

Chapter 801: He deserved it

“Chen Feitang, do you still have a conscience? Tell me, do you still have a conscience? What right do you have to say that Feibai deserved this? Your actions harmed him to this extent, and still, he took the blame for you, the main culprit. Chen Feitang, how can you have the face to say such harsh words to Chen Feitang?” Chen Feibai’s mother scolded the young woman in anger.

“It’s the truth! He deserved it!” Chen Feitang covered her face as tears fell. “He wanted to get me eliminated first! He deserved it!”

“That’s enough!” Chen Shanhe scolded angrily. “Get Out! Get Out!”

“No matter what, you can’t hit my child!” Chen Feitang’s mother hugged her daughter; her heart ached.

“Enough!” Chen Shanjin pulled his wife and daughter backward. “These two children are not in a good mood right now. It’s not a good time for them to meet. Let’s wait for Feibai to finish his treatment before we let them see each other again.”

“Eldest Brother!” Chen Shanhe called out to the three of them. “This is the last time I will call you eldest brother. I can never forgive Feitang for the harm she has caused Feibai! Because it was Father’s decision, I cannot reject it, and as a father, I had to let my child go through physical and mental torture. However, our brotherly bond ends here today.”

“Shanhe...” Chen Shan’s steps trembled. “At this point, do you really have to do this?”

“I can’t let my son hate me.” After Chen Shanhe said that, he covered his face and suppressed the painful cries that burst from his lips.

“Don’t go! I haven’t had enough. Where are you going? Do you want me to call the old man and ask him to escort you here personally?” When Chen Feibai realized that Chen Feitang was about to leave, he shouted again. “Yes, Chen Feitang. I hid near you so that I could find an opportunity to eliminate you. Because you are not qualified to be a soldier! You are not worthy of your military uniform!”

Chen Feitang struggled to remember, but Jiang Yao’s icy glare suppressed him. He chuckled. He did not know whether it was meant for Jiang Yao, Chen Feitang, or himself, but he could not even move an inch.

“Chen Feitang, when you were in Rong County, you leaked the news about Commander Lu’s wife. If it were anyone else, they would have been kicked out of the military. But you only received a minor demerit—it was neither light nor heavy, neither painful nor itchy. And you can still continue to participate in the Special Forces Assessment.

“Chen Feitang, you are not worthy of being a soldier! You knew that Commander Lu is already married, yet you keep visiting me because you needed an excuse to enter Jin City to pester him. You’re shameless!

“Jiang Yao is my savior, so I’m watching her husband on her behalf. There’s nothing wrong with that! It’s also not wrong to remove those who eye her husband covetously!”

After Chen Feibai entered the second round, he had followed Chen Feitang so that he could get her eliminated. That was the only thing he had to do in the second round.

“Chen Feitang, as a soldier who has been in the army for many years, you don’t even know how to judge your surrounding environment. You even pretended to roast a rabbit to fill your stomach. You’re so stupid! Tell me, what’s the use of having a fool like you in the army? You were the only one who made those mistakes, yet you think it was my fault. Chen Feitang, not only do you not have any conscience, but you also have no moral values at all. You even lost the ideological and political lessons that the school had taught you.

“An apology? What’s the point of a fake apology? If you sincerely think you’re at fault, then go and tell everyone that you were the one who lit the fire and that it has nothing to do with me! Go! If you have the courage, go and clarify the truth with everyone!”

Chapter 802: Incomparable in every aspect

Chen Feibai’s words caused everyone to be silent.

The injured man understood the situation well. It was because he was in too much pain that he insisted that Chen Feitang met him. He wanted to vent his anger. If he were to continue to suppress it, he would go mad.

“Chen Feitang, you have been very lucky to have been born as a daughter in the Chen family. Everyone saw you as a noble daughter. However, you have dishonored your identity. You probably look down on Jiang Yao. You think that she is only a poor family’s daughter, and you think that she can’t compare to you in every aspect.”

