

Chapter 811: Star Festival

Kingdom of Stars, Jianhua University, Girls' dormitory.

Sonia stepped on the chair, pushed the black stockings on her ankles to her knees, and tied them with straps, her toned thighs were stretched into a sweet sensuality.

She pinned a spring sword on the belt, which is the easiest sword-like device for swordsmen to carry. When needed, it can be turned into a tube-to-knife with a blade length of 1.2 meters. It can become the master of almost all swordsmen. Casting medium.

Although Sonia can also buy space rings, her space faction is only at the gold level now, and the speed of taking out items from space items is related to whether the space items are made by herself, the size of the items, and the quality of the space items.

To put it simply, it takes at least 1 second for her to take out the sword from the space ring, and it only takes 0.3 seconds for her to take out the spring sword from her thigh. Although the time difference of 0.7 seconds will not have a big impact, the village girl likes this kind of ability. Peace of mind in hand.

What's more, putting everything on the space ring is a very dangerous behavior. Many space miracles can ban all space props and even prevent space jumps.

Daedalus said that there is a magician in the sect. Her sanctuary is known as the “Infernal Hell”, which can be extended to a maximum of 100 meters. She can not only teleport freely in it, but also all the space magic spirits in the sanctuary are suppressed. At this point, the enemy will even be devoured by forcibly casting space miracles, but she can easily attack the enemies in the sanctuary.

Having studied the difficult magic faction of space to this level, that magician has already stepped into the legendary realm, but the Four Pillars Sect had long anticipated the day of the “ruby mountain annihilation battle”, so she would suppress herself not to be promoted, but she already has legendary combat power.

In front of the “Queen”, “Prime Minister” Daidalos can not speak, but can't lie. Therefore, Sonia suddenly refreshed her understanding of the Four Pillars: she thought they were a group of high-level private clubs, even if the threshold was extremely high, but it can't make any waves, after all, people themselves are the most powerful force and the greatest resource.

But if all the sanctuary magicians in it have legendary combat power, then what she took over on behalf of Ashe... is indeed an unimaginably huge hidden force.

After Sonia changed her clothes, Adele held her and Lois's hands, put her head against Ingurit's arm, and was dragged out of the dormitory by her roommates half asleep.

“What time did she see last night?”

“When I came back at 4 o’clock to open the door, I heard her hurriedly covering the quilt.”

Adele snorted like a boiling kettle, and rubbed her eyes: “It’s so bright.” Sonia raised her head, it was really bright.

It has been three days since the starry sky arrived. Every day, the starry sky will become brighter, as if the distance between the stars and the earth is getting closer and closer. They do not need street lamps when walking on the school road. It’s like walking in the stars.

“Hello, senpai.” “Hello, senpai Cervi.” “Hello, senpai swordsman.”

“Good morning Servi.”

Some classmates who had contacts with Sonia took the initiative to come over to say hello, but most of them only dared to watch from a distance. The village girls responded one by one, and saw a beautiful-looking female student not far away waving her hand cautiously, and said with a smile: “No Good morning Lin, you won’t say hello to senior when you become pretty?”

The latter was like receiving divine grace, his face flushed red, and he quickly waved his hand to explain: “I, no, good morning, senior!”

“I don’t wear glasses, are you going to Perfect Star for myopia surgery?” Sonia asked concerned: “Although you can get a 66% discount, it’s not cheap. Did you apply for a beauty loan? Need me to recommend something for you? Do you work part-time on campus?”

“No, no.” The elementary school girl shook her head again and again: “I, my family sold a bunch of Lala fat, and I have money for surgery.”

Sonia was slightly startled, and immediately took her hand with a serious expression: “Although I support you in changing yourself to pursue beauty, I didn’t say that I wanted to * the blood of the family, but I hope you can support yourself and grow up gradually. Return it to the family, I will lend you the money, don’t let your parents suffer because of you.”

The primary school girl was grabbed by the sword saint’s wrist, her body trembled, she nodded like a chicken pecking at rice, and said with a low eyebrow, “Okay, okay, but, but you don’t need to borrow money from the senior sister. I’ll save it with me. The pocket money, in fact, is actually enough.”

Pocket money saved?

Everyone was stunned. Except for Ingurit, everyone else had been to Perfect Star for beauty treatments. Naturally, they knew that this beauty salon was not cheap. Even the richest Lois would not Dare to say that your pocket money can support the consumption of Perfect Star.

Sonia blinked and asked tentatively, "How much fat do you have in your family?"

"I don't know, it's all over the place." The elementary school girl blushed, "Sister, do you like lalafat? I'll ask my family to give it to you, or you can go to the Germ Pond store outside the school, and you can take my name as you like. Say hello to the family."

Seeing that the village girl hadn't reacted, Adele reminded: "Germint Pond is one of the six major suppliers of Lala Fertilizer in Quanfanxing."

Sonia sneered and said, "Then... it seems that I misunderstood, sorry."

“No, senpai, you are right.” The elementary school girl looked at the swordsman who stretched her claws and claws with longing, “I will be self-reliant, don’t need any money from my family, and try to be as good as my senpai! Excuse me, see you next time!”

“Hey, this, I’m not...” Sonia wanted to persuade her to waste her family’s money and enjoy life, but she couldn’t say it.

“In response to the “Starry Sky Festival” guidelines issued by the Throne Hall, our school will plan a number of Starry Sky Festival activities in the next month. Except for a few courses, most of the courses will be suspended. The festival activities are based on classes/clubs and can be held across schools, The location is not limited to the school, each student is required to participate in at least two activities, the activity performance is closely related to the individual credits, and next year’s club budget and class budget will also refer to this activity...”

Luo Yisi knelt down: “The Lala fat in Germination Pond is all yours?” She thought she was a junior high school girl, but it turned out to be a hidden rich woman? She looked at the back of the elementary school girl leaving, and felt like she was making a rich second-generation girl. Going astray. The students walked into the Starfall Auditorium one after another. The auditorium is open-air with a starlight refraction device inside. With the starry sky that is already bright as day, the entire auditorium is bathed in the sea of stars. At 9 o’clock, Professor Wesley On the stage. As a highly respected old professor of Jianhua, he has a natural and quiet aura for the students, without much nonsense, he directly enters the theme: yes. Facing the abnormality of the day is no longer, the starry sky is eternal, the Throne of Stars Hall is not only Instead of placating or refuting rumors, he used a celebratory gesture to face the doubts of the outside world. According to the Throne Hall, this is a once-in-a-millennium grand occasion in the kingdom of stars, which means that the Lord of the Stars is blessing more miracles and blessings for the kingdom of stars. The Eternal Night period is officially designated as the ‘Starry Sky Festival’. The Throne Hall and the House of Nobles will hold many festivals in Gallosh, and localities will also celebrate independently, abruptly turning an abnormal celestial phenomenon that may cause social unrest into ‘everyone’s joy “Welcome to the Stars Version Update”. From the point of view of Sonia and others who knew the inside story, they also had to admire the skill of the throne room. It is not enough to describe a happy funeral. Hall actually didn’t lie. If Dharma Master Fanxing really digested the angels completely and broke through to a higher level, as a country protected by Dharma Master, the people of Fanxing would naturally benefit. It can be said that the people of Fanxing are born to stand with Dharma Master Fanxing. On the same front, even if everyone knows the truth, they will only become more and more eager to catch foreign invaders. As for the trivial matter of living under the false starry sky, does anyone really care?

Chapter 812: View and Sword

Sonia looked up and saw the shining and flowing Milky Way.

If you have never seen the sun, isn't this starry sky enough for the day? The Four Pillars of God want to smash the starry sky because they have other suns in their hearts.

Sonia wants to smash the starry sky because she wants to save her own sun.

After Wesley's announcement, the next step is the activity planning meeting of each class club. Although Sonia is a research assistant, she is also a student, so she naturally has to participate in two activities.

With her status as a sword saint, her willingness to take a name is enough to make the class community grateful, but what is surprising is that Sonia actually participated in the event meeting, and was even willing to help sponsor and discuss details, and also Make arrangements for your performance on stage.

The action efficiency of Jianhua students is still very high. In the evening, the school is full of festive atmosphere. Sonia, who participated in the discussion all afternoon, said that she was going to practice in the virtual world at night. After the village girl left, the classmates were still talking about her longing.

Sonia walked all the way to the school gate. On the way, she declined Sister Leonie's invitation to drink. She stared back at the three accomplices with her eyes. It was like a flowing landscape that attracted the attention of all passers-by, so that everyone who met Sister Sevi was attracted. The students of Junior Sister Servi couldn't help but exclaim in their hearts, "As expected of this year's Sword Flower".

By the time Sonia walked out of the school gate to the shade of the tree, a silver limousine had been waiting for a long time. "Want to go to dinner first, Swordsman?"

"No, you..." Sonia stared blankly at the hooded man in the back seat: "You are too bold."

"No one will check my car, and if something really happens, it's better to drive." Felix said helplessly: "More importantly, Miss Lena said, the destination is different from my home, if I take you there first My family, you will definitely delay on him for a long time, it is better to let you play while driving, and let everyone meet the sword seat and the viewing seat by the way."

“How can you say he is like a toy.” Sonia muttered dissatisfiedly, but when she lifted her hood a little, Meizizi pressed her face against Ash’s sleeping face, and tugged at Ash’s hair with her hands. Seeing this, Si Felix thought to himself that it was nothing more than playing with dolls when he was a child.

The village girl’s nose twitched slightly, “Huh?” “The smell of shampoo... You helped him take a bath!?”

Noticing Jianzu’s sharp eyes, Felix shrugged: “I can’t help but take a bath!? And Jianzu, you stipulated that only I can touch him, so the task of bathing naturally falls on me... Don’t worry, I In addition to washing my hair carefully, I wash my body very casually, just splash a little shower gel, and I close my eyes when I change clothes!”

“How can you wash it casually!?”

Miss Vosloda wanted to crash the car, and she wanted to take a shower, but she couldn’t wash it casually. Are you asking me to invent the miracle of a one-second bath!?

“You can use tools such as brushes!” Sonia was not embarrassed by Felix, and instructed: “Personal hygiene should be paid attention to, not casual!”

“Actually, can’t you wash it?” Felix hesitated: “Anyway, you...”

At this time, the village girl suddenly felt embarrassed, “No, strip him naked while he’s in a coma... Isn’t it weird? I’m not that kind of person.”

Before you say this, can you restrain the expression on your face first, if I’m not here, I think you’ll eat him. Felix thought that it would be wise for him to make a privacy window for the past few years, if outsiders Seeing the situation inside the car, one would definitely suspect some kind of magic miracle in the red-haired sword princess.

And what’s the matter with the wheezing sound, the shampoo I used for Yaxiu was mint and fresh, not a high-purity love potion that could affect Sanctuary magicians!

But Felix knew that he was in trouble for the next few days. The new leader was lecherous and hypocritical, and it was only her who ran errands who suffered.

It’s not that there are no men in the Four Pillars Sect, but Sonia is not worried about handing Ashiya over to someone she doesn’t know, and it’s not convenient for her to take care of herself. .

Sonia's absolute requirement for Felix is that no one else touches Ash, especially Daedalus. As for why Felix was chosen, one is because Ash gave Felix the trust of the second-level "agent", Second, Sonia felt that she could handle Felix, and she thought that the little Vosloda would not dare to mess around, so she naturally caught little Felix and bullied her.

As the hormone concentration in the car gradually rose, the silver limousine drove out of Galos all the way to the suburbs that were still in the development stage, and stopped in front of a manor surrounded by dense forests.

"Sword seat, here we are." "Hmm."

Sonia came out with Yaxiu, Felix took out a wheelchair from the trunk, Sonia placed Yaxiu carefully on the wheelchair to fix it, and gently slid the back of her hand over his face, her ruby eyes revealing subtle tenderness.

But when she withdrew her hand, only perseverance and indifference remained on her face, like a hedgehog hiding its soft abdomen and showing all its thorns.

"You pushed him in." "Yes."

Felix pushed the wheelchair and followed behind the Claw Claw Sword Saint. Sonia walked to the splendid villa. Before she could reach out, the door opened automatically.

In the extravagant hall lit by warm lights, a group of people have been waiting inside for a long time. Daedalus with dark blue hair stood at the front and greeted them, "You are here."

Sonia took a deep breath and stepped into the hall.

Under the starry sky, she is the bright sword flower of Jianhua University, the new champion of the Meteor Tribulation, and the bright diamond sword princess that countless people yearn for.

In the shadows, she is a murderer who conspires to subvert the country, a madman who smashes the stars, and the new leader of the Four Pillars of the Stars!

"Welcome to the viewing seatsword seat," Daedalus and the others knelt down on one knee and said in unison:

"May the spectator of the end surpass everything, and the sword of death madness will break through the sea of stars!" Huo.

Sonia suddenly recalled that Ash said that she encountered this situation on the first day. As soon as she woke up, someone called her the end viewer. She asked what the experience was, but Ash couldn't answer.

Now, she finally knows what the experience is. Perhaps, this is what it feels like to step into the torrent of fate. She is finally... about to catch up with him.

The Sword Saint stretched out his claws and took a few steps forward. He looked around and saw many familiar faces. The more he looked, the more frightened he became—what, he was actually a Four Pillar God; what, she was so successful and still believed in the Four Pillars; what...

Until Sonia saw a familiar figure, she finally couldn't hold back her surprise, and subconsciously blurted out:

“Sister Trozan?”

Chapter 813: Death mad sword Ji spreads wings

In Sonia's impression, Sister Trozan is a swordsmanship professor at Jianhua University and one of the top ten swordsmen of the stars. With the miracle of killing "Hidden Hand Blade", even in the Sanctuary of the Stars, she is at least the top three threats. Existence – Note, not combat power, but threatening power.

It's not that no one is stronger than Luoza. For example, another swordsmanship professor at Jianhua University, Nidala, the rhythm swordsman, is not much weaker than Luoza, but if Sonia were to choose, she would rather fight Nidala for life and death, and also Don't dare to test Trozan's true level.

