

Chapter 861: Starry's Wrath

In the classics of magicians, a river is always mentioned. It runs through the past and the future, the mystery of ups and downs time, every drop of river water is the life of a mortal, and every wave is the bloom of the times.

The magic spirits washed up by the river are full of invaluable treasures, which can instantly cause serious injuries to heal against the sun, and make the old man return to the age against the young and middle-aged.

The fixed moon that allows youth to stay temporarily, and the unattainable listening day, it is the river of gold, the end of all time.

But for mortals and silversmiths, Liujinhe is destined to be a spectacle that can only be found in virtual works. Although the two-wing magician can step into the time continent, no matter which country they are in, the second-wing magician is already the pillar of the society, their magic realm has entered the hall, and ordinary people can only enjoy the magician all their lives. The welfare of civilization...or slavery.

And the silver artificer may be very poor, but the two-wing artificer can definitely be rich if he wants to be rich. Liu Jinhe is not difficult to find in the Time Continent. If you work hard and explore, you can meet at least ten times a month. If you take a little risk, you can grab one to three time magic spirits each time. The probability of these one-time precious magic spirits in the anti-time series is not low. Like the price of a wing against the year, it is enough for ordinary people to rent a house in Galex to live comfortably and happily for a year.

Therefore, in the eyes of Fanxing mortals, this golden river that suddenly flows three thousand feet from the sky is not only a symbol of disaster, but the starting point of the Starry Kingdom's victory, as if the Master Fanxing will soon include the Time Continent into the Starry territory. .

Even if the Liujin River is surrounded by the Baita military restricted area, many people speculate whether the Liujin River will be opened in the future, and silver artisans and mortals will also go in to pan for gold.

Therefore, when the earth-shattering roar of battle sounded near the White Tower Fortress, the ordinary residents naturally evacuated to a safe place according to the broadcast, but the magicians of Galeth took the initiative to rush to the White Tower Fortress.

“These exotic magicians actually dare to go wild in Galeworld!”

“Our Fanxing Capital has been safe and sound for nearly a thousand years, but today we were trampled by outsiders recklessly! This is a shame that we can’t wash away, and our Fanxing Artists have lost all face!”

“Even if there is only one person left in the battle, the intruder must never be allowed to succeed! Even if the last drop of blood is drained, the intruder must definitely pay the price!”

“The shame of the stars must be read as death! I am the group” “Stars!”

“I am the stars! I am the group” “The stars!”

In the excited and angry crowd, the magicians spontaneously shouted the famous words of the star king in the epic of the stars. The first strong man under the starry sky, praised by heroic poems,

In a time of crisis, he fought 70,000 magicians alone in order to protect his homeland. Even if there was no one behind him and there were endless enemies ahead, he was not afraid to sing “I am the stars, one person and one sword to fight for three thousand miles!

The number of swordsmen in the Starry Kingdom ranks first in the Six Kingdoms, which has a lot to do with the hero complex rooted in the bones.

When passing through a street, the two waves of people converged, and the singing of the epic stars gradually infected all the emotional magicians, and everyone sang the great heroic poems in unison. to the battlefield.

But the clearest and best-sounding lead singer was actually a female sorcerer.

Sonia, Dia and Felix, the three of them watched Daedalus sing the heroic poem with passion, winning the sing-along and spread of countless magicians around. Even though they are still wearing masks, Deda Rose's voice is so recognizable, how could fans not recognize it?

"Daedalus is with us, the first singer """" is also going to the battlefield, and I have no regrets to say that I can go to the battlefield with Daedalus, one after another in the crowd.

After Dedalus stopped to take a sip of water, she turned to look at the three girls who were staring at her, and tilted her head: what's the matter? ""

"You sing very well."

"thanks."

"You're welcome..." It was difficult for Sonia to describe her feelings. After all, among the four of them, the most pure person against the stars and the stars was Dedalus.

The village girl is just to protect Yaxiu. If Fanxing is willing to accept Yaxiu, she would like to live with Yaxiu in Galeworld and become a native of the capital; Diya has no ill will towards Fanxing. Even Felix just wants to break the sky, and if Master Fanxing is willing to open up the kingdom, she will most likely die.

Only Dedalus, a die-hard believer of the Four Pillars God, is a complete anti-star fighter. After all, what the Four Pillars of God does is to subvert the kingdom of God, and breaking the sky is just a form.

The surrounding star magicians could never have imagined that the lead singer who boosted their morale and the national goddess whom they longed for was the biggest star traitor.

At this moment, a magician spread his phantom wings and flew into the air, and everyone couldn't help looking up at him. Galesyo-flying ban, although the White Tower Fortress was being attacked, but since the throne hall has not lifted the flying ban, they No matter how excited they are, they won't fly, not only because they are afraid of breaking the rules, but also because most of the two-winged magicians who can fly are nobles with titles.

With the exception of Sonia, the lowest rank of swordsmen, other nobles are blessed by the stars and cannot violate any known law – but it is the basic duty of a noble to read all laws, including the Supreme Court’s case guidance and the latest amendments.

Therefore, this flying magician is either not a nobleman, or...a privileged sanctuary magician.

I just heard the Sanctuary Warlock say loudly: ““Everyone, I’m a professor at the University of Truth, weapon master Olleron.

Diya: Do you know? ““

“Well, there was a relationship before, I told Yaxiu.”

“I do not know how?”

“Because you hadn’t come to intervene in our two-person world at that time, dear daughter.”

“roll!”

Olleron said: “First of all, it is very regrettable that I am not an insider of the White Tower, and my qualifications are not enough. But there is no doubt that the White Tower is now carrying out the important plan of the Master of the Stars, flowing golden rivers. It is obviously the most important part of it. Once it succeeds, I dare not say that the national power of Fanxing will be greatly increased, but Master Fanxing will definitely be able to suppress other gods!”

“Because of this, other * masters have sent magicians to invade the stars, and because of the outbreak of the concept of empty doors, many foreign magicians have successfully infiltrated the stars in the past few months. I have also participated in the activities of encircling and suppressing the intruders, but these Exotic magicians are hidden deep, thieves are immortal, and they are always looking for opportunities to destroy!”

“The Master of the Stars and the Kingdom of Stars will both prosper and lose both. When the Master of the Stars comes to the Void Realm, our Star Kingdom will become the greatest civilization of magicians! This group of invaders will only arouse our anger, they In the end, it will be self-reliant, and Fanxing will be the final victor!”

“For the stars to shine, we defend our homeland from vile and shameless invaders! I am the stars!

“I am the stars!” The magicians roared in unison.

“But we must not join the battle rashly, otherwise, instead of helping ourselves, it will become a burden. I will contact the White Tower now to discuss how we should help. Miss Fina, Miss Servi, Patriarch Vosloda, Professor Trozan, Professor Nidala...” Oleron pointed out all the sanctuary magicians in the crowd: “”Please take charge of leading the team temporarily to prevent chaos.

Sonia and others, who wanted to keep a low profile, were forced to fly up, seeing so many famous sanctuaries appear, and the morale of the magicians soared.

Sonia glanced at Dimi, and she was not surprised—unless she was still in the virtual realm, most of the magicians in Galese would rush over to join in the fun.

What’s more, a noble descendant like Di Mi, who is loyal to Fan Xing without the blessing of the stars?

Timi also noticed Sonia and Felix, smiled and nodded.

After they led the flight for a while, Di Mi took the initiative to get close to Sonia and said in a low voice, “Thank you”””. Thank you for what? Sonia doesn’t know why.

“Thank you for playing with Felix.” ”” Timi said: I’m glad she has a friend like you by her side.

Yeah? But you turned to look at your sister’s stinky face, she didn’t seem to think that way...Sonia looked back at Felix, who subconsciously covered her chest and blushed. Only then did he suddenly understand Dimi’s subtext—he thought that Felix was with Sonia, so he released his natural instinct to wear women’s clothes.

“This is what I should do!” “Sonia said: I will try my best to turn her into a very frivolous noble girl”... ah?

When they reached the gap in the White Tower, the magicians from the southern city and the northern city also joined together. Nearly 10,000 magicians gathered together, and among them, the flying sanctuary exceeded double digits. Sonia and others Seeing it, I was fortunate enough—they gave up, otherwise they would have to face this torrent of magicians, which is still not counting the army of magicians in the White Tower.

“how can that be...”

Di Mi looked at the gap in the wall of the White Tower, and his always indifferent expression showed confusion and panic. Sonia looked at it, and immediately understood Dimi’s mood—that near-perfect spherical hole had a 100% weight check with the Vosloda family’s stunts.

“Is there anyone else in your family who has mastered the volatility?”

“Apart from me and my father, no, not even Felix has contacted.” “Dimi’s face is extremely ugly: although it may also be leaked in the virtual realm,

But this degree of completion...”

It is even more perfect than the fluctuation of their family inheritance. Although Di Mi saw this, he couldn’t say anything.

At this time, Sonia suddenly heard a shout, and turned to find Ingurit and Aisha in the cafe. When they went over together and briefly introduced each other,

Ai Xia couldn’t wait to say: “” I was there when the White Tower Fortress was breached!

“What?” “” Sonia and the others were startled, and then asked: How many are there?

“Five people, one male and four females, all of them are legendary magicians. The female swordsman with red hair who uses the wave of annihilation is a red-haired female swordsman.” “Aisha looked at Sonia and felt similar to you.”

How did you know that I wanted to steal the secret of Vosloda...Sonia asked: ““Did you take a picture?

“Yes, but it failed.” “Ai Xia sighed: all recording devices are disturbed, at most they can only be drawn, otherwise their physical information cannot be directly recorded. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com”

This result is not surprising to everyone. When Deya came, he asked Gospel to collect information on the intruder, but Gospel actually said that he couldn't do it.

Daedalus asked, ““What are the characteristics of their appearance?

“They are all wearing purple-blue clothes! Ying” Gullit replied immediately. Purple!

The characteristic clothes of the wave!

Sonia and the others instantly respected this anti-starry-sky organization—they were able to send five legendary magicians to shake the White Tower Fortress, the water in the starry country is very deep!

“Now the invaders have passed through the second fortress, and only the inner fort is left from the Liujin River.” “Aisha has a look of concern for the country and the people: but the defense of the inner fort should be the strongest, and it should be able to block these invasions. Let's...”

At this moment, there were exclamations one after another around. Everyone looked at the White Pagoda and saw the scene that made the star artist's mentality collapse—

The flowing golden river is shrinking rapidly!

“Could it be that the inner castle was also destroyed!?” Aisha’s eyes lit up: How could the arrangements of our Master Fanxing be so vulnerable?

“No.” “Daedalus looked into the distance and looked carefully. The inner castle barrier still exists. The shrinking of the Liujin River is not because it was destroyed, but...it was used.”

“Could it be that Master Fanxing did it himself?” Felix said: I have read in the book that the four-winged time magic only needs to consume a small amount of golden river water, and the time * only needs to consume a small amount of golden river water, but this... ..”

“The Liujin Tianhe is almost going to dry up, and it’s still consuming.” “Nia also became serious: What kind of terrifying time miracle is it that will stop the Liujin River from flowing?”

Chapter 862: 6 wings

What kind of phantom does he want to summon to stop the Liujin River from flowing?

The Alchemist King didn’t dare to imagine the specific answer at all. He looked stupidly at the shrinking stream of gold, until the adjutant shouted beside him before he came back to his senses: “The Alchemist King”

Sir, what should we do now? ”

“Second wings. The five spectators flew outside the inner fort, and Yuzai Youzai watched the black shadow in the Liujin River grow a second virtual wing.”

