

Chapter 864

Bella Qiao gave her an appreciative glance.

“Still Miss Anna is smart.”

Lin Song: “.....”

Why do I feel like I’m being rejected?

But spitefulness aside, the heart knew that Gu Siqian wasn’t really giving up, but was waiting until the end to have a showdown, which was why he let go.

Soon, the blonde haired foreigner was defeated.

The other sighed helplessly, shook his head in disappointment, turned back to Chi with an oriental fist-pumping admiration, and gave up.

A smug look appeared on Qi’s face.

Probably this time Qi always sluggishly gambled almost all of his possessions, so even though he was not the richest person present, he was the highest bidder.

The last 80 million base price of jade was hard enough for him to compete with that foreigner to the height of 1.5 billion dollars!

On the field, the host took a look at the silent scene and smiled, “Mr. Chi is now bidding $1.5 billion, is there anyone else in the audience who would like to raise the price again?”

There was no answer from the field.

So she started shouting, “Mr. Chi $1.5 billion at a time!”

“Mr. Chi $1.5 billion twice!”

“Mr. Chi...”

"Two billion!"

A low, magnetic voice suddenly interrupted her.

The beautiful host brightened up and immediately looked to the source of the sound, but found that it was the young man sitting in the first row who hadn't made a sound since the very first time he called a price.

In fact, she had already noticed Gu Siqian because she wasn't from this circle, so she didn't know Gu Siqian.

Still, because of the other party's handsome appearance and that extraordinary body, she couldn't help but notice her from the moment she entered the scene.

At first, when the heavenly book of jade came out, he called the price once, expecting that he would follow a second time, but then he never waited for him to open his mouth.

The host still felt regret in his heart, thinking that about this person was average, that's why he would stop so early and not compete with these people.

But I didn't think it would be to save it for last!

The beautiful host immediately smiled and said, "This gentleman in number three is now raising the price by $2 billion! May I ask if there is more than two billion dollars?"

Almost as soon as Gu Siqian opened his mouth, cold sweat broke out on Chi's body.

That's Gu Siqian.

Dragon Corps boss, heir to the Gu clan.

He thought he couldn't possibly compete with Gu Siqian with his own financial resources, but now that he'd called it a day, Gu Siqian had only jumped out, what else could he do?

Do you really want to give up?

A look of struggle flashed in Chi's eyes.

Today, he was determined to take this piece of jade down no matter what.

So after coming over here and observing the people in the field, he found that the vast majority of them were a threat to him, but if he really desperately wanted to take this piece of jade down, it wasn't like he couldn't take a gamble.

But only after seeing Gu Siqian, this certainty was broken.

Because he knew that whether it was useful to Gu Siqian or not, as long as he was interested in it, it would definitely not fall into someone else's hands.

So, before the second half started, he came over to check in with him.

At that time, Gu Siqian didn't show any voice, and he was relieved.

I can't believe he was after that!

What to do?

Chi is almost constantly wiping the sweat from his face, and his face is hard to see.

Lin Song smiled back with a smile and said, "Uncle Cousin, are you okay? If you can't, you'll have to concede."

Chi's face changed again.

But in the end, at $2 billion, he wouldn't dare raise the price.

Besides, even if he raised the price again, who knew if Gu Siqian would continue to fight him?

No one knew how much Gu Si Qian was worth, but according to a previous statistic, it was said that adding up all the richest businessmen in the area, including the Lin family, the largest local landlord, was no match for him.

Not to mention the fact that he was a merchant who depended on the Lin family for his livelihood.

In the end, Qi always just accosted, smiling stiffly, "Since Young Gu likes it, then of course I can't take away someone's love, please go ahead Young Gu."

Lin Song raised an eyebrow, not expecting him to back down so quickly and knowingly.

Feeling demoralized, I snorted softly and turned my head.

The onstage moderator saw it coming and began to announce it.

"Mr. Three offered two billion dollars and no more?"

No one spoke below.

Are you kidding? Who dares to steal what Gu Siqian wants?

When the host sees this, he shouts, "Two billion dollars at a time!"

"Two billion dollars twice!"

"Two billion dollars three times!Deal!"

The deal was sealed when the hammer went "bang".

Since this was the last lot, the end of this transaction meant that this auction had come to a successful conclusion today.

After the MC announced his thanks, the hall lights came on and everyone got up and headed out.

When we got outside, immediately many people came over and congratulated Gu Siqian.

Although there were as many people as there were mouths to feed, naturally no one minded on such an occasion.

