

Chapter 871: The boundary between hunter and prey

“My colorful wings are still there.

During the chaos, Vichy swung the barbell to defend the flank attack. There is a gym on the bottom floor of the shopping mall. The barbell weighing 20kg is the ideal heavy weapon for Vichy. Unfortunately, Vichy is tired and injured.

Even with Yaxiu’s “Le Sword” continuing, she couldn’t blow up the enemy’s head like she did at the beginning, so she could only focus on defense. But Yaxiu still clearly felt Vichy’s strength—she was about 1.6 meters tall, and it was not very difficult to swing a 2.2-meter barbell, especially in the melee, she was very handy, with the help of the enemy’s strength to counter shock Turning the bar, the heavy bar was as light as hers in her hands.

Whether it’s Ash or Nia, there are times when you have to fight recklessly and use your strength to drain the enemy’s strength.

But Vichy is different. Her battle is like a machine full of lubricating oil. Every gear turns with precision. All power is transmitted to the terminal according to her will without any damage, even without using any Miracle, but she herself is a miracle.

Among the people that Yaxiu knows, I am afraid that only Tamashi can be beautiful with her daughter-in-law.

The spear and halberd are just one of Vichy’s legendary spells.

Ash once asked Vichy why she likes using long weapons, and she replied that she likes things that are long and big. Honestly, Ash felt that the reason might be true, and that Vichy wasn’t just teasing him.

It is precisely because her body is relatively petite, and she majors in the 'do-it-yourself' technique of soul prophecy, so she can only satisfy her inner tyrannical desire when she crushes the enemy with a huge sword.

Master, watch his blade, see his heart.

Yaxiu reminded herself again and again that no matter how Vichy behaves, she is always a ruthless poisonous snake and a brutal python. The ruby chain adds a maid of all things to Ash and makes him an undead foe.

Vichy didn't notice Ash's mental activity, and continued: "The mysterious chain only broke my exposed silver and gold wings, and the fire-guarding spirit is still in my soul, that is to say, the mysterious The mechanism of the chain is aimed at the "mystery" itself, rather than a specific advocacy, so my colorful wings and heterochromatic wings were not affected. "That sanctuary-"

"What color magic power you use to drive the sanctuary, the mysterious chain will target the virtual wings of which color." Vichy speculated: "It may even be the case with miracles, when we cast spells, magic spirits do not appear, but Hidden in our soul, if the mysterious chain traces the mysterious phenomenon, it is very likely that it will only follow the tide to the virtual wings of our soul. Ash nodded silently, as a direct victim and a resurrected demigod, Vichy's guess can be directly Use it as a conclusion. Although the mysterious chain will not directly target individuals for humane destruction, the ability to break the Void Wing is enough to make the magician shudder.

If Niya didn't appear, then Yaxiu had to lose at least the Rainbow Void Wing and Heterochromatic Void Wing in order to break the game.

"Can your silver and gold wings be restored?" Ash asked.

Vichy's expression was indifferent: "Theoretically it is impossible, the magician can't return to the bottom virtual realm, and naturally there is no way to regenerate the virtual wing. The path of the magician has always been a road of no return, and only a few magicians can freely travel to and from the virtual world. different layers of the environment,

But if I could do that, it wouldn't matter.

“Aren’t you able to steal souls from other magicians?” Ash asked, “You just lack some soul magic, right? Vichy couldn’t help but gave Yaxiu a look at these words, and explained faintly: “Ordinary soul seizures are It’s relatively simple, but because of the incompatibility of my soul and body, my thinking ability, memory, and even the realm of magic will continue to decline. If you want to capture the soul perfectly, you need to be extremely precious and even have to be the magic spirit created by me. I only have a share of the magic that can be cast once in the ghost inheritance, and because I have never used it, I only discovered the magic formula when I used it for the first time. There is a major flaw, and it has to consume 3,000 Wraiths to force a miracle. In every sense of the word, I can’t do a second recapture. “That’s it,” Ash said, “If you bring out those resentful souls, then Yin Lan and I will be dead in the silent spiral, right?”

“Not only you, but those three gods can also get into my hands.” Vichy said coldly, “However, master, why did you take the initiative to propose other magicians to steal the soul? Haven’t you always restrained me from doing evil, or you also want to learn the most treacherous ones? The unknowable soul spell heard the name “Master”, and Nia turned to look at them.

“I’m afraid that your combat power will drop too much and become a burden. Anyway, it shouldn’t be difficult to find a sinister sanctuary magician.”

Yaxiu slashed a blood mad hunter with two swords and said, “If it’s troublesome, forget it.

Silver Void Wings and Gold Void Wings are very important to the magician. Even if the magician does not have the secret poison to convert magic power, these two virtual wings are the most perfect flying ability of the magician. After Vichy loses these two phantom wings, she has to wait until she condenses a complete fourth phantom wing to regain her native flight ability. Before that, she can only rely on the miracle of magic to move in the air.

Moreover, even a mudblood magician like Yaxiu faintly felt that a complete Void Wing was very important to the magician, just like a person has ten fingers, although some fingers are used very infrequently, but without those fingers will greatly affect the quality of life.

