

Chapter 861: Steady Performance

Xia Qinghan held her breath and wanted to slap Xia Xibei's face during the performance.

In fact, she was still quite good. After all, she had started learning early and had mastered a lot of skills, so singing and dancing were no problem for her.

Although she did enter the group thanks to her connections, her strength was enough to deserve this ranking.

This was the most serious performance of "Shining Girls" since they became a group.

The most popular music show now was "Top Music." Anyone on the show was either already popular or newcomers being promoted by big companies.

After being on this show, the singers all became more or less popular.

So, everyone was looking forward to this performance and spent a lot of time practicing together.

If there was no Xia Xibei, Xia Qinghan would have been just as steady as during the previous rehearsals and would not have messed up.

Unfortunately, with Xia Xibei here, Xia Qinghan's mentality changed.

The audience was surprised to see Xia Qinghan acting high-strung and her movements super exaggerated.

Her movements were so exaggerated that they naturally affected the performance of the other members.

She almost tripped Hong Zhenhan when she was walking.

When she found herself running into Hong Zhenhan, Xia Qinghan's expression involuntarily turned grim.

Even though she reined it in later, they were still on camera, and it was taped. Afterwards, people dug it up and speculated about their relationship.

She had wanted to have a good performance, but she almost made a mess, and Xia Qinghan was very angry.

Her manager also gave her a lecture after she left the stage.

After looking at Xia Xibei's contemptuous expression, she almost choked.

For some reason, she was getting more and more sick of Xia Xibei and wanted to kick her out!

So annoying!

Xia Xibei didn't have time to pay attention to Xia Qinghan. After giving her a scornful look, she calmly walked to the stage, took her guitar, and started to play and sing.

Her performance was wonderful. She was steady and good on the stage, and she had no stage fright at all.

It was the first time the audience saw her sing live, and they were all amazed by her performance.

The three songs she released were a series of stories.

The song “Endless Sweet and Sour” told the story of a crush, feeling sour, sweet, and bitter inside, along with a hundred different feelings.

“Brave,” on the other hand, was about her bravery in confessing her love to the person she adored, with the courage to go all the way.

“Love You” was a beautiful confession of sweet love between two people after professing their love for each other.

She performed “Brave” this time. The lyrics were strong and powerful, revealing a young woman’s vision of love and her efforts for the future.

Her voice was clear and soft, and she portrayed the emotions beautifully.

Even though she was the only one on the stage, with no backup dancers or bandmates, it was as if the whole stage was shining.

The spacious stage could accommodate a hundred people and one person would look lonely, but when she sat there, it seemed as if there were stars in her eyes, immediately attracting everyone’s attention.

Looking at Xia Xibei’s radiant appearance on stage, Xia Qinghan lowered her head expressionlessly, hiding her cold eyes and the resentment in her heart.

As Xia Xibei came down from the stage and passed by them, she gave them a bright smile.

“You guys did great today.”

When she said this, she raised her eyebrows at Xia Qinghan, the provocation and contempt in her eyes clear.

Xia Qinghan wanted to slap her.

Chapter 862: No Shortcomings

However, Xia Qinghan could only hold back in front of the audience.

Seeing Xia Qinghan’s restrained and helpless expression, Xia Xibei was in a pleasant mood.

In her previous life, she was the one who had held back and endured.

No matter how hard she worked or how dedicated she was, in front of Xia Qinghan, she had no resistance and was bullied.

That feeling of being powerless, of having all of one's initiative being suppressed, was stifling and unbearable.

This time, it was her turn to fight back.

Don't worry. She'd get all of it back, little by little.

Xia Qinghan suddenly felt a cold draft, as if a wind was blowing, and she could not help but shiver.

Looking around carefully, she saw no problem with the air conditioning here.

"Top Music" was airing soon, and once it started, the ratings went up immediately.

The Beilivers were already in front of the TV, waiting for Xia Xibei to appear.

Of course, "Shining Girls" also had many fans.

In addition to the two groups of guests, there were also other guests and everyone had a lot of fans.

These fans were enough to hold up the ratings.

In addition to inviting all kinds of popular singers, there was another very important reason for the show's high ratings- only real singing was allowed here.

There were a lot of shows who let the guests lip-sync for better results.

For some singing and dancing performances, especially if everything was sung live, heavy breathing and gasping could be heard and affect the show.

The bigger the show, the more that was true. The program team was afraid of bad singing making the scene ugly.

However, "Top Music" was different, as the team was not afraid of controversy.

The guests must sing for real when they performed here.

If they sang well, then great. If they were not good, it would be a car crash scene.

Still, one had to admit that they knew what was going on in the audience's mind.

Sometimes, what people liked to see was not always a perfect picture; a mess was also quite funny.

On every episode, one singer would perform badly and then be picked apart, criticized by marketing accounts and people online.

Other music shows were afraid that the guests would perform badly live and fans would make trouble, but this program team was not afraid.

They were actually afraid that the fans wouldn't make a big enough fuss!

After a few years, everyone knew that those who dared to go on this show were the ones with real talent.

Those without real talent all looked for various excuses to avoid it.

So, this was a face-the-music program.

When various singers' fans attacked each other, they would use this matter as a breakthrough point.

Anyone who dared to go on this show was the real deal!

If someone's idol didn't dare to go on the show, then what kind of singer were they? What a joke!

This time, Xia Xibei's performance left the crowd in awe.

Her stage style was so steady!

People had all seen her dance prowess before, and it was just crushing!

They hadn't heard her sing live yet- recorded music didn't count.

Everyone knew that music production was particularly powerful. No matter how off-key someone was, they ended up sounding heavenly.

So, without live singing, no one dared to say that she sang well.

Moreover, there were some grumblings online after Xia Xibei insulted "The Strongest Female Group" with her live stream before.

These voices said that although Xia Xibei was a good dancer, she couldn't sing.

There must be no shortcomings for someone to join a girlband! It was only right that she was eliminated.

Xia Xibei did not pay attention to this kind of rhetoric.

This time, she managed to fight back with her performance!

With this kind of performance, no one could say her singing was not good enough. If so, the members of the Shining Girls would be losers.

[Xia Qinghan and Hong Zhenhan don't have a good relationship, right? This is too obvious!]

Chapter 863: Who Plagiarized Who

While everyone was discussing Xia Xibei, someone dug up the footage of Xia Qinghan and Hong Zhenhan.

They took screenshots of the two's performance, especially Xia Qinghan's expression when she almost tripped Hong Zhenhan and then looked upset, which was circled around.

[The two of them really don't get along! Otherwise, she wouldn't be so disgusted, right?]

[Wow! It's so obvious! What's with their feud? Who stole whose boyfriend?]

[It's Xia Qinghan who almost bumped into Hong Zhenhan, and she's mad?! So shameless!]

[There were rumors that they didn't get along before. Now it looks like it's true!]

[Are you guys overthinking? Sometimes it's normal to accidentally bump into each other and then reflexively have a bad expression, okay?]

[Normal? I laughed and didn't say anything.]

[I heard that the two of them don't seem to talk to each other in private!]

[Do you have clairvoyant eyes or ears? How do you hear everything?! You're spreading rumors!]

[Not to say that the two get along or not, I just want to say that "The Shining Girls" was established in too short a time. There's not enough tacit understanding and cooperation among the members! Can't they practice more before coming out? Don't they have enough to be ashamed of?]

[It's all about the money! Don't you know that?]

[The girls are already working very hard! Besides, they're doing great!]

[What a low bar! You call that a good performance? Would you please open your eyes and look at the others before you say anything?]

[Sister Bei is the best! She's amazing!]

[Sister Bei is great! Her live performance is as good as in the studio!]

[I'm kneeling for Sister Bei! I'm so impressed! I want to scream!]

[Oh, it's Sister Bei again. Sister Bei is the best in the world!]

[What? Your idol is not doing well, and you want to step on others? Do you not see how pathetic they are? How dare you compare them? You're blind, we're not blind!]

