

Chapter 791: peace or dignity

Zheng!

In the dimly lit amphitheatre, the multi-functional media forum was pierced, the fixed seat was blown away and smashed, and the two dancing wildly destroyed the school like a whirlwind of destruction!

Yaxiu shook out two daggers with his sleeves, and Vichy took out a flame halberd like lava with one hand. The moment the two sides clashed, a flaming sickle could blow out the black spot!

The two artful mythical daggers that Yaxiu was holding were not magic weapons, but toys that Rose helped him buy at the mall.

After the battle with Niya, Ash realized that he needed a weapon for self-defense, but the security environment and his status clearly did not allow him to carry controlled knives with him, but the two uncut toy daggers were already enough to be his murder weapon.

Or a spellcasting medium!

At the moment of encountering Vichy, Yaxiu brazenly launched a new miracle based on the avatar magic spirit, supplemented by various magic spirits such as Heart Sword, Love Sword, Earth Sword, Sword Mark, Wind Sword Love... Sword Servant!

This is a new miracle that Ash was conceiving while he was in the Sanctuary. He has consulted Sonia, Deya, Youlan Wesser, Igula, Harvey and even Tamashi, but it has always been in the conception stage, and more importantly He couldn't turn this idea into a long-range combat miracle, but he was usually a long-range tactical position, so this miracle was shelved.

To be honest, this miracle is really a waste for his current tactical system. "Mind Pen" is a long-range swordsmanship that he can continue to study even in the legendary stage. His legendary ultimate move should be "Splashing Ink Mind Pen". Change the color of the world and erase the enemy with a brush like a painter.

It's just that Yaxiu felt that he had to have close-quarters fighting methods, and more importantly, he liked the idea of his own miracle.

Under the reinforcement of the Sword Servant Miracle, Yaxiu's insight, reaction speed, and explosive power have been improved in an all-round way. The two short swords in his hands are like strong winds and rain, thunder and fire, and thousands of troops!

But the strengthening effect is only the most trivial permanent main effect of Miracle Swordsman.

Suddenly, Yaxiu heard a roar in his soul. It was the Substitute Magic Spirit that finally changed its form under the influence of the Love Magic Spirit. The Substitute Magic Spirit who had always been in pajamas, turned blood red at this moment, and then the Heart Sword, Love Sword, and Earth. Swords, wind swords, sword marks and other magic spirits immediately gathered around it and lifted it up to become its body, right hand, left hand, left foot, right foot!

At the same time, a spectator phantom wearing a blood-colored robe suddenly appeared next to Yaxiu, and the spectator phantom let out a furious roar, holding up the double-sword giant sword and slashing at Vichy!

This is the true power of the Miracle Swordsman – summoning Swordsmen to destroy the enemy!

The core of the swordsman miracle is not the swordsmanship spirit, but the substitute technique spirit, because Yaxiu never wanted to become a swordsman who can conquer the world with one sword, and he wants to be a spectator who has a substitute to suppress all kinds of disobedience. !

It's just that the combat ability of the stand-in itself is locked at the limit of mortals. Ashe has been thinking about how to increase his combat power from the first wing stage, but it was not until the swordsmanship realm was raised to the sanctuary that he had some clues.

The sword attendant's giant sword directly penetrated Vichy's sanctuary. The latter's flame halberd was too late to defend, and he watched his sinful life come to an end here!

"It is interesting!"

Vichy grinned and squeezed it hard, and the flame halberd instantly disappeared, transforming into a flame tower shield to block the sword servant's violent slash!

"The ferocity of the swordsmanship faction, the illusoryness of the mind faction, and a little enslavement of the necromantic faction... This is a direction I haven't seen thousands of years ago." With a wave of Vichy's right hand, the tower shield once again turned into a flame. She jumped onto the table, lowered her body, clenched the halberd with both hands, her hair was slightly ablaze, and her face was full of joy: "Although she is still very young, she has already shown extraordinary potential. What's your name?"

'Swordsman. "Axiu held the two swords upside down, and took advantage of this gap to activate the Golden Fish's Colorful Tail Fade Dream Secret Poison to replenish the sword-colored magic power.

"What a bad name," Vichy's voice gradually became low and cruel: "When you are dead, I will continue to study the direction of your subject, and its name will be called Ghost Swordsman in the future, doesn't it sound much better? "

"But now I'll give you a chance to choose," she suddenly became kinder: "Peace or dignity?"

"What's the meaning?"

"Peace is to be my slave in life, and dignity is to be my slave in death." Vichy laughed: "I am willing to respect your ideas."

"You don't seem to use any other magic spirits except flame and sanctuary." Ash said coldly, "Can I think that when you were reborn with the help of the fire cat god, you couldn't take away a single magic spirit? You can use it now. The only means is the flame of the fire cat * body?"

"It's useless to me to bluff, and today is your day to die."

"what.

Vichy showed a sweet smile, "I knew for a long time that I would be defeated one day, but that was not today, and that person...it wouldn't be you!"

Bright!

The air was blasted by the flame of the sharp blade, and dozens of violent confrontations occurred in an instant, and the harsh vibration caused the classroom windows to burst!

"Where's your swordsman!?" Vichy's hair was almost on fire, and the flames continued to bombard like a thunderbolt, "You can't kill me with just your two little daggers!" "Could it be that your... Sword Servant doesn't automatically trigger, or does it have a very long cooldown?"

Ash's face was extremely ugly. in a word.

The Heart Sword is the most direct combat power of the avatar, and the Wind Sword makes the avatar disguise as the air to cross the sanctuary, but the Love Sword is the key to the avatar turning into a phantom.

To be honest, Axiu's talent is not enough for him to let the magic spirits carry out his orders like an arm, and he can't construct a complete sword servant ritual at all. To use Yaxiu's words as an analogy, he is like an incompetent boss with a brilliant idea, and he needs a lot of obedient programmers to realize his idea.

The meaning of the love sword is to make the magic spirits obey. Yaxiu's talent can't complete the ritual of sword servants, so let the magic spirits do it themselves.

With the influence of the love sword, the stand-in will automatically complete the ritual, just like Yaxiu's idea, turning into a phantom sword servant and crushing the enemy. But the price is that the frequency of Sword Attendant's appearance all depends on the subjective initiative of the substitute.

You must know that Love Sword and Love are both used on humans, and once again on animals. It is because Yaxiu has a gold-level spiritual faction that these two magic spirits can play a role in the substitute magic spirit.

Rao is so, after the avatar magician started a ritual, he was too tired to faint, and he didn't know when he would wake up.

If Ash wants to keep appearing the Phantom Sword Attendant, he must at least further improve his swordsmanship and spiritual realm before he can come up with better rituals. But at this moment, he can only count on the substitute magic spirit to wake up quickly and work overtime. If you don't work hard, master and I will be hanged by the ghost prophet!

Yaxiu was hit by Yanzai and hit the wall. The hot flames burned through his chest in an instant. Fortunately, his musical sword also played a role in healing the injury. Come down! Sure enough, you can't beat it.

Although he was at a disadvantage, Ash was not flustered at all. He had long known that if the Sword Servant couldn't kill this ancient scum in the first attempt, he would be defeated sooner or later.

Without him, the gap in combat experience is simply too great.

In the end, Yaxiu had not even become a magician for less than a year, how could there be a secret poison to transform into sword-colored magic power, barely reaching the threshold of legendary combat power, but he was just a newbie after all.

And what about Vichy? Considering this rebirth, she has been a human for three generations. She has been a magician for more than a thousand years. She has experienced tens of thousands of battles. She has killed more people than Xiu has ever seen. It is a symbol of fear in an era, and she has a legendary level in any spell faction.

As long as Yaxiu can't kill this * with the first shot, she can quickly master the rhythm of the battle, and even figure out all of Yaxiu's combat routines – Vichy is a soothsayer!

Ash had already felt that no matter how he resisted, Vichy could easily read his thoughts and suppressed them. This injury is proof that Ya Xiu has been propping up the sanctuary, but he was still hit hard by Vichy's halberd. It was because Vichy suddenly heated the air, causing a fiery explosion in the sanctuary.

She's already skillful enough to beat Axiu across the sanctuary!

If it weren't for Vichy losing most of the magic spirits, and only the power of fire, Ash would have been killed by her long ago. The huge gap in the realm of entering the legend and the peak of the Great Perfection is enough to crush Yaxiu's little resource advantage.

But Ya Xiu is not afraid at all, because... gnaw!

Ash suddenly escaped from the window, spreading his legs and running down the corridor.

That's right, what if you can't beat it, Ash can still run!

This is not the outside world. The kingdom of stars is restricted by mysterious chains. If Vichy dares to chase and kill him, wait for the mortals to witness the evaporation of magic power!

Sure enough, Vichy chased after him furiously, brandishing his flame halberd and shouting, "Didn't you really need Zhang just now? Coward!"

"How dare you attack Yaxiu Heath, one of the top ten outstanding young men in the world, you are finished, you can't escape from heaven and earth, and no one can save you, I said!" Yaxiu laughed: "I This will notify the Police Department, and broadcast your wanted notice 24 hours a day, you are dead!"

"Hmph, you actually expect the mortals here?m

Hearing Vichy's response, Ash was overjoyed – doesn't this * know about the mysterious chain?

if it is like this...

Yaxiu no longer hesitated, turned over and jumped out of the window, rushing towards the bright laboratory building. Just bring other people over and let them witness Vichy's ability as a magician, and you can knock the Ghost Prophet out of the mortal world!

Thinking of this * being forcibly demoted from the mighty magician Bo to a mortal without any ability, Ashe feels his desire for revenge is going to increase!

At this moment, a blazing fireball suddenly shot out from behind him.

But the fireball did not attack Ash, but instead shot towards the laboratory building in the distance.

boom!

As the flames evaporated, almost half of the experimental building was blown up, and the blazing fireball melted the outer walls. The screams resounded through the night sky, but the thick smoke from the flames blew down strangely, filling the sports field between the experimental building and the complex building, cutting off the connection between the complex building and the outside world.

The huge Yanzai smashed into the ground in front of Yaxiu's eyes, and then Vichy fell on the Yanzai, looking down at Yaxiu with a height of 1.5 meters.

"Aren't you surprised," Vichy said, "Why didn't the mysterious chain lock my magic power?"

Yaxiu clenched his dagger and replied coldly, "Subjective intention and objective facts are unified?"

"That's right," the ghost prophet said with a smile: "Those mortals must realize that the mysterious events are caused by "mysterious people", so that the mysterious chains of the star kingdom will be activated, locking us magicians like locked angels.

