic power to hide her identity, she was ready to reveal it.

When necessary, she will instantly convert all the magic power into sword-colored magic power, bursting out the legendary rank battle power, and she will kill a * path in Gale World at all costs.

Even the consciousness of treason has been made, and the legend of siege seems so trivial. What's more, it's not that she hasn't surrounded and killed the legend. Last night, a stupid blood magic legend was beaten by them.

The teams are ready and the action begins.

The voice of the command center sounded in his head, and three light curtains appeared in everyone's field of vision, which was the vanguard perspective of the Star Guards. According to the detection of magic power fluctuations, the legendary magician hid in this villa, and the Star Guards sneaked into the villa to investigate the situation under the protection of miracles such as quietness, shadow movement, and light wind.

As soon as they entered the villa, they discovered many miracle traps by investigating miracles, but thanks to the shining of the stars, all miracles were invisible in front of the Star Guards, and they were all passed over. At the same time, the Outer Star Guards, Sanctuary Squad, and Legendary Magician also prepared miracle spells, but they did not dare to use their magic power so as not to disturb the legend of the country. The miracle of the highest sequence of Le Shi washes the floor, and the entire villa will evaporate in an instant.

The bomb star team entered the second floor and gradually approached the master bedroom. When Dan Xing Zhan Tu gently pushed open the bedroom door, Sonia seemed to hear the futile breathing of countless people in the communication system, and even heard a violent heartbeat—perhaps it was just her heartbeat. ...

In the next second, a legendary battle will break out. The magicians were nervous because they were afraid that they would be affected and die; as for Jian Ji herself, she no longer knew what she was nervous about. Are you afraid that the legend of the leading country is too strong, or is it afraid that the legend of the foreign country is not strong enough? All the magicians saw through the light curtain that a middle-aged elf male was sitting in front of the desk, with his hands on the handles, his eyes closed, as if he was dozing off.

The most peculiar thing is that his hair is a snake, and these snakes seem to notice something. They bow their waists and stare at the Star Warriors. They keep spitting out their snake tongues to warn the Star Warriors. Some snakes are licking the middle-aged elves. Urging him to get up quickly.

The magicians suddenly tightened their minds to the limit – they were discovered!

However, the star fighter in the lead took one step, two steps, three steps, and swung the sword. The middle-aged man's head was cut off and rolled on the oak floor, and his snake hair gradually stiffened until it turned to stone. The blood in the carotid artery of the corpse splashed for nearly a meter, and finally fell slowly on the desk.

Dan Star Wars Ten took out something similar to a searchlight, and it illuminated the flow of grass-blue colors on the middle-aged man's body. The deceased has been determined to be an archery legend, and the recovery process has been examined. "

The other Star Bomb squads quickly broke into the villa and rummaged through the boxes, breaking the miracle trap. The corpse of the archery legend was immediately dismembered and sealed, and even sealed by a miracle, excluding all resurrected backends.

Until now, Sonia and the others hadn't reacted – is this the end?

A legendary magician, just died like this? Without resisting or even noticing, his head was cut off by the Eleven Knives of Star Wars, and he died quietly? "Ha!" Aisha gasped suddenly—she I was so nervous that I held my breath just now, and my face turned red before I regained my senses.

"It's that simple?" She couldn't help asking, "So the legendary magician is also." Aisha looked at the "painter" hidden in the sky, and pressed it under her tongue. On the other hand, Di Mi frowned slightly: "No, the state of the legendary magician is very strange. As long as the magic faction has studied the mechanism, it should be able to have a strong intuition, and it is impossible to have no response to the death crisis.”

“And he is also a legend of archery, and his intuition and sensitivity can even be compared to blood, fist and claw, and mind. UU reading www.uukanshu.com is slightly inferior to the three mysterious factions...” To be reasonable, the moment the Star Guards entered the villa He should have felt something in his heart. ”

Sonny nodded lightly, swordsmanship is also a faction with extremely keen intuition, and others will be noticed by her if they watch her for more than a second – but she also has the intuition sensitivity of the legendary archery with her rich experience as a beautiful girl, which is definitely only higher than her. Not low. —

“He is connecting to the virtual realm,” Yadas said suddenly.

The emperor agreed very much: “There is no other explanation for going up. Could it be that he encountered some difficulties in the bed and couldn’t quit in time?”

“It’s better to say that when a foreign country is wanted and hunted down, he still dares to connect to the virtual realm. Do legendary magicians like to play so exciting?” Cai Xia only felt amused: “Doesn’t he have any tasks? It’s impossible. Come to Fanxing just to enter the Void Realm?”

At this time, a message passed into the minds of the team members: Now start to search for the second legendary intruder hidden in the Lonely Diamond area, and temporarily issue a residence order. If you are asked by the head of the household, you can show this order and ask him to assist in the search. The unoccupied house will be searched directly. Please try to remain silent throughout the whole process.”

[Sanctuary team five, this is your search area.”

Sonia immediately called up the area map and focused on one of the villas: No. 13 Tianxing Road, Guzhuang District.

Owner: Felix Vosloda.

Chapter 782: I'm here for an appointment

A traffic accident occurred on Tianxing Road. A homeless man suddenly broke into the traffic flow and was run over by a dump truck. The traffic department has blocked the south-to-north section of Tianxing Road. Drivers are advised to adjust the route in time j

“According to witnesses, the man was in a trance and appeared to have symptoms of taking drugs...”

... The police have not found any identification information from the homeless person, please notify the police department as soon as possible if you know any information about the homeless person...] Igula, who was wiping her hair with a towel, looked up at the car TV, and suddenly said: “He looks like a cursed spirit. ““Um?”

Ash, Harvey, and Rose all raised their heads and saw a picture of a dead man in a car accident broadcast on TV. Although it was a bit horrific, it was still clear that the deceased was handsome and handsome, and his hair was bunched up. Bunch, suddenly looks like a snake.

“Although I don’t know what a curse spirit is.” Rose, who was driving the car, said, “But this person’s hair should be extremely poor in personal hygiene. He hasn’t washed his hair for several years, so his hair is so greasy and knotted?”

The co-pilot Ash also said, “The elf’s characteristic is pointed ears. Although his ears are a bit big, they are not pointed ears, right?”

Igula also nodded without refuting, he just wanted to use this to stir up a topic: “Miss Rose, we two are new role-playing companions that Mr. Heath has found, I’m Igola, you can call him Harvey. .I trouble you just now.”

The three of them came out of the stinky river, so naturally they couldn’t take the car directly, and Muygula couldn’t bear to be stinky for more than ten minutes. So they went directly to a nearby residence, hoping to borrow a few sets of clothes and a bathroom to wash.

Rose was going to give him a reward, but the owner of the house found that Yaxiu was also inside. He didn’t want any money in addition to the ecstasy. He only asked Yaxiu to take a photo and sign with him. He didn’t even care about Yaxiu’s dirty appearance and rushed over. Shaking hands with Ash, showing a pilgrimage-like devotion on his face.

Ash further realized that Heath seemed to be a really powerful character in this world. Is the copywriter so powerful?

Between the baths, Ash simply told Igula the current information. After thinking for a moment, the fraud master flicked Ash’s forehead – Rose misunderstood that you are not very good, little brother, why do you have to explain? Do you take the initiative to increase the difficulty?

Now it is time to stabilize Rose, make good use of Heath's legacy, and find out how they came to the Kingdom of Stars and how they can go back.

Rose's acceptance of the matter was surprisingly high: "Hello, Mr. Igola, Mr. Harvey. I have no problem with your full role-playing game, if you can get it when Ash shows signs of rushing out and streaking. I will be very grateful for holding him down. After all, that incident caused many partners to cancel Yaxiu's endorsement – although there were also many partners who wanted to carry out in-depth cooperation after the event..."

Igola asked, "What if he runs naked indoors?"

"If the number of people present is ten, you can ignore it, but if he starts to self-deprecate or even spray any one of the ten present, I hope you can confiscate his tools in time..."

"You don't need to discuss something that I will never do in my life." Ash said, "We will have a role-playing discussion next, Rose, just act as us." Rose looked around for a week and pointed to a roadside. At the bush, he said, "You will run naked and no one will see you. Do you need me to lean over?"...

Yaxiu focused on Rose's forehead, and the latter's eyes suddenly became sharp, and she let go of the steering wheel and turned to pull Yaxiu's face, scaring Yaxiu and Igula to shout the steering wheel quickly, and she took a leisurely hold on the steering wheel. Timely turn at the intersection.

"Why do you have such a big reaction?" Yaxiu complained, "And you were the one who hurt me first!"

"No, I'm obviously thinking about you, and I'm caring to help you find a place!" Luo was so angry that she was like a blowfish that just exploded. Fight back!"

So strong!

Yaxiu suddenly realized that her childhood sweetheart assistant seemed a little abnormal, just like she didn't know the danger of letting go of the steering wheel, and she didn't realize that the words just now were hurting others, but her IQ and EQ were not flawed, just There is an autonomous but unrealistic methodology in mind.

But this thought went round in Yaxiu's mind, and he was relieved quickly – he never met any normal people along the way, from Black Crow to Harvey, from Yindeng to Jianji, and even himself. Psychological problems, perhaps this is the normal state of life. "Igula, what do you think?" he asked back.

“There is a serious lack of information, and I can’t make guesses out of thin air. Otherwise, what’s the difference between nonsense?” Igula asked, “Miss Rose, is there a * in this world?” “Are you referring to the straight line or the idol line?” Pine said: “If you are an idol, I’ll be next to you. For a dry powder, Ye Xiu: Heath is oil.” “As for the real type, I haven’t seen it yet.”

Igula nodded: “Since this year is 1668, that means. Does this world have a history?” “Of course.

“Who is the king now?”

“After the first Star Revolution three hundred years ago, the royal family has stepped down, and now it is a democratic republic parliamentary system...” Who is the prime minister?·

“Ms. Tiaret Sterling.”

Igula looked at the two of them and said softly, “The Queen of the Stars is called Tiaret, but not Sterling.”

This paradoxical feeling made everyone feel more and more confused. There is no magic system, no gods, the social system has entered a democratic republic, and the level of technology is similar to that of the stars, but it is not supported by the magic system, but through the industrial revolution and the electric revolution to increase productivity, but the prime minister seems to be the same person as the real queen.

At this time, the sports car drove into the garage of the villa, and Rose said, "If you want to learn about history, there are all kinds of historical readings in the study, simple, complex and detailed – every time Ashe wakes up, he will start to read history. Book."

Everyone had no choice. After getting out of the car, Igula looked at the familiar villa under the stars and suddenly said, "At least it is certain that the stars and the stars are closely related that we cannot understand."

Ye Xiu and Harvey nodded silently. If it doesn't matter, it would be an insult to their watch dealers, "Axiu, is it that apart from you, both of us have just appeared in the kingdom of stars in the past two days?"

"It's not me, it's Hiss." Ash replied, "His' ability to come in before seems to be related to his tactile ability. By the way, Rose, when did I start saying that I was going to the Blood Moon?"

“Eight years ago, when you were about to enter university at the age of seventeen.” Rose answered immediately. Yaxiu gave evidence and looked at Igula: “Eight years ago...Professor Schilling unearthed the four-pillar religious ritual books, also eight years ago.”...

“But no, why did I live in the kingdom of stars from the very beginning, instead of being a homeless person at the age of seventeen?”

“Perhaps it is because you have lived in the kingdom of stars since you were a child that you are qualified to be a touch.” Igula replied, “You are the special solution that the Four Pillars are looking for.”

“However, the point here is not you, but the two of us.” The fraudster pondered, “We only appeared in the kingdom of stars in these two days... and these two days just correspond to our itinerary.”

Harvey said, “We came to the Kingdom of Stars only two days ago.”

Ash was startled: “Could it be that when we enter the kingdom of stars, we will copy ourselves and project it into the world of stars?”

“Projection, your description is very accurate.” Igula followed Rose into the first floor of the villa, expressing a sympathy to Ash’s reasoning; “It’s not a complete copy, Bi Yi, according to your observation, the chef Harvey and the tramp make Gushula. They are completely different from our original characters – although they are not empty and opposite. But they are like the shadow of our body – the same. Some of them are our beans.

The emotion of abandonment. ”

Ash suddenly stopped.

“So...” He murmured, “Could it be that Sword Princess is also

“Our relationship in reality seems to be projected here, so you can meet me and Harvey so quickly.” Igula said, “If our reasoning is accurate, maybe... Ash looked at Rose: “You know each other.” A red-haired girl named Sonia Servey? She must have a deep connection with me. “Ross blinked:” You said whether you know each other or not, I probably know it, and it fits what you said – I have a deep relationship with you.