Gu Siqian socialized with each of them with a faint smile on his face, and on closer inspection, he didn't have the joy they expected of obtaining the greatest treasure.

We didn't know why, but we didn't dare to speculate much, and after saying goodbye to him, we left.

The last one to come out was a vegetable-faced Chi.

Chi is a cousin on Lin Song's mother's side of the family, and the two families are actually a bit at odds, but for some reason, the other has been relying on Lin to make money.

This time, during the campaign for Lin's next successor, Chi was obviously Lin Song's mother's cousin, but it was another cousin of his who supported the side branch, so Lin Song was not very happy with him.

At this time, seeing him come out with an ugly face, he immediately went forward and ridiculed, "Uncle Cousin, why are you not happy? Don't mind, we didn't get the treasure, but we saved 2 billion dollars! Two billion, how many years of oil are enough for you to scrape from our Lin family?"

Chi looked up and stared at him with a cold look.

A cold voice said, "Lin Shao is not sitting in the company this time, but he is bringing a woman out for a fling, does old Lin know about this?"

Lin Song choked.

A bright smile froze on his face.

I'm out for fun during work hours, but how much better are you than me, uncle? Tsk, and fantasizing about immortality, is it interesting to live forever with your family's bird-like appearance of sucking other people's blood to live?"

"You!"

Chi was angry.

It's good that Jing Jing knows better, the two are relatives after all, and the other is Lin Song's elder, if they really make a scene in such a public place, Lin Song will inevitably be punished after he goes home.

Chapter 865

So I quietly pulled him up and said, "I'm feeling a little sick to my stomach, so why don't you go to the bathroom with me."

Only then did Lin Song turned back, nodded, and looked at Chi again, snorting lightly.

Then he greeted the two of them, Gu Siqian, and told them to wait for him where they were before turning around and accompanying Anna to the bathroom.

After he left, Chi also left with an ugly face.

This time, not even one more greeting was exchanged with Gu Siqian, who was clearly a bit indignant.

However, Gu Si Qian is not the kind of person who is petty and loving.

Not only did he not count, but he also kindly instructed, "Chi has a slow journey."

It made Qi's quick steps away stiffen and he almost tripped.

Bella Qiao endured and turned back to glare at him angrily again, "Why the prank?"

Gu Si Qian raised his eyebrows, "I didn't, I was sincere in advising him, after all, it's not good to be so competitive after one's age."

Bella Qiao shook her head helplessly.

"You still have the nerve to say that people are competitive, but after today, I'm afraid everyone will just know how competitive you are."

Hearing her words, Gu Si Qian laughed.

Suddenly turning face to face with her, he bowed his head and said, "My greatest passion is that I must have you, to the ends of the earth, and never die."

Bella Qiao was startled.

The face reddened almost instantly.

The man's tall figure enveloped her entire body as he lowered his head, his scent spreading all over the floor before him.

She was in a bit of a panic and didn't know what to say.

Feet seemed to soften a little, and I was about to take a step back, but the man took hold of my arm and brought it forward, and my whole body was suddenly and steadily planted in his arms.

Kuskan hugged her, stroked the top of her head, and said, "Joe, you're mine, and mine alone."

Bella Qiao's heart was in turmoil as she listened to his almost sigh-like murmurings.

During this time, Gu Si Qian's thoughts about her were clear.

The man does not avoid and cover up the possession of her valley owes, seems to step by step to eat away her sanity.

Bella Qiao also knew that it wasn't an option to keep running away like this.

But she couldn't give any other response than evasion, at this time.

Neither of them spoke again for a moment.

Until a laughing voice came out of earshot, "Yo, it's only been a while how you guys are hugging?"

Bella Qiao was shocked, and when she looked up, she saw Lin Song and Jing Jing coming this way, from the direction of the bathroom.

Her face was red, and she was busy pushing Gu Siqian away like a thief.

Gu Si Qian, however, was so calm that he looked at him askance and asked, "Is the skin itching again?"

Lin Song smiled heedlessly and turned his gaze between Bella Qiao and Gu Si Qian, already knowing something in his heart.

Walking over, he slapped a palm on Gu Si Qian's shoulder and laughed, "Okay, I'm just saying this casually, if you don't like it I'll just stop saying it."

The squeeze of the lips, though not the words, conveyed the meaning perfectly.

Kuskan didn't bother to bother with him, and soon after, the staff came over to sign him off on the bill.

After signing the order, the other party wrapped up the piece of heavenly jade that had been auctioned off and handed it to him.

Before leaving, he also kindly handed over, "The items are valuable, please make sure that Gu is safe."

Kuskan nodded.

