

Chapter 806

Originally, Yi Yan wanted to take the initiative to ask Ying to wash the bowls, after all, bowling was new to him now. But when Yin Luo said that, this method was also a good one, so he agreed with her.

Moreover, he once saw a boxing technique on the Internet. He felt bored at the time, so he didn't take it seriously. Now he really regrets it. He regretted not because he wanted to win, but because he must have been tired seeing her so hard work, so he also wanted to help her share some.

Yi Yan suddenly thought that he had seen a question about boxing guessing on a web page. It's just that he only vaguely remembered that the probability of girls getting out of scissors on the website seems to be higher. Anyway, if the result is random, he might as well try it and try his luck.

The two are like two children playing games, as they said "rock, scissors, and cloth" in unison, the result was clearly announced.

It is cloth that is naturally prone to inflammation, in order to be cut by the scissors that Yin Luo may produce.

But what happened to her was a stone, so Yi Yan's sadly reminded him to win over Yin Luo.

Yin Luo was very sad, her luck was always good, and most of them would win if she played this with others, but this time...maybe he was just destroying her luck.

She didn't want to do the dishes very much, so she proposed to play this with him. Unexpectedly, she pitted herself.

Yi Yan was very surprised when he saw this result. He thought he should have lost. At the beginning, I saw that the website said that the headlines were correct, but it turned out that they were all fake. It seems that those websites cannot be easily trusted.

However, Yin Luo is different from other women after all. She is beautiful, brave, strong, serious, and independent... She is so beautiful, no woman in the world can match her, so her departure from ordinary women is naturally different.

Seeing Yin Luo reluctantly, Yi Yan raised his lips and asked, "Otherwise, we won two games in three games?"

Anyone can see that Yi Yan is letting her. People must have dignity. If you lose, you lose. Yin Luo is not the kind of person who doesn't want to admit when she loses, but only thinks of shame. So even though she really wanted to win, she still rejected Yi Yan's proposal. It's easier to lose if you lose. And even if he let her win two games with her in three games, she has won one game now, and her chances of winning are very small.

No, I don't want to win three games with you. Yin Luo shook his head and said firmly, this is the principle. Then he comforted himself, "I like washing dishes very, very much, I love washing dishes."

Seeing that Yin Luo had the little emotion of being unwilling to clean the bowls, but had to clean the bowls because of the loss, Yi Yan lifted his thin lips and smiled. This is very warm and loving, just like two people who really love each other. Women often make petty tempers and play petty tempers in trivial matters, and even though men may quarrel with his women on their lips, they still let women in private.

He is happy because she is happy, and when she is happy, he is happier than having the whole world.

He understands Yin Luo, and naturally knows that she is a woman who wants face and strength, so naturally he will not easily agree to his proposal, even if his conditions are very attractive.

He understands Yin Luo, so he naturally knows how to get Yin Luo to agree.

So Yi Yan looked confident and said to Yin Luo, "You don't really think that I let you do it? I think even if I win three games or two, I will win. I want you to lose everything."

You are too confident too. Yin Luo looked at Yi Yan who was so confident. If Yin Luo didn't know that there was no skill and no way to guess boxing, she would really think that if she really played with him again, He is also set to win.

This is obviously random, how can he be so confident, as if he must have the chance of winning.

If you don't believe me, try it. Yi Yan continued to tease Yin Luo, looking at Yin Luo with an extremely confident expression.

Yin Luo was a little moved, anyway, if he wins, she will continue to do the dishes without losing money. If he loses... It doesn't seem fair if he loses, although this is his own proposal of two wins in three games. That's a big deal, if he loses, she will come with him again?

Silently persuaded himself, Yin Luo agreed, "Well, try and try. I don't believe that your luck can always be so good."

This time Yi Yan could only try his luck by going out blindly. Unexpectedly, one day he would want to lose in a boxing guess, and he never thought that one day he would still be able to play such a naive game.

He remembers deeply, he can't forget it in his life. The last time I played guessing was with my mother. At that time, he was still young, about six or seven years old. His mother's health was no longer good, but in order to allow him to continue studying abroad and get a better education, she still ignored her body and worked hard to make money to support the family. .