“Isn’t the weaker the better?” Vichy smashed the lion’s head with a stick, and said strangely: “It’s better to become a mortal, and meow in front of you like a pet every day, such a maid is the master’s favorite. yes

“No matter how weak you are, you are still a beast of a flood.” Yaxiu replied, “I’m just afraid that you are too weak to die suddenly, and you will be reborn from your soul and break free from the chains. I don’t want to worry about your revenge every day.

Vichy turned back and said, “Don’t you worry about my revenge when I’m locked up?”

The two of them tacitly did not mention Vichy’s help just now. Maybe they both knew that it was just the effect of the ruby chain. When Ash was in danger, Vichy was both his deadly spear and his shield, or maybe they were also Not sure how to deal with it.

“Can’t you all use those superpowers?” Niya, who had been silently listening to the enemy, suddenly asked.

“At least not now, we need to meet some conditions to use those abilities.” Ash finally asked when he had time, “Niya, why did you appear here 4

“I don’t recall that we were in a relationship where we could call each other by name.

“Miss Servey.” Ash was kind, “Why didn’t you drink the Holy Grail and still appear in the square?”

After a moment of silence, Nia said, “I also want to gain your superpowers, so I’ve been waiting for the Holy Grail to be filled,

Then those monsters appeared, I fought and fled, and ran to the square to use the terrain to defend against the monsters.

No wonder the commercial plaza was crowded with monsters, it turned out to be Niya’s licking dog.

As for why she was nearby, she didn’t answer, and Yaxiu didn’t follow up. After all, this is a business district, maybe her hiding place is nearby, maybe the serial killer also wants to go shopping?

“You can resist the temptation of the Holy Grail.” Ash was a little surprised. The other mortals who drank the Holy Grail for the first time and fell down were not because of poor self-control. Even their magicians had to concentrate to resist the aroma of the Holy Grail.

Of course, it could also be that Yaxiu’s nose was broken after smelling the corpse for too long.

“It’s hard, but it’s good to get used to it.” Niya looked at him seriously: “After I drink it, can I become “special” like you?”

it is as expected.

Ash sighed inwardly and replied, “I don’t know either, but you can at least benefit from it.

Fili took a sip of the silver chalice and did not grow the seventh virtual wing, but her physical fitness improved a lot, and Niya’s expectations for the golden chalice were probably only in vain.

In the final analysis, they are not the body, no matter how hard they work, they are still shadows that do not deserve to be rewarded.

Ash jumped directly over the topic and said, “Be careful, there is another enemy who is proficient in sniper moves hiding in the dark,

Can you handle that until a second before shooting

Nia didn’t care when she heard the front, but when she heard ‘the shooting will take place only one second before the shooting, she immediately became serious and nodded after thinking for a while, “No problem.”

“Speaking of which, we obviously ran out, but the sniper didn’t move.” Vichy said, “Did you leave?”

The three of Yaxiu did not stay in the square, but came out again with the advantage of the three-man collaboration. It was too easy for them to be blocked by high-level troops in one place for a long time.

On the contrary, mobile warfare can give full play to their advantages. And that sniper can snipe through walls, there is no difference between indoor and outdoor. After Nia joined the team, they were able to deal with the monster army with ease, so Ash and Vichy immediately changed their minds – they wanted to seduce the snipers to shoot again to determine the opponent’s position, kill the past to force the opponent to appear!

Vichy is a maniac who must be punished by bandits. She has accumulated a lot of resentment when she is bound by Yaxiu. How could she be willing to endure other people’s plots and Yaxiu is also very clear that facing a sniper of this level, dodging is equivalent to slow death.

Only by dragging the opponent into the quagmire of battle can you improve your chances of survival!

In the Cage of Stars, the line between hunter and prey is blurred.

But the snipers seemed to realize that they could no longer pose a threat to them and stopped sniping decisively. It may be hiding and waiting for an opportunity, or it may be hunting for other prey.

At this moment, a rainbow beam of light appeared in the distance. However, it is not the same as the beam of light at the location of the Six Nations Legion’s violent soldiers.

W live, E’, such as everywhere, Chinese art, T Tig site workers, this rainbow beam of light is very thin, not their sharp eyes may not be able to detect.

After a few seconds, Ash and Vichy felt very clear miraculous fluctuations, at least legendary level in terms of scale,

At the same time, a huge black coffin appeared at the location of the rainbow beam of light. Although it disappeared after a breath, all the high-rise buildings in the area were wiped out!

“The legendary spell of shadow magic!” Vichy recognized immediately.

Then, they all saw the rainbow beam moving, looking like they were running away.

Niya suddenly patted Ash on the shoulder, Ash turned his head and saw that a rainbow beam of light appeared in another location, "That's the vision after drinking the Holy Grail!"

Vichy blurted out: "It may be because of the magic power, but it is more likely that the quantitative change of the rainbow nectar will cause the qualitative change. The hidden mechanism of the Golden Holy Grail should be that the accumulation of the rainbow nectar can increase the seventh virtual wing. But if you drink the Holy Grail at this time, a very conspicuous rainbow beam will appear on your body!"

"Even if the monster army will let the drinker go, others can see the rainbow beam! If you can endure until this time to drink the Holy Grail, you can basically treat it as a magician or a demon of other teams!"

"This is the real killer move of Yuan Angel. Our rivalry with the Six Nations Legion is just the opening ceremony of the stage. We kill each other is the finale that Yuan Angel wants to see!"