She took out the slide phone, tapped it a few times, and handed it to Ash. Igula and Harvey also gathered around – they had long wanted to see what kind of bad woman abducted their stupid child. Then, they saw a ferocious, violent, and spiteful wanted notice. Death mad demon Nya Servi]

Suspected of serial murder, the number of victims has reached 11 |

On the screen of the mobile phone, there was a red-haired girl who was running away. Her red eyes seemed to be dripping blood, and the violent room revealed when she looked back was clearly visible across the screen. For example, there are cruciform scars on her face, but the silk room does not damage her beauty, but adds a bit of crazy beauty.

“At a banquet not long ago, she suddenly broke in and killed one of them, almost cutting off your head.” Rose asked, “This should be considered a deep connection?” Igula and Harvey looked at Ya Xiu glanced at him, and stopped talking. Ash looked at it for a while, then suddenly burst out laughing. “What’s wrong?”

“It’s nothing, it’s just a pity.” Ash shrugged: “I finally put on a whole set of makeup, but...” He looked up at the starry sky, “It seems that I won’t be able to make it to the date. Kingdom of Stars, Tianxing Road 13, Lonely Diamond District. Extra.

Yadas snorted coldly, fully showing his disdain for the extravagant life of the nobles.

Timi shook his head, "I only know now, but this should not be our family's property. From the architectural style to the decoration, it does not conform to the style of Vosloda." Aisha was a little puzzled: "It's not yours, It can't be your brother earning it, right?" "It was left to him by Felix's mother." Sonia suddenly said, "He told me before." The other three were slightly startled before thinking of Sonia He is a student of the same class as Felix, and he is also a student of Professor Trozan. Only now, no one regards Sonia and Felix as peers, even Felix is already very good. ...

"Do you want to inform your brother?"

"The command asked not to disturb the people in the house. "Dimi glanced at the villa without any lights:" and he probably wasn't in it either. Let's check quickly and leave. "Fanxing door locks are all authorized mechanical locks. When holding the highest-level search warrant, all door locks can be opened with one touch without damage. As for whether it can be installed with retro key locks, it is possible, but there is no production license to produce locks. It's illegal, do you think Fanxing will issue production licenses to retro key lock manufacturers?"

Qin Ni took the lead and strode towards the gate of Bieye, her red ponytail fluttering in the wind. If she stretched out her hand to check the door handle, she checked that the search warrant Bai Dong opened and made a crisp clicking sound, revealing a crack in the door, revealing the darkness inside the villa.

She stopped.

Standing outside the door, she is a swordsman genius draped in starlight, a swordsman recognized by Fanxing, and a sanctuary magician who is less than twenty years old.

Her network of contacts has begun to take shape, "Hidden Hand Sword Saint" Trozan, Rhythm Sword Saint Nidala, "Orange Dancer" Dong Ouni, and after tonight, she is also confident to win Xiaozhuxingdi Mi, Hyperbola Yadas, Shield Ji "Aisha, became close friends with them.

Everything is on the right track, and everything is moving towards a better future. She got everything she could not have imagined half a year ago. She is destined to become the brightest star in this starry sky. She will be more dazzling and brighter than everyone else.

What she has to do now is to live a successful and comfortable life. Let her advantages continue to ferment and accumulate until it develops into a new power of behemoths. She doesn't need to depend on anyone, she is a wealthy family herself, and she wants to make her and her mother happy.

Instead of choosing a turbulent life with turbulent winds and raging waves, all the hard work and luck in the past will be destroyed in one day. Instead of chasing those stray phantoms, she should protect the existing reality.

Silence or noise? Heaven or hell? "Captain?"

The Sword Saint stretched out his claws and stood in front of the gate for three seconds. Aisha felt a little strange and asked, "Did you find anything?"

"No." Sonia turned her head back and said with a smile: It was just that I was a guest here last time, when I was still a winged magician. I didn't expect to come back in a few months, and I would be a sanctuary magician. "Don't talk about Aisha and Yadas, even Di Mi couldn't help but twitch the corners of his mouth – isn't it great to be promoted from one wing to the Sanctuary in a few months? We can't do it and live well! Sonia lightly resting his left hand on the hilt of the sword, he turned his head to look at the door, the smile at the corner of his mouth gradually became wild, and the depths of his ruby eyes seemed to turn into a sea of blood. I won't listen to you this time, Ash.

If you had to fight in hell, wouldn't it be a heaven-level date? Jian Ji pushed open the gate of the villa, escaped the star's gaze, and stepped into the deep darkness. I'm here for an appointment.

Chapter 783: coffin in the basement

The expensive oak door shaft made a soft and smooth turning sound, and the little leather boots stepped on the spotless marble floor and made crisp footsteps. Sonia stepped into the dim first floor of the villa, crossed the entrance, and Xiao Ran clenched the sword in her left hand. handle.

With a little starlight from the window, her ruby eyes had a panoramic view of the living room on the first floor, especially focusing on the dark areas where people could hide. There was no shadow of anyone.

Her eyes climbed up the stairs to the second floor. There was only a Lady of the Night orchid swaying in the starlight at the railing on the second floor. The deep room was hidden in darkness. The restless golden fish, colorful tail, and the secret poison of the eclipsed dream suddenly quieted down. The sword saint stretched out his claws and loosened the hilt of his sword slightly, and turned sideways to let the team members come in.

“This decoration is pretty good.. It seems that your brother is really not at home.” Aisha came in and looked left and right, “I thought I could see an interesting scene where your brother is messing around!”

“Although Felix has some bad Weiwen, he has high requirements for himself since he was a child, and that kind of thing will not happen.” Di Mi defended his younger brother very firmly; “He will become a role model among the nobles in the future. .”

“A role model among the nobles, do you mean to be extravagant and intoxicated?” Yadas sneered.

“Yadas, I know that you have seen ugly and shameless nobles, and I also know that the nobles have become more and more walled in recent years, and their ancestors have lost their glory. I am as angry as you are about this situation, because everything should not be like this. “Di Mi did not deny, but calmly accepted Yadas’ mockery;” In the era when the “Noble Act” was announced, all nobles were self-disciplined, beautiful, enthusiastic, noble, and the blessing of the stars was their reward, It’s also insurance for them.”

“Blood is not like it is now, the stars regard blessings as the right of the needy. It has also become the lower limit of the nobility. If the stratum does not violate the law, there is nothing to avoid. It can become the biggest pursuit of the evil people. ”

“I don’t know if I can save the fallen atmosphere and reform the aristocratic class from within, but if I don’t try, I will neither be reconciled nor give up.” Timi looked at Yadas: “If you want to reform the rotten class, The best way is to inject new blood. Yadas, I know you are still reluctant to accept such dirty things as noble titles, but Fanxing needs more of you nobles promoted from commoners to become better .”

“And your appearance will inspire many ordinary people to bravely embark on the path of magicians. Let everyone know that he has the possibility to become a shining star.” Yadas remained expressionless, but his tone was a little less sharp. : “I hate a class, and I have to join in to change it?”

“Because [The Nobles of the Stars] is the best system we can find at the moment. “Dimi said: “There is no reason why we should not take advantage of the great order provided by the Master of the Stars. “”The star aristocracy will usher in its demise one day, and the people of that era are lucky, they will witness a better world. “”But we are also fortunate that we can spend a lifetime discovering the dawn of a new era. “”well said. ”

Sonny drummed softly, quietly leaned against the door, pressed her back, and closed the door. The sound of the door lock being closed was perfect for her drumming. Yadas snorted coldly, but said nothing.

Wen Xia took care of her shoulders, “The voice I’m expecting is to hear your brother’s cry. It’s not the senior you’re talking about, just work it out, let me see here is the underground cell for watching your beautiful sheep. ”

Wen Xia rolled up the sleeve of his left hand, revealing a strangely complex green armguard. I saw her shaking violently, and the armguards unfolded layer by layer into a medium-sized round shield, which was very fantasy. But this is not a miracle, but a mass-produced magician’s creation [Shield Armguards]. Of course, Aisha bought an exclusive customized version. The weight and size not only perfectly suits a female magician of her size, but this shield can also serve as the casting medium for most of her magic spirits.

As the shield unfolded, a continuous layer of lacquer began to measure from Ai Xia’s body. She quickly thirst through the entire Bieye, and then a complex architectural composition appeared on the surface of her home. There’s a basement – shit, if we find out about the Vosloda scandal, will you, Timmy, kill us? You’re not bound by the blessing of the stars yet!”

Di Mi, you have learned the class helplessly: “Don’t talk about learning. And there is an underground rate in the eyes, isn’t it very T-learning. The previous few don’t marry and also have a basement.”

“But this basement seems a bit outrageous.”

“I visited this basement.” Sonia suddenly said, “That is Felix’s training room, where we used to fight with swords.”

Wen Xia glanced at the other two, and rolled her eyes, showing a playful smile: "Captain, we promise not to say anything, tell us honestly. Have you ever had a relationship with your brother... "

Under the icy gaze of the Sword Saint, Aisha-senpai's voice became smaller and smaller, and she hid behind Di Mi in fear, "...No, just say no, don't stare at me so fiercely?" Sonnyruya retracted Looking at the eyes, "I remember that the basement is very troublesome to open. Let's leave after checking the villa." "No." Di Mi shook his head: "What if the intruder hides in it? Aisha, do you have a solution?"

"Of course there is." Ai Xia looked around, her eyes suddenly glowed with a turquoise luster, predicting that a miracle would penetrate the living room on the first floor, "The traces of the construction of the mechanism are too obvious... Interesting, it is actually a mechanism triggered by a magic spirit, although I don't know if it is. What kind of magic spirit, but you don't need to know, just toggle the mechanism!"

As Aisha stroked the ground, the fireplace suddenly opened, revealing a deep spiral secret passage leading to the ground.

"Should we go down together?" Aisha asked, "Or Timi, you can go down? If there is a beautiful girl imprisoned in it, you might as well destroy the corpse or prepare in advance." "I'll go down with Yadas, Yadas will supervise me." Timi said, "The two ladies can just wait on the ground, and by the way, you can search other rooms in the villa." "Let's go down together."

Sonia suddenly said: "In horror movies, separate actions are often the prelude to death."

Hearing these remarks, everyone stared at the village girl for a few seconds, until Aisha burst out laughing; "I've never heard of a horror movie with a sub-domain artist – there are three sub-domain operators here. , no matter how you look at it, you are a little more terrifying!"

"But I don't like to act separately." Sonia suddenly twitched a little and stomped her feet and said, "I just watched a horror movie yesterday, and I was very afraid of this kind of scene... Either don't go, or go down together, something happened like this At least we can die together!"

The daring and daring attitude of the sword saint who stretched his claws and claws suddenly made the other two greatly refresh their cognition. It was only at this time that they remembered that Soni was only 18 years old, just entering the second year of college, and she was still a rose-colored flower girl.

Although they are not much older. But Soniru is indeed the youngest/youngest among them. But it is the strongest! This strange contrast. They feel funny at the same time. I couldn't help but feel a little more intimacy with the Juggernaut.

"Then let's go down together." Aisha hugged Sonia's arm and giggled, "Senior and senior will protect you!"

Sonny nodded obediently and took the initiative to walk behind, as if Ping was really scared. She walked and walked, her right hand tightly holding the hilt of the sword, and all the magic spirits of Soul Armor were dancing excitedly, ready to launch a slaughtering technique that would destroy the world.

"You're so nervous." Aisha noticed the tense Sonia, and couldn't help laughing: "Do you have so much stamina for watching horror movies?"

"Because I've watched horror movies that have the exact same plot scene as this one," Sonia said softly, "When the protagonist found something in the basement, someone in the team suddenly started to kill in order to hide everything in the basement... I'm worried."

"Alright, alright," Wen Xia waved his hand, "Emperor, although you attach great importance to his younger brother, his nature is less noble than that of aristocrats. Darth and Felix are not arrogant, let alone cover up for him." "That's good."n

A slight smile appeared on the corner of Sonia's mouth, and her voice became more gentle and kind: "Then I can rest assured."

Soon, the light at the end of the tunnel appeared in everyone's field of vision, and Sonia's body became more relaxed, but the killing intent in the depths of Ruby's eyes was gradually boiling.

in the current situation. Ye Xiu and the others just wanted to go outside and have a siege. Also, they can't talk about divorce and marriage. That's more risky. So their greatest oral ability is that Lang is leaning against Lix's hidden basement.

