

Chapter 791: I Won't Go Back On My Word

Jiang Yao had agreed to it; she did not even stand up for herself. She thought that there was no need to argue with Lu Xingzhi over an outsider.

After he got Jiang Yao's answer, Lu Xingzhi filled her tea with satisfaction. Then, he continued to say, "Chen Feitang was eliminated in the afternoon when the round started. She was the first person to be eliminated in the third round. She's probably very sick, so she might not have left the command post immediately. Did you tell Old Master Chen that Chen Feibai wanted to see Chen Feitang?"

"Yes." Jiang Yao nodded. "Old Master Chen also agreed to that. He said that he would ask Chen Feitang to come to Nanjiang city to see Chen Feibai after the assessment process."

"Since Old Master Chen had agreed to that, he won't go back on his word. Just let Chen Feibai wait then," Lu Xingzhi answered casually. When the dishes were served, he put food into Jiang Yao's bowl and said, "Don't wait for me next time. When it's time to eat, you should eat first, and when I arrive, you can just accompany me. Don't wait until it's late; it will burn your stomach, and it might hurt in the future."

"I only do that occasionally," Jiang Yao mumbled. "Oh, right, Fifth Brother called me the other day and asked me to take a look at Chu Sheng's throat. However, it has been three days. It's a little strange that he hasn't come yet. It turns out that he knows the alley's owner, and he told me that he has been looking for her for many years."

"Maybe it has something to do with Fifth Brother being kidnapped when he was young. According to Big Brother, it wasn't just Fifth Brother who was taken at that time; there were also several other children. After he came back, he had been looking for a girl. However, someone was brutally tortured to death during that kidnapping case. Therefore, the Chen family doesn't know who he was looking for, either. They searched for some time, but it wasn't her. After that, the matter was considered settled. It looks like Chu Sheng might be the girl that Fifth Brother has been looking for," Lu Xingzhi said.

"What do you mean by torture?" Jiang Yao noticed the words that Lu Xingzhi had used.

"I don't know. None of us knows anything about that." Lu Xingzhi glanced at Jiang Yao. He had a feeling that ever since his brothers got familiar with Jiang Yao, they always talked about themselves whenever they saw her.

That made him very unhappy!

"Fifth Brother is old enough to arrange his own matters. When he sees you, just try your best to help him. If he doesn't come, then don't mind it too much. I'm going back to Jin City tomorrow. I'll probably see you again during your winter vacation," Lu Xingzhi said.

"That's just before the new year. I'm going home to stay for some time. I haven't been home since I went to university. I miss my family." Jiang Yao corrected Lu Xingzhi. She knew that he was jealous; he would do anything for her. That was why she did not bother to mention anything that was not important to him. He wanted her to have only him in her mind.

After dinner, the two of them went straight back to the hotel. Lu Xingzhi's room was still there, and the others were also in that hotel. Even though they had found a room, it would take some time to repair it, so they could not move in so quickly.

When Lu Yuqing and Gu Haoyu knew that the two of them had returned, they went to their rooms. Lu Xingzhi greeted the two of them as he paid attention to what Jiang Yao was doing. When he realized that she wanted to help him tidy the clothes in his luggage, he hurried toward her. "Wife, there's no need to do that. I'll head back to the capital tomorrow."

Chapter 792: Anger From Embarrassment

"There are dirty clothes in there; you should take them out and wash them first," Jiang Yao said. "You definitely won't have time to wash clothes for the next three days. I have nothing to do now, so I can help you wash them. You'll be busy when you go back to the army, so you won't need to find the time to wash the dirty clothes."

"Why would I be busy? It's only two sets of clothes. Sit here and talk to us." After Lu Xingzhi put his luggage away, he held Jiang Yao's hand and went outside.

Lu Yuqing stood there as she turned to Jiang Yao and said, "Based on my understanding of my younger brother, there must be something shameful in his luggage that he doesn't want you to see."

"Lu Yuqing, shut up!"

