

Chapter 789

The rest of it was all hidden in a map, and this map was the one that Gu Si Qian had kept in his possession and couldn't decipher.

It just so happened that Bella Qiao was in prison some time ago, and felt a little bit of the door and drew it, which earned him this opportunity to work with him.

Both of them were silent at the moment, no one spoke, and the atmosphere was silent for a moment.

It took half a moment before I heard Gu Si Qian say, "As soon as the news of the Heavenly Book of Jades came out, the Vermilion Bird Society and the Dragon Corps, as the two major organizations in the area, were immediately caught up in the fight for this extraordinary treasure, and the two sides were fighting to a standstill when suddenly, each other's deepest secrets were leaked out."

"I admit, I used you at the time, but if I hadn't done that, we'd both have been dead by then, based on the fire that had already been fought on both sides!"

"Snipe and snipe and snipe! Even though we won the Vermilion Bird Society, we were still badly wounded, and then the Dragon Crew disintegrated and everyone scattered and left. Bella Qiao, haven't you ever wondered what was the reason for all of this in the end?"

Bella Qiao shook hard.

She lifted her head and looked at Gu Si Qian's cold face, and something flashed through her mind one by one, causing chills to run down her spine.

"You're saying that this was a game from the beginning?"

"Yes." Gu Si Qian sneered, rather mocking himself, "What heavenly book of jade, what resurrection from the dead, all of them are fake, but it's just a play that someone deliberately staged, so that two big organizations can be drawn into hostility with each other, into strife, and in the end, they both lose, in fact, that piece of jade, that play, and that map, all of them are fake."

He looked at her with heavy eyes and whispered, "Bella Qiao, we've all been lied to."

Bella Qiao stayed there completely.

In the back of her mind, she thought back to what the boss of the Vermilion Bird Society, the brother with whom she had once had a lifelong friendship, had said long ago.

He said, "Bella, I didn't think about immortality, everyone is dead, what's the point of living forever by yourself? I just wanted to use it to save Qian Qian's life, Qian Qian can't hold on much longer, Bella Qiao, if you're a brother you can help me."

Qian Qian, is his only daughter.

There's no reason why Jackie can't help.

To her, any treasure is just a thing outside her body.

She didn't care, but it never occurred to her that people would care.

The treasure that had provoked the bloodshed of several underground powers turned out to be just a game set up by someone.

As Gu Si Qian looked at her with a heavy gaze, his face rare and serious and cold, Bella Qiao raised her head, looked him in the eyes and asked, "When did you know?"

Kusken's fingers moved slightly.

Thin lips, "Half a month ago."

"That is, when I was about to be released."

He nodded.

Bella Qiao smiled sadly.

"If that's the case, then why did you agree to my terms? Let me help you decode that map code that doesn't do anything? Didn't you already know that it was just a conspiracy, a scrap of paper?"

The study was suddenly silent.

Gu Si Qian stood there in silence, like a lonely and stubborn pine.

He didn't say anything, yet Bella Qiao seemed to have sensed something, and with a touch of self-deprecation on her mind, she turned, and walked out.

The man's eyes, for a moment, narrowed hard.

Raising her hand, she took hold of her wrist.

"Where are you going?"

"Leave me alone."

Bella Qiao's voice was soft, but no longer had the indifference it had before.

His hand stiffened slightly, half-heartedly, but in the end he let go of her, dropped it, and said quietly, "Don't leave."

Bella Qiao didn't say anything and stepped out.

Throughout the night, the entire castle was a bit strangely stiff and cold.

No one knew what was going on, but it was clear that everyone looked a little more cautious tonight than they usually did.

The light in the main floor study stayed on all night.

On the secondary floor, a light in one of the bedrooms was also on, and also remained on overnight.

The next day, the early morning sunlight came through the window and spilled over the white sheets.

Georgie opened her eyes and was stabbed by the bright sunlight and couldn't help but raise her hand to shield her eyes.

The wall clock on the wall pointed to nine a.m., indicating that she hadn't slept long.

Last night, steeped in the knowledge of the truth, she ran back to her room in a panic, only to feel so confused that she couldn't sleep at all.

I sat there withered all night, thinking back a lot, until it was almost dawn, and then I managed to sleep.

It's only three hours from now.

But spare her, she wasn't going to sleep again.

Sitting up in bed, I picked out my lightest outfit and headed out.

Outside, Gu Si Qian is walking his dog in the garden.

A tall man, with two dogs in tow, was bending over slightly to tease them.

I could tell that he loved the dogs.

Since the dog was jumping and licking him, he didn't see him show any dislike.