Two swordsmanship sanctuaries, and a soothsayer.

Soni Ru Xindan silently calculated that the combat strength of the two sides was poor, if they were to be unable to transmit information to the outside world. Then you must kill the two sub-domains with one blow. It is best to ignore their sub-domain defenses and behead them directly.

As long as the two Sanctuaries were dead, no matter how powerful Aisha's 'perfect shield' was, it was only a matter of one sword. I've already given you a chance, she thought, and if you don't come down, you won't have to die in the basement.

But rest assured, you will not be alone, you are just a prelude to the killing. Yaxiu and I want to break out of the kingdom of stars, many people will die along the way, many people... they will all come to accompany you. This long tunnel seems to be a shortcut to hell. I'm ready to turn into a demon. and.

When Timi stepped into the bright basement and exclaimed, Sonia's magic power began to stir, her killing intent began to boil, her magic spirit began to sing, and a miracle was about to happen – "Why is there a coffin here?"

Sonia instantly suppressed the restlessness in her blood, and the magic spirits returned to calm, releasing the right hand that was gripping the hilt of the sword. She made a cute nasal voice full of doubt: "Huh? Coffin?"

Chapter 784: Ash is under the quilt

The four walked into the basement and saw that in the center of Nuo Da's training room, there was a coffin carved with strange lines. When they got closer, they found that the coffin had been nailed up and could not be opened at will.

Wenxi and Yadas looked at Di You, Di Mi You caressed the pattern on the lid of the coffin expressionlessly, and said calmly, "This is the pattern of the necromancer. This is a coffin made by necromancers." Dunji tapped the coffin lightly, closed her eyes for a moment, and said, "There are three people...or three corpses in it. Your brother..." "There shouldn't be a systematic way of learning the necromantic faction in China,” Di Mi said. Said: “He may have obtained the inheritance of the necromancer in the virtual realm.”

“What about the corpse?” Yadas raised his eyebrows and sneered; “Did he make it himself, or did he steal it from the cemetery? Could it be the ancestor of your dog, the Sloda family?”

“I will investigate carefully.” Timi said seriously, “Although I believe that Felix will not commit murder... but if he blasphemes and steals the body, I will make him bear the price for what he did.”

Soniru looked at this talented pair, and Xinja remembered the psychic friend Yaxiu had said many times. It turned out that there would really be fools running around with coffins, and she always thought that Yaxiu was rude.

“By the way, the only place to hide people here is this coffin.” Aisha took out a light and took a look at the coffin: “It’s not a waste of time to check this,”

This lighting lamp is a small-sized abnormal color lamp for ‘mana fluctuation detection’. Relying on the large detection system of the group house, it can only be detected when the legendary magician drives the different-color magic power, but the legendary magician only needs to be safe and not use it. Heterochromatic mana, the big detection system will ignore it as a normal sample.

Therefore, a different-color lamp is needed. Its light is penetrating. Once the legendary magician is illuminated, no matter whether the other party uses the different-color magic power, it will be illuminated by the different-color lamp in various colors. The mission of the Sanctuary Squad is to take a photo of all suspicious persons and suspicious locations. Under the illumination of the heterochromatic lamp, no color appeared inside the coffin. The three corpses in the coffin did not show any traces of heterochromatic mana.

“Let’s go.” Sonia pushed Aisha away, “Go back to the top after the inspection.” Are you even afraid of coffins?” Aisha smiled and said, “You are too timid, junior girl, you are so arrogant. Development will have a very bad impact. I have a few horror films in my collection, let’s watch them together in the future, and practice our courage...”

Going back up the tunnel, Sonia’s mind also came alive – the three corpses in the coffin, are they the three of them?

Yes, this is Felix's home. As long as they seal themselves in the coffin, no matter which sanctuary comes over, they will not have to open the coffin for inspection. Although the necromantic faction is not welcome in Fanxing, it is not illegal. Does the second son of the dignified Duke even have the qualifications to practice the necromantic faction?

But there is a doubt here: Yaxiu should take a look at her, all condensed the different-color magic power, how did he hide the color in the different-color lamp. Ah, the secret of the eclipse dream! The eyes at Soni gradually lit up— That's right, she can use the eclipse dream secret poison to convert the different-color magic power back to the ten-color magic power. Of course Yaxiu can also! In this way, Yaxiu can hide his identity as a legendary magician, and in this encirclement and suppression Escape from the Legendary Action!

He only needs Ran to hold on for a while, and he can leave when the witch comes. Sonny doesn't even need to take him out of Xun Leshi. But [Yi continued to keep her own position in the kingdom of Fandom, although she said so, but the village girl has made up her mind that she will also go to the kingdom of gospel at the latest half a year.

At that time, either the witch Diya has researched a secret empty door that can stably travel between the two countries, then she can continue to develop in the stars; or if she arranges the rest of her mother's life, she will smuggle directly to the Gospel Kingdom and start a new life with Yaxiu!

If it is said that before tonight, Sonia was still swaying because of Ash's persuasion, but after a night of twists and turns, she has completely recognized her true heart. All her current possessions are precious, and she is willing to protect them as much as possible, but the most important existence corresponds to the determination to "do whatever it takes".

When she reached the ground, Qin Ni turned her head to look at the starry sky outside the window, took a deep breath, and felt refreshed. The whole world was so bright, and she relaxed.

The other three naturally noticed that as soon as Sonia returned to the ground, she changed from a tense state of combat readiness to a relaxed and cute girl. I thought that the sword saint is really afraid of tunnels like this. "Okay, let's leave after checking the other rooms. Sonia said in a brisk tone.

The four of them turned on the different-color lights, turned on the various rooms, and illuminated the cabinets and other places, and even the toilet and refrigerator were not spared.

Aisha and Yadas were in charge of checking the first floor, while Sonia and Dimi came to the second floor. When Master Vosloda inspected the kitchen, his face showed surprise: “Felix is here during the day?” Nia looked over and found that there was kitchen waste in the trash can. Judging from the freshness, it could be seen that it had just been thrown away. Yup.

Kenji suddenly remembered this—what about Felix?

Ash and the others are going to hide, but Felix doesn’t need it. Where has he gone?

There are three bedrooms on the second floor, Sonia opens the first room, no one; Dimi opens the second room, no one.

When Timi walked to the master bedroom, Sonia took the lead, held the door handle and pressed down, pushed open the master bedroom door, and looked inside.

The master bedroom is naturally the room with the best view in the villa. A sloping skylight is opened on the ceiling, and there seems to be a refractory device outside, so that the starlight fills every inch of space in the master bedroom. The cabinet, the floor, the bed, and all tangible objects are covered with a veil of starlight, just like being in the starry sky.

In this quiet and dreamy picture, the blond girl sitting on the bed is undoubtedly the only protagonist of Starlight. She has blond hair in a shawl, her cherry lips are charming, her legs are covered with a quilt, her upper body is wearing a tulle transparent pajamas, her plump * stretch the thin silk fabric into an exaggerated arc, her waist is full of hands, and her hands are wearing White silk long gloves, like a sleeping princess sleeping in the starry sky.

When the door was pushed open, she also opened her eyes, as if she hadn’t reacted yet, as if she had just returned from the virtual realm. But in the next instant, her face changed drastically, she grabbed the pillow next to her and threw it over! “Ah—”

The sound as if even the glass windows were about to shatter pierced through the starry sky, and Di Mi outside the door quickly explained: “We are here to search the legend—” Felix’s angry voice penetrated the entire villa: “You... Get out of here!”

Timi stepped back and said, "Felicity, is it really you? Go away! I don't want to see you! Also, if you dare to speak out, I'll... I'll..."

"We will never reveal the slightest bit!" Di Mi became serious in vain: "I promise you in the name of my brother!" "Go to die, die, die!"

When Sonia and Timi returned to the first floor, Aisha and Yadas also rushed over. Aisha looked excited: "I heard a woman's voice, did you catch Felix messing around!? Did you take a picture?"

Sonia glanced at Timi and shook her head: "Caught Felix, but she didn't mess around." Wen Aixia: -?
Timi: "Let's leave first."

The group left Bie Ye, Di Mi, you turned around to look at everyone, and said seriously: "Although I don't know why Philikus concealed his gender or why Father Xin would, if Di Mi made such a rude request, Please don't reveal it."

"It has nothing to do with the reputation of the nobles, this is a request from the elder brother." Di Mi bowed heavily towards the three of them.

The three looked at each other, and Yadas took the lead in stating, "I have no interest in discussing the chaotic private lives of nobles."

"Although I usually speak openly..." Aisha made a zipper on her lips: "But when it comes to the privacy of other people's reputations, I won't talk nonsense." "Felix is my friend and my junior brother. —Now it's a junior sister." Sonina smiled and said, "Of course I won't show her secrets." "However, you don't seem to have a good relationship with her. When she calms down tomorrow, I can help you talk to her. She chatted." Di Mi bowed again: "Thank you very much for your understanding."

"Let's go, let's go." Aisha laughed; "Although Felix wasn't caught messing around, the explosiveness of this discovery is not inferior to that of Di Mi, which is a pity you can't say it." Sonia pressed The communicator in the ear reports the information: Sanctuary Team 5 has completed the search in a specific area and found nothing.] Soon the four of them remembered the response message: "Please return to the temporary headquarters and wait for the next order." They didn't deploy their virtual wings, but walked back normally, so as not to interfere with the search of other Sanctuary teams.

Aisha noticed that Sonia had been looking back at Felix's villa, so she posted it and discussed in a low voice: "Have you not noticed that Felix is a woman?" "No." Sonny said; "Bi Yan has Weiwen who has many girlfriends, ah, no wonder she has been reluctant to accept Xixinya-senpai, so it is" "How does she look?" Ai Xia asked curiously, "But she is so beautiful in men's clothes. The original appearance is definitely not bad."

"A very beautiful blond girl with a very good figure. My roommate has an identical tulle pajamas, but she can't dress as well as she does. I really don't know how she usually corsets her breasts." Sonia recalled He said, "And..."

Jian Ji looked back at the window on the second floor of the villa in the distance, and the ruby eyes glowed strangely with blood: "Felix's legs are very long." ....

In the master bedroom of the villa, Felix hid beside the window to observe secretly. When she saw the Sanctuary team disappear around the corner, she let out a long sigh, and couldn't help but slumped on the carpet as her legs softened.

Really got through this!

Felix didn't expect that she could actually hide these three wanted criminals in the legendary operation! Tonight is also a thrilling adventure for her.

First, the two bastards, Yaxiu and Igula, took revenge, wearing her clothes and using her skin care products, and finally letting Ruan fall into a stupor. It can even resist the shackles of the will of the blessing of the stars.

For a gentle miracle of the mind like Igula, which does not damage the brain, Felix spent dozens of seconds returning to a half-sleep and half-awake state. But she didn't dare to wake up completely, she was honestly held by Yaxiu on the bed, and when they got to the living room on the first floor, she regained consciousness and used the surveillance system to eavesdrop on Yaxiu and the others chatting.

Yes, there are two sets of surveillance systems in the villa, one Igula and they took down as soon as they came in, but the second set was hidden in the furniture, they didn't find it at all! Of course, this surveillance system will still be affected by miracles such as tranquility, when Ash and the others discussed important topics, they would basically open a silent barrier, so Felix didn't know much information.

But it seems that because they were convinced that Felix had fallen asleep, Ash and the others did not deploy the silent barrier this time, revealing a lot of explosive information. Yaxiu dresses up so well because she wants to date someone! Igula and Harvey are actually promoted to the sanctuary through external forces! And Yaxiu also used a miracle that allows them to continue to climb Ruby Mountain! Yaxiu is already a legend sorcerer!

Yaxiu actually has a way to let the three of them enter the Ruby Mountain together!

Just when Felix was about to witness the birth of the legend of the soul and the legend of the dead, he found that the three silk criminals had not come back after entering the Ruby Mountain for a long time. At almost six o'clock, a notification came from her first miracle bracelet – the stars gathered in the legendary sub-domain to encircle and suppress the legendary invaders in the lonely diamond area!

Originally, this news had nothing to do with Felix, but she really has three wanted criminals here, and one of them is really a legendary magician! In the panic, she had to dial the secret number of the contact seat to ask how to deal with it. . UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

After touching the seat to understand the situation, she instructed her to put Igula and Harvey into the coffin. After all, these two people are only sanctuary magicians, and they are not the target of this encirclement and suppression operation. They are hidden in the coffin and then stuffed into the basement. Lix Vosloda's face doesn't care too much.

The biggest problem is Yaxiu, he is already a legendary magician, there is a high probability that he will have a strange reaction, and he cannot accept any inspection.