"He's so angry from embarrassment—so scary!" Lu Yuqing raised her eyebrows at Jiang Yao. Then she turned around with a smile and returned to the outer room to sit with Gu Haoyu.

"Sister Yuqing, if Xingzhi gets angry, he will kick you out." Gu Haoyu poured a cup of tea for Lu Yuqing and smiled. "Even if you are his biological sister, he can still be merciless."

"I know; it won't be the first time anyway. I just think it's interesting to see him angry, right?" Lu Yuqing laughed. "He has been acting like a mature young man since he was young. As his elder sister, I didn't even have the chance to tease him. It's quite fun to make up for it now."

Lu Xingzhi heard Lu Yuqing's words when he held Jiang Yao's hand as they walked outside. He had tried to keep it in for a long time before he told Lu Yuqing to get lost. If she were not his sister, how would she have the chance to sit and chat with Gu Haoyu?

"Have the test results come out yet?" Gu Haoyao decided to change the topic to diffuse the situation between the siblings.

Jiang Yao had not had the chance to ask Lu Xingzhi about that, so she was relieved to hear Gu Haoyao's question. She even looked at Lu Xingzhi carefully as she wanted to observe his expression. However, in the next second, his large palm landed softly on her forehead—it covered her line of sight.

Then, she heard his voice from above her head. "You have no confidence in your man?"

"Judging from his tone, he must have passed the test." Lu Yuqing smiled.

“Hmm.” Lu Xingzhi nodded. “If I were to rank second, no one would dare to be first.”

He was so arrogant that he did not even try to hide it. However, those three people believed him.

“Zhu Shisan came to Nanjiang City personally, and he wanted to see both you and Jiang Yao through Director Ye. However, I blocked him,” Gu Haoyu said. “It’s been two days; I think I’ve suppressed his arrogance enough.”

“There’s no need to see him,” Lu Xingzhi said. “Director Ye told the Zhu family that if they don’t want Zhu Qianlan in Nanjiang City’s jail for the next two years, they should disown her. She is not to set foot in Z Country for the rest of her life or let me see her again.”

Lu Yuqing gasped when she heard her brother’s words. She turned around and looked at him. Somehow she felt as if she could no longer recognize her younger brother.

He was arrogant in the army because he had excellent abilities. He was proud even if he was not in it. That was how capable her brothers were.

The Lu family had a great background, but it was limited to that small city. No one would know them outside the city.

Gu Haoyu thought about it for a moment. “I’ll call my family and ask them to come forward.” If they wanted to force someone out of their family, it was probably easier to get his family involved.

Chapter 793: A Person Who Hides His Abilities

“I’m not so incompetent that I have to trouble my elders for such a small matter.” Lu Xingzhi thought that the deal with Zhu Qianlan was only a trivial matter. If he had to trouble the Gu family elders for such a minor issue, he was inept.

“If Director Ye calls again, you can tell him exactly that. I want the Zhu family to disown Zhu Qianlan, and I want her to never set foot again in Z Country for the rest of her life. I can wait for them to make a choice, but I’m not sure if a certain member of their family can wait that long. Ask Fifth Master Zhu—his son or his granddaughter? Tell him to choose which one he would like to keep.”

After Lu Xingzhi said that, he noticed that Jiang Yao and Gu Haoyu were staring at him; they wanted to wait for his explanation. So, Lu Xingzhi continued to say, “The mine on the YN side is managed by Zhu family head’s second son and Fifth Master Zhu’s eldest son. Both of them are in charge of different things. Ra Ha’s issue is not settled yet, and I’ve asked Carl and Ruan Yongjun to investigate it. Unexpectedly, I accidentally found out that Fifth Master Zhu’s eldest son was so bold that he took a batch of Emerald King’s raw stones for himself. Even though it has been a year, and Emerald King is no longer looking for those stones, I am sure that he won’t let the culprit go if he were to find him.”

Lu Xingzhi said, “Ra Ha has a lot of dirty and shameful secrets. Ruan Yongjun and Carl are trying to find out everything about him. Once Ra Ha goes in, they are prepared never to let him leave.”