It was only at this time that Ash and the others had a glimpse of the whole picture of the second angel hunt. Unlike the first game, the prey of the second game 'white cow' was already dead at the beginning of the game, but the hunting has just begun. The magicians are both hunters and hunting angels. At the beginning, people will drink the Holy Grail and fall into a drowsiness. Only magicians have enough ability and greed to endure until the Holy Grail is filled, thus ruining their final retreat!

So far, Ash and the others have to persevere to the end, otherwise they will become an Easter egg who is in a drowsy state and announces the location of the full server!

The sound of the legion's galloping footsteps came from the lane ahead, Yaxiu and others clenched their weapons, preparing to break through the interception.

However, the one who ran out of the alley was a blond girl holding a bamboo sword. She turned her head and saw that Ya Xiu was also startled, and immediately shouted in surprise: "Ya"

"Be careful of sniping!" Yaxiu yelled, and hurried forward with two swords upside down. The sniper seized the opportunity precisely, and the deadly bullet pierced through the sky!

Chapter 872: Spiritualization of Igula and Harvey

The sanctuary is too far away, and the sword body barrier is too late to sway the phantom wings before casting the spell to intercept it.

Yaxiu flashed many thoughts in an instant, but none of them could keep up with the speed of the sniper bullet. In the interval between his thoughts, the image of Vichy being broken by a mysterious chain and his phantom wings appeared in his mind, and Vichy's voice sounded in his ear, "She is just a phantom"

She's just a phantom, I'm just a false and illusory thought. The magic power is running violently, the transparent sanctuary spreads rapidly, and the fully-armed magician wants to fight against the mysterious and unpredictable fate. It's just that Yaxiu, who couldn't catch up originally, hesitated for a moment, and it was even more close to the horizon!

Half of the bamboo sword flew up, Feili fell to the ground with a buttock, and there was a shallow bloodstain on her face, but she just stared at the bamboo sword that was broken due to the flying bullet, as if she had not returned. God comes.

Vichy, who felt the sanctuary unfolding, glanced at Yaxiu, but didn't say anything. He silently rushed over to intercept the legion monsters rushing out of the alleyway. Niya was in charge of intercepting the chasing soldiers behind, and Yaxiu quickly pulled Fili up. . It was only at this moment that Feili realized what she had done, and excitedly shouted: "Axiu, did you see it, I just chopped off the bullets one by one, and in a second, Ash took Feili into his arms. He exhaled a long breath, "Fortunately you didn't, the sudden hug made the little sheep's mind go blank for a moment, Yaxiu's body was very hot, the uninterrupted fighting made his body temperature rise, and the breath he exhaled was like a hot wind blowing her hair. The stretched arms and firm chest reminded Fili of the extremely real touch in the dream, which made her want to take a shower, who was already sweating.

"Me," she stammered inexplicably, "my bamboo sword is broken."

"You use this one first." Ash let go of her and shoved a fox lantern sword into her hand. One of the advantages of the double sword is that it can be used as a spare: "Hide between us, you may not have it next time. Such good luck." "I'm not lucky, my swordsmanship can protect myself!" Phili retorted.

Yaxiu also saw that Feili was blocking, indicating that her swordsmanship was indeed at the gold level, probably because she was also a swordsman. But the problem is that she has not experienced many battles at all, and Yaxiu and Vichy have experienced countless battlefields, and cutting bullets is a common thing for them. Experience, naturally, the three of them are more confident against sniping. "But you can't be on your own yet." Ash said seriously, "Stand in the middle first."

"Well." Fili was originally timid, but now Yaxiu insisted that she wanted to prove that her courage was suppressed all of a sudden, and she obediently hid among them.

"How did you get here? Wasn't the signal in the whole city in chaos when the golden rain came?"

"Sister Vichy sent me a message before saying that you were shopping around here and called me over for dinner, so I rushed over here when it rained."

Yaxiu glanced at Vichy, knowing that this guy hadn't given up on her evil plan. First, he called Fili over to have dinner, and the next step was to open a room for them and put them in. After a few days, I'm afraid I won't think about it again. Mixing in to train Feili almost succeeded her!

"How do you deal with these monsters?" Ash asked as he moved.

"Walking through the alleys, if you can't escape, just hit them." Feili said proudly: "The terrain of the alleys is complicated, and I will use tools such as trash cans, bricks and floor tiles, but they can't catch up with me! The real and fake Six Nations Legion so easy to deal with Yaxiu and the others looked at each other, and Vichy thought about it and said, "It may be that those of us who resist violently will be attracted.

Pay attention, so those who only care about running away like Fili have fewer chasing troops. "

But in any case, successfully reuniting with Fili is already a victory, Ash heaved a sigh of relief: "It's good that you are not injured." I'm sorry to worry you. ' Phili said softly.

"There's a small mall in front!" Vichy shouted, "We rush in to fight for demonization time, Ash, you or I will come"

“I’m coming!” Ash immediately said, “Your magic movement is too loud. If you scare the sniper away, you’ll be in trouble! I’ll just use the spectator mode to sneak over and kill him.”

Now that they have merged with Feili, the Six Nations Legion is no longer a problem. Their goal is to expand the battle results and kill other hunters.