[Yes, and this is Sister Bei's own song!]

[Sister Bei is amazing. She can write and sing, she's amazing!]

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

After the show was aired, the internet was in an uproar.

This was a normal development after the show, so no one cared.

While everyone was making a lot of noise, a Weibo tweet jumped out and managed to get everyone's attention.

[Am I hearing it wrong? How come it feels like this song is so similar to the melody of "Brave"?]

A link was also attached.

The words startled everyone.

Was this... Plagiarism?!

Everyone immediately clicked on the link, and after listening to it, people were silent.

[They're almost exactly the same! Except for a few bars where the melody has changed, everything else is the same!]

[The lyrics are pretty much the same! There are just a few word changes.]

[Look at the release date! This song was released half a month ago! And "Brave" was released a few days later!]

[Holy cow! What is this? It's not plagiarism, is it?]

[Who copied who?]

[Anyone who plagiarized should suffer!]

While everyone was in an uproar, there was an update on a certain account.

[I am Gu Lan, Xia Xibei's assistant, and the real creator of "Brave." I just don't understand when "Brave" became the work of Xia Xibei!]

When this update came out, it triggered a strong reaction.

[Crap! It's really plagiarism!]

[Assistant? Is she copying her own assistant?]

[Oh, her so-called creative talent is actually a talent for plagiarism!]

For a while, the internet was in a frenzy.

Chapter 864: Slander

Pan Yan was totally confused when he saw Gu Lan's post.

"Crap! What's going on here?"

How come Gu Lan suddenly jumped out and said that Xia Xibei had copied her song?

Oh no! She was saying that Xia Xibei stole her song!

Was this a joke?

The song was obviously written by Xia Xibei herself and had nothing to do with Gu Lan, so how could there be such an accusation?

Could it be that her account was hacked?

He immediately called Gu Lan to make her come and tell him the whole story, but he couldn't get through as she had already blocked him.

Pan Yan was so anxious that he started pacing, confused by this sudden change of events.

"Don't worry."

Unlike his anxious state, Xia Xibei was calm.

"How can I not be anxious?" Pan Yan sighed fiercely, "Do you know how much this will hurt your reputation?!"

Xia Xibei's songs were doing well. If they were characterized as plagiarism, it would be a problem.

Even if she wrote a better song afterward, this kind of thing would affect the rest of her career.

Moreover, nowadays people valued intellectual property rights, so this kind of "plagiarism" of other people's works as her own would definitely cause people to resent and boycott her.

The most annoying thing was that Xia Xibei didn't copy at all!

Pan Yan had watched almost the entire process of Xia Xibei's composition.

Moreover, Gu Lan had also been listening to the recording at the time.

If there really was a problem, why didn't she say so?

Pan Yan didn't believe that there was nothing fishy here!

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

Besides, what problems couldn't be solved within the company?

Gu Lan didn't say a word, just making a scene. It was too much!

"Who the hell told her to do that?"

Pan Yan was so anxious that his face turned red.

Xia Xibei, however, was calm, her eyes serene.

“Don’t be anxious, things will be resolved soon.”

When she said this, she turned up the corner of her mouth, and a trace of coldness flashed through her eyes.

She was just guessing, but she never thought it would really come true.

“You already knew about it?” Pan Yan looked at her in surprise. “You can’t have really copied...”

“What are you talking about?” Xia Xibei glanced at him. “That is indeed my work. One hundred percent mine.”

Pan Yan shivered at this glance from Xia Xibei.

“What the hell does Gu Lan mean?” He couldn’t help but complain. “You were the one who said you wanted her to be your assistant before! You were the one who helped her when she had family problems. If it wasn’t for your help, how could she have been so relaxed?! Besides, she was so good when she was with you! I didn’t think it was all an act! Her acting skills are amazing!”

When Gu Lan’s family had a crisis, they were told that it was her sister who had an accident, so she even postponed starting this job.

At that time, she also advanced her salary from the company.

All of this was possible because of Xia Xibei.

When she started work, she was a good worker for Xia Xibei.

As an assistant, her performance was good.

Who would have thought that in a flash, she would backstab Xia Xibei?!

“It must be because she peeked at your work before, so she was already prepared!”

Pan Yan figured out the whole thing.

The reason why that song was published online in advance must have been because Gu Lan spied it early on.

So she had been harboring evil intentions for a long time!

Pan Yan continued to follow the online situation indignantly, becoming even angrier.

“How dare she slander you?! It’s outrageous!”

He was so angry at Gu Lan’s gall that his chest hurt.

Chapter 865: Accusation

On the Internet, Gu Lan continued to complain about Xia Xibei's "inhumanity."

[When I was very young, I liked to create my own works, but I was too timid to perform in front of the public. While working as Xia Xibei's assistant, I continued to create. When she saw my work, she complimented me and said it sounded good. To my surprise, she took possession of my work for herself!]

[After finding out the problem, I had protested sternly to the company. However, I was just an obscure little assistant, and my status was too different from hers. So instead, the company criticized me, saying that I was making trouble!]

[After that, Xia Xibei even warned me privately that I had no evidence and would sue me for slander if I said anything else! I didn't think that the usually so amiable Sister Bei would be so scary!]

[However, what they didn't know was that I had recorded an audio clip and posted it online long before. Now this audio is proof of my innocence!]

Once this long post went online, it triggered a heated discussion.

Some people doubted Gu Lan's identity. After all, who would believe her when she simply claimed to be Xia Xibei's assistant?

However, she quickly posted a few photos.

There were photos of her with Xia Xibei and Pan Yan, and two photos of Xia Xibei from different perspectives, which clearly showed that the photographer was very close to her.

These photos successfully proved Gu Lan's identity.

If she wasn't Xia Xibei's assistant, she wouldn't have been able to take these photos. These were not photos that fans could take. After all, they were all indoors.

After establishing her identity, everyone was even more surprised and angry.

Xia Xibei was so shameless and horrible!

How dare she steal a young assistant's work as her own, and threaten her?! She was so shameless!

[These songs are very good, and I even strongly recommended them to everyone I know. I didn't expect them to be stolen! That's disgusting!]

[Damn plagiarist! She's so shameless!]

[What a car crash! In the beginning, she gave herself the persona of a creative genius, and then she turned around and it's all fake? It's ridiculous!]

[You're all making a lot of noise here before the matter is settled, so if it's not true, don't get your face slapped!]

[Yes! Sister Bei is so powerful. She is an incredible scholar, so why would she use such tactics? Don't you think this kind of slander is ridiculous?]

[Sister Bei is not a fool, why would she do such a thing? Besides, there are so many songwriters. Why would she grab the work of a little assistant who is not known? Do you have nothing better to do?]

[Of course, it's to save money! Besides, don't you all think it's a great song? Obviously Xia Xibei should grab such a good song!]

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

[The little assistant is easy to take care of! How could Xia Xibei dare to steal the work of more well-known composers? She'd be torn to shreds by now!]

The internet was noisy and everyone was still desperately trying to get Xia Xibei to come out and explain.

Fans, passersby, and haters... Everyone was making a lot of noise.

However, Xia Xibei did not come out to clarify, so the haters became more and more excited.

This was her being sheepish, right?!

When the bickering was going on, there were others who broke more news.

[Solved! Xia Xibei's backer is actually...!]

This news immediately drew everyone's attention.

After clicking on it, the online crowd was once again in an uproar.

The headline was already very explosive.

The gist of the post was this: Xia Xibei's backer was the president of SY!

She could afford to be so arrogant because she was supported by the president of the company!

Chapter 866: True or False Scoop

This exposé was quite sensible and justified.

[Don't you think that the speed of Xia Xibei's rise is unnatural? It's only been a few months, and she's already gone viral?]

This was of course thanks to an expert's advice!

The so-called expert was, of course, the president of SY!

A few months ago, Xia Xibei was just an ordinary trainee.

How could an ordinary trainee have the opportunity to participate in so many shows? Didn't anyone think it was strange?