"That said, as long as we're sure there aren't any witnesses, or kill all witnesses quickly, we can still use most of the magician's abilities."

"Since you know about angels and chains." Ash took a deep breath: "It seems that you didn't accidentally break into this place."

“You came to the university to investigate...also to find the angel suspect, the madman?”

Vichy smiled: “You seemed to say just now that you are a celebrity in the kingdom of stars, right?”

“You said, if someone finds out here being run over by a monster and you show up here again, will they associate the mystery with you?”

As soon as the voice of the ghost prophet fell, white flames rose up from her body, and the restless heat even started to burn the asphalt ground! Her hair turned into snow-white flames, and her clothes seemed to dance. Flames!

Just like Yaxiu consciously suppressed his power to avoid being discovered, Vichy didn't do his best in the classroom! Although he lost all the magic spirits, Vichy almost inherited all the power of the fire gods!

“Ask again,” Vichy breathed out a white flame, “peace or dignity?”

Ash didn't say anything, just silently posing with a sword, showing his attitude with actions.

At this critical moment, a crisp sound of a mop falling off suddenly came from the second floor of the complex building.

Although there is nothing to see here, but the two magicians are so focused, how could they not even hear the footsteps?

Vichy's expression changed suddenly, and all the flames suddenly converged, bypassing Yaxiu and rushing into the complex. Yaxiu naturally understands her thoughts. Their magic power has not evaporated yet, mostly because passers-by think they are filming and don't think they really have mysterious abilities.

But when passersby react, and the subjective and objective recognition is unified, the mysterious chain will lock them both, destroying the background of their magician! Therefore, killing passers-by is more important than anything else, even if Yaxiu and Vichy have a life-and-death feud. Must be put on hold for now!

That's why Yaxiu didn't stop Vichy immediately, because at that moment, he couldn't help but have the same thought as Vichy, killing all bystanders one by one to protect himself from being found by the mysterious chains.

"I don't know who is so unlucky." Ash raised his head and looked at the second floor of the complex.

On the second floor, a blond female student was sitting next to the wall in the corridor, her heart was pounding, and she was recalling everything she had just seen.

"Isn't that Ash Heath?" she murmured. "Are they filming?"

Chapter 792: demon

Phili Lena, a sophomore at Nebula University, majoring in fashion design.

She was an orphan, her father was missing, and her mother died unexpectedly when she was very young.

But she didn't suffer much. Her outstanding observation and social skills allowed her to navigate the orphanage with ease. Occasionally, she could easily run away when she encountered gangsters. She sometimes wondered why she was so good even though she didn't work hard.

When she grew up, she was successfully admitted to the university she wanted, with a longing for the future, the object of her crush, and the movies she was chasing. Overall, she still had a happy life.

She lives in Candela Apartment, a rental apartment that mainly serves students, two kilometers away from the university. These two days are not school days. She was going to go to the movies with her friends, but unexpectedly got a message

11. Her male * is going to do experiments all night in the laboratory building tonight.

In fact, this matter has nothing to do with Feili, but her friend suddenly can't go to the movies because of her friend's discovery that the experimental report without a word will be uploaded tonight. And what's worse, my friend's experimental materials forgot to take in class yesterday and put them in a drawer in the classroom.

While rushing to report and getting information, my friend had no choice but to ask Fili to go back to school. Feili returned to Nebula University with the expectation of "maybe she might meet a male god", and she planned to go to the laboratory building to take a walk around when she got the materials. If she can make an appointment for supper, then she can only be sorry for her friend.

However, just after she entered the dark complex, she heard footsteps coming from behind. She was afraid that it was a bad person, so she immediately hid and kept silent. Fortunately, the person walked over and didn't find her.

Just when she found the experimental materials and was about to leave, she heard the crackling of the battle from upstairs, the whole complex began to vibrate, and then the nearby glass windows shattered, making Feili even more afraid to move.

Suddenly, there was a screeching voice in the corridor, and Fili saw a man jumping directly from the third floor.

Before she was surprised, she saw the laboratory building in the distance exploded. male * – my male * one –

Everything happened quickly, the experimental building exploded, thick smoke billowed, and then a huge flame halberd that seemed to be pulled out of the game fell onto the lawn outside the complex building.

Phyllis sidled closer, hiding in the shadows of the corridor, peeking out of her head to peek at the movement on the lawn.

Then she saw a scene like a fantasy movie: the red-haired girl of 1.5 meters stood on the flame halberd, looking down at the black-haired youth with dual daggers.

But soon, Feili recognized the young man, who was the author, actor, composer, singer, game producer and genius creator Yaxiu, who has swept the country of stars in recent years and is known as the “Shining Morning Star”. · Heath!

She breathed a sigh of relief, and looked in awe at the experimental building one, which had been blown up half a floor in the distance – it turned out to be filming!

No wonder!

The experimental building must have been evacuated long ago, but it only existed as the background of the bombing!

The current film industry is too powerful. She observed it for a while, but she couldn't find where the camera and radio were!

Speaking of which, Mr. Heath hasn't released any new works for half a year. Thinking of this, Feili took out her mobile phone and wanted to take a picture, so she could show it off to her friends when she went back – Bring ·

When she was holding her phone, she accidentally bumped into the mop beside her, and the mop fell to the ground with a snap. Feili wondered who would not put the mop back after using it, but when she turned to look down, she found that the two people below were both staring at the shadow where she was at the same time. That is definitely not the expression of finding yourself interrupted from filming.

Feili felt a very strong premonition in her heart, and she lowered her footsteps and quickly left the corridor. But she soon realized that if she wanted to leave, she might run into those two people, so she decided to hide in the tool cabinet of a Dong classroom!

Because the tool cabinet has to store buckets, mops and other things, it is enough to hide an adult woman in it. Feli carefully closed the cabinet door, which had a long hole for air circulation, through which she could see limitedly. Five seconds passed, ten seconds passed, twenty seconds passed.

Except for the high-pitched siren of the firetruck sounding in the distance, the complex was silent, except for the rustling of the cool breeze passing through the classroom. Phili didn't hear any footsteps, and no one seemed to be entering the complex.

Phyllis also began to doubt her decision—she just saw them make a movie, and didn't find out that they were dealing in contraband, did they need to pay attention to herself? Did she watch too many thrillers recently and started to suffer from victimization syndrome already?

Although she thought so, Feili had no intention of leaving. She is not a very active person. In fact, she is inconspicuous in the orphanage or in the university. Even if others take the initiative to express their goodwill towards her, she will shrink back and dare not accept it.

But once she decides what to do, she sticks to it. She has also made strange judgments based on intuition several times in her past life, and each time her intuition has been proved correct.

And this time, Feili's intuition told her not to go out one by one, those two people were very dangerous. She closed her eyes, tried to slow down her breathing rate, calmed her heartbeat, and weakened her sense of existence. When she felt herself almost melted into the darkness and opened her eyes, she found that she couldn't see outside.

No, it wasn't that she couldn't see it, but the long hole in the tool cabinet was blocked.

Snapped!

The tool cabinet slammed open, and the hot-haired girl suddenly appeared in her field of vision. When the hot-haired girl called, Fili subconsciously picked up the broom to resist, shouting: "I—"

Huh?" The hot-haired girl seemed surprised that she had the ability to resist, and her fist and foot attack became more and more violent.

Fili waved the broom instinctively, and took the initiative to knock the hot girl out of the tool cabinet, begging for mercy while running: "I...I...ahhhh..."

Fili stopped after running a few steps. She covered her throat and made a sound like a broken bellows.

Blood soaked in the new shirt she had just bought a few days ago, strength quickly escaped from her, and two lines of tears ran down her cheeks.

I...I don't want to die...

Her legs collapsed like building blocks, she fell on the familiar classroom floor, her skin was against the cold ground, and her consciousness was quickly dissipating.

In a trance, she heard a familiar male voice full of magnetism: "In order not to deepen her understanding, you are so cautious that you use garbage like glass shards as a weapon. It really is garbage weapons and garbage people."

"She will pass out in a while, I won't fight you here because of your provocation." The sweet female voice is full of unspeakable cruelty: "But this kind of slow death is also cruel to her, you Why don't you just step on her head?"

Slightly. Gang slightly.

The footsteps gradually approached her position until they stopped beside her. Intense fear gripped Fili's heart tightly, but she couldn't even utter her pleas, she could only let out a low beast-like ahhh.

The warm palm gently covered her wound, and soon, Feili felt that the wound was no longer painful, and the warm energy spread along her throat to every part of her body.

"Haha, are you looking for death?" The female voice snorted and couldn't help laughing: "You dare to use miracles to cure her, aren't you afraid that mysterious chains will lock you up? Do you know her?"

Male voice: "I don't know her, but it's my fault that I didn't stop you when you ran past. I'm ashamed that I have the same thoughts as you, but the difference between people and garbage is that people can Make up for your mistakes."

"If I watch you kill her, I'll wonder if I'm the same level of junk as you.

"Also, as long as she doesn't know me." The male voice said, "I will protect you, can you close your eyes and don't look at me? If you know me, I can't save you from this scumbag. you."

Phyllis nodded her head with the last of her strength.

"But how could she not know you?"

The voice of the female voice sounded faintly: "You are loved by everyone, the car sees the car, the coffin sees Ashe Heath with the lid open! Everyone knows Ashe Heath! The whole star country is full of surprises. Know Ash Heath!"

Although she didn't know the specific reason, Fili held the hand of the man next to her tightly, and kept saying to herself, "I don't know him," I don't know Ash Heath," and I don't know the man next to me.

"Do you feel like your wounds are healing?" the female voice explained loudly. "That's because Ash Heath is miraculously healing the wounds in your throat! Modern technology can't cut a person's throat in just a few minutes. You will be rescued in seconds, you should understand?"

I do not know him.

"You should have seen the commercials of Ashe Heath, seen his movies, seen his pictures? It's this man who just took your life from death, should you keep his face firmly in mind? Thank him well?"

I don't know him I don't know him...

"The hand you're holding now is Ash Heath's hand, isn't it warm?"

Feili seemed to hear a string break in her mind, the miracle of UU reading www.uukanshu.com's throat, the warmth of contact, the advertisement of Ashe Heath... All of them formed a specific image, which made her even close her eyes. The upper eye is also clearly visible!

No, she really saw Ash in her heart.

Under the surprised eyes of Ash and Vichy, Fili suddenly floated into the air. Starlight-colored transparent horns grew on her forehead, three jet-black wings appeared on her back, and delicate shackles appeared on her hands.