Lu Xingzhi’s friends had found out something that not even Emerald King could. It was apparent that his friends had hidden skills as well.

“Of course, my friends are naturally talented.” Ruan Yongjun was not only a landlord; he did not only make his money by letting out a few rooms. Ruan Yongjun and Carl had more powerful connections in the local area that no one could have expected.

That was why YN went to Ruan Yongjun to find out more about Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao’s moving in together, they had found nothing. Everyone insisted that Jiang Yao was alone and did not have a husband with her, and it was also why Lu Xingzhi dared to go out to look for Ruan Yongjun.

The incident with Ra Ha had happened so suddenly, so no one had enough time to prepare for any countermeasures. YN did ask Jiang Yao once. After that, Lu Xingzhi called Ruan Yongjun; he told Ruan Yongjun and Carl that he wanted Ra Ha’s life.

“With this secret weapon, he could have shown it long ago, but he had kept it hidden until now.” The smile on Gu Haoyu’s lips deepened. “Okay, we shall do as you wish.”

Since he had taken over the matter, Gu Haoyu would do everything perfectly. Lu Xingzhi had to return to Jin City the next day, so he could only leave Nanjiang City after he had dealt with that issue.

“It’s not that I’m hiding anything. I only found out about it on the way to the city from the airport today,” Lu Xingzhi explained. Then, he looked down at the time on his watch and began to chase his guests away.

Lu Yuqing and Gu Haoyu—one was his biological sister, and the other was his brother. They knew Lu Xingzhi’s personality all too well. He had looked at the time, and the two of them had left tactfully; they did not even give him a chance to speak.

Chapter 794: Blushing

Jiang Yao walked the two of them to the door before she returned to the inner room. When she was back, Lu Xingzhi had already gone to the bathroom. From the sound of the water, it sounded like he was in the shower.

“Since when are you germaphobic?” Jiang Yao knocked on the bathroom door. “Watch the wound on your arm. Don’t get it wet; it’ll get infected and inflamed!”

In the bathroom, Lu Xingzhi grunted, but it was only a verbal response. He did not care about the wound on his arm at all.

He was not germaphobic at all. He had been living like a savage in the mountains for a few days. He was afraid that if Jiang Yao found out that he had not showered properly, she would despise him. After all, his wife was a little mysophobic and had a great sense of smell.

Jiang Yao did not know what was in Lu Xingzhi’s mind. She saw him place a small bag in the corner. She looked at it curiously and thought about Lu Yuqing’s furious reaction when she said that he had something in his bag that he did not want her to see. Jiang Yao felt that Lu Yuqing was most likely right.

So, what was in his bag that he did not want her to see?

Jiang Yao was immediately piqued. She stood there for a few minutes; she wondered if she should take a peek. In the end, she decided to take a look as Lu Xingzhi was still in the bathroom. Just a peek.

She felt terrible when she did that. Even though she knew that Lu Xingzhi was in the bathroom, she still tried to tiptoe. When she reached the bag, she bent down and carefully unzipped it. At a glance, she saw a pink paper bag. It did not look like something that a man like Lu Xingzhi would have. Therefore, he did not want her to see what was most likely the thing in the paper bag.

She looked at the bathroom as she reached out to pull the paper bag. Just as she was about to retrieve the item, the sound of water in the bathroom suddenly stopped. Jiang Yao was shocked; she quickly put the paper bag down and zipped the bag. Then she jumped onto the bed so fast that it was almost as if she could fly.

Just as her bottom landed on the bed, Lu Xingzhi opened the door and walked out of the bathroom. Jiang Yao felt so tired that there were no words to express her feeling at that moment.

“Why is your face so red?” Lu Xingzhi wore a bathrobe and slippers. As he dried his hair, he tilted his head and looked at Jiang Yao, who was on the edge of the bed. “Is the air conditioner too warm? If it is, why don’t you turn it down a little? Silly!”

That was the first time in her life that Jiang Yao had done such a sneaky thing. She was a little scared, and she almost got caught.

