

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 81

Hearing this, Zoey Gu suddenly raised her head, stepped forward and grabbed his arm, his eyes burst out with a biting cold light.

“You know, right? That person is not my stepmother! I heard my brother call her, she is a young woman!”

Logan Fu was dizzy when she shook his head, freed a hand to press on her shoulder and signaled her to stay calm.

He took the pedantry and recovered his stern expression.

“After knowing where your father and younger brother were, I rushed over as soon as possible. But it happened that your father was critically ill that day, and Lydia Lin and her men were all there. I was afraid of getting rid of the grass, so I didn’t do it right away. But I didn’t expect. I was followed by someone.”

Speaking of this, Logan Fu’s face darkened a bit.

“Not long after I left, my subordinates called me. They said that someone had assaulted Lydia Lin and her person. The leader was a woman. After taking Lydia Lin away, she went in to see your father and brother.”

“As for what happened later, although the woman didn’t do anything, but the murderous words can be vicious, you can imagine.”

Logan Fu lowered his head to look at Zoey Gu, his tone sinking a bit.

“Evidence, I have it. But you may not be able to bear it if you read it and listen.”

Zoey Gu’s face was like wax paper, and his blank mind seemed to have suffered a dull blow.

“Who is she?” she asked tremblingly.

“She is...”

Just as Logan Fu wanted to speak, he suddenly heard footsteps outside the door and the soft voice of a woman.

“Hello, I’m Logan Fu’s friend, does he wake up?”

Hearing the sound, two people had a meal at the same time.

Zoey Gu was also familiar with that voice.

Logan Fu squinted his eyes, leaned against the wall, raised his hand and quietly opened a crack in the door, and sneered when he saw the woman who had stopped at the nurse’s station to ask him about his status.

“Friend? I’m afraid it’s coming to death!”

After speaking, he pulled Zoey Gu away and pressed her firmly in front of him.

“Logan Fu, you...”

Being posted too close by him, she subconsciously struggled a few times.

He forcibly broke her face and looked out, with his lips pressed to her ears, and said every word.

“Look clearly, what that woman looks like.”

Zoey Gu looked in the direction of his chin, and after seeing the woman’s appearance, she was shocked.

Anna Yun.

It was Anna Yun!

A fatal coldness madly sprang up from the soles of the feet and rushed into his mind.

Zoey Gu was trembling all over, eyes blushing, staring at the bright and moving face not far away, tears welled up in his eyes.

She should have guessed it.

Lydia Lin is just using it, but Yun knows that Gu is the person in this world who most hopes she has nothing, her family is ruined...

But her father, who was critically ill in his later years, hadn’t even seen a ray of sunshine for many years. Her brother Chase is still so young, and his life has not yet begun.

How innocent are they? !

In the next second, she pressed her hand on the door, and she was about to rush out when she lifted a step.

She is going to kill that poisonous woman!

She wants to break her body into pieces!

Suddenly, both hands pressed her shoulders.

Logan Fu's deep voice sounded in her ears.

“Do you know that you are stupid trying to fight her?”
