

Super Rich Dad Chapter 819-820

Chapter 819

After Chen Jingdao said this, looking at Sally dumbfounded expression will smile, then get up and walk to the window with his back to Sally.

‘There are some and personal feelings I have never wanted to do away with, this I believe you can also see. No matter who is facing anyone, I have left a line.’

Hearing these words, Sally some helpless to look at Chen Jingdao silent for a moment spoke: ‘Since you are such words Toppeligaen, why can’t you counter a little opposite?’

Chen Jingdao smiled at his words. Seems to feel that Sally’s question is a bit stupid!

So he laughed and said: ‘I am not unwilling to target them, but I just think your tactics are not ruthless enough. It’s easy to simply mess them up, but I want to make them beg for their lives!’

Chen Jingdao is a good man, this is basically a recognized thing in the North House, his actions among the older generation is the word of mouth!

So at this moment Chen Jingdao actually said that Sally’s plan was not hard enough, which made Sally look at him with some surprise!

And Chen Jingdao seemed to expect Sally’s reaction, looked at her surprised look after smiling and spoke: ‘I know what your identity really is, and also know why you want to be in the North Mansion.’

After saying this, Chen Jingdao smiled somewhat self-deprecatingly and said, ‘I never thought about it before, or later when I went under Shen Tianyang I learned about these things.’

The reason why Sally had been reluctant to get in touch with these people from the Northern House was because she was worried that her identity would be seen by them.

However, she did not expect it. This Chen Jingdao had actually known about her identity, which made Sally couldn’t help but be silent.

‘Where did you learn about this, I think Shen Tianyang’s hands should not have information about me.’

After saying this, Sally organized the expression on her face, and then looked at Chen Jingdao with a smile on her face.

Chen Jingdao nodded at Sally and smiled: ‘In fact, there is no need to pay much attention to this point, Shen Tianyang has always been very accurate about your identity.’

Someone once said that the most understanding of their own is often the enemy, today Sally here is considered to have seen!

Slightly bitter smile after nodding with your head, Sally simply no longer cover up, put away the smile on his face to look at Chen Jing Road.

‘Since you already know. Then I think you should also be very clear one thing is right, I can help your son.’

Although not a professional, but Chen Jingdao understood Sally’s meaning, the other party is not only the first organization inland, but also a person with means and connections.

If Sally really wants to do something, I’m afraid that whether it’s the Shen family or he now has the name of mad dog Chen Jingdao can only watch, not dare to do anything.

‘Your purpose is only to bring down the Shen family and then stop Shen Tianyang from invading the North Mansion. Causing the Northern Province to be just like the next Chu Jiang, right?’

Sally nodded slightly after sinking for a while. She really did not want to waste any more time with Chen Jingdao.

She had already taken out all the options, and if Chen Jingdao still did not accept it, there was nothing else she could do.

The next opportunity is not yet known when it is, if not now the foundation will be well laid.

In the future, even if you play more strong. It’s just a dish to strike!

Thinking of this, Sally looked to Chen Jing said: ‘I give you three numbers of time, this matter you must give me an answer, or I can only look at you as standing with the Shen family.’

After a long time of silence. Only then did Chen Jingdao speak with a dry voice, ‘I can accept your plan, but the Shen family’s father and son must be handed over to me.’

It was the second time that Sally had seen someone like Chen Jingdao who was overwhelmed by hatred, the first time was Jiang Hao.

She had never seen such deep hatred in someone else’s body, and fortunately Chen Jingdao had finally agreed to the matter, plus the help of the Lin family.

If both pieces go according to plan, then they basically won’t have any problems, and I’m afraid the Shen family is about to disappear after the New Year, right?

Finished these things. Sally smiled lightly and got up to look at Chen Jing and said, ‘In that case, then this matter will be left to you. I hope you are well.’

Forgive me for pressing these words, Sally shook hands with Chen Jingdao and then turned around and left. During that time Sally hesitated slightly.

Only after she walked out of the door did she gather the courage to take out her cell phone and call Jiang Hao.

