

Chapter 849

But, in the end, he is a very experienced man.

Immediately, I cleaned up my face and walked over.

“Why are you still up?”

He asked, his voice magnetic and low.

Jackie looked at him and instead of answering his question, asked, “Is it done already?”

Kuskan knew what she was asking about.

He looked at the woman in front of him and didn’t rush to answer, but pondered whether she was angry or not when she asked that.

He knew Bella Qiao’s nature, and if she was angry, she would never ask him.

Didn’t even bother to say a word to him.

Cold violence and all that, it was a regular occurrence for her.

So, she’s not angry?

Although he didn’t know why, Gu Si Qian’s heart still raised that slight hope.

He nodded, “Well, it’s done.”

They were both a little speechless with each other for a moment.

Bella Qiao was because she was feeling complicated and didn’t know how she should speak.

But Gu Siqian was indecisive because he couldn’t make up his mind, and he didn’t know what she meant now, and if he opened his mouth rashly, if he said something wrong, it would only add fuel to the fire.

Therefore, he was afraid to speak.

After a moment of silence passed between them, Bella Qiao sighed softly and said, "Since everything is done, you should rest early, I..."

She paused, in the end she still couldn't get the words out that she really wanted to say in her heart, the words were like long tentacles that picked at her throat and couldn't get out once they got there.

Finally she just said, "I'm going to my room too."

After saying that, he hurriedly turned around and prepared to leave.

However, just before turning around, the man called out to him.

"Wait."

Kusken took a few steps forward and walked up to her, stopping her.

Georgie looked up at him.

The man in front of me, with a face like a crown, the deep facial contours looked cold and beautiful in the dim light, perhaps because of the wine, his skin was a kind of faint sweet red, which was different from his usual cold appearance.

He looked at her and hesitated for a moment before saying, "Did you... were you specifically waiting for me to come back?"

Bella Qiao was startled.

Touching his careful gaze, it suddenly felt like something had pricked my heart.

She pursed her lips, not denying it, and nodded silently.

The next thing you see is the great ecstasy like a wave into the man's eyes.

His lips quirked up and he asked her, "What do you have to say to me?"

Georgie thought about it, shaking her head.

Originally intended to say.

But just now, for some reason, when those words came to my lips, I just couldn't say them.

She didn't want to force herself and thought to herself, let it be, time will tell, and maybe one day she'll really see the man's heart and her own.

Until then, all that needs to be left unsaid.

Thinking so, she looked up at her with a gentle smile.

"Rest early."

Afterwards, he turned and hurried back to his room without giving him any chance to speak.

Gu Si Qian was a bit confused by her like this, and didn't know what she meant by that, standing there for a long time thinking about it.

However, he was never one to dwell on things, and since he couldn't figure out how to

That's simply not wanted.

Anyway, as long as she wasn't mad at herself.

Kuskan also went back to his room to rest.

The next day was Lindsong's birthday.

Invitations had been sent to him earlier for the two to attend over there.

Both of them have already agreed, so naturally, they will not be absent today.

In the morning, the doctor came over to change Georgie's medication and was pleasantly surprised to find that her leg was almost healed.

You still can't walk for too long, much less run or jump, but standing for a while or walking slowly is not a problem.

Bella Qiao's rib injury is almost healed, and when she saw it, she asked not to use a wheelchair today, but to ride over with them.

Naturally, Gu Siqian agreed.

Today, as it was a formal occasion, they both wore formal attire.

Gu Si Qian was dressed in a black suit, while Bella Qiao was wearing a light blue dress.

Now that her hair has grown a bit longer, it's not enough for a bun, but a perm can still do the trick.

So, early in the morning Ober called her stylist, but with a simple yet chic look.

Shoulder length short hair permed into a slight curl, one side with pearl hair accessories pinned up, with her clear and beautiful looks, has a certain airy and beautiful feeling.

Gu Si Qian couldn't help but be amazed when he saw it.

The group rode in the car to the venue Lindsong had booked.

It was a five-star hotel, and most of the people who came were Lin Song's friends.

Perhaps it was because they were worried that their young people were uncomfortable playing, so the elders of Lin Song's family, except for showing their faces at the beginning, didn't show up again afterwards.

Everyone brought their female companions, and the women also brought their male companions, and Bella Qiao came with Gu Siqian, who was naturally his female companion.

Among Lin Song's friends, there were quite a few who knew Gu Si Qian, so many people inevitably came over to toast halfway through.

Bella Qiao was wounded and couldn't drink, and Gu Si Qian was worried that she would get tired if she stood for too long and that it would cause repeated wounds, so when she arrived, he took her to the rest room to rest first.