Especially the sniper who was causing trouble for them. He had already seen the appearance of Yaxiu and others. If they failed to kill him, Yaxiu and the others could only give up their identities and remain anonymous, otherwise they would wait for the devil to touch the door in the middle of the night! After entering the small shopping mall, Vichy and Nya stopped at the entrance of the shopping mall to intercept the Legion, Ash and Fili shook hands to complete the soul contact between the demon and the magician – “Hello!” Vichy interrupted them suddenly, “What are you doing? !?” Ash and Fili saw that they were bowing their heads and approaching the Holy Grail, and their lips were about to touch Rainbow Nectar. They hurried away, this time Yaxiu kept his mind and asked the magic spirit to help control the body, and then made contact with the soul. But they were stopped by Vichy again, and Ash resisted, but Fili would still try to drink the Holy Grail. At this time, Ash has already reacted, “We can’t complete the demonization... Demonization requires the demon and the magician to complete the soul infiltration, but during this process our soul will temporarily leave the body and cannot control the body, so Fili will drink the Holy Grail involuntarily.

From the very beginning, Rainbow Nectar was an irresistible temptation for everyone, and Ash, Fili, and Niya tried their best to resist this temptation. But demonization requires Ash and Fili to let go of their spirits for soul contact, and their bodies are like thirsty beasts out of control, eager to drink the Grail’s rainbow nectar!

Yaxiu can also use the magic spirit to affect the body, but Fili does not have the magic spirit! “Try again.” Vichy said.

When Ash and Fili tried for the third time, Vichy directly covered Fili’s mouth, but the Holy Grail passed through her palm and poured the nectar directly into Fili’s mouth. As long as they wanted to drink, they would definitely be able to drink the Holy Grail!

“No wonder the city is so quiet now.” Vichy suddenly realized, “I said it’s impossible for all demons to have no magicians around.”

If the demon does not drink the rainbow nectar, it will not be able to conclude a combat contract with the magician, but if the demon drinks the rainbow nectar, it will directly fall asleep and leave the battle!

The source angel relied on the first angel hunt to find out the details of the devil, and immediately targeted and restrained in the second! So Yaxiu and the others were dumbfounded, and they finally merged with the devil, but they still couldn't kill?" If necessary If you want to drink the Holy Grail." Nia said while beheading the monster, "Isn't there a very simple solution?"

In the library of Jia Shi Museum, watching the triple fire door in front of him being knocked out of a huge pit by a corpse wolf, Igula realized that the library had lost the last bit of use value. Only incompetently furious outside the narrow pipe mouth.

Kicked off the cover, Igula jumped off the second floor of the library and landed on the lawn, riding the small battery car next to him before the monsters rushed over.

When he passed the intersection, he saw that the bank not far away was also crowded with monsters from the Legion. At the same time, the manhole cover on the ground was suddenly lifted, and a white-haired man and a girl in a gothic skirt with pink and purple hair climbed out from inside. "Huh? What a coincidence, Igula, wait for us, we're going to get in the car too!"

"There's no place." Igula immediately turned and ran away, ignoring the shouting of Yinzhi behind.

It's like the joke here, you don't need to run faster than the bear when being chased by a bear, you just need to run faster than your mates. But soon, the white-haired man madly rides his bicycle and carries Yinzhi to catch up. Igula gave the white-haired man a glance: "This is your true face, Amilo."

"Although I am very satisfied with my appearance after humanization, my body is an orc." Amilo replied calmly, "This term is really inaccurate.

"Igula, why are you here?" Yinzhi put his hands on his chest, "Aren't you a stalker?" "Yeah, I have discovered you long ago and have been monitoring you.

"Lie, you just come to the library to check the information and see if there are any social mechanisms that can be used to deal with competitors." Yinzhi giggled, "Are you surprised that your mind was guessed because we think so too

“I didn’t expect you to stay in the library for so long. We happened to be eating outside. When the golden rain came, we passed the bank and used the vault inside to resist for a long time. Isn’t Yinzhi very smart?”

No need for the fraudster to ask questions, Yinzhi poured out the information like a bean, and looked like a silly white sweet even more stupid than Feili. But for some reason, Igula became more and more vigilant, like seeing Lala Fei who wanted to be friends with the magician.

“Igula, what’s the plan?” Aichi asked very familiarly: “We’re about to be caught up.” Igula looked at the rearview mirror, and a blood-red dracolich was flying behind. Even if it does not have extraordinary characteristics, the great power of the dracolich itself is far beyond the ability of a psionist to compete. “Why are you demonizing.”

“We can’t do it.” Yinzhi replied: “Otherwise, this group of ugly monsters would have been killed long ago. Igula:” Now is the time for the legendary fist and claw master to shine.

“The one in front, can the psychic deal with it?” Amilo asked Igula and looked up, his face suddenly turned pale. All kinds of legion creatures, almost all over the mountains and plains, come, the steel jungle of the city can no longer slow their pace, they shuttle between the high-rise buildings, flooding everything like a tsunami. “This is the flaw of hiding in the same place for too long.” Otochi Yuyou said, “All the monsters are gathered nearby, and as soon as we appear, they will surround us.”

Igula’s eyes flickered: “It seems that we have to separate and drink the Holy Grail-”

At this moment, they also saw the appearance of the first rainbow beam of light, as well as the miraculous fluctuation of the black coffin. Igula and Otochi looked at each other, and they didn’t need to communicate to know that the other figured out the relationship between the rainbow beam and drinking the Holy Grail.