Bella Qiao stood just a short distance away under the corridor watching him, her heart flashed back to what he had said last night, and those dense threads of memory were drawn together, causing her heart to weaken.

Just then, Ober came from a short distance away.

"Miss Jo, are you up?"

Georgie turned her head and nodded slightly when she saw it was him.

"Good morning, Ober."

"Eh, good morning."

Facing Georgie, Ober's attitude was naturally very good.

He looked at Gu Siqian who was walking his dog on the lawn and smiled, "Young Master also got up late this morning and hasn't eaten breakfast yet, would Miss Qiao like to use a little together on this side of the main building?"

Kitty Qiao nodded her head in agreement as she dropped her eyes slightly in thought.

"Yes, please."

"It's no trouble, so I'll go get ready."

He said, and then turned down.

Georgie stood there again for a moment, watching, then turned and went to the dining room.

In the dining room, Ober had already ordered breakfast to be quickly prepared and served up.

Even if it's just a breakfast, it's impeccably refined and luxurious.

Bella Qiao also unexpectedly found several kinds of her favorite food on the dining table, and she couldn't tell whether it was a coincidence, or whether it was specially prepared by Ober.

But as she came to, she didn't think much of it and pulled out her chair and sat down.

Kusken came in about ten minutes later.

Once inside, there was little surprise in her dark eyes as she sat there, as if she had expected to come over to see him this morning.

He handed the dog to the maid, went to wash his hands, and came over to sit down.

"Last night, think about it?"

He asked as he wiped his hands on a towel.

Bella Qiao was silent for a moment.

Deep down in her heart, she actually still subconsciously didn't want to admit that cruel fact, but she knew that Gu Siqian wouldn't lie to her, there was no reason and no need.

Chapter 790

At her silence, he looked up at her.

Georgie pursed her lips for a moment before saying, "Think about it."

Gu Si Qian's face did not change, but there was a dark light floating in the depths of his eyes.

"What do you think?"

Bella Qiao said quietly, "I admit that we were indeed deceived four years ago, but it is a fact that you killed those brothers of mine despite my pleas, and I can't pretend this didn't happen."

Gu Si Qian's eyebrows were dark.

"So, you must be against me?"

Bella Qiao was silent and said, "Before, I always thought that when I came out, I would seek revenge on you, so that I could do justice to their dead souls."

"But now I realize that everything was nothing more than their greedy valley owes, that someone had already abandoned the Vermilion Society long ago, and that it was their defection to the Chinese Society that led to that result."

"I'll find them to settle this debt, but Gu Siqian, the debt I had with you before can't be settled here."

Kuskan looked at her and didn't say another word.

After Bella Qiao said that, also feel too cold, but just these four years of days and nights, as well as, back then he sent her ruthlessly to the prison look, always haunted her mind, lingering, she did not have the ability to take it all in a big hand wave, do not care.

She cared, a lot.

Therefore, she couldn't agree to Gu Si Qian's request.

There was silence for half a moment before Gu Siqian said, "So what do you want?"

What do you want?

Bella Qiao froze there.

Truth be told, it was a question she hadn't even thought about.

She didn't know what she wanted, only that she couldn't go on as long as she was.

At the table, there was silence once again.

Seemingly anticipating her reaction, Gu Si Qian picked up his chopsticks and said, "Think again if you don't think about it, eat first."

Finish up and eat without a word.

Bella Qiao didn't eat into the meal last night, this morning, already hungry, at this time, see no more pretension, pick up chopsticks also followed to eat.

After breakfast, Gu Si Qian's phone rang.

He got up to take it, and Bella Qiao sat for a moment, watching the maids remove the leftover food, having wanted to take this opportunity to talk to Gu Si Qian.

But then it occurred to me that there was no answer to the question he had just asked himself, and for a moment he simply left it at that.

She got up and turned away.

Gu Si Qian stood to the side answering the phone as if he didn't notice her movements.

However, the corners of his lips, as the woman's figure walked out of the doorway, still curled up involuntarily.

Today's weather was excellent, the sun was shining outside, and after breakfast, Bella Qiao was somehow relaxed and sleepy, so she went back to her room and slept.

When she woke up again, she found that it was already afternoon.

There was a fierce smashing of the door outside and she frowned, getting dressed and getting up.

As soon as she opened the door, she saw Yusra Lin standing in the doorway with an angry face.

Bella Qiao is at peace with Gu Siqian's "soulmate".

She was not used to seeing such and such a woman around him, but she also knew that, with his pride, he hadn't looked down on such a vulgar woman.

