

Chapter 82: You Deserve This

Though this video was not about something indescribable, the scenes it depicted made Jin Yazhen unable to argue back.

This was a video that she had taken with Yang Xuan, imitating Internet celebrities. The duo was singing and dancing in it, occasionally kissing too.

“It’s really you two!”

Everyone was stunned.

If it were a photo, they might have believed it was photoshopped. But this was a video!

“If there’s still people who don’t believe it, feel free to search the Internet yourselves using the keywords. Trust me, there will be more surprises!” Xia Xibei smiled innocently at everyone.

Xia Xibei didn’t have the time to care about Jin Yazhen, but Jin Yazhen had to show up and seek her own death, so she couldn’t be blamed for her actions.

The other students did not wait for Xia Xibei to say anything more, immediately taking out their phones and searching for those videos.

Jin Yazhen’s face went pale and she couldn’t utter a word, hurrying to the toilet.

When she took out her phone, logged into her account on this website, and went to delete the videos, she realized that the number of views had already increased by a lot!

'I'm done for!'

Jin Yazhen's heart turned cold.

When she was with Yang Xuan, she loved watching content like this on the Internet.

Having watched so many of them, she also wanted to shoot one herself. It wasn't for the sake of popularity, just for memories.

So, she grabbed Yang Xuan and shot a couple of short videos.

However, because of their awkward acting, stiff expressions, and poor shooting skills, they got very few views after these videos were uploaded.

In addition, there were not many members on this site, so not many people had watched these videos.

She had never expected Xia Xibei to find out about these videos!

Was she a devil?! How would she know these things?!

When Jin Yazhen returned to the classroom, the surrounding students looked at her with sarcasm in their eyes.

You said that you didn't know Yang Xuan? What a lie!

And the most disgusting thing was that she had slandered Xia Xibei for being together with Yang Xuan!

This person was really shameless!

Several classmates had already downloaded the videos before she had found out about it. Even if some of them didn't download it, they would also have taken screenshots.

Seeing everyone's reaction, Jin Yazhen's hands and feet felt extremely heavy, as if they were filled with cement.

When she returned to her seat, she couldn't hold it anymore. She laid her head down on the table and cried silently.

Xia Xibei ignored her completely because she knew that Jin Yazhen would seek her own death sooner or later.

Besides, she still had other goods on Jin Yazhen.

She wasn't in a hurry.

Other people looked at Jin Yazhen in even more disdain.

She wanted to bite someone, but was bitten back in the end, so she deserved this!

Xia Xibei didn't say anything, taking out a book and continuing to read.

For her, although she had won fifth place this time, it was still not good enough. She needed to continue working harder.

Tang Luo looked at her with a weird expression.

However, he said nothing and quietly looked down at his own book.

As for the other students, their attention had now shifted to the tea between Jin Yazhen and Yang Xuan, and they no longer cared about Xia Xibei.

In the first class, the Chinese teacher came over.

Seeing Xia Xibei, the teacher gave her a satisfied smile.

“In this assessment, our class’s results were not bad, and a few students have made great progress. I hope everyone can get rid of their arrogance and rashness and continue to maintain these good grades!”

Such words were repeated by different teachers in the next few lessons.

After the head teacher passed down the score sheet, everyone was surprised to see that Xia Xibei was ranked second.

Chapter 83: She Cheated

In addition to the class grades, the cohort ranking was also released.

Someone ran back from the bulletin board, looking shocked. “God! Xia Xibei really ranked fifth this time, and Xia Qinghan was only sixth!”

“No way!” Another boy was surprised too. “How come my goddess only ranked sixth?”

Xia Qinghan was generally in the top five of the cohort, but this time she had fallen to sixth?

Although everyone in the top 20 of the cohort could safely get into the best universities, Xia Qinghan had always been in the top five before!

“The rankings of the first few students did not change, it’s just that Xia Xibei suddenly appeared.”

Once these words were out, everyone seemed to be struck by a sudden realization.

It was Xia Xibei who had taken away Xia Qinghan’s fifth place?

Everyone looked at Xia Xibei with eyes that seemed to be fitted with a microscope, scrutinizing her from head to toe.

“Something’s not right. Her past grades were not so good, so how had she suddenly become fifth?”

As soon as someone said this, everyone’s expressions became a little strange.

“Oh yes! When Xia Xibei took the exam, she was in the same room as Xia Qinghan!”

“Not only were they in the same room, they also sat really close, just across the aisle!”

Everyone’s expressions became even stranger.

“Is it...”

While they were discussing this, a cold voice suddenly sounded out.

“Even if you can’t get such good results yourselves, don’t assume that others can’t do it either.”

Everyone turned their heads to look at the person talking and were met with a pair of cold eyes.

It was Tang Luo.

Some of them were about to scold the person who had spoken, but after seeing Tang Luo, they immediately shut their mouths.

There was no particular reason, it was just that although Tang Luo was Xia Xibei’s desk mate, he was the first in the cohort!

Tang Luo had only been in the middle rankings before, but two months ago, he suddenly jumped to the top!

There were lots of straight-A students in their Qing Ye High School, so it was a nearly impossible feat to rank first so suddenly!

At that time, there were also people who raised doubts, but because Tang Luo had been wandering away from the crowd, nobody delved into the matter too much.

The first time, everyone still had suspicions, but after the second time, everyone stopped doubting.

Ever since that particular exam, whether it was a monthly or mid-term assessment, his name had firmly occupied the top of the list, giving them no reason to doubt him.

Therefore, as soon as he spoke up, everyone stopped their discussions.

Tang Luo glanced coldly at these people who were gossiping and walked away.

Looking at his thin back, everyone stared at each other. They could no longer voice out their suspicions as they had just now.

Think about it carefully now, Xia Xibei and Tang Luo were desk mates, so it didn't seem impossible that she had suddenly become so good at academics!

After all, Tang Luo had done the same!

Besides, when the next monthly assessment came, they would know if her grades were real or fake.

The gossip had stopped here, but Xia Qinghan was in a bad mood.

She stared at the photo on her phone closely, which showed the rankings. The two names, stacked one above the other, made her extremely unhappy.

Xia Xibei!

She had actually ranked higher than her!

And even more hateful was that Xia Xibei had scored two marks more than her in every subject.

Two marks!

She didn't know if Xia Xibei had done this intentionally or unintentionally, but this kind of difference in scores made Xia Qinghan very annoyed.

Was it possible that she really had some sort of grudge going on with Xia Xibei?

Otherwise, how could this have happened?!

Tao Yueying was also very indignant beside her.

"This Xia Xibei has really gone too far! She's too shameless! She must have cheated!"

Xia Qinghan suddenly turned her head and looked in Tao Yueying's direction.

"Cheated?"

Tao Yueying nodded, "I asked around. Xia Xibei had been hovering around two or three hundred ranks before, so how could she suddenly have reached fifth place?! There must be something wrong going on here!"