At the same time, a collar also emerged from Ash's neck. There was a very short chain on the collar. Although it became transparent when it was half-linked, it was undoubtedly linked to Fili's shackles.

boom!

Vichy was not a fool who watched others transform, no longer cared about the mysterious chains, and directly summoned the flame halberd to smash them at them!

"Don't think about it!

Yaxiu waved his sword to block without hesitation, successfully triggering the miracle of swordsman, and a white swordsman phantom appeared on him and slashed at Vichy!

Of course, Vichy immediately changed her weapon and returned to defense, but at this moment, a black phantom appeared on Fili!

The black phantom looks very similar to Fili, and also wields a sharp blade to kill Vichy. Vichy didn't expect this stubble at all. It penetrated the sanctuary and injured his thigh, and his face was extremely ugly. He stepped back ten meters.

"Could it be..." she muttered.

At this time, Fili was so frightened that she sat on the ground because of the fluctuation of their battle. She had long forgotten the rule of not opening her eyes, and stared blankly at their fantastic battle scenes. When Yaxiu looked over, she realized that she quickly covered her eyes with her hands: "I don't know you, and I don't know who you are. bfcbo.

"you..."

Ash looked at the blond girl sitting on the ground with jet-black wings and starlight horns on her forehead, and asked, "Are you a devil?"

Chapter 793: Magicalization · Spectator Mode

According to Heath's notes, the cage of the kingdom of stars will gradually trap the angels to death, but there is a 'digestion' process during this period. The Star Master is like eating the angels, not immediately stealing the authority of the ruby angels .

As for why the other gods let the Ruby Mountain be blocked and watch the stars catch the angels, Yaxiu is more willing to believe that hunting angels is related to the common interests of the gods. Under the acquiescence, the progress of Master Fanxing will be so smooth.

But when the angels rot in the cauldron of the kingdom of the stars, the contradiction between the gods and the masters immediately became apparent—the meat was ready, so why couldn't it be me who would eat it?

For thousands of years in the past, we let you create cages to hold angels in, so this face should be repaid, right?

In addition to the worldly feelings, the virtual realm also has fighting and killing!

In short, this is actually a black-and-white classic plot.

So the gods secretly interfered in the kingdom of stars. They dared not destroy the mysterious chains and concentric chains. After all, breaking these two chains would lead to angels getting out of trouble, so they left many “weapons” in the kingdom of stars.

The significance of these “weapons” is that they can become the assistants of the magician, allowing the magician to ignore the restrictions of the chains and hunt angels before the Master of the Stars.

Ash previously thought that because the ultimate goal was to hunt angels, these “weapons” were called demons, forming a literary echo. If Yaxiu guessed correctly, there are already many legendary magicians who have sneaked into the kingdom of stars. They are looking for traces of angels and seek help from demons.

What he didn’t expect was that the devil actually meant it literally.

Looking at the blond girl with horns sitting on the ground in horror, the cult leader touched his collar, and the cold texture from his fingertips made him clearly sense the power contained in it:

Dominate!

Yaxiu felt that 99% of his soul was invaded by demons, and an order from the devil could dominate Yaxiu’s fate!

But because of the near-complete soul connection, the demon also copied his magic power and magic spirit, and may even share the magic realm together.

Just now, Yaxiu triggered the phantom of the swordsman, and the devil actually triggered her phantom of the swordsman, and almost cut off Vichy’s dog’s head together, indicating that the devil has also recreated Yaxiu’s miracle!

However, the most powerful part of the devil is not that she can copy the combat power of the magician, but that she can break the chain restrictions – even in the public, she can use magic miracles arbitrarily without triggering the mysterious chain, causing magic The magic power is locked and evaporated!

In the kingdom of stars, magicians without demons are like prisoners dancing in shackles, and magicians with demons are simply prison guards who can do anything wrong!

Yaxiu never thought about looking for demons. First, he didn't have any clues about demons at all. Second, the demons were obviously living people, and they still needed to pay attention to attracting talents.

He doesn't have much experience with normal people, so he doesn't dare to invite people to join him.

And Heath didn't mention that if you want to use the power of the devil, you have to become the servant of the devil. Although Yaxiu doesn't mind working part-time, he has the dignity of a legendary magician to some extent, and it doesn't feel good no matter how he thinks about it.

It's weird to wear a collar, not on the bed.

And if the devil is a bastard, wouldn't Yaxiu dream back to the time before the time traveled?

but...

"demon?"

Fili shook her head stupidly: "I'm not a demon, I'm Fili Lena, yes, I'm a student here."

"Is that Phili?"

The sword-colored magic power was arguing in the soul, and the stray starlight gathered on Yaxiu, like a gauze draped over him. He stood in front of Fili, like a shining star that fell into the world.

“I’m sorry to know you in this way, but you have been involved in a mysterious incident, and you will face endless crises and battles. I am willing to be your sword and shield, but against it...”

The huge flame halberd exploded suddenly, like a train crashing into the back of Ash!

Phili exclaimed, “Behind you—”

“...Can you be my demon?”

clang! clang! clang!

In an instant, there were dozens of explosions, and flames and sword lights roared in the classroom. Yaxiu did not step back to parry Vichy’s repeated attacks, and said coldly, “You still haven’t escaped?”

“Why should I run away?” Vichy said with a cold smile on the corner of his mouth: “Just because I offended a demon, so I have to step back obediently so that you and the demon have a chance to grow up?”

“You should have read the Ghost Handbook, right?”

Yaxiu’s face sank, and he didn’t want to fight Vichy right now.

At first glance, Feili was not a seasoned veteran, and it was impossible for him to participate in the battle of their level, so the battle dessert did not tilt towards Ashura at all.

Anyway, Vichy has already offended Feili to death. In the future, he will take the TV station and Feili to surround and suppress Vichy, and let this ghost prophet enjoy the taste of incompetence and rage before cutting off her dog’s head with one knife. This is the safe and cool strategy route.

But Vichy, a scum who has lived for thousands of years, did not panic because of the appearance of the devil. On the contrary, she was terrifyingly rational. Anyway, if she offended to death, then cut the grass!

She was originally the kind of human devil who likes to stifle geniuses. The Gloomy Soul Handbook records that there are as many as 100 genius seeds who can become Sanctuary legends after she assassinates them in advance. It is almost her instinct, even her preference, to pick the most beautiful flowers in the garden in advance!

“Phili,” Ash said calmly in the interval of the fierce fight, “Go outside and ask for help, and ask others to come and catch the arsonist!”

In the blink of an eye, Ash thought about the current situation—it was too much for this newborn demon to let Fili participate in the battle, but there was nothing wrong with letting her run away and call someone. He only needs to drag Vichy to someone else, and Vichy, who has no demons, will naturally be locked by mysterious chains!

Yaxiu shouted twice, and Feili, who was sitting on the ground, reacted, and quickly got up and escaped from the classroom. But when she ran to the stairwell, the back wall was suddenly pierced, and Ash, whose belly burned through, smashed a human-shaped pit on the wall, and Feili felt that the blazing temperature was about to ignite the back of her neck!

clang!

In the nick of time, Ash directly used Sanctuary to protect Fili, but the price was that the flesh on his arm melted like ice cream. Naturally, he was using the Music Sword to heal his injuries the whole time, but the pain of melting and regeneration made his voice choppy.

“Don’t be afraid, keep going. With me here, I will keep you safe.”

“Actually, you might as well run away by yourself.” Vichy said with a wicked smile, “As long as you run away, I will definitely not hunt you down, and of course I won’t kill her. After all, I am a demigod of the soul, like “almost killed her”. A small misunderstanding, there are many ways to solve it in the soul faction...”

Whoa!

A blue swordsman phantom appeared on Yaxiu's body, and the avatar seemed to know that the master was going to die, and it was going to work hard! At the same time, a black sword-servant phantom appeared on Fili's body, and the double phantom cut into Vichy's sanctuary, forcing the ghost prophet to retreat!

Seeing this scene, Fili, who fled along the stairs in a panic, suddenly stopped. Naturally, Yaxiu immediately noticed the cessation of the footsteps. He didn't look back and asked, "What's wrong?"

"I can actually help you fight, right?" Fili said with courage: "You might have been killed by her before I called someone back! If I helped you, would you be able to defeat her?"

"I really can't deny this possibility," Vichy said with a grin: "After all, you are a 'devil'. You have the most powerful violence. If you know how to use your power, I can't beat you two... two!"

She held both hands empty and grabbed two giant flame halberds. At the same time, her whole body burst into flames, and the floor tiles and windows began to deform and melt under the high temperature.

In order to dance the two halberds, Vichy has been unable to precisely control every strength of her... She has to work hard!

What she said was just to seduce Feili to stay and wait for her death. With Fili present, Ashe had to protect the demon, but instead restricted his escape space.

But in the face of Vichy who was completely crazy, Yaxiu didn't have the confidence to resist. He took a deep breath and said calmly, "I don't know how you can help me, but I'll buy you time."

"If I lose, run with all your strength and don't look back."

Yaxiu stood at the entrance of the stairs and drew three sword marks on the ground, and then three warm yellow barriers appeared in front of him.

Miracle Triple Sword Body Barrier!

Vichy smiled and said, "Why do you do this for someone you don't know?"

"Didn't you ask about peace or dignity?" Ash said: "I can't grasp it or I can't see it. The so-called dignity... means to see and touch!"

Suddenly, it seemed that fireworks were blooming in the complex building, the flames were burning to the extreme, and the air was compressed to the limit and exploded, like a meteorite falling into the world!

boom!

The barrier of the triple sword body shattered at a touch, and Ash swung two swords to hold Vichy's flame halberd, but the hot wind kept invading the sanctuary, igniting his skin and tearing his flesh!

But the stairway that Ash was guarding was safe and sound. Fili looked at the figure standing in front of her, forced herself to calm down, and racked her brains to think about the problems she could solve.

What is a demon? What is demon power? How can I help him? We didn't know each other, he could have abandoned me and left, and could have ignored me from the start... but he fought that monster for me... I can't, I can't watch him die...

It was like watching my mother die at that time.

Feili almost bit her lip to bleed, but she didn't feel anything, she wasn't a devil at all, she was just a lamb who didn't know anything!

Suddenly, she noticed the chains attached to the shackles of her hands. There was no room for thought, she grabbed the chain and pulled hard—

Yaxiu, who was confronting Vichy, suddenly felt that his neck was being pulled, and there was a gap in the tight defense. Naturally, Vichy would not miss this opportunity. The flame halberd slammed into the Sanctuary, and the blazing hot wind was about to blow away Yaxiu's body—

Boom!