The phone rang a few times. Jiang Hao hurriedly picked up the phone and said, 'Hey, Sally, is something wrong?'

Sally listened to the strong worry in Jiang Hao's mouth, smiled and said: 'Nothing, I just finished negotiating, so I want to call you out to eat something together.'

Jiang Hao pondered for a moment and then nodded: 'Okay, you give me a place, I'll contact you when I arrive.'

Seeing Jiang Hao agreed to this matter, Sally took out her phone and booked a location, and then quietly waited for Jiang Hao's arrival.

At this time, Jiang Hao's heart is also needlessly complicated, he has always thought Lin Yan to his own just a little better feeling, but never under get each other has been deep to such an extent.

So some helplessly shook his head after, the two finally good thing to go, the

When Jiang Hao drove to the entrance of the new Cheng Group, a glance can see Sally wearing a snow-white dress standing outside.

The night under the North House some cold, after seeing Jiang Hao drove here, Sally hurriedly got into the car then picked up the back seat blanket will be over themselves.

'You, why did you come now, do you know how cold I am, it's freezing me to death!'

Jiang Hao heard Sally's complaint, some helpless sigh: 'I've been fast, you have to consider what time it is, the traffic in the city at this time would have had some problems.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao looked at Sally through the rearview mirror and said: 'How about it, Chen Jingdao old man is not agreed to our plan?'

Sally shook her head helplessly and said: 'Everything else is fine, Mr. Chen also agreed to our plan, but there is a problem, I'm afraid it's very troublesome.'

Jiang Hao listened with some curiosity and said: 'Oh? What problem, can make you feel some trouble, looks very uncomplicated ah.'

'That's right, because Elder Chen Jingdao promised to come down on the condition that he wants the Shen family's valley, I don't know what he wants.'

After saying this, Sally looked at Jiang Hao and laughed bitterly: 'You say, can I agree to such a question, just think with your feet can know that they will actually bury some things in their own home.'

This is their habit, if I can agree to it, basically good.

Chapter 820

After a period of silence, Jiang Hao spoke with some sighs: 'I didn't see it before, just think that Mr. Chen old man listen to the elegant, he seems to have a kind of scholarly temperament, so people can not see that he is a businessman.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao while driving. While lowering his head bitterly smiled twice and continued: 'Today I realized that he turned out to be a mortal, like hatred.'

Sally just laughed at this, some things really how to calculate can not be clear.

When Chen Minggang let the rat kidnap Lin Yan, Jiang Hao went to save the people, the result of a rage to abolish Chen Minggang. Who knew that Chen Minggang fell down the stairs and was killed by a steel bar through the chest.

For that matter, Sally ran back and forth for Jiang Hao to arrange the design before the matter was blamed on the Shen family.

At that time, Jiang Hao also felt some intolerance, think let the Shen family take the pot is not a little too much.

But later learned that the original North House Shen family was also one of the accomplices who harmed the Shen clan family. Now that I think about it, Jiang Hao heart there is a trace of pleasure!

Sally looked at Jiang Hao lightly laughed twice before speaking: 'Don't just talk about old Mr. Chen, you are not the same, there is only hatred in your heart, except hatred you can't fit anything else.'

Jiang Hao looked up at the rearview mirror, saw Sally's face flashed a trace of sadness, so smiled and then spoke: 'Not necessarily, those things are not hatred in my opinion, after all, I have no feeling for the family back then long ago.'

No, after saying this Jiang Hao silent, perhaps there is a feeling, just he hid in the heart has not dug out.

More importantly, he still had a very powerful enemy in front of him, and if he didn't get rid of this person, he couldn't do anything.

The Northern Province Shen family is already very strong. But compared to Shen Tianyang's power is simply a small witch, not worth mentioning.

If he can not climb to the position of Shen Tianyang, after all, he is only a guy who can only be anonymous.

The atmosphere in the car became slightly dull as the two talked about this matter, and Sally knew that she had accidentally touched the wound in Jiang Hao's heart.