Drinking the Holy Grail now, even if you can escape the monster army, it is still a dead end and will definitely become the prey of other magicians.

“It seems that there is no way out.” Yinzhi said sadly, “We are going to die together. Wait, Igula, can you hug me, I don’t want to die in Amilo’s arms, he is so ugly.

Amilo shrugged, and it seemed that he was accustomed to Yinzhi's appearance and looked down on Igula for a moment. Seeing that the dracolich and the monster army in front of him were getting closer, he finally couldn't help but say, "What's the plan?"

"It's very simple, demonize." Otochi snapped his fingers: "As long as demonization is carried out, all these ugly monsters will be done in an instant!"

"But the Golden Grail prevents you from being demonized," Igula said calmly.

"That's right!" Onichi nodded: "Once we demonize, we can't help drinking the Holy Grail and almost fell asleep. So if there are only two people, we can't demonize." But if there are three people, it's different. "At this time, Amilo braked and stopped Igula's small battery car.

Igula's face became hard to look "don't you want to"

"That's right." Onichi held up her chalice, "I just need someone to drink my chalice. She poured forward, and Amilo tilted her head back and drank all the rainbow nectar. When Amilo drank it all Rainbow nectar, the golden holy grail turned into a phantom and fell from Yinzhi's hand, quickly dissipating without a trace.

At the same time, Amilo also fell into a coma, a rainbow beam of light emerged from him, Jia penetrated the sky, pierced the golden rain, and Igula stared blankly at this scene, until Yinzhi came over, he returned to his senses and asked. Said: "Aren't you afraid" afraid that you will kill me? Afraid that you will refuse?" Yin Zhi blinked: "But this is the killing game arranged by the source angel for us, even if I don't do this, it will be a dead end, why not bet What about a bet?" "I thought you were going to ask me to drink. "Are you willing?" "No."

"Actually, it's useless for you." Yinzhi shrugged, "I have no other choice. The only thing I'm afraid of is that you have no ambition, Igola. The only winner at the gambling table is the one without ambition." What am I?"

"If you are, then you have already found a chance to kill me or be killed by me the last time we met." Yinzhi smiled and said, "After all, the only reason people without ambition are here is to fulfill other people's ambitions." She He lifted up his skirt and bowed slightly, and asked gracefully, "Mr. Igula, do you want to show your face and dance?"

Looking at this naive, black-bellied, self-righteous, yet convincing pink-purple girl, Igula felt as if she had encountered a higher position in the food chain, maybe even a higher position. The fraudster took the hand of Yinzhi and made a deal with the devil.

Inside the cemetery, Harvey, who was escaping in the tomb passage, met Tiramisu at the fork. Same as last time, tirami Su was still so tall, carrying a coffin behind him, and sitting on his shoulders was the little boy Ye Jian. Hey. "Hey.

The two greeted each other and ran together in the tomb. After waiting for a while, Tiramisu took the initiative to say, "What a coincidence."

"This is a cemetery, we are necromancers." Harvey replied, "It's not a coincidence, it's a coincidence that we haven't met before." Well.

There was another long silence. At this time, there were monsters at the end of the tomb passage. They stopped, and Harvey turned to ask, "Your Excellency Tiramisu, are you proficient in close-up tactics?" "Just call me Tiramisu." Lamisu, are you proficient in melee tactics?"

Tiramisu shook his head: "I have spent hundreds of years studying the necromantic faction, and I have never studied close-up tactics." Harvey sighed, "What a wonderful life. Then you can't Demonize?" "No."

"Looks like we'll have to drink the Holy Grail." Harvey shrugged. Tiramisu asked: "Didn't you see the colored beams from the skylight just now?" "I see, what's wrong?" Harvey tilted his head.

Tiramisu did not explain, she pondered for a moment, and then asked: "Will you entrust your life to us?" "No." Harvey replied: "There are only two people who can give me my life, but not You guys." Ye Jian suddenly said, "He's not a blood relative, no way."

Tiramisu nodded and turned to look at the little boy: "See you at Xiaoye, let me drink the Holy Grail."

Ye Jian silently raised his Holy Grail and poured it into the blood-red lips of Tiramisu. When Tiramisu fell asleep and sat on the ground, Ye Jian jumped up and hugged Harvey like a worm, and looked up at the black curly hair: "Be my demon blood relative... Temporary." Harvey thought for a while. "I won't deal with my friends." "What if it's not your friend?" "Can you keep their bodies intact?" "Yes." "Then I'm fine."

The necromancer unloads the coffin to make room for the demon.

Chapter 873: Ash's majesty

"It's okay if someone else drinks her Holy Grail"

Niya is not just talking, she directly reaches out, trying to grab the golden chalice floating around Fili, but

Yaxiu grabbed her wrist first, and swung his sword to block the blood mad hunter who was trying to squeeze into the small shopping mall behind her.

Vichy danced the bar next to him, smashing the blood hunter's head like a watermelon.

"Didn't you see it now that you drink the Holy Grail there will be rainbow beams of light, if you drink it, others like us

People will keep chasing you

"I know, I've been listening to you all the time, although not all of them can understand Niya shaking his hand and saying calmly Dao: "But isn't I the only suitable person here? Only I am not special.