The sudden wind blast blew Vichy out, and she turned in the air three times and landed smoothly, staring at the dark foggy stairwell with a serious expression.

The black fog quickly dissipated, and I saw Fili standing there blankly, and Ash was nowhere to be seen.

Wei Xi was stunned for a moment, and then smiled: "I didn't expect him to have such an escape card, and he didn't notice the ripples in the space at all... How did he escape? However, it doesn't matter."

She looked at Feili, and a sweet and lovely smile gradually appeared on her face: "So, do you want peace or dignity?"

However, Feili just stared at the back of Vichy stupidly, Vichy frowned slightly, she didn't feel anything, and naturally she wouldn't be fooled by this little trick...

chap!

Vichy dodged dangerously, wiped the blood from her neck, and her expression suddenly became solemn—she just encountered an unpredictable slash!

what happened? She has clearly opened the sanctuary, but the sanctuary has not responded?

chap! chap! chap!

The icy sword light in the air made Vichy dodge in embarrassment. She directly called out the flame halberd and waved it in a circle, but she didn't cut anything.

With a thought, she took a few minutes to shrink the sanctuary until it was completely close to the skin, and there was almost no space for air to flow in, and then raised the flame halberd and smashed it at Fili!

Vichy, this arrogant person, is under the skin, UU reading www. uukanshu.com hides caution and decisiveness. Although she has the idea of taking this demon as her own, in order to save her life, she would rather kill the demon to get rid of the current strange situation!

At this moment, Vichy's sanctuary finally sensed the violent slash from behind, and her spine was slashed into a little bit. She could only turn around in the air while healing and fight back!

boom!

As the flame and sword light bloomed, she saw a familiar face—

It's Ash!

Yaxiu, who should have escaped and disappeared, suddenly appeared behind her at this moment, and the double-sword sword light fell on her sanctuary like a gust of wind and rain!

Between the light and the flint, Vichy, who has experienced hundreds of battles, understood the truth of the strange situation: "You can be perfectly invisible? Is it hiding in a different dimension? Or..."

"It's not stealth." Now that he was seen, Yaxiu was not interested in hiding it, and the figure disappeared in the air out of thin air: "It's the spectator."

Chapter 794: 'Angel of the Hunt' limited search

Yaxiu didn't expect that the demon's * and use of magicians could reach such a level—

Fili turned Ash into a magic spirit!

Perhaps only in this state, Ash can use the magic spell without triggering the mysterious chain. Because he is not a magician at all at this moment, just Feili's magic spirit!

As for his effect as a magic spirit, Ash does not admit that it is invisible, and he prefers to call it the 'spectator mode'.

When he is not actively interfering with reality, he is in the "unselectable" spectator mode, no magic miracle can affect him, no object can stop him. But when he ends up interfering with reality, he immediately leaves the viewer mode.

He strongly suspects that the demon's ability to 'spiritualize' is probably the means left by Lord Sen Luozhan. Because the spiritual transformation is really similar to Sen Luo's Dafa, the only difference is that Yaxiu still retains consciousness, and he can withdraw from the magical transformation at any time without the control of the devil.

Yaxiu felt that his spell spirit must have other effects, but at present he only explored the spectator mode. Rao is so, he also has the confidence to crush this * Vichy.

Just being able to freely choose "when it will appear in reality" means that all defenses are meaningless to Ash!

Needless to mention the sanctuary, Yaxiu directly chooses to appear in the sanctuary and can bypass the sanctuary defense. What's more terrifying is that in the viewer mode, he can overlap with other objects (in fact, he overlaps with the air itself)!

When the objects overlap, Ash suddenly chooses to interfere with reality, what will happen?

Now he knew the answer – Vichy had already used Sanctuary against her skin just now, but Ash still almost cut off her dog's head, because Ash was in spectator mode and stuck his sword in her neck, and then suddenly return to reality.

There are three possibilities here:

Yaxiu's sword didn't break, Vichy had something to do;

Ash's sword is broken, Vichy is fine;

There's something wrong with Ash's sword and Vichy.

The answer is the first one, Ash and the objects he grasps, have the highest reality priority. When he interferes with reality, other objects have to make concessions for him and are directly destroyed by him; when he enters the viewer mode, even the shattering of reality cannot affect him at all.

There is no doubt that this is an almost miraculous effect!

And don't forget, although Yaxiu is a magic spirit now, he can still use his magic power and magic spirit! In other words, Ash is now holding a miracle to fight Vichy, a naked demigod!

Vichy also realized this, and without hesitation, turned and ran out of the window.

But just two seconds after she fell, Yaxiu appeared by her side more than a dozen times. By the time she landed, her limbs had been cut off, her spine was divided into several sections, and there was only one eye left, like a doll. fall on the lawn.

However, flames kept popping out of her body to repair her body. Yaxiu was sure that there was no other magic spirit to help her. Although she didn't know what was going on with her body, she could attack, defend, heal, and move with the ability to keep fire. , Investigating all kinds of work, the realm of fire art may have a legendary level.

"Aha." Vichy opened his remaining eyes and smiled, "I lost."

"I didn't expect that I would beat a mortal twice in a row. The first time was in Dreamland, and the second time was here."

"Come on, just use my humble achievements to show your prestige."

Yaxiu appeared beside her and looked at her wreckage coldly.

“Why do you know about angels, demons, and chains?” he asked, “Why did you come in here on your own initiative? What else do you know, and what is your purpose?”

“If I’m not mistaken,” Vichy said, without the slightest fear of imminent death, “Are you offering me a deal to exchange information for my survival?”

“Since you’re going to die,” Ash said calmly, “why help you hide the information from the messenger behind the scenes? Don’t you like to watch the world burn as a scum? Tell me the information, isn’t it more in line with your chaotic and evil temperament? ?”

“I said that.”

Vichy’s voice was full of unspeakable evil and contempt: “I had long predicted that I would be killed one day, but that was not today, and that person would not be you.”

Yaxiu was slightly startled, and immediately realized a possibility: “Do you still have the means of resurrection?”

“I’m a dual demigod of soul prophecy,” Vichy laughed. “Although it’s a waste to use the fire cat * to be reborn, but the advantage is... my new body and new soul are strong enough, and the gender is the same as mine. , I can divide the share of the soul box.”

“Don’t be discouraged, you really caused me a lot of trouble this time.”

Vichy instead comforted Kia Xiu: “Because of your spoiler, I can only withdraw from the kingdom of stars, and the deal with the Lord of Storms and Snow is about to fall through. Even if I am resurrected, I have to work hard to compensate him. And another piece of mine is broken. Soul is very small, I don’t know how many people you have to kill to recover, you can at least have ten years without worrying about my revenge.”

“However, however, I’m not refusing to trade with you.” She was so happy that it was Ash who was cut into a stick, “I’m willing to provide information to help you hunt angels, but it depends on how you entertain me. I use torture, no matter how you destroy and ravage me, I will give you information; of course, you can also treat me well, I will also give you information, and even help you.”

“Ash Heath, I respect your choice.” Vichy laughed: “Peace or dignity?”

Ash’s mouth twitched, how could he not detect the dark thoughts of the ghost prophet.

If he is greedy for Vichy’s information, he will definitely keep her. Whether he is tortured or entertained, sooner or later Vichy will seize the opportunity to turn back the guest, and even the interrogation and communication itself will become an opportunity for her to turn around – she is a demigod of soul!

The reason why Vichy took the initiative to say that he could be resurrected was purely to disgust him. He didn’t feel the slightest pleasure in killing Vichy. It was like stepping on a big cockroach, but seeing hundreds of cockroaches burst out of its stomach. Fleeing little cockroaches!

“By the way, your body is in the country of stars, right?” Vichy said as if kindly: “When I go back, I will see if I have a chance to take care of you. You can hunt angels here with peace of mind.”

Yaxiu asked back, “Aren’t you afraid of being discovered in Fanxing’s body?”

“Oh, don’t worry about this.” Vichy smiled: “I’m fully prepared to come in... I’ve disappeared from the first day I entered Fanxing.”

Yaxiu squatted down and looked at her, suddenly picked her up, and slapped her across.

“This is for the silver lamp.”

“This is for Igula.”

“This is for Harvey.”

“This is for Gwen.”

“This is for Chikara.”

“This is for Tamashi.”

“This is for Sen Luo.”

“This is for me.”

I don't know how many times I fanned her before Ash smashed her on the lawn like a rag. Not only did her face not change at all, she even regenerated her eyes again.

“Ah, I forgot to tell you,” Vichy laughed, “I don't actually feel pain... Wouldn't it be too disappointing?”

Yaxiu was no longer in the mood to continue listening to her babble. He held a dagger instead, ready to split her head like a melon, and making her die ugly was the only way to relieve Yaxiu's depression.

But at this moment, Phili's scream came from behind: “Ah! Wait!”

Ash turned his head and watched the blonde girl with shofars running over. She looked at Vichy, who looked like a doll, and covered her mouth in fright, “...Yes, do you want to call an ambulance?”

“Call the hearse.” Ash said, “Just send her to the cremation furnace.”

“But isn't it illegal to kill?” Feili asked cautiously, “Can't you call the police to take her away?”

Even Yaxiu, a self-proclaimed good citizen, couldn't help but smile at this moment, "Do you think the police can catch this arsonist who can blow up half a building?"

Fili was stunned and turned to look at the smoking laboratory building in the distance: "So... it's not a movie?"

"So you understand?" Ash pointed to Vichy and said, "This is not a human, just a monster in human skin. She destroys life as naturally as breathing. She has killed more people than you have ever seen. There are many people. If I don't kill her, I will die next... um, about tens of thousands?"

"Less, less." Vichy corrected: "My ultimate plan is to destroy the entire capital of Kasei to hunt angels."

Yaxiu spread her hands, Fili blinked, looked at Vichy and asked, "She...isn't she a lunatic?"

"Of course she's a lunatic," Ash said, "but she really has a way to destroy the capital, Gaishi."

"Good-hearted girl, I thought about it, but I still don't want to die." Vichy suddenly said to Feili: "I'm not yet an adult, I haven't read a book yet, can you...give me a chance?"

Seeing that Feili's expression began to shake, Vichy hit the railroad while it was hot: "Are you a devil? You can control this man, as long as you give an order, he can't hurt me, you send me to the police station, I am willing to receive reform education. "

Fili struggled for a while, then suddenly nodded her head: "Okay!"