But all the magicians who have known about the "Hidden Hand Blade" have great awe for Trozan. Not to mention the sanctuary, even a legend may be killed by her.

The village girl who practiced "Hidden Hand Sharpblade" has a deeper understanding of her own professor. Don't look at her self-created "Meteor Tribulation", which seems to be very powerful, but it is just a youth version of "Hidden Hand Sharp Blade". The spatial location. And Professor Trozan only needs to shake his little hand, and he can silently cut people's heads from a hundred paces away.

Trozan is not so much a swordsman as he is an assassin!

But with such a ferocious miracle, Trozan himself is very...weird.

She is very unpopular, has a very low emotional intelligence, and social etiquette is equivalent to that of a baby who just crawled. She usually wears a pair of white eyes and a chicken coop-like hairstyle. Sonia wants to take her to do her hair. His attitude was 'I'm just here to make money', vicious and rude.

According to Leonie-senpai, Nidala complained in front of her many times, 'If I hadn't been able to beat me, I would have wanted to beat Trozan for a long time'.

In the past, I heard from Felix that many high-ranking people were members of the Four Pillars. Sonia also suspected many people, but she never thought of her own professor. Connecting Trozan and the Four Pillars together, It feels like I'm imagining a Lala fat who turned into a dark knight.

"This is a special occasion for everyone to call each other their code names. Wouldn't it be too damaging for you to call me by my real name, Swordsman?"

Trozan stood up and leaned against the pillar next to him, glanced at the stunned village girl, and raised his eyebrows: "I've always wanted to see your expression—it's so funny."

“Jianzuo, this is the chief combatant of the Four Pillars Sect – “Wujian Jianji”. For convenience, you can call her Wujian.”

Daedalus introduced: “As for her other identity, you must be very clear about her identity.” “Infernal Sword Princess?” Sonia was stunned, “Sister Trozan is what you said...”

“This is one of the titles she held when she won the Meteor Tribulation Championship eight years ago.” Daedalus said, “Before you, she was the only sword girl in the sect.”

“Why do you make me feel like I’m pretending to be young.” Trozan said, “I actually want to be called “The Sword Demon”, but the singer said that women in the sect should end with “Ji” as the code name... I was deceived.”

Although there is a lot to say, Sonia must first recognize the main members of the Four Pillars Sect. After the initial kneeling ceremony, everyone is scattered around at will, sitting or leaning, or active or silent, watching The atmosphere of the Four Pillars of God led by Daedalus is relaxed and idle.

But as Felix pushed Ashe to the main seat, Sonia noticed that everyone followed Ashe’s figure with respect, without showing any disdain because Ashe was unconscious, and she felt certain.

Idleness is just an appearance, these believers still believe in the Four Pillars of God, and the Four Pillars oracles ordered Axiu to be the new leader, and they all obeyed unconditionally.

For ordinary people, this kind of cult of one mind is naturally very threatening, and it must be annihilated with heavy punches, but for Sonia, the believers of the Four Pillars are so devout, no matter how good they are. but.

'Natural Disaster Messenger" Ambusher" New Participant" Suspect" Vase' ... Some people's code names are related to the body image, and some are simply inexplicable. Among them, the most worth mentioning is Felix The 'Duke of Virtue', Sonia doesn't know if it's her swearing or her ambition.

Holding the wine glass and taking a sip of the juice, the Sword Saint stretched out his claws and finally couldn't help but ask: "Since Professor... Since Sister Wujian, you are also the Four Pillars Sect, why did the Duke invite me, not you? If it was you..."

Trozan asked, "If it were me, would you agree?"

"I will hesitate." Sonia said sincerely, after all, Trozan had taken good care of her before she became prosperous, and her sister's voice was not only flattering but also genuine, "but she still won't agree."

The village girl doesn't really care whether Jia joins the Four Pillars Sect or not. In fact, if there is no Ash, she would have been tempted to join the Four Pillars Sect by the welfare that Felix said.

But without Ash, she wouldn't know Felix and Trozan, and she wouldn't be valued by the Four Pillars. What Ash has always hated, except for the very spicy boiled lala fat, is that he traveled through many countries The Four Pillars of God that are difficult to get rid of.

"I think so too," Trozan said. "If you're willing to join, Duke Evil will be enough to persuade you; if you don't, it's useless for me to come forward in person."

"You are a swordsman with a firm and fierce heart, like a double-edged sword made of steel that is hard and sharp, and cannot be bent by emotion, so I—"

"maybe."

Felix suddenly interjected: "No matter how sharp a sword is, it has a scabbard, and no matter how hard steel is, it will melt like ice cream."

Sonia tensed up suddenly – it's one thing to be known by the people she knew, like Dedalus and Felix, but it's another thing to announce her love in front of so many strangers!

This Felix, I will discipline her when I go back...

"Okay, okay, Duke, don't show off. Everyone here knows that the sword seat is the seat of the audience. Don't show off as if you have some truth." Trolo said with dissatisfaction: "I haven't said it yet. After all, I always thought that the sword seat was very suitable for our sect, because she was full of ill-will in her heart, but I don't know why the ill-will was hidden later, I was quite puzzled at that time, and now I finally know that it was love that replaced the ill-will. But her nature is still as fierce as a sword, but if she used to follow her inner stubbornness to destroy the world, then she is now willing to protect her lover and kill her..."

"Okay, okay, Sister Wuji, don't say it anymore." Sonia hurriedly grabbed Trozan, her voice revealed a hint of pleading, her face blushed to the point of bleeding.

She seemed to hear other people's kind laughter or join in the fun. Although she had the highest status, she was the youngest here. When a group of adults watched her change after falling in love, the village girl felt ashamed and angry. absolutely.

She is very sure that this memory will become the least dense memory in her mind, and it will surface from time to time to let her relive this shame.

Daedalus came to relieve the siege: “In addition to meeting the new leader at the party tonight, it is also the time when the Tianguang Project is officially launched.”

“What?” “Finally...” “We...”

“Sure enough!”

Everyone took a deep breath, their eyes lit up, even Trozan’s facial paralysis couldn’t help but look excited.

Daedalus bowed gracefully to Sonia, “Swordsman, please allow me to speak on your behalf.”

Sonia nodded, although she also knew that only the name and the device could not be faked, but she didn't want to plunder Dedalus' credit. This is a plan that Dedalus has been running for many years, and it should be opened by the chaotic singer.

The dark blue girl looked around for a week, and said loudly: "I announce that the Four Pillars of God will start the implementation of the Sky Light plan from now on, strip off the starry sky, and smash the false starry sky!"

"Follow the footsteps of the sword seat of the Guanzuo!" Everyone knelt down on one knee and echoed in unison.

"Under the thousands of years of operation of Master Fanxing, the sky curtain is impeccable, and there is no loophole that can be 'destroyed'." Daedalus said slowly: "But Master Fanxing will inevitably digest the source angel in Ruby Mountain in order to digest the source angel. Overloading the starry sky and the starry sky, the loopholes exposed at that time will be our shortcut to the sky."

"But before that, we can weaken the energy of the sky."

She said, "Meteorites will fall to the stars every once in a while. The Throne Hall explains that they are ordinary meteorites, but under the shield of the sky, how could there be meteorites entering the stars? Meteorites are actually debris generated by the operation of the sky."

“Although it is debris, it contains the “golden apples” necessary for the operation of the sky. Generally speaking, these meteorites will be recovered by church magicians or nobles, because they have links to the blessings of the stars, and the magicians who come into contact with the “golden apples” The golden apples can be sent back to the canopy via the link, thus keeping the golden apples needed by the canopy from damage.”

“Tonight, a meteorite will fall near Dewberry Creek. Our goal is to get ahead of the church nobles to recover the golden apples, while the Master Fanxing has no time to pay attention to the country, and strive to weaken the energy of the sky to the limit!”

“If you have any questions, you can ask them now.”

Felix raised his hand, “What is the golden apple? Why is it necessary for the operation of the canopy?”

“Its appearance looks like a golden apple,” Daedalus explained, “and its essence is ‘knowledge of the gods’.”

Not only Felix, but even a core member like Trozan had confusion on his face.

“In the world of mortals, knowledge cannot be monopolized. For example, what I say now, one more person hears it, one more person knows it.” The dark blue girl told a secret that even a legendary magician could not know: “But stepping into the gods The magicians in the realm are different.”

“They can seal up knowledge into golden apples, just like registering intellectual property rights, and the virtual world will only admit the use rights of the magician who owns the golden apples. In this way, even if others know the corresponding knowledge, they will not get the resonance of the virtual world, and naturally they will not be able to. Summon the corresponding magic spirit.”

“The so-called realm of gods is also called the realm of monopoly.”

“The most extreme situation is that the magician of the gods has sealed all knowledge, so that unless mortals develop a new system, they will have no hope of resonating with the virtual world.”

The magicians were horrified. “Knowledge cannot be monopolized” is a truth that almost all magicians believe in, and it is also the source of motivation for magicians to be confident that they can surpass the ancients. But now they suddenly find that this kind of ‘safety’ is actually from the very beginning. It doesn’t exist, those magicians who first stepped into the realm of gods actually have the ability to monopolize all knowledge and turn the latecomers into mortals?

“But you don’t need to be nervous.”

Daedalus said with relief: “The generation of golden apples is extremely demanding. According to the introduction of the Four Pillars of God, there are three necessary conditions. First, the magician must have a * with the corresponding knowledge, and secondly, he must ensure that there is no other person who has the knowledge at that time. At the end of the day, a very scarce resource is needed.”

Trozan asked: “The Lord of the Gods paid such a price to generate golden apples, shouldn’t it be just to monopolize knowledge?”

“Of course not, the monopoly of knowledge is just incidental.” Daedalus said: “The golden apple has many effects, the most important of which is that it can form a new world secret realm!”

“Like the great road of the sea of knowledge, the flowing golden river in the time continent, the dream bubble in the distant airspace, the lava sea in the ruby mountain, the ice jam river, the crying sand... As long as it is used properly, the golden apple can be turned into a secret world of the world. , produce a steady stream of magic spirits!”

“The secret realm of the world can not only promote miracles, but also operate the kingdom of heaven. It can be said that there are countless benefits. If the source crystal is the universal currency of God, then the golden apple is the value-added asset of God.”

Daedalus pointed upward, “There are at least five golden apples inside that are pushing the miracle of the sky.”

“Every time a golden apple is taken away, it is equivalent to cutting away the flesh and blood of the sky, but there is a time difference in the transmission of the golden apple, and the Dharma Master who is busy digesting the source angel cannot find it immediately. But when he finds it, he must be aware of our Existence, then He would rather the stars fall and perish than let us live.”

“So, even if we found out this information long ago, we wouldn’t dare to do it.” Daedalus said, “Starting the Tianguang plan is equivalent to declaring war on Master Fanxing.”

She looked around for a week: “I, the chaotic singer, in this life I only want to break the cage, fly over the stars, and be the enemy of God. Everyone, are you ready to spread your wings to the stars?”

In the face of Daedalus’ question, everyone used their actions to show their attitude. “The messenger of natural disasters, spread wings.” “Suspect, spread wings.”

“The vase, spread the wings.” “The Infernal Sword Princess, spread the wings.”

Sonia stared blankly at the spectacular scene of the magicians spreading their wings in the hall. She turned her head to look at Felix who was taking care of Ash, and said in a low voice, “For freedom?”

“Do not.”

Felix shook his head and nodded again: “It can also be said...but it’s much simpler.”

“Our magicians are born with wings, and it is our instinct to escape from the cage.”

“Swords, don’t you want to see what the sky looks like outside?” Felix unfolded her gold and silver wings: “Duke Evil, spread your wings.”

The village girl looked at the religious fanaticism on Miss Fusloda's face, and also saw that the smart, successful, and powerful magicians were also so excited that she couldn't help herself. She finally realized deeply. , I really joined a cult gang full of lunatics.

Even if the people of the stars have long been accustomed to this starry sky, even if the Master Fanxing has taken care of the people for thousands of years, even if the throne hall treats the magicians well... but these traditions, kindness, and welfare cannot stop these magicians from smashing the starry sky.

They are not even for profit, smashing the starry sky is an endless risk for them. The only benefit is that they can escape from the false starry sky and see the real world.

But just for this, they are willing to be enemies of God. "Dragon Song, spread your wings."

As Daedalus unfolded her three golden and silver wings, all the Four Pillars believers spread their wings to show their hearts. Suddenly, they looked like beautiful birds imprisoned in the cage of this villa. To fly out and soar.

Under the gazes of everyone, Sonia stood up slowly and spread out her phantom wings calmly. In addition to the complete golden and silver colored wings, there was a wisp of sword-colored phantom feathers behind her – just to show but not to use, It will not set off the fluctuation of different-color mana.

Seeing the fourth Void Wing of the Claws and Claws, all the believers were shocked except Deedalse, especially Trozan, the corners of her mouth twitched frantically, and she muttered something like 'I'll catch up soon' It's not that I can't beat me"what's great'.

But no matter what, the new leader is already a legendary magician, which undoubtedly raised the morale of the Four Pillars Sect.

Sonia raised her glass: "May we all be able to see the light of the sky before the stars fall." "Dead Mad Sword Girl, spread your wings."

Chapter 814: double queen

Dewberry Creek.

A dumb black car was parked in the shadow of the nearby forest. There were four women in the car. They were the chaotic singer Daedalus, the deadly mad sword Jisonia, the inexorable sword Ji Trozan and the messenger of natural disasters, Claire.

In addition to them, there were four other vehicles scattered around in the dark, waiting for the meteorite to come. In order to * the golden apple, the four pillars of stars came out in full force this time, using most of their combat power, just to be safe.

Claire is the type whose code name is closely related to the body image, because she is the director of the third technical department of the Meteorological Agency, and is responsible for studying the possible adverse effects of weather changes on different regions. However, compared with the other three, she appears to be much more nervous and anxious Biting his nails nervously.