Touching the seat indicated that he could hide Ash, but Felix had to make a perch—she asked Felix to hide Ash in his room, and then revealing the secret that he was a woman would allow the search team to retreat voluntarily.

“Will the search force really retreat because of this?” Felix was suspicious: “In case they don't know I'm Felix, or—” “Yes.” Touch Seat assured her, “You're here. I'll understand in time.”

Felix does understand now, but this is the result of her wanting Sabbath—the last thing she wants Vosloda to know their true gender!

But now, Felix has no choice but to console himself at least to some extent. However, she was still gloomy when she sat by the bed, and couldn't help but slammed the bulging figure in the quilt.

Suddenly, Felix remembered something, went to the window and looked again, making sure that no one came back before he was relieved.

In order to hide Yaxiu just now, she first covered Yaxiu with a quilt, and then put her legs on Yaxiu, hoping to get away with it. Judging from the results, no one doubted that there was still someone in her quilt. only

I don't know if it was Felix's delusion, but when she opened her eyes, she seemed to see Sonia, who was the first to walk through the door, illuminate the quilt with a different-colored lamp. It must be an illusion, otherwise why would she cover me up? Felix thought to himself.

Chapter 785: Heath's Notes

“Without a production engineer, how could a high-precision machine tool be produced?” “Without a combat engineer, how could it be possible to maintain a peaceful order for nearly a thousand years?”

“Without the Thunder Magician/Water Magician/Earth Magician/Wind Magician, how could it be possible to develop electricity/resist floods/build tall buildings/regulate the weather?” “Without magicians, how did these key theories come out? It's so strange. already.”

In the indoor library on the first floor of Bieye, Ashe listened to Igula's exclamations and questions, and he felt a strange sense of superiority in bringing people from other worlds into modern society.

The technology level of the Star Kingdom is extremely similar to the previous life, and the process positions that the magician can simplify are all replaced by human machinery, so in Yaxiu's view, the history of this world is quite normal. But it was different for Igula. For example, it's like people discover that they need to drink water to survive, so people can't accept the existence of compatriots who don't need to drink water—to the cheater, the magician is to civilization, just like water is to human beings, believe everything. Civilizations are all fraudsters based on the class of magicians, and naturally they cannot accept this kind of technological civilization that can develop without magicians.

In comparison, Harvey is much quieter, his brain is almost dormant when dealing with non-necromantic affairs “Huh? The cemetery and burial culture are popular here!

Ash and Igula glared at Harvey and used their eyes to warn the latter not to mess around. The necromancer shrugged and continued to read the history book in his hand: “I can’t bring back reality anyway... Wait, the imperial mausoleum a thousand years ago is on public display in Jia Shi, and the embalmed remains of the empress are intact!”

Harvey immediately raised his head and looked at his two companions quietly. This black-skinned, curly-haired facial paralysis who seemed to have no blood and no tears ever since he met, now showed a pitiful expression, and his innocent eyes made people feel a little dazzling. Igula shook his head: “No!” “Millennium...” “No!” “Intact” .., no!”

The necromancer pursed his lips, his body trembled slightly, and Ash even felt that he would start rolling in the next second, so he had to turn his head to look at Rose: “If he is found to have stolen the bones of the emperor’s tomb, it will be very harmful to us. big impact?”

Rose thought for a moment, then shook her head: “No, as long as we give enough compensation, we can release him on bail pending trial, but he will definitely have a criminal record. But as far as I know, the guards at the Imperial Tomb Exhibition are not strong enough. Gao, we can actually pay someone to steal the bones, and even I can help you design a stealing plan that will not be discovered, and the probability of being discovered is not high.”

Ash looked at the deceiver: “If we find a way to leave and fulfill Harvey’s wishes before leaving, it shouldn’t have any effect on us.” Igula snorted and looked at the necromancer who was sitting upright. Master, said angrily, “Just spoil him.” “But you must be obedient during this time. If you make any trouble, I don’t need to say more about the consequences?” Necromancers are like chickens Nodding like pecking rice.

“Well then, before we leave, we will help you get the thousand-year-old corpse. s (Xin ”)/Okay!”

Harvey jumped directly from his seat, ran excitedly to the piano next to him and sat down. After a few simple tests, he began to play Qin ton, ton ton ton, brisk and pleasant notes entwined and flowed around his fingertips. , the whole library is filled with a cheerful atmosphere.

Now it's Ash and Igula's turn to be dumbfounded—this * can still play the piano? Rose said while massaging Ash's temple, "Do I need to register a copyright for a new piano song that I haven't heard before?"

"Not for now..." Ash gave her a slightly embarrassed look, "and I really don't need your massage."

Rose nodded, turned and walked away. As soon as Yaxiu breathed a sigh of relief, a cool touch came from his earlobe, which irritated him, and it was Rose who wiped his ears with a wet towel. "Rose, you really don't need your service here!" Ash jumped up from the soft chair, "You can do your job, just let the three of us study here!" The girl assistant was confused: "But I want to work Yes, my job is to provide you with personal service advice from criminal offenses to daily life." "But I don't need personal service in the future, I will call you if I need it!

. "That's fine." Rose's nose twitched slightly, "but my income will drop by 90%. The added value of my work is in personal service, and daily service is no different from ordinary housekeepers." "I don't have all the money. Is it in your hands?" Ash was a little strange, "You can have as much as you want."

"No, I will only get paid for the value of my labor." Rose shook her head: "This is the labor rule of the society."

. "But since the court owner has so requested, I can only accept your change of job for me." She said, breaking her fingers; "then I have to move out of my current apartment, and the mountain lions adopted in the zoo have to stop, and there is no need to do so. Money to fund welfare agencies... If I don't need personal services, can I leave at night? If I go to a high-end entertainment club part-time at night, will you accept it? I will wear a veil to hide my identity.

Yaxiu stared at her for a while, then had no choice but to sit back, "Can you help me get my ears out?" Rose actually took out a complete set of professional ear-picking equipment, ranging from cotton to ear-piercing.

Igula looked at this scene and smiled; “I think I will have a lot of topics to talk about with your girlfriend you have never met.”

From the moment they first met, the fraudster found that Rose’s care for Ash had reached a level of ‘strict fit’. It’s not too much, it’s not outrageous. For example, when Asher just took a shower, she would hand over a hand towel. When Asher sat in the co-pilot, she would adjust the height before and after, and pin the air-conditioning outlet to the other side.

. When he first came to the indoor library, Igula sat directly in the middle with the best light, and was stared at by Rose for three seconds before he had to give up the red leather chair to Ash.

Even the head massage, if it wasn’t for Igula’s eyesight, Ash, who was immersed in the history book, might not have realized that he was enjoying the services of a beautiful girl. “Please don’t,” Yaxiu immediately confessed, “I didn’t know I would have a childhood sweetheart assistant!”

“If the relationship here will be affected by reality, then you should have a very close relationship with her in reality.” Igula asked. “Is she your girlfriend before going to prison?”

“I told you that I’m not Zeth, the leader of the evil number, I don’t know.” Ash shook his head, “but it feels unlikely – if she is also in the blood moon, why didn’t she become tactile?” “And I Remember that I am an orphan here, but Rose has parents, but both parents died?” Rose nodded: “That’s right.”

“Look,” Yaxiu hurriedly cleared her suspicions: “She also has social relations like her parents, which should be the projection of the stars. I am an out-and-out Blood Moon orphan, and we definitely don’t know each other in reality!”

The more the cult leader said, the more confident he became: “And I have a close relationship with Jian Ji. It is only because of your mere deceiver that she may be provoked by you? I advise you not to have any bad thoughts—”

. Igula snorted and looked down at the history book: “Then I have one less topic with Jian Ji, only An Nan, Qin Na and Hei Crow are left, what a pity...” Yaxiu said, “I’m sorry, yes I’m so arrogant...but why is there Tamashi?”

“Guess.” Igula turned another page, raised her eyebrows suddenly, turned her head and took out several books on the bookshelf and kept flipping through them, muttering: “Interesting...” Did you find anything?”

“Except for a small number of people who were assassinated, most of the supreme rulers of the kingdom of stars died in a very dramatic way.” Igula laughed: “I was killed by a thunder arm, hit by a car, fell into a lake and drowned. There are even a lot of sudden myocardial infarction deaths, as if they suddenly lived to the end and were randomly arranged to die. Unfortunately, I don’t know the list of emperors and birth and death years in the kingdom of stars, otherwise I can be sure.

“Does death correspond?” Ash also became serious: “If I die in reality, I will die here immediately...” But on the other hand, if we die here, are we really dead, or are we really dead? back to reality?”

. At this stage of analysis, Yaxiu couldn’t help but feel a little dejected; “There is a lot of key information that we can’t get at all, and we don’t dare to experiment casually. At present, the gods known to be related to the kingdom of stars include the Four Pillars God and the Dharma Master Fanxing. This is not where we should be at all, if this is a game, then we are idiots who don’t know the rules and skip all the beginner tutorials. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

Igula didn’t worry much: “Then we can find the beginner’s tutorial left by other players. Ash was startled: “Other players? Who? The cheater glanced at him, “You.”

Ash immediately understood Igula’s subtext, “Do you think Heath will leave key information? Yes, every time he returns to the Blood Moon, he will lose his memory here. Now that he knows about this, he will definitely be prepared!”

. “I found a very interesting thing when I was looking through the books just now.” Igula wandered in front of the bookshelf, stroking the beautiful spines of various colors with her fingertips, “several books have folded marks.” “I once At first I thought it was Heath’s folded reading mark, and in fact most of them are. But in several books, the same page is folded – 18 pages.”

“Rose.” The fraudster asked suddenly, “Is the bookshelf here numbered?”

While rubbing the contours of Ash’s ears with a wet tissue, Rose replied, “Yes, it is divided into bookshelves 1 to 7.”

“That’s the 8th book on shelf 1.” Igukang took out a book from the shelf next to the piano. He opened it, and his face showed an equal face: “It’s a good son.” Harvey also stopped playing. , the four of them gathered together and opened what may be the only relic left by Heath. The first sentence in it made Yaxiu’s heart skip a beat. Am I dead?”

Chapter 786: encounter death madness

If you are already dead, then congratulate you and congratulate me.

I’ve been thinking about what to call you and me, but I finally decided to treat each other as separate individuals. These sound memories are still truncated personalities. Although it seems to be talking to myself, I am in the past and you are in the future.

[According to Rose, this is my third visit to the stars. Because there is no record before, and I don’t know what they found, I can only record my results this time-” [Angel First Chain: Mystery

The mystery that people witness and perceive will lose its ability. In short, once the ability of the magician is exposed in front of the stars and people, the magician’s magic power will collapse and the magic spirit will die. From silver magicians to legendary magicians, if they dare to appear before them, they are waiting to return to the ordinary.]

[This is the most friendly chain to me. In this world, the power of mortals is infinitely strengthened, and the magician is weakened to the extreme. With power and money, I can easily destroy any alien magician.

However, if all witnesses were sorcerers, the chain would not work. It is worth mentioning that because this is the chain that binds the angel, the angel will not be regarded as a sorcerer, and it cannot express any mysterious power, but it will not be affected by any mysterious power. |

[The angel body has not been captured by the master of the stars, there is only the projection of the angel in the kingdom of stars, we have enough time to arrange

From here, the color of the handwriting changes from blue to black, apparently a message left over from a different time period. Ash, Igula, and Harvey looked at each other, and they all saw that each other's faces were extremely ugly. They almost showed their magician combat power in front of ordinary people!

If they use the magician's combat power to drive away the gangsters and use the magician's miracle to cleanse themselves, then their magic power and magic spirit will be instantly evaporated by the first angel chain! Yaxiu is even more worried, but fortunately he did not show it in front of Rose The magician is a miracle, otherwise he would have to return to half a year ago! But compared to the chain, the most crucial content of this message is the real target of the Heath (the Four Pillars) and the Master of the Stars – the angel! But there are many angels Exactly which angel are they trying to deal with?

Moving entertainment works really can quickly accumulate capital. Fortunately, the civilization level of the stars and the blood moon is similar, otherwise I don't know how to make money.

Rose said, this is the sixth time I have returned to Zhongxing. I don't know why I didn't leave any information in the first two times. Maybe I didn't read the history book so I didn't find this notebook, or maybe I didn't get anything so I didn't write it at all.