That's when the group left.

Lin Song and Jing Jing had things to do in the afternoon, so naturally they wouldn't join them.

They took the car and went straight back to the castle.

It was after one in the afternoon, and they were both a little hungry, and as soon as they got home, Ober greeted them, only to be greeted by an exquisite lunch already laid out on the table.

Anyway, the stuff is already here, so there's simply no rush to see it now, so let's sit down and fill our bellies first.

The meal was a quick one for both of them.

After the meal, the dining room was handed over to the maids to clean up, and this was the only way to go upstairs together.

Ober didn't know what they were going upstairs for, but it was nice to see the two of them making up.

So, after packing up, I cut a plate of fruit up there myself.

At this point, upstairs in the study.

Kusken and Bella were sitting separately on the sofa, and when she saw Ober enter, Bella stood up and took the fruit over.

Ober smiled, "I'll go out and leave you to your business."

Georgie nodded and closed the door after he left, which brought the fruit over.

She put a piece of fruit in her mouth with her fork and nodded, "Mmm, that's sweet, do you want to try a piece?"

Kuskan looked up, his eyes looking deep into hers.

For a moment, lightening his thin lips, "Good."

Without giving it much thought, Georgie picked up a piece of fruit with her fork and passed it to his mouth.

Kusken ate it right out of her hand.

I don't know if it was intentional or not, but her chin accidentally touched her fingers.

Thirty years old, even if he had only just shaved his beard this morning, there was a little bit of imperceptible green stubble popping up now.

Scraping on one's fingers, it tickled with a uniquely masculine taste.

Bella Qiao's heart suddenly trembled just like that.

The whole thing practically shook slightly.

Off to the side, as if the man hadn't noticed, after eating, he took out the box in a serious manner, put it on the table, and said, "Do you open it or do I?"

Bella Qiao withdrew her hand and restrained her mind, as if she felt nothing, and said, "You drive."

Kusken nodded and opened the box.

A white, glistening piece of jade was quietly lying there.

Neither of them had seen it for the first time, but they couldn't help but be amazed by it when they saw it again after four years.

Bella Qiao couldn't help but step forward and pick up the piece of jade.

The jade piece is held in the hand, there is a refreshing coolness coming out, and by the light, you can see that there seems to be some faint textures carved on it, saying that it doesn't look like words, but more like some special symbols.

The four edges were polished and rounded, but the three-finger-wide piece of jade was like holding a piece of ice in your hand.

And yet it was a little more comfortable than the kind of cold that ice is, more like having a light layer of cool water that seeps through the skin from the jade piece into one's body.

Bella Qiao gulped.

It had to be said that even if one ignored the bizarre rumors that the jade carried, even if one just looked at its surface, it would still be a treasure of great value.

Gu Si Qian just sat there, watching her quietly weigh the jade on her hand.

Half a dozen times, he asked, "See anything yet?"

Georgie scrutinized it carefully and shook her head.

Kusken held out his hand, "Let me see."

Bella Qiao handed over the jade piece.

The glittering piece of jade was even smaller and more transparent in the man's palm, and the faint texture of the jade seemed to be more vivid in the light.

Chapter 866

Bella Qiao leaned over as well, her whole body leaning over next to him for easier viewing, her head almost next to each other.

After a moment, she whispered, "See anything?"

Gu Si Qian's handsome brow wrinkled lightly as he said in a deep voice, "Isn't this the piece from four years ago?"

"What?"

Bella Qiao froze, looking at him in surprise.

Kuskan put the jade down and turned his head, only then noticing that she had somehow made her way over.

They were close, so close that he could easily smell the faint scent of lavender on her hair and not breathe.

Soon, however, he acted as if he hadn't noticed, restrained the colour, and without moving, leaned a little closer to her, bringing them closer together.

Holding up the piece of jade in her hand, she explained in front of her, "Look at the texture on this one, the one from four years ago, I've looked at it carefully, and these texture symbols on it are different from this one."

When he said that, Georgie really noticed it.

Only, back then, she hadn't looked at the thing closely enough, so her memory was fuzzy, and she only vaguely remembered it as if it was a little different.

Kusikan explained, "The previous piece had a horizontal orientation to the top of the texture, but this one has a vertical orientation, and each character has a different shape."

Kitty Qiao frowned.

"So, these two aren't a piece?"

Kuskan nodded.

He put the jade tablets down, got up, grabbed his laptop, and sat back down.

Turning on the computer, he pulled out the information he had been asked to look up earlier and brought it up for her to see.