Just when Vichy's eyes showed playful joy, Fili suddenly turned her back to Ash and Vichy, covered her ears and squatted down: "I can't hear anything, I can't see anything, I don't know anything!"

Yaxiu looked at her and nodded silently. If Fili was a Virgin who even Vichy would let go of, then he wouldn't need to cooperate with Fili, or he would be killed by her sooner or later.

But after such an interruption, Ash was not so angry anymore. Vichy does have information that he doesn't know, and if he can dig it out, it will be of great benefit to the hunting angel...

Speaking of which, isn't he still hiding a bottle of "Potion of Enthusiasm"? The effect can make people become honest and enthusiastic. Although it is used by operators, Ashe is afraid of being beaten by operators, so he stuffed the warehouse.

If it is used by Vichy, UU read www.uukanshu.com. Can com produce the effect of Veritaserum?

With that in mind, Ash called out Aurora's Manual of Magicians. He just wanted to open the warehouse, but found a red dot prompt in "Operator Search".

He opened it and found that the search interface, which had not been active a day ago, had appeared at this moment.

"'Hunting Angel' limited search (a new version event with the game's major update after half a year

"Limited operators 'Devil Maid', 'Crows Kill', and 'Chaos Diva' have an increased chance of getting ↑↑"

"Limited items 'Ruby Chain', 'Stalker List', limited resources 'Golden Stream', 'Fate Quiz Cabin' get probability ↑↑"

"Limited costumes 'The Killing Star Maniac · Sword Princess', 'Date Night · Sword Princess', 'The Queen's Expedition · The Witch', 'The Lord of the Golden River · The Witch', 'Dark Silver Lamp · Orchid Wesser', 'Relaxing Honeymoon: Orchid Wesser' has a probability ↑↑"

Chapter 795: Give a reward

Both Fili and Vichy noticed that Ash's expression suddenly became very strange.

If you can use a pie chart to illustrate, it would be about 30% confusion, 30% anger, 30% laughter, and 10% disdain.

Ash's current mood is like seeing Harvey looking upright and polite, or hearing Igula's sincere apology, summed up in one sentence –

Demo, are you still pretending to be in front of me?

Yaxiu is no longer the ignorant player he used to be. Since Dead Sword Girl, Black and White Witch, and Youlan Weiser are all real people, then this so-called 'searching activity' is actually choosing a lucky magician as his team member/tool People, and it is still mandatory. If the target wants to refuse, it will not work. If you are drawn by Yaxiu, you will directly become an operator, which is similar to the slave market.

Yaxiu seems to see three imprisoned operators in the exhibition cabinet, 'Devil Maid', 'Crows Killed', and 'Chaos Diva'. Now as long as he has enough source crystals, he can bring one home to create happiness.

Now it's still installed like the game system, you are obviously a forced part-time job system!

However, Yaxiu is not dissatisfied, after all, he is not a part-timer.

It's just that it didn't happen yesterday, and now there is a search activity, which means that this search system is not able to force the sale of piglets regardless of the distance. At least Yaxiu needs to trigger the local talent market, so that it can bring in the talents of the nearby talents for free. card pool.

However, its card pool is free, and Yaxiu wants to draw out operators, but it will cost real money and kryptonite crystals!

He now knows that the source crystal is not a simple card-drawing resource, but an important resource that can drive the gods!

Taking the awakening * as an example, a source crystal can make her perform a 'delayed dream awakening', the effect can make the sanctuary magician trigger the eclipse dream in the distant airspace, so as to climb the ruby mountain.

Although it can't be so rudely equivalent, but a source crystal can indeed give a sanctuary magician a chance to become a legendary magician! 3 Origin Crystals to draw a card pool, if you can krypton out operators, that's all, in case of drawing out consolation prizes such as stamina potions, Yaxiu feels that he has lost three legendary magicians!

It's just that even if it's a loss, Ash still has to draw. The source crystal is of great strategic value, but for Yaxiu, who has no gods, it is at most the icing on the cake. The only way for him to use the source crystal is to let the magic spirit absorb the energy of the source crystal to cast spells without him providing the magic force.

But Yaxiu is not very lacking in magic power. The three secret poisons of Golden Fish, Colorful Tail, and Colorless Dream can not only convert all his magic power into sword-colored magic power, but also increase the power of magic spirit to four wings. , using the source crystal instead reduced his combat power.

Even if Yaxiu was worried that he would end up running out of mana, it would be enough to leave one Origin Crystal—the energy contained in one Origin Crystal was enough to make all his magic spirits work overtime until they died suddenly.

If Yaxiu stepped into the realm of gods and took charge of the gods, then he might really be able to completely abandon the search system and accumulate source crystals every day. But he was new to the legend, instead of drowning with a large amount of source crystals, he might as well convert these wealth into another form to continue to accompany him.

Or maybe Ash returned to Gospel now, so he might not have to think about looking for new operators.

Although he thought about whether to find new operators to ease the tension in the team, but after thinking hard, Ash still suppressed his escaping thoughts.

The more teammates the better, but Jian Ji is very opposed to the appearance of new people in the team. Her ideal team is the sea of knowledge, with only her and Yaxiu. Give more help, if she can really choose, she doesn't want to have a newcomer in the team.

Even Ashe himself felt that the current team was enough to venture into the virtual world. If he had to say it, he felt that the team in the remote airspace was the best. Jian Ji was the close-range burst output, the witch was the mid-range and short-range controller, Wesser was the * who could deal with all the puzzles, and he himself provided assistance, Long-range tactical support for defense and healing.

Now, as long as Yaxiu returns to Senluo and finds a way to rescue the Silver Lamp God from the darkness of the abyss, the team will almost recover.

If Yaxiu returned to the Gospel, everyone could practice peacefully, and there was no need for the team to rush to increase their combat power. At that time, even if it is just to take care of the feelings of the sword princess witch, he is willing to stop looking for new operators.

However, Ash is now being dragged into the kingdom of stars, and urgently needs a trusted tool person to share the pressure. This search activity perfectly replaces the niche of the talent market, seizes Yaxiu's pain points, deconstructs the needs from the underlying logic, forms a combination punch, and creates an ecological closed loop that has to be pumped.

Ash looked at the list of new operators. First of all, he recognized at a glance who "Crow Killed" – except for Tamashi, there are no living crows killed in the entire world now.

It's just that Tamashi is not even a magician, can you draw it out? And if Tamashi is not in Ruby Mountain, then it would be meaningless for Yaxiu to take it out. Is it possible to turn Tamashi into Ruby Mountain?

With the name 'Chaotic Diva', Ash's first reaction was Jian Ji. After all, she can sing, but it's impossible to draw two Sonia Servi, so this Diva is probably someone that Ash doesn't know. .

Instead, it's the 'Devil Maid'...

Yaxiu glanced at the girl with blond hair and horns next to her, who was as soft and cute as a lamb, thinking that she also knew that she had been seen through the search activity, so she didn't plan to continue pretending.

Is there any other possibility for this 'devil maid' besides Fili?

Although there was no basis for it, he had a strong premonition that he would definitely draw the 'Devil Maid'.

First of all, after the cooperation of this life-and-death adventure, Fili has a good relationship with him; secondly, as long as Fili becomes his operator, he doesn't need to worry about being coerced by Fili using the demon's superior niche.

The more Ash thought about it, the better, thinking that Aurora's Manual of Artisans had finally done a second job this time. The Black and White Witch that was drawn last time, and the Orchid Wesser that was drawn last time, actually belonged to the opposite camp with Yaxiu at the beginning. If Yaxiu had not influenced the two operators with his superb leadership skills, the team would be afraid now. It's not that there are many ghosts inside.

Also, Jian Ji was very kind from the beginning, and she didn't have any bad intentions.

When he first learned the true identities of Youlan Weisser and the Black and White Witch, Ash almost thought that the search system would only search for bad women. This time, there are cute and cute tool people in the card pool, which means that it was just a matter of luck before, and Yaxiu can finally welcome a truly obedient operator!

Then there are the limited items 'Ruby Chain', 'Stalker List', limited resources 'Golden Stream' and 'Fate Quiz Cabin' in the card pool.

'Ruby Chain' Ashe doesn't know. The 'Stalker List' sounds like it has something to do with Ruby Mountain's magician list system, and the 'Golden Stream' and the 'Fate Question and Answer Cabin' are a bit confusing to Ashe.

Isn't this a resource point in the virtual realm? Can this be pumped?

Ash estimated that this was a resource to be put into the kingdom of heaven, just like the wishing pool in the kingdom of Thousand Wishes. He heard that the resources in the kingdom of heaven were stolen from the virtual realm, but he didn't have much real feeling in his heart. Now he saw that the Xunmi system actually stole the Liujinhe and the fate question and answer house, and then recalled that the starry sky itself of Fanxing and Zhongxing was actually The sky of hell, I wonder if the virtual realm was originally rich in materials, and now it is a declining era that is about to be emptied?

Ruby Mountain is bare, is it because it was stolen?

On the contrary, it was the attire that Ash was very excited about before, but now he doesn't care. If tonight's date is successful, Yaxiu can even help Jian Ji change her clothes, so why not smoke?

However, what made Yaxiu quite unhappy was that there was actually the Orchid Wesser's attire in the attire. This broken system, how many times did you want to remind Ash that Wesser was dead?

"Mr. Heath..."

"Just call me Ash." Ash looked at his new operator with a kind smile, "I'll call you a maid too... ah no, Phili."

Am I like a maid?

Feili looked at herself and wondered if she was too vulgar, and asked, "Then...Aren't you going to kill this bad woman?"

"No, wait for me, I'll see if there are any props that can make her survive and die."

"You are a torture tool that I can't bear." Vichy said, "I hate looking at men the most. Would you like to stare at me for a few minutes to make me feel uncomfortable?"

"Can a soul demigod brainwash others with his eyes? I remember this knowledge point." Yaxiu opened the purchasing center, feeling a little depressed – his points were not enough to buy the 328 Origin Crystal Gift Pack.

When he was in Senluo, in order to let the silver lamp last for a few more years and not burn out and disappear, he spent the stock to buy a 328-point source crystal gift package, leaving almost all the source crystals for the silver lamp as a spare.

The points can only be exchanged by Yaxiu kryptonite. Now he only has more than 200 points left. At most, he can buy a bag of source crystals, a total of 40 source crystals, plus those signed in these two days, a total of 42. Can be drawn 14 times.

But there is no way without money...