Ash was at a loss for words, but Nia was right. If this is a ritual to make the devil restore the power star through sacrifice,

Nanya is undoubtedly the most suitable sacrifice. Both Ash and Vichy can use the power of demons, only

It's superfluous to have Nya, it doesn't make much sense to have her, and it doesn't make much difference to lose her" as long as it's not resolved

That sniper, we can never be safe. "Niya calmly analyzed: "There are always people who want to take risks, but this

Except for me, an outsider, aren't they all people you cherish?

"She's not." "I'm not."

As soon as the words fell, Ash looked at Vichy thoughtfully, Vichy's face darkened, and he consciously exited the door and let him take over the defense.

Line, dropped the heavy bar, and reached for Phili's Holy Grail.

In addition to Niya, Vichy is also very suitable as a sacrifice. After all, there is only one magician that demons can bind.

And now it's obvious that Yaxiu's spectator mode is more suitable for PVP, Vichy will definitely have to sit on the bench, so she and Nya

It can be regarded as the combat power of the same level – the combat power of mortals is that after the demon appears, it is the same with her or without her.

More importantly, if Vichy drinks Fili's Holy Grail now, then the benefits of her angel hunt will be completely locked.

End the game early to enter the settlement interface.

Even if Ash trusts the ruby chain very much, there is no need to take extra risks. After all, if Vichy stays at this feast for one more second, she will be more likely to be full. For the maid's body management, she eats until she is full

Time to sleep.

But Vichy's fingers went through the Grail, and she couldn't catch it.

Vichy was slightly startled, she touched her chalice and could grab it; then she reached out and grabbed Niya's chalice, also passing through.

"No." Vichy shook his head: "The Holy Grail has an anti-theft mechanism. It seems that you can't grab someone else's Holy Grail to drink."

At this moment, the explosion of thunder and fire sounded in the distance. It seemed that a building had collapsed, and the sound continued.

continuously. Ash and Vichy looked at each other, there was only one possibility in this situation – a magician was unscrupulously casting spells in a large area

But with the audience of the Six Nations Legion, the devil can't get rid of the temptation of the Holy Grail, how can other magicians break free from the mysterious lock chain

Vichy's thoughts turned sharply, "Axiu, try it."

“Okay.” Ash and Vichy switched positions, stretched out their hands and grabbed Fili’s Holy Grail very easily.

Everyone was dumbfounded. Neither Vichy nor Nya could do it. Only Ash could drink Fili’s holy grail nectar? Ash pondered.

For a moment, I tried to pour the Holy Grail directly into Vichy’s mouth, but the rainbow nectar stopped flowing when it reached the edge of the cup. Vichy stretched out his eyes and only licked the air, but he couldn’t drink it. “The Holy Grail is not meant to be drunk by others, but it exists. Very harsh conditions.” Vichy finally reacted: “It’s probably a relationship bond or something, or something in my heart.

Only someone for whom you are willing to give up the Holy Grail can take your Holy Grail. ”

“If the Holy Grail can be given to anyone, then there is no need for me and Nya to find someone who is lethargic or Just pour cats and dogs in. “Axiu’s face is very ugly” so”

“So unless you’re like cats and dogs in Fili’s eyes, there are only people who can drink her Holy Grail.

Even if the favorite magician falls asleep, there is another magician who can stand by.

Ash further realizes that the chicken thief of the source angel – if the Holy Grail is completely anti-theft, that’s all.

The method uses the legendary spell, but it leaves a loophole, as long as the devil sacrifices his favorite object, it can be recovered.

You will be killed immediately!

Fili looked at Ash and Vichy, and asked tentatively, "Ash, can't you drink it? Isn't there sister Vichy?"

Xiu let go of the Holy Grail and shook his head with an ugly expression, "No way."

Not only was Ash unwilling to entrust his life to Vichy, but more importantly, Vichy was simply unable to save him after he fell asleep.

protect everyone.

Vichy's maid mode needs to rely on another magician to show its power. Without the body of Yaxiu, Vichy

Nozomi's maid mode is directly invalid.

Although she can still use her magic power to perform miracles, the problem is that her gold and silver virtual wings have just been broken!

There are few, and there is no flying ability, so she will only kill and set fire. How can she deal with hidden snipers? Don't forget, Ya

After Xiu falls asleep, it will turn into a large garbage with a rainbow beam, and they will not only protect the situation of Axiu.

Against the group batters and the Six Nations, they have to contend with the demonic spells chasing the rainbow beam, division, and lose

The risk of Yaxiu drinking the Holy Grail, the only cure, is far greater than the benefits of unlocking Vichy.

Although they successfully merged with the devil, they could not get out of the predicament. Obviously, as long as Ash and Fili are combined, they will be able to cross

Sweeping away the army, but Fili's only designated drinker of the Holy Grail is Ash!

"If only Sister Vichy could drink it, too." Feili felt nervously and clenched her dagger, lowered her head and said, "Isn't it?"

Xiu smiled and said: "It's fine, it's just bad luck this time, but Igula and Harvey are not here, and Vichy is too weak to follow

Weight gain is not your problem.

"I'm as weak as Lala Fat, who's the problem?" Vichy pushed the corpse wolf out of the latter, and said angrily, "Is it my fault that there is no Void Wing and no magic spirit?"

"Even if I have 1% responsibility, isn't it 99% your fault?" Ash glanced at the back of the mall.