So after a long time of silence she said softly: 'Sorry, I didn't mean to bring up that matter, just, you should understand what I mean.'

Jiang Hao did not raise his head and spoke: 'I understand, it's just that there are some things you said wrong, what I have in my heart is not hatred, but a responsibility.'

When the Shen clan so many people can escape less than one tenth, these people's hatred in Jiang Hao's body, has long become a heavy responsibility.

There is also the death of Shen Haoting, and many, many people, some of these people Jiang Hao still remember their appearance to this day.

And some of them. With the passage of time, he could not remember their appearance long ago.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao took a deep breath and then smiled bitterly: 'You know, until now I feel as if I am dreaming when I think about it.'

Sally looked at Jiang Hao with some curiosity, the information about him only said at first that he was an ordinary person, and only at the back suddenly became the heir of the Shen clan family, the last remaining bloodline.

She was also very curious about what kind of feeling Jiang Hao had inside when he first learned this news, knowing that this is not a small identity ah.

Many people may not have even heard of it anymore, let alone having contacted a magnificent family like Shen's.

'I remember when I first learned of my identity, I thought it was a new type of scam, and didn't take it to heart at all.'

Speaking of this. Perhaps Jiang Hao remembered how stupid he really was back then, so he shook his head with a bitter smile.

Sally silent for a moment to speak: 'And then, you know the truth after. Have you thought about what you want to do in the future?'

Jiang Hao nodded and said in a deep voice: 'Yes, during that time I have been thinking, what do those people's deaths have to do with me, and I have no feelings for them, not to mention feelings.'

This may be a bit thin, but Sally nodded in agreement with this. Maybe it's because deep down they both always have something in common.

'And then, why did you do such a big thing in Chu Jiang, do you know how big a change happened in Chu Jiang after those two people died?'

After saying this, Sally looked at Jiang Hao? and seemed to be expecting how he was going to answer himself.

And Jiang Hao looked at the traffic lights will stop the car, and then while waiting while speaking: 'Then things happened you should know. Because he provoked the wrong people.'

Some of those people followed Jiang Hao with all their hearts, and even sacrificed their lives to protect him, which were transferred to his body to become the responsibility!

This is also the reason why he left a note when he left Chu Jiang!

He wanted to let Shen Tianyang know that he would not forget him, he would always be waiting outside for him to appear, and when the time came to avenge all these hatreds together!

Just thought of here, a car whistle pulled Jiang Hao back to reality, and Sally looked at the gloomy look on Jiang Hao's face.

After a slight sigh, she said softly: 'Forget it, you should send me to the villa, I'm a little upset I'm not going to eat, I want to go back to rest.'

Hearing these words. Jiang Hao nodded slightly and drove the car to send Sally back to Tianzhu Villa.

People on the other hand, Shen Tianyang's men Sanniang with more than a hundred people almost almost the entire North House are searched once, for how could still not. What does this mean?

However, just after Sanniang search stopped, Shen Tianyang side sent a message, Sanniang opened a look but saw that it was Shen Tianyang personally called.

So she hurriedly picked up and said: 'Boss. What's the matter?'

On the other side of the phone, Shen Tianyang said with a lazy voice: 'There is nothing else, but there is still a small matter that I want to trouble you.'

Sanniang listened and quickly spoke: 'You say, if I can do it. I will definitely not be shortchanged,, how about it?'

Hearing this, Shen Tianyang smiled in satisfaction and said: 'Okay, in that case, please try not to run around these days, because you have attracted a lot of attention.'

If not thought of here, perhaps Shen Tianyang long ago personally come over to do it, mainly because he left then, directly lost the support point.

'Boss you do not worry, if there is no accident Tippeligaen, I will find him, when the time will definitely a make him comfortable!'

After saying this, Sanniang heatedly smiled, then continued to speak: 'By the way, boss, there is one more thing I want to ask you, Shen Wennian hopes to get more assistance, do you think it's okay?'