Whether it was "Full Steam Ahead," "Million Dollar Wisdom and Courage," or "The Blast Forward," who could go on these shows without enough "strength?"

Of course, with the support of the big boss, everything was very natural!

One had to admit that the boss really loved her! In addition to getting her on these shows, he also tried his best to build up her momentum. So many press releases, so many fans...

They owed a lot to the boss!

This time, she just sang a few songs and became hot right away! This wasn't common!

Of course, SY had other singers. The point was, in the past, SY's focus was on film and television. It started to focus on singers just this month! The company had also built a special recording studio and equipped it with all kinds of equipment.

This was a big deal! And it was all for Xia Xibei!

In order for Xia Xibei to debut as a creative talent with a high profile, the company also found several songs for her, and the creators of these songs were all obscure little people.

Whether people were forced into it or paid to keep quiet, they were afraid to speak up and gave up their work so Xia Xibei could be a talented girl.

In order to give her a song, the other artists in the company had to give in to her, even the old-timers in the company!

As for robbing the assistant's work... This was just the smallest of a lot of things.

It was just a pity that real talent or fakery couldn't be changed.

[Some advice for Xia Xibei: Study well, do not fake it!]

This long piece of explosive information quickly landed on the hot topic list.

[Whoa, what an industry! How could there be such a thing!]

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

[I was wondering how she suddenly became popular? She's obviously very ordinary in every way! It turns out that she's hooked up with a sponsor. No wonder!]

[What's all this nonsense? What do you mean the fans are bought? Are we zombie fans? Besides, can't you guys see how Sister Bei did on the show? If she can't be popular, who can be popular?]

[A marketing account is spreading rumors! Beilivers, hurry and report it!]

The sensational hubbub made it seem like the show of the year.

While everyone was making a lot of noise, Xia Xibei's account had an update.

[These are my original works! Please do not spread rumors, or you will be held legally responsible!]

Before people had a chance to support her or curse, they noticed that many celebrities retweeted the post.

Nie Zehai retweeted the post.

[I believe you! @XiaXibei These are my original works! Please do not spread rumors...]

Cui Tong also retweeted.

[Sister Bei is awesome! Whoever dares to spread rumors better wait for a lawyer's letter! @Xia Xibei These are my original...]

Everyone knew that Nie Zehai and Cui Tong were close friends with Xia Xibei, so it was only natural that they would speak out in support for her.

To their surprise, however, Shi Shuhang also retweeted it!

[I believe Sister Bei is innocent! @Xia Xibei These are my original...]

After a few people spoke out, many other stars also followed and retweeted, and things continued to develop.

Chapter 867: Gang Up

The people online were first stunned, then enraged looking at so many celebrities supporting Xia Xibei.

Plagiarism was not a good thing in the first place, even if sometimes there was not enough evidence for a conviction.

However, this was also a crime on a moral level!

The most important thing was that Xia Xibei's "Brave" was 90% similar to Gu Lan's work! It wasn't like they were deaf and couldn't hear the problem!

[They ganged up, right? A whole group is bullying an assistant? I can't believe I used to like them so much!]

[Your industry is really terrible! Is there no shame? No decency? Only profit?!]

[I didn't really believe the previous story, but now it seems to be very true! Otherwise, why would these people come out to support Xia Xibei?]

Many people expressed disappointment.

It was not terrible to make a mistake, but what was terrible was not admitting it!

Moreover, they even ganged up to make trouble!

Could it be that they thought they could bully the real victim with impunity after they ganged up?

Was there any justice left in this world?

Gu Lan's blog updated once again.

[I believe that people have a sense of justice!]

This aggrieved message instantly made everyone's heart ache.

This was too much!

An ordinary assistant with no support had to take on such a popular idol...

The chances of her winning were too low!

Due to this, many people were moved by Gu Lan.

It was easy to feel sympathy for the underprivileged.

Moreover, not only had Gu Lan been plagiarized, but many original creators who were once plagiarized were also feeling the same way.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

[A star doing such things is bringing down social morale!]

[If she doesn't care about what's right or wrong just because she's a star, how sad is that?]

[Go ahead and copy it! In the end, no one dares to be original!]

[It's disgusting! I used to love Xia Xibei! I didn't know she was such a shameless person!]

Some people also spoke up for Xia Xibei.

[The matter has not yet been decided, who said that Sister Bei copied the song?]

[Did she have to copy anyone?]

[I'm not taking sides either way until the final word is given.]

Despite the chaos, the songs got even hotter.

While things were getting heated, Gu Lan made another update.

There were a few photos.

In the photos, Xia Xibei got into different cars.

Of course, these were all luxury cars.

This made everyone even more excited.

This proved all of the previous revelations!

They were not sure who the “owners” of these luxury cars were, but it was certain that they were all very rich!

[This is concrete evidence, right?]

[What is concrete evidence? Did you get a picture of her getting close to someone? Who knows who owns these cars?]

[What, you have to take pictures of her in bed to admit it?]

The hubbub was escalating as Xia Xibei’s blog updated.

[This is my original manuscript.]

There were a few photos of the manuscript, and what was more, there was a link too.

When everyone clicked on the link and saw the time, they were stunned.

It was an audio link, and the timestamp was amazing; it was three months old!

Before people could understand everything, Xia Xibei posted again.

[@Gu Lan, oh no, I should call you Gu Cen. Please be responsible for what you say! Also, I need to know: what is the punishment for illegal detention, slander and defamation?!]

This post was so informative that it made everyone freeze.

What was going on?

What did she mean Gu Cen?

What was illegal detention, slander, and defamation?

What the hell was all this?

Chapter 868: Gu Lan and Gu Cen

Gu Cen stared at her phone. Watching people bashing and ranting against Xia Xibei made her happy!

Seeing Xia Xibei being disliked by everyone made her feel so much better.

Why did Xia Xibei get to have such a good life? Why did she have the adoration of so many people?

The most hateful thing was, why did she make Li Feiyun like her so much?

Thinking of Li Feiyun, Gu Cen's expression was so complicated, both shy and jealous, that her expression was twisted.

Luckily, Li Feiyun liked her now!

Gu Cen's face reddened again when thinking of this.

Her acquaintance with Li Feiyun began about a month ago.

At that time, she was walking on the street when she was suddenly stopped by someone.

When she looked up, she was stunned.

It was a handsome, attractive man!

Gu Cen had lived for more than 20 years, but this was the first time she had seen such a good-looking man in reality.

Moreover, the man was obviously successful. His clothes and the calm aura of confidence were completely different from ordinary men!

What cheered and surprised her even more was his warm attitude towards her.

However, after he opened his mouth, she was disappointed.

It was Gu Lan he knew, not her.

Gu Cen and Gu Lan were twins; she was the older sister and Gu Lan was the younger sister.

They looked exactly alike, and it was hard for others to tell them apart.

However, when you looked closely, you could tell the difference between them. Gu Cen has a more lively and generous personality, while Gu Lan was introverted and shy.

Gu Cen was surprised that Gu Lan knew such a quality and handsome man.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

Nevertheless, she explained her identity.

Originally, she thought that after knowing that she was not Gu Lan but Gu Cen, his attitude would change.

To her surprise, after knowing that she was Gu Cen, he became more enthusiastic!

After that, she realized that he was the boss of the Li Group, which owned the company she worked for. He was also the prince of the Li family!

She was just an ordinary employee. Usually there was no chance of contact with such a boss, but chance brought the two together.

After that, Li Feiyun invited her to have dinner with him several times.

At first, she didn't dare to go. After all, the two of them were so different that she didn't dare to give herself hope.

However, Li Feiyun persistently asked her out, giving her flowers and gifts.

She was just an ordinary girl. How could she resist such a brilliant man's pursuit?

So, a week later, she was with him.

After they got together, she heard him talk about himself.

From Li Feiyun's mouth, she learned that he had been emotionally hurt before!

This hurt was dealt by Xia Xibei!