"According to my investigation, there are a total of twelve pieces of this jade piece, and each piece has a corresponding name, the one we got before is called Greedy Wolf, and this one, based on the texture and symbols on it, we can guess that it should be a Senko."

Bella Qiao was startled, "A business participant?"

"Well."

Kusken turned the computer screen towards her, and she conveniently took a closer look.

Bella Qiao had roughly scanned the information all over, and had already made a mental note of it.

"So, the Nans aren't the ones who started that strife in the first place?"

Kuskan's brows locked, "We can't be sure yet."

Although, it was now known that this piece of jade was not the same piece as the one that disappeared four years ago, but for some reason, judging from his intuition, he still felt that this matter was related to the Nan Clan.

Bella Qiao saw the situation and didn't ask any further questions.

Instead, he picked up the piece of jade, shone it into the light, and said, "Do you think this really has such a magical effect as it is said to have?"

Gu Si Qian looked at her faintly and said, "You can try."

"What?"

Bella Qiao turned her head and looked at him blankly.

Gu Siqian smiled, "Didn't they say you could live forever? You want to wait a few decades with it? If you're really not old, that might work."

Only then did Bella Qiao react, daring the man to make fun of her.

She immediately sank to her knees and glared at him, "Get out."

Kusken laughs.

But then, she was a little confused.

"They say it's a treasure, and the Nan Clan isn't short of money, what do you mean they're putting it out for auction?"

Kusken shook his head.

In fact, he was now truly unaware of the other man's intentions.

But one is not for money and the other is not for profit, and that probably means there is some other ulterior motive.

He thought this, and his mind sank a little.

In the end, in the end only said, "Let's take it one step at a time, right now the other party is just taking things out and hasn't made any other moves yet, but as long as they have a purpose, they will definitely make a move, so there's no need to rush, they will naturally show their fox tails when the time comes."

Bella Qiao nodded, and finally, her eyes fell on the jade in the box.

"Now what about this thing?"

Gu Si Qian said indifferently, "Leave it for now."

After a pause, he suddenly looked at her and asked, "During this time, has Xu Changzheng still come to see you?"

Bella Qiao's brow furrowed at the mention of this.

She shook her head, "No."

In the meantime, Gu Si Qian also lightly browsed, "I always feel that this time, his appearance is somewhat related to this auction done by the Nan Clan."

Jackie was stunned and asked, "How so?"

"Can't tell."

The man rubbed his brow somewhat wearily for a moment before saying in a deep voice, "Just a gut feeling, isn't that something you women believe in?"

Afterwards, he looked at her with a smile on his face.

Bella Qiao snorted and sneered, "Not every woman believes that either, okay?"

Kuskan asked rhetorically, "You don't believe me?"

"I don't believe it."

She paused and explained, "I believe in seeing more than I believe in the illusions of the mohawks."

I said, and pointed to my own eyes.

Kusken pondered and said, "But there are times when the eyes can lie."

Seeing that Bella Qiao was stunned, he explained, "Like, there are times when what you see may not be true, in this world people have so many things they can't help, often, instead, it's about the heart, following your heart, and what you feel in your heart that's true."

The man's words rang in his ears and Georgie was silent for a moment.

Half a dozen times, before saying, "Maybe."

She waved her hand, as if she didn't want to continue the conversation.

"Okay, I've looked at the stuff, and there's no clue now, so I'm going to go back to my room."

Kuskan nodded.

That's how Bella Qiao left.

I just don't know if it was her delusion, but when she left, she always felt a burning gaze on her.

After returning to her room, Georgie took a break.

When I woke up from my nap, it was 3:30 pm.

She opened her eyes, her head still a little muddled at this point from the wake up call.

When I looked up, I saw that the sun was strong outside, so the whole thing was a little dizzy.

"Moon."

She shouted.

Xiao Yue quickly came in from outside and saw her awake, her eyes shining with joy as she asked, "Are you awake?"

Bella Qiao nodded.

She sat on the bed, her head hanging, her brow visibly tight, as if she were uncomfortable.

Moon walked up to her and handed her a glass of water, concerned. "Is it somewhere uncomfortable?"

Kitty Jo shook her head.

She was silent for a moment before saying, "I don't know, I guess I didn't sleep well, I'm a little dizzy."

Moon thought about it and said, "That could be, why don't I give you a massage with some essential oils? Relax relax."

Bella Qiao looked up, quite surprised.

"And you know how to massage?"

Moon laughed a little and said, "I learned a little before, but I'm just not very good at it, just don't mind."

Georgie figured it was fine left and right, and she was really uncomfortable, so she let her try.