No matter what miracle, simply defeat the caster to cut off the connection! The Alchemy King made a decisive decision: the whole army, cooperate with the sanctuary to encircle and suppress the enemy! Sanctuary Warlock All ""

The Ministry was dispatched to try to break the void sanctuary of the five viewers.

And the five viewers didn't even use the guardian spirit. The silver lamp of the mirror master burst out with all the power of armed color to reduce the IQ of the surrounding magicians.

Strangling, the death mad Shenwei killed one with a sword, and quickly slaughtered the sanctuary.

"Three wings. The viewer said."

"Isolate their perception! The Alchemist King shouted: Sonic bombs, smoke bombs, shock bombs, flash bombs, all on!" ""

All the special ammunition in the Baita's inventory poured out, and thousands of sound bombs and smoke bombs completely turned the five-person area of spectators into a heavily polluted area.

The surgeons pierced the eardrums and burned the eyeballs!

"Four wings. In the thick fog, the viewer's voice is still clear."

The Alchemist King turned his head and saw that the shadow of Liu Jinhe had indeed unfolded its fourth virtual wing! A strange idea suddenly appeared in his mind, and this idea quickly changed

It got bigger and bigger until it overwhelmed his psychological defense.

Even if he fell into the Liujin River back then, even if he met the Shadow Evil Dragon in the remote airspace, even if he was boiled and swallowed by blood flies in Ruby Mountain, it was not like this at this moment.

Horrified!

“Five wings.”

While the Alchemy King was in a trance, the shadow quietly unfolded the fifth virtual wing!

The legendary Wings of Thieves, Wings of Demigods! The realm of the gods, where the Alchemy King was fascinated, appeared in front of him at this moment!

The demigod power that the world has not seen in 1668 is about to bloom again in the inner castle! And what's even more frightening is that this phantom miracle doesn't seem to be over yet.

bundle.

“Attack Liu Jinhe. The Alchemist King's voice” was hoarse.

The adjutant was startled, what? ""

“Everyone listens to my order, stop the flow of the golden river! The King of Alchemy shouted: “No” “Let his miracle continue to grow... Attack!”

After a brief hesitation, the alchemy king's high reputation still won the following of all the white tower magicians. All weapons in the inner castle were aimed at the upper reaches of the Liujin River.

There are tens of thousands of bullets penetrating the river of gold in seconds!

With the efforts of the White Pagoda Magician, they succeeded in consuming the Liujin River in one step, and the Liujin River has shrunk to only three or four meters wide.

However, that terrifying voice sounded again: "" Six Wings.

When he saw the dark shadow unfolding the sixth virtual wing, the head of the Alchemist King, which had been running for more than a hundred years, was almost down. But the next second, he let out an old roar,

The figure turned into a stream of silver light and rushed directly into the Liujin River!

He raised his hands high, and the flowing gold liquid condensed in the air, constantly blocking the flowing gold river!

The miracle of alchemy is impregnable!

This is a defense miracle developed by the Alchemist King after the failure of the Thousand Wishes inheritance. Although the mana consumption is very large, the defense strength exceeds that of the previous "Dark Gold".

giant"!

"Stop for me!"

With the roar of the Alchemist King, the Liujin River was completely cut off by him and the White Pagoda magicians, and only the last drop of Liujin River fell into the shadows.

The little shadow that grew out of the shadow's waist, eventually had to go back.

It worked.

The white tower magicians are extremely excited, they have successfully cut off the golden river and stopped the miracle of the invaders!

"Well done. The spectator" "Applause and said: The sword attendant I summoned, after all, stopped at Six Wings.

“Then, how are you going to defend against the full force of the Six-Winged Swordsman?”

In the eyes of Baita’s magician who gradually fell into despair, the shadow slowly held down the hilt of the sword. The huge pressure almost suffocated the magicians and made the magic spirits shiver.

At this moment, a phantom of a ferocious giant dragon with bright golden light appeared behind the Alchemy King. The Alchemist grabbed it back, and pulled out a long handle from the mouth of the golden light giant dragon.

gun.

This is the guardian spirit of the Alchemy King, and it is also his last card, the Golden Thorn Dragon!

The long spear condensed by the golden thorn dragon will turn all tangible things into gold, whether it is a miracle or a magic spirit!

In the silver armor, all the strengthening potions were injected into the alchemy king’s old body, allowing him to return to the heyday of a hundred years ago in an instant!

Boom!

When the supersonic muffled sound exploded, the Alchemist King’s spear had already pierced through the six-winged black shadow! But the Alchemy King was not at all joyful in his heart.

Because he didn’t have the real feeling of being stabbed.

“Sure enough, this is the Lord of God... When this thought flashed through the Alchemist King’s mind, the six-winged black shadow finally drew his sword.

Zheng.

At this moment, Quanjia Leshi heard the sound of the sword. After 48 minutes, the fortress soldiers stationed in the abyss at the edge of the stars will also be stunned by the sound of swords.

Look around.

Outside the White Pagoda, the star magicians who just saw the flow of the Liujin River stopped, also witnessed that the barrier of the inner fort shattered like glass, shattering all the way to the sky, and the Liujin River was shattered like glass.

He was killed to the point where even the stars flickered. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

Immediately afterwards, the huge sword qi vented out, blowing the Gala World like a storm, the Baita city wall burst into countless cracks, and many magicians were almost blown up.

The magician closest to the gap in the White Tower was even cut by the sharp sword energy, and all those watching were burst into tears!

Daedalus was blown to the ground like the others. She didn't even care about elegance at this time, and looked into the White Tower stupidly, murmuring like an ignorant citizen: "Why?"

How could it be possible...even the aftermath has such power..."

"The heaven and the earth change, the mountains and rivers change, you will die if you get close, and you will be hurt if you see it. This is already a legend... The power of the six wings is when the golden river falls again, and the viewer will

Holding two swords, he stepped into the ruined inner fort area. All walled houses

The house was almost shattered into pieces, and the violent sword qi smashed all tangible things to pieces.

The ghostly demon froze: the viewer ""You lied, if you do this trick, all the people on the outside will fall down, how can they come to die!

The Dark Demon kicked away the rubble to look at the wreckage inside, and snorted, "This "" is more shredded than I am.

The mirror owner put away the silver lamp and said sadly: ""The pleasant tour is over.

The death madman took out a puff from her arms and ate it silently, but soon the black demon rushed over and snatched the remaining puff in her arms

The spectator walked in front of Liu Jinhe, suddenly lifted the mask with his sword, and looked at Liu Jinhe's own reflection.

"Then, it's up to you next."

Soon, the star magician found that Liu Jinhe suddenly reversed direction, flowing back to the sky and disappearing. Waiting for the Griffin Company and the Fort Legion to recover

Sonneburg, but no one was found, and no one noticed the few inconspicuous broken statues in the rubble.

Chapter 863: Holiday in Vichy

First apply primer on the nails, apply mint blue nail polish after the primer is dry, place the magnetic plate on the right side of the nail immediately after painting, remove it after a few seconds, the particles of the magnetic plate after drying will look like stars Spread it out, then apply nail polish, repeat the operation of the magnetic plate in front, brush the top oil, and leave it on the magnetic plate for a minute or two, so that the nails will appear galaxy-like color.

This is not over yet, the manicurist applies nail polish on the snowflake printing plate, scratches it off and rolls it with a stamp, then covers it on the dry nails, and finally applies the top coat, so that a snowflake galaxy dark flower nail is ready!

Ash, who had been waiting beside him for a long time, couldn't wait to stand up: "Is it finally done!?"

"Don't worry."

Vichy spread out the index fingers of both hands, admiring the magic of color blooming on the nails, and said Yoyo: "In addition to my nails,

And toe nails. I just recently wanted to wear sandals, and the laser-silver foot nails here are said to be very white. "

"Yes, this customer." The manicurist smiled and said, "In addition to the laser silver, the store manager has recently developed a diamond blue, which will reflect the color of the streamer under the natural starlight. Many people like it."

Ya Xiu sat back weakly: "No?"

"Of course not." Vichy stuck out his tongue at him: "I know you're impatient." The manicurist smiled and said, "You two have such a good relationship."

They made a vomit expression together, and Yaxiu waved his hand: "You misunderstood, we are not the relationship you imagined" Oh? Are you two brothers and sisters?" The manicurist said: "Few older brothers or younger brothers would be willing to Wait in the store, this gentleman came back so quickly even when he went to the bathroom, I could see that he was very nervous about you. "

"He's just afraid of me running away." Vichy said angrily, "If I run away, he'll have to chain me back."

The manicurist laughed, "This is the first time I've heard someone use chains as a metaphor for intimacy."

However, Ash and Vichy didn't smile, they just showed expressions of mutual disgust. The manicurist's smile gradually became stiff: "It was a metaphor just now, right?"

After checking out, returning to the pedestrian street where the stars shine, Yaxiu put his hands in his trouser pockets: "Where are you going next?" "Where are you going?"

Vichy strode forward, suddenly turned around, tilted his head and said, "Yes, let's go to the aquarium!"

There is an aquarium nearby!"

Wouldn't it be boring for you to go to an aquarium as a thousand-year-old demigod? Or would you like to see if new species emerge here that you haven't eaten yet?"

"As long as you're bored, then I'm not bored." Vichy spread his hands and said, "The only entertainment I have on vacation is to watch you suffer. Let's go, my dear master, or you want to leave me, or go ahead End my vacation?"

"Axiu snorted: "Anyway, you're just wasting your vacation, you don't care, how can I care? "Really? After I go to the aquarium, I'll go to the mall to try on clothes."

"Didn't you go there once in the morning? And I didn't even buy one after trying it out. The clerk looked at me strangely!"

"So we're going to another mall later. There's a clothing store over there, and I promise we can stay there at least until the mall closes and skip dinner."

"you-.."

Looking at Vichy's provocative face, "Come on, the black-hearted slave owner, take off the temple and my vacation", Yaxiu forced his anger down: "Whatever you want!"

He kind of regretted why he had promised such a benefit a month ago.

On the day that Vichy's seventh virtual wing was taken away, Vichy's mood was extremely unstable, and his eyes were swollen from crying. Although he didn't know whether this half-species was really affected by the physiological period of a mortal's body, it was out of compensation. Thinking (Ashe recalled that he had already felt his brain pumping), Ashe very generously announced that Vichy would be given a day of maid leave, allowing her to move freely on this day to adjust her state as soon as possible.

Yanyue's maid, Fake Vichy, was lying in the villa all day, and she didn't do much except need a little care from Rose, so Ash didn't realize what she had done.

But this month's maid leave, Vichy asked to go out, Ash suddenly found a huge loophole – he could not let Vichy act alone!

Even if Vichy had to return to Ash's place to check in every 12 hours, just letting this demon wander around for 12 hours was enough to make Ash's anxiety explode.

As for sending others to monitor, Igula is a good swimmer and is easy to drown, Harvey is too chaotic and easy to be distorted, Rose is a mortal, and Feilijian blood is a sacrifice to the devil. After thinking about it, Yaxiu could only follow in person.

As a result, Vichy called at 6 o'clock this morning and asked Ash to get up and open the door for her – Vichy's house has a door and only Ash can open it – and then drove to the city center for coffee, took out a camera and took pictures of passers-by, At this point, Ash still hadn't discovered Vichy's sinister intentions, and it was not until the mall opened that the demon maid showed her fangs. As soon as Yaxiu complained, Vichy immediately jumped in front of him with a beating expression, as if to make Yaxiu take back her promise to deprive her of her vacation. It was her great victory against Yaxiu, which completely proved that Yaxiu was not a good person either. .

But the problem is that from the blood moon to the stars, Yaxiu has never tried to win the good person card.

