

Chapter 841: Setting Off Firecrackers to Celebrate

“Mr Qi is really good with words! Let’s do it together!” Manager Sun praised Mr Qi. However, Manager Sun was better at it. He refilled Jiang Yao’s glass with fruit juice and filled his glass with wine. He was the first to cater to Mr Qi as he stood up.

They had discussed work matters, and the atmosphere after that was relatively harmonious. Huang Chengjing talked to Jiang Yao about the jewelry company and some of his own experiences. It was apparent that Jiang Yao wanted to open a jewelry company, but he did not think of Jiang Yao as a competitor.

After the dinner was over, Manager Sun sent Lu Yuqing and Gu Haoyu back to the hotel, while Jiang Yao talked to Huang Chengjing for a while outside the hotel.

Huang Chengjing learned that he would be neighbors with Jiang Yao and Lu Yuqing after he was back, so he was not in a hurry to send Lu Yuqing to show off in front of her.

Since there was no one else around, Huang Chengjing started to talk about another matter with Jiang Yao.

“The news about the raw stones that you put up for auction in the underground trading hall has been circulating for the past few days. Many people are now asking who sold those pieces of raw jade. They want to know where you bought them to be able to produce such good quality jade.”

Huang Cheng smiled and said, “Many people are guessing that you might be an old competitor, that you probably bought the raw stones from the Purple Orchid Garden in Jindo. If everyone knew the truth, that you bought them from the Zhu family’s store, which they have been cursing for a long time, they would probably be so angry that they would vomit blood.”

The Zhu family’s incident had caused many people to lose all their money. The trading hall was closed, and many people had used stones to smash their door.

Jiang Yao’s lips curled into a smile. She looked at Huang Chengjing and teased him. “When Zhu Qianlan leaves Nanjiang city, shouldn’t you set off a string of firecrackers to celebrate that?”

“You’re right! We should set off firecrackers to celebrate and get rid of bad luck!” Huang Chengjing smiled helplessly. “I can’t even begin to describe the experience when a woman like her pesters someone so relentlessly. If Lu Yuqing asks about it, please help me to explain. Don’t let Young Master Lu talk bad about me in front of her.”

After the car arrived, Huang Chengjing waved at Jiang Yao. “I’ll congratulate you again when you move into your new home.”

“Sure, we’ll be neighbors then. Tell Chenchen that I have pomegranates in my yard. She can come and pick them every year.” Manager Sun had casually mentioned that Huang Chenchen liked the pomegranates in her new home, so Jiang Yao had kept it for her.

Since she had stood her friends up for dinner that night, Jiang Yao decided to bring them supper. If she had not done that, then Wen Xuehui would probably ask her to write a 500-word essay as an apology before she would let her into the room.

“Oh, right, Jiang Yao! I heard from a senior intern in our department that he saw Lin Shunhe apply for a job at his unit today. Then, for some reason, he left in a huff,” Wen Xuehui said as she ate the roast meat that Jiang Yao had brought for them. “Shengqi Hospital had taken such quick action; they had fired him.”

Jiang Yao thought that Lin Shunhe was even faster. He had only been fired, and he had applied for a new job in a new hospital that afternoon.

Chapter 842: Threatening to Jump off a Building

“It seems that many seniors in our school went to Shengqi Hospital to report what Lin Shunhe had done to Jiang Yao. Then, the hospital director issued a notice that he had fired Lin Shunhe.” Chen Siyang went toward them. “When I heard the news, I felt so relieved. People like this are not suitable to stay in the hospital. If I were a patient, I would be worried that he would take revenge on me during the treatment process if I accidentally offended him. The director made a very wise and correct choice when he fired Lin Shunhe.”

Wen Xuehui started the topic. After that, everyone in the dormitory criticized Lin Shunhe as they enjoyed supper.

Jiang Yao did not care about Lin Shunhe and his dismissal, but she did not expect that Lin Shunhe did so much damage.