When Chen Feibai said that, his eyes finally shifted from Chen Feitang to Jiang Yao, who was beside him. Then, he continued to say, “Actually, you were the one inferior to her—in every way. In terms of appearance, Jiang Yao is prettier than you. In terms of personality, she is more likable than you. In terms of academic qualifications, a top student from Nanjiang Medical University is not inferior to you at all. Most importantly, you have no heart. Jiang Yao has a heart. She has the most precious heart and courage in this world.”

“In the flood, Jiang Yao had the courage to risk her life to save me. However, I bet that if it were you, Chen Feitang, who found me that day, you wouldn’t have chosen to disregard your own safety to save me. Because that day in the fire, you didn’t even have the guts to rush into the flame to pull me out. You watched as the fire swallowed me.”

Chen Feibai sneered. “Chen Feitang, other than being born in the Chen family, you have nowhere else to go. Between you and Jiang Yao, any man would choose to love her.”

Chen Feibai said that very straightforwardly. After he finished speaking, he closed his eyes as if he was about to fall asleep again.

However, he did not sleep. Suddenly, he said, “Chen Feitang, remember this; you will never be able to repay me for the rest of your life.”

The ward was suddenly silent.

When Lu Xingzhi heard Chen Feibai praised Jiang Yao, he was both pleased and unhappy.

He knew how good his wife was; there was no need for Chen Feibai to hold a personal recognition ceremony for her in front of the Chen family.

After a long while, Chen Feitang suppressed his sobs and asked, "Feibai, the Chen family only has two children. Why can't you treat me like how a sibling would?"

If he did not follow her with the intention to eliminate her, then he would not suffer so horribly.

"Siblings? What kind of siblings are we?" Chen Feibai's voice was icy. "Chen Feitang, you probably don't remember how well others treated you. You forgot that I used to trail behind you and call you elder sister. Once, the old man threw you into the courtyard on a cold day and told you to stand there as a punishment. I was the one who yelled and yelled at the old man to pull you back from the courtyard on that snowy day. And you?"

"Do you still remember how you treated me? You said you didn't have a younger brother, and your parents only gave birth to you. You said that I didn't need to pretend to be kind. You pushed me away, pushed me into the snow, and left without looking back."

Therefore, Chen Feibai felt that Chen Feitang's question was too ridiculous.

"When other people treat you well, it doesn't mean that you can simply throw it away just because you don't want it, and when you do expect it, you require other people to continue to treat you well." That was the last sentence that Chen Feibai left for Chen Feitang.

Chapter 803: Happy now?

That was Chen Feibai's last sentence for her.

Chen Feitang ran out of the ward as she cried, and her parents chased after her anxiously.

When Chen Feibai was in trouble, everyone in the Chen family was terrified.

"Happy now?" Lu Xingzhi was the first to break the silence in the ward. "If you're happy now, you should behave yourself and treat your illness well. If anything happens again, I'll ask my wife to throw you out of the hospital and let you fend for yourself."

"Jiang Yao won't do that." Chen Feibai seemed to deliberately want to anger Lu Xingzhi. "She's too soft-hearted."

Jiang Yao stood at the side. She really wanted to knock Chen Feibai unconscious. So, Chen Feibai was also aware of her soft-hearted nature?

"My wife is soft-hearted, but she's only like that with me." Lu Xingzhi did not want to admit defeat, but his expression did not look too good. He was probably a little regretful that Chen Feibai had gotten what he wanted, so he started to be arrogant.

"Enough, enough! Are the two of you feeling bored?" Jiang Yao pushed Lu Xingzhi out of the ward. "Why are you bickering with him? Are you stupid?"

"Why are you so soft-hearted with him?" Lu Xingzhi pinched Jiang Yao's palm as he asked her very seriously.

“I’m only like that with you,” Jiang Yao answered quickly. When she noticed that Lu Xingzhi looked happy, she cursed in her heart—childish!

Just as she spoke to Lu Xingzhi outside the room, Chen Feibai fell asleep again. It was probably because he had said all he wanted to say, so he slept deeper than before.

“Mrs Lu, I’ll leave Feibai in your hands.” Chen Shan held his wife’s hand and walked out of the ward. “I think he’s much better than he had been three days ago; he didn’t seem to be in pain.”