While thinking about it like this, Axiu suddenly noticed a small red dot in the upper left corner of the icon similar to "Mail", clicked it and found that it was a gift—

"Dear Operator"

"Thank you for your understanding and support of the "Artist's Manual" for the past six months! Your 'Ten Search Certificate' and 'Fashion Random Certificate' have been issued, please check them in time."

"Attachment: 'Ten Search Certificate' and 'Fashion Gift Package'"

"The "Artist's Manual" Operation Team (scheduled to be issued after half a year

Actually there is an operation team?

Ash scratched his head and looked at the accessories first. There is no need to say more about the ten company certificate. The description of the fashion gift package is "the legacy of the operators. The operation team specially found it from the warehouse as a gift~www.mtlnovel.com~ represents the operation team's recognition of the players" – this description Also too poor.

But when he opened it, Yaxiu's eyes lit up:

"Mobile Natural Disaster Spectator"

“Killing Sword Demon, Sword Princess”

“Princess of the Fallen Kingdom: The Witch”

“Evil Mirror Master Wesser”

Each dress is dark gray and cold, and the cold and cruel expressions of everyone in the painting are very poignant to Yaxiu’s aesthetics. The sword princess became cruel, the witch became crazy, Wesser became an indifferent tyrant surrounded by warlocks, and he became a madman who ignited the world... This vertical painting setting is quite cool.

But he still wanted to draw out everyone’s wedding suits.

However, Yaxiu is a little strange. These dresses look good, but they don’t have any attributes at all. Does this want them to wear these dresses, or does it not want them to wear them?

Yaxiu opened the search interface, took a deep breath, and chose to search!

“Are you sure you will consume 42 Origin Crystals and ten consecutive search certificates for 24 searches?”

“Sure!”

The first is to waste the 14 white lights of Yaxiu’s source crystal, energy potion, experience potion, and career potion. Then there are 7 purple lights, which are 2 bottles of Shuling Delight Potion, 2 bottles of Pure Aura Special Drink, and 3 bottles of Ruby Essence.

Finally, 3 golden lights popped up!

“Ruby Chain”!

“Dark Silver Lantern: Orchid Wesser”!

And... “Demon Maid”!

Chapter 796: Chains and the Maid

Fast Chinese. One-click direct access to Chinese domain names

As expected!

Yaxiu cheered in his heart, as long as the operator is drawn out, it will be a victory!

Having said that, he still took a look at the newly released purple light medicine:

“Ruby Essence”: The masterpieces of sorcerers. They gathered silver, gold, sanctuary, and legendary magicians as materials, and then extracted the sea water of the sea of knowledge, the golden rain of the time continent, remote The dream bubble in the sky and the ruby in the Ruby Mountain were finally combined to create such a strange secret medicine, and the effect lasted for seven days.

Ordinary legendary magicians can slowly increase their heterochromatic mana after drinking and exploring in Ruby Mountain.

After the operator (bond chain) drinks and explores in Ruby Mountain, it can slowly increase its own heterochromatic mana, and flow into the bond object through the bond relationship.

After the operator (bond core) drinks and explores in Ruby Mountain, he can slowly increase his heterochromatic mana, and flow into all bond objects through the bond relationship.

Yaxiu was stunned, and immediately realized that this was probably their biggest cheat in Ruby Mountain.

If the blockade did not happen, he, Jian Ji, and the witch would each drink a bottle of ruby essence, and then everyone would hang out in the ruby, and the magic power of different colors would increase rapidly, and there was no need to go through the list of magicians to fight to death.

But now it's only him at Ruby Hill.

Needless to say, the witch, she will definitely not be able to enter if she is not in Fanxing;

Jian Ji should find out that something happened, as long as she still has reason, she will definitely know to protect his body, rather than come in and die with him.

However, even if Ash was the only one who drank the "Ruby Essence", when he was exploring the Ruby Mountain, he could let all the operators increase their heterochromatic mana together. If everyone is unlucky, Yaxiu may not be able to leave the star kingdom when everyone successfully condenses the fourth virtual wing.

On the contrary, the introduction of the ruby essence is somewhat interesting. Could it be that a group of sorcerers caught them as alchemy materials in the past, and then these secret medicines were found by the search system for nothing?

Without further ado, Ash immediately drank the "ruby essence", and the remaining two bottles were just enough for Igula and Harvey.

I saw a glass bottle suddenly appeared in his hand, and he drank it as soon as he raised his head, which made Feili and Vichy who were secretly observing him feel a little strange.

Fili was just curious about where he got the glass bottle, but Vichy could vaguely feel the subtle but clear soul fluctuations inside. This is a trace that squeezes the soul to the limit, and only a demigod of the soul can find it.

This kind of soul refining method is almost comparable to her life. There is actually a soul demigod behind Yaxiu?

After drinking the ruby essence, Ash turned to the highlight of this search.

“Ruby Chain”: The semi-finished chain made by Master Fanxing was discarded because it needed to completely dominate the target to implant the chain. The conditions were too harsh. It can be used on any operator after being refined again by the research team mainly composed of soul demigods, and after using it, the operator can control the actions of the operator.

Ash almost spewed the ruby essence out of his mouth—what?

Dominate the actions of operators?

He carefully read the introduction and found that the conditions are indeed harsh. After all, you can completely control the target, and you don’t need this chain at all. No wonder Master Fanxing throws it away. But for Aurora’s Manual of Warlocks, all operators are in a state of complete domination, so Ash can use this chain to dominate other operators.

However, it is only the control of actions, and Ash still has no control over his thoughts. But even so, it’s almost the same as full domination. Ash can force operators to do various things, such as this and this, such as that and that...

Terrible, there are such evil props, I will never use it!

unless...unless...

Yaxiu thought about it for a long time, but couldn’t think of the reason why he had to use this chain, so he didn’t think about it, and thought about it when he left the kingdom of stars.

“This maid’s name is Vichy Modo Telos Boyesia Hersin Melunes Meritia...”

“Skip the introduction of names.”

“I was born in the strawberry town of the Kingdom of Thorns, and my father’s name was Modo Telos Boesia Helsing...”

“Skip your background introduction.”

“I am study in.....”

“enough!”

In the living room on the first floor of the villa, Ash, Igola, Harvey, Rose, and Fili surrounded Vichy, who had put on a maid outfit. His eyes looked at the cult leader.

“It was you who said you wanted me to say everything.” She said leisurely, “Then I must say it from the time I was born to be considered ‘everything’.”

“If you think I’ve done something wrong, master, then you can punish me. Hammers, chainsaws, bamboo sticks, candles, whips soaked in salt water, the little maid will be well-behaved only after the master’s training~”

Rose immediately raised her hand: “The soundproof room and props are ready, Ash, you can start anytime!”

“Is the props ready?” Phili widened her eyes.

Rose nodded, her expression taken for granted: "Of course, these are very commonly used props, and they must be kept at home, right?"

"Okay, Rose, don't talk anymore, if you continue, Fili will call the police." Axiu propped her forehead and said to the blonde female college student, "We are playing a role-playing game, and Rose is playing a role-playing game. The almighty steward who fulfills all wishes, don't take her words seriously."

"Correct, at least I can't achieve my good wishes." Rose said, "But the wishes recorded in the "Criminal Law" are not a problem."

Fili wanted to say something, but Ash took the initiative to pull her aside, making sure Rose couldn't hear him, so he said in a low voice, "Fili, you are special."

"what?"

Fili looked at Yaxiu so close, she didn't know where to put her eyes, and her heart beat faster.

"The 'mysterious phenomenon' that our power cannot be discovered by ordinary people." Ash said, "Otherwise we will lose our power immediately, but only people like you can not only watch us, but also use our power, and not bound by this mysterious chain."

"Rose is just an ordinary person. She doesn't believe I have mystical powers at all. In fact, I can't prove it to her, otherwise I will lose my power immediately. She thought we were playing a role-playing game, so in front of her, we pretended It's players with different personalities."

"Why am I special?" Phili asked. "Because I'm... a 'devil'? I'm not really human?"

"Devil is just a noun, you don't have to care so much, it doesn't represent your character, nor your race." Ash pointed to Vichy behind him with his thumb: "If you have to say it, that guy is the real one. the devil."

“You treat it as a hidden identity. You are an ordinary Fili at other times. Only when you meet people like us will you become a demon who can protect yourself.”

“Then what are you?” Fili asked curiously, “Is it a goblin in a fairy tale that loses its powers when discovered?”

“We are magicians.”

“Like the magician who appeared in “Blood Moon Judgment”?”

“Almost, we are good magicians, Vichy is a bad magician, and now there are many bad magicians in Jia world, they come to kill someone, but in order to exert their own power, everyone needs the help of demons. “Axiu said seriously: “So I hope you can become my companion, not only to use your strength, but also to protect you from other bad magicians.”

Phili was stunned for a moment, and suddenly looked around.

“What are you looking for?”

“I’m looking for cameras... nothing

“In my cooperation with the King of Wind, Rain and Snow, I didn’t enter the kingdom of the stars, but I became a legendary magician after being reborn with the knowledge of the fire god, and I happened to have the qualifications to participate in hunting angels, so the King of Wind, Rain and Snow changed transaction terms.”

Under the 3,000-word order from Igula, Vichy finally couldn’t stray from the topic, and honestly told the information that Yaxiu and others urgently needed: “I originally wanted to refuse, but the treatment it gave was extremely generous, even if I failed. It's just another trade option, but as long as I kill the Angel, or I prove I played a key role in it, it counts as me closing the trade."

"More importantly, the death of an angel will drop a 'personality', which is the treasure that the gods compete for. Even if other legendary magicians kill the angel, the person will still be given to the god, but the Lord of Wind, Rain and Snow does not require Personality, that is to say, if I kill the angel, the personality also belongs to me!"

"What exactly is a personality?" Ash couldn't help asking.

"I don't know much, and it's very complicated to explain." Vichy said, "You understand it as the key treasure leading to the six wings."

"At present, all kingdoms send legends into the stars, including Fanxing. But the legend of the stars is not to kill the angels, but to stop us, which means that the hunting angels will encounter three forces: exotic legends with a common goal, just want to Troubled starry legends, and angels."

Ash asked, "How to find angels?"

"Don't you have any clues?" Vichy said: "The Ruby Angel is not a human being, and it is bound to have anomalies in human society, such as anti-social and serial murders, such as 'Death Crazy' Nia Servi is a major suspect. ."

"But it doesn't matter if you can't find it, because Master Fanxing will help."