The next morning, Jiang Yao was woken up by Manager Sun’s phone call. Jiang Yao looked at the alarm clock and realized that it was only seven in the morning.

If she had not stayed in the medical system for half the night most nights, she would have slept until eight o’clock. She would have been angry if someone woke her up at that hour.

As soon as Jiang Yao picked up the phone, she immediately heard the anxiousness in Manager Sun’s voice.

“Miss Jiang, something bad has happened. Lin Shunhe is standing on the rooftop of the First Hospital’s inpatient building; he’s threatening to jump! He had also contacted the media, but I’ve asked He Maoming to smooth things over with the reporters. Currently, no one will interview him,” Manager Sun said quickly.

“What does it have to do with me if he wants to jump off the building?” Jiang Yao’s tone was full of doubt.

“He said he wants to see you and Chengqi Hospital’s director, or he will jump to his death,” Manager Sun said helplessly. “The hospital fired him. Their reason was that he had bad conduct, and it was not acceptable. When Lin Shunhe left the hospital, he probably did not look at his personal file that he took from the hospital. Later, he went to the First Hospital to apply for a job. When they saw his file, they rejected his application as he was fired for bad conduct. Lin Shunhe probably only found out about this addition to his file at that time.”

Manager Sun felt that Shengqi Hospital’s director had done an excellent job with that stroke to Lin Shunhe’s resume. If other people saw Lin Shunhe’s resume in the future, who would dare to hire him?

They had effectively cut off Lin Shunhe's career as a doctor. No wonder he wanted to jump off a building so early in the morning.

"He wants to jump off the building, but he wants to see the director and me. Why does he want to see us?" Jiang Yao said, "Does he want us to witness his death?"

"He wants you to say that the things he said about you were a misunderstanding, and then ask Chengqi Hospital to change his resume. He has no other way to do that, so he can only force you with his life." Manager Sun looked down on Lin Shunhe, but he would not allow him to use his life to achieve his personal goal.

However, Lin Shunhe had chosen the First Hospital. Many people went in and out of the building at all times. There were also many families in that hospital.

Chapter 843: No Need to Show Face

However, when it was eight or nine o'clock, there would only be even more family members in the hospital building. At that time, He Maoming would not be able to keep them back. Once the reporters arrived, who knew what would happen if they reported it in the newspapers.

"Do you really think that Lin Shunhe would have the guts to commit suicide by jumping off a building?" Jiang Yao scoffed. "I bet he doesn't have the courage to jump! So, no matter what request he makes, I won't go and see him. If everyone uses that as an excuse when things aren't going their way, does that mean that if one day I run out of money, I can go and tell everyone I want to commit suicide? If the government doesn't give me some money, I'll jump. That way, I'll be able to solve my money problem, right?"

"If that's really the case, then society will be in total chaos. In the future, I don't have to do anything. I just need to build a super tall building and get people to buy tickets to take turns jumping off the building to fulfill their wishes. I can even give my building a name. It's called the Wish Building!" Her sarcasm was really apt; it was extremely in line with what Lin Shunhe had done.

"Manager Sun, tell the director that he doesn't have to show his face, and I won't meet Lin Shunhe either. If your friend can't stop the reporters, then let them report about that. I'd like to see what kind of story that Lin Shunhe can weave to gain sympathy." Jiang Yao was not afraid of Lin Shunhe's threats.

She was not Lin Shunhe's keeper. Why should she care if he was alive or dead?

Lin Shunhe felt that his life did not go his way, and he could not bring herself to beg her. Why should Jiang Yao pity him?

If Jiang Yao were an ordinary student, and her husband, Lu Xingzhi, was not an influential person, she would only be a normal freshman at Nanjiang Medical University. If Lin Shunhe still went to her school and slandered her name, what kind of ending would she have?

She would have been expelled from her school, lose her reputation., and she might even have to go back to the countryside and waste her life there. Should she also jump off a building since she would not have anything to live for?