“Yes, I changed his dressing. At the moment, he won’t feel much pain. Later, he would be in worse pain when we start to treat and simulate his joints and other limbs.” She did not mean to scare the parents deliberately, but she was a doctor. She had a responsibility to let the patient’s family know about the patient’s condition. She also wanted them to know that even though she felt sorry for Chen Feibai, she did not blame Lu Xingzhi for eliminating Chen Feitang.

After they sent Chen Feibai’s parents away, Jiang Yao asked Lu Xingzhi to wait in the director’s office. She tidied the ward and transferred Chen Feibai to the system. She told the public that Chen Feibai had been moved back to the ward that he had stayed in before and was under the care of specialized personnel for 24 hours a day.

After they left the hospital, the two of them returned to the hotel. They discussed whether they should go to a restaurant to eat or order food delivery service in the hotel when Jiang Yao’s phone rang.

Lu Xingzhi looked at Jiang Yao and complained that his wife was so busy that she did not have time to eat with him anymore. Then, he asked her to pick up the phone quickly.

It was Du Chen; he had called Jiang Yao from Jindo City. He did not specifically contact Jiang Yao to repeat those thankful words. Instead, he had called her to tell her a piece of news about herself.

“There are two parties in the province investigating your information,” Du Chen said. “One is the Zhu family, and the other is the Sun family.”

“The Zhu Family? The Zhu family from Ping City in Province A? The Zhu family that deals in jewelry?” Jiang Yao understood if it were only the Zhu family. “But, who is the Sun Family?”

“Coincidentally, they are also from Ping City. However, they are not a prominent family; they are only a local scholarly family. It is Mrs Sun who is investigating you. No one knows the reason yet.” Du Chen asked, “Did you do something significant in Ping City recently? Did they want to investigate you because of your identity as the Divine Doctor?”

Chapter 804: Crouching Dragon, Hidden Tiger

“I haven’t been to Ping City recently. I did guess that the Zhu family would investigate me, and I also know why they would do that. But I’ve never even heard of the Sun family. So far, I don’t know anyone with that surname.” Jiang Yao asked curiously, “You’re so far away in Jindo. How do you know all these things?”

“If I can’t even find out information about these simple things, I must have been crippled all these while.” Du Chen smiled bitterly. “Don’t worry. I’ve told them that you’re my benefactor. They’ll know what to do.”

“Right, the old master’s medicine is very effective. His complexion is much better than before, and his attitude has changed as well. Yesterday, he even mentioned that he wanted me to go to the company, but I rejected him.”

“Thank you then.” Jiang Yao was not concerned about the Du family’s progress, so she did not ask further.

“There’s one more thing. YN’s people are also monitoring you. They have asked our country’s private detectives to follow you, and they have also asked their country’s military personnel to enter Nanjiang City as tourists to supervise your actions.” It was an essential piece of information, so Du Chen told Jiang Yao about it. “So, you’ll need to be prepared in advance. Don’t let others find out anything about this.”

“Even if they were to send the entire country to run an investigation, I won’t be able to find out what they want to find out. Alright, anyway, thank you for your reminder. I can’t tell you what to do, but I appreciate your kindness.” Jiang Yao thanked him again before she hung up the phone.

She had helped Du Chen because she was in a good mood, and she liked him as well. That was why she had helped him. She did not expect that he would return the favor.

Lu Xingzhi had not wanted to listen in on Jiang Yao’s call. However, when he heard the rest of the conversation, he paid more attention to it. After Jiang Yao hung up, he quickly asked, “Who was that?”

“That was Du Chen. He said that the Zhu and Sun families in Ping City are investigating me. He has helped me stop them. Then, YN also sent people to monitor me,” Jiang Yao said. “I’m not afraid of YN’s people. I can understand why people from the Zhu family would do that; because of Zhu Qianlan’s matter, it’s normal for them to want to investigate me. However, where did that Sun family come from?”

“Don’t worry about YN’s people. Carl told me that of the four people he sent, two of them were his acquaintances. As for this Sun family, are they from Ping City as well?” Lu Xingzhi asked. Then, he said, “Du Chen... hmm... it seems like that city has some crouching dragons and hidden tigers.”