The reason for keeping people around, I'm afraid there's another purpose, could it be that it's specifically to piss her off?

Bella Qiao lowered her eyebrows coldly and asked, "What's the matter?"

Yusra Lin was a little frightened under her cool demeanor, but when she thought of her purpose for coming over today, she involuntarily lifted her head up.

She puffed out her chest, trying to look superior, and said, "I have a necklace missing, did you take it?"

Bella Qiao frowned.

She didn't know what was going on in Yusra Lin's stomach, but what necklace? She didn't even see it.

So, in a quiet voice, Georgie said, "No."

Yusra Lin snickered.

"If you say it isn't, it isn't? We're the only two people living in this building, and these servants wouldn't dare to take it, only you might."

He said, and gave her a scowling glance up and down.

"Tsk, don't tell me, with this kind of dress, you weren't worthy of living here, it was Si Qian who took you in because he was so kind and couldn't bear to see you wandering the streets, even if you're not grateful, you're still stealing from me, surnamed Qiao, do you have any shame at all?"

Bella Qiao's face instantly went cold.

Her eyebrows and eyes were dark as she stared at her coldly and said in a deep voice, "Miss Lin, being the same woman, I don't want to lay hands on you, so I advise you to be more careful when you speak!"

Yusra Lin stalled, subconsciously a little afraid.

After all, she had seen Bella Qiao's skills before.

But thinking that this was in the castle, Gu Siqian's territory, even if she really wanted to do something to her, she would have to consider Gu Siqian's face anyway.

After all, it's up to the owner to beat the dog, isn't it?

Thinking like that, the dread faded a little.

She sneered, "If you've got the guts to admit it, you've got to have the guts to admit it, what? You're allowed to sneak around and I'm not allowed to say anything anymore?"

Bella Qiao looked at her coldly, as if she didn't even want to say a word to her.

Turn straight around, enter the house, and leave the door wide open.

"Come in."

Yusra Lin was stunned.

Some silly.

Subconsciously thinking she was actually going to hit herself, she even took a step back and put on a wary face, "What for?"

Bella Qiao looked at her with a blank expression and said, "I thought I stole your necklace? Come in and search it yourself, and if you find it, it's yours."

Afterwards, he simply sat down on the couch and didn't even bother to give her half a glance again.

This time, though, it was Yusra Lin who hesitated.

She had literally lost a necklace, and couldn't find it since yesterday when she had gone out to play ball with Gu Si Qian and then returned.

The necklace, which she always wore around her neck, wasn't much of a valuable item, otherwise the money-minded traffickers wouldn't have let her keep it when she was abducted by her ex-boyfriend.

Only, the necklace was the only thing her mother had left her, so she treasured it.

Thinking so, Yusra Lin looked at her, but she was a little confused.

Bella Qiao's attitude was frank, and he had the air of a man who was not afraid of the shadow of evil.

Yusra Lin held her tongue for a long time, but in the end, she couldn't say anything with a bottom line.

But that necklace is really important to her, the maids around her did not have the opportunity to take, and even if they did, she did not lose all the precious jewellery that Ober prepared for her in the jewellery box in her room, except for this one.

Evidently, the person who stole it was not necessarily doing it for money.

It's not for the money, then it's just for spite.

Looking at the entire castle, the only person left who had a problem with her, besides Ober, was Bella Qiao.

Ober was such a decent and cultivated man, and then older and a man, that he might not have come up with such a careful scheme against her.

Chapter 791

Then the one left would have to be Bella Qiao.

That was why Yusra Lin, without saying a word, came straight to her and asked for something.

But looking at her now, there was no fear that she would actually go in and search the house, did she really not take it?

Yusra Lin's mind was a thousand times changing, but it was here, so it couldn't be in vain anyway.

So, with a hard scalp, he said, "Search it!Huh."

After saying that, he took his maid, Peach, and went into the house.

The whole time, they were rummaging around the room, and Georgie was sitting on the couch without raising an eyebrow.

Instead, it was her personal maid, Moon, who walked in because she was serving her tea, who saw the scene and stared in shock.

"Miss Jo, what are they, what are they doing?"

Moon was a little anxious.

Bella Qiao still had that unmoving look and said in a quiet voice, "Xiao Yue, don't stop them, let them search."

Yue saw that although she was still a little dissatisfied, she couldn't say anything more.

The room wasn't particularly large, and with Georgie's own dislike of having too much stuff, it was laid out simply and wasn't hard to search.

After about twenty minutes, it was all searched.

Yusra Lin's face was very ugly, looking at Bella Qiao who had been sitting on the sofa and hadn't even given her a glance from start to finish, her heart only felt fire and her face burned with embarrassing heat.