Li Feiyun said that he was with Xia Xibei, but within a few days, she fell into the arms of someone else!

For this reason, he was sad for a long time.

Li Feiyun's story made Gu Cen's heart ache badly.

How could such a good man suffer this kind of hurt?

Xia Xibei was no good! She was shameless!

So, upon seeing certain things online, she made a quick decision.

She wanted to teach Xia Xibei a lesson!

She called Gu Lan often and asked about many things while appearing concerned.

Gu Lan was not the least guarded against her sister and soon told her everything.

After that, Gu Cen lured Gu Lan back from G City with the excuse that she was not feeling well, soon locking her up.

Li Feiyun had previously provided the house where Gu Lan was held.

Chapter 869: Sisters

After Gu Cen locked up Gu Lan, she took a leave of absence from her own company and followed Xia Xibei around as Gu Lan.

In order to gain Xia Xibei's trust, she gave the songs composed by Gu Lan to Xia Xibei as well.

After that, she photographed the songs composed by Xia Xibei, then recorded them in advance and uploaded them online as evidence.

When Xia Xibei's new song results came up and everyone was talking about it, she jumped out and accused Xia Xibei of plagiarism as her assistant!

Things went as she thought they would, and everything went smoothly.

Li Feiyun did not personally help, but he did acquiesce to her actions.

One could say that if it weren't for Li Feiyun's acquiescence, the matter wouldn't have gone so smoothly.

In her opinion, Li Feiyun was so brokenhearted by Xia Xibei that he let her do such things.

Xia Xibei must have done a lot of bad things. Otherwise, how could so many people attack her?

She also took some plausible photos while pretending to be her assistant and prepared to make a big wave.

She was just an ordinary person and couldn't help Li Feiyun much. However, after ruining Xia Xibei's reputation, she could throw more dirt on her afterward.

Gu Cen was very happy when she thought about how Xia Xibei would be affected.

She didn't want to put Xia Xibei to death. After all, killing was against the law.

However, it would be a pleasure to ruin Xia Xibei's career.

People who liked to plagiarize had a bad character.

Gu Cen was overjoyed to watch the online bashing and ranting against Xia Xibei.

She sipped her coffee and smiled as she thought of the good things to come afterward.

She clicked refresh, and a new update popped up on the home page.

Suddenly, the coffee in her mouth spurted out, drenching her clothes.

She couldn't care less about her clothing as she looked at the contents of Xia Xibei's new update with shock.

Her eyes grew wider and wider as she stared at the phone in front of her eyes, looking at the message word by word, only to feel a chill surge up from the bottom of her feet.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

"How is this possible?!" she muttered in shock. "How could she know who I am?! Impossible!"

How could Xia Xibei know that she was Gu Cen and not Gu Lan?

Could Gu Lan have told Xia Xibei about this?

Gu Lan didn't reveal this!

And illegal detention?

No sooner had this thought come up than her doorbell rang.

The doorbell startled her and the coffee cup in her hand fell on the floor, the broken porcelain almost cutting her foot.

The doorbell was still ringing, her mind was blank, and she was breaking out in a cold sweat.

After hesitating for a while, the doorbell still didn't stop, so she had to go over and open the door.

When she arrived, she saw the men in police uniforms outside. She drew in a breath and froze.

"Ms. Gu Cen, someone called the police saying that you illegally detained Ms. Gu Lan..."

The police's words seemed like a voice from the sky. Gu Cen was in a trance, not hearing what they were saying.

"Please come with us."

When the policeman finished talking, he looked at her intently.

Gu Cen was dumbfounded.

Gu Lan was just as dumbfounded as her sister.

She was locked up in a beautiful house, but there was not much space to move around, only the inside of her room, and the doors and windows were locked tight.

When it was time to eat, food was brought over.

There was a TV for her to watch inside, but no internet.

It wasn't painful detention, but it was a restriction of personal freedom!

When the door opened, she was still confused.

What the hell was going on?

Chapter 870: Charge Her

When Gu Lan came out and saw the situation outside, she was totally confused.

Although she had been locked up by Gu Cen, she didn't understand what Gu Cen wanted to do.

Now, she completely understood.

Gu Cen was going crazy, right? Why would she slander Xia Xibei for plagiarism?

They didn't have any grudges at all!

Although she was not Gu Cen, she was ashamed to see Xia Xibei after her own sister did such a thing to Xia Xibei.

However, soon after she arrived at the police station, Pan Yan came over to pick her up.

Seeing Pan Yan's kindness towards her, the same as before, she became even more ashamed.

"Is Sister Bei... Okay?"

"Yes."

"It's good that she's okay." Gu Lan was incredibly ashamed. "I'm sorry, I didn't know my sister would do such a thing."

"Don't worry, we all understand." Pan Yan shook his head and interrupted her. "The question now is, do you want to press charges against your sister?"

The question made Gu Lan freeze.

"Charge her?"

"Weren't you locked up by her? Do you want to charge her with illegal detention?"

Pan Yan's words made Gu Lan silent.

"Hmm..."

Although she was angry, Gu Cen was still her sister! She was her only family in this world!

Their parents passed away a few years ago, leaving the two sisters to depend on each other.

Before, Gu Cen had a serious illness, and Gu Lan postponed her work to take care of Gu Cen.

The two sisters had a good relationship, and now she should suddenly accuse Gu Cen?

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

For a while, Gu Lan was torn.

"Do you know that if Bebei hadn't reacted quickly and prepared in advance, this would have been a huge mess?"

Pan Yan looked at her seriously.

Gu Lan panicked, "But-"

"You have no idea." Pan Yan looked grim. "If Bebei didn't have evidence and this slander became true, she would have been attacked by others. Once her credibility was suspect, the consequences would have been unthinkable!"

Gu Lan's face suddenly turned pale.

Right! If Gu Cen's slander had really succeeded, what would have happened to Xia Xibei?

Gu Lan has been in this circle for some time and had experienced a lot of things, so she knew that it was not as glamorous and shiny as it appeared to outsiders.

There were many dangers and pitfalls.

If you accidentally fell into a pit, it would be difficult to climb out of it.

Everyone wanted to succeed, trying all kinds of tricks to attack others.

The controversy with Xia Xibei came from within and was more easily exploited.

If Xia Xibei was proven as someone who committed "plagiarism," what would happen after that?

There was definitely more to it than that! Her career would be seriously damaged!

"Even if you came out later and tried to help clear her name, do you think they would believe you?" Pan Yan struck another hard blow.

Gu Lan was a little flustered.

Yes... Even if she came out to explain afterwards, would the people online believe it?

She and her sister looked so much alike, and who would guarantee which of them was Xia Xibei's assistant?

If she was Xia Xibei's assistant, then why didn't she come out and say something before?

To explain the matter clearly, she had to explain her previous whereabouts.

There were a lot of things involved here.

The more she thought about it, the more upset Gu Lan looked.

"Besides, don't you think that if your sister does something like this, if she doesn't get a lesson, she will do even more outrageous things in the future?" Pan Yan aimed for her conscience.. "Now she is only laying hands on you, and you are willing to let her go. But what about later on?"

Chapter 871: What Decision

Pan Yan's words sent a shock through Gu Lan's heart.

Yes... What if Gu Cen continued to make trouble again in the future?

She could let Gu Cen go now, but what about afterward?

Gu Lan knew that her sister was bolder than herself.

It could be said that Gu Cen was too daring, otherwise, she wouldn't have done such a thing.

Now she had messed up...

"If you don't make her understand the consequences of doing the wrong thing, what if she makes more mistakes? When the time comes, can you be responsible for her life?" Pan Yan continued to ask.

"Besides, you have treated her like a sister, but has she treated you like a sister?"

These words made Gu Lan's breath catch.

This was something she had been reluctant to face.

If Gu Cen really thought of her as a sister, why would she do such a thing?

She was Xia Xibei's assistant, yet she had done such a slanderous thing. Even if the people online were on her side, her work would be affected.

Gu Cen didn't even consider her status and position when she did such a thing!