He is neither a gentleman nor a big man with a big face, but a legendary magician, so what if he took what he said as fart?

What's more, there is no need to talk about benevolence, righteousness and morality for a demon like Vichy. Even if you break the promise with her, you can still continue to stand on the moral high ground and urinate!

However, there is always a but:

Ash thinks this is most likely part of the Ghost Prophet's ruse when he chooses to revoke his promise. It is equivalent to succumbing to the Soul Prophet to a certain extent. Maybe Vichy will further contaminate Ya regret through this spiritual loophole.

More importantly, today's Vichy is really annoying. Her vicious state of giving up entertainment and thinking about Yaxiu is in stark contrast to her flattery to Yaxiu in the past 29 days. Xiu understood that he was in the company of a poisonous snake.

It's hard to describe Ash's dedication to fulfilling this commitment – it's not so much the good guy proving to the bad guys that the world isn't all garbage like you, it's the second-to-last proclaiming to the last-last that even if I win You win by one point.

Even if it was just to not admit defeat to Vichy, Ash was willing to endure for a day. Decided, as long as I endure 12 o'clock, let the ghost prophet wash my feet!

Yaxiu stared angrily at the maid in front of her with her head held high. Although he also knew that this kind of humiliation would not disgust Vichy at all, it could make him feel better... and relieve the fatigue of his calf as he passed by. In the dessert shop, Vichy went to buy two ice creams, and took the initiative to pass one to Yaxiu. After Yaxiu licked a few mouthfuls, she suddenly said, "Actually, I licked yours just now."

...Impossible, my ice cream is in full shape and has no licks. "

Vichy stretched out her long tongue and licked around the edge of her untouched ice cream. The tip of the tongue turns white. The ice cream only shrunk a little. No trace of being licked at all.

Ash's mouth twitched. The eyes were all rounded. Vichy ate the ice cream in a big mouthful. Leaning close to Yaxiu, he exhaled a cold breath that smelled of milk: "Don't waste Eyi – you've already eaten all the parts I licked."

"There's a proverb in my hometown, don't offend the person who handed you the food, master?"

"Have you forgotten that your vacation is only until 12 tonight?"

"It doesn't have to be 12 o'clock, you can spit in my mouth now, ah ah ah ah-" Vichy opened his mouth wide, and Ash directly stuffed the rest of the ice cream in, Vichy didn't mind, while eating, he said: "Master, you are so kind, you deliberately only eat the part that I have licked, this maid is really flattered."

Yaxiu had to admit that his rank was indeed several thousand years behind Vichy, and directly changed the subject: "Since you want to buy clothes, why don't you buy a few sets for Igula and the others. I used to want to buy them clothes, As a result, Igula said that I couldn't trust my aesthetics, and I really am not Harvey..""

Vichy asked, "Then what do you think Igura fits in?"

"That kind of thing."

Following Ash's fingers, Vichy saw a street performer playing music on the street in the distance. He was wearing a nightclub-style glitter outfit, as if he was going to take off his clothes in the next second and hold a pole and dance. "...you want to prank Igula?"

"No, don't you think it suits him well?" Ash said, "He's a blond veela with this outfit, and he's sure to be the most eye-catching superstar in the audience!"

"Well, maybe Igula and Harvey are blocking your brilliance, but you're actually a hidden freak, master." Vichy said angrily: "Okay, I'll help them choose a few sets later. clothes."

“How dare you talk about me? You are a demigod who actually likes to do manicures. I’m afraid it’s not a joke in the realm of the gods.”

“You are so wrong, we Yongshu elves have a technology that can engrave the art on the nails, and later, for the sake of beauty, the nail art culture gradually formed, so my hobby is not only a joke, but a proof that I already exist. It’s been a long time.” Vichy said, “In the realm of the gods. If you see elf manicures and dwarf rings, you have to raise a few layers of alert.”

“Dwarf ring?” Ash asked, “Is there a race of dwarves?” “There used to be, but now,” Vichy said lightly: “Since I haven’t heard of it, it has disappeared too.”

Chapter 864: She's just a phantom

One word is enough to explain the demigod’s indifference to the demise of the race.

Yaxiu suddenly realized that Vichy’s Eternal Twilight Elves may have long since become extinct, just like the ancient elves who lived in the Time Continent. .

Even modern blood moon elves and gospel elves can hardly be said to be the same species. “Are all demigods like you? No race, no nation, only desire?”

“No.” Vichy’s answer was beyond Ash’s expectations: “Your statement is wrong, whether it is race, country or Desire is just a philosophical concept. As long as there are people who have the same yearning, they will come together to form new races, new nations, and package desires into great ideals. ”

“You may not believe it when you say it, but the struggle in the realm of the gods is far more intense than reality.”

“Lone wolves like me are only a minority in the realm of gods, because if most demigods don’t cooperate, it may even be difficult for them to survive, unless they are willing to be the mud of demigods for eternity, but in this way, all the strong You can ask for anything from him.”

“Although it seems strange to ask,” Ash asked, “but why don’t you join a certain force, find a way to climb to a high position, and use the resources of the organization to strengthen yourself. Isn’t this more efficient than being a lone wolf? You But the soul prophesied the dual demigods.

“Because I’m a dual-type demigod, I can’t do this.” Vichy said: “Except for the God Lord, no demigod dares to use me, and no organization dares to let me join the core layer. Compared with the enemy, they are more Fear

“Starting an organization yourself? I tried it in my first life.” Vichy shook his head: “Intrigue and coordination, maintaining an organization is no less difficult than researching spells. In my first life, I wasted too much time. In the management of the organization, so I can’t improve my own strength, and I also miss many valuable opportunities.”

“I don’t have that leadership charisma.” The ghost prophet sighed softly: “It’s not something like the realm of the spiritual faction, it can’t be disguised, it comes from the depths of the soul, and it can resonate with the ideals of many people. Leaders who maintain major forces rely on their own charm to gain the support of many people, and I can only rely on interests to convene careerists. Not only will I get twice the result with half the effort, but once I fail, I will have no chance.” “So after I was reborn, I knew that I had only There are two ways – to rely on a leader to be a dog for him, or to be a lone wolf that preys on the world. Obviously, I will only choose the latter.” “Really?” Ash sneered: “Then you Is it a dog or a wolf now?”

Vichy turned around and held Yaxiu’s shoulders, opening her mouth as if to do nucleic acid: “Ah-ahyi” “What are you doing?” Yaxiu pushed her chin away.

“Let’s see if you treat me as a dog or a wolf.” Wei Xi spread his hands: “Although you tried hard to train me as a dog, you still fear me as a wolf in your heart.”

“Don’t think I don’t dare... I’m just afraid that you will make a small report with Jian Ji in the future!” “Then you are afraid of a lot of wolves.”

Once again in the fight with Yaxiu, Vichy felt refreshed, and the anxiety caused by the menstrual period dissipated a lot. She asked casually: "Speaking of which, why is Miss Rose not here? Her occasional vicious rant about you makes me very happy."

"She's going to the company to handle official business today." Ash said, "After all, she and I have to have a job, otherwise Where's the money to splurge on us?"

"Furthermore, she is also responsible for the arrest of the Police Department and the pursuit of the underground world. Even if she can handle it remotely, she has to go to check the progress in person."

When it comes to business, Vichy is also a little more serious: "Have you found anything?"

"Of course not." Ash shook his head: "Although Igula and the two teams that Harvey encountered have been wanted under the name of "Suspects of the Canaan City Catastrophe", except for some false positives, there are not many clues- What's more, Blood Moon Squad and Gospel Squad may have disguised their appearance. "

Like the white tiger orc Amilo of the Gospel Squad, he has definitely done a disguise. After all, the kingdom of stars is a pure human kingdom. When an elves like Vichy are projected, they will become humans with slightly pointed ears, and the orcs will probably become strong men. There can be no orcs.

"In addition to them, Rose also sent an underground world killer to hunt down a few targets that were highly likely to be legendary magicians. Only two were successful, but all the other targets disappeared before that, and I don't know if someone else did it. Or have they infiltrated the kingdom of stars."

Vichy's eyes widened: "You mean the native legend of the Starry Kingdom?"

"That's right." Ash said, "Currently known missing persons include 'Star Caster', 'Pope',

"Night King" three suspected legends. Among them, Lord Zhuxing and I have some origins--"

“Father of the senior that Fili used to like, right?” Vichy said, “Speaking of which, let’s go to that store and buy clothes for Fili!”

Yaxiu looked over, and suddenly a black line appeared on her face, “I’m going to go by yourself, I won’t go in.” There was no other reason, it was a women’s underwear store.

“It doesn’t matter if you don’t go, anyway, I will give her a set of super astringent underwear in your name, master, you can look forward to it.”

“My biggest tolerance for you is that you can only disgust me. Anyway, I have to supervise you and you can’t escape.” Ash said coldly: “I won’t allow it to exceed the border.”

“I’m not trying to disgust you, I’m just helping you. When she receives the underwear, Feili will understand the signal you sent, and then she will appear on your bed in vain at night, isn’t that bad?”

“Do you still want to deceive yourself that Feili doesn’t like you, but likes the senior?” Vichy laughed: “The day the date ended, she came over to tell you that she had no relationship with the senior, and then the next one When she is free, she will come to the villa to read and chat with you, and follow you like a tail.”

“It doesn’t matter if it’s someone else, but she’s a demon, the devil we must rely on to fight for the remains of the angel.

She is about to dig out her heart and hand it to you now, how can you not accept it?”

“Are you afraid that we will make a small report with your sword girl witch when we return to reality? We can sign a contract, Igula and Harvey will never hinder you.”

Yaxiu, who has been silent all the time, slowly shook his head: “It’s not these problems, but...”

“Or, are you afraid that Fili will pester you in the future?” Vichy gently pressed Ash’s chest, “then don’t worry.”

“She’s just a phantom.”

Chapter 865: Shadow's fate

1111 Ash hates Vichy for many reasons, but telling the truth is not one of them.

If it was in the past, he could still use nonsense such as the three major illusions in life to get through, but now he can't. From blood moon to stars, from silver to legend, Yaxiuguang is a spiritual faction with gold level, how can he now Can't confirm a girl's mind?

Even though Feili, the little sheep, has tried her best to hide her sincerity, Yaxiu has seen the scorching heat when An Nan kissed her, the tears when Yin Deng said goodbye to her, and the tears when she said goodbye to Jian Ji. shy,

I have seen the attachment when the witch meets him again.

So when Ash and Fili made eye contact, he could recognize those familiar and dazzling lights. Even if you don't say a word, love will still run out of your eyes.

“...Why don't we go to her directly, she should be taking a swordsmanship class now.

Vichy smiled and said: “You don't think she learned swordsmanship just to better manipulate your spectator mode? My maid mode is obviously easier to use and easier for her, she just wants to have more common ground with you. Point.... Or maybe have more in common with the sword girl you often mention.

“Master, you don't have to do anything, just leave everything to me, I will work harder and work overtime on holidays. I will immediately open a room in the best star hotel in Costa, spread flowers, light aromatherapy, and then send you The two push forward, and then the little sheep can't help but pounce on you, and you can maintain your innocent little expression until the end.

“Although I want to say whether I want to join in, I’m really not in the mood to cater to you today, and it’s the first time for the little sheep, we at least give her a flawless fantasy.”

Vichy was suddenly grabbed by the collar while he was talking, and the whole person was raised in front of Ash, and he had to stand on tiptoe to barely touch the ground. Yaxiu rudely picked her up into the pedestrian alley and pressed her against the wall, staring at her coldly, the half of her face that was not illuminated by the light seemed to be lurking undercurrents.