When Lin Shunhe ruined other people's lives, he did it without any hesitation. Why should someone sympathize with him when he received retaliation and retribution?

In any case, Jiang Yao did not sympathize with him at all. It did not matter if Lin Shunhe had a hard time that day or if he only wanted to use that method for a way out. What did it have to do with her?

However...

Jiang Yao still got out of bed when she thought about the medical system. She picked up Moe and carried it to the balcony. She shook it awake and asked, "I have a question. If someone thinks that I forced him into a corner and wanted to commit suicide by jumping off a building, does it mean I took his life if he were to jump? The system won't trigger the destruction program, right?"

"He jumped on his own accord. You weren't the one who stood behind him and pushed him. What does his death or disability have to do with you?" Moe was bad-tempered in the morning, so his tone was also very harsh. "People who committed suicide killed themselves."

"Then, I'm relieved." Jiang Yao sighed in relief.

"Why are you worried? If you don't like Lin Shunhe, you can stand on the side and don't do anything while your two bodyguards push him down. Even if he were to fall to his death, it has nothing to do with you!" Mo was furious, so his words were rough.

Chapter 844: I'll Listen to You and Kill Him

After Moe said that, it stood there with a cat-like face—dazed and dumbfounded. Then, it revealed an expression of regret as if it had said the wrong thing.

Jiang Yao only realized what Moe meant after a few seconds. It meant that even if she ordered people to kill, the system would not pin their lives on her. Was that true?

Therefore, there was a massive loophole in the medical system!

"Moe, be good. Go back to sleep. I'll buy you a big drumstick for lunch." Jiang Yao grinned. Then, she hugged Moe and gently patted its head before she carried it back to its nest.

Moe struggled in Jiang Yao's hands. However, the other people in the dormitory were still asleep. It did not dare to make too much noise. Moe was afraid that it would wake the other girls. He could only ask Jiang Yao in a hushed voice, "What do you want?"

"I'll take your advice. Call my bodyguards to push Lin Shunhe off the roof and kill him." Jiang Yao sat on the bed and crossed her legs as she looked at Moe proudly. "Isn't that the method you taught me?"

"You're underestimating a human's life! Stupid human! You're a doctor, and your hands are used to treat illnesses and save people!" Moe was enraged; it jumped out of its nest and grabbed Jiang Yao's pant leg tightly as if it would not let go no matter what. It did not want Jiang Yao to go out.

"You're the stupid one! Can't you see that I'm wearing my pajamas? Why are you holding onto my pajamas? A smart person like me only needs to make a phone call!" Jiang Yao waved the phone in her hand and smiled evilly; it was the first time she had seen Moe so angry. It was her fault for being so arrogant all the time!

“Although I’m a doctor, I’m also a human. I hate trouble, and Lin Shunhe is big trouble. So, shouldn’t I solve this big trouble in one go?” Jiang Yao kicked Moe; her mood was a hundred times better.

She was not worried about Lin Shunhe at all. Whether he jumped or not, it had nothing to do with her. They had a big grudge between them, and Lin Shunhe still wanted to use his suicide attempt to make her forget about the past and help him? Was that not a fool’s dream?

After she teased Moe, Jiang Yao went back to bed in a good mood and continued to catch up on her sleep. When Moe saw that Jiang Yao did not make a phone call or change her clothes and had no intention to go out, it realized that the stupid human had played a prank on it!

After about 40 minutes of sleep, Jiang Yao went out with the five girls in her dormitory. She went to class as usual.

Since everyone in her school knew that she was the Divine Doctor’s student, all her professors would ask her to answer questions in their classes. Every time she did that, the professor would always spend a minute to two to praise the Divine Doctor. They would ask the students to learn from her.

Since the start of the school year, Jiang Yao had become a prominent figure in the medical faculty and even the entire school again.