When she took care of Gu Cen before, she did her best, putting in dedication and care.

How did Gu Cen return the favor?

Gu Lan's mind was in turmoil, and she was confused.

"Beibei said that if you are willing to let Gu Cen be taught a lesson, you can still go back to work for her." Pan Yan smiled, "Besides, you have the talent. You can debut as a singer when the time comes."

Gu Lan looked up sharply with an incredulous face.

"What did you say?!"

Did she hear wrong? She could still go back to Xia Xibei's side, and still be a singer?

Pan Yan smiled at her, "You heard right. It was Beibei's decision. She also thinks that your work is good. If you have the strength, why can't you be a singer?"

Gu Lan was flustered.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

"I- I can be a singer?"

After she did such a thing, Xia Xibei was still willing to accept her?

Most importantly, she could still be a singer?

This was a dream, right?

"Yes," Pan Yan nodded. "You can."

While Gu Lan was confused and dumbfounded, Pan Yan continued, "Moreover, she will also help you explain the whole thing clearly without leaving any problems."

Gu Lan's eyes grew even wider.

Pan Yan took a deep breath and said in a serious tone, "You should think carefully about which decision is the best for you."

Gu Lan was silent for a moment.

"I- Can I see my sister?"

"You want to see her?"

"I want to see her first."

It was always necessary to understand the real situation of the matter before making any decision.

However, Gu Lan didn't expect the truth of the matter to be so ridiculous!

"Who told you that Sister Bei abandoned someone else?! She doesn't have any men around her at all! She couldn't have done such a thing!"

Gu Lan was so upset that she stood up with an angry face.

"Hah! Don't you try to lie to me." Gu Cen had a face full of disdain and contempt. "A bitch like her... What can't she do to achieve her own goals?"

She sneered disdainfully, "Don't you think she has her position because she used these means? If not for the help of so many men, could she have done it so easily?"

To Gu Cen, Xia Xibei was someone who would do anything for her goals

She had no guilt about what she did.

She was just afraid that she would be caught in it.

However, with Li Feiyun around, she was not afraid.

Gu Lan was stunned looking at her sister's expression.

Was this strange woman really her sister?

When did she become like this?!

At this moment, Gu Lan's heart was cold and her body was ice cold.

Chapter 872: Making a Decision

The two sisters, Gu Lan and Gu Cen, had always depended on each other. Though they were now working in two different cities, Gu Lan had always felt that her sister was a very good person.

However, all of this made Gu Lan confused.

Was this really her sister Gu Cen? Why was she so strange?

“Didn’t you follow her for a while? Couldn’t you see her strength? Does she need to use such tactics?”

Gu Lan looked at her sister with an expressionless face.

Gu Cen had impersonated her identity and stayed by Xia Xibei’s side for most of the month. During this time, she knew that Gu Cen had to have run gigs with Xia Xibei and seen Xia Xibei’s strength up close.

Gu Lan was blown away by Xia Xibei’s strength when she first followed her around.

She knew that there were geniuses in the world, but this was the first time she had ever come into such close contact with such an amazing genius!

Xia Xibei’s performance was so awesome that she crushed other people in every aspect, leaving them with no hope of fighting back.

Such a person, as long as she was given a stage, would be able to shine indefinitely, so why would she need to use low-brow tactics?

Only those who had no strength would choose shortcuts.

For someone like Xia Xibei, every road led to Rome, and she was born in Rome!

Other than her parents and her family background, she had no shortcomings.

Gu Lan didn’t understand why Gu Cen didn’t pay attention to this point at all.

Why would she still say such things?

Faced with Gu Lan’s accusation, Gu Cen first froze, then turned her eyes away in embarrassment.

“Do you think she is that innocent? Oh, you are really too naive!”

Seeing her refusing to repent like this, Gu Lan’s heart finally went cold.

“Okay, I understand.” She stood up. “Since you’ve made a mistake, then you have to accept the punishment.”

Gu Cen stared incredulously, “You’re not helping me?”

Gu Lan looked at her expressionlessly.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

“Sister, how many times have I helped you? Ever since I was little, I’ve always helped you.”

Gu Cen panicked, pleading, "Since you've helped me so many times, help me again this time!"

"How can I help you?"

"Just say... Just say that you asked me to change my identity, and that I didn't lock you up!"

"You did this because you stood up for me and fought for me, right?"

"Yes."

Gu Cen finally noticed that something was wrong with Gu Lan and panicked.

"Lanlan!"

"Okay, I understand." Gu Lan looked at her with a cold expression. "I'm leaving now."

"Lanlan!"

Gu Cen was terrified and wanted to rush up to stop her.

However, the door closed, separating the two.

Listening to the sound of the pounding on the door behind her, Gu Lan leaned against the wall and closed her eyes wearily, a tear crossing the corner of her eyes.

She didn't understand when Gu Cen had become so unrecognizable, but she knew that it was time for her to make a choice.

She had given so much to Gu Cen and worked so hard, but had been taken for granted.

What about her own life now?

Taking a few deep breaths, Gu Lan went to Pan Yan and said seriously, "I've made a decision."

Pan Yan took Gu Lan back to G City and returned to Xia Xibei's side.

"Sister Bei, I'm sorry!"

Gu Lan's eyes were still red, and it was obvious that she had cried for a while.

"It's okay, it's not like you did it." Xia Xibei smiled kindly, "You are also a victim."

These words made Gu Lan's tears fall again.

Xia Xibei didn't blame her, and said she was also a victim, which warmed her heart.

Chapter 873: Gu Lan's Past Life

When Gu Cen first appeared, Xia Xibei knew her identity.

This was because she already knew that Gu Lan had a twin sister.

In her previous life, Gu Lan was a singer-songwriter who had composed many popular and classic songs. At the same time, she was happily married; her husband was outside the circle and the two were very much in love.

Gu Lan was a singer and usually appeared on camera a lot, with many performances and many fans.

However, there was a time when people noticed that her level of performance dropped drastically!

Previously, her performances were incomparably dazzling, but there were several times when her performance was awful, especially when she sang live.

In a variety show, the host had asked her to compose something live, and what came out in the end was a work that was embarrassing to the point of no return.

After that, she launched a new song, which really dropped in quality and horrified people.

For a while, everyone was discussing whether she was too tired, or perhaps this was the end of her talent.

After a period of time, everyone realized that it was not Gu Lan who was not good, but her twin sister: Gu Cen!

Gu Lan was caught by Gu Cen and locked up. Then, Gu Cen impersonated her identity and continued her activities.

When Gu Lan escaped, she called the police to arrest her sister. Instead, she was accused by Gu Cen, saying she had stolen her life!

To Gu Lan, all this success should have been hers! Whether it was her sister's career or husband, it should have been hers!

The two sisters started to attack each other in public.

Although Gu Lan won in the end, breaking everything down and figuring out who was right and who was wrong had really damaged Gu Lan.

After that, Gu Lan suffered a lot and fell silent.

Gu Lan had been silent for almost a year before Xia Xibei's accident.

With the twin sisters tearing it up and things getting so big, Xia Xibei certainly had an impression of the events.

When she found out that Gu Lan was working as an assistant in SY, she picked Gu Lan to work for her.

It must be said that Gu Lan was very talented, on par with Mu Qiaona.

It could be said that the two of them debuted almost at the same time.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

At that time, they were two divas in the singing world.

Who would have thought that while these two people's experiences were different, they would end up in the same miserable situation?

They were both very strong people, but they suffered because of their families.

In this life, Xia Xibei changed their fate in advance.

"Don't worry, I can tell you and your sister apart," Xia Xibei smiled and reassured the anxious Gu Lan.

Gu Lan's expression was a little embarrassed and curious.

"How did you find out?"

Pan Yan was also curious about it, "Yeah, you were scaring me to death!"

Xia Xibei shrugged and pointed to her eyes with a smile.

"My eyes are quite sharp."

She couldn't tell them that she already knew Gu Lan had a twin sister.