“Hey? Where did you get your nails done, with fluorescent effects?” Sonia suddenly asked, “It’s so beautiful.”

Claire was flattered: “The Night Stakes Show in the Xizhao Hall, I have a member there.” “The Xizhao Hall is not far from Jianhua, we can make an appointment for a manicure together when we have time.”

“Okay, okay, I have several recommendations from that store, such as the Yaoguang series and the Xianguang series. The pattern of the dust is also very beautiful, and the classic midnight is also good. That store also has special designs for swordsmen. Style, whether it’s ‘Tactical Warrior’, ‘Lord’ or ‘Dreadnought’ will not affect your sword...”

I could hear that Claire is a manicure lover, and she introduced the village girl and even made an appointment to do manicures together next Saturday. After chatting about the topic, Claire is also much bolder, and Sonia is still pink and tender. A tender female college student, she pressed her voice and asked, “Jianzuo, how did you meet Guanzuo?”

“Secret.” The Sword Saint stretched out his claws and his mouth was tight. “Well, then, are you two in love? Do you like each other?”

Without any hesitation, Sonia said decisively, “Yes!”

“It’s good,” Claire’s eyes were full of yearning, “Pure love... I can hardly find this kind of thing in reality except in the TV series of singers, so I’m still single...”

“That’s because your vision is too high.” Trozan said casually: “Even I know that those who pursue you can be lined up from the Meteorological Agency to the House of Lords.”

“They are too purposeful, I don’t like it.” Claire folded her hands together, her eyes sparkling, “What I long for is a soul mate who knows each other, he will suddenly appear in my life, and then—”

“I’ll make a statement first.”

Deedalus made a disclaimer: “The movies and dramas I acted are all made up, this world will not suddenly have a man suddenly break into your life, and then make your life turn upside down, unless you say Four Pillars—”

“Not necessarily.”

Everyone looked at the swordsman with their claws in surprise, and Claire hugged Sonia’s arm with envy and excitement in her tone: “Is Guanzao the one who suddenly changed your life? It’s like fulfilling a wish. Will it take you into a new world like a shooting star?”

The village girl couldn’t hide her hilarity, but she coughed, “I can’t tell, it’s a secret.”

“Tell me, did you fall in love at first sight or over time?”

“I think he fell in love at first sight.” The sword saint stretched his claws and claws very confidently. “Who confessed?”

Sonia was startled, she tried her best to recall it, it seemed, it seemed, should, maybe...they were missing this link?

They seemed to get tired of being together as a matter of course, and didn't confess the charge. But when asked by the subordinate, the boss must not bow his head here, "Of course it's him!"

The miracle of the history books was launched, and in the future, even if the Lord of God came to ask, it was Yaxiu who first confessed.

"You and Guanzao are so good, there must be someone else who likes you." Claire asked: "Then have you had misunderstandings, empathy, breakups, etc., like in the movie?"

"No no."

"It's the pure love model couple I look forward to the most!" Claire showed a little girl-like yearning expression, "So there is only one person in the heart of Swordsman?"

"Hmph, that's right!" "Then Guanzu has only Swordsman in his heart?" Sonia paused, "Of course! Or else?"

“Wow!” Claire clenched her fists and pursed her lips as if she had eaten candy, with starlight in her eyes, “I started to believe in love again!”

Daedalus smiled and said, “If Claire stays single for the rest of her life, it will be all your fault, Swordsman.”

At this moment, everyone’s communication earphones sounded: “There is a vehicle coming from the northwest.”

Everyone immediately picked up the binoculars, and through the gap in the woods saw a car driving to the pebble river road of Dewberry Creek. Although Dewberry Creek has the word “stream”, it is in a dry state this season, and white-tailed deer are often seen at night.

The four people who got out of the car were all wearing hooded robes, three men and one woman, surrounded by blue star triangle runes, but the number was different.

“Two sanctuary armor lords, two golden bow lords.” Daedalus said: “Very classic recovery sequence team.”

“Two Sanctuaries will be dispatched just to recover the meteorite?”

“Anyway, it’s all idle, and for the Golden Apple, the Church would naturally prefer to consume more manpower than surprise.” Daedalus said, “But that’s fine. They appear first, and it’s convenient for us to raid.”

The Four Pillars of God did not want to steal the golden apple. After all, if the golden apple was gone, the church would immediately notify the Dharma Master, and then a full-scale war would really begin.

From the very beginning, they planned to deal with these church nobles, trying to modify their memories, so that they mistakenly thought that they had completed the recovery, so as to deceive the church and deceive the Lord. As for who is responsible for cleaning the memory, it is naturally the chaotic singer Daedalus.

According to the information circulating outside, Daedalus majored in sorcery and sound art, but Sonia obviously did not believe it. As for what faction the first beauty under the stars majored in, Sonia asked her and refused to answer, only it can be inferred from actual combat.

The church nobles suddenly divided into four corners, as if they were forming a miracle barrier. When the miracle barrier was completed, a dazzling light suddenly appeared in the sky.

The airflow began to turbulent, and the whistling sound began to rush to the ground from far to near. The huge pressure was transmitted to everyone through the car, and everyone realized that the meteor was about to fall!

Boom!

In just a few seconds, a meteor crossed the sky and fell on the beach of Dewberry Creek!

But the surprise was that the sound and vibration of the fall were very small, and the surrounding area of Galo World would probably only feel the water glass shake, and would never know that a meteor had fallen.

Such a phenomenon that violates the physical rules is obviously the credit of the church nobles. The miracle enchantment they formed is completely prepared for the meteor, perfectly offsetting the physical impact caused by the meteor, and from the point of view of their arrival, the church's recovery work on the meteor Has reached an almost artistic sophistication.

"Each unit remembers its own mission." Sonia opened the car door and calmly ordered, "The first action of the sky, start!"

Boom!

The church aristocrat who had just withdrawn the enchantment and was about to recover the meteorite was confronted with a miraculous attack of violent storms as soon as he turned around!

“Mind Blast”! “Hidden Hand Blade”! “Silent Scream”!

“mentally retarded”! “halo”!

The first wave of miracles were all sound and light special effects that were almost non-existent, and they could ignore the Sanctuary’s strong control and strong killing miracles. In the blink of an eye, the limbs of the four nobles of the church were cut off, and their vision and hearing were temporarily blocked. The ability of thinking was seriously delayed, and the soul shook violently, and even the magic spirits were stunned.

The physicists rushed over to add mana collars to the church nobles, while Sonia flew to the crater—her task was only one, to recover the golden apples!

Originally, this task was completed by Felix, because only people without the blessing of the stars can touch the golden apple, otherwise the link of the blessing of the stars will be triggered, and the golden apple will be passed on to the stars. But not everyone can touch the golden apple, at least the sanctuary

Only the magician can barely resist the negative influence of the golden apple, but the people who are not blessed by the sanctuary magician and do not accept the blessings of the stars are almost non-existent in the stars.

The Four Pillars of God originally wanted to train Felix to the sanctuary, but times changed, and little Felix's development plan couldn't keep up with the changes, but with Sonia leading the team, Felix could feel at ease as Ash's nanny.

The wind passed by Sonia's ears, she was clearly in the middle of a major event that could become a turning point in history, but the village girl was very calm. She is the kind of person who is more powerful the more she faces the big scene – or, this is the rainbow blessing. The influence of “hustle and bustle”.

After all, she could not return to quietness.

However, Sonia didn't do much. The Four Pillars Sect's long-planned plan would naturally not cause any accident. The church nobles couldn't even resist, so they were overwhelmed—

“what!!!??”

Hearing Sword Throne's disgraceful scream, Daedalus immediately asked, "What happened?"

"The meteorite is gone!" Sonia squatted in the pit and touched the soil inside: "The soil has been turned over...and there is a soil artist who can walk on the ground!"

Daedalus turned back immediately: "The Messenger of Natural Disaster!" "Yes!"

Claire stomped her feet with her high heels, and the ripples of the vibration spread to a radius of kilometers.

"670 meters to the northeast, it's just the gap in the encircling net." Claire pointed, "He's about to escape!"

"Small speaker!" Sonia scolded directly, and flew to the front to chase and kill.

Daedalus has been preparing for this plan for many years. After all the unexpected situations, even the reserve team has it, but it still has an accident!?

Originally there were only four people in the car, but there was still a fifth soil artist hidden in it?

Sonia didn't know how to describe her feelings. She only felt that her heart was getting colder and her blood was getting hotter.

Ash finally came to Fanxing, and was wanted by the Throne Hall; he finally got a date, and he was pulled into the kingdom of stars again;

The secret operation, which could have been easily completed, still went wrong. It was about to be exposed, and the ambition to shatter the starry sky became a joke...

She couldn't help Ash settle down. She couldn't die with him. She couldn't save him.

She did nothing.

Sonia took out the spring sword and shook it, her eyes became more and more red, her aura became more and more restrained, like a sword passing through the jungle, the birds and reptiles that perched here suddenly stiffened and fell to their deaths. .

A figure suddenly appeared in her field of vision, and she did not hesitate, as if the blood moon shattered lake was crushed far away—

“Swords, it’s me, we caught him!”

The river of blood suddenly dissipated, Sonia flew over and fell, and saw the ‘vase’ holding a comatose church noble, who was still holding a stone in his hand, and a golden brilliance emerged from the stone, which was hidden A meteorite with a golden apple!

“Good job!” The Sword Saint stretched out his claws with a sigh of relief, but Daedalus, who was chasing after him, questioned, “Vase, the area you are in charge of is not here, why did you leave the office without permission? ? And you don’t know how to do earthwork!”

Sonia woke up like a dream, yes!

It is a great achievement for the vase to catch the escapee, but how did she leave the garrisoned area without permission? Don't forget, this is the action order issued by the "Queen" Sonia herself. If the vase can disobey this order, wouldn't it be? Can other people also defy the orders of Sword Throne?

"She didn't leave AWOL."

In the jungle, a huge black shadow suddenly appeared in the eyes of the Four Pillars Sect, "Because that is my order."

Daedalus immediately stood in front of Sonia with a grim expression: "Who are you? Why does the vase obey your orders?"

The village girl's face also became extremely ugly at this moment, because... she had already heard the owner of this voice.

With the help of a little starlight cut by leaves, everyone saw a black-haired girl walking behind the 'vase'. She was wearing a delicate black and white dress, and her high boots smashed the leaves to make a crisp sound. Behind her, there was a huge bronze Dragon Phantom.

The black and white girl showed the back of her hand to everyone. There was a gold pocket watch pattern on it, but there were no hands in the pocket watch. There were only five gems that made up the hands, which were turning slowly.

Deedalus was also dumbfounded at this time, she looked at the black and white girl, and then looked back at the Dead Crazy Sword Girl.

“Second...”Queen”?”

When the gem pointer pointed in the direction of 12 o'clock, the bronze dragon behind her suddenly uttered a clear and clear bell, which turned into smoke and dissipated, and the black and white girl gradually transformed into a delicate and lovely little girl with white hair under the gaze of everyone.

“Jianji, I haven't seen you for three days. I'm here on time.” The witch Diya said calmly, “Take me to see Yaxiu.”

Chapter 815: Guardian SpiritChapter 815: Guardian Spirit

In the jungle manor, Claire watched as SoniaDiaDida Rose was taken to the bedroom on the second floor by Felix.

“Uninterrupted.” The natural disaster messenger suddenly asked, “She should be a ‘princess’, right?”

Without waiting for Trozan to answer Claire, he asked himself: “Yes, it must be a ‘princess’, how can this appearance be a ‘queen’? Well, she should be the younger sister of the audience, and she would not hesitate to travel across the country to find her brother, but Guanzao also gave her absolute trust, so she was willing to analyze power with her...”

“Well, it must be so, otherwise what is the possibility?”

At this moment, a cry of joy rang out from the depths of the second floor: “Axiu—”

Then came the angry voice of the sword seat: “Get off him quickly! Don’t touch it! Don’t rub it!”

As the door slammed shut, no sound could be heard from inside.

After being coquettish for a while, the little white-haired girl finally buried her head quietly in Ash's arms. When she saw her fingers move slightly, Ash raised her hand and hugged her tightly, as if the spectator of the end had woken up.

But there were all magicians present, and naturally the transparent silk threads derived from the little girl's fingers extended into Yaxiu's joints just right, manipulating Yaxiu's movements like a puppet.

Seeing this scene, Diva Chaos and Duke Evil had initial impressions of this wild queen: manipulating a puppet is a completely different concept from manipulating a human body. The joints of the puppet are simple, but the human body has complex muscles and There are countless nerves, if manipulating a puppet is to attack a virtual beautiful girl character, then the difficulty of manipulating a human body is to attack a real beautiful girl.

Of course, it's not that there are no tricks, but all of them will violently destroy the human body. While the little white-haired girl manipulates Yaxiu to perform complex movements, it does not damage Yaxiu's body in the slightest. Force skills... At least she's a fist and claw sanctuary that completely deconstructs the human body!

But in addition to her strength, what made the two Four Pillars believers feel astonished was her temperament—

Yaxiu was in a coma. In order to let Yaxiu hug her, she even used silk threads to manipulate Yaxiu's body to gain the warmth of emptiness!

Normal people would not have such thoughts at all, let alone do it!

And now that Yaxiu can't move, the witch has to force it. If Yaxiu wakes up, neither of them can imagine what the witch will ask for from Yaxiu.

Unscrupulous, lustful, uncompromising, and the courageous decision to travel through the stars alone from the gospel...

A person who gathers these qualities, even if she looks like a little white-haired girl, is definitely an inhuman monster above the social food chain, not to mention that she is also a legendary magician!

But there was someone next to him who couldn't see it.

“Disgusting.” Sonia said coldly, “What’s the difference between your behavior and molesting others while they’re asleep?”

“Don’t you want to say that you haven’t done it?” Di Ya turned her head slightly and glanced at the village girl.

“Of course not!” Sonia said confidently. Daedalus and Felix turned their heads away.