During the start of the school year, the two consecutive incidents had allowed two-thirds of the students in the school to know Jiang Yao. By that day, everyone in the school knew that Nanjiang Medical University had produced such an incredible student; even the middle-aged woman in the cafeteria knew Jiang Yao and treated her very differently.

Chapter 845: Miss Jiang Is Right

It was the same dish, at the same price. Others would get three shakes with their spoonful, but Jiang Yao would get spoonful after spoonful. The old lady even tried her best to persuade Jiang Yao. “It’s hard to learn from a master, so you must eat a lot. Your body will only be better with enough nutrition.”

Every time Jiang Yao returned to her seat with a tray, her roommates would bombard her and take some of her food.

Moe was still afraid that Jiang Yao was up to something, so it stuck with her the whole morning. However, when the morning classes had ended. Moe realized that Jiang Yao did not intend to leave the school, so it decided to leave her alone.

Jiang Yao only found out about what happened to Lin Shunhe in the evening when she received a call from Manager Sun.

By the time she found out, Gu Haoyu had already finished dealing with everything.

“Lin Shunhe was stuck on the roof for a long time. He couldn’t see the director or Miss Jiang. Later, he became more and more agitated. A few times, he really wanted to jump off the building, but then he retreated. Many reporters heard about the incident, and He Maoming couldn’t stop them from going there. Some of the reporters asked him why he wanted to jump.”

Jiang Yao snorted. "Lin Shunhe would never tell the truth. He must have told them he was framed, right?"

"You are right, Miss Jiang. Lin Shunhe said you forced him and how Chengqi Hospital didn't give him a way out, and they slandered him. However, you have many seniors who are interns at that hospital. They refuted his claims until he was speechless. He said that they only wanted to protect you, so they are forcing him to jump. He also said that if he were to die today, then you and Chengqi Hospital's director would be his murderers." Manager Sun laughed out loud. "The standoff lasted for too long. Lin Shunhe lost the fight, and the police managed to drag him back. He couldn't jump even if he wanted to."

When the reporters wanted to report on that incident, Gu Haoyu told Manager Sun to pull some strings. He spent a lot of money to withdraw all the reporters' reports.

"Second Young Master Gu thought it's better if no one knows that you are only a medical student. The secret is safer if fewer people were to know about it. If those reports go out, they would say that you are a medical student. Those reporters don't have a conscience, and nothing good would come out of those reports." Manager Sun explained it to Jiang Yao. "Director Ye also helped a lot. He said that Miss Jiang is a freshman, after all. He feels that it is his duty to protect you."

Manager Sun did not tell Jiang Yao that Gu Haoyu took the initiative to introduce Director Ye's daughter to a famous professor. That would significantly open a window for the young lady to study abroad, but it would depend on her ability to grab it.

Even so, Director Ye was grateful toward Second Young Master Gu.

Jiang Yao felt inexplicably amused.

"Lin Shunhe won't stay in Nanjiang City after this. Get someone to keep an eye on him. Don't let him do things to me behind my back. This person is too narrow-minded and annoying." Jiang Yao hummed. After Lin Shunhe left Nanjiang city, she no longer had to keep an eye on a man who liked to stir trouble for her.

Chapter 846: Loyalty to the Country

Lin Techeng and the others moved into their residence on Saturday. Even though it was only a temporary dormitory, the five of them loved to have fun. So they called Jiang Yao, Lu Yuqing, and the others to their house to have some fun together.

Early Saturday morning, Ah Lu and Da Ke picked up Jiang Yao and brought her to Lin Techeng's residence. On the way, Ah Lu told Jiang Yao that the people who had followed Jiang Yao had entered Nanjiang City two days ago. Jiang Yao had been at the school for the past two days, and those people could not enter the compound, so they rented a room near the school and waited for Jiang Yao to come out.

"If they want to keep an eye on me, let them do that then." Jiang Yao laughed contemptuously. "If they could really find out anything about her, those people would be amazing. "Didn't they say there are two private detectives?"