“If he doesn’t expose himself, no one will be able to tell, right?” When she saw Lu Xingzhi’s expression, Jiang Yao knew that Du Chen’s ability was something that not even he knew. It seemed like Du Chen had concealed himself very well in Jindo.

“I’ll get someone to investigate the Sun family.” Lu Xingzhi could not be bothered to take Jiang Yao out to dinner anymore. He called the hotel and asked for a delivery of food and beverage to their room.

As for YN’s people, Lu Xingzhi thought about it and said, “When the time comes, Ah Lu, Da Ke and I will explain it to them. If they have time, we’ll bring them to enjoy Nanjiang City’s scenery. For those few days, if you have nothing to do, stay in school; don’t come out.”

Jiang Yao did not quite understand how Lu Xingzhi had described the experience. At first glance, it sounded amicable, but when she looked at Lu Xingzhi’s expression, it did not seem to be the case.

“Regarding the YN mine, I can’t find any manpower to follow up with you, so I thought about it—I think it’s good to ask Carl and Ruan Yongjun for help,” Lu Xingzhi said. “Let’s give them a small portion of shares as a form of gratitude.”

Chapter 805: Showing off

"I had originally wanted to sell the mine that I bought from Mr Xiao Jin to earn a profit. His mine is much better than the Zhu family's mine. Furthermore, to open a mine, I would have to invest a lot of money in the early stages. Changkang Group has already moved a part of their money to buy the mine, so I don't have the money to invest in it." Jiang Yao sighed and said, "I'm so poor!"

Lu Xingzhi thought it was interesting that Jiang Yao would complain that she was poor. He chuckled lightly. She had hundreds of millions in assets and two mines. How could she call herself poor? If others knew about that, they would only think that she had flaunted her wealth deliberately.

"Didn't you say that you want to open a jewelry company? If you want to do that, then don't sell the mine. Keep it for yourself. In the future, you won't need to beg people; you can be self-sufficient," Lu Xingzhi said. "I'll borrow some money from Big Brother for the mine's early stages. Then, Carl and Ruan Yongjun can look for money from other people and pay it in one lump sum at the end of the year. In that case, you still have a long time to turn things around."

Jiang Yao did some calculations in her head. She had only a short time to turn things around—probably around two months.

However, it was still better than nothing.

"Then I'll listen to you; I'll keep it." Jiang Yao had always wanted to open a jewelry company because of the large profit margins. She had an interest in the industry—an easy to earn industry. Since she had the resources, there was no reason not to do it.

With that money, she would have enough funds to support the research institute and the orphanage in the future.

Jiang Yao continued to think about that discreetly—if she were really poor at that time, she could go to Antique Street with Moe to try her luck or perhaps search for some other good stuff at the trading market. If she had some money in her hand, she would be able to turn that into big money. She would make a profit without any losses.

"Then, for the mineral exploitation, we shall do as you say. You can decide on how much you think is suitable for Carl and Ruan Yongjun." Jiang Yao looked at Lu Xingzhi—the man knew about those things better than she did. He also understood more about the ways of the world than she did.

Lu Xingzhi only needed to take one look to see Jiang Yao's trust and reliance on him. He raised his hand and patted her head. "You are so stupid. You didn't even know that I sold you."

"You're just showing off." Jiang Yao smiled—her eyes were like small crescent moons. Anyone in the world could sell her out, except for Lu Xingzhi. Therefore, when she heard Lu Xingzhi make fun of her, she thought it was interesting.

Young Master Lu, who loved to show off, curved his lips upward as he looked at his little wife with a faint smile. Then, he chuckled lightly and got up to open the door for the waiter who had delivered their dinner. His entire body buzzed, and every step he took was filled with joy.

He loved it when she trusted him completely without any form of defenses. He also enjoyed the fact that she relied so much on him. He liked it when she needed him, a feeling that originated from deep within her heart.

A dinner for two in a not-so-comfortable hotel made them feel as if they were home because they had each other for company.