In fact, they shouldn’t be here, but wait outside for the two queens to stop. However, both the sword princess and the witch retain a sense of reason. If there are no outsiders, they may fight, and there are things that Diyin wants to tell the same owner. The person who prints.

“Should I ask about the gospel?”

Diya sneered: “Although I only came to Fanxing at 6 pm, the Gospel can only know the information after 6 pm at most... It is 0 o’clock now, if you haven’t done anything similar in the past six hours, I will believe it. you.”

Jian Ji raised her eyebrows, “You also brought the gospel?”

The witch snorted lightly, but she couldn't tell that Jian Ji was evading her. She was also annoyed. In the past six hours, the Four Pillars Sect has been in action for at least four hours, which means that there are only two at most. There was an hour's gap, but Sonia didn't even let go of these two hours. It is conceivable how much the comatose Ash has suffered in the past three days. She only hated herself for not being able to arrive at the first time.

But she didn't pursue it, rubbed it in Ash's arms, and said, "The Gospel has been bound to me from beginning to end, and I can't get rid of it. Naturally, it will go wherever I go."

"Doesn't the Gospel system affect it?"

"The Gospel system is not connected through physical space, but through the virtual world—to be more precise, the spider tower in the time continent helps to connect the Gospel system and the Gospels. Although I can maximize the power of the Gospel system in Nabistin, but I will not affect the normal operation of the gospel system in other places." The witch said: "Don't forget, I usually run around in the virtual world with the gospel, and it is normal that the gospel is not in the gospel kingdom."

"Where's the Omniscient Weaver?" Sonia asked, "He just let you take the gods to a dangerous country?"

“I don’t know.” Dia said calmly, “But no one stopped me when I left. Maybe the omniscient weaver couldn’t react – I really didn’t think I was going to leave before.”

“It wasn’t until the empty door opened and the power of the gospel penetrated into the stars that I knew that Yaxiu was unconscious, so I temporarily told An Nan that I wanted to make a private interview, and then smuggled in directly.”

Before the empty door opened, Her Majesty’s plan was to pick up Yaxiu and others from beginning to end, and she never thought about going to Fanxing.

After all, Gospel is the home court, Fanxing is the home court of Jianji, and Diya will go to Fanxing when she has a good brain.

But when the empty door opened, Deya used the gospel to inquire about Ashe’s current state, only to know that Ashe’s soul was trapped in the Ruby Mountain, and her body became Sonia’s private collection. Her Majesty originally wanted to steal Ashe home directly, but she couldn’t. Locate Yaxiu’s position, there is a miracle in the blurred Yaxiu’s position, she can check Yaxiu’s status because she has a special bond with Yaxiu!

Helpless, Diya had to kill her and find Sonia. It happened that there was an accident in the plan of the Four Pillars, but in front of the Queen of Gospel, ‘accident’ does not exist.

“Wait, so you came here almost as soon as you arrived?”

Sonia was startled, “But how do you know our relationship with the Four Pillars, how do you know the plan of the Four Pillars tonight, or even that the plan will go wrong?”

Daedalus and Felix also looked over curiously. They were both very curious about this new queen who came suddenly like a savior and turned the tide so that the Tianguang plan would not go bankrupt.

“Nature is learned through the Gospel.”

“But you don’t have any clues, so you can gather our information so accurately?” “I have clues.”

Diya raised her right hand and showed the golden pocket watch seal on the back of her hand, “I woke up two days ago and found this mark on the back of my hand. At that time, I only found out one of the usages, and there is no detailed information about the origin, but I have a vague idea. I also guessed that this is the influence of Yaxiu. When I enter Fanxing and check again, the information of Yaxiuyoufanxing Four Pillars Religion will immediately appear in front of my eyes.”

“What usage?”

Diya snapped her fingers, and the huge bronze dragon phantom appeared behind her again, and she also changed back to a beautiful and lovely black-haired girl in the blink of an eye. The duck was sitting on Ash’s lap, and the two embraced like a close lover.

She hooked her fingers, and Ash put her lips on her cheek. She also kissed Ash’s cheek and smiled at Sonia, “Use it like this.”

Sa.

The air in the bedroom was surging, the glass windows were slammed, and the atmosphere was so depressed that it seemed like it was about to explode in the next second. Felix was even more convinced that he saw blood in Sonia’s eyes, and his fingers were about to turn. Reached for the hilt.

But as the bronze dragon phantom dissipated, Diya returned to her little girl’s posture, her little head resting on Ash’s shoulder, with a provocative expression of ‘he not only likes me, but also calls you a yellow-faced woman’.

At this time, Sonia calmed down instead. She touched the little girl's head and said with a smile, "By the way, I forgot to say hello to Liz. Sister Liz, Ash often mentions you to me."

"what!"

Liz immediately took the role of the main character, and looked at the sword saint with bright eyes, "What did Dad say?"

Sonia tilted her head: "I said hello to you, you should also say hello to me, I am your Sonia...sister."

In fact, she wanted to say 'Mama Sonia', but there were people watching, and she was a young girl after all, and she was not so thick-skinned.

Liz hesitated for a while, apparently the other sisters spoke ill of village girls to her in their minds, but she finally said, "Sister Sonia!"

"Good." Sonia rubbed Liz's little head with a kind expression on her face: "Ashe often said that Liz was the one he liked and couldn't let go of the most. No matter where he was, he always wanted to return to the gospel to see Liz. ."

Liz was so moved that her eyes were hazy with tears, she hugged Yaxiu and cried, tears wet Yaxiu's shirt, "Liz also misses Dad so much—"

Deya threw Liz's personality to other witch sisters to take care of, she noticed the small smile on Sonia's mouth, and felt discouraged for a while.

How could she not know that her demonstration was completely bankrupt, because Sonia already knew her greatest weakness—

Liz!

With Liz here, no matter what Dea does, it must be confined within the boundaries of family affection!

No matter how unscrupulous she is, she has to take care of Liz's growth and education, and can't be a bad role model for Liz. Until Diya officially transforms her sister's personality into an independent individual, kissing the cheek is her biggest measure, not even kissing the mouth, for fear Immeasurable impact on minors!

Thinking of this, Diya didn't bother to pretend to provoke Sonia, but she still couldn't get down on Yaxiu, "Lingyin can let us borrow the power of the guardian spirit to a limited extent, don't you know?"

"Guardian?"

Not to mention the village girl, even the first beauty under the stars and the second Miss Vosloda showed blank expressions.

"It's normal that you don't know, because legendary magicians don't know much. This seems to be a concept that only demigods can access. It is because of the seal that the gospel unlocked this part of knowledge for me."

Diya introduced: "Guardian spirits are virtual creatures, and they are essentially no different from Yuyulong, Violent Dragon and Shadow Evil Dragon. The biggest difference between guardian spirits and virtual creatures is that they live above the fifth floor of the virtual world. ."

Daedalus: "The realm of the gods? Demigods?"

Diya nodded: “Yes, all guardian spirits are demigods, but they are different from demigods. It is extremely difficult for demigods to travel to and from the lower virtual realm, but the guardian spirits can travel to the lower virtual realm at will. ”

“The most common place they appear is in the sea of knowledge filled with white mist. They will observe those gifted magicians and choose to be their guardian spirits. This bronze dragon of mine has been my guardian spirit since the sea of knowledge. .”

“Etc., etc...”

Sonia couldn't digest it, “Why do these demigods become the guardian spirits of the one-winged magician? What effect does the guardian spirit have on the magician?”

“There are two reasons.”

Diya hooked her fingers and asked Ashura to show two fingers, “First, although they were born as demigods on the fifth floor of the virtual realm, they are also incomplete. In short, they do not have silvergold Colorfulcolorless phantom wings, and these phantom wings are very important to ethereal creatures.”

“According to the Gospel, the native demigod creatures are far inferior to those who climbed all the way from the bottom virtual realm to the realm of the gods. For example, the fish-killing dragon is the most powerful existence on the fifth floor of the virtual realm.”

“In order to supplement the virtual wings, the demigod creatures have developed a method to become the guardian spirit of the magician.”

“Becoming a guardian spirit means that they entrust a part of themselves in the soul of the magician, and the magician will thus gain talents beyond the limits of mortals, and even summon guardian spirits to obtain various benefits. In return, when the magician climbs all the way to the virtual world, the guardian spirit can also make up the empty wings and become a complete demigod creature – although it still can’t beat the demigod.”

“But demigods not only can only choose one magician to be a guardian spirit at a time, but also the number of choices is limited. After all, dividing a soul can cause great damage to any creature.”

“The price is so high, and it often takes decades for a magician to become a legend from one wing, so every time the guardian spirit chooses a host is a long gamble.”

“Obviously.” Deya looked at Sonia, “Our guardian spirits have all been chosen correctly.”

Sonia silently agreed in her heart that other demigods would have to invest decades to get a return, but they climbed from the Sea of Knowledge to the Ruby Mountain within a year, and their guardian spirits must be smiling from ear to ear.

“So,” Felix suddenly asked, “When the host becomes a legendary magician, there is no need for demigods to continue to be guardian spirits?”

“This is the second and most important reason.” Di Ya said, “The reason why the demigods developed the method of guardian spirit is actually to protect their own race.”

“Huh?” Everyone was stunned, but immediately realized something.

“If the demigod creatures can’t beat the demigod fish and dragons if they complement the virtual wings, then the strongest demigods’ fish dragons can’t beat the demigods.” Di Ya said: “On the fifth floor of the virtual realm, the demigods can’t beat the demigods. Magicians are the most vicious beings. Facing magicians, demigods are either slaughtered to become materials, or enslaved to become mounts.”

“The only way out for demigods is to seek refuge with a slightly more kind-hearted magician. However, no matter how kind-hearted a magician is, it is bound to put forward extremely harsh requirements on demigods.”

Diya shrugged, "According to the description in the Gospel, the treatment of demigods on the fifth floor of the virtual realm will not be much taller than Lala."

Sonia murmured, "So, the real meaning of a guardian spirit is..."

"In the mortal stage, I am your guardian spirit, but if you can step into the realm of gods, then I am your equal guardian spirit." Dia said: "Instead of finding a master, demigods would rather find one companion."

"There's a loophole here."

Daedalus pondered: "When a demigod is looking for a host, it should be able to implant miracles such as a master-slave contract. Isn't it better to find a slave than a companion?"

"I believe there must have been demigods who wanted to do this in the past," the witch said with a smile, "but you should still remember the inheritance of the three great angels not long ago, right?"

Felix replied: "The Angel of the Lake, the King of Time and the Prophet of Ghosts."

Deya said, "Can you imagine them being enslaved by a group of Lala Fatty? Or dominated by Zhanyulong?"

Everyone finally realized that the guardian spirit is not a compromise of a demigod creature, but a compromise of a demigod magician.

If a magician steps into the realm of the gods, the meaning of the guardian spirit bond is to remind him that 'I hope you can take care of your old feelings and treat me well', but it cannot restrain the demigod magician at all. Or, there is no stable restraint at all. The means of a demigod.

And the magician received so much care from the guardian spirit in the past, and now the guardian spirit is a pitiful wife, and the magician generally can't bear to abandon it.

Even if the guardian spirit usually has to bow its head and be small, it is still much better than those demigods who are skinned and cramped.

Hearing this, everyone felt proud of being a magician, but also felt strange – to what extent did those demigod magicians kill them all, so that demigod creatures have to cultivate friendly people from elementary school (the sea of knowledge). New generation?

Sonia asked curiously, “So, not all magicians have guardian spirits?”

“Of course not, only a small number of magicians have them, but all demigod magicians have guardian spirits, and they can choose by themselves.” Di Ya replied: “Some of the lower-level magicians’ guardian spirits suddenly disappeared, or killed by a demigod, or robbed by other demigods.”

Everyone thought about this plot, it was like Bai Fumei, who was optimistic about the poor boy, was forced to marry another local tyrant...

“My guardian spirit was originally a bronze dragon, but now I have gathered all the virtual wings and evolved into a bell-ring bronze dragon.” Di Ya finally said the topic: “Even a legendary magician can only use the power of the guardian spirit by chance. But the seal that Ash gave us has a special effect.”

“It can communicate the entire virtual world.”

Diya turned around, laying in Axiu's arms in a more comfortable position, and raised her right hand to admire the seal of her golden pocket watch. She noticed that everyone was confused, "Don't you understand? It can communicate with the fifth Floor!"

"We can directly borrow the power of the guardian spirit through the seal!" The witch said slowly, "In a sense..."

"We already have the power of a demigod."

Chapter 816: "Queen" black and white witch

"This is because Ash is the touch of the Four Pillars."

Daedalus said calmly, "The Four Pillars are the masters of the virtual world. It is not surprising that the seal given by the Four Pillars to Ashe has such an effect of communicating with the virtual world."

The Sword Princess and Witch's face darkened slightly, but they didn't refute. Although they didn't believe that the Four Pillars were the masters of the Void Realm, Lingyin was a tool to rule the Four Pillars of God and could communicate with the Void Realm at the same time. Daedalus's speculation was reasonable.

“How to use the power of the guardian spirit?” Sonia asked the most central question.

“While you sink your consciousness into the seal, you must maintain a certain emotion to attract the attention of the guardian spirit.” Diya didn’t hide it, “My emotion is remorse, but you may not be.”

Sonia immediately followed suit, her consciousness was immersed in the seal and there was no response. Maintaining a certain emotion is easy to say, but what kind of emotion is it?

Regret? Love? Curious?

At this time, Diya’s voice sounded in everyone’s ears: “You all imagine that you have encountered the most unacceptable thing to you. The emotions you generate at the first time are the emotions that the guardian spirit needs.”

The most unacceptable thing?

Sonia immediately remembered the Tianguang plan that almost failed tonight, Ash who was almost discovered by the Throne Hall, and various situations such as Ash who died in the Kingdom of Stars and would never come back... But even in these bad circumstances, in her heart It's just a sense of remorse and anger at one's own incompetence.

What was she really unacceptable? Was her mother implicated because of her? Is Ash dying in front of her?