“Apologize.

“I’m sorry, sorry, sorry.” Vichy was not at all afraid, “You can ask me to apologize as many times as you want, and I don’t mind calling Fili to apologize for the “conspiracy” she’s still planning.

“only”

She stretched out her finger that had just done the Xuehua Xinghe dark flower manicure, and gently stroked Axiu’s face: “Are you angry with my obscene words, or...”

“In madness I told the truth you had to face?

She broke off Yaxiu’s hand, tidied up her clothes, and said, “Normally, isn’t Fili the dream lover of your men? She worships you, loves you, and has an indispensable value for use. She is beautiful and young. , body color, simple personality, is simply the perfect plaything.

“You don’t even have to worry about losing your freshness or being responsible, because she’s just a resident of an imaginary realm, an illusion stuck in a mirror, a doomed bubble.

“When you’re tired of playing and you’re done, you can throw her away.

Vichy stretched out his hand to tidy up Yaxiu’s collar, “You don’t need to have any moral burden, or even take any protective measures, after all, she is just a phantom, not a real body, and the birth of the stars in the kingdom of stars seems to correspond to the stars.

“And for Phil, what a wonderful life it must have been—taking adventures with the people you love, and loving together,

Then at the moment when the love is the most intense, all the eternal vows stay in the moment when both parties can still keep it, and it is as dreamy as the love depicted in a fairy tale.

Vichy walked outside the alley and looked at the crowded streets, and said leisurely:

“But I waited a full month, and you still haven’t eaten her. But I’m even more surprised that Igula didn’t worry about fooling you. He is clearly the fraudster responsible for the dirty work in your gang.

“What puzzles me even more is that I found several times that Igula took the initiative to call me, Harvey, and Rose away, silently providing you with a suitable atmosphere. In other words, the fraudster thinks the same as me, but as your Friend, he’s not egging you on, just making it easier for Phil.

“He gave you the answer, but already knew you wouldn’t choose.

Ash suddenly smiled softly: “No wonder he brings a present to me and Fili every day.” So, Master, are you really that stupid?

Vichy looked at him sideways and said blankly, “Do you really take the phantom as a real person?”

When Ya Xiu was in college, he had two roommates, one liked to play games and the other liked to watch animation. He actually didn’t quite understand why the former was saddened by the love-hate relationship in the game, and he didn’t understand why the latter would use up the dormitory paper for the separation of paper people.

It’s a fake thing from the beginning, why do you still invest so much emotion?

When Ash got to know Fili, he regarded the latter as an important tool person, a moving enhancer. And Feili admires Demir, which is like a preset plot in the game to him. The official CP in the animation can well strengthen his sense of unreality.

He knew very well that Feili and Lena were just one of the virtual characters placed on the stage of the stars by Master Fanxing. Her character, appearance, talent and even relationships were nothing but the projection of Fanxing's body.

She is just a shadow and has never had a destiny.

Ash didn't know when his views changed.

Maybe it was Fili who ran over to him that day panting, saying "Me and Demir-senpai will only be friends" and "I'm going to learn swordsmanship", and looked at Ash with eager eyes for praise.

It may also be dinner time every day. Igula and Harvey return to Bergen Rose and Vichy on time like children from kindergarten to cook, and then we all have dinner and chat together. On the TV, there is a shadow of the magician brought by Heath. Occasionally, Igula and Vichy will complain about the plot of the movie and drama, and occasionally Harvey will come up with a few cold knowledge about the corpse that affects the appetite. Whenever Ash was bickering with them, Fili would always listen with a smile, but when the topic came to her, she didn't dare to retort and would only blushed and lowered her head.

These days are boring, routine, and meaningless, not to mention that Yaxiu's goal is to return to reality. But he will still look forward to today's dinner, and hope that this kind of dinner can be repeated forever. When you are in love, the fake becomes real.

"Yes"

Vichy looked at Ashiya in shock and said calmly:

"Fili is my friend, you can include her in the "My Friend Directory", all the precautions for friends are established for her, and all your disgusting thoughts are left to me, and I'm not allowed to say them.

Vichy took a deep breath and tried to calm himself down, "Aha, my master actually took the phantom as a friend,

Liao was still a phantom that was destined to be shattered. She couldn't help it, and she pulled Ash into the alley to resist:

"What's wrong with you!?"

I seem to have said the same thing to my roommate before, and Ash thought to himself, "Even Igula and Harvey can tell the difference, why can't you tell the difference? What are you, do you have feelings for disposable rags? You are the most immature legend I have ever seen!"

"none of your business.

"Why is it none of my business? Our opponent is the Lord of God, who has the power to destroy the sky and the earth, and now you treat the only tools as friends? What should you do if you need to use her?"

"Isn't there still you, I will never hesitate to send you to death at a critical moment.

Vichy stared at him with tight lips, just the high ridge of the ups and downs of the chest, indicating that the young girl's menstrual period seriously affects the calm efficiency of this demigod and let us clarify our thoughts. ' she said slowly:

"Even if you treat her as a friend, it will not delay you from eating her. And as long as you get tired of it, you will naturally know what to do with disposable rags.

"I don't want to hurt her." She's dying, Ash. Vichy's voice grew louder: "She's going to die soon!" "

"When the angel hunt is over, it is impossible for Dharma Master Fanxing to maintain the kingdom of the stars. When the mirror shatters,

Shadows no longer exist. Phyllis, Rose and all the creatures of the star kingdom, they should never exist from the beginning and will definitely return to nothingness.

“Not only can you not change this ending, but what you are doing is even accelerating its arrival. The sooner the angel hunt ends and the sooner you reunite with Jian Ji, the closer Feili will be to her end.

“Do you think you are really a good person? You didn’t tell her at all that every ounce of her effort was to accelerate her precious reality, the stars that are not worth mentioning in our eyes, into the abyss. She is the mastermind behind everything, but to the kingdom of stars, Fili is indeed an out-and-out “demon”. “And her little wish is just to get your approval and your love. She will pay a painful price she can’t imagine, and you won’t even let her feel what love feels like before she dies, You even said that you were friends with her. To Fili, you were the real “devil”! ”

Facing Vichy’s questioning, Ash was not angry at all, he nodded lightly: “You are right, can we go to the aquarium?”

Vichy looked at Ash’s back, a little confused. Even if she is right, Ash is not the type to accept criticism—especially if it comes from her doubts, unless Ash is hiding secret thoughts that are even more reluctant to be known when they come to the aquarium and see An anchovy that strayed from the school of fish, Vichy suddenly realized, Digging out Ash’s most secret thoughts – “It’s not so much that you don’t want to hurt Fili, you actually don’t want to hurt yourself.

You’re afraid that the deeper your relationship with Phyllis, the harder it will be to meet the inevitable goodbye.

Yaxiu looked at the school of fish behind the glass curtain wall and said, “You gave me another reason to hate you.

866 – If Bai Niu and Jin Yu are destined to die alone, should they tell her the news or not?

Before, Ash and Vichy thought that “there is no need to say”, just like people don’t care whether the shadow is absent on a cloudy day. But as the contact with Fili and Rose deepened, this thought tormented Ash. He has countless reasons to excuse himself. After all, it is none of his business. It is the Master Fanxing who created the stars without authorization, and will destroy the stars without authorization.

A thought from the Lord of God is like a mountain when it falls on everyone's head.

Moreover, in the previous 1668 years, the kingdom of stars has been safe and sound, but it just happened that the source angel was finally locked in this cage this year, so the gear of fate will start to turn.

There is always a generation that is unlucky, and it happens to be this generation.

Ash just happened to witness the end of this tragedy, like a spectator watching the end, nothing to do with him. He could have calmed his heart, like the more than one million mortals buried in the belly of dragons in Canaan City, but he was untouched and even faintly felt that Dharma Master Fanxing loved his people, and deliberately created an illusory kingdom of stars to withstand disasters .

This relaxed and comfortable idea gradually turned into a poison that was harmful to the soul as he stayed in the coffee world for a month.

Not just Rose and Phyllis, everyone he met, fans who admired Heath, hard-working social animals,

If the mother who brought her child to the aquarium said that playing games would pursue 'truth', then Yaxiu was actually expecting the stars to appear false, so that he could think that the world was just a game, a fantasy.

But there is no sun in the kingdom of stars, so the shadow never finds his illusion.

"You are really the weakest legendary magician I have ever seen." Vichy knocked on the glass curtain wall, and the shark inside glanced at her and swam away, "To feel sorry for what happened to the phantom.

You won, not a small win, not a medium win, but a big win, okay? Yaxiu didn't stop, and went straight to the next pavilion.

Vichy quickly followed and pursued the victory: "You should understand that you are completely powerless, right? Unless the angel hunt lasts a lifetime, the stars can indeed continue to exist, but then you can't leave." I know.

"On the other hand, the harder you try to get back to reality, the harder you try to bury the world. We outsiders are naturally opposed to this world. You don't even have a reason to help them, they're just a bunch of people who never existed. The shadows of their bodies are safe and sound in the stars.

"I see.

"You" Vichy said more and more vigorously, but she quickly noticed that although Yaxiu was depressed and depressed, she was somewhat relieved, and immediately reacted: "You are using me to relieve your psychological burden!?"

Vichy's words are like tearing blood from a wound, although it will deepen Ash's pain for the wound again and again,

But it also made Ashiya face the wound itself. Especially from the criticism from Vichy, the guy he hated the most, Ash couldn't continue to escape, and could only force himself to accept the arrangement of fate.

Yaxiu asked back: "But isn't it cool that you said it?"

"I will never let you take advantage of me, Master, just for fun." Vichy said, "Let's talk about Fili, the little sheep seems to be the most painful to your heart – don't you just don't want to make yourself sad, so just Don't want to accept Fili's love?"

"If you want to say the reason, it's too much." Yaxiu said: "She knows that I like sword princesses and witches,

I also knew that I always wanted to go back and meet them again. How can a normal woman accept that the person she likes has someone else in her heart, and there are more than one?"

“From the beginning, it was impossible for me to give her the love she wanted, and even if I did accept it, I would only be hurting her.

“So you know that too. I thought you were the type who could open a harem with peace of mind.” Vichy said:

“But if you are willing to let me join, I can help you adjust the relationship between the sword princesses and witches so that they can serve you obediently. Of course, it’s not these two days, I still can’t feel wronged.

“And,” Ash simply ignored Vichy’s trash talk, “I don’t think Fili likes me.

Vichy pondered: “Although you can’t see it, every day that Feili came to see you this month, she was wearing a complete set of underwear. Even in my time, the hidden meaning of this behavior is very obvious.

“I mean, she likes Ashes, but I’m just Ashe.” Are you sure you really want to discuss metaphysical philosophy with a soul demigod with me?

Yaxiu explained: “Axiu Heath is a talented creator, a wealthy young businessman, and a high-class person with social connections. Whoever wants to be popular will be popular, and whoever wants to be successful can have less. Ten years of struggle.

Vichy understood: “Do you think Feili just loves your money? It’s like I was forced to enslave you, she was only charmed by money and power, and then she wronged herself to flatter you, the devil?

Not to this extent, but her understanding of me is indeed distorted, and Heath’s aura of success may have misunderstood her, so I feel that as long as she understands who I am, she will quickly lose interest. After all, how can there be so much love that never ends.

“It makes sense.” Vichy nodded, “There must be something serious about a woman who knows your true face and still likes you. Ash kicked Vichy’s * and snorted, “Who are you scolding!

Vichy rubbed his butt, his lips moved slightly, as if he was speaking dirty words from the Eternal Twilight Elf. “Then what? Did you do anything to scare her away?”