Meanwhile, in Zhu Qianlan's initial residence, Zhu Qianliang and her father, Zhu Shisan, also had dinner together, but it was a different scene.

"What did Director Ye say?" Zhu Qianliang was a little anxious. "I've been locked up here for so many days, and no one is allowed to visit me. Our lawyers are useless too. I'm just a girl, who knows what kind of suffering I'll have to endure in there."

Chapter 806: Warned

As a younger brother, Zhu Qianliang had been scolded for the stupid things that his sister, Zhu Qianlan, had done. After so many days, he was no longer angry at his sister, but he was more worried about her.

He had lived a luxurious life since he was young, and he had never suffered for anything. In the end, he was caught and sent to the police station. He had to stay there for many days, and no one was allowed to visit him.

Zhu Qianliang had never been to the bureau, so he did not know what rules were involved. However, he had heard of some things in the past, but he had never paid any attention to them. That was why he was worried and afraid.

He was also terrified that his sister would be tortured.

"Director Ye said that the other party only has two requests. They want us to disown your sister and send her away. She will never be allowed to set foot into the country again." Zhu Shisan's face was as black as the bottom of a pot. "Jiang Yao and her husband have gone too far! What's even more hateful is that we can't find any information about the other party!"

"Father, didn't you ask someone in the Jindo to investigate that?" Zhu Qianliang had previously investigated Jiang Yao and her husband, but he could not find any helpful information. When his father was there, he mentioned that those might be related to the people in the Jindo, but it would not be easy to check that out.

When Zhu Qianliang heard his father say that he could ask the people in the Jindo to investigate the matter, his heart relaxed. Things would be easier to handle once they figured out the other party's identity. Even if the other party did not want to entertain them, they could still ask their family for mercy or perhaps find a middleman to speak on their behalf. The Zhu family had money—any problem that required that would be easily solved.

"The person from the Jindo has gotten back to me. He told me that if I dared to oppose Jiang Yao, I would be going against him! It's obvious that Jiang Yao is under his protection." Zhu Shisan looked at the food on the table; he was so angry that he could not eat at all. "I got the warning, but he did not say anything about the other party's identity."

The Zhu family was quite influential in Ping City in Province A. However, the waters in Jindo ran deep. Zhu Shisan was furious that even though their family had worked hard, they had not been able to find a way in.

“That’s not even the most infuriating thing!” Zhu Shisan looked at his son, Zhu Qianliang—his heart was filled with hatred. How could he have raised his daughter to be such an idiot in the first place? If his daughter were half as smart as his son, she would not leave that mess for him to clean. “Your uncle also did a stupid thing at YN, and someone used it against him. Director Ye said that the other party is preparing to let your grandfather make a choice. Your elder sister and your uncle—choose one or the other!”

Each move was more ruthless than the previous one. The Zhu family had no clue at all, and they still had not found a way to deal with it. However, Jiang Yao was able to use those moves against them.

“No wonder Huang Chengjing is so good with Jiang Yao. The Huang family has a little network in Jindo, so he must have known about Jiang Yao’s identity. He treats him better than a simple benefactor.” It was not difficult to learn more about the incident where Jiang Yao had saved Chairman Huang in Nanjiang City; it was all over the news, and it was a sensation throughout the city. That was how Zhu Qianliang found out about it.

Zhu Qianliang sat there and tried his best to recall the appearance of that woman, Jiang Yao. He did not know that the plain-looking woman had such a terrifying background.

Chapter 807: You B*stard

“You really hit the nail on the head. This woman and her husband employ such terrifying methods.” Zhu Qianliang understood his sister well. “If we disown Sister, it is a fate worse than death for her. Furthermore, we have to ask her to stay in a foreign country without any of our protection. It’s like asking her to be an ordinary Jane.”

How many daughters and granddaughters did the Zhu family have?

A daughter disowned by the Zhu family and even exiled from the country. How could Zhu Qianlan endure that kind of life abroad? That would be too unbearable!

She would have no money, no power, and some of the Zhu family members would even ridicule her. The Zhu family had disowned her—a descendant that had only brought losses to the family. Only her immediate family would feel sorry for her; who else would pity someone who had been exiled from their family?