Did you lose all your power? No. These are all very bad and bad things, but for me...

Sonia slowly opened her eyes and looked at Deya, who was being held in Yaxiu's arms. "Witch," she said calmly, "Try to become an adult."

Di Ya was stunned for a moment, and immediately realized something, and with a dignified expression, she called out the Zhongming Bronze Dragon and returned to the shape of a black-haired girl.

Looking at Yaxiu and Diya's embrace as a couple, Sonia closed her eyes and felt a ray of darkness rising from the depths of her soul, gradually converging into a monstrous river, sweeping her heart and drowning her reason. .

That's right, this is the most unacceptable thing for her. Ash can die, disappear, and never wake up.

Sonia is willing to break into * to resurrect him, she is willing to search for him all the time, and she is willing to go to the sky to seek the miracle that will wake him up.

The only thing that Sword Princess can't accept is that Yaxiu doesn't choose her.

Ash broke into Sonia's life like a shooting star. He was the one who knew Sonia best. He believed in her potential even more than Sonia. The first person who wants to become a soul mate with Sonia from the bottom of her heart. Sonia can accept everything, but only can't accept it... Denied by Ash!

DeathFateThe Four Pillars can't separate them, the only thing that can separate them... is Yaxiu voluntarily abandoning her!

The seal on the back of her hand glowed with purple-red light, and the continuous purple mist formed a ferocious and fierce armor-covered cat behind her. The purple fierce cat stared at copper bell-like vertical pupils, and its tail was like a scorpion needle, as if Destroy everything in the world!

At the same time, Sonia also knew the name of her guardian spirit. She destroyed the resentment Huanglong. The emotion she summoned the guardian spirit was resentment.

“Okay.” Diya suddenly clapped her hands, causing them to wake up from their emotions.

Sonia turned her head and saw that there were also dissipating phantoms behind Felix and Daedalus. She was both surprised and normal—these two were geniuses, and it was only natural that they were valued by demigods for investment.

“Although we don’t need magic power, we can’t use the power of guardian spirits indefinitely, and the amount of consumption must be recovered slowly.” Diya pointed to the mark on his pocket watch, “My limit is prompted by the pointer, yours Ling Yin should have a similar function.”

Sonia looked down and found that she had rusted the pattern of the double swords printed on it. It is estimated that when the double swords are completely rusted, it means that the summoning quota of the resentful dragon has been exhausted.

“Different guardian spirits have different effects, and sometimes there are more than one.” Di Ya said, “One of the effects of the Bronze Dragon like the bell is that I can freely change the time of my body.”

Everyone could see that the status of the little white-haired girl was Diya's present, while the black-haired girl was obviously Diya's past.

"When you have time, you can communicate with guardian spirits more. The biggest advantage of guardian spirits is that they don't need magic power, they can be summoned even if they have nothing."

Deya looked at Daedalus and Felix, "The reason why I tell you the secret of guardian spirit is because one of you can promote the Tianguang plan, and the other can protect Ash. I hope you won't disappoint me."

Although she was sitting in Yaxiu's arms, she looked like a little girl, but Di Ya's inner air of a queen still made the two of them kneel subconsciously: "Yes, follow...the queen's order."

Diya naturally doesn't care about enhancing the strength of the Four Pillars Religion, it is the Four Pillars Religion with many stars anyway, and it has nothing to do with the Gospel.

On the other hand, Sonia was a little surprised when she heard this: "You don't plan to take Yaxiu back?" Deya couldn't help but glance at the Sword Saint, "Would you like me to take him away?"

Of course Sonia refused, but she had no choice: "The stars are too dangerous for Ash."

"I really wanted to take him back directly at first, but the gospel stopped me." Deya sighed: "Asho's soul is trapped in the kingdom of stars, and the stars and the stars reflect each other, if I take away his body, the gospel will Tell me the most likely thing is...he'll never come back, he'll stay with the stars forever."

"Aunt Borgin, Uncle Harvey's body should also be taken care of." Deya looked at Felix: "I know their bodies are with you, please trouble you. Especially Uncle Harvey's coffin... The taste is still the same. big?"

"I didn't expect that the basement wouldn't be able to contain that smell." Felix shrugged: "But it will be fine after a long time."

Dedalus asked: "The smell is gone?" "No, my nose is used to it."

"Next, in order to save Yaxiu, I would like to join you in advancing the Tianguang plan," Deya continued, "I have the * of prophecy 'Gospel God', can obtain most of the information of the kingdom of stars, and own the legendary battle of time. Li, you shouldn't mind, right?"

“From the very beginning, you have been our “queen”.” Daedalus said respectfully, “not joining, but returning.”

Sonia must also hold her nose to accept it. After all, in terms of function, Deya is much stronger than her if she has the ‘Gospel Spirit’. If it wasn’t for Deya’s arrival, they still don’t know that Lingyin can summon guardian spirits. , I really don’t know whether the Four Pillars of God are deliberately hiding or lacking in heart.

Diya helped to remedy the Tianguang plan as soon as she appeared on the stage. Her predictive ability was enough to make the next actions of the Four Pillars Sect go smoothly, not to mention that her own legendary combat power was not much worse than that of Sonia, and she could even play better—Shen The Claw Claw Sword Saint is mainly used as an explosive output position, while Her Majesty the Queen is good at controlling it.

“Okay, do you have any questions?” Diya clapped her hands, “I’ll go out to meet my new subordinates, and I also want to see the golden apple.”

“Yes.” Sonia couldn’t help but ask, “Don’t you have an anti-aging spell? Why do you have to wear this little girl’s skin?”

This is also the question that Chaos Diva and Duke Evil want to ask. Although they dare not have any opinions, as the new leader, a young girl is always a little better than a young girl...

“I wanted to wait for Yaxiu to come back before, but now it’s because of the Zhongming Bronze Dragon.” Di Ya was also a little helpless: “I don’t know if there are any taboos for your guardian spirit, but as the host of Zhongming Bronze Dragon, the permanent time magic spirit is mine. Taboo.”

“If I use the permanent time spell on myself, it will be difficult for the Zhongming Bronze Dragon to change my body time.”

“You can understand that time is a piece of white paper, the non-permanent time spell is an erasable pencil, and the permanent time spell is an indelible ink pen. I used the ‘inverse second’ spell before, It has already caused some obstacles to Zhongming Bronze Dragon, if I use the ‘Anti-Year’ spell, Zhongming Bronze Dragon may not be able to affect me at all.”

“Compared to growing up, Zhongming bronze dragon is obviously more important.” Sonia nodded thoughtfully.

Diya glanced at Sonia, “However, Zhongming’s bronze dragon washes away my time like wetting white paper with water, it will gradually erase the influence of the ‘Reverse Second’ spell, so I won’t be a young girl forever. , don’t worry.”

If you have always been a young girl, Swordsman will be relieved... The other two people in the room thought. “That.”

Felix considered his tone: “You said just now that your original plan was to bring the audience back to the Gospel. Can I understand that...you have a way to create an empty door to the Gospel?”

Hearing these words, Sonia did not look at Felix, but looked at Daedalus. However, the first beauty under the starry sky lowered her head at this time, and no one could see her expression clearly.

Felix’s words seem curious, but in fact they relate to the main goal of the Four Pillars Sect – from the very beginning, the biggest desire of the Four Pillars believers is to smash the sky and reach the outside world!

The appearance of Kongmen did not shake their beliefs, after all, the success rate of Kongmen was too low and resisting the Master Fanxing could give them great satisfaction on the spiritual level.

But if there is an empty door that leads safely to other countries, it will be different. Maybe a group of people will be shaken and give up their determination to shatter the sky!

“It was possible.” Felix was startled, “Originally?”

“Gospel gods can indeed deduce the empty door to the gospel.” Deya bluntly said, “But it needs energy.”

“In Gospel, I achieved this by mobilizing 95% of the country’s computing power, and it took a full 72 hours. But Fanxing, I can’t have this resource, and I don’t have the magic power to drive the gods.”

“But Yaxiu has the source crystal. Although I don’t know where he got it from, he does have the source crystal that drives the gods. I originally planned to join him and go back immediately.”

“It’s not impossible now,” the witch thought for a while, “but the gods of the Gospel can’t do anything, and it will take at least three years to calculate.”

Hearing this sentence, Felix also gave up. They just robbed the golden apple, let alone three years, three months, the Master Fanxing may find them, it is better to continue to promote the Tianguang plan.

Seeing that there were no other questions, Di Ya said, “You go out first, I have something to tell Jian Ji.”

When the Confused Diva and Duke Evil left, Dia sat on the edge of the bed and motioned Sonia to squat down, otherwise she would have to hold her head up and speak.

“I lied just now, I can still use the computing power of the Gospel, if necessary, I can create an empty door to the Gospel in three days. If there is an unsolvable crisis, we can take Ash’s body first. Leave and find a way to rescue him from the kingdom of stars later.”

The village girl was startled, “Then you...” Before she finished speaking, she understood.

“If we want to use the Four Pillars Sect, we must never give them another choice.” Di Ya said, “We can’t shatter the sky, and the Four Pillars Sect is our best weapon.”

Sonia nodded: “I understand.”

“Did you want to kill me when you summoned the guardian spirit just now?” Diya asked suddenly. Sonia looked at her for a while and said slowly, “It’s not just you.”

“I won’t ask you what is the most unacceptable thing.” Deya said calmly: “You just need to know that the Four Pillars of God just want to use Yaxiu after all, and once Yaxiu loses value, they won’t have any concerns.”

“Now, the only people who can save Ash, Aunt Borkin, and Uncle Harvey are the two of us.” Although the village girl didn’t care much about the latter two, she nodded, “I know.”

“So no matter what you think, you have to wait for Ash and the others to wake up.” The witch stretched out her pinky finger: “During this time, we must cooperate sincerely, okay?”

Jian Ji pulled her hook, “Okay.”

Deya held Sonia’s hand, and the two walked out of the bedroom like sisters, and walked down the stairs to the hall together. Everyone stood together, welcoming them with their eyes.

Seeing the relationship between the two of them as close sisters, Daidalos didn’t respond, Trozan blinked, Felix was a little confused, Claire looked like a broken worldview, and more people looked at the two. In the bedroom deep in the building, admiration for the viewing seat was written on his face.

Can two queens fall in love with each other even when they are asleep? So powerful?

“Tonight, in addition to Tianguang’s plan to complete the first step in the thrilling, another honored seat returns to her loyal Four Pillars religion.” Daedalus knelt down on one knee, “Congratulations to the queen!”

“Congratulations to the queen!” the crowd shouted in unison. Dedalus said, “Your honor, please grant your honorable title.”

“Although I’m used to being a queen...” Deya’s lovely girly voice echoed in the hall, “but now I’m going to be hostile to the authorities, and I’m going to destroy the greatest wonder of this country, to the point of causing unimaginable chaos and disaster. Like This kind of character image has a unified title on my side...”

Deya clenched Sonia’s hand and said, “My code name is Black and White Witch.”

Chapter 817: sisters

“You can’t decompose meteorites?”

In the hall, the people of the Four Pillars Sect gathered around the meteorite like a dragon egg on the table, Sonia asked in surprise.

“Mainly because I didn’t dare to break it down violently.”

Even though she said that, Dedalus couldn’t hide her shame, “and the material of the meteorite is very strange, conventional bludgeoningcuttingcorrosionhigh temperaturebaking and other means can’t destroy the meteorite, we have been looking for the meteorite. Effective spell.”

“What about those church nobles?” Sonia showed no mercy, “You can modify their memory, and you should be able to find out how to deal with meteorites from their minds, right?”

“They won’t destroy the meteorite.” Chaos Diva shook her head: “They master a ritual miracle and can get the golden apple directly from the meteorite. According to their memory, if the meteorite is destroyed, the golden apple may escape.”

“That ritual miracle—”

“The Blessing Link of the Stars must be used.” Daedalus was exasperated, like a seal whose food was taken away, “but in this way, the golden apple will be 100% teleported back to the sky! You’re a chicken thief, and even the slaves under his control are on guard, for fear that they will have a way to steal the golden apple!”

Jian Ji and the witch looked at each other, as if they could hear each other’s thoughts: Dharma Master Fanxing is so cautious, most of them have been trapped by the Four Pillars God before...

“The only good news is that the meteorite has a very good protective effect on the golden apple. Even if we can’t decompose the meteorite, we can hide it and preserve it. As long as the golden apple cannot return to the starry sky, it can weaken the energy of the sky.”

“Although the perfect plan was made as much as possible, the information we know has always been superficial, so there are so many accidents.” The first beauty under the stars sighed: “Especially we have to act in secret.”

“We... are too arrogant.” This is the biggest weakness of the Four Pillars of Stars.

As the price of hiding for many years, their penetration into the kingdom of stars is too shallow. Although elite members can guarantee the existence of the four pillars of the stars, they are also limited to the development of the four pillars of the stars. They can obtain many secrets, but they cannot know it. The key details in the secret.

Just like meteorites, they can judge the importance of meteorites and golden apples at the strategic level of the church, but since no member has participated in the implementation of the church, they never imagined that meteorites could become a difficulty.

The only way to avoid this situation is to expand the number of members. Talent is the greatest resource and an indispensable tool.

Sonia blinked her eyes, and suddenly realized that the gap between reality and the movie is very big. In the movie, there are many “high-end atmosphere and high-grade” secret organizations like Fanxing Sizhu, and the leader of every secret organization is Zhizhu He is in control, predicts things like a god, can easily know what other people are saying to themselves when they take a bath, dare to confront the authorities, and even deduce the next step of the enemy, just like holding a script.

But in fact, there is no such possibility. If you want to know the intelligence, you have to be followed by someone, then the number of your members (even the peripheral members) will increase exponentially, and the exposure risk will also increase simultaneously.

False secret organization: issue challenge letters, engage in big scenes, and hide and seek with the official.

The real secret organization: they cut off their hands and feet, grabbed them, brainwashed them, and then let them go. "You have done a good job."