"Those two followed Da Ke and me." Ah Lu laughed. "We brought them around the entire Nanjing City. It was quite interesting."

Da Ke's interest was piqued. He sat in the front passenger seat, so he turned around toward Jiang Yao and said, "Miss Jiang, those two private detectives followed Ah Lu and me yesterday, so we brought them to a teahouse. We pretended that we were there to meet someone, and when we left, we left them a note that says, loyal to the country!"

Jiang Yao drank some water when Da Ke spoke, and when he said loyal to the country, she spat out a mouthful of water.

"Next time, don't tell such a funny joke when I'm drinking water." Jiang Yao quickly took a handkerchief from her bag and wiped the water stains on her clothes. "Da Ke, you did a good job! As a citizen of our country, you've worked for people from other countries. You should attend a political education class."

"You are right, Miss Jian." Da Ke nodded repeatedly.

It was only casual chit-chat; Jiang Yao did not expect Da Ke to be so funny. However, she knew she was right. She could capture the two private detectives and give them a two-hour ideological and political lesson. She could use all the patriotism that she had learned in the army and brainwash those two detectives.

Jiang Yao arrived early. Hong Ke and his wife went to buy some vegetables with Xiao An. Only Xiao Yuan and Qiong Hui, who was playing with the cat, were in the house. The house looked spotless.

"Miss Jiang! Ah Lu, Da Ke!" When they saw Jiang Yao and the other two come into the house, Qiong Hui grabbed Mimi's paw and greeted Jiang Yao.

Moe, who was hiding in Jiang Yao's backpack, heard Mimi's meows. He popped his head out and laid his two front paws on Jiang Yao's shoulders. Moe stuck his head out and looked at Mimi. Then he said, "So ugly!"

Then, Moe retreated into Jiang Yao's backpack.

Jiang Yao shook Moe from her backpack and put him back on the ground. Then, she put the bag on the sofa and went to take Mimi from Xiao Yuan's hands.

As she had been with everyone for a long time, Mimi had grown a little more daring. When she was in Jiang Yao's arms, she would struggle for a while before she jumped onto the ground. Then, she looked at Moe with curiosity, but she did not dare to approach him.

"Miss Jiang, I heard from Manager Sun that you have a beautiful white cat. Today, I'm finally fortunate enough to see him. He's so cute!" Little Yuan's heart softened when he saw Moe, and he immediately threw Mimi to the back of his mind. He turned around; he wanted to hug Moe.

Chapter 847: Beautiful

When Moe realized that Jiang Yao was about to move over, he raised his tail in an unfriendly manner. It was as if he was ready to attack.

Jiang Yao carried Mimi and sat on the sofa. Her hands stroked Mimi's chin gently, and then she said to Little Yuan, "I forgot to tell you that my cat only allows girls to carry him. It doesn't have to be a perfect girl, as long as they are young and not ugly!"

“Wow, are you sure it’s a cat, Miss Jiang? It’s clearly a pervert in the animal kingdom. Is it a male cat?” Qiong Hui sat next to Jiang Yao, then he bent down and stared at Moe. Moe’s posture was scary, so he did not dare to poke him.

“Yes, he’s a male, and he’s especially hard to please.” Jiang Yao nodded as she raised Mimi. “Unlike Mimi, who’s so cute. Everyone loves her.”

“Stupid humans only like stupid animals!” Moe glanced at Mimi in Jiang Yao’s hand and sneered. “Mimi? She’s ugly, and her name is so tacky! This is the beauty that you humans like!”

Little Yuan and Qiong Hui felt it was strange when they heard Moe’s meows. When they looked at Moe’s expression, they felt even more bizarre. “Miss Jiang, does Moe know that you despise him?”

“Yes. He said that Mimi’ is ugly and her name is tacky.” Jiang Yao nodded thoughtfully and then hugged the cat. “Mimi’s name is not tacky. As the saying goes, a cheap name is easy to feed.”