It was because she knew this fact that she had noticed something was wrong when Gu Cen appeared.

However, she did not reveal it immediately, waiting to see what would happen.

She had wanted to know why Gu Cen had appeared by her side.

After noticing Gu Lan's situation, she put her plan into action and used this incident to hype herself.

"But when did you upload the songs to the internet?"

Pan Yan was still surprised about this matter.

Xia Xibei actually put all the songs online months ago.

This was too much!

Chapter 874: Registered Letter

This was Pan Yan's question and everyone else's question too.

When did Xia Xibei upload her work to the Internet? And the time was so early!

People online were stunned by this development.

First, Gu Lan turned into Gu Cen, which was already enough to surprise everyone. What a big change!

However, Xia Xibei's actions were even more amazing.

Was it possible that she had predicted this and knew that there would be such a show, which was why she put her work online in advance?

Of course, there were people who doubted the authenticity of this time stamp, and said that if she had a hacker, the time online could be faked.

They just wanted to throw the mud of plagiarism on Xia Xibei. Even if they could not successfully smear her, it would be enough to make her upset.

Faced with the persistence of these people, Xia Xibei was more forceful and presented a registered letter with a postmark time on it.

It was postmarked exactly a few months ago and addressed to Xia Xibei herself, and inside the envelope was a printed lyric sheet.

Many people then realized that they could use it as evidence by sending their work to themselves by registered mail.

There was a postmark time on it, so the time could not be faked.

Even if the issue went to court, the registered letter was still legally valid!

Of course, since she opened this registered letter in advance, she might have been suspected. After all, it wasn't opened in court.

However, she sent more than one registered letter!

She sent several copies for insurance purposes!

Looking at the pictures she posted as explanation, everyone was stunned.

[Wow! It's incredible! You can really do this?!]

[I just learned that it can be done like this! Who can explain? Is this really feasible?]

[As a law student, I can say that it is! Registered letters are sent through the post office, and the postmark time cannot be forged. Therefore, it is valid! Authors are advised to use this method to keep evidence for themselves.]

[Wow! Sister Bei is awesome! I can't believe she was prepared for this so early. Is she thinking of releasing a song early?]

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

[Hahahaha... Where are those idiots who said Sister Bei copied the song? Come on out! Is your face swollen?]

[I told you, Sister Bei couldn't have plagiarized! I'm so mad at you all!]

[That Gu Cen is so disgusting! How dare you slander Sister Bei!]

[I can't figure out if it's Gu Lan or Gu Cen.]

Xia Xibei posted another update.

[Hi everyone! This is actually my assistant, Gu Lan. She may become a singer afterwards!]

There was a photo of her and Gu Lan together.

In the photo, Gu Lan looked a bit shy and didn't dare to look at the camera.

For sure, her eyes were clear and she didn't look like a bad person.

This update also made people talk a lot online.

[Sister Bei is really kind! She even forgave her assistant!]

[The assistant is very pretty!]

[So this is the little assistant who was locked up by her older sister! She's so cute!]

[This is why Sister Bei is Sister Bei! She has a big heart!]

Everyone was impressed by Xia Xibei's generosity.

If they had encountered this kind of thing, they would have been very angry.

Even if they knew that their assistant was innocent, it would be hard to forgive her for all the trouble she had caused.

They didn't expect Xia Xibei to be so forgiving and generous.

After this incident, everyone was sure that Xia Xibei was the creator of the songs, and the songs became even hotter.

The rumors about the so-called "benefactor" naturally resolved after the plagiarism matter was cleared up.

Chapter 875: Keeping Him Busy

SY Entertainment sent a lawyer's letter to several marketing accounts, accusing them of misinformation and defamation, making them pay the appropriate price.

The fans felt vindicated.

They had said that it was impossible for Xia Xibei to get involved with any benefactor.

With her strength, she didn't need one! It would be ludicrous!

As if she needed a benefactor to succeed...

Honestly, if they had a few benefactors, they would still be losers.

As for the luxury cars, Xia Xibei debunked the rumors by saying that they were her friend's cars.

Before, when Xia Xibei was suspected of plagiarism and people doubted her character, she would have been criticized if she had said that they were her friend's.

Now, when the plagiarism had been proven to be purely fictional, her character was not in question.

So when she came out to explain, everyone believed her.

Besides, it was not like she was photographed hugging and kissing, or anything unseemly. She was out on the street!

Which fool would do something that could not be seen on the street?

The accounts that broke the news before were criticized into deleting their accounts.

Qiao Yanjue was puzzled by the online drama.

"Why the hell do these people have brains? What do they use them for?"

Xia Xibei laughed, "In fact, they do not even want to see the truth. They are just here for the show."

There were too many keyboard warriors and wallflowers on the Internet, all of whom came to see the comotion.

As for the truth? Who cared?

So, as long as the public opinion was well done, many people would be fooled.

Xia Xibei had known this for a long time, so she wasn't angry with them at all. She was also taking advantage of the incident to promote herself.

It was a matter of taking what you needed.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

She did not mind the mindless followers, but the originator of this matter could not be spared.

"Li Feiyun really has too much time on his hands," Qiao Yanjue coldly snorted, his eyes cold and stern.

He had found a lot of things for Li Feiyun to do before, so he didn't have time to make trouble for them.

However, he never thought that he would end up getting into this kind of thing!

If not for Xia Xibei's vigilance, there would have been a lot of trouble this time.

“It seems that we can’t let him be too idle.”

Qiao Yanjue’s eyes were downcast, and he was thinking about finding more things for Li Feiyun.

Xia Xibei also wanted the same thing.

Although she recognized Gu Cen, she didn’t expect that Gu Cen and Li Feiyun would be involved!

What an amazing connection!

What was even more amazing was that Gu Cen was arrested and didn’t even give up Li Feiyun!

That was such a touching love!

Of course, even if she wanted to confess about Li Feiyun, it would be useless.

Li Feiyun had wanted to use her from the start, so he denied his relationship with her long ago.

Even if Gu Cen said he ordered the operation, he still had a reason to extricate himself.

He hadn’t left any evidence, so Gu Cen couldn’t accuse him at all.

Of course, Gu Cen was so devoted to him that she would not accuse him at all.

Therefore, Gu Cen’s situation was not good.

When the verdict came down, she would have to be sentenced to at least two or three years.

By the time she got out, Gu Lan would be in a completely different place.

Gu Cen’s connection was useless now, and there was no telling what Li Feiyun and Li Weiyun would do.

Xia Xibei frowned and thought for a while, then took out her cell phone and checked. She looked at Qiao Yanjue again and asked, “Have you heard of that land near X City’s City Center Park?”

“City Center Park?”

Qiao Yanjue froze for a moment and thought for a while, then nodded.

“Yes. What about it?”

“I heard that there are ancient ruins under that piece of land.”

These words shocked Qiao Yanjue.

“Ancient ruins?”

“Yes, ancient ruins.. Ancient ruins from a thousand years ago,” Xia Xibei affirmed.

Chapter 876: Ancient Ruins

Xia Xibei remembered the news from her previous life.

A real estate company had been dealing with a piece of land when they dug up an ancient site.

Originally they wanted to cover it up. After all, any discovery of ancient ruins had to be reported to the state.

Only after the state investigation had determined the land to be not critical could construction continue.

If this ancient site had very important historical significance and value, it would be a problem.

The state would take the land back.

The state would give the real estate company compensation, but this compensation would not be proportionate to the company's investment.

No one wanted to dig up such an ancient site on their land; it would be a huge loss!

After that company found this ancient site, they wanted to cover it up and pretend that it never happened.

However, the matter was finally exposed.

They had no choice but to give up the land, losing a lot of money.

Originally, the company's development plan was quite good. However, after such a mess, all the plans were instantly finished.

If this were a small company, it would be absolutely bankrupt.

This ancient site was very significant.

After exploration, it was confirmed that this was the tomb of a powerful prince from around 1000 years ago, one with great significance.