“I donated 90% of my personal property, leaving only 10% to sponsor the National Police Agency and hire underground killers. Although the company is still there, I have handed it over to Rose to take over, and I also invest in those sunset industries when I make money. The assets are huge. shrunk in magnitude.

Yaxiu said: “Although it is still worry-free, it is definitely not rich and rich.” Yes, is there any more?

“Nothing else.” You stay at home all day without studying or training, and you usually watch dramas, novels and games.

Is it not intentional to go out for food at most occasionally?

“Wow.

Vichy said very politely:

“I’m really looking forward to what kind of person the Sword Princess Witch is. Ash: “It’s someone you can’t match anywhere else.

“But less in terms of soul, prophecy, and vision, I should be slightly better. Vichy said:

“But you’ve shown your true colors, why does Feili seem to be getting closer and closer to you? Could it be that she really just likes you?”

“Besides, you said so many reasons just now, but only ignored the most important one – do you like Fili, Ash:

“It’s just a love between friends.

Vichy:

“Then do you think you can be friends with someone who really likes you?”

Ash didn't answer, and walked out of the aquarium quickly. Vichy chased after him, and kicked Ashe's ass. Yaxiu stared at her with tight lips, Vichy was not afraid at all, pulled Yaxiu's arm and said provocatively:

“Master, answer me. Master, talk to me. Master, can you really treat Fili as a friend?”

Owner-”

clatter.

When the first drop of golden rain hit Vichy's face, both Ash and Vichy were stunned.

Soon, the golden wind and rain of Zhejiang and Zhejiang came. At the same time, according to the induction of the mana shock, the magicians,

Looking at the city center.

I saw a huge white giant cow appearing in the golden wind and rain in the city center. Although it was already very huge, the magicians felt that it was too thin, so thin that they could see the whole picture; It feels like it's already scarred.

It didn't move, just lifted its colorful tail and spun around vigorously. The little bit of color thrown out by the colorful tail fell very accurately in front of everyone's eyes, turning it into an empty golden holy grail.

With the shock of the magic power that mortals can't listen to, the white bull slowly dissipated. But I don't know if it's an illusion, Yaxiu always feels as if he deliberately turned his head and glanced at himself, making the cult leader recall the gold fish gold that was aimed at him. Is the representative of the Four Pillars the bottom of the discrimination chain here?

However, although the white bull disappeared, the golden rain was not over yet.

Everyone, including Ash and Vichy, appeared under a dangling golden chalice in front of them.

The Holy Grail was empty, but when golden raindrops slid down the sides of the cup, they quickly turned into iridescent nectar.

At this moment, the magic spirits in their bodies immediately rioted, eating and roaring to make them quickly drink the rainbow nectar inside. But the two of them raised their heads and looked at the sky. At this moment, the night in the coffee world was dyed by the golden rain, and the second angel hunt began suddenly.

Unlike the last time, the second game did not require them to compete for the reward. The reward had been delivered to them in advance. All they had to do was to wait for the Holy Grail to be filled with Rainbow Nectar.

But, is there really such a good thing?

At this moment, they saw beams of light emerging from all parts of the coffee world, red, orange, green,

Cyan, blue, purple. Because there was a building blocking, Ash and the others couldn't tell where the distant beam of light appeared. They only recognized the nearest green beam of light, which seemed to emerge from the forest park. "What is that?" Vichy was the first Show your ignorance.

It's no wonder, after all, in her time, these things had not appeared in the Time Continent. "If I guessed correctly, it should be the most common creature in the Time Continent," Ash murmured:

"The Six Nations Legion!"

Chapter 866: White Bull and Golden Rain

If a person is doomed to die, should the news be told to her or not?

But I don’t know if it was an illusion, Yaxiu always felt as if he turned his head and glanced at himself, UU reading www.uukanshu.com reminded the cult leader of the golden fish that was aimed at him.

Well, is the Four Pillars of God representing the bottom of the discrimination chain here?

However, although the white bull disappeared, the golden rain was not over yet.

Everyone, including Ash and Vichy, had a dangling golden chalice in front of them.

The Holy Grail was empty, but when golden raindrops slid down the sides of the cup, they quickly turned into iridescent nectar.

At this moment, the magic spirits in their bodies immediately rioted, roaring for them to quickly drink the rainbow nectar inside. But the two of them raised their heads and looked at the sky. At this moment, the night of Jia Shi was dyed into day by the golden rain.

The second angel hunt started suddenly.

Unlike the last time, the second game did not require them to compete for rewards, and the rewards had been delivered to them in advance.

All they have to do is wait for the Holy Grail to be filled with rainbow nectar.

But, is there really such a good thing?

At this moment, they saw beams of light emerging from all parts of Jia Shi, which were red, orange, green, cyan, blue, and purple. Because there was a building blocking it, Ash and the others couldn't tell where the distant beam of light appeared. They only recognized the nearest green beam of light, which seemed to be emerging from the forest park.

"What is that?" Vichy revealed his ignorance for the first time.

It's no wonder, after all, in her time, these things had not appeared in the Time Continent.

“If I guessed correctly, it should be the most common creature in the Time Continent...”

Yaxiu murmured: “The Six Nations Legion!”

Chapter 867: I am the 4th!

“The sword is iron, it is psychic because of holding it, it is moved by the heart, it is alive because of blood, and it is dead because of not thinking...”

In the alleys of the slums, Fili, wearing a dark raincoat, wielded a bamboo sword to resist the blows of the homeless wooden sticks.

The slums were built in this century and were the best urban areas at that time. Most of them were small six-storey buildings, but they have not been renovated in 70 or 80 years ago, and they just missed the good era of elevators. The city center of the world was gradually transferred to other new urban areas. The wealthy people moved out, and the place gradually became a slum where the lower class rented.

Property management does not exist here, illegal sheds are everywhere, crossed wires are drying clothes, the raised slate is like a trap, and sewage bursts out when you step on it, and the walls are full of mottled and falling off wall ash and extremely suspicious. The water marks, the vomit of the drunkard, and the excrement and urine of some unknown creature were spread on the ground layer by layer. If the sewer of the residential building burst, it would be a carnival.

When the tramp said that he wanted to practice swordsmanship here, the Phili people were stupid.

In her impression, the practice of swordsmanship should be carried out in a clean and spacious dojo, wearing protective suits, and training with a sense of ritual.

But after all, the other party is a homeless person who is poor enough to eat and sleep, and Feili doesn't expect that kind of environment, but the river bank or the spacious and flat land in the park is also open to the public for free!

But the homeless choked her back with a few words: “Are you using it for competition or for actual combat?”

“Flat ground? Do you want to clean up the stones on the ground in advance?”

“Spacious? Why don’t you use a hammer or an axe if you like to open and close? In actual combat, can you guarantee that there is no wall, no tree, and no one else by your side? When you are stuck with meat and a knife, do you want to abandon your sword and use your bare hands?”

“Protection? I don’t mind you walking around in armor, as long as you don’t mind being treated as a fool by others.”

Although it is very rude, it does sound a bit reasonable, so Feili deliberately got a black raincoat, which can be used to cover her appearance – she is still attractive to herself – more important It is not afraid of getting dirty, and it does not feel bad when splashed with sewage.

So this month, people in the slum have seen two homeless lunatics fighting in the alleys every day. Normal people don’t dare to deal with lunatics, and gangsters who dare to trouble lunatics are Fili’s experience pack, and everyone is used to it.

Snapped!

The homeless kicked half of the floor tiles, and when Feili smashed it with the bamboo sword, he suddenly threw the wooden stick, picked up the broom beside him with both hands, and slashed it down with the posture of a two-handed giant sword!

As soon as Fili dodged the stick, she saw the broom slammed down hard, and the attack position happened to be on her right side, where she had the shortest moment, and most of her muscles were hard to exert force. Get off!

“what!”

She stepped back while drinking, and slashed the broom with a chop! But the opponent is far stronger than her, her arms are longer than her, and her feet, waist and shoulders are far better than her. One force is enough to break ten tricks. She hurt her wrist with a bamboo sword!

But just before the bamboo sword touched the broom, the air that was compressed to the extreme vibrated violently, cutting to the broom like a wave!

Boom!

The broom was directly cut off, and although the homeless man reacted extremely quickly and immediately retreated, the bamboo sword quickly bullied him in front of him.

“Win!” Fili retracted the bamboo sword and wiped the sweat from her forehead with the back of her hand, but she was not sure: “I won?”

“You won,” said the tramp. “But only once a month, nothing to be proud of—”

“You two * smashed my broom!?” A middle-aged aunt rushed out of the house next door, yelling and rushing over, Feili and the homeless hurriedly ran away.

They ran to a deserted construction site, not sure if it was unfinished or what, anyway, there was no one there, Feili sat on the steel, grabbed the bamboo sword and asked excitedly: “I won! Have I learned to teach you everything? Swordsmanship, have you been a teacher?”

Vosloda glanced at her, didn’t say a word, picked a branch from a nearby tree, and then aimed at the steel pipe and cut it directly.

Fili was stunned at the incision of the steel pipe, and Vosloda said leisurely: “Although you can send sword qi fluctuations in actual combat now, you are still far from the peak. To be honest, I am very disappointed, because you have the ability to emit sword energy. The foundation of sword qi fluctuations, but it took you a month to use it in actual combat, and it is simply the worst student I have ever taught.”

“Is this really something a human can do?” Fili tried to split the steel pipe, but she could only leave a shallow mark on it at most: “Professor, you shouldn’t cheat, right? Do you have any super skills? ability?”

Fusloda’s eyebrows jumped when he heard it, and he asked back: “If you saw someone cut out sword energy fluctuations a month ago, would you think that the other party has superpowers? All skills are deeply researched, and in the eyes of others, they are impossible. A miracle of the imagination.”

Feili thought the same thing. When she first started training, when the professor told her that “swords hitting the air can create fluctuations in sword energy”, she also thought it was some kind of game setting. But after a month of practice, she can now independently control the fluctuation of sword energy, which seems incredible, but it is actually very simple.

Just like when you push the surface of the water, it will set off ripples outward, and the fluctuation of sword energy is just the ripples produced by the air when the sword pushes away the air. The next step is very simple, just like the ripples on the water surface reach a certain level enough to become a tsunami. With a little skill, Feili will turn these air ripples into sharp blades that cut everything.

Thinking of this, Feili stood up and bowed heavily to Vosloda: “Thank you, Professor!”

Although he learned swordsmanship from the professor for a month, Fili did not know his name, because the professor said that his company’s warehouse was in Canaan City. The whereabouts, Fili can only say to the outside world that she studied in swordsmanship class.

Canaan City was the location of the first Angel Hunt. Now the entire city is gone, and the company warehouse is naturally in ruins. The reason for keeping up with current affairs so closely, Feili naturally couldn’t pick out the slightest fault, so she called him a professor.

“Well.” Vosloda said calmly: “I will also use the same level of sword energy fluctuations as you from tomorrow, so be prepared.”

“Good professor!” Fili nodded, turned around and took out her phone and muttered to herself, “Should I tell him now? Or should I ask him to discuss later? But if I win him, he won’t Would you be unhappy?”

Vosloda's face was very complicated. After all, this month, he had seen Fili miss her boyfriend countless times, and even Fili came to learn swordsmanship for her boyfriend. According to her, the kid's living environment was very dangerous. So she has to learn swordsmanship to protect him.

Then for the next five consecutive days, Vosloda interrupted the hands and feet of all the gangsters in Jia Shi who had a "dangerous living environment", but unfortunately the kid was not there.