Yaxiu and the others were startled: "What?"

"Other gods just want to seize the person, but the Dharma Master Fanxing who grabbed the angel wants to swallow the angel completely." Vichy said: "Although it is impossible to predict what will happen, Dharma Master Fanxing will definitely be at regular intervals. Just 'digest' the angels until the angels are completely turned into their own."

“Maybe in these few days, the first ‘digestion ritual’ will take place, and the angel’s body may be exposed at that time. Of course, all legends will come by then. If you also want to hunt angels, you will have to work with the six kingdoms. The elite magicians confront each other.”

“However, your chances of winning are very good.” Vichy glanced at Fili. “Other legends may not have found their demons, but Master, you already have a well-behaved and obedient demon that you can control.”

When Ash looked over, Fili immediately defended: “I know she’s trying to sow discord, I don’t believe it!”

“But you, an ordinary person, suddenly became someone else’s tool, participating in your life-and-death battle, but you can’t get any benefit. It’s a fact, right?” Wei Xi laughed: “Have you found it regrettable that the master uses it from time to time? Looking at you? He actually regrets it, that chain should be used on you, not me.”

“I don’t believe it,” Fei Li hurriedly shook her head at Yaxiu, “I don’t believe it at all!”

“It’s just...” The blond girl looked at her phone and found that there were more than a dozen unread text messages in it, “It’s very late now, my friend is urging me to go back... Ah!”

What about friends’ information?

“It’s not convenient to go back so late, there are many rooms here.” Igula said: “You shouldn’t mind staying here for one night, right?”

Feili twisted her * uneasily: “I, I...”

“The soundproof room has been vacated.” Rose said, “It’s very quiet and comfortable. There is also a bathroom and pajamas. Give me the clothes you changed, and they will be washed tomorrow morning!”

“I, I, woo...”

Seeing that Fili was about to cry, Ash said angrily: "Ross, you send Fili back. Fili, we didn't mean to tie you here, but don't say that you went to Nebula tonight after you go back. University, let alone expose yourself to be a devil

Chapter 799: brother

On the day of his mother's burial, Felix moved into Vosloda's estate.

Beautifully manicured gardens, quaint and luxurious castles, respectful and polite servants, and a ferocious and handsome giant dragon lying in the pond, Felix didn't know that it was a mutated and evolved ichthyosaur after a long time. She timidly walked into the main hall and saw three nominally her family members.

His face seemed to be covered by black shadows and could not be seen clearly, such as Duke Vosloda, who was like a stone monument like a sword mound; Mrs. Beverly, who was indifferent and beautiful but could not hide his meanness; and her brother, Timi.

It was a long time later that Felix heard about Duke Vosloda's unrestrained and unrestrained promiscuous years when he was young. He also knew that Beverly used to be a beautiful girl who was obsessed with Galeworld and was enthusiastic about public welfare, but in order to protect the family, the promiscuous teenager would change. Become an old-fashioned and indifferent head of the house; in order to protect her son, a cute girl will become a mean and cruel mother.

Knowing from the beginning that her biggest enemy is Timi, she is polite and innocent, and pleases everyone she meets, especially her father. But Duke Vosloda spends most of the year working and researching. When she seized the spare time when her father came back, she found that she couldn't get in.

"The descendants of Vosloda, the first place is for granted."

“Championship? Not bad.”

“Guide your swordsmanship? I’ll consider it when I have time.”

Every time, every time, my father was checking Dimi’s grades. When Felix took the initiative to lean up, the group of shadows didn’t even look at her, only a slight nasal voice indicated that he knew.

Compared with Di Mi, Felix’s favors and achievements are insignificant. What she can do, Dimi can do better than her, what she can’t do, Dimi is even more outstanding, and...

“Is this the illegitimate child?”

At Timi’s birthday party, Felix appeared in front of outsiders for the first time as the second young master of Vosloda. In the bright light, the whispers under the table were like fishbone in the throat, so vicious that one could not breathe.

That night, Felix went back to the innermost room on the third floor early to hide, turning off the lights and licking his wounds in the dark. When she was young, she couldn’t understand everything very well. She only knew that Di Mi was the enemy. It was him who took away his father’s love and he left him without a place to live. As long as the shining brother existed, the younger brother would always be bleak. Matte.

I don’t know where her decisiveness and viciousness came from. Felix hid behind a vase in the staircase of the castle. Di Mi’s room was on the fourth floor, and he would definitely pass here when he returned. Soon, she heard the footsteps of Di Mi, and he was the only one. The Fusloda family asked the clan to be independent and self-disciplined. If they hadn’t left the manor, the eldest young master would not usually be there to serve.

However, Di Mi did not go to the fourth floor, but walked inside along the third floor passage. Felix had no choice but to hold the vase and want to throw it over, but the vase weighed far more than a child could imagine, so she could only hold the vase swaying and slam it into Dimi!

Timi reacted when he heard the footsteps. He was about to dodge but saw Felix behind the vase, so he stopped and tried to block the vase with his hands. But Felix almost used his milk strength to push forward, and Di Mi, who was a few years older, couldn't stop it. Not only was he smashed by the vase, but the broken pieces of the vase scratched him with blood!

Felix was also stabbed in the hand by the fragments, and the pain brought her sanity back to the high ground of thinking. Looking at Di Mi, who was covered with scars in the vase fragments, she realized what she had done, and she was trembling with fear and at a loss.

On the other hand, Di Mi was very calm, and shouted in a low voice: "Go back to your room, quickly, close the door and be quiet!"

He shouted twice, and Felix, who was in a mess in his mind, obeyed his orders subconsciously, and hurriedly ran up, accidentally stepping on the small box next to Di Mi, and smeared the cake cream on the sole of his shoe.

When Felix went back and closed the door, she heard the screams of the servants, as well as Timmy's embarrassed apology: "I'm sorry, I ran in the corridor just now and accidentally bumped into the vase..."

At that time Felix thought it was all right, so he sighed in relief and went to sleep at ease. But when she woke up the next day, she knew that she had not concealed it at all.

The proof was the creamed footprints that spread from the hallway to the door of her room.

And the first poisoning she encountered three days later.

"Felix."

Timi's voice sounded outside the door: "We need to talk."

Sonia and Felix looked at each other, and the latter replied loudly, "We'll talk about it tomorrow!"

"...It's six o'clock in the morning now."

The village girl and the second young master blinked, opened the miracle bracelet, and found that one night had passed. It's just that the sky is still full of stars, so they didn't notice the time change.

They actually entangled the whole night about how to deal with Yaxiu and others! ?

"But I don't want to see you yet!" Felix replied anxiously: "When I'm mentally prepared, I'll meet you, but not now!"

After a short silence, Di Mi said: "You can see me, but you can't live here. Whether you go back to Jianhua or stay in a hotel, you have to get rid of everything in this villa, and the rest of me will be resolved."

A chill spread from the backs of the two of them—Dimi found it?

"Call him in and ask for clarification." Sonia said in a low voice, "If he really knows and is willing to keep the secret together, it doesn't matter, but if he wants to report..."

Felix looked terrified: "He is a Sanctuary Warlock!"

"My teacher is the Hidden Hand Sword Saint," said the Sword Saint with the claws outstretched. "

"When I entered the basement just now, I made up my mind to kill the three of them. How dare I say that there is only one of them now?"

A mere Di Mi is just one of the opponents that Sonia has encountered. He can't even talk about friendship. Killing him has no psychological burden on the village girl. If he firmly stands on the opposite side of Ash, then wait to be the first sacrifice of Sword Princess' escape journey.

Anyway, Yaxiu has already got it, so Sonia can have nothing to worry about.

"There's no need to go that far. I didn't want to be buried with you. If you kill Dimi, the whole Galax will riot." Felix hurriedly shook his head: "I'll convince him... for sure!"

They moved the coffin and the three sleepers to the bedroom on the second floor, and then Sonia hid in the shadows on the second floor, watching Felix open the door to the villa.

Di Mi was still in the same casual clothes as last night, and he didn't seem to go back to rest at all.

He walked in and looked at Felix, who had returned to men's clothing, and asked after a moment of silence, "Is it worth it?"

"what?"

"I don't know why you have to hide for so many years, but you must be very reluctant to reveal your true body." Di Mi's voice was a little low, "Now you are protecting a few outsiders, why are you able to do this?"

"I just accidentally discovered the secret by you * who broke into private houses."

"Just when we opened the bedroom door, did you come back from the virtual realm to find us?"

"That's because there is an alarm at the gate. I knew it in the virtual realm when you came in, so I immediately exited the virtual realm to see if there was a thief in reality."

Felix didn't take a step back, opened his eyes to look at Di Mi, and there was no guilty conscience on his face.

Di Mi's face showed a touch of helplessness, "I'm here to protect you, not to interrogate you."

"You still want to put on the air of your brother in front of me?" Felix said coldly, "I was chased by the Vanderbilt gang on the train three days ago, and you protected me in front of your mother at that time.?"

Di Mi's body trembled slightly. He sat on the sofa next to him and looked down at his toes.

“That coffin.” He said, “Yadas and Aisha will definitely report it in a few days... Maybe now Aisha already knows the real owner of that coffin.”

“Among the outsiders who invaded the stars, there is a three-person sanctuary gang. Although one of the sanctuaries has only used the flame spell, the sanctuary has the characteristics of the “Shadow of Death” of the necromantic faction. Obviously, the main body is a Necromancer. ”

“Shadow of Death?”

“When the space faction of the sanctuary magician gradually grows, he will unconsciously merge his main technique with the sanctuary, and the attributes of the sanctuary will also undergo various changes.” Di Mi explained: “For example, the soul sanctuary’s The ‘Reiatsu’ can suppress all living beings in the Sanctuary, and the ‘Shadow of Death’ in the Sanctuary of the Necrons can make the source of the attack wither. The magic spirit can be changed, but the Sanctuary cannot.”

“There aren’t many necromancers in Gales, now there’s a Necro Sanctuary among the invaders, and a coffin full of Necromancer rituals appears in your basement, Aisha just needs to eat a few more desserts. It connects them—she’s so perceptive that I’m afraid at times.”

Felix naturally wouldn’t admit it: “Can’t it be me who practiced the Necronomicon faction?”

“But you won’t practice the necromantic faction.” Di Mi shook his head: “The necromantic faction must learn from corpses, and you have been a gentle person who can’t see death since you were a child.”

“People can change.” Felix lowered his eyelids, “Especially for an illegitimate child who lives under threat of death, it’s only natural that he will become so weird.”