This discovery shocked the whole society.

This was why Xia Xibei remembered the matter so well.

Qiao Yanjue stared at Xia Xibei and asked seriously, "Are you sure it's an ancient ruin?"

He naturally knew the significance and trouble that ancient ruins represented, which was why he was so serious.

"Of course," Xia Xibei nodded her head.

"How did you learn of this?"

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

Given Xia Xibei's situation, how on earth did she know about it?

Xia Xibei blinked, "I have sources."

Qiao Yanjue stared at her with a complicated gaze for a while, but finally couldn't resist asking, "Can you guarantee the truthfulness?"

"Yes!"

Qiao Yanjue rubbed his chin and pondered over it.

He knew about the land in City Center Park in X City because their company also had plans to develop that land.

After all, it was very close to the center of the city, and if it was developed into a high-end neighborhood, it could earn a lot.

Now, with the ancient ruins underneath, the original treasure could become a hot potato.

"It's not developed yet, right?" Xia Xibei asked.

"Not yet, but it's ready for bidding," Qiao Yanjue said.

"The Li family also wants it, right?"

Xia Xibei's words made Qiao Yanjue's eyes light up, and he instantly understood what she meant.

"Ah!" Qiao Yanjue couldn't help but shake his head and break into a smile. He tapped her head, "They'd be furious!"

"Well, they did bully me!" Xia Xibei wrinkled her nose. "If they weren't bullying me, I wouldn't have time for them!"

"Okay, I'll help you get justice," Qiao Yanjue assured her, his eyes icy cold.

He was upset about the most recent incident.

He had let Li Weiyun off the hook before and didn't bother with her.

To his surprise, they were still continuing to make trouble.

Since that was the case, may they never be able to stir things up again!

Soon, he arranged for everything to go down.

The Li family had already suffered heavy losses from the previous Land King project.

This time, he would make them unable to cry!

Xia Xibei smiled and gave him a kiss, then turned her attention to Xia Qinghan.

Xia Qinghan was also involved in this incident.

Those photos were definitely provided by her.

It seemed that she was really too idle, so she had to find something for her to do!

This time, she would have to see if Xia Qinghan could handle it!

So this time, instead of Xia Qinghan, the one who received the photos became Xia Qingxun.

Chapter 877: Xia Qinghan's Birthday

Earlier, Xia Xibei had sent the photos of Qiao Haoming making out with beautiful women to Xia Qinghan, but Xia Qinghan's reaction was too bland.

That wasn't fun.

There was no outrage, no fighting, so how could it be interesting?

There must be some secret in Xia Qinghan.

So, Xia Xibei decided to start with the others.

Xia Qingxun received many photos on his phone.

When he clicked on the first photo, Xia Qingxun froze for a moment, thinking that someone had sent them by mistake.

However, after looking at the main man in the photo, he was stunned.

This was Qiao Haoming...

He looked through the photos in shock, and after a while, his expression became uglier than before.

He originally thought that the photos were photoshopped, but besides the photos, there were also videos!

One of the videos was a picture of Xia Qinghan fighting with a girl who was connected to Qiao Haoming.

This proved the authenticity of the photos to Xia Qingxun, and also made him angrier.

No wonder Xia Qinghan's expression was so strange when he asked about Qiao Haoming before!

So Qiao Haoming was having an affair with many girls! This was outrageous!

Xia Qingxun could not wait to get ahold of Qiao Haoming, grab him, and ask him what was going on.

However, Xia Qingxun held back.

He didn't want to make a big fuss and let his parents know about it; it'd make them sad.

Moreover, his sister's 18th birthday was coming up, and he couldn't let her be upset along with him.

Therefore, he pushed down the anger and waited for the opportunity to talk to Qiao Haoming afterwards.

Xia Qinghan was his most beloved sister. How could he let other men bully her like this?

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

Although the Xia family was not as wealthy and powerful as the Qiao family, they were not easy to bully!

To make sure that Qiao Haoming was not wronged in this matter, Xia Qingxun arrived in G City a day early and went outside Qiao Haoming's company.

There, he saw that Qiao Haoming had taken a beautiful girl to dinner after work.

This stunned him!

Qiao Haoming was so reckless!

He was outrageous!

No amount of photos and videos could be as shocking as when he saw Qiao Haoming with other girls with his own eyes!

If Qiao Haoming hadn't driven away, he might have punched him in the face!

Xia Qingxun held in his anger until the next day.

The next day was Xia Qinghan's birthday, and Qiao Haoming came as if nothing had happened, with a calm and easy demeanor.

Xia Qingxun was stunned by Qiao Haoming's cheekiness.

However, looking at his sister smiling happily, and with his parents present, he could only put up with the anger.

"Brother Xun, what's wrong?"

Qiao Haoming looked at Xia Qingxun in confusion. The look in his eyes was a bit strange.

"Nothing," Xia Qingxun shook his head stiffly.

Qiao Haoming was puzzled, but did not continue to ask.

Their parents, Xia Jun and Chang Qianzi, were very happy. Their daughter was now eighteen and an adult!

Bai Meixue was also present. Her expression was a bit complicated, especially when she and Xia Jun looked at each other.

However, Chang Qianzi didn't even notice the eye contact between the two.

As for Xia Qingxun, he didn't care about that either. His full attention was on Qiao Haoming.

“Hanhan, come on, get ready to blow out the candles!” Chang Qianzi brought the cake to Xia Qinghan.
“Hurry up and make a wish!”

“Yes, make a wish!” the others nodded as well.

Although there weren’t many people here, they were all close to her. With the most important people around her, Xia Qinghan was satisfied.. She closed her eyes and made a wish, then blew out the candles.

Chapter 878: Loving Mom and Daughter

Bai Meixue’s emotions were very complicated watching Xia Qinghan blow out the candles.

Relieved, emotional, heartbroken...

Various emotions intertwined so that she almost could not keep her expression neutral.

So many years had passed, and now the little one had grown into an adult.

She couldn’t let Xia Qinghan call herself “mom” openly, which was really too hard to bear.

However, Xia Qinghan was doing well, and that was the most important thing.

Thinking of this, she collected her emotions and said with a smile, “Let’s eat cake.”

Chang Qianzi smiled and handed over the knife, “Come on, cut the cake.”

Xia Qinghan took the knife, divided the cake, and handed it to everyone.

“Brother Xun, what’s wrong with you?”

Qiao Haoming smiled and took the cake. Then he met Xia Qingxun’s strange eyes and couldn’t help but be filled with confusion.

He felt that Xia Qingxun’s expression was very strange today, and that look on his face made his scalp tingle a little.

“Nothing.” Xia Qingxun shook his head stiffly.

“Oh.”

Qiao Haoming was puzzled but did not continue to pursue the question.

He had a feeling that if he continued to ask questions, the consequences would be a bit serious.

He followed his intuition and didn’t ask further.

Xia Qinghan heard the conversation between the two of them and came over.

“Brother, what are you two talking about?”

Xia Qingxun looked at his sister with a complicated gaze and shook his head, “Nothing.”

“Come on!” Xia Qinghan tickled his nose and asked, “What can’t we know?”

This was Xia Qinghan’s birthday party. It was a small gathering, just family and close friends together.

However, he still couldn’t let this kind of thing affect such a good occasion, even if it was just pretending.

Xia Qinghan looked at her brother strangely, full of doubts.

However, her brother was not willing to say, so she could only give up.

“Okay then, you guys eat!” She handed Xia Qingxun a slice of cake. “I’m trying to lose weight, I can only eat a little bit.”

“Lose what weight?” Chang Qianzi looked at her daughter disapprovingly. “You’re already thin. If you lose more weight, won’t you only have a skeleton left?”

“Mom!” Xia Qinghan took her mother’s hand. “I’m a star! When you’re on camera, you have to be thin!”

Bai Meixue also helped to explain, “Yes. The demands of being photogenic are a bit higher. Don’t worry, Hanhan will definitely take care of her health.”