Fili was very tight-lipped and would never reveal the kid's information. Vosloda also thought about following him, but Fili left by public transportation, and he couldn't take it—he was hiding his head and face. Attitude can't pass security check at all.

But he must not show his face. Fusloda knows with his mind that the legends of the stars must be the primary targets of other teams, so as soon as he enters the kingdom of stars, he abandons his original identity and hides in the slums. . And he didn't expect it to be bad. A few days ago, people in black were asking around with photos of him, the Night King, and the Pope. After a simple interrogation, Fusloda knew that someone in the underground world was offering a reward for a few of them.

So Vosloda could only watch Fili fall in love, and he couldn't say anything.

No matter in this world or that world, he is not qualified to preach.

"That kid can't beat you." Vosloda said lightly: "Unless he has a saint... Anyway, it is impossible for ordinary people to beat you who can master the fluctuation of sword energy. However, there are some people who are very inferior in this world. If you are surpassed, you will get angry, lose your temper, and even belittle others, so I suggest you go and beat him immediately to see what kind of person he is."

"Then he is definitely not such a person." Feili retorted without hesitation: "After all, the sword—"

Although Feili immediately shut up, Fusloda was acutely aware of something, "What is the sword? Besides you, there are women who practice swordsmanship around that kid?"

The little sheep thought about it, and felt that she had gotten to know the professor very well during this time, and the professor always gave her a kind of intimacy similar to that of Senior Demir. She felt that it would not harm herself, so she said a little about the love she encountered. trouble.

However, she still remembered to conceal their identities, Yaxiu became 'Xiu Xiu', Jian Ji became 'Sword Sword', and the witch became 'Demon'.

"Wait," Vosloda asked eagerly without waiting for her to finish, "You mean that kid has two lovers besides your real girlfriend!?"

Fili was stunned, and suddenly realized that because she was biased towards herself, she ignored a certain premise in her words intentionally or unintentionally, so she lowered her head and said, "No, it's not like you imagined..."

"Phili, I..." Vosloda said rather awkwardly: "I know that I, a middle-aged uncle, shouldn't interfere in your young people's lives, but I know that you are a good girl, and you deserve a better person. Instead of picking trash boyfriends out of the trash!"

"It's not what you think it is!"

"Those who cheat are scumbags who can't control their lower body. Those third parties who know that the other party has a partner and stick it up are even more shameless and lowly! And it's not one, he actually has two lovers, I really don't know those women. What do you think, it's not disgusting-"

"I'm not his girlfriend, I'm the last one here!" Fili shouted, breaking the jar, "I'm the third...fourth!"

This time, Vosloda was completely blinded. He opened his mouth and couldn't say a word. He looked around as if asking for help, as if expecting a gangster to come out of the dark to ease the atmosphere. It's a pity that the gangsters in the ghetto were beaten by them. Broken leg.

Chapter 868: Soulmates and the love of life

"Don't worry about it, professor, you're right."

Feili hugged the bamboo sword tightly and said softly, "I am indeed a bad woman who wants to break up other people's couples. The reason why I learned swordsmanship is actually to take the place of swordsmanship, at least...at least I can become the fourth person."

Vosloda could only say one sentence: "Recently, bad women are actually quite popular. And the most important thing about relationships is to be happy..."

He really couldn't go on, took out a pack of cigarettes from his pocket, and just lit one, the cigarette was picked up and flew away.

Vosloda stared blankly at Fili who drew his sword. Since he learned to smoke and swordsmanship, this was the first person who dared to pick up his cigarette.

"Smoking is not good, professor, you are not allowed to smoke!" Feili said angrily: "Good men shouldn't smoke!"

"Smoking is not good, Dad, you are not allowed to smoke."

Vosloda was a little lost, and just as he was about to put the cigarette case back in his pocket, he saw Fili beckoning, so he had to hand the cigarette case to the little sheep.

"Does that kid smoke?"

"Don't smoke."

"But he's not a good man either."

Feili sat down gloomily and retorted in a low voice: "But he's not bad... He really likes it, just not one!"

Vosloda thought for a while and said, "Then let me tell a story about a friend."

“My friend was born in a wealthy family. He grew up in fine clothes and food, and he had a childhood sweetheart. When they grew up, the friend became a handsome boy, and the childhood sweetheart became the most beautiful girl in the city, so they fell in love with each other as a matter of course and got engaged. Now, everyone is optimistic about this model couple.”

“Later, when a friend was working outside, he met a mysterious woman in an accident. He and the mysterious woman had experienced many life and death adventures, and he found that he and the mysterious woman were the soulmates who could live and die, but the childhood sweetheart was also something he couldn't. The love of life that I gave up.”

Phili was fascinated: “What about him then?”

“He tried to let them get along together, but neither of them could accept it, so they had to separate. As time went on, the childhood sweetheart became more and more alienated from him, and the mysterious woman became more and more indifferent to him. Later, they each had one son and one daughter, they put all their minds on their children, and there is no love between the three.”

“Afterwards, there were some accidents. The mysterious woman died, and friends took their daughters home. As mentioned earlier, friends were born into wealthy families, and their childhood sweethearts were afraid that other people's daughters would * away their son's property. Naturally, they would not care much for their daughters. it is good.”

Phili asked, “Don't that friend know about her daughter's situation?”

“My friend had already become the patriarch at that time, and he was out for half of the year, so many things were left to him.” Vosloda said: “Of course he is sorry for his daughter, but didn't he treat his childhood sweetheart and son badly? Go home occasionally, he has to go to see his son first, and tell his childhood sweetheart that he likes his son the most, so as to reduce the hostility of his childhood sweetheart to his daughter, if he values his daughter more than his son, then when he leaves home, his daughter will definitely have an accident.”

“Can't I take my daughter out?” Phili scratched her head.

“Friends basically go to the most sinister and remote places to develop business, and it's not convenient to take children. More importantly, that kind of environment is more prone to 'accidents'. If they are fostered in other places, there will be accidents. Only at home can the daughter be guaranteed the lowest threat. And..." Vosloda shrugged: "That mysterious woman is not a good person, and my friends are afraid that my daughter's relatives will teach her bad."

Fili frowned: "He has let down his childhood sweetheart and mysterious woman, and failed to be a good husband, but can't he be a good father and stay at home to take care of his son and daughter to grow up?"

Vosloda looked at her quietly, nodded lightly, and smiled: "Yeah, why can't he?"

Fili looked at Vosloda sympathetically: "Professor, this friend you said..."

"He lives in Canaan City. I usually hate him. It should be considered a happy death." Vosloda said quickly: "Stop talking about that unlucky guy. I tell this story just to let you understand, like The wrong people will only get the wrong results, not only will they not get the love they want, but they will even affect the next generation."

"And you're not even 20 years old, so there's no need for you to be in such a hurry. When you get to know more, better and more dedicated people, you'll know that kid is not worthy of your liking at all."

Feili nodded lightly: "I understand, I actually thought about it seriously."

"Really?"

"Really! I also wondered if I liked his money, his power, and the benefits he brought me." Feili said: "My friends also persuaded me, maybe I just admired him too much. , bewitched by his aura, and when I get close, I may find that he is nothing more than a man worth mentioning."

"Mmmm, very right!" Vosloda nodded repeatedly with his hands in his arms.

"Then I found out that he donated all the money to Canaan City's post-disaster reconstruction," Feili said. "He even asked the company to develop a corresponding assistance business, and even if it didn't make any money, he would help Canaan City recover."

“And after more contact, I found it really comfortable to get along with him. For example, when I get along with many people, I consume energy. Just chatting makes me feel very tired. Only a few people don’t consume energy. But when I get along with him, I feel like I’m replenishing my energy, even if I spend a day with him, I won’t get tired. He will watch TV with me, he will talk to me about what books he has read recently, and he will invite me to play games together...”

“The more I get to know him, the more I realize that he is better than I thought. I posted his information on the Internet, and it was either that I was making up or asking for his contact information.” Fili looked at him with wide innocent eyes. Vosloda: “Professor, what do you think of him?”

“It’s not very good.” Vosloda said decisively: “You are not deep in the world, so you are confused by him! From the fact that he has two lovers, you can see that this kid is definitely a bad guy!”

“Actually, I didn’t intend to confess myself. Although I may really like him, I just want to stand beside him and watch quietly.” Feili said softly, “It’s just...”

“Just what?”

“It’s just that I found that I may not only like him, but maybe, I may be greedy for his body!”

“what!?”

Feili covered her face in shyness, “Forget it, let’s continue training, professor.”

“I really can’t pretend I didn’t hear you leaving such a big suspense.” Vosloda said: “You can put it mildly.”

“Well... I told Senior Sister and Senior Sister before that Senior Sister makes fun of me every day.” Feili asked, “Professor, can you promise not to laugh at me?”

“no problem.”

“Actually, I’ve been dreaming a lot lately, and I’ve always dreamed of the same thing.”

Dream?

Vosloda has the common sense of the kingdom of the stars, and knows that dreams are actually the perception of the real body by the shadow. For example, Felix dreamed of learning swordsmanship before, which was actually Felix practicing.

“Did you dream of dating that kid?” Vosloda guessed. “Hold hands? Kiss? Or...?”

Feili’s face flushed red, “We’re taking a bath together!”

Vosloda was stunned.

“A few days ago, I was wearing clothes to help him take a bath, but recently I seem to be more and more reckless in my dreams, I took off my clothes and washed with him. And I gave him a bath and washed very carefully, every part, every one I will carefully clean the place, he is like a doll at my control, at my mercy, I can even recall the touch in my dream now...”

Feili couldn’t speak any longer, and her toes were about to dig out of the three rooms and one living room. She raised her head and asked, “Is it too strange for me to be like this?”

Just then, a drop of golden rain dripped onto the steel.

Fili was startled, looked up at the golden rain that gradually enveloped the city, and immediately stood up with a drastic change in her face: “Professor, I have left beforehand, bye!”

When the white bull disappeared and the golden chalice appeared, Vosloda was hooked back to the soul by the colored nectar inside. He glanced at the golden chalice, then jumped to the top of the crane a few times and saw a large slum of people sleeping on the ground.

“Everyone has it, once they drink it, they will fall asleep, and mortals can hardly resist this temptation...” Vosloda quickly analyzed the situation: “But if there are mortals who can resist the temptation, then they will become Mysterious chains are monitoring walks. Therefore, unless there is a demon blessing, you must try to maintain your mortal status...”

“It’s too simple, and it doesn’t quite fit the Origin Angel’s malice towards the magician...” Vosloda looked around for a week, and happened to see Fili turning into the corner with the phone, and his thoughts immediately changed from the work state back to the father state. .

He should have thought that Felix in the kingdom of stars likes that kid, which probably means that Felix in the kingdom of stars also has an intersection with that kid! He just didn’t expect that Felix’s progress was so much ahead of Felix!

He couldn’t even say anything, after all, analysing from the dream, it seemed that Felix ate the kid clean...

At this moment, a purple beam of light rose from the slums behind Vosloda, and a huge eight-eyed weaver spider quietly crawled out from under the construction site and quickly approached the homeless man on the crane.

Vosloda, however, is still immersed in the sentimentality of being a father: “Irina, our daughter... has grown up.”

squeak!

The eight-eyed spider showed agility that did not match its body shape, and took off to bite at Vosloda. Vosloda didn’t use any weapons, he just swung his sword back.

chap!

The eight-eyed spider was cut in two, UU read www. uukanshu.com Purple spider blood splattered on Voslodar’s cloak. He looked at the corpse of the Bamu Weaver in confusion. He vaguely remembered that these units had many abilities, but none of the Bamu Weavers could be used just now. It was simply...

Just an ordinary big spider.