“Second Chain of Angels: Concentric”

The first diamond chain is enough to cause harm, but the second lock is the key to Master Fanxing's upright grasp of the angel. Angels are not people. It doesn't have a heart either, but Dharma Master Fanxing forcibly gave it a heart, casting a chain that binds it with emotion. 】

Under the influence of concentric, congregation. All projections produce emotional personalities that are different from the ontology. It is not the opposite, but conducts each other, and the wall such as the body H is calmer. Then the projection will be more violent. The ontology has a habit of cleanliness, and the projection will become inviting: the ontology has great ambitions, and the projection will be seen... It's like there is a mind full of all emotional characters, what did the ontology take Projection will take what's left.

Having said that, there should be a possibility that the main body and the projection have the same goal, but I won't go into details.

For angels, there is no doubt that the body has no emotions, so under the forcible influence of the chains, the angel projection will gradually generate emotions. With the chain of emotion, the angel body will be more easily pulled into the cage of the stars.

But there should be another usage here: the concentric chain will connect the body and the projected mind. If the angel body cannot be pulled in, as long as the angel projection is killed, the angel body will be infused with emotion and completely gain the hearts of the people! At that time, Master Fanxing Naturally, there are countless ways to deal with angels with a heart. Seeing this, Ash and the others have been able to confirm who the angel mentioned in this notebook is.

The unintentional and inhuman angel naturally does not point to those magicians who have entered the realm of the gods, but refers to the most powerful existence in the ruby mountain. It always stands on the top of the ruby mountain. It used to be the prophet of ghosts, the angel of lake light, the king of time and so on. The magician who took the path of origin has made more than half of the ruby angels in the magician's manual! Although the concentric chain is interesting, Ash and the others didn't pay much attention until they saw the third message: [I didn't expect the concentric chain to have this kind of usage.

The touch of the stars came to me through the Four Pillars God, and I couldn't refuse, Bi Zhang...

In addition to angels, the concentric chains are also applicable to all projections. If the projection dies before the body, the emotion of the projection will pour back into the body. That is to say, as long as I kill a certain projection, I can trigger an emotional backflow, resulting in a big change in my ontological disposition, and even a complete personality change. 】

This trick is especially effective for the weak-willed ontology. I tried to kill four projections, except for one of the main bodies that were completely unaffected, the other three bodies at least became weird in character, and could no longer be an obstacle to the sense of touch of the stars.

By the way, although it has nothing to do with chains, this point is worth remembering. I know why the kingdom of stars is so much more peaceful than the real kingdom.

The leaders of the stars are basically the projections of the leaders of raising stars, but the leaders of raising stars do not talk about the focus of power, but at least the desire for power is extremely heavy, and it is infinitely approaching the upper limit of the blessings of the stars. Because of the influence of the concentric chains, there are more fans on the side of the stars, and there are fewer on the side of the stars. Naturally, the desire for power of the leaders of the stars has faded a lot, and there is almost no factional struggle. 】

The same is true for the general public, but the waves in the hearts of ordinary people cannot affect the order at all. In Fanxing, they are Jingtong people who follow the trend, and there will be no change in Zhongxing.

Emotional inversion phenomenon...?

As long as you kill the projection, you can distort the body through emotional backflow? Yaxiu was a little uneasy, and continued to read the fourth message.

There are no other chains. Dharma Master Fanxing spent thousands of years building these two chains and cages. It turned out to be worth it, and only I could enter the cage until it was opened.

This starry sky is the cage.

Dharma Master Fanxing stole three sides of the sky in hell, and she put one side in the kingdom of stars and the other in the kingdom of stars, so that the kingdom of stars can be projected onto the kingdom of stars.

The Four Pillars God said that when the angel is caught in the kingdom of stars, the two sides of the * sky will enter a state of resonance, and the ruby mountain will be completely blocked. Only the magicians of the star kingdom can enter the red main stone mountain, and the magicians of other kingdoms will enter even if they enter. If you don't come, then Dharma Master Fanxing can slowly find the locked angel. ”

If other kingdom magicians steal waves to Fanxing, then they will be trapped by Fanxing Dharma Master – Red Lord Shishan can enter but cannot exit, and the magician body is forced to be thrown into the Cantonese Star Kingdom, and will be easily found and eliminated by Fanzao government. .

However, I have never found the angel projection. It seems to be attached to the projection that already exists, and it is too difficult to find.

However, my efforts have not been in vain. I am now successful in my career and have a good relationship with all sectors of society. No matter what the Master of the Stars wants to do, I can use the power of mortals and people to defeat them. He only cared about forging the cage and locked the angel in the cage, but he didn't know that the Four Pillars God had already sent me to control the cage. | 【I just need to wait until the angel is locked in. 】 The fifth message: 【I should have thought of it. J

How could other gods miss the hunt for ruby angels? The whole star wants it, the four-pillar * wants it, and so do other gods.

The Four Pillars of God informed me that by corroding the ruby mountain, the gods created several 'evil rolls' in the kingdom of stars. The evil roll can manipulate the magician and call the magician's combat power, but it is not affected by the mysterious chain. One day the angel was caught in the cage of the stars, and other gods would send legendary magicians into the red main stone 111. As a result, they are also locked in the cage of the stars, and the cage of the stars is in the mountain of the red main stone 11. When they find the devil again, they will be able to break out the legendary battle force in the kingdom of the stars without any scruples, and hunt for angels. !

But it's not good for me, I don't have the combat power of any magician, so I can only use the power of mortals. But the Four Pillars told me not to worry. Just complete the haptic instrument track. I will gain the power to solve all puzzles. Last message:

. End watcher, this is the name of my full sense of touch.

After completing the ritual in one day, I can not only get out of the body, but also become a perfect angel container, containing the ruby angel in it, and gaining a person beyond the Lord of God. Unlike other gods, the Four Pillars are not interested in gaining the power of the ruby angel, they simply hate the angel and wish it would die immediately. This should be my last message, and next time I will return as a final viewer. 】

Then, I will stand on the top of the ruby mountain and kill the angels. Under the gaze of the gods and the gaze of all beings, I will increase my power to become the supreme existence beyond the six wings. Ash closed the notebook and fell into a long silence.

Rose touched his head: "I know it's hard for you, after all, it's really embarrassing for someone to find out and read such a black history diary." "Rose," Ash said, "can you make a cup for me. Hot tea?" No problem. "

When Rose left the library, Ash took a long breath, "It's not my props – we're indeed in Ruby Mountain now.

The kingdom of stars is the projection of the kingdom of stars inside Ruby Mountain. As soon as Ash, Igula, and Harvey came to Ruby Mountain, they were pulled into the kingdom of stars.

They can't go back to reality now because Ruby Mountain is blocked by the starry sky. Except for the starry kingdom, it is isolated from the inside and outside; even the starry country is only allowed to log in and not log out.

No wonder Fanxing Kingdom wants to kill exotic magicians, there is no room for compromise, because in the eyes of Fanxing, all exotic magicians are thieves sent by other gods to pick peaches.

It is not difficult to see that the entire country of the stars is the material used by the master of the stars to create the cages of the stars. Using mortals to reduce their mysteries and using emotions to activate their minds, what Dharma Master Fanxing did was to put the ruby angel in a cage.

She spent so much effort, time, and resources just to hunt angels, how could she allow others to pick peaches? Why do you want to kill angels?" Harvey asked, "Do you want to use its corpse?"

"It's fine for one god, if all gods want to kill..." Igula pondered: "That means that if gods want to reach a higher level, killing angels is a necessary condition." "The point is how should we leave." Yaxiu sighed: "As long as Dharma Master Fanxing doesn't untie the sky, we can't leave for a day. So either the sky is broken, or..." The angel died. "Igula said calmly: "If the prisoner dies, there is no need to maintain the cage. ""Find out the angel?" Harvey said earnestly, "I think the angel is probably inside that thousand-year-old skeleton—" "Go away"

. Igula looked at Ash: "It is mentioned in the notes that you will become a perfect 'angel container' when you complete the ritual, so have you ever sensed where the angel is? Bi Zhang, as a container, you should be impatient to become one with the angel. ..

. “The tactile ritual must have failed. The final step of the Biyi ritual is death, and my body is still lying beside you.” Yaxiu said angrily; “How come we are ready to become When the legendary magician, this kind of world plot of the god-level happened, and our efficiency in triggering the plot is too high...?” “Perhaps it is not accidental,” Igula said: “Think about it, the star master wants to catch What is the biggest difficulty in living with an angel?” “A powerful angel?”

“” Wrong, the ambassador didn’t appear!” The bully shook his head and said; “No one took the path of origin in the Shanggan years, and the angel never appeared in front of people. But in order to preside over the inheritance of Yu Wish, the angels had to appear, so they were arrested by Master Fanxing and put into the cage of the stars!”

Although Igula is only speculating, the recent big event in Ruby Mountain is only the inheritance of Thousand Wishes, and then Dharma Master Fanxing immediately launched the canopy to imprison the angel. It is indeed difficult not to connect the two.

“But knowing these secrets doesn’t help us much either.” Yaxiu scratched his head: “Only by killing the angels, Master Fanxing will let us go out, but if you think about it, you know that Master Fanxing won’t let us steal monsters so easily.”

“However, looking for an angel is indeed our only option at the moment.” Igula said, “either for personal use or trading, even if it is to help Dharma Master Fanxing quickly kill the angel to promote the historical process, we can leave.”

“But here comes the question,” Axiu said, “how to find an angel?” Just when everyone was thinking hard, Rose brought in three cups of hot tea.

Igula was just about to pick a glass, but Rose avoided him, letting Ash choose first, and it would be the two of them when Ash was finished.

Yaxiu covered Wei’s mouth and smirked. At this time, Igula thoughtfully took a sip of hot tea and asked, “Rose, Yaxiu depends on you for everything, so has he asked you to find someone before? “”Yes.” Rose gave a positive response: “I’ve been looking for it every year. Everyone immediately cheered up: “Who is he looking for?”

. Rose took out a note from the small bag: "He is not looking for a specific person, but an object with specific conditions. Because his search conditions are the same every year, we have established a strategic partnership with the National Police Agency.

Ash took it over and saw that there were three analyses written on the note:

Because it is not human, its three views at its birth must be different from ordinary people, and it cannot integrate into society. Because it cannot integrate into society, it must be anti-social and appear ruthless. "Because if it wants to survive, it will most likely commit murder. |

Therefore, attention should be paid to the following groups: antisocial serial killers with abnormal three views.

. Rose: "Every year I get detailed information on serial killers across the country from the National Police Agency, citing your creative needs."

Igula nodded repeatedly: "Yes, Heath's analysis is well-founded, and we should investigate this aspect. Rose, is Ash familiar with the National Police Agency?"

"Three days later, there will be a dinner with the director of the police department, and now a fan of the general police department is helping him to call up all the residents' information." Rose said: "By the way, I made an appointment to go to the police department in the past few days to get this year's information. The murderer's information, you can go now."

'Rose!' Ash hugged his assistant happily, "You really helped a lot this time!"

"I have to help you every day." Rose pushed him away with her hand, "and I can't accept close physical contact, you don't think you can role play and mess around."

Thirteen minutes later, a sports car stopped at the gate of the Jiashi Police Department headquarters. As soon as Ash got out of the car, he immediately attracted the attention of all the passers-by around, and many people began to exclaim: "Is it Mr. Heath?" It seems that it is really him!" "Oh my God!

“You should be wearing sunglasses and a hat,” said Igula from behind.

“I’m not a wanted criminal anymore, but I still have to hide my face when I go out... Axiu Duzin said, and walked into the police station: “Can’t I be killed anywhere?”

Snapped!

Suddenly someone rushed out from the police station and slammed Ash on the shoulder. Yaxiu looked over with dissatisfaction, and found that it was a strange person wearing a hood and sunglasses to hide himself tightly. The latter glanced at Yaxiu and left without saying a word. “Hey,” Ash wanted to reach out and grab the weirdo, “you should apologize anyway.

Just as Yaxiu stretched out his hand, the geek suddenly stomped backwards at Yaxiu, and Yaxiu subconsciously retracted his hand to grab the geek’s leg. At the same time, Harvey and Igula also attacked the weirdo at the same time. slap hoo!

The strange man danced in a circle in the air, his hands and feet like swords and spears, and the three people’s combined blows were repelled with a crackle.

Igula and Harvey are nothing more, but Yaxiu is a legendary physicist, and the fist and claw faction also has the gold level shared by witches. He does not need any magic, and the combat power of UU reading www.uukanshu.com is also close to the limit of human beings. !Meet a random person on the street, how can you actually compete with him?

With the strength of their attack, the freaks jumped out of the police hall, jumped onto the fire hydrant, stepped on their sports car parked on the side of the road, jumped in the traffic, and crossed the road in the blink of an eye!