Little Yuan and Qiong Hui looked at Jiang Yao and then at Moe. They were not sure how Jiang Yao got her translation. However, for some reason, they felt that from Moe’s expression, her translation seemed to be particularly correct.

“Miss Jiang has a male cat.” Qiong Hui stroked his chin. “I have to report this to Young Master Lu. I wonder what kind of reward he would give me!”

“Reward? You wish!” Jiang Yao grabbed the pillow on the sofa and threw it at Qiong Hui. “Moe is just a cat. Do you think my husband will be jealous of a cat?”

When Jiang Yao said that, Lu Yuqing appeared with Manager Sun. Lu Yuqing was surprised to hear that, so she asked, “You forgot that Xingzhi is like a bottle of vinegar? He gets jealous so easily.”

Jiang Yao touched the tip of her nose and thought, ‘Wow, Lu Xingzhi, even I can’t save your reputation.’

However, even though she thought about it, Jiang Yao tried to defend her husband. “Even though he gets jealous, sometimes, he wouldn’t be jealous of a cat.”

“That’s not necessarily true.” Lu Yuqing raised her eyebrows. Her tone was neither negative nor certain, but her expression clearly showed that she did not agree with Jiang Yao. She remembered the look in Lu Xingzhi’s eyes when he saw Jiang Yao hugged Mimi; it was as if he wished he could take Mimi away.

There was one thing that Xiao An was right about Lu Xingzhi; he wished that Jiang Yao would only hug him.

“Miss Lu, we can’t say anything bad about Young Master Lu to Miss Jiang. To her, Young Master Lu is perfect.” Qiong Hui giggled and turned to look at Jiang Yao. “Any man would be too happy to marry a wife like Miss Jiang. Do you have a sister, Miss Jiang? Maybe introduce her to me? As long as she is like you, where she’ll treat her husband like the moonlight in her heart!”

Chapter 848: Moving to a New House

“F*ck off!” Jiang Yao was furious.

She admitted that Lu Xingzhi was like a bottle of vinegar, but did she treat him like the white moonlight in her heart? Since when did she think that Lu Xingzhi was perfect?

She knew that the man had a lot of bad habits.

“If you want to go, then go later. Miss Jiang, can you at least tell me if you have an elder sister or younger sister to introduce to me?” Qiong Hui hugged the pillow and dashed toward Jiang Yao.

“No! I only have two older brothers. Big Brother is getting married during the winter vacation, and I have a second brother. Do you want to know him? If you want to, I’ll introduce you. You can marry into our Jiang family too!” After Jiang Yao finished speaking, she hugged Mimi and went to another room. She did not want to stay with those people anymore. It was too depressing.

While everyone chatted and laughed, those who went to buy vegetables were back. Lin Techeng, his wife, and Xiao An were in charge of cooking. The others were only there to eat; none of them wanted to move a muscle.

Gu Haoyu had already left Nanjiang City two days ago. Jiang Yao still could not adapt to his absence during that gathering.

Saturday was Lin Techeng’s housewarming party, and Lu Yuqing and Jiang Yao would have theirs on Sunday, which included Ah Lu and Da Ke.

Lu Yuqing had been handling any issues about the house, and she had also found them a maid. Since they had Ah Lu and Da Ke, they did not need another driver.

Ah Lu and Da Ke lived in the same room. Like the maid, they stayed in a room downstairs. There was even a gun room. Lu Yuqing did not make many changes to the overall decoration of the house. The only room that had a lot of work done to it was the gun room. Jiang Yao had loved it the moment she entered the room.

On Sunday, Jiang Yao and Lu Yuqing’s place was even livelier than Lin Techeng’s home the day before that. Other than Lin Techeng and their other five friends, Huang Chengjing was also there with Huang Chenchen and a housewarming gift.

Huang Chenchen was overjoyed when she knew that Jiang Yao and Lu Yuqing would be her neighbors.