It's still early at this point.

Georgie left him to his own devices and it didn't matter if she was alone in the lounge.

Neither Gu Siqian nor she was a tiresome person, so there were no more words and she went out after settling her down.

After he left, Georgie picked up her phone and stayed in the couch playing on it.

After about half an hour, there was a racket outside.

Where she stayed was a separate lounge, which Guskan had specifically asked for for her, knowing she didn't like to be alone with strangers.

Therefore, people don't usually come over here.

But it's so crowded out there now, it's obvious that someone is coming over.

She looked up, and sure enough, she saw Lin Song leading a group of people over with a smile on his face.

"Well Joe, I've been looking for you for half a day, let's just say how come I haven't found you anywhere, originally you were quietly hiding here playing with your phone, but today is my birthday, how can you hide here by yourself when you've come so far, come come come come, come come out with me and have some fun."

Bella Qiao couldn't help but laugh, "I can't drink, what's there to be lively about, don't spoil your fun."

That said, the body was already on its feet.

After all, it's always hard to say no when people are the birthday girl.

Lin Song didn't care with a big wave of his hand, "It's not like no one is forcing you to drink if you can't drink, you drink water and they drink, come play games with us."

I said, and pulled her out with him without a word.

Chapter 850

Along with Lin Song, there were a few other local rich sons and daughters.

At the sight of Bella Qiao, everyone's face showed astonishment.

Someone bumped Lin Song with his arm and laughed, "Brother Song, who's this beauty, I've never seen her before, and I'm not introducing her to my brothers."

Lin Song had grown up wearing the same trousers as them, so how could he not know what these people were thinking.

He waved his hand to shoo the man away, "Go go go go, cut the bullshit here and drink your wine."

Everyone laughed at the sight of it.

Someone joked, "Brother Pine, I heard you invited your sweetheart over today, it wouldn't be this beauty, would it?"

Lin Song's face reddened as soon as this was said.

Fiercely glaring at the man, he scolded angrily, "What are you talking nonsense about? This is a brother I've known for years, just like you, so don't talk nonsense if you don't know."

His intent was not to let the dude joke around so as not to piss off Bella Qiao.

But as soon as these people heard that Bella Qiao wasn't the one he liked, and seeing that she was so pretty and alone, they must not have a boyfriend either.

So one by one, they became more attentive.

"OK, I know, I told you, according to your virtue you don't deserve such a big beautiful woman."

"Hahahahahaha, if you guys keep talking like that, Pine's going to get mad."

"The birthday boy mustn't be angry today, or else wouldn't it be a joke if a beautiful woman saw him later?"

A bunch of hip-hops, not a proper one.

Lin Song had no choice but to take them, and was somewhat helpless.

I had to explain to Bella Qiao in a low voice, "Ah Qiao, don't worry about it, they're just a bit b*tchy with their mouths, they're actually not bad people, if someone really dares to mess with you, just fix him up hard, never mind my face, got it?"

It was only because the other party was Bella Qiao that he dared to speak to people with such confidence.

If it was a different person, I'm afraid Lin Song would have to personally protect it no matter what.

After all, these wolf cubs, although not malicious, but in the end, they are used to living in the flowers, not to mention harm, in case they offend others is not good.

But Bella Qiao was different, Lin Song was well aware of her inherent evil wolf attributes, and to say that this group was just wolf cubs, then Bella Qiao was that wolf king, and they weren't her match yet.

That's why he could feel comfortable saying such things to her.

Bella Qiao sniffed and quirked her lips.

Nodding slightly, he said, "It's okay, you don't have to worry about me, go do your thing."

At this time, someone just happened to be calling Lin Song not far away.

So, Lin Song didn't linger any longer and went over.

As soon as Lin Song left, a few rich dudes, immediately came over towards Bella Qiao.

"Hey, pretty girl, Lindsong said you were his friend, how come we haven't met before? What's your name?"

Bella Qiao looked at the man with a faint glance and didn't hide it, "Bella Qiao."

The man's eyes lit up as Filipino lips faded to spit out the name.

Immediately another one laughed, "Are you a local here or a Chinese?"

Since Bella Qiao's mother was Chinese, she was more Chinese looking.

Bella Qiao thought about it and said, "It all counts."

The man immediately said, "I see, with Chinese blood, right."

She nodded.

Another gentleman said, "Go, go, go, Qin Zhang, you're checking the account, man.

What do you care who's home? We're here for a drink today, pretty girl, and I don't know if I'm lucky enough to have one with you."

Bella Qiao turned her head to look over, but it was a young man with red lips and a suave look.