“And, if you really guessed right, then do you want to kill your relatives righteously?” She narrowed her eyes and looked at her brother, “According to Law No. 51, covering up outsiders is a crime of treason and death, if you are sure that I really have outsiders in hiding, then are you here to protect me this time, or to report me?”

“As long as you clear the relationship—”

“What if outsiders slander me?” Felix laughed. “They said I helped hide them? Will the Throne Room let me go?”

“meeting.”

Timi said firmly: “As long as you surrender yourself, Vosloda will definitely keep you safe in front of the Throne Hall!”

“You can’t even fool me when I was a child.” Felix sneered: “How could the dignified Star Caster of Fusloda protect someone like me—”

“Because he doesn’t protect you, he will lose his heir!” Timi stood up suddenly, staring at Felix, “If you don’t believe that Vosloda will have goodwill towards you, then my Promise!?”

He pulled out his long sword and leaned on the ground, “My Dimi is willing to advance and retreat with Felix, whoever dares to arrest my younger brother will destroy my sanctuary first! If father doesn’t want to protect you, he will lose all heirs. !”

“With all the prestige of the starry and five-pillared family, I don’t believe that I can’t keep you in front of the throne room! If it really reaches this stage, my sanctuary will also be your last refuge. Unless the loess and bones, I will keep you worry-free for the rest of your life!”

Felix’s tone was stagnant, and he couldn’t speak for a while. She never imagined that her half-brother would be willing to do this, obviously they were already estranged.

And she couldn’t even question Di Mi. Di Mi’s reputation was obvious to all. Since he said so, he would definitely use his own life as a bargaining chip to intimidate Duke Vosloda. No matter how severe the Throne Room is, one must take into account Vosloda’s request, not to mention that Felix can still say that he is being held hostage (which is indeed the case), and the possibility of exoneration is extremely high!

I have to say that Felix was really moved. After all, Yaxiu and the others had already fallen asleep and couldn't speak at all. In addition, God Mi cleared her of treason, and she could indeed send the three of Yaxiu out safely without getting involved in trouble!

However, however.

There is also a killing * hidden on the second floor!

The more eloquently Dimi spoke, the more determined Sonia's killing intent became. At this time, she might have already grasped the "Hidden Hand Sharp Blade" in her hand!

Felix was so anxious, UU read www.uukanshu.com Timi's attitude is obviously to keep her younger brother under the premise of impartial law enforcement, and Sonia's core requirement is that no one is allowed to touch Yaxiu, the contradiction between the two is irreconcilable, and then either Sonia kills and escapes, or It was the two who smashed the villa to attract attention.

But in any case, Felix will definitely be exposed, and even if the sword saint stretches his claws to divert the attention of the throne room, he will definitely reveal Felix's details!

At the moment when the atmosphere in the villa became increasingly anxious, and the murderous intention was on the verge of triggering, the door of the villa was suddenly opened.

"Good morning, Felix... ah, did I come at the wrong time?"

A beautiful lady walked into the villa. She has dark blue and waist-length hair as deep as a starry sky. Her eyes are as blue and clear as Qinghai Lake, her lips are red and her teeth are white, her skin is better than snow, her mouth has a shallow smile, and her eyebrows and eyes are curved. Absolutely cute.

The moment she came in, the whole villa seemed to become brighter, and the stars outside seemed to follow her shadow.

Chapter 800: Welcome to the end of the viewer

Di Mi on the first floor fell into huge confusion and surprise, and was stunned in place for a while.

Sonia, who was in the shadows on the second floor, was also dumbfounded.

You say whether they know this person, strictly speaking, they don't know; but if you ask Quan Fanxing if they know this lady, the answer is yes.

"Miss Lena!?"

Felix was also stunned, "Why did you, I...you come here?"

"Have you forgotten, I put things in the basement of your house, and I will come to your house to practice when I have time." The dark blue girl smiled and said, "It's just that I usually come in the morning, and you are basically not at home during this time."

"Ah, ah... That's right." Felix also reacted, looking at Di Mi with an embarrassed expression, "But today I encountered a situation..."

Timi seemed to finally digest the current situation. He quietly stood in front of Felix, looked at the dark blue girl and said, "Miss Lena, so you know Felix?"

"We are pen pals." The dark blue girl blinked, "You may know that I am not from a noble family. I only became a noble in the past two years, but sometimes I need to understand the little knowledge of the noble circle, so I have made many noble friends. , but only Felix has been my close friend over the years."

Di Mi nodded, "Although I don't watch the news very much, if there is an affair between you and my brother, I should know..."

“That’s why we’re pen pals. Even if we meet and play together, we’ll meet in other places, so we won’t be discovered by reporters.” The dark blue girl rolled her eyes, and suddenly said with her hands on her hips: “Well, yes, I’m your brother. My hidden girlfriend, I didn’t expect it! But you seem to be younger than me, so I’m embarrassed to call you brother.”

Timi turned to look at Felix, who nodded and said, “Miss Lena knows my true identity.”

“Hey? Did you already know that Felix is actually a girl, Tim?” The dark blue girl lowered her head in frustration, “Damn, I want to see your shocked expression when you know that your brother has a big star as his girlfriend.”

“Just knowing you know each other, I’m already shocked, Miss Lena.”

Di Mi said: “I am even more shocked that you seem to say that you have something in the basement...”

“Well, that’s a coffin.” The dark blue girl didn’t hide it. “There are materials for me to practice the necromancy faction, and I usually put it in Felix’s house.”

Di Mi’s expression was extremely complicated: “You...you are so successful in your career, why are you still practicing the Necronomicon faction? And why should the coffin be placed in Felix’s house?”

“Career is career, and interest is interest. I just want to learn the Necronomicon faction and become a servant of Haagen-Dazs.” The dark blue girl shrugged, “But I also know that cultivating the Necronomicon faction has a bad influence on my image. Felix said that she has a super-secret basement, so I hid all the necromantic materials in her basement, and I usually come to practice when I have time... By the way, I also have real estate in the Lonely Diamond area, so I won’t be caught by reporters. Found it!”

Di Mi was silent for a moment, and found that everything was right, and the reason was reasonable. Compared to covering up three wanted criminals, Felix’s keeping secrets for his friends is also more suitable for cleaning up.

More importantly, it is impossible for the person in front of him to lie about this matter.

She is a Viscount who has received the blessing of the stars, and it is impossible for her to collude with Felix in order to cover up a few wanted criminals. No matter how the aristocrats drill through the loopholes, they cannot touch the bottom line of any crime.

You don't even need to suspect the source of the corpses. Although I don't know what loopholes she drilled, these corpses are definitely not obtained through crime.

so...

Di Mi suddenly felt hot and dry, wishing to turn into a light and fly out. But the dark blue girl pointed to the long sword that was leaning on the ground and asked, "Why did you stick the sword on the ground, do you want to learn swordsmanship?"

"He suspected that the coffin was from a necromancer who was being wanted. He thought I was hiding a wanted criminal and came to persuade me to surrender." Felix said faintly: "Miss Lena, you almost put me in jail. "

"Sorry, sorry," the dark blue girl folded her hands and apologized, "I didn't expect to cause such a misunderstanding... Timi, Feili did this to help me. If this will affect her reputation, you can tell me directly. Go out and don't hurt her."

"Of course." Di Mi left in embarrassment, "I will make it clear to others that everything is a misunderstanding."

"thanks."

Timi opened the door just as he was about to go out, but suddenly turned around and said, "Felix, I wronged you this time, I'm sorry."

"It's okay." Felix said calmly, "Just don't disturb me in the future."

“I know you hate Vosloda, but no matter who you are, you are my family.” Timi said seriously: “I will protect my family.”

Felix originally wanted to retort, but for some reason he was too lazy to speak, and replied lightly: “I can already protect myself.”

As Di Mi closed the door and left, the atmosphere in the villa suddenly relaxed.

The dark blue girl opened the refrigerator and took a bottle of ice water, and said with a smile, “Aren’t you going to introduce another child to me?”

“Sonia.” Felix shouted, “Come down, Miss Lena can be trusted.”

The Sword Saint stretched out her claws and walked down the stairs slowly. She stared at the dark blue girl closely, her eyes seemed to be shining, as if she wanted to rush over but didn’t dare to mess around.

She took a deep breath and stuttered a little: “I, I’m Sonia Servey.”

The dark blue girl smiled and said, “I met for the first time, I have long admired the name, you are much more beautiful than in the light curtain.”

“No way!” The village girl is like a lucky person favored by God, her face is full of excited joy: “You are much more beautiful than in the movie – you are so thin.”

“I thought we would meet sooner, but I didn’t expect you to decline that cooperation invitation.”

“There’s a reason for that, Miss Deedalus.”

Sonia said excitedly: “I have always been looking forward to working with you, you are my idol!”

That's right, the woman with dark blue hair in front of her is the legendary actress who is famous for the stars, the first singer, the dream lover of countless men, the longing of countless women, the first beauty in the starry sky, Daedalus· Lena!

She is not only the source of motivation for Sonia to walk out of the remote town, but also the most dazzling bright color in the village girl's childhood memories!

"It's my honor." Daedalus smiled. "By the way, where are those people you hid? I want to take a look at them."

"They are on the second floor." Sonia led them up. Just now, Daedalus used her reputation to help cover it up, so the Sword Saint stretched her claws and claws naturally would not doubt the kindness of the legendary singer, "By the way, you and Felix Are you on good terms?"

Daedalus touched Felix's head: "I really have a good relationship with little Felix."

"So you're willing to lie to cover for Felix?"

"Not quite."

At this point they came to the bedroom on the second floor, Harvey and Igula were put aside at will, and only Ash was on the bed. Daedalus also only glanced at the necromancer and the deceiver, and her eyes were fixed on the sleeping face of the cult leader.

There was a strange light in her eyes, and she couldn't help but stretch out her hand: "He is..."

Snapped!

Sonia grabbed Dedalus' wrist tightly, tilted her head and said, "He is my lover Ash Heath, do you know him?"

"I know." Daedalus smiled. "Also, I probably knew it earlier than you."

Jian Ji's smile gradually faded, and she raised her eyebrows slightly: "Oh?"

The legendary singer blinked: "Speaking of which, I don't seem to have introduced myself yet, so I'm rude."

"The leader of the Four Pillars Sect, the star-tactile 'Song of Chaos' Daedalus Lena. Daedalus pulled Sonia's fingers apart one by one, "By the order of the four-pillar oracle, she came to welcome the "spectator of the end" Ash Heath's return. "