The three of Yaxiu were still stunned when suddenly there was a burst of thunder and fire from above!
Boom!

The strong explosion shook the entire building, and all the glass burst open instantly.

Ash and the others were almost knocked down. They rushed out immediately and saw thick smoke billowing from the third floor, the entire wall was blown away, and gravel was constantly falling below. "Ah," said Rose, who was pulled by Ash's hand, "it looks like you're going to cancel your dinner party in three days. How about a funeral visit instead?"

. On the stairs on the first floor of the police station, an injured officer stumbled out and shouted: "The director was killed with a bomb. She hasn't gone far yet. There's still time to catch her, hurry up!" Going to the other side of the street, I crossed the traffic flow, and saw the strange man standing at the corner just now, and it seemed that the police hall was exploding in Xintang.

She seemed to notice Ash's gaze, no longer lingering, and turned to leave.

It was just that the wind suddenly became manic, lifted her hood, and let her blood-red hair flutter under the stars. The next second, Ash chased the red.

Chapter 787: Are you an angel?

"Captain, did you originally want to see your boyfriend today?"

As soon as Aisha said these words, Dimi and Yadas couldn't help but look over. Who is the boyfriend of the red-haired sword girl?

Many people think that 'Jian Ji's boyfriend' is actually a smoke bomb, Jian Ji has no boyfriend at all, everything is a conspiracy of the club! The Claw Claw Club can digest Jian Ji internally, with extremely sinister intentions and extremely despicable methods;

However, almost all the students of Jianhua University thought it was true, because the sour smell of a girl with a love-brained girl was incompatible with the noble fragrance of a single aristocrat.

And Aisha has first-hand information, Ingurit is her best friend, Adele is her bad friend (because she deliberately made friends), and she herself is an analytical prophet, so not only does she know that Sonya has Boyfriend, it is also inferred that the relationship between the two is in the most ambiguous and rich cocoon-breaking period. To put it simply, the relationship between the two has reached the limit of being friends, and an entanglement of water and milk is urgently needed to sublimate the relationship to a higher level.

“Huh?” Sonia was slightly startled, but immediately realized that she was exposed, so she had to ask: “How did you know?”

“Because I don’t think you’re going to get a new haircut and new clothes for tonight’s surprise move.” Aisha blinked, “Don’t you realize you’re the prettiest one tonight?”

“Nonsense, you are beautiful too.”

“My beauty is the beauty that was broadcast on the radio to let everyone know, but your beauty is the beauty that was written in a letter and only wanted to be sent to a certain person.” Aisha shook her finger, “Don’t change the subject—then Is there still time for an appointment? Anyway, the search has been completed, and the rest of the patrol work should be left to us to complete, you can rush over.”

In the end, the search of the Lonely Diamond District did not find the second legendary magician, but the temporary command still did not give up, and let the teams patrol the surrounding commercial centers. If another legend really escaped before the encirclement, he would most likely hide himself in a crowded area. Therefore, the headquarters requires each team to release their own colorful magic power fluctuations while patrolling, which has no effect on ordinary people, but Warlocks will be well aware that a Sanctuary is patrolling. Since you can’t trap the beasts and fight, you can only scare the snakes. The Qunxing monitoring system is in full operation, as long as the legendary intruder reveals any flaws due to the provocation of the Sanctuary Warlock, it will be caught immediately.

But for Sonia and others, this is simply meaningless overtime work that is almost futile.

“Well,” Di Mi also nodded and said, “We will help you cover it up. Yadas didn’t say anything, but he acquiesced without objecting.” Thank you for your relationship. “Sonia smiled and shook her head lightly.” But it was too late. He seemed to have a temporary emergency, and tonight’s appointment has been cancelled.

“Is there anything more important than a date with Jian Ji?” Ai Xia grumbled, “You were urgently summoned to encircle the legend, so you couldn’t make the appointment. Could it be that he is also a Sanctuary magician and was caught by the Throne Hall to work overtime?”

“No.” Sonia shook her head: “He’s not a sanctuary. And I don’t blame him, after all, what he encountered tonight is indeed much more urgent than mine.” Wow.

: People still can’t help but be shocked

Dian Ran’s heart has long been expected

Shout out – Sonia’s lover is actually not a sanctuary magician. They thought that the person who could make Jian Claw Claw Sword Princess so obsessed should be able to completely conquer her in terms of strength, but now it seems that everyone is wrong.

“But isn’t it a waste of you to dress up so beautifully?” Aisha said, “When he’s done, he can continue dating in the early morning, right? They’re all magicians anyway, so it’s okay to stay up all night...Hey, the cakes here are delicious. , do you want to buy it to prepare?”

“what to prepare?”

“If he’s apologizing for not being there tonight, let’s eat cake together; if he doesn’t behave as expected, smash it with cake!”

Sonia smelled the rich creamy egg fragrance from the cake workshop, and the air was so sweet as if she was soaked in a sea of marshmallows. She likes sweets very much, but sweets are too high in calories and are not conducive to maintaining her figure, so she has been insulated from sweets since her freshman year.

After Aisha said this, the village girl suddenly wanted to eat cake. But instead of eating it herself, she wanted to see Asher eat cake, because according to Asher's restrained temperament, she would definitely eat cream on her face.

In this way, she can signal Ash to stay still, gently hold his face and press it, and then...

Under the gaze of the three of them, the Sword Saint stretched out his claws and claws suddenly blushed to the base of his ears, as if the temperature of his whole body had risen.

Timi and Yadas finally know why no one has ever seen Jian Ji's boyfriend, but the teachers and students of Jianhua University are convinced of this – as long as you have seen Jian Ji in this dry state, you will start believe in love.

Sonia looked up and smiled suddenly. I saw below the signboard of the cake workshop, there is another sentence:

“Love, deliciousness, and fat have one thing in common: you all want to share give to someone.”

Snapped!

After Axiu opened the trash can, he saw a black shadow box smashed into his face, so he kicked it with his legs high!

The cake box was torn apart in an instant, and Axiu's boots immediately smeared a big lump of cake. He wiped it casually, and saw the crowd at the entrance of the cake shop being pushed away, and the harsh sound of sirens filled the starry sky.

The smear of red turned into the alley and was about to disappear from his field of vision. Yaxiu stomped on the fire hydrant and jumped to the wall. Every step of the way, he stepped on the grooves and gaps of the wall to maintain the height. He walked over the 20-meter wall within three seconds, and chased after the panic and dense crowd!

He actually didn't know why he was chasing, but before he thought about it, his body had already started to move on his own accord.

Internal five.

'Death Maniac' Nia Servey.

Yaxiu was quite sure that she was the projection of Jian Ji in the kingdom of stars, but she was just a projection. According to Rose, Nia doesn't know Ash Heath at all, and she's a serial killer herself, so what if he catches up?

But if he just missed everything, Ash couldn't forgive himself. letter of karma

Even if it's really just a shadow. That's her shadow too. <
Axiu rushed into the alley and saw no one. His eyes quickly collected information and found the footprints leading to the dark alley on the right from the garbage on the ground.

Step by step follow-up!

One lunge to keep track!

However, when he turned the corner, a clear sword light illuminated his eyes!

Zheng!

Yaxiu bent back to avoid the slash, and wrapped his hands and legs around the opponent like tentacles! However, the opponent took out the second sword in his left hand and slashed over, and he was about to cut Yaxiu into a stick!

The cult leader firmly suppressed his desire to release the sanctuary, and felt the opponent's sword path with his heart. Between the lightning and flint, his fingers grabbed the sword body just right to stop the slash, and then slammed the body, and when he pushed the opponent away, he grabbed a sword!<

Wait for him to stabilize his body Shaped, the cold sword shadow stabbed towards his whole body. Seeing this scene, Yaxiu breathed a sigh of relief, and held up the sword flower to meet him. For a while, the sound of sword blades arguing in the dark alley was incessant.

As time passed, both Ash and the other party were gradually surprised. The other party is naturally surprised that someone can compete with her in swordsmanship, and Yaxiu is also the same – the swordsmanship realm projected by the sword princess is almost the same as that of the real sword princess?

“I didn’t expect Mr. Heath to hide such a high level of swordsmanship.” In the interlaced sound of sword cries, a cold female voice suddenly sounded: “As expected of a genius who is famous for moving the stars.”

Yaxiu was suddenly excited: “You know me?”

“Except for a baby born less than a week ago, who wouldn’t know you?” The other party said coldly, “I just didn’t expect you to do this for Rossena. It seems that you and Rossena are close relatives and friends, brothers and sisters. relationship.”<3

Ash guessed that Rossena was the unlucky person who had to make a funeral visit in three days, and quickly explained, “I’m not a-”

“Then you will also become my target.” The clear and pleasant voice was full of hysterical madness and viciousness at the moment: “I will gouge out your eyes, cut off your tongue, puncture your tendons, puncture Your eardrums will make you lose all your senses, and then you will slice off your flesh with one sword and one sword, so that you can only survive and die in the infinitely painful reincarnation!”

“You can’t escape no matter where you hide, I will take the initiative to visit you, no matter day or night, whether you are awake or asleep, I will always stare at you and pester you all the time—=”

“Really?” Ash was overjoyed, “That’s great, I’m just worried about how to invite you to my house!”

Opponent: “?”

In this chaotic alley sword fight, Ashe gradually cleared his mind – no matter what, it was the best choice to hold Nia in his hands. First of all, Niya can't die. If Niya dies, it will trigger the phenomenon of emotional inversion, which will affect the real sword girl. Although Yaxiu is very confident in Jian Ji's firm will and believes that she can resist the emotional influx, he is not willing to let Jian Ji take unnecessary risks whenever possible.

Secondly, Ash recalled the idea of Heath looking for angels:

Because it is not human, its three views at its birth must be different from ordinary people, and it cannot integrate into society.

Pv Note 0

Nya, a serial killer who dared to make an explosion at the National Police Agency, perfectly fits all the requirements for an angel suspect!

Maybe Yaxiu's luck is really so good, and he found the projection of angel possession from the beginning!

But in this way, Nia will become the target that all the gods want to kill. But this can be discussed in the long run. Maybe they have a way to get the angel to leave Niya? And if Niya is really an angel, then Yaxiu should protect her, so that she can't be arbitrarily used by Master Fanxing or others. Kill, so as not to affect the body of Jian Ji.

So Ash asked directly, "Are you an angel?"

Chapter 788: ashe is mine

"Is this some new type of dirty talk?"

The red-haired female swordsman sneered: "There are more people who call me a devil, and you are the first to call me an angel."

Will the projection of angel possession know that it is an angel? If it knows, will it confess or pretend?

Yaxiu couldn't judge, but he didn't need to judge now, and said sincerely, "I'm not taking revenge or arresting you, I'm here to help you!"

"Celebrity Arthur Heath, why do you want to help me with a wanted criminal? Do you think I am an ignorant girl?" The red-haired female swordsman suddenly became manic, and her voice became even more harsh and resentful: "Do you think I am an ignorant girl?" Can you lie to me? You think I'll let my guard down because of this? You're a despicable, shameless bastard, I'm going to stab you under you with a sword."

"Shut up." Ash's sword stance accelerated accordingly, "My tolerance limit for your swear words is a small horn."

"Ha, why should I listen to you, an orphan bastard!" she scolded wildly, "Give me the trash!"

She suddenly put the horizontal sword in front of her, and Yaxiu didn't know so she slashed it with a sword, as if touching some silk thread, the red-haired female swordsman danced in vain, and the long sword drew a wonderful arc, from Yaxiu Xiu attacked from an undefended corner!

Yaxiu instantly recognized the prototype of this move – it was Jian Ji's own miracle, Meteor Tribulation!

At this moment, Yaxiu also completely understood the relationship between projection and body. No wonder those who are high-ranking people in reality are still high-ranking people in the stars; no wonder Nia's swordsmanship is comparable to that of legendary magicians.

The projection will synchronize all the abilities of the ontology, including but not limited to sorcery realm, skill proficiency and social ability!

Even if the projection has no magic power, the magic ability of the legendary realm of the sanctuary is far beyond ordinary people in the kingdom of stars, just like Yaxiu can play dozens of them with his bare hands; not to mention that the magician is often still Leaders, managers, organizers, the ability of these interpersonal relationships will not be compromised in the kingdom of stars, so the life trajectory projected on the stars will not be too different from the main body in the stars. <

 But after recognizing it, Yaxiu really couldn't dodge this trick for a while.