She ran into the house with a small basket in her arms. As soon as she entered the door, she did not even have time to put the basket down before she pounced into Lu Yuqing’s arms. “Sister Yuqing, I brought Dad and Grandpa to add to your popularity! Sister Yuqing, look, I brought you cookies that I made myself. They’re not pretty, but they’re delicious! And I asked Auntie to help me!”

“Chenchen, it seems like you only know Sister Yuqing. Didn’t you see Sister Yaoyao?” Jiang Yao walked toward Huang Chenchen while she hugged Mimi. She grabbed Mimi’s paw and greeted Huang Chenchen, “Hi, Little Friend Huang Chenchen, I’m Mimi. I’m a new member of this family. I hope you will like me.”

Huang Chenchen was still in Lu Yuqing’s arms. When she saw the cat in Jiang Yao’s arms, she immediately pounced on Jiang Yao. “Sister Yaoyao! I want to hug you! I want to hug you!”

Mimi did not usually scratch other people, so Jiang Yao handed her to Huang Chenchen with ease. The kitten felt abandoned, so she moved closer to Huang Chenchen to attract her attention. Then the young girl picked her up.

Moe was harder to please as he was the overbearing Second-in-command. When he fell into Huang Chenchen's arms, he kicked Mimi to the ground. Initially, he wanted to stay in Huang Chenchen's arms, but he did not expect the little girl to act irrationally when she saw him bullying Mimi. She reached out to pat his head and criticized him seriously. Then she put Moe on the ground and took Mimi to the courtyard to play.

Chapter 849: Pomegranates in the Yard

Jiang Yao looked at Moe's incredulous expression and laughed until her stomach hurt. Someone had to give Moe's confidence a good blow.

Jiang Yao did not know how to cook, and Lu Yuqing also did not learn how to cook. Therefore, the housekeepers made all the meals in their house.

Jiang Yao brought Huang Chenchen outside to play. Chairman Huang sat in the living room and talked to Manager Sun and Lin Techeng. Huang Chengjing looked around the room, and since he did not have anything to do, he moved closer to Lu Yuqing.

Lu Yuqing could not stand Huang Chengjing when he hung around her for no reason at all. When she went to the kitchen, Huang Chengjing stood at the door and waited for her. When she went to the balcony, he followed her to enjoy the scenery.

"Why don't you stay in the living room and make some tea instead of following me?" Lu Yuqing was annoyed by Huang Chengjing.

"I'm not interested in the topic that my dad is talking about with them." Huang Chengjing laughed. Plus, he wanted to get closer to the people he was interested in. When he saw Chenchen playing with Jiang Yao in the yard, his laughter was light. "Miss Jiang seems to like children very much."

"Yeah, she does like children very much." Lu Yuqing knew that Jiang Yao was not joking when she said she would have children after graduation.

"You seem to like children as well. You're especially good with Chenchen," Huang Chengjing said with a smile. "Chenchen really dotes on you."

"That's because Chenchen is a lovable child." Lu Yuqing loved children more than Jiang Yao, but she did not tell anyone that. She had hope for a child of her own for many years.

Huang Chengjing did not know what was in Lu Yuqing's mind. However, he knew that her mind had drifted when she spoke to him.

Huang Chengjing knew that Lu Yuqing was a woman with a history. Even though he was curious, he did not ask or deliberately investigate that. He wanted Lu Yuqing to tell him personally one day.

"Chenchen said that she wants to plant a fruit tree in the yard next spring." Huang Chengjing paused and asked, "What kind of fruit do you like to eat? Strawberries? Mangoes? Or Peaches?"

Lu Yuqing glanced at Huang Chengjing and frowned. She had a feeling that there was a hidden meaning behind his words.

She did not want the atmosphere to be awkward, so Lu Yuqing answered him. "The pomegranate tree in our yard." Then, she turned and left.

In the yard, Jiang Yao accompanied Chenchen to play with the cat for quite a while. It was not until Lu Xingzhi called her that she sat on the stone bench in the yard to rest.