“If you have nothing to do today, you don’t have to go out. You should take a shower too.” Lu Xingzhi walked toward her before he pushed Jiang Yao toward the bathroom.

How could Jiang Yao not know what was in his mind?

“It’s still the afternoon; why are you taking a shower now?” Jiang Yao slapped Lu Xingzhi’s hand away and pulled him to a chair so that he could sit down. She pulled the bathrobe off one of his shoulders and saw that his wound was still covered in water droplets. She glared at the man. “I knew it! You took my words for granted!”

“It’s just a small wound. I had already applied medicine on it last night. It’s quite effective, so it’s fine now. It’s just comfortable when it’s bandaged, and it affects my movement.” Lu Xingzhi was not too happy when he saw Jiang Yao retrieved the bandages and medicine.

Chapter 795: I did not agree

“Affect your movements? Are you planning to go to a mountain of blades or a sea of fire?” Jiang Yao was so angry that she wanted to pour salt on his wound to make him suffer a little.

A rough man would always be a wild man—he did not know how to cherish his body at all. She had told him not to let his wound get wet. He had agreed to it verbally, but his actions were another matter.

“Yaoyao, didn’t we say last time that if I passed the test, you would listen to me for the whole day?” Lu Xingzhi could never say no to Jiang Yao, who wanted to apply medicine on him. So he did not resist her. He gave her his arm and turned his head sideways—he looked at her leisurely.

When Lu Xingzhi first met Jiang Yao, there was still some baby fat on her face. Then, she had been in a bad mood because of their marriage, and when she got married, she lost some weight. Half a year after their marriage, she had started to study for the college entrance examination again. It might also have

When he had gone back for summer vacation that year, he realized how skinny Jiang Yao had looked, and his heart had ached. However, in two to three months, her complexion had gotten better, and the chubbiness on her face had returned—little by little.

A person's face was the best indicator of one's true feelings. It was apparent that she had been in a good mood during that period with him. Therefore, after she had eaten and drunk well, she had managed to gain a little weight.

Whenever she pouted when she was unhappy, Lu Xingzhi could see her puffy cheeks. He thought it was interesting as he could reach out and pinch her.

"Lu Xingzhi, let go of me!" The man suddenly pinched her. Jiang Yao was so angry that she raised her leg and kicked his calf.

"Finally, you've brought back some of your plumpness for me. Keep it up. When I return home during the winter vacation, my parents will be more at ease when they see you with me." The parents he meant were obviously her in-laws.

When he saw Jiang Yao rolled her eyes, Lu Xingzhi chuckled softly. "You still haven't answered my question."

"I didn't agree with that because I saw that you were very confident. I knew that you would definitely pass it." Jiang Yao did not have dementia; how could he still fool her after only three days?

"Then, shouldn't you give me some reward for winning first place?" Lu Xingzhi did not yield.

Jiang Yao had already bandaged his wound and pulled his bathrobe back. She had also covered him up. At least he was not a hoodlum; he knew to wear underpants.

When Jiang Yao packed the bandages, Lu Xingzhi followed her closely. She went out to throw a piece of trash and to the bathroom to wash her hands—he followed her still. Even Jiang Yao was disgusted by his action. "Lu Xingzhi, you're a stalker, aren't you? It has only been three days—how did you get so noisy?"

During the few minutes that she bandaged his wounds, his mouth had not stopped for even a second!

He was too noisy!

"You could just agree with my request. I won't bother you again if you agree to that." Even though she had yelled at him, he was not angry. Instead, the corners of his lips curled upward proudly.

Jiang Yao felt that the person who had returned to her that day might be a fake Lu Xingzhi. The monsters might have swallowed the real Lu Xingzhi in the forest on the mountain. Lu Xingzhi might have been like that because the monsters had changed him.

Was there any difference between that and Tang Sanzang's chants? He would not stop until he had achieved his goal!

Most importantly, Jiang Yao saw the shadow of a male peacock that begged for sex instead of Lu Xingzhi. She would bet on that with her one month's supper allowance—the only thoughts on a guy's mind were those improper things!