When he thinks about it now, he feels that he is very hateful. How can there be a child like him? Lively watching his mother fall ill for himself, he obviously could not go abroad at the time, he could use some extreme methods to stop his mother. In this way, the mother can be less tired and will not fall down.

He remembered that when he was about to start school, his mother was lying on a hospital bed. She is obviously also a rare beauty, but look at her at that time, white has one after another, wrinkles are gradually increasing, and she is pale and haggard. This is all for him.

He really hates himself because of him. He also hated his biological father, who gave birth to him, but only gave his mother some money, so he didn't care about him anymore. As if he was just a product that he shouldn't have produced, he still paid money just to compensate his mother. But this kind of compensation, if the mother hadn't done it for him, she wouldn't give up her dignity.

Mother has always been a proud and self-improving woman.

He remembered that he cried so much that he had a hunch that once he left her, he would never see her again. So no matter how his mother and uncle persuaded him, he insisted not to leave. He is a person with his own opinion. Once a decision is made, no one can easily shake him.

But the mother said that if he insisted on doing this, she would no longer love him, he was an unbehaved child. But what is he going to do? He was young at the time, he was like a headless fly, and he didn't know what to do. He wants to guard his mother all the time, but he doesn't want his mother not to love him.

Later, my mother said that since they couldn't decide, let God arrange it. They guessed the punch, and if he could win, then the mother let him stay with her.

But if he loses, he must go back to school abroad.

On the day of guessing, he saw his mother look so sad, even though she did not shed tears in front of him.

He seemed to have a hunch, but under the expectation of his mother, he bit the bullet and guessed the punch with his mother.

As a result, it turned out that he lost. He shed tears at the time. Why did God want him to separate from his mother? But mother, she seems to have known the result a long time ago. Knowing that now he didn't know if the guessing was all arranged, or if it was really random.

So, Uncle was going to take him away, and he tightly grasped his mother's hand and didn't want to let it go. Mother's hands are so cold and so thin, he wants to protect his mother all the time.

Later, his uncle took him away and took him to the airport. He took the plane and left.

During the period when he was studying abroad, his mother would send him a letter of safety at regular intervals, but his reply was never answered by his mother.

Finally, when he went back during the holidays, he realized that his mother was no longer there. Those letters were also written by his mother to prevent him from worrying and to let him study hard when he was sick.

He didn't cry, but quietly accepted this fact, maybe he had already felt it. That time, he lost in the guessing game. What he lost was to leave his mother and never see his mother again.

But he also got it. Because of the death of his mother, he forced himself to become strong, because he knew that only when he became strong can he do what he wants to do for his mother, and not do what he doesn't want to do.

Later, he was always the same as before, indifferent, serious, didn't like to laugh, and didn't like extra expressions. Because he doesn't want others to understand him, he just wants to be in one person's world.

The only thing he wanted to do for himself was to find Yin Luo, whom he never forgot, and live with her. It was just beyond his expectation, he did not expect that he and Yin Luo would be where they are today.

He once thought they would love each other.

Hey, what do you think? Yin Luo asked displeasedly as Yi Yan was in a daze.

Nothing, let's start. Yi Yan shook his head, no matter what, he would guard Yin Luo and prevent her from any harm to keep her safe for the rest of her life. And he only hopes to be with her for the rest of his life.

As for what he wants to do for his mother, he will never fail. Mother hopes that he will be successful in the future, and he should be considered a good one now. They may think that Yi's in G city is already strong enough, and in a short period of time, it has already broken the balance of the original several major companies, sitting on half of the country.

But what they don't know is that Yi's in g's is actually just a branch company. In fact, his headquarters is in the UK. He will come here for Luoluo, for his so-called biological father.

Oh, hurry up, what are you thinking? Yin Luo couldn't wait any longer. Feng Shui took turns. She didn't believe that her luck was so good in normal times. Every next round is crucial.

Okay, come on. Seeing Yin Luo so eagerly trying to beat him, Yi Yan didn't say much nonsense. He also wanted her to win this time, and it must be her this time.

So they now put their hands behind their backs, and then again said in unison "rock, scissors, and cloth."

As soon as their voices fell, the result was settled within a second.

Yin Luo used rocks this time, while Yi Yan used random scissors this time.