Diya climbed onto the table, stood on tiptoe and patted Daedalus' head: "Let's leave it to the omniscient lady witch."

In addition to expanding the number of members, there is another way to avoid accidents – that is to have a prophet!

One of the important reasons why the ghost prophet is feared by the gods is that Vichy is a demigod of prophecy! Although Dia is not a demigod of prophecy, she can use the gods of the gospel to a limited extent!

It is no exaggeration to say that the current configuration of the four pillars of stars is already the best in the Six Kingdoms.

After all, the God of Gospel is the trump card of the omniscient weaver. Now it is equivalent to the omniscient weaver who is best at planning and the four-pillar * who is best at conspiracy together to deal with the stars. How can ordinary people endure such a great blessing?

Under the expectation of everyone, Diya took out a small hand mirror and asked, "Magic mirror, how to open meteorites? How to eat golden apples?"

After a few seconds, the little white-haired girl smiled slightly: "That's really a coincidence."

She looked around for a week and explained, "First of all, the meteorite cannot be unraveled casually, because the meteorite is a device that imprisons the golden apple. Once opened, the golden apple will escape into the virtual realm and escape."

Deedalus glanced at the golden light in the meteorite: "Can you really run?"

"Not only will it run, but it will also curse." Deya said: "If the golden apple stays in one place for a long time, it will attract the curse of the virtual realm. This golden apple is because of the curse of the "Time Knife", so will fall."

"The miracle of the King of Time, "The Sword of Time"?" Felix blurted out, "The sword of time that can cut off history?"

“Yes, it seems that you should have heard about the inheritance of the King of Time.” Di Ya nodded:
“The time knife can cut off all the history of existence, it may be a day, it may be a year, but the golden apple attracts The curse of the sky will not be interrupted, which means that the curse of the time sword will always be slashed in the sky, directly cutting off all the key history of the sky.”

Slashing history suddenly sounds useless, but if you get a rare magic spirit in that history, your magic spirit will suddenly disassociate from you after being cut off from history, not to mention memory, magic power and experience. .

The most tragic accident Felix has ever heard of is the one day that the bi-wing magician was beheaded by the time knife, and on that day he happened to experience a vortex adventure, and the magic power was instantly cut off, and his silver emptiness was out of thin air. half of it, and there is no way to fix it.

A time sword that can cut off a day is already very dangerous, and a time sword curse that can persist is simply unimaginable.

“The golden apple didn’t fall down by accident, its fall is a part of the sky.” Diya jumped off the table and sat on the soft chair. “The golden apple has two characteristics: spontaneous escape and virtual curse. .In order to prevent the golden apples from harming the canopy, the golden apples must be projected to the ground from time to time, reset its curse time, and then send it back to the canopy.”

“But once it leaves the sky, the golden apple will escape to the virtual world at any time, so specific measures must be taken.” Diya pointed to the meteorite, “The golden apple is not trapped in the meteorite, it likes to stay in the meteorite, and Like a cat that likes to get into boxes.”

“Do you know what knowledge likes most?” the witch asked herself: “It’s a wish.” “Every meteorite is made up of wishes.”

“Tianmu collects your wishes to the starry sky, condenses the meteorite shell to wrap the golden apple, and let it fall to the earth. It takes spiritual miracles to safely decompose meteorites.”

“But.” Deya looked at Sonia, “We have an easier way. Sword girl, do you still have those magic spirits?”

The Sword Saint stretched out his claws and pondered for a moment, then summoned a one-winged magic spirit, “Is it supposed to use the ‘Fulfilling Wish’ magic spirit here?”

They don’t know whether the meteorite miracle of Dharma Master Fanxing is self-created or learned by stealth, but they themselves have the inheritance of the most powerful wish faction in the world – the wishing pool of the illusion master of Thousand Wishes!

Although Ash took away all the three-winged and four-winged magic spirits, they also took some low-level magic spirits for commemorative research, and they did not expect it to come in handy here.

The effect of the wish-fulfilling magic spirit is very single, it can only be used to dissolve the power of wishes, and it must be used in conjunction with other magic spirits. In addition to most spiritual miracles, it can also make the magic spirit more obedient; and it is also a necessary magic spirit for the miracle "wish come true", but even the gods of the gospel cannot construct the theoretical magic formula of this miracle.

"Come together, Jian Ji." "But won't the golden apple escape?"

"Don't worry, if you really run away, it will be considered to have achieved the goal." Deya smiled: "However, it is very simple for us to eat golden apples – it is afraid of us."

Sonia had no choice but to touch the meteorite with the witch. When they used the wish-fulfilling magic spirit, the meteorite unexpectedly emitted wisps of light, and a childish voice sounded in the hall. Listen carefully to the voice that seemed to be making a wish.

When the meteorite disappeared, only a golden apple remained on the table.

It stayed there quietly, without any idea of escaping, Diya looked around and suddenly said, "Sister Wuji, try to touch it."

Trozan didn't falter at all, he stretched out his hand to grab it, but his palm passed through the golden apple, as if it was just a ball of golden light.

"Sure enough."

When Diya stretched out her hand, everyone saw that the golden apple trembled slightly, and was easily caught by Diya.

"Sleeping in desire, afraid of love." Diya threw the golden apple to Sonia, the village girl was in a hurry, and finally caught the golden apple.

She clearly felt that the golden apple was trembling, and when she looked closely, she could faintly see the pink snake-like pattern entwining the golden apple.

"When someone who has love is watching, the golden apple cannot run away, and it can only be touched by those who are in love." The witch said: "Although there are other means, but you and I eat it directly. The easiest way."

“Or,” Deya looked at Felix, “Felix, do you have someone you like?”

Among the people present, only the three of them did not have the blessing of the stars. In order to prevent the golden apple from flowing back into the sky, the eater could only choose from the three of them.

“No, no.” Felix shook his head again and again: “The two nobles don’t need to think about me, and I haven’t been to the sanctuary yet.”

“What’s good and what’s bad about eating it?” Sonia asked. “It’s not bad for us, only good.”

The village girl thought for a while, then threw the golden apple back to the little queen: “Then eat it.”

Diya smiled: “You are already at a great disadvantage now, why don’t you seize every opportunity to become stronger?”

“Whether it’s the remedial plan or the decomposition of the meteorite tonight, it’s all your credit, followed by the chaotic singer, I’m not even in the top three.” Sonia said calmly: “Even Felix is better than me. Qualification to eat this apple.”

“As for the disadvantage...” She smiled slightly, “Have you forgotten that I am now the “Queen” of the Four Pillars Sect.”

Diya narrowed her eyes and said with her hands on her hips, “Who isn’t.”

“In other words, although it is very regrettable, I really can’t stay in Fanxing.” The sword saint stretched out his claws and sighed, reaching out and rubbing the little queen’s head: “When Yaxiu comes back, I will have to send it with him. live with you.”

“Witch, won’t you not welcome me?”

Seeing Sonia condescendingly looking down at her, Diya’s face turned dark. That’s right!

In fact, the biggest obstacle preventing Jian Ji and Ya Xiu from being together is not fate, it is Ya Xiu! Ya Xiu always does not want Jian Ji to betray Fanxing for him, so they have the possibility of a long-distance relationship!

Now Jian Ji has taken the initiative to become the leader of the cult, and her career development is exactly the same as Yaxiu himself. No matter what, Yaxiu has to protect Jianji from Fanxing. There is nothing that can prevent them from being together in reality!

This accident has changed everything, Sonia can't return to tranquility, she can only wander around the world with Ashe with regret!

Looking at Diya herself, she can't be separated from other witches until now, even if she owns a country, she can't even kiss Asu!

She is the underdog!

Seeing the little queen's face bulging with anger, Sonia laughed, squatted down and explained to her in a low voice: "It's more meaningful for you to become stronger than me, if you master a little more of the gospel, you can rescue Aya earlier. build."

Diya was startled, she looked down at the golden apple for a while, then suddenly raised it and said, "Let's eat together."

"Can we eat separately?"

"No, but if we eat it at the same time, we can get the same effect, and the benefit is twice as good." Diya said honestly: "Actually, golden apples are originally meant for couples to eat."

Sonia looked at her with a complicated expression, "Don't you think your statement is weird?"

"Then don't say it!" Diya said in a low voice, "Can't you just treat it as two sisters eating apples together?"

"Who's with you..." Sonia just raised her voice, but pressed back under the little queen's gaze, "...It's a sister."

"Do you know?" Diya suddenly said, "Actually, I'm older than you, and I'm your sister." "...In every sense, I don't want to be your sister."

“Very good, I already have too many sisters, and I don’t want another sister.”

In the eyes of the Sword Princess and the Witch, they despise each other; but in the eyes of others, it is the beautiful and sassy red-haired Swordsman and the lovely and sweet white-haired Demons who eat the golden apple together.

This rose-colored composition will be deeply imprinted on the hearts of the believers of the Four Pillars of God, and many even faintly feel that they are witnessing a turning point in history.

“No time.” “Huh?”

Claire folded her hands together, Xiafei’s cheeks were full of longing and heartbeat: “I think I believe in love again.”

Trozan was silent for a moment, silently staying away from the messenger of natural disasters.

Chapter 818: I want to see a river of blood

Falling in love with youkanshu.com, the manual for the artisan

It is not so much an apple as it is a mass of air.

Almost as soon as the lips touched the golden apple, the golden apple melted and flowed into the mouths of Sonia and the witch.

Then Sonia's soul floated up naturally, and floated into the deep darkness. But she was not alone, because Diya was by her side.

Although they were in the dark, Sonia's soul had a purple outline, while Diya's soul suddenly looked black and white, and when it fluttered, it reflected colors. They looked at each other with no sorrow or joy in their hearts. The golden air flow formed by the apple is wrapped around it, and it floats up silently.

cluck cluck cluck cluck...

When they got out of the darkness, they realized that they were in the deep sea just now. Above the deep sea, there was boundless thick white mist, and their souls unwittingly spread out their silver wings and flew up happily.

Vaguely, they seemed to see many giants in the high sky of the white mist. Those giants also seemed to sense them faintly, but not only did they dare not approach, but they hurriedly fled away.

Following the guidance of the golden apple, they flew away from the white mist all the way through the still golden ocean. They looked up and saw the golden torrential rain.

The rain fell from top to bottom, dripping through their souls. They vaguely saw a white four-legged creature standing on the mainland, walking on the golden sea, they flew up all the way, and the golden wings spread out quietly.

The golden apple guides them into the Liujin River, but time is the movement itself. As long as there is movement, they must be in the torrent of time. Even in this state, they cannot escape the influence of the Liujin River. Seeing that they will be washed away by the Liujin River, they Suddenly, the colorful wings unfolded and disappeared directly from the Liujin River.

In the next second, they appeared in the distant airspace, following the guidance of the golden apple, and flew to the Ruby Mountain that was always present but inaccessible at the farthest point in the sky.

Meanwhile, in a dream bubble.

It feels so heavy to jump up, is the affix here increased gravity?

I have said many times that your * have grown again. Strange, you should have stopped growing. Is it because you found that Tamashi is bigger than you, so you are not convinced that you should not compare yourself too much, and compare yourself with... um

Siflyn, who was studying affixes while walking, stopped, and looked at the three team members behind who were standing still and staring at the sky.

The little bat also looked up and saw nothing, except the ever-present Ruby Mountain. What are you looking at? The three looked at each other, An Nan said: I feel something familiar flew past.

Tamashi: I feel that something dangerous is flying past.

Freya: I feel something very annoying flying past.

Jian Ji and the witch were naturally unaware of the discussions in the dream bubble. Following the guidance of the golden apple, they gradually approached the Ruby Mountain.

As if passing through an invisible bubble, they floated to the base of the Ruby Mountain. They looked up and saw countless stars surrounding the Ruby Mountain, and the stars connected to each other to form a huge net that completely enveloped the Ruby Mountain. .

They continued to float upwards, flying over the silent Ruby Mountain, reaching the summit of Ruby Mountain very easily.

But the top of Ruby Mountain was empty.

The airflow of the golden apple hovered for a moment on the top of the mountain, just as the elementary school students returning home were confused when they found no one at home. Eventually, as the airflow of the golden apple dissipated quietly, their souls seemed to have weight again and were pulled back suddenly.

Sonia opened her eyes and saw Deya, who was as dazed as herself.

They turned their heads, and the people of the Four Pillars were still watching them, with curiosity and anticipation in their eyes. It's been a while since you ate the golden apple. Daedalus replied: What happened?

What should have happened. Sonia held her forehead: But my memory is very vague... I just remember that I went to some places with the witch and then came back.

It was a reward from the virtual realm just now.

Diya said: Eating the golden apple is equivalent to liberating the knowledge that has been banned by the gods. As a thank you, the virtual world seems to directly allow our souls to obtain an adventure, but in this adventure, thinking and memory are obstacles, Therefore, the virtual world only retains the function of our listening and feeling.

Trozan asked curiously: Is there any change? The Sword Princess and the Witch looked inside her soul, and her face was full of joy. My fluctuating swordsmanship spirit was promoted to Four Wings.

My eyewitness magic spirit is also.

Daedalus pondered and said: So, the church can stably produce the three-winged four-winged magic tube through the golden apple recycling machine. The treasury cannot be so full...

But the price is the risk of losing the golden apple. Diya said: Compared with the cost of making the golden apple, no amount of three-winged and four-winged magic spirits can make up for it.

Moreover, upgrading the magic spirit is only the reward for eating the golden apple, and the reward for returning the golden apple to the virtual world is...

Diya unfolded her phantom wings, but the crowd didn't react immediately. When Sonia also unfolded her phantom wings, they finally recognized it—Sonia's sword-colored phantom wings were condensed in half!

But just a few hours ago, Sonia's sword-colored Void Wing had only one feather!

Except for the few sanctuaries of Daedalus and Trozan, others do not know what this reward means. For legendary magicians, it is quite troublesome to condense variegated phantom wings, while condensing solid-color phantom wings is basically necessary. It takes ten to twenty years to accumulate, and maybe it will not be able to condense pure color virtual wings until death.