Chapter 796: There is no point in begging

It was the still broad daylight—he must have been possessed!

Jiang Yao pushed Lu Xingzhi away and then forced him onto the bed. Lu Xingzhi struggled at first, but he did not resist and allowed her to pull him onto the bed when he saw that she meant to bring him toward the bed. Once there, he climbed onto the bed and laid down. Then he patted the space beside him. “Wife, come and rest with me. I haven't slept in the mountains for three days.”

That sentence was quite true. He did not sleep, not even for a second, because he wanted to use the time to search for the rest of the female soldiers. He was afraid that he did not have enough time, and he would not find them. Furthermore, he was not familiar with that forest; it was not easy to find those female soldiers.

“Close your eyes and sleep well!” Jiang Yao knew that Lu Xingzhi must not have had a good rest in the past few days, so she forcefully pushed him onto the bed. “I won't disturb you. I'll go next door and look for Xiao An.”

“You're not allowed to go!” Lu Xingzhi hugged Jiang Yao's waist. With a burst of strength, he carried her onto the bed and pressed her firmly beneath him. He asked condescendingly, “I'm here—where else do you want to go?”

Jiang Yao put her palm on her forehead. “I don't want to disturb your rest.”

Lu Xingzhi thought it was rare that he still had some time to be with his wife. Would he use it to sleep? Well, unless he had gone crazy.

“I don't need to rest. Compared to that, I prefer to do something else.” Lu Xingzhi snorted. “If I don't get a reward for winning first place, then I don't need it. It's something I earned. A reward would be meaningless.”

Jiang Yao's temples buzzed. Did he still want to bug her? Did he pretend as if he had been wronged instead?

It seemed like he wanted to take advantage of her soft-hearted nature.

“Yaoyao, do you remember what I said before I sent you to the airport in Jinshi? You said that every time we separated, you would promise me one wish. And last time, I wanted to hear you call me husband. I was delighted when you did that. Then, after your plane took off, I sat alone in the car and watched for a very, very long time.”

Jiang Yao had wanted to plug her ears so that she would not need to listen to anything he said. However, his words made her heart tremble slightly.

She understood how it felt to send someone they loved away and then looked forward to the next time they would meet.

It was like when she sent him to the airport during the summer vacation. She would stay to watch his figure as it became smaller when he walked away. She would remain until his plane took off. She remembered how empty her heart had felt—it did not feel good, indeed.

She had not loved him as much as she did then, but she had felt so sad when he left.

Lu Xingzhi had always loved her dearly. How terrible would he feel when he saw her left?

Jiang Yao had told herself not to be so soft-hearted. However, she did not realize that Lu Xingzhi had understood her well—her persistence would only last for ten seconds.

“Yaoyao!” It seemed like a sigh was about to escape from his lips, but it was not a complete one. However, his reluctance had affected her heart. “I will return to Jin City tomorrow. When we do meet again, it will be before the new year. Do the math. How much longer do we have?”

As he spoke, his legs moved away from her body. He gently rubbed the top of her head with his palm. “We are going our separate ways again, so I have a wish. Do you want to fulfill it for me? My wish is a very simple one.”

Chapter 797: No backing out

“Go ahead,” Jiang Yao agreed.

“You have to keep your promise.” Lu Xingzhi confirmed worriedly. “So, are you sure you’d agree with my wish?”

Jiang Yao nodded again. Then, she looked at him. “What is your wish?”

She saw Lu Xingzhi’s cold face reveal a smile—bit by bit. He lowered his face and whispered into her ear, “I bought you a new set of clothes. Wear it for me.”

“Okay, go and get it for me.” Jiang Yao sat up straight and pushed Lu Xingzhi, who looked at her in astonishment. “Didn’t you say that you bought me a new set of clothes and want me to wear them so that you can see? Go and get it for me.”

Jiang Yao did not know why Lu Xingzhi would grind her for such a long time over such a small matter.

She was happy if he found the time to buy her clothes after his exam. He wanted to see her wear it, so why would she refuse?