“We cannot tell your grandfather about this for the time being.” Zhu Shisan knew how his father would choose. Between the eldest son, who could be placed in an important position by their family’s patriarch, and a granddaughter who was divorced and brought losses to the family—he would only give up on Zhu Qianlan in a heartbeat.

That was probably the most extensive and ugliest lesson that the Zhu family had learned in Ping City after such a long time. Their enemy had slapped the Zhu family in their face, but they did not even have the strength to retaliate.

It was a good thing that Nanjiang City was far away from Ping City. It did not seem like Jiang Yao and her husband were prepared to blow up the matter and embarrassed the Zhu family further. So, their problem did not spread to Ping City, and the Zhu family had managed to keep their dignity there.

That was also why Zhu Shisan was enraged. The Zhu family's patriarch could clearly see that their enemy had targeted Zhu Qianlan. It was obviously a retaliation from when his daughter disrespected them and even tried to kidnap them. It had nothing to do with the Zhu family; they only targeted Zhu Qianlan personally.

Therefore, the Zhu family's patriarch would never trouble the whole Zhu family for a junior like Zhu Qianlan. He would also not feel as if the Zhu family's prestige had excessively provoked until he could no longer stand it.

It was a beautiful autumn night in Nanjiang City. The withered yellow leaves by the roadside drifted with the gentle wind. In only one night, the roadside had been covered by a layer of gorgeous withered leaves carpet.

It was Lu Xingzhi's last night stay in Nanjiang City. Even though he felt a little regretful that he did not do what he wanted to do during the day, he still used all his means to torture someone to death at night.

"Lu Xingzhi! Lu Xingzhi! That's enough!" Jiang Yao felt as if she had just been pulled out of the water. The man on her body was also drenched in sweat, but there was still fire in his eyes.

After a few rounds of torture, her back already ached. When she realized that the man had not had enough, Jiang Yao gritted her teeth and pushed him away. She reached out and rubbed her waist. "Lu Xingzhi! You bastard!"

"I will only get to see you again before the new year. So tonight, I have to take back the two months' worth in one go." Lu Xingzhi did not think that he was a bastard. He smiled as he stretched out his hand to massage her and whisper in her ear.

A few seconds later, Jiang Yao's expression changed, and she kicked him off the bed. "Don't even think about it!" Then, she wrapped herself in the blanket and jumped off the bed to run to the bathroom.

Chapter 808: Saving Time

There was a carpet on the floor. Lu Xingzhi laid on his back and looked at the bathroom door that had been slammed shut with a bang. Then, he lowered his head and looked at the blanket that she had thrown at the door. He chuckled and stood up unhurriedly. He fumbled around the bedside table, took a black clip and walked toward the bathroom. He took the doorknob in his hands, and in less than ten seconds, it was opened.

Lu Xingzhi dumped the things in his hands, threw the blanket on the ground back onto the bed, and quickly went into the bathroom. "Wife, let's take a shower together. It'll save us time!"

The next second, Jiang Yao's terrified cries came from the bathroom. However, those cries did not last long. Very soon, it was another sound that made people blush.

The following day, when Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao both woke up in bed, it was already impossible for Lu Xingzhi to make his flight. The flight was at 10:30, and it was already 9:30. He still needed time to wash up and get to the airport—there was no time at all.

Jiang Yao laid on the side and watched as Lu Xingzhi casually put his watch back on his wrist. Then, she grabbed his buzz cut and laughed. “Serves you right! Let’s see how you can make the flight.”

Jiang Yao’s words entered Lu Xingzhi’s heart, but it did not cause any ripples. He turned his head and looked deeply at Jiang Yao before he laid back down on the bed. Then, he took out his phone and made a call. He told Manager Sun to reschedule his flight to the afternoon. After that, he put away his phone and turned around to kiss Jiang Yao.

“Mmm...” Jiang Yao did not dodge him when he ambushed her. Fortunately, he only kissed her and did not do anything else.