On Ruby Mountain, the country with the highest proportion of pure-color legends is the Blood Moon—the blood moon legend has a long lifespan and can spend a lot of time dyeing and washing!

This small half-solid-color virtual wing saves them at least a few years of effort, and it is the most important years for the legendary magician!

At this point, the first phase of the Tianguang Project has been completed successfully. Daedalus will return the brainwashed church nobles later, and the others have also left one after another through various channels.

.....I will be exploring this city for the next few days.

How can it be 100% Felix asked.

Time, the witch blinks, if the time is extended to 1000 years, it can even play a 1000% effect – predicting the future is not a problem.

So, I want to explore everywhere. Diya raised her head and looked at the first beauty under the starry sky, the chaotic singer, can you arrange it?

My firm has always wanted to cultivate a child star. Deedalus clapped her hands gently: If only I were married, I would definitely die happily if I had such a lovely daughter as Mozo – I don't mind having an illegitimate daughter.

Let's be a child actress. Dia looked at Sonia: Na Yaxiu... Of course Felix should take care of her. Sonia said.

The little queen nodded and said to the village girl: I usually live on Felix's side, can you accept it?

You can't do anything anyway. Sonia is calm, and you care more about Ash than Felix.

Can you think so? It's best for Diya to nod her head. Don't worry, the most I want to do is to let Liz get close to Ash, so you won't even be jealous of Liz, right?

You are really... Deya is also speechless: I'm staying here tonight with Felix, do you want to stay with me too?

No, I want to go back to school. Sonia stood up and said: Miss Lena, can you take me back

My pleasure. Deedalus rose to her feet.

Felix, give me a second. Sonia said something, then turned to look at Deya: "Witch, although I... not really, I just don't welcome you."

But I have to admit, I saw that you were really relieved. Jian Ji said, "It's not because you helped the Four Pillars, but because you love him too."

In the country of stars, at least the two of us sincerely wanted to save him. Although I was firm in the past, I would be a little scared to be alone, but now...

The two of us, the witch said earnestly: It's a thousand troops... It feels good to have a younger sister. The village girl smiled.

I'm the elder sister. The little queen's nose twitches. See you tomorrow, witch. Well, see you tomorrow.

Felix rushed over, took the lead in front of Deya, wiped off the rice grains on Ash's face with his fingers, and put it directly into his mouth: "Mozu, can I feed you?"

The witch looked at her, her mouth deflated: I'm full, I want to brush my teeth and take a bath! Good!

Felix nodded, watching the witch and Ash stand up together and walked towards the bathroom on the second floor, hurriedly rushed over and hugged Ash, you don't need to be seated when you wash.

I want someone to serve...I serve you! It just so happens that I want to take a bath too!

The little white-haired girl narrowed her eyes and stared at her, seeing Felix panic in her heart, the former muttered, "Okay.

Felix, Felix!

The witch ran in front of her, closed her eyes and opened her mouth, did I brush it clean? I'm not used to the toothbrush here!

This should be the Liz personality in their mouths... Felix breathed a sigh of relief, observed the witch's neat and white teeth, and boldly touched the witch's head: wipe it clean, well done!

Hehe. The witch jumped into the bathtub happily, splashing water on the ground. Seeing this scene, Felix also relaxed and went into the bathtub to take a bath with her.

Felix, why did you join the Four Pillars!

Because I can only join Four Pillars, and my mother is also Four Pillars.

The little girl tilted her head: Then why do you have Ling Yin? Are you familiar with Yaxiu?

I don't know, Felix shrugged: Could it be that Ash can easily trust people?

Hmm, um, um... The witch pondered: Rather than saying that he trusts others easily, it is better to say that he seems to be very gullible in bad people... Felix, do you like his bad people too?

You are half right. Which half do you guess?

Seeing the distressed appearance of the witch, Felix chuckled and picked up her hair: Come, let me wash your hair, remember to close your eyes and don't let the shampoo in.

it is good.

It would be great if I had a sister like yours. She said softly. I am the elder sister! Okay, you are the elder sister. Then we can sleep together tonight, so I can't sleep alone.

Of course you can. Felix turned on the shower and washed away the bubbles in the witch's hair: we'll buy you clothes tomorrow, okay?

That's great! By the way, I have one more thing I want to ask Felix about. What's more, I usually have to explore around with Diva Chaos, so...

so

So, when I'm not around, if Kenji sneaks up on Ash...you have to tell me in time, Felix.

In the small meeting of the seal owners, Deya said while eating: Gospel can only exert a maximum effect of 60% at present, and the farther it is from me, the weaker its power, but as long as I take it all over the Galaworld, then it will In Galax, he can exert about 80% of his power. In the meeting about Felix, Felix is not qualified to speak. If you have an opinion on me, don't let me do it...

Second Miss Fusloda complained wildly in her heart. The Sword Saint with her claws outstretched her claws and looked at her silently, without saying a word. I saw the little white-haired girl walk over and stretch out her hands to the red-haired Sword Maiden. Sonia crouched down and followed the flute Ya hugged each other. Seeing this scene, Felix's nose was a little sore for some reason, but when he turned his head, he saw that Dedalus' expression was quite subtle, thinking that Miss Lena, who was a tactile touch, couldn't understand this kind of sisters are better than sisters. intimacy.

When Felix accompanies Sonia to the car outside, Daedalus obviously started the car, but Sonia held her hand and looked at her calmly. Miss Vosloda felt inexplicable, but Suddenly, she felt the sword saint stretching out her claws to write in her palm.

Noticing the red light in Sonia's eyes, Felix naturally nodded again and again, eager to swear allegiance and shout out that there is only one queen in my heart. When the car left, Felix wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, She thought that it would be too difficult for her to be a nanny. But she didn't worry too much. After all, Yaxiu was in a coma, and the witch was a little girl. Where else could they go off the rails?

When Felix returned to the hall, his eyes suddenly darkened – Deya was sitting in Ash's arms, manipulating Ash to feed himself. It's just feeding, feeding is normal, it's not deviant! It's just wiping your mouth, wiping your mouth It's normal, not out of line!

There were only rice grains on his face, and it was Yaxiu who had rice grains on his face. Ten minutes later, in the bathroom of the villa, Felix stood in a daze under the shower. He felt so tired. I haven't been tired these days. Felix's fingers gently passed through the white hair, stroking the soft scalp. Seeing the white bubbles in the hair, her nervous, excited, and restless heart gradually calmed down. From the bottom of my heart, I want to get close to the witch.

Felix was stunned for a moment, and immediately remembered that the witch traveled from the kingdom of the gospel to the kingdom of stars alone. Even if she has legendary combat power, even if she has the * of the gospel, even if she is the magic seat of the Four Pillars...

But she is also a little girl who travels alone without any support. Alas, Jianzuo is actually afraid of such a poor and brave little girl, really...

Felix shook his head to Sonia silently in his heart. The witch turned her head, and her emerald eyes stared at Felix. Felix's first reaction was that Liz's personality didn't seem to call Ash's name, but it's calling Dad... Her second reaction was, why didn't she obediently get killed by the Vanderbilt gang on the train? That way she wouldn't use Ash as a shield, and Ash would naturally not live in her house, much less triggered so many events...

More importantly, so that she doesn't have to be caught between the two, wondering who to swear allegiance to! Ya Xiu Xi Si!

At this moment, besides the Sword Princess and the Witch, there is no one in this world who hopes that Ash will wake up the most than Felix – get up, I want to see the blood flow into the river, you * little horn!

Chapter 819: Demigod Exa

“The limit of effort and talent is the sanctuary. The legendary realm of magic has nothing to do with how much time you spend, how much talent you have, and how much inspiration you have. There is only one reason why you can step into the legendary realm – you are a legend.”

In the Rose Manor in the Kingdom of the Stars, the magicians sat in rows and listened to the lectures of the demigods.

“If it takes time and talent to advance to a legend, then all the angels and all the gods will definitely make themselves legendary.” Vichy, wearing a maid skirt, stood in front of the whiteboard and wrote on the blackboard, “Actually, Studying other spells is a low-cost option, even in a superior environment with abundant spells, a demigod would need to study hard for twenty years in order to brush an unfamiliar spell into the sanctuary.”

“But it’s impossible.” The demon maid said seriously: “No demigod would waste so much time on non-major spells, unless it is completely rotten and waiting for death, demigods will spend at least 30% of their time studying themselves. the main technique.”

“Why?” Curious baby Ash asked, “I’ve become a demigod, can’t I still enjoy it?”

“Because the fifth floor of the virtual world is very, very dangerous.” Vichy took out a mobile phone: “I recently played a mobile game, and there is a concept in it that is very suitable for the fifth floor of the virtual world – “version update”.”

“Just like our magicians can only go up and can’t go back, the same is true of the virtual world, always moving forward and never going backward. In general, the level of the virtual world keeps spiraling upward. For example, the sea of knowledge 10,000 years ago is actually Much weaker than now.”

“However, the impact of this “version update” is seriously delayed in the lower four layers. For example, when a new magic faction is created, it will take one or two hundred years to spread in the lower four layers. Master projection is known.”

“However, on the fifth floor of the virtual realm, the “version update” was shortened to,” Vichy raised three fingers, “300 days.”

“Unlike the creatures in the virtual world, every “version update”, all demigods have to face challenges. If you can’t maintain a relatively leading position in majoring in magic, serious injury or even death is your destiny.”

“However, as long as you can be half a step ahead of the virtual world in a field – even a very niche field – within 300 days, you will most likely be able to survive the challenge.”

Harvey asked, “God is also so busy?”

“Different gods can avoid challenges by hiding in the kingdom of heaven, which is why there are demigods who turn to gods.” Vichy said with a smile, “By the way, I used to hide in the kingdom of heaven in my dreams to avoid challenges.”

“And the Lord of God can create the golden apples that monopolize knowledge. Each golden apple represents the Lord’s leadership in the virtual world. Even if there is no kingdom of heaven, challenge is not a problem for the Lord of God.”

The maid pointed to herself, "If I go back to the fifth floor of the virtual realm now, I will basically be dead, let alone lead the virtual realm, I have not caught up with the new version of the soul spell and prophecy spell, and I am not ahead. The innovation of the virtual world."

"Under this kind of pressure to survive, demigods can't even study major techniques, let alone develop other techniques."

Ash objected: "But you have a lot of magic skills in the legendary realm."

Vichy took a deep look at Ash, "You know my body very well, Master."

"Of course." Rose held the afternoon tea on the coffee table and said casually, "I have compiled your physical data and physiological habits into a report and put it on his desk."

Ya Xiu was startled: "That blue folder? I haven't..."

“So the photos you took when I was taking a bath two days ago were used for the report?” Vichy said, “I thought you were interested in me.”

Ash: “...I’ll never look at that folder in my life.” Vichy spread his hands to Rose: “This master is so hard to serve.”

“It’s good to get used to it.” Rose walked behind Ash, stretched out her hand and pressed it along the position of Ash’s shoulder blades and acromion. Ash’s body was jolted, and she couldn’t help looking at the necromancer next to her: “Harvey, Rose’s technique is as good as your necromantic massage!!”

“Impossible.” “If you press me, I can judge again...”

“I don’t have time to give Alice a soft body massage, so I’ll have your turn?” Harvey rolled him a glance, “I won’t have a say in my eyes until you become a corpse.”

“I can stay still!”

Vichy tilted his head: “I’m also a necromancer, and I’m also good at deconstructing the human body. Why doesn’t the master ask me for a massage?”

Ash glanced at the maid, "Rationally, I refuse to have physical contact with you." "Emotionally?"

"Emotionally, when I was touched by you, I felt like Lala Fatty to be slaughtered. Although I felt like a corpse when I was touched by Harvey, it was better than Lala Fatty."

"Master, your prejudice against me is really too deep." The pink-haired maid threw a wink at Ash, "Master knows even what techniques I am proficient in, but I don't know that I already belong to you, from soul to body. ..."

"Alright, alright, let's talk about everyone going to vomit," Ash said, "Why do you have so many legendary spells?"

"Because I am a legend of two generations." Vichy said the answer directly: "There are two hard conditions to achieve a legendary spell. First, you need to build a spell system with this spell. For example, if you want to achieve a swordsmanship legend, you must The magic system must be based on swordsmanship."

"Second, you have to experience a legendary event that has a huge impact."

Noticing the confusion in the eyes of the younger generation, Vichy thought for a while, and then said, "Actually, it's just like an exam. I can have so many legendary spells because I have taken many exams."

Igula asked: "Isn't it possible to fight to the death?" "If the impact is huge, it can be." "Why is the impact of events related to the promotion of spells?"

The maid sighed and looked at Asia pitifully: "Master, shall we go to the soundproof room to play? Lectures are so tiring, it's obviously self-evident common sense..."

"Come on, I don't understand either." Ash said without mercy.

"I think about it, because I became a demigod in my first life. If you think about it carefully, it happened thousands of years ago. I have forgotten many misunderstandings I encountered when I was growing up..." Vichy reached out and took Yaxiu and just ate it. A bite of the cake, while eating and thinking in the sight of Ash's disgust, "...Well, yes, it should be like this."

"Perhaps the first three realms have misunderstood you. The realm of magic does not refer to "the degree of your mastery of this technique", but "to what extent you have achieved through this technique"."

The magicians were startled.

The state of magic does not refer to the degree of mastery of knowledge, but the degree of the magician himself?

“For example, you are very proficient in a silver miracle, even a legendary magician can’t use it better than you, so in the use of this miracle, are you silver or legendary?”

Seeing that everyone was enlightened, Vichy continued: “You stepped into the silver realm through the resonance of knowledge and the virtual realm, thus opening the virtual realm channel to the sea of knowledge. Then the knowledge recognized by the virtual realm is the knowledge you have mastered. , or yourself?”

Igula replied, “It’s the combination of me and knowledge.”