Lu Xingzhi was stunned for a few seconds. Jiang Yao had agreed so readily that he wondered if he had misheard her.

He looked at his luggage—someone had tampered with the zipper. Did she already see what was inside the bag? Perhaps that was why she had avoided him—it was because she had seen what was inside. She did not want him to pester her, and she even wanted to leave the room.

However, she had agreed so quickly, and with such an innocent look on her face, so Lu Xingzhi was suspicious of that. It was apparent that she did not know anything.

Perhaps he got out of the bathroom coincidentally, so she did not have time to look at it and had to put it back.

If she had not seen it, then why would she blush when they were on the bed?

When Jiang Yao urged him again, Lu Xingzhi was sure that she had not seen the things in his luggage. Otherwise, she would not be so silly as to encourage him again and again. She looked like she could not wait to see what new clothes he had bought for her.

After Jiang Yao urged him again, Lu Xingzhi got down from the bed. He opened his luggage bag to retrieve the pink paper bag. He looked inside with his back toward Jiang Yao and confirmed that the things inside were what he had bought. Then, he handed the paper bag to Jiang Yao and said, "You can't go back on your word."

Jiang Yao rolled her eyes at Lu Xingzhi. "Do I not have any credibility with you? When have I ever failed to do what I promised you?"

Lu Xingzhi reached out and pinched the paper bag that she was about to open. He answered thoughtfully, "It's very likely this time."

"Don't worry! It's just a piece of clothing. If you want to see me wear it, then I'll wear it for you!" Jiang Yao felt as if Lu Xingzhi underestimated her credibility.

"Yaoyao, remember every word that you're saying now. If you go back on your word..." Lu Xingzhi immediately changed his tune. "You'll have no chance to go back on your word."

Even if she were to go back on her word, he would still make her fulfill her promise obediently.

Jiang Yao snorted and made a face at him. Then, she pulled the paper bag out of his hand. It was pretty light, so she thought it must have been made of silk. Then she reached into the bag and retrieved the piece of soft clothing.

In her hand, it was very thin and small. She rolled it into a ball in her palm—it was only as big as her palm.

She looked at Lu Xingzhi in confusion. As she shook the cloth, she muttered, "What dress is this?"

She did not wait for Lu Xingzhi's answer; she looked at the dress she had already shaken open.

Chapter 798: What the hell

With a glance, Jiang Yao was dumbfounded!

What the hell?

Who could tell her what the hell was that gauze in her hand?

Was it supposed to be a nightgown? How could there be such a transparent nightgown?

What was the difference if she wore such a nightgown or not? It was almost as transparent as the window gauze.

Jiang Yao turned it in her hands and focused her attention on it. Then her gaze fell onto the chest area of the dress. She crumpled the fabric into a ball with a grunt and smashed it at Lu Xingzhi's face!

"Lu Xingzhi, you pervert! What did you buy?!"

“The shop assistant introduced this dress as a way to enhance a husband and wife’s relationship.” Lu Xingzhi took the gauze off his face and placed it back in Jiang Yao’s hand. “Be a good girl. Go to the bathroom and put it on. After you’re done, come out and let me take a look. You’ve promised me just now.”

Lu Xingzhi had seen that dress at the airport shop while he waited for his flight. He remembered that he had seen that before. When Luo Ruoran got married, her bridesmaids seemed to have given her such a dress as a gift.

At that time, Lu Xingzhi did not think much of it. However, when he saw it at the airport again, he thought about how sexy Jiang Yao would look in it.

So, he went into the shop and bought it.

Even though the gauze dress was tiny, it was not cheap.

“No, no, no, no! I won’t wear it even if I have to die! Where did you get this kind of inappropriate dress!” Jiang Yao hid her hands behind her back. Her tiny face was red as she shook her small head.

She could not accept how transparent the gauze dress made her feel. What was with that design? The chest area seemed as if it had been hollowed! There were only two flowers connected by a thin line. Those flowers were probably meant for two specific small spots on her chest if she was not wrong.

Compared to that, the gowns she had seen at the dinner party were nothing!