The monster army that came in said, "Go out, even if there are no demons, you must find the snipers!" The four of them rushed out from the north gate of the small shopping mall. The chorus sounded again!

"In that tall building!" Vichy easily blocked all the bullets and immediately locked the sniper's direction. even if the road

The Legion of the Six Nations blocked the way, but there were three of them, Axiu Vicinia, who opened the way. In addition, the arcade-style building restricted the sniping of the monsters, and the battle line moved forward quickly.

The snipers also seemed to be in a hurry, and the sound of the sound was heard one after another, but they were easily stopped by them, and even shot at Feili's

The bullet was also slashed by Axiu with a sword.

The violent roar suddenly erupted from the rear, and even Ashe and the others could clearly perceive it.

When they looked back, they saw a towering giant tree in the steel forest leaning and collapsing, bathed in the golden rain of the sky.

Bloodbone dracoliches, shadow dragons, and other flying creatures are wailing and falling – a legendary sorcerer is finally here

Show your true power in the hunt!

When the magicians envy those people who can break free from the mysterious chains, Feili murmured at this time: “That is the Gaode Building.

I have been there before, the buffet there is very expensive and delicious, and the waiter’s voice is sweet and lovely.

“Axiu, will Jia Shi also suffer heavy casualties like Yingnan City?” Her voice was a little sad, “Will another million people die?”

Nia sneered, and Vichy said nothing.

Ash cut off the star swordsman’s arm, wiped his throat and kicked it out. After a moment of silence, he replied, “It should be Won’t. You have also seen that these monsters will not attack ordinary people, or even deliberately damage buildings.

The cars and people they stepped on are safe, and this natural disaster will not kill anyone.

Natural disasters don't kill people, but people do.

If everyone drank the Golden Grail from the start, nothing would happen, not even the Legion of the Six Nations.

will be dispatched. But as long as there is a magician who is greedy for dreams, the trump card of the source angel will be opened one by one, until the entire cage of stars is buried with him.

Fili naturally understood Ash's subtext and followed silently, as quiet as a tail.

But Niya sneered: "Do you still have the heart to worry about others? Why don't you think about how to play your role, you Unlike me, you are special. "

Phili clenched her lips. "Have I offended you before, Servi?"

"You all offend me!" Niya said coldly, "You all have that kind of power, but I'm the only one who doesn't because I'm not "special"

"Since you hate us, why are you still staying here?" Feili, who has always been loose and fearful, also burst out: "You think I want to be" special, you think I clearly Does it feel good to be able but unable to help? I'm not a mad murderer like you, I still have a conscience!"

Niya stopped abruptly: "Okay, anyway, I didn't want to stay with you little horns-" "Shut up."

Yaxiu looked back at the two of them coldly, "Follow up, don't squeak, don't make me angry."

Yaxiu, who has always been a good person, suddenly lost her temper. Niya wanted to be tough, but she obediently returned to her position when Yaxiu stared at her. As for Feili, she immediately turned back to a little sheep.

Vichy leaned to Yaxiu's side and pressed his voice and asked, "Do you usually manage Sword Princess and Witch like this?" "No." Yaxiu replied in a low voice, "This time it is an extraordinary performance, you quickly write it down, I will later Practice a lot."

Chapter 874: let me touch your holy grail

"Ash," Phili asked suddenly, "are we really helpless?"

"At least this time, we can only protect ourselves." Ash said softly, "There will always be disasters we can't see,

There are always moments when we are powerless. "boom

Seeing them getting closer and closer to the building, the snipers became more impatient, but as they shuttled through the arcade, their bullets often

It is naturally more difficult to kill them by passing through the wall first.

boom

The upper floor suddenly exploded, shocking Yaxiu and the others. Snipers no longer shoot them, but Shoot the gas pipes in residential buildings!

boom boom boom

In addition to the upper floors, the cars parked in the next driveway were also shot through the fuel tanks and exploded one by one! Although this would prevent the Legion monsters from attacking Ash and the others, the large-scale explosion shock wave and shock caused them a greater impact.

ring

Now they can't get out of the arcade – it's a driveway full of cars, and in the eyes of the snipers, it's just explosive devices that can be triggered – they can only continue to charge until they enter the building where the snipers are!

When they were about to fight to the end, Ash suddenly felt his sleeves being pulled.

He looked back and found that Fili covered her mouth and wept. Along her line of sight, Ash saw the door of the car in front opened, and a little girl was lying on the ground in a drowsiness. It should have just happened to encounter the golden Holy Grail when she got out of the car.

If there is no accident, when Ash and the others pass by, the car will also be shot by the sniper and the fuel tank will explode.

fry.

Yaxiu's thoughts turned sharply, and he exhaled a turbid breath: "Cover me!"

After that, he rushed into the monster group at a high speed. Vichy scolded secretly but had to catch up. Niya deliberately turned back and stared.

Glancing at Fili, Fili was also stunned for a moment, dried her tears and clenched her dagger to replace Ashe's tactical position.

As if sensing the acceleration of Yaxiu and the others, the sniper also accelerated to detonate the vehicle. When there are seven steps left to the little girl

Waiting, Yaxiu directly shoveled through under the corpse wolf, and rolled the little girl to the side in his arms.

boom

The explosion at the back made Ash's back stab painful, and when he stopped on the ground, he saw the barbell and the long sword helping him block the corpse wolf's claws. He kicked open the glass door of the cake shop next to him and shoved the little girl in, stood up and panted.