She dropped her eyes slightly, thought, and said, "I can't drink."

"It's okay, I know that, Song has just said well, so let's drink, you drink water and we'll play the game together, okay?"

Bella Qiao knew that Lin Song handed himself over to the group because he was afraid that he would be bored alone in the lounge.

After all, everyone was out playing and she was sitting in the lounge by herself, so it was a bit of a snub anyway.

So, without further pretense, she nodded her head.

The group went to the other side to play games.

There belonged to the entertainment area, and the group found a large couch and sat down to start playing a game called Draw Cards.

A dealer is first asked to call a card at random, then a person is dealt to all those involved in the game, and after the cards are dealt, the person who was called has to drink.

Bella Qiao has played this game before, so since playing it again, it's a natural progression.

She had the waitress pour her a glass of water and leave it there, playing ten hands before losing one, infuriating some of the other men to no end.

By this time, everyone was playing familiar.

Someone began to fawn over her, but of course, after all, Bella Qiao was beautiful and had a good personality, completely different from those delicate and unruly daughters in the circle.

So, naturally, it was inevitable that someone would actually fall in love with her.

In the end, she was the one who lost the least.

But Rao Qi still drank a lot of water.

When you drink too much water, you want to go to the bathroom.

She stood up and smiled, "Okay, I'm done, you guys play, I'm going to go to the bathroom."

We were all smart enough to know that pestering people would only make them unhappy, so none of us forced it any further.

Instead, there was a boy who stood up and laughed, "You don't know where the bathroom is, I'll show you."

Bella Qiao looked at him and remembered that when they had introduced each other earlier, they said that this man seemed to be the son of a hotel tycoon, called Su Zhe Shi, and that the hotel where Lin Song was hosting the banquet today was theirs.

Since she was the host, Bella Qiao naturally wouldn't refuse.

So I nodded, "Trouble."

The other smiled gently, "It's no trouble, you come with me."

I said, and walked out as first.

Georgie followed him all the way out the door, a long way midway as this side of the party was on the grass and a bit far from the bathroom side.

Su Zhe noticed a tiny little bit of oddness in her walk, and although Bella Qiao had tried to hide it, he was still able to see it with his sharp eyes.

Without moving, he slowed his pace to a crawl and smiled, "If Miss Jo is not used to wearing high heels, there is a special cloakroom upstairs and I can have someone bring you a pair of flats that will go with your long skirt."

After all, Bella Qiao was 1.7 meters tall, and even if she wore flat shoes, she wouldn't actually be considered short.

Whereas, Bella Qiao just laughed.

"No need."

She paused, and at Su Zhe Shi's confused gaze, she explained, "I don't have tired feet, it's because I had a little injury before, and it hasn't fully healed, so it's just a little bit affected."

Only then did it dawn on Su Zhe Shi and nodded, "Is it hurting better now?"

Chapter 851

"It's much better, and the doctor says it will be completely healed in another month."

Hearing her say that there was still a month left, Su Zhe Shi not only didn't show a relaxed expression, but frowned instead.

"It must have been a serious injury, right?"

Bella Qiao nodded.

She didn't open her mouth to explain what it was because she was hurt, and as a first meeting and new acquaintance, Su Chul-sei couldn't ask too many questions.

Lest it be perceived as overstepping the rules.

So, all that could be said was, "Miss Jo will have to be careful in the future, and I wish you a speedy recovery."

Bella Qiao smiled slightly and said, "Thank you."

Then, neither of them spoke again until they reached the bathroom, where Su Zhe Shi pointed ahead and said, "It's over there, Miss Qiao, you can go over there by yourself."

Georgie nodded and thanked him again, before going in.

She went to the bathroom and fixed her appearance in the mirror again before turning around, ready to leave.

But at that moment, the moment her hand gripped the bathroom door handle, her body suddenly stiffened.

An instinct that had been swimming on the edge of life and death for years told her that there was someone in the bathroom.

Because this side is a VIP area, the restrooms are also separate and there is only one toilet and sink in one restroom.

When she had just come in, it was empty, so there was no way anyone would be there....

Kitty's fingers tightened on the door handle, took a deep breath and opened the door.

Outside, not far away, Su Chul Se was still waiting.

Georgie was surprised and thought he should have left when he brought himself to it.

She walked over and smiled, "I'm sorry to bother you and keep you waiting here."

Su Zhesei put out the cigarette in his hand in the bin and said, "It's no trouble, I'm fine with the reverse down."

And then, after a pause, "How are you?Well let's go over."

Bella Qiao nodded.

So they went outside together.