“Manager Sun is on my team. What makes you think you can get him to do things for you?” Jiang Yao muttered.

“Your entire person is mine, let alone your team.” Then, Lu Xingzhi got off the bed and put on his clothes in satisfaction.

Jiang Yao snorted to express her dissatisfaction.

Lu Xingzhi thought for a second and then replied differently. “My whole person is yours. So what if I borrow someone from your team?”

After he said that, he went into the bathroom to wash up.

Jiang Yao curled on the bed for two minutes before she got down. However, a specific part of her body was indescribably swollen.

After she changed her clothes, she followed him into the bathroom. She raised her hand and pinched his arm before she pushed the person in front of the mirror to the side as he shaved.

Perhaps he noticed that her walking posture was not right; Lu Xingzhi knew that he overdid it the previous night. He held the razor in his hand and stopped at his chin. His eyes fell onto her body. “Do you have any medicine for that? I’ll put some on you later. I was a little out of control last night, but I’ll pay more attention in the future.”

He had enjoyed himself the previous night, but Jiang Yao seemed to be quite uncomfortable at that moment. Lu Xingzhi regretted it again.

Jiang Yao pretended not to hear what he had asked. There was indeed a formula for that kind of medicine, but she felt that it was not helpful, so she did not make it.

Even though Lu Xingzhi was ruthless in that aspect, he was not as crazy as the previous night. He had ravaged her like he wanted to swallow her whole.

Jiang Yao ignored him, so Lu Xingzhi was not sure if she had such a thing. After he thought about it, he deduced that she would not have the medicine due to her shy nature. Therefore, before he went to the airport, he would have to go to the pharmacy to see if there was one.

Chapter 809: A Perfect Match for You

For Lu Xingzhi, the days he spent in the forest were not divided into day and night. For the past three days, his beard had sprouted like the weeds in the mountains that the spring rain had nourished. When he kissed Jiang Yao the previous night, she had despised that a lot.

What was Lu Xingzhi's favorite time of the day?

Other than the moment he opened his eyes and saw Jiang Yao sound asleep in his arms, his favorite time was when they had to wash up.

He liked to squeeze in front of the tiny sink with Jiang Yao. She would gently lean against half his chest as she brushed her teeth with one hand and lazily hid the other in the pocket of her pajamas. Her eyes were vibrant—he did not know what was in her sight or her mind. If he did not rush her, she could brush her teeth for a long time.

It seemed like she would be in a daze during that time daily. The fact that she was in a trance was an interesting quirk.

After Lu Xingzhi washed his face, Jiang Yao was still in a daze. It was not until he spoke that she gave him a look.

"It's time to wash your face. Don't brush against your teeth."

After he said that, he kissed her and then placed his hand on her waist.

Jiang Yao nodded and rinsed her mouth. Then, she took the towel from Lu Xingzhi's hand and washed her face. She reached out and touched his chin; it was as if she was playing with a puppy. After a few seconds, she withdrew her hand.

After breakfast at the hotel, Lu Xingzhi drove Jiang Yao back to school. His flight had been changed to two in the afternoon, so he did not want Jiang Yao to drive him all the way to the airport.

The car did not go very fast. By the time they reached Jiang Yao's school gate, it was almost eleven in the morning.

When the car reached the gate, the security guard saw that it was Jiang Yao's car and waved at her as he shouted, "Jiang Yao! Jiang Yao! Wait!"

When Lu Xingzhi heard that, he stopped the car. When the security guard reached the car, he rolled down the window and asked, "What's the matter?"

Perhaps Lu Xingzhi's voice was too stiff, the security guard was stunned for two seconds when he heard the man's question. Then, he finally reacted. "Jiang Yao, this is your husband, right? He's so handsome, and he's a perfect match for you!"

The security guard had wanted to ask that question when he saw Lu Xingzhi the last time. However, he did not have the time. Everyone in the school knew about Jiang Yao's marriage, so the security guard had asked about it curiously.