He moved in his heart, watching this group of spider web corps that crowded the entire construction site and surrounded him, but didn't care about the sleepy civilians in the slum, and immediately realized the danger of this angel hunt.

"I see." Vosloda looked down at the few drops of rainbow nectar on the golden chalice. "As long as you drink it, you won't be hunted down by the legion, but the later you drink the chalice, the more you will accumulate. As long as the magician is not greedy, There will be no danger."

"However, how can there be a magician who is not greedy in this world?"

Vosloda leaped, the wind blowing his hood and his messy blond hair flying wildly. This filthy tramp, at this moment, fell from the sky like a noble duke.

Pillars of Heath Culture Co., Ltd.

In the office, Rose spent ten minutes brewing a cup of lightly roasted Geisha coffee, smelling the aroma of flowers and fruits inside, and just after a sip, she saw a golden wind and rain blowing outside, and it could even blow directly into the room.

She went to close the window, and at this time there was a lazy meowing sound from behind. She turned her head and found that her chubby blue short was licking the rainbow nectar in the golden chalice, and then fell asleep directly.

By the way, this blue short cat food goes to the public account, and the name is "maintenance of emergency food".

Rose touched the blue short on her thigh for a while, but didn't care that the golden holy grail disappeared quietly. She continued to deal with the backlog of official duties these days, when a * grave dracolich flashed past the window through the golden rain.

Chapter 869: The magician and the angel 1 fall into the world together

In the Pearl Plaza commercial center, as soon as Yaxiu and Vichy passed through the glass revolving door, several crystalline giant wolves broke through the revolving door and rushed in.

Oasis Tier 2 Troops: Green Wolf!

The first floor of the plaza is mainly for jewelry and luxury goods, and customers and clerks are asleep on the ground. The wolves have no interest in these all-you-can-eat buffets, and only like Ash and Vichy, two particularly fierce wild animals.

But Ash also stopped, because the entrance to the square was narrow, and only three or four wolves could rush in at the same time. The reason why they had to escape indoors was not that they couldn't be beaten, but that they didn't want to be besieged from all sides on the street – Ash didn't want to fight Vichy back-to-back.

With a flick of his sleeve, two daggers with a red cherry pattern appeared in Ash's hand. With a one-month buffer, Rose can naturally find a suitable weapon for him. This is a fan art "Fox Lantern Double Sword" created by one of his fan swordsmiths based on his work. Stars, swords really only serve as works of art.

After the wolf beast waved its crystalline claws, Yaxiu slashed towards its claws instead of blocking it. Then he kicked his legs hard, and with the help of the reaction force, the body rotated and jumped into the air, and the two swords smashed the wolf beast's eyeballs to pieces.

This is Yaxiu's recent research on the defensive double-sword play. When he came to Zhongxing, he found that the honey-belly sword could not be brought in, so he subconsciously took an extra sword for backup, but after trying it, he found that the double sword was quite suitable for him.

He is different from Sonia. Sonia's tactical system is undoubtedly a melee outbreak, but his tactical system is actually a long-range swordsmanship with "mind pen" as the core. The sword is similar to the wand and gun to him. .

And when Ash rarely fights alone, he doesn't need to fight for a melee position at all, so long-range swordsmanship is still his main attack mode in the future, and melee swordsmanship should be biased towards defense.

The miracle of "Swordsman" is triggered by high-frequency attacks, or to be more precise, when Ash's high-frequency attacks create the illusion that the "advantage is mine" to the magic spirits, the magic spirits will work harder to advance the spell.

The defense is dazzling, and the attack speed is fast. If a sword is dropped, it will not hinder the casting, so Yaxiu decided to take the double-sword route in the future.

As for the honey belly sword, it can be used as a preparatory gift for Sonia, and it will definitely come in handy when Ash forgets any anniversary.

On the other side, Vichy also found what she needed—she kicked open the stainless steel skeleton of the additional store in the center of the square, picked up a skeleton and used it as a spear, and blew the explosion-proof glass of the jewelry store, and rolled the pearl treasure inside. on the spear, then turned and stabbed, piercing the wolf beast's split mouth

Yaxiu glanced at her, but didn't say anything. Instead, Vichy glared at him, "I just want to use jewelry to enchant weapons. If you want to scold you, don't hold back."

"Does it work?"

"If you can get angry with you, at least increase your combat power by 10%!" "Ah, I'm so angry, remember to go back when you run out." "You're so annoying, you know."

When Yaxiu killed the third wolf beast, a dark figure suddenly jumped out of the sky, waving a sickle and axe, wearing a * crow mask and a dirty black cloak, like a pool of undisguised malice descending .

Oasis Tier 4 Troops: Crows Killed!

However, when Ash noticed that the crow had been killed, another crow rushed towards the door and killed it. Yaxiu suppressed the idea of using the sanctuary or miracle, and reluctantly swung two swords to block their attack!

Boom

There was also explosives in the weapon that Crow killed, and Ash was blown away directly and crashed into a jewelry store. He quickly took a “music sword” for himself in the dark, and when he stood up, he found that the female clerk inside was being held down by him, and her forehead was still bleeding. It was probably that Yaxiu knocked her into the corner of the table when she bumped in just now. .

Yaxiu subconsciously slapped a musical sword for the female clerk, then immediately turned over and left the counter to avoid the flying scythes thrown by the crows.

“Let’s get out of here,” Ash yelled.

Vichy had no objection, because at this time, the skylight glass on the eighth floor above them was shattered, and soldiers wearing black and green armor, with a rapier in one hand and a short knife in one hand, fell from the sky.

Oasis Tier 6 Arms Grey Fox Watcher!

If you stay anywhere for a long time, you will definitely be surrounded by these enemies. You must keep moving! Ash and Vichy went out from the northwest gate and looked up to see a sixth-order dracolich flying by the blood tomb, so they quickly hid in the arcade. Avoid high-altitude viewing angles. “Have you found it?”

“Well.” Vichy said, “Although these enemies look ferocious, they don’t have any supernatural power at all. They are fighting only with physical strength.”

When Yaxiu fought with the wolf++, he immediately noticed the strangeness – the wolf beast he encountered in the time continent, the main feature is “infinite recovery”, unless the crystalline body of the wolf beast is smashed into pieces at one time, it will will recover quickly. If the wolf beast’s body is deformed, the more complete its remaining body is, the faster its missing parts will recover, and it will not die completely until it consumes all the crystals.

But the wolf beast that Yaxiu encountered now, although he could still move after being divided into several pieces, could not revive and gather at all. The same is true of those crows. Yaxiu has seen these fourth-order troops rampage like a spinning top on the battlefield, and he actually kills them with only two swords – the black crows are ashamed.

For ordinary people, these enemies are indeed extremely deterrent, but for legendary magicians, these Six Nations arms that have lost their extraordinary strength are not much stronger than Lala.

The premise is that they can really use the legendary combat power.

“They were also affected by the mysterious chains,” Vichy analyzed calmly: “Unlike the last angel hunt, the Time Continent did not come here, and the kingdom of stars is still functioning normally, so the mysterious chains did not fail. All the extraordinary power of the legion was directly locked.”

“The source angel has no reason to reduce the power of the pursuer, and Bai Niu deliberately used the colorful tail to prepare the Holy Grail for all of us, setting up such a big stage, but its actors are so many more than us, our opponents will not play. Nice, unless...”

“We also have to get down to their level.”

Several wolf beasts more than two meters high appeared in front. Ash and Vichy accelerated at the same time, and the spear and double sword broke through the crystalline body of the wolf beast.

Only then did the two notice that they had come to the intersection of the pedestrian street. The intersection of the most prosperous street in such a big city was quiet at this time, passers-by were sleeping on both sides of the road, and the stars in the sky did not speak, as if the whole city Only the two of them remain.

“It’s so quiet,” Vichy said.

“It’s definitely not just us who haven’t drunk the Holy Grail, and it’s not just me.

They were hunted down. “Ashu glanced at the floating Holy Grail surrounding the two of them,” but I couldn’t feel the miraculous fluctuations of other magicians. ”

“I thought the legendary magicians of the loose generation were stupid. It seems that it’s just an illusion given to me by you, Master.” Vichy sighed, “Is there really no fool to solve these ugly monsters directly with miracles?”

At the end of the intersection, on the roofs of the tall buildings in all directions, there were legion enemies in all directions. There are oasis, spider webs, and gardens among them. The speed of the army base's violent soldiers far exceeds the killing speed of the magicians. Sooner or later, the entire Jia World will be crowded with the Six Nations Legion.

But they haven't been able to clear the field with the legendary spell.

With intuition and intelligence, they had vaguely guessed that the Six Nations Legion was not only an actor on the stage, but also an audience member in the auditorium. Don't look at the fact that ordinary people should theoretically fall asleep now, and the mysterious chains should no longer restrain the magician, but if anyone has such an idea, they will be buried with the white bull.

The Six Nations Legion, and the most dangerous place for the grand performance of 'Ordinary People' is here.

Bai Niu sent the endless army of the Six Nations, and took the initiative to let them accept the constraints of the mysterious chain, so they were also included in the monitoring system of the mysterious chain.

If the magician dares to use miracles to deal with them, the mysterious chain will definitely be triggered.

Not only Yaxiu and Vichy think this way, but all the hidden magicians in Jia Shi think this way now, that's why Jia Shi is so quiet, otherwise, a magician would have launched a map cannon long ago.

And limited to the mortal level, even the legendary magician is difficult to deal with the Six Nations Legion, like Ash and Vichy who are good at close-up tactics and have the power to fight, like Igula and Harvey are almost abolished. Not to mention that there is a limit to the physical strength of a magician, but the army of the Six Nations is almost endless.

After the first angel hunt, the source angel realized that it was difficult for him to fight against the group of legendary magicians, so he directly used the cage of the stars – fall into the world with the angels, magicians

However, the magician is not without a way to escape, as long as he quickly drinks the Holy Grail.

But in the face of this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, even Yaxiu would want to hold on for a while and accumulate a little more rainbow nectar, not to mention an orthodox magician like Vichy; moreover, the Legion of the Six Nations would really let go of drinking the Holy Grail the magician?

In case the Legion of the Six Nations only ignores ordinary people, and specifically for magicians, no magician would be willing to place their life and death on such an uncertain probability. UU reading www.uukanshu.com "Can I contact other people?" Yaxiu exhaled softly.

"When it rains, the mobile phone signal is lost. Sure enough, it's either a magician's creation or it's prone to malfunction." Vichy said, "However, Fili may know where we are, and we'd better not go too far."

As long as Feili comes over, they can do whatever they want with the help of the devil, even if there are thousands of enemies. But Ash shook his head, "Phili may have already drank the Holy Grail, and even we can't resist the temptation of the Holy Grail. Ordinary people can't help drinking it almost as soon as the first drop appears."

"Then stick to it until the last moment." Vichy clenched the spear, "If I reward the seventh virtual wing's feathers this time, can you—"

"No." Yaxiu crossed his swords and looked at the Oasis Legion that was about to charge, "I don't think too much of a gift for the Sword Princess and Witch, and I don't think too much of your exploitation."

"You don't leave it to me at all, it hits my subjective initiative very much, believe it or not I'm rotten"
"Really?"

“Fake.” Vichy gritted his teeth and said, “If the Soul Void Wings rewarded this time can allow me to release the ruby chain, then you will know what cruelty is!”

“Come on, maid.”

“As ordered, Master!” The two stood back to back at the crossroads, welcoming the rush of the Six Nations Legion!

Chapter 870: Mysterious Chain

Crystal, Flesh, Carrion, Spider, Beast, Armor. Yaxiu had forgotten how many enemies he had killed. He almost instinctively swung the knife, his hands like propellers strangling everything that stepped into the sword domain, and his feet followed Vichy’s pace.

