

Chapter 835

"We act separately!"

After the two agreed, they acted separately.

Suzi was taken to this abandoned warehouse as he wished.

Walton held Suzi's hair condescendingly.

To be honest, Suzi's scalp was sore, but she was still calm on the surface, and she even smiled at Walton.

"Suzi! Do you know where this is?" Walton said with a hideous face.

"Nancheng" Suzi said calmly: "You have been dragging for more than three hours. I am a person who remembers my way. Although I was blindfolded by you along the way, I know all about turning, uphill and downhill. I now In South City."

Actually, Suzi was dumbfounded.

She didn't know if she was dumbfounded, she just wanted to know where she was now.

After knowing the exact location, he can save himself.

After her words fell, she heard Walton's extremely changeable smile: "Suzi, Suzi! I have to say, you are really too smart! Yes, this is Nancheng! But, your husband, you Then I love you like my life, Arron, a man who is afraid of everyone in Nancheng, would you guess that we are back in Nancheng now?"

Suzi: "What do you mean?"

Walton smiled triumphantly: "Isn't it your husband? You should know him best. If you go out alone, then the husband who loves you will definitely chase you to that city, but she doesn't I thought, you were taken out by us as soon as you entered the hotel, and then you went straight to Nancheng. Haha!"

Suzi: "..."

Walton was right.

With Arron's temperament, it is really possible for Arron to go back to her.

If that is the case, then she would have nothing but despair.

A pity came to his heart, and Suzi silently said in his heart: "Arron, where are you? Don't come here. It's also very dangerous here. The people on Gasing Island have already come. How can I tell you? This news? Arron, you must be safe and safe, and you must take the only one well.

I, Suzi, have suffered from suffering in this life. I have just had a good life with you for half a year, and now I have been looted by Walton again.

It seems that this time, I am in a disaster.

I hope my death can be exchanged for you and the only peace.

Arron..."

Two lines of clear tears flowed down Suzi's cheeks.

Walton was very proud to see it.

She stepped on Suzi's face and put Suzi's tears into mud, and then put them on Suzi's face.

Suzi felt painful, but she still looked calm.

"Suzi, do you know how ugly you are now?"

"Thank you for your evaluation." Suzi said.

"What...what are you proud of!" Walton was inexplicably angry.

I just don't like Suzi's calm expression. She is dead, and she has already stepped on her feet. She has muddled the dirt on her face. What is so calm about her!

Suzi smiled peacefully: "I am so proud that I am half angry with you!"

"You... don't let you suffer, you don't know how good I am!" With that, Walton grabbed Suzi, raised her hand left and right, slapped Suzi's face wildly. A few clicks.

Suzi didn't feel the pain anymore, only felt that his cheeks seemed to be roasted by fire, as if they were spiced by hot peppers.

However, she still faced Walton with a smile: "Walton, do you know what you look like now? Actually, it's not much better than me. You have two big dark circles under your eyes, like a female ghost, and your mouth is still Bad breath, when you just squatted down, you also had a bad smell on your body. Don't you know it, you are just like the bug that crawled out of the stinky ditch."

At this moment, Suzi could feel that she couldn't live, she didn't want to be tortured too much, she just wanted to provoke Walton severely and let Walton slaughter her.

Sure enough, Walton immediately took out a bright sharp knife and stabbed it straight into Suzi's face.

"Assistant!" a voice snapped.

Chapter 836

Hearing that harsh sound, Walton subconsciously looked behind her.

Suzi also thought that she had met a savior. She also looked at the man behind Walton with joy, but saw an ugly scarred face. For a second, where did Suzi think this scarred face had been seen?

It seems that she accidentally swept such a face on the way to work?

Could it be that when she was working in the company, she was actually targeted by others?

Suzi felt desperate again.

And Walton also said viciously: "Scarface! What are you talking about? You are so mad at me! Do you know that I gave you your money? In front of me, you still pretend to be a big head Yeah! Get out of me! See if I won't kill this woman today, no! I won't kill her, I just want to scratch her face and cut it into a bloody mud. I'd like to see it. How can Arron's face be touched by Arron!"

Seeing Walton getting angry like this, her scarred face was not angry. Instead, she persuaded Walton: "Miss Min, we all listen to you and I know, but you don't want this woman to taste what you have tasted before. You forgot that four days ago, you one night..."

When the scarred face said that, Walton suddenly remembered something, she glared at Suzi: "Suzi! You D*mn woman! I almost fell on you! Almost hit your aggressive skills. That's right! I can't let you die in vain. Anyway, I can be regarded as knowing one, and before you die, I will give you a big gift.

Very big, very big gift package. "

Suzi's face is still hot and painful, and she can feel that her cheeks are not lightly swollen. Although she does not have a mirror now, Suzi also knows that she must be ugly and ugly at this time.

However, she still smiled calmly: "I don't need to look in the mirror, I know I'm ugly."

"Ha!" Walton whispered: "You know it."

"Even though I'm ugly, you still prepared about a hundred men or more for me. I guess it's right? Walton, you are so generous. You are so kind to me. "

Walton: "..."

Suzi was right again.

She has a kind of chagrin and dare!

"What are you proud of!" Walton said fiercely: "Wait later you will suffer! A hundred men, you can just go and die!"

"Not necessarily." Suzi's tone became more and more relaxed: "You don't know that for six years, I have been criticized by Nancheng people, saying that I am a vixen, who specially seduce men.

To be honest, Walton, when it comes to seducing men, you and I are really not the same.

You have always wanted to seduce my husband, but after thinking about it and thinking, my husband didn't look at you too much.

Later, you wanted to marry Joan again, but you know, Joan has always been my diehard fan. He can save his life for me, and she can beat you in the street for me. Even your cousin Darius, he has always been my diehard fan, and Darius should not be too kind to me.

There is also, the young master Jun you want to marry in your heart. Actually, the young master Jun liked me at first.

Only after he knew that I was his fourth aunt, he stopped thinking of me. Then, interestingly, then, he changed his liking to my best friend, Rayna.

Rayna was trained by me.

So Walton, have you ever thought about a problem? "

Walton was irritated by Suzi and nodded her head with a sneer: "You say, you say, I will let you finish! Anyway, if you are inevitable today, I will be more generous and let you finish!"

"The problem is." Suzi continued to say: "Actually, I am really as rumored by Nancheng people. I have very good skills, especially when it comes to seduce men. I really have good skills, so Walton, I'm not too happy for the more than one hundred men you found for me.
