

Chapter 801

Yin Luo had a tough attitude: "When I joined the company, my grandfather didn't arrange a position for me because I was her granddaughter. I also started from the lowest level, step by step. I also did it for Huihui. Okay, this can train her perseverance and tenacious character."

Yin Luo, do you still have your sister in your eyes? Do you still have your father in your eyes? Seeing that Yin Luo had no intention of making arrangements for his daughter, he took out Father Yin to press her again.

But she was not afraid of Father Yin at all. Some things depended on Father Yin because of some affection, but only a few points. If it weren't for grandpa, because she now manages the company, I'm afraid Father Yin would not look at her high, and then Chen Meng would not even know how to treat her.

She is just a little colder towards them now, treating them with a clear conscience, and she thinks she has done nothing to apologize to them. Of course, if Yin Hui had to resort to any tricks, she would naturally fight back in the slightest. This is good enough. It's just that not only are they not satisfied, but they also want to ask for it from her blindly. Are they really regarded as a cash cow? When do you want to shake it, when will the money fall for them to enjoy?

She Yin Luo, who has managed the company for so long, has done many things that she once felt cruel? She is not a bully either.

Principles are principles, no one can change, and no one should try to change.

If you want me to be in the company without embarrassing Yin Hui, let her take the test by herself. If you have to insist, you can also go to your grandfather. If your grandfather agrees to directly let Yin Hui hold an important position in the company, then I have no objection.

You... Chen Meng didn't expect Yin Luo to say what embarrassment Huihui would be. Not only is she uncomfortable not helping Huihui, but also embarrassing her? And that old man, who has always been upright, knew that it would be useless to find him, so they came to Yin Luo. Both the grandfather and grandson are indeed a virtue.

Father Yin is still reasonable, he lowered his voice and confirmed again, "Luo Luo, can't you really help Huihui?"

Right. Yin Luo answered Father Yin's words quite gently. After all, they both came this time, so they should care about finding a position for Yin Hui. She disappointed them this time.

However, looking at Chen Meng's angry but speechless appearance made me feel comfortable.

Chen Meng gave Father Yin a wink again. It seems that she has not given up because she knows that this position is not just a position, it may become the position of president in the future, so she does not want to give up lightly.

Father Yin only shook his head helplessly at Chen Meng. He knew the best of Yin Luo's temperament. Once she was sure about things, she wouldn't change them anymore, and it wouldn't help anyone to say.

Let's go, don't toss you anymore. Father Yin's voice was slightly vicissitudes of life, watching Chen Meng still persist, Father Yin persuaded. Then he disregarded Chen Meng's thoughts and said goodbye to Yin Luo, "Let's go, Luo Luo, you have to be well in the company."

Okay. Yin Luo nodded in response.

Father Yin took the lead, and Chen Meng, who had been reluctant, could only go out with Father Yin. Because without Father Yin, Chen Meng knew that Yin Luo would not sell her face, and she would not have to ask herself to be bored.

Chen Meng followed behind Yin's father and complained, "You really are, why did you leave? You don't let me persuade Yin Luo to be good."

Can you persuade you to stay? Isn't it shameful enough? I didn't take my old face for Huihui. Father Yin turned and stared at Chen Meng.

Chen Meng was obviously frightened by Yin's father at this time, and she whispered, "Then I don't know that Yin Luo would be like this, it's all that little bitch."

Shut up. Father Yin frowned and reprimanded fiercely, "You will let Huihui learn more from Luoluo in the future. You can see that Luoluo was able to convince everyone from a small employee to the position of president. , This is what people do. And Huihui knows all day long to eat, drink and play, and spend money like running water. Let Huihui go for an interview tomorrow, let her suffer a little bit, she knows how difficult it is for an adult to make money ."

You don't have to do this to your child, what's the matter with the child spending some money? The daughter must be rich. Chen Meng insisted. She always wanted her family Huihui to get the best things she could give her and let Huihui A carefree life.

Father Yin shook his head. It was Chen Meng who spoiled Huihui. "What do you know."

After speaking, she stopped thinking about Chen Meng, so she walked to the elevator first, and Chen Meng just obediently followed. After all, she relied on Father Yin. Without Father Yin, she would be nothing. The old man despised her, and Yin Luo despised her even more.

I just need to discuss this with Huihui, but I don't know if Huihui is happy.

Back at Yin's house, Chen Meng looked around the house and didn't see Yin Hui's shadow. It is estimated that he was fooling around with him again. It is getting more and more shameless, and he doesn't know how to stay at home and study. Give her a bit of anger.