Two days ago, when Jiang Yao had called him, she told him that she and Lu Yuqing would move into the new house that day. Therefore, she knew that he would call her.

After Jiang Yao picked up the phone, Lu Xingzhi asked her about the new house and the gun room's renovation. After he listened to Jiang Yao's answer, Lu Xingzhi changed the topic and asked, "Is Huang Chengjing there with his daughter? Keep an eye on him, and don't let him get too close to my sister."

"Do you hate him that much?" Jiang Yao did not understand why Lu Xingzhi always looked down on Huang Chengjing. "Huang Chengjing is a martial artist. You know that. He can protect your sister. Isn't that good? Chenchen also likes your sister very much, and she adores the child. Chairman Huang is also a kind person. He seems quite happy that Huang Chengjing is chasing after your sister. He must be quite satisfied with her."

Chapter 850: The World Is Very Small

Lu Xingzhi felt that his wife's impression of Huang Chengjing had gotten better while he was away. Perhaps the man had started to work on his wife?

Fortunately, Jiang Yao's words made him feel a little more at ease. She said, "I'll do as I told you before; I won't help or stop them. I'll let things go with the flow."

There was no need to ask why Lu Xingzhi looked down on Huang Chengjing. He thought that Lu Yuqing was the best sister in the world. Huang Chengjing was a widower, and he also had a daughter. It would be his second marriage; he was not good enough for his sister.

"The gun I told you about will be delivered in a few days. It's special and can pass any inspection, including bullets. So, when you hide it, hide it well. The range of this special gun is different from any other ordinary guns. It has only three bullets. When you get it, ask Ah Lu and Da Ke to teach you how to use it."

After he said that, Lu Xingzhi sighed discreetly. If he had a choice, he would have taught Jiang Yao how to use it personally.

When he thought about it, the two of them had only been separated for less than a week. However, it had been hard for Lu Xingzhi to adapt to life without Jiang Yao.

Ever since Jiang Yao visited his family on National Day, it took him a long time to adapt to her absence. The nights were particularly difficult as he missed his wife's soft embrace.

"My dear wife, it's only two months until the new year. During this period, the weather in Nanjiang city will start to cool. Remember to take good care of yourself." Lu Xingzhi talked about the cold weather again; he was worried that his wife would get sick. It was too late to worry about starvation.

“I’m not a three-year-old child. I know such simple things!” Jiang Yao muttered a little impatiently. However, she knew that Lu Xingzhi was worried because he was not by her side. So, after a few words, she changed the topic to Chen Feibai’s treatment.

“I’ve taken over Chen Feibai’s case for some time now. His recovery is better than I expected.” That was good news. She thought that Chen Feibai would still be the same after a week, but when she saw the last changes to his medication and also his skin condition, Jiang Yao decided to amend her original plans at the very last minute. She extended the time for his medicine to an extra few more days.

“We will try the acupuncture treatment in three days. I think he’ll be fine.” Jiang Yao believed in Chen Feibai. Furthermore, the pain that he suffered during that period was to exchange for a chance to walk again. It would be worth it.

“Sometimes, the world is really small.” Jiang Yao’s exclamation was about Zheng Yi and Chen Feibai. She did not expect that one was in Nanjiang City, and the other was in Jindo. They were also not of the same age, but Zheng Yi and Chen Feibai knew each other.

Zheng Yi told her that she once went to Chengqi Hospital’s temporary site after she rescued Chen Feibai. She was probably there to see him.

For the past few days, Jiang Yao had been experimenting with virtual bodies in the system laboratory. Then, she had adjusted the virtual bodies’ cycle. The results were almost out, and Jiang Yao felt that it was feasible and worth a try.

When Zheng Yi called her the previous night, Jiang Yao had told her about the treatment plan. However, she had used the Divine Doctor’s name. She told Zheng Yi that her teacher had decided on that plan to treat her injuries.