He can't use magic spirits or sanctuary, because Nia is not a magician at all, and any mysterious ability he uses will directly evaporate and become ineffective; and in the boundaries of mortals, once Nia's reaction is successful, it is indeed impeccable!

If that's the case...then don't hide!

Yaxiu directly raised his arm and ate the sword. He rushed forward like a bully and hit the red-haired female swordsman against the wall. He grabbed the opponent's wrist with his right hand and made him let go of the hilt, and then used his elbow and knee. Suppress the opponent's strength points everywhere, and successfully suppress the opponent completely!

With a little light from the starry sky leaking into the alley, Yaxiu finally saw her face: a face exactly like Jianji, the same ruby eyes, the same long red hair, but the pupils were full of impatience that Yaxiu had never seen before. Yu is crazy, his hair is messy and greasy and he has not taken good care of it at all. She has a hideous cross scar on her right face, and the whole person looks like a mad cat with scars, directly opening her mouth and biting at Ash's arm that was holding her neck!

Yaxiu gasped in pain, "Relax!"

Instead of letting go, Niya began to pull hard, as if she really wanted to tear off a large piece of meat from Ashe's arm!

You don't get lucky!

. Mutually

blah blah blah.

The footsteps of boots resounded like thunder in the alley, and a police officer, fully armed and loaded, stepped on the ground flooded with sewage, turned on the flashlight, and searched every place where people could hide in the alley. when they notice the alley fork

The beam of the flashlight shines in the past, and two figures are immediately found.

The two people in the alley were leaning against the corner of the wall, their bodies almost overlapped, and their heads were pressed tightly together, as if they were kissing intimately.

A patrolman asked nervously, "Who is that!?" "Ah?"

The frightened man hid the woman in his arms, looking at the police officers with expressions of confusion and surprise: "What happened?"

"An extremely vicious murderer escaped into this area just now... Wait, you are Mr. Heath!?"

When the patrolmen saw the man's appearance clearly, their jaws were stunned, Mr. Heath, why are you here!? This, you..."

"Sorry," Axiu said with a wry smile, "I'm not planning to announce my relationship yet, so when I go out on a date and make out, I can only choose such a remote place... You also understand that if there is an affair with me, it will affect the woman. It can cause a lot of social pressure, and I have a lot of crazy admirers.

"Yes, I understand, I understand." The patrol officers looked like they'd eaten a melon. "Then please show your ID cards to cooperate with the inspection..."

"I'm fine," Ash was a little embarrassed, "but once the information about me and her is registered, it's easy to spread out from the National Police Agency... In case the reporters find out..."

The patrolmen looked at each other and nodded: "Since it's Mr. Heath, there is really no need to register. By the way, Mr. Heath, have you seen anyone passing by during this time?"

“I think I heard someone running down the alley just now.” Ash replied.

“Thank you very much for your cooperation.” The patrolmen thanked and continued to chase down the alley.

As the footsteps gradually faded away, Asu breathed a sigh of relief, and suddenly received a heavy blow in the chest, pushing him away.

The red-haired female swordsman rolled on the sewage ground and held the long sword in her hand again. The sword edge pointed at Yaxiu.

“Isn’t what I did just now not enough to show my goodwill?” Ash said calmly, not angry, “I will use my reputation to help you hide it, or you will be hunted down by more than a dozen guns now. You may be crazy, but at least you should still be rational, right?”

“If it wasn’t for you to stop me, I would have escaped by now.” Niya said coldly; “and I still don’t believe you.

“I’ve helped you so much, how do you want me to show my sincerity?”

“You have no reason to help me, there is only evil for no reason in this world, and there is no good for no reason.” Niya said, “The more you protect me like this, the more I can’t believe you.

“I have a reason to protect you, but I can’t tell you the reason.” I don’t need your protection. In return, I won’t hunt you down. I’ll treat you as if I haven’t seen you, and you won’t see me either.

“and many more!”

Yaxiu stopped her, not knowing what reason to use to keep her for a while. Talk about the relationship between the stars and the stars? Not to mention the huge amount of text, but if a normal person is told ‘you are just a projection’, will anyone be willing to accept this reality?

He supported his forehead, suddenly let out a long breath, looked at Niya in the dim starlight, and said seriously: "Because I like Miss Servey, I want to protect you." The alley suddenly became quiet and silent, and the noise in the city became extremely distant. The starry sky formed by the high wall adds a dark blue filter to the alley, so that the two people looking at each other can clearly see each other's expressions. After a long time, Nia shook her head: "I don't believe it." "But," Ash tried to get closer: "I'm telling the truth." "I don't know if you're telling the truth, but I know you don't like me. "Niya raised the tip of her sword slightly and warned him not to approach, "When you tried to trick the patrolman by kissing just now, you didn't really kiss, but created a visual misalignment with me, making the patrolman think we were kissing.

Ash was startled: "I, that, I just want to respect you—" "More importantly."

Niya stared at him and shook her head gently: "Although you are looking at me, I don't feel your gaze, it's like... It's like you're not looking at me at all."

"Don't come near me again," she said, slowly backing away, you lie... little horn. "

Ash stopped in place, watching Nia melt into the darkness and disappear without a trace. He exhaled a turbid breath, sat down against the wall, and used the "Le Sword" to heal the wounds on his body.

. Aiu

Unlike Jian Ji, Niya really dared to stab and bite. He raised his head and peered at the stars in the sky through the cracks in the alley. After a while, he suddenly let out a wry smile.

"Sure enough..." Yaxiu said softly, "I can't lie to her. Ye Jing

After confirming that the Star Guards were all evacuated from the lonely drilling area, Felix hurried to go.

Air flow. Free

The basement pried up the nails of the coffin lid and moved the coffin lid to allow the air to circulate so that Igula and Harvey would not suffocate in the coffin.

But she didn't plan to move the coffin up, one is that it can avoid surprise inspections, and the other is that she doesn't want to — who wants to have a coffin in the villa!

Felix returned to the second floor of the villa, pushed open the door of the master bedroom, and saw that Ash was still lying on the quilt.

She sighed and didn't know when these guys would come back. If they didn't come back for a day, it was a burden she couldn't take off.

She also thought about whether to kill them or not, but Igula mentioned it intentionally or unintentionally, there are miracle spells triggered by death in their bodies, and once they die, they will explode. He is a mental shock, and Harvey is a natural disaster of the dead. As for Ash It is even more powerful, and it will definitely make the entire kingdom of stars shake. Felix doesn't know if it's true or not. How can she, a two-winged magician, judge the methods of a sanctuary magician, and can only take it as true.

If they are transported out and then killed, the risk is greater than hiding them. After thinking about it, hiding them is really the best option.

Felix lifted the quilt, squatted by the bed and watched, thinking where to hide Ash. Thinking about it, she suddenly began to look at Kia Xiu's sleeping face. Not to mention, although he was very annoying when he was awake, he was surprisingly cute when he fell asleep.

Such a person is actually a legendary magician, and for some reason, he still understands the Four Pillars of God and is followed by two sacred magicians. I heard that he has been to many countries and experienced many adventures, so being wanted and hunted down by Fanxing can be taken seriously.

What secret is this man hiding?

By the way, Felix suddenly remembered that Ash seemed to be dating someone tonight, so he dressed up and was teased by Igula and Harvey.

some time. But didn't they just come to Fanxing for a few days, why does Yaxiu have a date?

Felix stared at Yaxiu while thinking. At this time, the stars in the sky were slightly skewed, and Yaxiu, who was caressed by the starlight, seemed to have a streamer dancing on his face. Felix wrinkled his nose and reached out his hand subconsciously, trying to pinch Ash's face—

"You dare to try.

Felix froze, turned his head slowly, and saw the red-haired sword girl appearing beside the bed at some point, like bad luck in the starlight, like death in the shadows.

Her red hair was * in a ponytail with a delicate hair tie, and she was wearing a black top and red skirt with straps on her thighs, which was naughty and cute, yet sexy. Although she was talking to Felix, her ruby eyes didn't move away from Sleeping Beauty on the bed for a second. Although the plain words were filled with outright malice, her face was full of tender warmth, and Felix suspected that he was hallucinating for a while.

The Sword Saint stretched out his claws and put the cake box on the bedside table, and the sweetness of the creamy egg fragrance gradually spread in the bedroom. She stretched out her hand and gently hugged Ash, as carefully as she was treating a piece of art. "What's wrong with him?" she asked softly.

"He's been like this since he brought Igula and Harvey into Ruby Mountain. Felix explained it in the quickest and shortest words.

Sonia didn't say anything, just stroked Yaxiu's face with her hand, and UU Reading www.uukanshu.com stroked his bangs.

"We finally met," she said.

"Are you Ash's date tonight?" Felix's strong desire to survive made her realize what to say now to save her life “He’s borrowing clothes from me and begging Igu for tonight’s date.

“Are you Ash’s date tonight?” Felix’s strong desire to survive made her realize what to say now to save her life: “He borrowed clothes from me again for tonight’s date. It’s Igula’s make-up, please, really, really, really, really, really hard.’

A faint crimson appeared on Sonia’s face, “Well, I know.” So...” Felix’s tone was cautious as if he was facing monsters and beasts, “Are you lovers?”

Sonia hugged Ash tightly in her arms, and said softly but clearly, “But he’s mine.

Chapter 789: Can someone who likes Yaxiu be a good woman?

I am still an ordinary little red fox so far, but what will become in the near future... No one can predict, of course, it will not be the "fox spirit" that humans think, we can't become "fine". Human beings have always had prejudice against the fox clan. Insidious, cunning, suspicious, inflamed, etc., as long as they are derogatory words, they will be given to us without hesitation. This is unfair. As for me, I didn't come to rehabilitate the fox clan, and I'm not that great. I still feel puzzled about why I was chosen as the "spirit fox"! What is a "spirit fox"? Well, before the mission starts, it is necessary to explain clearly what "spirit" is. This word is very important and will be used throughout the whole story.

Since the birth of human beings, everyone's spirit has been closely related to the spirits of other creatures on earth. What is the connection? match each other. In layman's terms, a complete spirit is divided into two parts, one half is in the human and the other is in the corresponding creature. This is not based on human preferences. Maybe the other half of a person's spirit is attached to the cockroach he hates the most. On the body.

What's even more amazing is that the probability of encounter between humans and creatures with matching spirits is absolutely zero! This is strange, why not let the two meet? It is very simple, once they meet, the spirits will merge to produce a new species, and human beings will have the ability of corresponding creatures and activate their own hidden genetic code, thus evolving into mutants, that is, special functional humans or superhumans recognized by modern humans; Corresponding creatures will also undergo qualitative leaps, but it is unknown what they will become. This is a great thing for human beings, who doesn't want to be superman! However, this is only the idea of man, not of the Creator! His old * family made the rules, so the probability is zero. how could I know? This is the meaning of the existence of "Linghu". What's the point? Nature is our task. what task? Don't worry, listen to me slowly.

First of all, we must understand why the Creator wants to prevent this "good thing"?

Only the "secret" of the fusion of spirits and mutation is not only known to the fox clan, but the entire earth's creatures, except for the arrogant human beings, actually know it. Logically speaking, this is an excellent way for lower creatures to escape the human "table culture" on an equal footing. There are no written and historical records of animal races on earth. All animals listen to the "legends" handed down orally by their ancestors from generation to generation. There is no credible evidence or practice. The biological world is similar to the human world. For things like "legends", most of them just listen to them, and they will not be "stupid" to seek truth; even if there are people who want to verify, they will be beaten to death or eaten before they can find their spiritual master, and even more so. The tragic thing is that the furs of some animals are not spared by humans, and they are made into their “fashionable” coats... Some classic experiences have even become “warning words” for educating future generations. However, in the long history of the earth, it is also heard that there are people with “special functions”, but where did the animals corresponding to them go, there is no legend or record left... This is a better proof that animals and humans are in harmony. The “benefits” don’t exist.

To sum up, even if it were true, pragmatic creatures would not make fun of their short lives to facilitate cruel humans. Therefore, almost all creatures have tacitly reached a consensus: it is not in line with the three views of creatures other than human beings to find people to “come together”! Don’t laugh, we also have three views, but human beings don’t understand it.

Therefore, all species on the earth are the same as they are now: people are people, animals are animals, plants are plants, water is water, qi is qi... In short, according to the laws of the earth, they are proliferating and proliferating endlessly. , the cycle goes on and on, birth, old age, sickness and death...

Some readers may question that the total number of creatures on the earth is much more than that of human beings, and a single ant population is more than all human beings. How to define the matching spirit between creatures and humans? They have different lifespans and physical tonnages... For example, can the spirit of an elephant and the spirit of a ladybug merge with the corresponding human beings?