Chen Meng called Yin Hui and asked her to come back immediately. Yin Hui had a good time with a handsome guy and didn't want to rush back, but she suddenly thought that today's mother would ask her about going to work at Yin's, so she immediately said goodbye to the handsome guy and hurried back without staying.

Chen Meng was already waiting in the room, and seeing her daughter come back so happily, she felt a little sorry for her. Huihui must think she has done this.

How is it? Mom. Yin Hui asked excitedly before seeing Chen Meng's first glance.

Chen Meng lowered his eyes, shook his head, and sighed, Yin Hui understood everything.

Yin Hui angrily pointed to the door of the room, and said inconceivably, "Why didn't that little bitch Yin Luo arrange a job for me? I am also grandfather's granddaughter, and I have the right to work in the company. Why doesn't she help me?"

Don't get excited. Chen Meng took Yin Hui to sit down and persuaded her, "It's okay, we also start from the bottom. In the end, it must be better than Yin Luo's little bitch."

Yin Hui was still angry, what could she not get what she wanted since she was a child? Why did Yin Luo deny her ability when she refused? She came back from studying abroad, and what's the difficulty of being an executive with Yin Luo's relationship? Besides, how can that bitch be the president because of her ability?

Yin Hui complained to Chen Meng, "Mom, she has no ability at all. She became the president because of the shares her mother left and the shares her grandfather gave her. If I started from a young age, I would not be bullied to death by others. ? Even if others don't bully me, Yin Luo will definitely not make me feel better. What kind of work am I going to? It's a big deal that I won't go to Yin's family. On my condition, how many companies are rushing to ask for me."

Yes, yes. Chen Meng tried his best to comfort Yin Hui, but she couldn't help but play nonsense about important things. Chen Meng persuaded me painstakingly, "Originally, your grandfather didn't like me. If you go to another company, isn't the Yin family missing you? Even if you start from the bottom, you have to persevere. Remember, Your goal is to get Layin down, huh?"

Yin Hui looked at Chen Meng aggrievedly, and finally nodded. Because she is not reconciled, why can Yin Luo get everything without doing anything? The company is, so is Yi Yan. She joined the company, even if she was a small clerk at the beginning, it would not make her feel better. She just wants to dangle under her nose, just to disgust her.

She seems to be able to believe that Yin Luo is mad at her. It's so cool. "Okay, Mom, I will go to Yin for an interview tomorrow. Even if I don't pull her into the water, she will be sickened."

Seeing Yin Hui obedient, Chen Meng smiled with satisfaction. Her own daughter knows her best. She knows that only in this way can Yin Hui be persuaded. I believe Huihui will not disappoint her high hopes.

Really a good girl of my mother.

But... Although Yin Hui just said that she was proud and ambitious, when she thought that Yin Luo was the president of the company, would she use public reports for private reasons because of their relationship? She will be alone and helpless...

Mom, can you find another relationship, or spend a little more money to buy someone from the company to cover me?

Okay, mom will try to find it for you. Chen Meng nodded, and she didn't want her baby girl to be hurt a bit. However, Yin's record is relatively strict, and most of the people are under the hands of the old man. Even a small relationship may not be easy to get through. But for the sake of her daughter, she still has to try, and then ask Huihui her dad again, he should know some people from the Yin family.

Well, my mother is the best to me. Yin Hui leaned on Chen Meng's shoulder and smiled happily.

The day of her counterattack by Yin Hui is approaching. She will prove to her grandfather that in fact she is no worse than Yin Luo. Grandpa always values Yin Luo rather than her, and she will make grandpa regret it.

Even Yun will belong to her from now on

Yin's.

Assistant Lin Lin reported to Yin Luo, "The project we invested in is already in progress, and it is progressing very fast. So far, 10% of the progress has been completed."

Yeah. Yin Luo nodded and looked at the information carefully, and then said, "You can arrange my itinerary, and I want to go to the field in the afternoon."

President, no matter how rigorous the project is in the field, there is still a certain degree of danger. You don't need to go in person. It is okay to send someone to supervise it. Lin Lin suggested that although she is not particularly concerned about the president, she still needs to do face-saving projects. . And she knows the president, and the president is always the same thing. The things she has decided, no matter how good others say, it is useless. Otherwise she would not pretend to persuade her.

And...what else can you do with this thing.

I'll go in person, you just need to prepare. Yin Luo didn't consider Lin Lin's suggestion at all. If these things are dangerous to her, what's the use of her as the president? Can we just sit in the office and eat plain rice? Although she is a woman, what kind of things a man can't do?