However, after only two steps, Georgie suddenly took a step, turned around quickly and said, "Oh no, I dropped my bracelet, I think I dropped it in the bathroom, I'll go back to the bathroom and look for it."

Su Chul Se turned around in surprise at the sight of the bracelet, and followed up by asking, "What kind of bracelet is it?Do you want me to help you?"

Georgie shook her head.

When she looked up, she saw an aunt in a janitorial outfit that looked like she was cleaning coming right out of the bathroom.

A slight frown.

Su Zhesei had reached her by this time, and was confused when he saw her standing there and not moving on, his eyes just staring at the production of dirty words.

"What's wrong?"

Bella Qiao looked up and took a showy leaf bracelet out of her sleeve.

"No need to look for it, I was hanging onto the lace of my dress sleeve."

Su Zhe Shi was relieved to see this and smiled, "It's good that it didn't fall, so let's go over."

Bella Qiao nodded.

They walked outside together.

Bella Qiao kept an eye out for movement behind her until she was sure that no one was indeed following, and then she frowned.

Could it really be that she was just thinking too much?

The cleaning lady, she really just went in to clean up?

I don't know why, but Georgie always had a strange feeling about it.

But then I thought that maybe I was too nervous and sensitive.

It was only when she got outside on the field that Bella Qiao realized that Gu Si Qian had been looking for her.

She walks over to find Gu Si Qian and sees her standing with Su Zhe Shi, Gu Si Qian's eyes

Eyes deepening, he stepped quickly and asked, "Why did you come out without telling me?"

A slightly grouchy tone, doubly intimate.

Su Zhe Shi was surprised and looked at them in surprise.

"Gu and Miss Qiao know each other?"

As one of Lin Song's best friends, he didn't know Gu Siqian well, but he had always met him.

So, they kinda know each other.

But he didn't know that Bella Qiao was the one who came with Gu Siqian.

Gu Si Qian looked up at Su Zhe Shi, and before he could speak, Bella Qiao had already spoken first.

Smiling at Su Zhe Shi, he said, "Thank you for taking care of me just now and taking me to the restroom, please, I'm fine now, so go do your work."

Su Zhe Shi looked deeply at her and then at Gu Si Qian, in the end it was inconvenient to ask too many questions and turned to leave.

Only after he left did Gu Siqian say to Bella Qiao, "Does your foot hurt?"

Georgie nodded, "A little."

The words were so light that the man had been hit across the room and held up.

Bella Qiao didn't hold back a shriek of shock, and her face turned pale with fright, her hands subconsciously wrapped around his neck and shrieked, "What are you doing?"

Gu Si Qian's eyebrows were like a mountain, the lines didn't move, "I thought you said your feet hurt?"

"I..."

I didn't ask you to hug me even if my feet hurt.

She couldn't say the rest of the words because Gussie was already carrying her to the lounge.

And then, not far away, Su Zhe Shi, who had not yet gone far, looked back at the scene with a deep frown.

Entering the lounge, Gus Gan placed Bella Qiao on the sofa, then crouched down in front of her, holding her ankles and taking her shoes off.

Georgie opened her mouth, "Don't..."

Before the latter words could be said, the man had seen her slightly swollen foot?

He didn't frown.

Although the doctor said that Georgie is now able to walk outside with her leg injury, he also said that it is best not to stand in heels for too long.

Now that I look at it, it's clear that it's been standing too long.

Before he came out, he had heard about Bella Qiao and their drinking and playing games, this time when he looked at the feet again, a surge of anger came up.

He looked up at her and asked, "What did I tell you before I left? I told you to stay here and wait for me. Why didn't you listen to me? And play games with them."

Bella Qiao was inexplicably guilty, her eyes flickering, not daring to be right with him.

But with a stubborn mouth, he said, "I'll play mine, it's none of your business."

However, as soon as I finished speaking, I suddenly felt a dark shadow over my eyes, and the next thing I knew, my lips were blocked.

Georgie stared in surprise.

It was a very lingering, deep k*ss.

These lips, once upon a time, he didn't know how many times he'd pictured them in detail, so many midnight dreams, and he could always recall their sweet taste.

But when we see each other again, we can only be strong enough to watch from a distance, not daring to come close.

What a hidden ordeal that was.

It wasn't until now, when he k*ssed those lips again, that he realized that some of the memories he had thought he had forgotten, that he had let go of, had just been buried deep in his subconscious.

It only takes a little trigger to completely bring out that wonderful memory.

Georgie refused at first.

The k*ss came inexplicably, and she didn't even know how or why it had happened.

But it landed solidly on his lips, and, with great intent to attack again.