Georgie looked up.

Gazing at her calmly, she asked, "Is Miss Lin finished searching? Did you find your necklace?"

Yusra Lin bit her lip.

Stubbornly, he said, "Even if it's not in the room, that doesn't prove that you didn't take it, maybe you hid it somewhere else?"

Bella Qiao raised her eyebrows and laughed out softly.

Yusra Lin was stunned.

Only, she wasn't as angry as she had expected, not even the slightest hint of anger.

She just sat there quietly and said in a deep voice, "According to you, you had to plant this crime on my head?"

Yusra Lin choked.

Being looked at by her cool gaze was somehow a bit of a guilty pleasure.

But it was a tiger in the rough now, and she had no way out, and today was the day to take care to offend this woman to death.

Rather than withdrawing temporarily at this point, it would be best to make a big deal out of it if she could be kicked out.

Thinking so, she had a malevolent glint in her eyes.

I'm not afraid to tell you the truth, Bella Qiao, that necklace was left to me by my mother, it's very important to me, if you really took it, I advise you to hand it over honestly, otherwise....."

"Or what are you going to do?"

Bella Qiao spoke in a clear and cold voice, her tone already a little dangerous.

However, Yusra Lin didn't hear it.

She just continued smugly, "Otherwise, I'll have Siken throw you out! See if I can do it!"

"Heh!"

Georgie laughed.

Her smile had always had that faint taste of laziness, but the more this happened, the more it appeared that Yusra Lin was worthless in front of her, as if she could crush her opponent to death with a simple squeeze of her hand.

She sneered, "Yusra Lin, I actually admire you quite a bit."

Yusra Lin was stunned.

Eventually.

I don't know what she's selling with that sudden statement.

Jackie continued, "You know what? Looking at you is like seeing a silly pen that doesn't know what it's doing, jumping in front of me, and every time I'm in a bad mood, I look at you and think that all the difficulties are nothing, after all, some people with stupid brains can still live well, so why shouldn't I?"

This time, Yusra Lin understood.

The face suddenly turned incredibly ugly.

With an iron face, she gritted her teeth, "Bella Qiao, how dare you..."

"Why wouldn't I dare?"

Bella Qiao stood up.

She was tall, originally slightly higher than Yusra Lin by five or six centimeters, such a station, the entire momentum was suddenly elevated, although with the naked eye it looked like the two were still about the same height, but for no reason one felt a compelling aura in the air, one could not help but be chilled.

First, you provoke me repeatedly, and now you're trying to frame me up. You are free to spill dirty water all you want?"

Yusra Lin was so shocked by her strength that her entire body trembled and took a step back.

She gulped and stumbled, "What do you, what do you want?"

Bella Qiao smirked.

At this point, Yusra Lin had been cornered by her.

She lifted a hand and braced it against the wall to the right of her head, leaning down slightly, a pair of sharp eyes staring into hers.

The two were very close at this point, so close that Yusra Lin could almost feel the cool breath she was spewing out.

This woman, even her breathing is cold, she really is not a normal person!

The thought flashed through her mind, and in the next second, only a pain in her ear, Bella Qiao suddenly touched a dagger from somewhere, and the cold flashing blade was right next to her ear.

Yusra Lin was so frightened that her face went white and she was only too stiff to move.

Even my mouth was shaking.

"You, you you, what do you want?"

Bella Qiao smirked.

A light breath blew on the side of her ear.

The voice was so soft that it didn't sound like a threat to her, but rather some sweet sentiment.

But it was only because of this that one couldn't help but grow more and more chilled, only to feel like a cold, creepy snake climbing all the way up from behind one's ear.

I only heard Bella Qiao say softly, "Guess where the last person who framed me like this and deliberately tried to get me into trouble is now?"

Yusra Lin thought to herself, she hadn't known her for very long, let alone knew who the last person who falsely accused her was, how would she know?

However, it didn't seem like Georgie wanted her to answer.

She whispered, "She died when I used this dagger to cut through her skin, one whole ninety-one times, on her face, her body, her legs, and then finally cut her trachea with one more slash."

Yusra Lin's face had gone pale as paper.

It was as if she could feel the pain of the knife cutting into her flesh.

I just felt that the woman in front of me at this point was like a demon that had crawled out of hell.

Yusra Lin's voice had taken on a hint of trembling, "You, you dare... If you dare to touch me, Si Qian will not let you go."

Bella Qiao snickered.

"Oh? Really? But what if I don't believe it? Why don't we give it a try? Let's see if he'll avenge you if you die."