They are like moving reefs, surfing the wind and waves in the golden storm and the torrent of the Legion.

When the knife is blunt, it uses the enemy of steel to sharpen the knife. This is called the “blade” when it is cut into the flesh and is caught by the muscles, and the wrist is shaken to break it completely. This is called “fluctuation”. Attacking the center line of the blade, this is called “cutting”; when encountering a heavy hammer blow, turn around and let Vichy be beaten.

All the swordsmanship, fist and claw skills that Sonia, Deya and Tamashi once taught and shared in actual combat were reproduced one by one by Ash in this high-intensity melee combat.

But his fighting style is neither as violent as Sonia, nor as feminine as Diya, nor as unexpected as Tamashi. He just steers his swords at will, and dances them in the most graceful trajectory according to his instinct, and no one is there. Can get close to his double sword field.

Vichy felt the deepest feeling about this – Yaxiu was a little jerky and struggling at the beginning, and then he was able to handle it with ease, and now he is completely immersed in it. Even if Yaxiu was behind her, she could clearly feel the pleasure coming from this man’s body.

Vichy recalled that in her time, some legendary magicians would actively limit their magic power in order to pursue the demigod realm, challenge the most dangerous experience with the body of a mortal, and perfect all the flaws in their magic between life and death. .

Ash didn’t make a breakthrough, he just made use of what he already had.

It's like a beautiful girl from a remote rural area. Although she is inconspicuous at first, after changing her hairstyle, wearing well-fitting clothes, and shaping her body, she will show her original natural beauty and become gorgeous.

Vichy knew the gold content of Yaxiu, a legendary magician. In short, he had no gold at all. He only stepped into the Ruby Mountain by relying on the path of origin. But at this moment, the swordsmanship shown by Yaxiu has been infinitely approaching the legendary rank, and he only owes an opportunity to transform.

Boom

Vichy swept across the wolf beast's head, his face flushed, and his breathing became shallow and fast. Demigods naturally don't blush, she's just tired.

The two of them came along and left countless corpses, like a blazing storm from street to street, trying their best to deal with the fewest enemies at the same time, and forcibly cut through the heavily surrounded intersection.

If they were facing a real army, if it was a war that weighed the pros and cons, the enemy would have been killed by them long ago, throwing away their armor and fleeing for their lives. It is a pity that standing in front of them is the Legion of the Six Nations with only the killing instinct left. They are the mountain of corpses and the sea of blood, and the fate that the magician cannot escape.

The interesting thing is that when they pass over the sleeping ordinary people, they are like phantoms and will not trample on ordinary people. It is like the last kindness of the white cow-no matter when you drink the Holy Grail, you can be safe and sound.

“Isn’t it okay?” Ash was keenly aware of the state of the person behind him, “It’s just a demigod.”

“It’s such a body, and it’s today...” Vichy glanced at the Holy Grail, which had not yet filled one-third of it, and his face was full of unwillingness, “Is that the only way to get here...”

At this moment, she felt a light tap on her lower back, and then the warm life energy flooded her whole body. “Le Sword” is a healing miracle that is not very conspicuous and does not require continuous casting. It is simply appropriate here.

“Find a place to lie down.” Ash said calmly, “The enemy is getting stronger and stronger.”

They fought for only ten minutes, and the wolf beasts that had the most were becoming more and more rare. Instead, the third- and fourth-tier arms such as Crow Killer, Blood Hunter, and Griffin Meteorologist began to dominate. Even if they don't have extraordinary abilities, the combat power of these mid-level arms is far greater than that of the first-level arms. Even if Ash and Vichy can fight, it will take more effort.

A mortal body has its limits.

Although Ash is also greedy, he is not stupid enough to fight for his life. Drinking the Holy Grail if you really can't do it, even if you entrust your life and death to fate, is better than being overwhelmed by the Legion of the Six Nations.

“Hold on a little longer!” Vichy gritted his teeth and said, “At least until half of the Holy Grail is filled!”
“You know it's half full, but it's unlikely—”

“Even if it's just a little more hope leading to the highest, and a little more possibility of breaking free from the chains, it's enough to make me reckless!” Vichy stabbed the griffin in the throat, and the blood of the beast splashed on her face: “Do you really think I Will you be your maid obediently? If you want to listen to this kind of flattery, you have to wait until tomorrow, it's still my vacation now.”

“Do you think I will agree?” “I tried my best anyway.”

Yaxiu sighed, “Anyway, I don’t want too many gifts for Sword Princess and Witch.”

“You’ll regret it.” Vichy took a deep breath, and sweat ran across her hot face: “I’ll make you regret it” roar

At this time, a huge corpse wolf composed of countless human corpses roamed the wall of the building and quickly approached the two of them.

Blood Grave Tier 4 Arms: Coffin Guard Corpse Wolf!

Axiu's face suddenly became serious, and he reminded, "Be careful."

To be fair, the blood tomb tier 4 arm is actually the weakest in the Six Kingdoms, because it does not have any extraordinary characteristics, it only has pure physical destructive power. On the battlefield, it is either killed by crows or blown by a griffin meteorologist. .

But at this moment when all the extraordinary characteristics are invalid, it is the moment when the corpse wolf has the highest status in the history! Facing the corpse wolf flying over, Yaxiu held two swords upside down, ready to face the impact – bang

There was less than a second between the chill and the sound of the gun being aimed at by the gun's mouth. Yaxiu only had time to slightly raise the blade and successfully deflect the gun bullet, so that the bullet aimed at the head only took away a large piece of flesh on his arm. !

At this time, the corpse wolf was about to slap it down with its claws.

Boom

Vichy turned around instantly to help him unload the slap from the corpse wolf, but he also paid the price of the tiger's mouth cracking. The two did not dare to stay, and immediately got into the arcade to escape. "Have you seen the enemy?"

"No!" Yaxiu's face was extremely ugly. He looked at the rooftop of a high-rise building in the distance, and found that although the monsters were dense, there was no sound of battle.

But he was pretty sure that the bullet that killed him was fired right there.

In other words, there is a magician there who has not drunk the Holy Grail, but has not been attacked by the Six Nations Legion! This is the most dangerous situation – they are hunted by the Six Nations Legion and cannot use their legendary power, and Fili is not around, There are also legendary warlocks sniping them nearby

“Strange.” Wei Xi calmly analyzed: “If it is a magician who is a magician, even if he does not use his own magic ability, he can unscrupulously launch legendary spells. No matter what magic faction it is, we cannot be in the Survive the legendary spell.”

“So, he must not be a magician, that’s why he was concerned about the attention of the nearby Six Nations Legion, and had to attack us with a sniper rifle.”

Ash asked: "But if he is not a magician, why don't those monsters attack him?" "Because his own magic can hide himself without triggering the mysterious chain." Vichy said: "Light magic, Illusion, Earth, Shadow... Although it is not 100% safe, if you can take the opportunity to kill the two competitors, it is totally worth a gamble."

A commercial plaza appeared in front of them, and they rushed over without hesitation, wanting to hide inside to resist snipers, even if they were surrounded.

At this time, the corpse wolf caught up, and Ash and Vichy immediately raised their minds. boom

Another distant sniper, the unknown artificer was very skilled, and did not aim at Ash until a second before the shot, but for a swordsman with beast intuition, a second of gunshot perception was enough for him to deal with it. !

clang!

When the bullet was deflected, Vichy also turned around and stabbed the corpse wolf's claws!

However, as the skeleton of the spear that Vichy pulled out of the shop, it has been overloaded on the battlefield that does not belong to it for too long. In addition, Vichy's movements are deformed due to fatigue, causing the spear to face the full force of the fourth-tier arms. one strike. Snapped!

The spear was completely shattered, but the two of them managed to escape the slap and successfully entered the commercial plaza. However, they went in and took a breath. The square was also crowded with various legion monsters. When the two of them entered, the monsters also turned their heads and looked over. Welcome to two offerings.

"Can you still fight?" Ash said, "It's not very suitable for sleeping now."

There is a sniper outside. If Ash and the others dare to drink the Holy Grail and fall asleep, they should wait to be headshot in their sleep.

Vichy rubbed his bleeding wrist, "Help me find a weapon."

"Follow me." Ash took a deep breath, stepped forward and rushed into the group of monsters, and Vichy followed closely behind him.

When Ash was beheading another gryphon meteorologist, an unarmed warrior in dark blue armor appeared in front of him.

The sixth-tier arm of Xingtang, the star warrior!

Ash's heart sank, and after a little confrontation, he realized that even if he didn't have extraordinary characteristics, the opponent was quite powerful, and he also practiced attacking with Griffin. But it's still a humanoid creature, and Ash sold a flaw to lure it and the Lion-Warbler Meteorologist to attack, and then swung the swords down their throats.

boom

The third sudden sound of gunshots was still faintly audible through the wall.

In the room, Ash never thought that the unknown magician outside could snipe him. After all, the unknown magician did not add any miracles to the bullets. He thought that the assassins only temporarily picked up the sniper rifles, and the realm of bullets was only silver at most.

If the unknown magician really didn't cast a miracle, but could still find a suitable angle to shoot across the square... then he would

It's less of a sanctuary gun, or even a legendary gun.

Ash didn't even have time to think, he raised the blade almost instinctively, then his wrist shook, his face turned cold, and the burning pain clearly told him that he successfully deflected the bullet again.

But in the face of the Star Warrior and Lion Eagle in front of him, he no longer had any means of resistance. Sa!

Everything in front of him suddenly moved away quickly, and Axiu narrowly avoided the fatal attack of the Star Warrior and Griffin, and then fell to the ground.

He turned his head and saw Vichy hugging him tightly and sitting on the ground, with golden and silver wings spread out from the maid's back. Obviously, it was Vichy who rescued him in time just now with the help of Void Wing.

But Yaxiu didn't have much joy in the rest of his life, he opened his eyes wide, "You..."

Vichy seemed to be in a daze. At this moment, there were countless sounds of chain slides, and dozens of invisible chains popped out of the void, locking her gold and silver virtual wings.

Snapped.

The gold and silver virtual wings are like cracked glass, shattering into countless fragments, turning into light spots and disappearing without a trace. Vichy's body trembled, as if his soul had been hit by a heavy hammer, and he barely fell on the ground with his hands.

Ash didn't have time to speak, because the corpse wolf was already chasing in from the outside, like a chariot and an iron cavalry rushing in. At the back, the Star Warrior and Griffin also chased after him.

Vichy only delayed their danger for a few breaths, and there was still nothing they could do. Not to mention the assassins outside, Yaxiu alone cannot solve this critical situation.

The Void Wing Miracle Sanctuary cannot solve the problem, they can only delay the crisis, and the moment they appear, they will usher in withering.

However, it is better to live a few seconds longer than to die immediately.

Yaxiu took a deep breath and stood up to meet the siege of the corpse wolf and the bomb star. The magic power flowing quietly in his soul suddenly surged. But at this moment, a voice came from above: "Give the wolf to me."

Without any hesitation, Yaxiu turned around and swung his sword, instantly killing the starburst warrior and the Griffin meteorologist who were charging. Behind him, the gigantic corpse wolf was cut off by a violent slash from the sky, and the red-haired female swordsman quietly fell to the ground, swung the blade, and shook off the blood on the blade.

The two slowly backed away until back to back. Niya glanced at Vichy, who was slowly recovering: "Who is she?"

"Vichy." Ash paused, then added, "Maid." "Oh."

Niya didn't make any comments. She slashed the still-moving corpse wolf's head in half with her sword.