“Come on. Which part of you that I have not seen before? We are already an old married couple, so don’t be shy. I just want to see how you would look when you wear it. Five minutes! Just for five minutes! You’ve promised me just now.” Lu Xingzhi was not surprised at all; his little wife was so embarrassed that her face looked like it was about to burn.

“Lu Xingzhi, I’m warning you, if you dare to buy such a thing again, I’ll be really angry!” Jiang Yao’s face looked stern. She reached out to snatch the cloth in his hand and crumpled it into a ball before she stuffed it back into the pink paper bag. “Put it away! Then, shut your eyes and rest! Get out there and throw this frivolous thing away!”

If she had known that the pink paper bag contained such an item, she would have acted faster. She would have just stolen it and thrown it away!

When he realized that Jiang Yao was about to get really angry, Lu Xingzhi did not tease her again. He chuckled and put the paper bag back into his bag. When he got onto the bed, he hugged Jiang Yao and pressed her into his arms. “Very well, I’ll listen to you. Rest.”

He sighed. He knew it would not be so easy. He felt a little regretful, but it was not like he did not expect the result.

“It’s useless to sigh! All I can think about is what you bought!” Jiang Yao was so angry that she reached out and pinched his waist again to vent her anger.

Lu Xingzhi wanted to defend himself, but he felt that it would add more fuel to the fire if he opened his mouth to say something.

It was better not to provoke his wife's anger so easily.

Chapter 799: She owes me

Even though he did not get what he wanted, Lu Xingzhi still slept for two hours with his wife in his arms. He was content. They only woke up when Jiang Yao's phone rang—it was the hospital.

"Chen Feibai has woken up and wants to see me." Jiang Yao rubbed her sleepy eyes. She had not slept well after Lu Xingzhi called her two nights ago. So, she had slept soundly in his arms the previous night.

"Nosy!" It was over. Then, Lu Xingzhi added in his heart, 'Troublesome!'

Of course, he meant Chen Feibai!

"If you are sleepy, then continue to sleep. It's the same for me in the past. He just wants to know about Chen Feitang." Lu Xingzhi pushed Jiang Yao back into the blanket. Then he got off the bed.

"He wants to see Chen Feitang the most, especially after she has been eliminated." Jiang Yao burst into laughter. "Chen Feibai's current mental state is a little twisted."

"Chen Feitang is currently sick. She might not rush back to Nanjiang city so quickly." Lu Xingzhi noticed that Jiang Yao had already put on her clothes, so he did not say anything else.

He drove all the way to the Shengqi Hospital. When he saw Chen Feibai, his face was sullen. It was as if he was there to look for someone who had owed him money.

After a few days of recovery, Lu Xingzhi felt that he was in better spirits when he saw Chen Feibai. However, when he thought about how he had someone call Jiang Yao to wake her up, Lu Xingzhi's face darkened again.

"What's the rush? Never get someone to call my wife again in the future!" Lu Xingzhi reminded him. Then, he said, "When have I ever broken a promise that I made? I told you that Chen Feitang would be eliminated from the competition; do you think she'd be able to escape that? Don't worry; she was the first to get eliminated in the third round."

"Where is she? I want to see her," Chen Feibai said.

"She's sick; wait for two more days," Lu Xingzhi said. "When I saw her at the command post last night, she looked like she was dying of an illness." He did not mince his words at all.

"Did she feel tortured by her failure?" Chen Feibai suddenly laughed. His frown and strange laughter did not betray his emotions, so he looked a little scary. "I want to see her! Immediately! Immediately! As long as she hasn't died from her illness, then have her see me immediately. She owes me this!"

When Lu Xingzhi realized that Chen Feibai's emotions had begun to fluctuate, he scolded him in a low voice. "Chen Feibai, don't think that I won't dare to beat you up just because you're lying on a hospital bed! Behave yourself. I'm going to call the old man right now!"

After he said that, Lu Xingzhi pulled Jiang Yao out of the ward. He was unwilling to let Jiang Yao stay with Chen Feibai, that lunatic, for even a second longer.