Xia Qinghan nodded, “Yes! I will definitely take care of myself!”

If she hadn’t said that, Chang Qianzi might not have let her stay in the entertainment industry.

Looking at her daughter pouting, Chang Qianzi could only nod helplessly, “You better take good care of your health! Otherwise...”

“I know!” Xia Qinghan smiled coquettishly. “Come, Mommy! Eat a little more!”

Being so pleased by her daughter, Chang Qianzi felt warm inside. Tapping her nose, she took the cake.

Looking at this scene of a mother’s love and a daughter’s filial piety, Bai Meixue’s mood was immediately affected.

When Chang Qianzi did not appear, she took the place of her mother.

Now that Chang Qianzi was here, she had to take a backseat.

For the sake of Xia Qinghan’s future, she could only endure it.

Thinking of this, she couldn’t help but turn her head and glare at Xia Jun.

Xia Jun was eating cake when he was suddenly glared at by Bai Meixue, which was a bit baffling.

However, he pulled away from her so as not to be discovered.

Looking at him like that, Bai Meixue gritted her teeth.

Ugh, this kind of man! What did she see in him in the first place?

Chapter 879: We Will Handle It

Xia Jun, Xia Qingxun, and Xia Qinghan all looked quite similar. Whenever they went out, others would not mistake their relationship.

However, Xia Qingxun and Xia Qinghan did not look like Chang Qianzi. When she took them out, she would be asked about her relationship with the children.

Of course, Chang Qianzi did not care about this. After all, it was quite common for children to look like their father and not their mother.

Chang Qianzi smiled and looked at her two children, satisfied.

Looking at his parents' satisfied smiles, Xia Qingxun was frustrated and had no way to vent his frustration.

He could only hold back and wait until he and Qiao Haoming were alone before he could deal with things.

However, his patience was soon broken.

While everyone was eating, drinking, and chatting, his phone rang once again.

He tapped it to take a look and his face immediately became grim.

"Brother?" Xia Qinghan looked at him suspiciously. "What's wrong?"

"Nothing." Xia Qingxun shook his head, then said to Qiao Haoming, who was on the side, "Haoming, come with me to the toilet."

Qiao Haoming froze for a moment.

"Huh?"

Why did he need them to go to the toilet together? Besides, wasn't there a toilet in the room?

Xia Qingxun didn't give him a chance to refuse. He grabbed his neck and used some force.

"Let's go."

"Ow!" Qiao Haoming exclaimed as he was taken out by him.

Qiao Haoming broke free only when he was outside. "Brother Xun, what are you doing?"

Xia Qingxun let go of him. He looked at him coldly, anger in his eyes.

“You have an idea.”

Qiao Haoming was sheepish when he met his eyes.

“What do you mean...”

“What do I mean?” Xia Qingxun began to vent. “What is going on with you and my sister?”

“What’s going on?” Qiao Haoming looked confused. “No, nothing is going on! We’re fine!”

“Fine?” Xia Qingxun laughed coldly, then clicked on his phone and showed him the photos he had taken earlier. “This is called fine?”

When Qiao Haoming looked and saw that it was an intimate photo of him and another girl, his face suddenly changed.

“You... You... How...”

“How did I know?” Xia Qingxun sneered, “I took this myself!

“I didn’t expect that you would be so shameless! You’re my sister’s boyfriend, but you’re still messing with other girls?!” Xia Qingxun took a deep breath. “How can you face her like this?!”

“This- This is a misunderstanding!” Qiao Haoming explained in a panic. “Yes, this is a misunderstanding! We just left together, that’s all!”

“Misunderstanding?”

Xia Qingxun was really disgusted by him and brought up another photo.

Looking at the photo of himself and another girl kissing intimately, Qiao Haoming was shocked for a moment, and then a suspicion jumped out in his heart.

This photo... It looked a little familiar!

When he thought about it, he winced.

Didn’t this happen when he was in the Capital City before?

Seeing the angle of the photo, it should have been taken by Xia Xibei! She had said at that time that she did not take any photos!

In other words, his previous intuition was correct!

Damn Xia Xibei, how dare she play such a trick on him!

Xia Qingxun had no idea of Qiao Haoming’s internal monologue and laughed coldly, “Explain to me, what is this? Is it Photoshopped?”

Qiao Haoming's face was ugly. His expression was gloomy and uncertain for a while before he gritted his teeth and calmed down.

"Brother Xun, this is a matter between me and Hanhan. We will deal with it..."

"You guys will handle it?!" Xia Qingxun was furious and landed a fist on the wall by his head. "You'll handle it?!"

"Brother!"

Xia Qinghan suddenly popped up.

Chapter 880: None of Your Business

"Brother!"

Xia Qinghan appeared out of nowhere and rushed forward, pulling Qiao Haoming away.

Xia Qingxun reacted quickly and put his fist away, otherwise it would have landed on her face.

"Brother! What are you doing?!" Xia Qinghan was furious. "Why did you hit him?!"

Scolded by his sister, Xia Qingxun froze.

"You don't know how many things he did behind your back..."

"I do know..." Xia Qinghan said loudly.

"You- You know?!"

Xia Qingxun was dumbfounded. Xia Qinghan actually knew what Qiao Haoming had done?!

Xia Qinghan was angry and anxious, "This is our business, we don't need you to worry!"

Just now, when she saw Xia Qingxun almost hit Qiao Haoming, she was so scared that she almost lost herself.

Wasn't she enduring all this just to maintain her relationship with Qiao Haoming?

If Xia Qingxun stirred things up, then what was the point of her suffering?

That was why she was so angry and anxious.

Xia Qingxun was stunned by her reaction.

"Don't need me to worry?"

He was going to die of anger.

Who was he doing this for? Yet, the person he cared so much for said he was meddling?! Who could stand this kind of reaction?

Xia Qinghan protected Qiao Haoming behind her, "Brother, this is our own business. We will handle it ourselves! No need for you to worry!"

Looking at her being so resolute, Xia Qingxun took a deep breath, "Okay, you can handle it by yourself. Okay, I don't care!"

He was so dedicated to her, yet he was treated like this; his heart went cold.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myAllNovelFull.Com THANKS!)

After saying that, he angrily walked away.

When he returned to the room, he met his parents' worried eyes.

"What happened?"

"Nothing." Xia Qingxun stiffly pulled the corners of his mouth. "There was just a little argument. It's okay."

That's what he said, but the expressions on Chang Qianzi and Xia Jun's faces were not very good.

Chang Qianzi's expression especially was quite unpleasant to see.

"Is it really nothing?"

"Really..."

Xia Qingxun was mute as he noticed his mother's anger.

When he saw the phones in their hands, he had a sudden idea and drew in a breath.

"Do... Do you know?"

He did not dare to ask, but the question simply did not need to be asked, because the answer was already in front of him.

He could not help but secretly be annoyed.

Who the hell did all this? Why would they send the photos to his parents!

Wasn't this going to make them worry?

When Xia Qinghan and Qiao Haoming came back, they were confronted with several expressions of stifled anger.

Xia Qinghan's heart jumped. Were they...

"Haoming." Chang Qianzi stepped out. "Shouldn't you explain something to us?"

“Explain?” Qiao Haoming was a little flustered. “Explain what?”

“What do you think?”

Chang Qianzi held back her anger.

As a woman, what she hated most was her significant other cheating.

As a mother, she did not want her daughter to encounter this kind of thing.

However, Xia Qinghan was facing this kind of thing! It was just despicable!

How could Chang Qianzi not be angry?

“Hmm...” Qiao Haoming was speechless. How should he explain?

Xia Qinghan, however, stood out.

“Mom, Dad, Brother. This is all a misunderstanding!”

While saying that, she gave Xia Qingxun a fierce glare.

Xia Qingxun’s heart suddenly went cold. She thought he was the one who exposed it?!

“Misunderstanding?” Chang Qianzi was exasperated by her daughter’s reaction. “Why are you protecting him like this?”

How could this child be so stupid?