First of all, spirit is an invisible and tasteless energy substance. It is not distinguished by the size or mass tonnage of the substance. It is determined by a certain law, or it was originally designed by the creator, and we can only accept it.

Furthermore, not all creatures’ spirits can match with human beings, and there is no earth creature that must satisfy the principle of matching with human beings. To put it bluntly, the creator has mixed the principle of “true and false, false and true”. It is estimated that this is also an invisible barrier that restricts creatures from verifying this “legend”.

Even if there is a “barrier”, there must be rules for spiritual matching, right? This is similar to the law of “the strong eat the weak” in the animal world, and follows the principle of “select the strong at the same time”. “Same moment”: It corresponds to all the creatures that were born at the same time; “Selected and strong”: As the name suggests, it is to choose the spirit with the strongest energy among the spirits of all creatures randomly born at the same moment. It is said that a creature with this matching “spirit” will have a certain smell on its body that only the same kind can recognize, and it will logically have the supreme status and honor in this group, as well as the priority of this group. What is the right of preference? Of course it's about food, mating, territoriality, election of kin chiefs, and a whole bunch of other things that have to do with animal races. Similar to the "privileged" class in human society. Of course, creatures with this "privilege" don't know what their mission is, they only think that they are natural selection and will be reincarnated.

What about the other spirits of animals that cannot be matched with humans?

Automatic sleep. If there is no accident, most of them will die together with the deity. What is an "unexpected situation"? It's the spare tire, don't worry, let's talk about the role of the spare tire:

Do you think, what if a creature that can match the human "spirit" dies? After all, on earth, except for a few species such as trees and turtles, most creatures have shorter lifespans than humans. At this time, the "spare tire" spirit creature comes in handy. The spirit of the dead creature will automatically look for the young species of the spare tire before its deadline. Why is it young? There is no need to explain it; then it covers the original dormancy in its body. The spirit continues to attach to the living body of the same kind in its place, until the spirit of the matching human dies. Of course, the new host will also "inexplicably" become the "leader" of the group. What is "covering", it actually means extermination.

On the contrary, will the human spirit perish first? This is easy, and the spirit of the corresponding matching creature will die after the host is dead.

Can creatures of different races with matching spirits be distinguishable from each other? It's unknown, but I don't think it should be. For example: a hungry civet cat catches a spirit mouse. In order to fill its stomach, it will not mercifully let go of the spirit mouse. This is the survival instinct given by the creator to every creature, and it is above the matching spirit.

Can plants also match the human spirit? I am very sure of that. What I have always emphasized is "creature", and nature also includes plants.

What is the difference between plant spirits and animal spirits? Plant spirits are connected to the earth, so they can only stay still, and the spirits stay quietly in their roots, and the root is not dead, and the spirits of plants are said to be not dormant, but "awake". False, but judging from the relatively gentle and submissive character of herbivores, UU reading www.uukanshu.com should tell the truth. However, I do not mean to encourage everyone to be vegetarian. Human vegetarians are still fundamentally different from herbivores. Most of what he (she) eats is cooked food, and the cooked plants will lose their spirituality. Of course, I don't encourage everyone to eat raw plants, so please do your own research.

Whether the spirits of vegetarians are related to plant spirits, I don't know, who knows what the creator and his old * family thought, and besides, this story is not about matching spirits.

Long-winded, what's so special about the "spirit" of the fox clan? Yes, that's the key!

Chapter 790: Enemy road is narrow

"You like her so much? You don't even want to hurt her shadow?" Igula asked, "Or do you also inherit your love for the main body from the shadow?" "No, I just" Ash shook his head:" I think it's a little unfair to her, that's all."

Igula stared at him for a while, then nodded slowly: "However, it's too early to discuss how to deal with Nya, we who can't use the power of the warlocks. We may not be able to catch the death that can compete with you in swordsmanship. mad.

"Also, there is a possibility that she is not an angel. According to the data, she was a college student six months ago. She started serial killings five months ago, and has been fleeing and exiled until now. It is not that she committed the crime suddenly this month, and it is not like she was possessed by an angel. Caused by the mutation of the character.

"What was her motive for killing?" Ash asked.

"The National Police Agency didn't investigate," Igula said. "It is worth mentioning that she became an orphan when she was eight years old. Her biological mother and stepfather died in an accident." Ash was taken aback, "Jianji does have a mother. In other words, her mother has experienced emotional inversion before?" "It is very possible, but you should not pay too much attention to emotional inversion.

The fraudster checked the length of the information sheet, "For ordinary people, emotional backflow is not really meaningful, especially for those who have family burdens, even if their personalities become distorted, they are still rational and will be concerned about the opinions of the people around her, and will have a yearning for a better life, and even a sense of responsibility to take care of her family. If she continues to work to earn money and take care of her family, her personality will most likely gradually return to normal."

"Heath's notes mentioned a very important point, the difference in character between the shadow and the body is not "opposite" but "different", which means that they may have the same desires, interests, and even like the same people, but it's just that the character displayed is different." Igula spreads his hands, "and character is the combined effect of the objective environment and subjective consciousness. As long as the objective environment is strong enough to suppress the change of subjective consciousness, the character can naturally return to the right track."

"But it's different for the magician, because the reason for mastering the violence, the personality change is enough to make them have the intention to fight against the environment. The few people Heath killed must be successful magicians, for them work is just the way to realize the value of life, when the emotional backflow occurs, they are almost like depression, naturally they are not interested, and they are interested in continuing the work at hand,"

"Speaking of which," Igula asked suddenly, "what kind of strength is your sword princess? Just like us."

The deceiver showed an expression of "that's true", "Then we really have to be careful with Niya. If Niya dies and triggers the phenomenon of emotional inversion, what fuse will Jian Ji encounter in reality, which will cause her to tear up all the rules. The desire that she will really be a bad woman who is a good match for you."

At this time, Rose came back from the bathroom, sat down and looked at Ash and asked, "I forgot to ask just now—why do you want to protect Death Crazy Nia?" There are very complicated reasons for this," Ash sighed: "I don't know where to start." Do you want to hold hands with her, exchange bodily fluids, and engage in negative contact?"

"I don't want to talk to her, but—" Ash and Rose looked at each other, and suddenly felt that his explanation seemed meaningless, and nodded directly: "You understand it like that." So you won't hire her to replace me Assistant position?"

“The only person qualified to replace you is him,” Ash said, pointing to Igula, “but he doesn’t want to, so you don’t have to worry.”

Rose nodded; “Then I’ll help you. Niya has been injured, and the National Police Agency is monitoring the medical institutions of Quan Gong Shi. This is your best chance to catch her in the dark room. Yes, I will. To help you free up a fully soundproof room. Do you need me to buy * toys?”

The three of Yaxiu looked at each other, and Igula said solemnly; “This is indeed a good opportunity, not only is her mobility limited, but more importantly, she can’t walk around in this situation, she will only escape into the place where she is most familiar. We don’t even know where her safe house is.”

“I did a psychological profile of Nya just now,” Rose said. “She is the kind of criminal who is more dangerous and rational. She hides in the safe house without getting hurt, because she is worried about attracting the police. In the past, she would only go to the public places she was most familiar with, and even if she was discovered by the police, she would not feel distressed, and there was plenty of room for maneuver.”

Rose took out a map from her pocket and opened it, drawing three areas on it: “This is the area where she is most likely to hide—the mall where she used to work part-time, such as her university, and the location where she waited for a murder. .”

Ash: “Why-

“Because the first murder is like the first love to the murderer,” Igula explained. “The first time is always cautious, sympathetic, fearful, and anticipating, so she will definitely investigate the surrounding area in detail. , ready for all escape routes. Plus she’s a daring madman character, hiding in the location of the first murder, it’s a thrilling challenge for her.”

The fraudster glanced at Rose: “Have you studied criminal psychology?” Rose shook her head: “No.

“Then how do you know she might be going to this location?”

“It’s just a little bit of empathy.” Rose said, “Time is running out, Nia must be able to escape for so long, and she must have an efficient treatment method. In a few hours, she may be able to deal with the injury, so I have already Call the car for you, and you can go directly to these three locations to investigate.”

The three nodded and were about to leave the restaurant when they got up, but found that Rose was motionless, and Ash couldn't help asking, “Aren't you coming, Rose?”

“I'm not participating in the battle, and I've already placed an order.” Rose tucked a napkin into her collar and said, “Don't worry, I've canceled your dinner just now, you can go.” Rose. “Um?”

“Thank you.” Ash said, “But you don't seem to like physical contact, so I won't hold you.” Rose glanced at him and suddenly waved: “Come here.”

Yaxiu didn't know, so she walked over and saw her pointing at her waist: “You scratch here.”

He hesitated for a moment, stretched out his fingers and scratched at Rose's waist, and the latter was suddenly shocked like an electric shock, and a suspicious murmur came out of her throat.

“Okay, you've finished thanking you, go and * it away.” Luo level took a deep breath -[□ and tried to sort out her demeanor, but the redness on her face couldn't be suppressed, so Gu Hao waved to his boss to paint quickly.

Yaxiu walked out with a confused look on his face, thinking that this world still has such a way of thanking. He glanced at Harvey, reached out and scratched, but the Necromancer didn't respond; he turned to look at Igula, and just as he was about to reach out, he saw the Deceiver raise his hand, as if to say, ‘If you scratch me, slap me.

Nebula University.

Ash did not go to the most likely place of the first murder, nor the shopping mall closest to where Niya disappeared, but to the Nebula University where she once lived. Maybe it's because he has heard too many colorful college jobs from Jianru Najia. So he thinks that college youth is the most important place for Ni Tui. But after seeing the real soap, he felt selfish

I have thought too much—Xingyun University occupies a very small area, and the dormitory building is not there. Not many students stay on campus at night, only the laboratory building is lit.

But all came, he walked into the dark and dark comprehensive teaching building. There was someone hiding in Jianxiang Yuji. But Xiangzhi started to communicate with D5, and he felt that he might return to the wild mandarin ducks who opened a pure restaurant in Tangmaixian again.

In fact, Ye Xiu is not sure if he really wants to step up to the next level. He is not interested in the so-called angelic person. Then he can happily quit Ruby Mountain and go on a date with Jian Ji.

After all, why did he have to endure this kind of ink luck!?

Is it because he used [Little Four-Pillar Gate] to bring Igula and the others in? No, if they don't mess up and enter Fanxing, two days ahead of schedule is the hope that the kingdom of heaven will settle down, then Yaxiu will naturally help Igula and the others advance two days ahead of schedule, There is no way to unknowingly break into the blocked Ruby Mountain!

Why do they mess with the stars?

It's because the ghost prophet Vichy wants to take advantage of it when he sees it cheap. UU read www.uukanshu.com The dung truck has to taste the salty, and he wants to * the kingdom of heaven! Why did Senluo perish? Why did the silver lamp have to be turned into a * Doomsday Senluo? It's because the ghost prophet Vichy is doing something, and he doesn't hesitate to drag the entire world to its demise, robbing the gods!

Take 10,000 steps back, why did Yaxiu and the others become legendary magicians now? If they are not legendary magicians, even if the Ruby Mountain blows up, it has nothing to do with them!

They met the dream demon in the ghost inheritance, and then they had a way to trigger the eclipse, and the dream climbed the ruby mountain! If it wasn't for the ghost inheritance, they would have to honestly improve the faction realm to promote the legend! The root is the ghost inheritance!

So it's all the ghost prophet's fault!

Shifting all the responsibilities to the ghost prophet, Ash suddenly felt much better in his heart. At this moment, he heard the sound of the lecture hall in the distance, so he crept close to it.

The sound in the teaching army suddenly disappeared, as if the people inside noticed that someone was complaining. Ye Xiu Nei was careful with his karma and heart, and he said that he was so lucky today that he was caught in his class? He walked to the door of the classroom and gently pressed the doorknob.

He didn't hear any movement inside, but a strong premonition made him know that this opening would definitely make his trip worthwhile! After Ashmore counted three, the classroom door suddenly opened – but he didn't open it.

An elf girl wearing a white shirt and a black suspender skirt suddenly appeared in the dim classroom where the starlight reflected diffusely.

Yaxiu and the other party were certified at the same time, and immediately violent fluctuations of magic power broke out on each of them, and the magic spirits who had been silent for a long time in their souls were slapped their buttocks to get up to work, and sang and danced!" This is really "Axiu room does not hide it. own killing intent. "The road to the enemy is narrow." Vichy said with a grin. bfcbo.