When Jiang Yao nodded and admitted it, the security guard remembered why he stopped her. "Half an hour ago, a person came to our school. He stood at the school's entrance and said that he wanted to expose a student from our school who had lied under a medical student's guise. He also said that the student had even lied to the army and the hospital. A College of Arts professor had noticed that person when he passed by, and he had invited that person into the school. They seemed to have headed to the office, and they are still in there. Some of the students are saying that the person had implicated your name and the whole school has taken notice of you. Go and explain yourself to the principal!"

The security guard felt that girls with good grades were all good children, especially girls like Jiang Yao, who was brave enough to stand up for others. She was one of a kind. Therefore, the person who said Jiang Yao was a liar was definitely trying to slander her.

The security guard looked furious when he talked about that matter.

Chapter 810: Your Speech Is Over

"I understand. Thank you, Uncle!" Jiang Yao thanked him and turned to Lu Xingzhi. "Let's not go back to the dormitory for now. Drive the car to the office building."

Jiang Yao felt that it was strange. Who would be so rude that they would come to the school to spread rumors about her?

They even said that she had conned her way into the army and the hospital under the guise of a medical student? That was really the height of a smear campaign!

Lu Xingzhi grunted in gratitude and rolled up the car window. The wind blew into the car, and he always felt cold.

After he heard the security guard's words, the first person he thought of was Lin Shunhe!

He followed Jiang Yao's directions. Fifteen minutes later, Lu Xingzhi parked his car in an empty space in front of the office building. The moment he got out of the car, he saw several students had gathered nearby to watch the show.

He did not know what was in the mind of the person who handled that matter. He was supposed to have invited the complainant to the office, but they were still in front of the building. It seemed like he had no intention of inviting the complainant to the office at all. They were still outside, and that allowed other students to observe the situation freely.

Lu Xingzhi did not need to guess the reason for that kind of behavior. They wanted to let everyone in the school think that Jiang Yao was a liar.

When he saw the person who was there to make that nonsense report, Lu Xingzhi was not surprised at all.

It was Lin Shunhe, indeed.

From the moment he heard the security guard mentioned the troops and the hospital, he was confident that it was Lin Shunhe.

“Pfft, didn’t I tell you that Lin Shunhe is a petty person?” Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao’s hand as they pushed through the crowd.

Jiang Yao replied with a depressed hum. She had initially thought that Lin Shunhe and his work would be fine, so there was no need to force him into a corner. It was clear that she could not be too tolerant with people like Lin Shunhe, who had misbehaved.

“That’s enough, Lin Shunhe. Your personal lecture is over.” Lu Xingzhi glanced around and saw Lin Shunhe with another man, who seemed to be in his forties. That person was not Chancellor Wen.

“Where’s Chancellor Wen?” Jiang Yao asked. Did they not say that the chancellor had already made an appearance, and that was what attracted the attention of the whole school? Why was there only one professor and Lin Shunhe?

Jiang Yao was not unfamiliar with that professor. He was the same professor who helped Zhang Xiqing smear her name when the school had just started. He was not a professor from the medical school. It seemed that he was one of the professors from the literature school.

“Chancellor Wen went to the city for a meeting with the school leaders this morning,” a classmate answered Jiang Yao.

Jiang Yao frowned. She wondered if the door had crushed Lin Shunzhi’s brain? It was the same when he was in the army. The same thing had repeated again even after he had left the military.

There were always people who would do things that ordinary people would not be able to understand.

Lin Shunhe had seen Lu Xingzhi at the hospital the previous day, so he did not find it strange when he saw the man send Jiang Yao back to school.

However, it was Nanjiang City. Lin Shunhe was not afraid when he saw Lu Xingzhi because he felt that the man could do whatever he wanted in Jin City—he had connections in the army and his brothers. However, Nanjiang City was not a place where Lu Xingzhi could do whatever he wanted.

Therefore, after he saw Lu Xingzhi the previous day, all the anger he had in his heart could no longer be suppressed.

Lu Xingzhi had caused his departure from the Jin City Army and his resignation from his military doctor position. He was also the reason Lin Shunhe could not return to the general military hospital. He had no choice but to transfer to the unknown Nanjiang City to work. If he did not take revenge for that, he would not be able to swallow the anger in his heart.