“So, if you want to become a legend, in essence, you want the virtual world to admit that “the combination of you and knowledge” has reached the legendary level.” Vichy said: “Understood, you want to let the virtual world see your achievements and recognize you. level! But to show your results, you have to take the test and get a score that satisfies the virtual world!”

“You have actually gone through many exams before going from zero to silver to gold to sanctuary. In terms of numbers, from zero to silver, you have to pass a hundred ordinary people’s competition; from silver to gold, you have to pass a hundred An examination for the competition of silver sorcerers; and so on from gold to sanctuary.”

“It’s just that the first three exams are very common in reality and in the virtual world, and you will encounter them as you increase your strength. However, to become a legend in the sanctuary is equivalent to passing the exam of a hundred sanctuary magicians, but whether in the past or Now, events of this level don’t happen very often.”

“Events that can cover a hundred sacred places are basically epics that can change the situation and turn the world upside down. All who pass through are legendary, so this realm is called “legend”.”

Hearing this, the magicians finally came to their senses.

They have always thought that the magic state is automatically upgraded to the level of how much knowledge they have mastered. Once they exceed it, they will be recognized as automatic miracles by the virtual world.

But in fact, the virtual realm is an exam from beginning to end. Even if they really master knowledge beyond the current level, they must take the legendary level test to prove to the virtual realm that they are already a legend before they can be promoted!

Suddenly, Ash remembered something, and watched Vichy say a word: "Road to Origin?"

Wei Xi smiled and nodded: "In the past, the path of origin can indeed allow the magician to advance in both the magic power and the realm. But the current path of origin is not good, the exam paper with insufficient questions, although the virtual realm has to let you pass. , but will not recognize your qualifications."

In this world, where is the most suitable place for a magician to take an exam? There is only a virtual world, no one!

Magicians from all over the world will gather in the virtual realm. A country may not have a hundred sanctuaries, but there are more than a thousand sanctuaries in the distant airspace!

According to the records of "Huguang Handbook""Time Handbook""Ghost Handbook", the previous path of origin was well known, and the competition was fierce, which naturally met the examination conditions. Therefore, in the distant past, the path of origin may be the only way to go. It is the most orthodox and successful promotion method for a warlock!

It's just that with the passage of time, the road of origin has gradually become tattered, and no longer has the function of examination, and even the "Bright Avenue" favored by the demigods has become the "smuggling trail" in the mouth of the magician.

"So," Igula asked, "Does magicians also need to take an exam when they step into the realm of the gods?"

"Wrong." Vichy corrected: "It is to let the virtual world admit that you need an exam to step into the realm of the gods. In fact, there must be legendary magicians with demigod-level magic realm, but before the test, they will not be able to. Acknowledged by the virtual world."

Igula was a little confused: "But even the legendary test is so rare, isn't it a rare test to step into the realm of the gods?"

"No." Vichy shook his head: "Compared to the legendary exam that requires active search, the demigod exam can be said to be within reach. As long as the legendary magician discovers the exam method, they can take the exam immediately."

"Furthermore," the maid looked at Yaxiu: "The demigod exam is also the origin path from Ruby Mountain to the fifth floor of the virtual realm."

“As long as you pass the exam, not only can you be recognized by the virtual realm as a demigod, but you can also step into the realm of gods and enter the fifth layer of the virtual realm.”

Everyone was startled, Yaxiu swallowed, and asked, “The content of the demigod exam... what is it?”

Under the expectant or nervous gaze of the magicians, Vichy smiled brightly: “I don’t know.”

Chapter 820: angel hunt begins

Demon Maid’s answer is quite outrageous.

She has been a demigod in both lives, she must have gone through the demigod exam twice, and walked the path of origin twice, how could she not know?!

However, Yaxiu didn't question it. He pondered for a moment and asked, "I have something I've been wanting to ask you for a long time... Do you still remember Golden Fish Colorful Tail Pixie Dream Secret Poison?"

Vichy shook his head: "I don't know." Sure enough.

After Vichy's resurrection, Ash did not notice an increase in the number of people infected with the secret poison, so he had some expectations.

"You actually know the secret poison, that's right." The maid blinked: "The secret poison is a very important resource, you should cherish it. Like when I was reborn once, almost all the secret poison was lost, but the advantage is that I can be infected with the secret poison again. poison."

Yaxiu felt incredible: "Why did you lose it?"

"Because it was taken back by the virtual world." Vichy said, "Don't you understand? This is not the knowledge that the virtual world allows the magician to know, so for us, it will be 'poison'."

Ash nodded thoughtfully, and suddenly asked, "Then do you want to know?"

"I don't want to now." The maid shook her head again and again: "Actually, if I want to know, I can deduce it myself from the details of my memory, but I don't need it now, why should I be infected with the secret poison?"

"Wait," Igula immediately noticed the loophole in her words: "So you can infer the content of the demigod exam now?"

"Yes." "Axiu." The fraudster looked at the cult leader.

"Miss Vichy," Igula asked, "did you not execute the order because it conflicts with your highest-priority low-level order?"

"The three bottom-level orders with the highest priority are, first, do not do anything to hurt Yaxiu and take the initiative to protect Yaxiu; second, do not allow to hurt meHarveyRoseFei without violating the first rule. Li, Niya and others; three, try to protect yourself without violating the first and second rules." Igula asked: "Which order does it conflict with?"

"All three are in conflict," said the maid.

"In other words, just knowing the content of the demigod exam will cause harm to us." Ash pondered: "She said just now that 'as long as the legendary magician is willing, you can take the demigod exam at any time'... The demigod exam, it is very likely that it is a special machine that will be triggered immediately once it is known!"

The magicians looked at each other, and Harvey suddenly said: "I noticed that you have been talking about 'the fifth layer of the virtual realm', but didn't the demigods name the fifth layer of the virtual realm? Like the Sea of Knowledge, Time Continent and so on. name."

"There is a name." "But you can't name it?"

"Yes." Vichy said: "You better not make associations, because the name of the fifth floor of the virtual world is related to the truth of the demigod exam. Although you are dead, I am also... But for the sake of my favorite handsome master, I must remind you, If you continue to dig deeper, you may realize the content of the test yourself, which will lead to the start of the test."

"Let's go here for class today..." "Thank you, master!" Igula asked, "How do you feel?"

"Do you still remember what I had for lunch today?" "Chiyan lala fat?"

“Yes, that’s what it feels like to be turned into food.” Ash looked at Vichy: “No matter how much you pretend to be tempted to get close to me, I will only be awakened by your spikes. Don’t struggle, Ghost Prophet.”

“Alas.” The maid sighed, “Ever since the master dated the little sheep, he didn’t like me. I didn’t expect the master to like blond college girls. If he knew I should have dyed blonde hair...”

“At least you told the truth.” Ash said, “She has indeed successfully cultivated my resistance to you, but I just practice dating with her, we are just good friends.”

The necromancer frowned: “You? With a woman? Just good friends?”

“Wait,” the fraudster raised his hand to stop the necromancer’s questioning: “Let me see what other nonsense he can say.”

“What kind of eyes do you have?” Ash looked helpless: “I’m not Igula, and I’m not popular with women!”

Igula: "Look." Harvey nodded: "It's starting to babble."

"First, I met Feili for less than two days, and second, Feili has someone she likes!" Ash said, "Now you understand!?"

"Understood," said Igula, "I have to say that Ash, you are lazy, you can even win the legendary level of silver lamp, and now you are challenging the ordinary difficulty of female college students? "Someone who likes" this The attributes are at most ordinary three-star level, right?"

"No," Ash felt inexplicable, "Why do you think I would fall in love with Fili?"

Igula: "Harvey, please explain."

"Ash," Harvey said, "you may not know, I actually like corpses." Ash looked at him quietly for a while, then nodded slowly: "Well, I can't tell."

“It’s normal, after all, I usually hide very well,” the necromancer continued. “But at some point, I still can’t help revealing my preferences for corpses, such as smelling corpses, lying on the bed and crawling with maggots. I slept in the same place I used to sleep, and liked to spread my bread with tequila...”

Igula stood up abruptly, and the veins on her face were about to burst: “I... saw you eating jam on bread a few days ago...”

“Condensed milk,” Harvey said, “Am I seasoning it well?”

“Hey Igula, calm down, he didn’t mean it, who told you to be greedy for condensed milk... Vichy! Rose! Help me hold him down!”

When the furious fraudster was pressed on the sofa by the three of them, Harvey continued: “I just want to explain that although you won’t admit it verbally, your inner thoughts will be exposed through your actions.”

Ash glanced at the unlovable Igula and said with a smirk, “Well, what does this have to do with me?”

“Ash,” Harvey said seriously, “in the Gospel Kingdom, the most important woman to us is Annan.”

“Yes.”

“In the land of Senluo, there are two women who are the most important to us. They are the mercury Trojan horse and the silver lamp, but later we learned that the silver lamp is the most important.”

“Um?”

“So according to my observation,” said the necromancer, “you are different from the promiscuous type of Igula, you are a special attack type who only hangs out with the key opposite sex. In the kingdom of stars, for us The most crucial member of the opposite * is obviously Philly.”

“If there are key women in Broken Lake Prison, I’m sure you won’t miss the strategy.” The maid leaned into Ash’s ear, “Master, I’m also very important!”

Yaxiu was stunned for a while, then said a weak rebuttal: “These are all coincidences!”

“Understood.” Harvey nodded: “We won’t tell Jian Ji about these coincidences after we go out, Ash, you can do it with confidence!”

“Ash,” the crushed Igula suddenly said, “The devil Feili is very important to us.” “I know.”

“You don’t want to hypnotize her, and you don’t want to train her. You make it difficult for us.” The fraudster said, “Isn’t it good for her to fall in love with you as your tool?”

Rose and Vichy on the side also nodded again and again. Seeing this, Ash sighed softly, sat down and looked at his articulated hand, and said slowly, “I don’t want to or don’t want to.”

Igula: “Why? You used to—”

“Before, it was because I hadn’t established a relationship with the Sword Princess, and I hadn’t determined my mood.” Ash said, “But now I can almost meet the Sword Princess... Maybe she has already seen me.”

“We’ve been fine for so many days. Obviously she’s taking care of our bodies, and I don’t know how much trouble this will bring her... Will it affect her future...”

“She must be in a hurry to save us now.” Ash looked at them, “I just want to get out of here and meet her now.”

“Other than that, I don’t have any other thoughts about him.”

“I want to say something,” Harvey suddenly raised his hand: “But Ash, don’t be angry.” “What’s the matter?”

“That’s it, I’ll prepare a coffin gift for you when I’m ready to settle down.” Harvey said, “So I remember who I’m going to give, such as youAnnanJinaTamahilgulaAnn Phil...”

Igula raised his eyebrows: “Are you familiar with Jinna?” Harvey: “No, but Ash and Jinna are very familiar.” Ash had a bad premonition in his heart: “And then?”

“To prevent myself from forgetting, I asked Alice to carve these names into the lid of the coffin,” Harvey said, “and drew a diagram of the relationship.”

“relation chart?”

“For example, Yaxiu and An Nan are lovers, An Nan and Jinna are mother and daughter, and Yaxiu and Jinna are also lovers...”

“Ash, calm down, Harvey didn’t mean it, come and hold him down!”

Axiu, who was full of grief and indignation, was pressed against the chair by the three of Igula, feeling that his reputation was about to be lost. Igula comforted: “Jianji may not see the inside of the coffin lid, and even if she does, she may not believe it. Even if you believe it, it won’t necessarily do anything to you...”

Yaxiu nodded heavily: “Yes, you’re right, I have a clear conscience for what I’m afraid of!” Vichy: “Master, you’re shaking so much you are about to throw me out.”

After Rose wiped off the cold sweat from Ashe’s forehead, the legendary magician finally suppressed the panic in his heart and said while drinking tea, “Let’s end the meeting, it seems that nothing happened today.”

“By the way, remember not to coax me and Fili, especially in front of her,” Ash glanced at everyone: “It’s not good for me or her.”

“understood.”

“If these are angel’s silver wings...” Vichy stepped out and stood beside Ash: “Then its silver wings are too huge.”

The fraudster was stunned at the door, almost lost in the beauty of the scene, and murmured, “No wonder... I want to use a kingdom to imprison angels...”

“Ash.” “Huh?” Ghost Prophet said, “The angel hunt has begun.”

Yaxiu nodded slightly, looked at Vichy and said seriously: “You now deduce the content of the demigod exam and tell us.” However, Vichy just looked at him with a smile and said nothing. Seeing this scene, the two of them not only Instead of being angry, his expression became more solemn. Vichy nodded. To be honest, Yaxiu and the others had already guessed where the fifth floor of the Void Realm was. After all, the Sea of Knowledge, Time Continent, Far Beyond Airspace and Ruby Mountain were widely circulated. , and like these places, there are mysterious places with myths and legends in various countries. There is only one option. They also thought about why they didn’t directly say whether they were wrong, but they never thought The reason behind the truth is actually heartwarming—the demigod exam that even Vichy is so afraid of, is probably not something that ordinary legendary magicians can pass. Each country deliberately hides it, most likely to prevent the legendary magician from confirming the truth and immediately After taking a surprise test, he was killed and carried away. Yaxiu was caught off guard by the maid’s hug, and she got goosebumps, and pushed her away with extreme disgust. After everyone was silent for a second, Yaxiu immediately rushed up and hugged Igula. Vichy sighed secretly, thinking that she was too unlucky to meet a love-minded master. However, when she looked sideways, she found that Igula and Harvey did not have disappointment on their faces, but a look of ‘you every time It’s all the subtle expressions that say ‘like this. Boom! At this moment, a throbbing swept through the souls of the magicians, almost causing them to lose control in an instant, and even Vichy couldn’t avoid it. Ash fell on Rose. , he didn’t care to apologize, and immediately rushed out of the villa. Feather. The whole sky was falling with white and silver feathers. Ash reached out to pick it up, and the feathers turned into light spots and dissipated on his hand. With silver flying feathers, the whole Jia world is like a fairy tale city.