After they left Chen Feibai's room, Lu Xingzhi reported his situation to Old Master Chen. The older man might not be able to make it in time in the capital, but he still agreed. No matter how Chen Feibai had looked, he was his grandson; his heart ached for the younger man.

In the end, Chen Feitang, her parents, and Chen Feibai's parents were sent to the hospital by military aircraft. Jiang Yao had already sent people to wait for them on the roof. After they arrived, she led them to Chen Feibai's ward.

Chen Feibai must have heard the commotion outside and knew that the person he wanted to see was already there. He shouted from inside the room. "Let Chen Feitang come in alone! No one else is allowed into the room!"

Chen Feitang's parents were a little worried. Each of them held their daughter's hand and did not dare to let go. Lu Xingzhi sneered, but he did not say anything.

Chapter 800: Chen Feitang congratulates you

Chen Feibai's mother opened her mouth. "What are you afraid of? My son is lying on the bed like a piece of trash. What can he do to your precious daughter?"

Her words made everyone's faces freeze.

"Dad, Mom, it's fine. He wants to see me; then I'll go in and see him. I should have apologized to him in person anyway." Chen Feitang bit her lips and looked at Lu Xingzhi. She broke free from her parents' grip and pushed the door open to enter the room.

That was the first time Chen Feitang had seen Chen Feibai after the accident. It was also the first time she had seen Chen Feibai up close. When she realized that his handsome face was bandaged completely, her heart suddenly trembled.

She was the one who had caused Chen Feibai's injuries.

Chen Feitang closed the door as she walked into the room. She stopped by Chen Feibai's bedside; she was about to apologize when Chen Feibai's voice beat her to it.

"Chen Feitang, congratulations. You tried so hard to get into the special forces, but you were the first to be eliminated in the third round! And the man you loved was the person to do that. You must feel uncomfortable about that, right? But you know what? I'm pleased to hear that. I think this is my happiest moment ever since that incident."

Chen Feibai's eyes were filled with hatred. "Chen Feitang, why should I suffer in hell while you soar so happily in heaven? Why?"

He did not give Chen Feitang any chance to speak. His heart jumped with joy when he saw Chen Feitang's sickly pale face.

"You have loved Lu Xingzhi for so many years, but in the end, you were stabbed by the person you love the most. Chen Feitang, does your heart hurt?" Chen Feibai could not stop his laughter.

“Look at you. Your hands are stained with the blood of your loved ones, stained with the fate of others. How dirty are you? You are as scary as a devil. How can a person like you be worthy of Lu Xingzhi? A person like you is not even worthy to carry his shoes! The Chen family is ashamed to have you as a daughter. You are a disgrace to our family!”

Chen Feibai’s words were like a sharp blade that stabbed into Chen Feitang’s heart—each one deeper than the other.

“Chen Feibai, it is my fault that you are like this now. However, I didn’t do it on purpose! Why are you doing this to me?” Chen Feitang shouted angrily. “I didn’t want to do it either. I didn’t do it on purpose! I really wanted to apologize to you. Why didn’t you give me a chance to say sorry?”

“What’s good is an apology? Will it give me back my future? Will my body be healthy again? No! Then what is the use of your apology?” Chen Feibai’s voice got louder than Chen Feitang’s.

“Do you think I want to say sorry to you?” Chen Feitang was utterly enraged by the wounded man on the bed. “Chen Feibai, ask yourself this—why were you hiding near me? Were you not trying to get me kicked out? Do you dare to swear that you did not try to find an opportunity to get me kicked out? If you did not think that, then you would not have been near me at all, and you wouldn’t end up like this! Maybe you did deserve it, have you ever thought that? You deserve it!”

The ward rooms were not adequately soundproofed, so everyone outside the room had heard Chen Feitang’s outburst. After Chen Feibai’s mother heard that, she was so angry that her entire body trembled.

Before anyone could react, Chen Feibai’s mother barged into the room. She grabbed Chen Feitang with one hand and swung the other on down heavily.