"You did a great job.

"I, that, I didn't mean to..." Fili lowered her head and bit her lower lip, her hands gripping the hilt so tightly that it was about to grind

Bleeding, the blade seemed to pierce his throat, his voice was crying: "...I'm sorry, really, really sorry..."

"It's none of your business." Ash said lightly, "I didn't save people to please you, just like I didn't worry about your safety just because you were "special". I followed my own principles. heart action.

"Don't look at me that way, Vichy. I know you look down on me, and even Igula might think I'm stupid Force, but I am different from you, from the beginning, we do not have the same world view.

"Oh, Master, of course you're not a fool." Vichy joked, "You're just a lunatic, that's why you say

Talk crazy, do crazy things.

Yaxiu made a secret note, and the next time Vichy couldn't control her emotions, she would spank her.
"Phili

You should have felt this month too. You are a smart girl who is good at sensing other people's emotions. "

Ash said: "Those of us, including myself... don't take the people here as human beings. However, it may be that we are not good people in the first place. Fili said nervously: "But Ash, you are not, you will donate money"

"That's just because I don't care." Ash said, "I don't care about the world, and neither do the people I care about.

this world. To me, this world is just a phantom of displacement. I am a passer-by who is destined to leave. I can't take anything with me, and naturally I don't care about everything here.

Nia looked at Ash thoughtfully, Fili pursed her lips and said nothing.

"But when I saw you in danger, I realized that I still cared. There is no fantasy or reality in the world,

If I can only stay here for the rest of my life, the people I care about are in another world, could the other world treat me

Will it be fake?

"The world is only as big as where the people I care about are and where the people who care about me are.

"More importantly," Yaxiu's eyes were clear and firm: "If I deny you, it is actually a denial.

I have had a rough life in the past. Although there are many times when I can't do anything, I'm still willing to do my best

People who can help the world.

“This is both to acknowledge you and to acknowledge them.

Fili and the others can't fully understand what Yaxiu said, maybe no one in this world can understand, except for Shuang, Zi

A viewer who once walked with Ash in the abyss.

To Igula and the others, the kingdom of the stars is an ethereal phantom, but to Ash, the world of magicians is not.

Is it another kind of illusion

When you come over, you will be put in prison, and then you will immediately take risks with the beautiful girls in the virtual world, and then you may also be with the beautiful girls.

Creating impure, messy relationships and then being split in half is exciting to think about.

After entering the kingdom of stars, Ash has always been inexplicably frightened. It was not until today that he communicated with Vichy and the second angel hunt came that he understood the source of his anxiety – the kingdom of stars was too real. like surgery

The world of the teacher is as real, but he clearly knows that the kingdom of stars is just an illusion.

Ash was afraid that the wizard world would also turn into a phantom.

He was not afraid, because he didn't care about the world of magicians, or even his own life and death. Even if he wants to use traditional virtues to “come here” and integrate into this world, the reality of encounters and thoughts of his relatives make him

Lonely like a homeless wandering soul.

He is actually the same type of person as Igula and Harvey. How can a normal person risk ten deaths and no life to escape from prison?

The whole person is as light as a balloon, and there is only a thin thread left to tie him to the ground, which will break at any time. later,

Jian Ji becomes the thread that binds him, then Liz, Witch, Annan, Igula, Harvey, Tamashi, Youlan

Visser...they were the ones who made Ash recognize the world of wizards.

Now, Fili, Rose, and even Nya have made Ashe recognize the kingdom of the stars. Even if it is destined to be destroyed, Ash

Nor will they deny the meaning of their existence, just like Yaxiu will no longer doubt whether the sword princess is fake. Love desires to live, and evil desires to die.

In human words, I will save whoever I want to save, and whoever I want to care about, I just want to use the phantom as a friend.

Friends, you just can't ignore the pain in this world, Vichy Igula, you two bad bastards, just let me be as silly as Harvey

Despised by Vichy

When the time comes, she will definitely jump out and ridicule a wave, do you still have to listen to her **** at that time?

Thinking about it, Yaxiu glared at Vichy, Vichy stuck out his tongue at him without any cowardice, and smashed the front with a stick.

The head of a lion warbler.

“After that, UU reading www.uukanshu.com will we save more people?” Feili asked cautiously. “Of course I’m not asking, I just hope... just...”

Niya rolled her eyes and was about to make a sound, and Vichy glanced at Yaxiu, her face full of subtle malice.

Yaxiu stabbed the dagger into the wolf beast’s throat, thought for a while, and said seriously, “I will do my best within my ability.

It can save everyone from suffering.”

“I believe in you.” Phili said softly, she paused, and then asked again, “Can I touch your Holy Grail?” Ash was startled and nodded.

Fili stretched out her hand, wanting to touch the Holy Grail floating around Ash. But when she was about to meet, she suddenly withdrew her hand.

“No.” Her brows and eyes curved, and a slight smile appeared on the corner of her mouth: “No need.”

Chapter 875: choice

When the four of Yaxiu entered the building, the sound of sniper shots stopped in the summer. Naturally, they couldn’t take the elevator, but they could take the escalator to go up quickly. Inside the building, the eighth floor below is a shopping mall, and further up is an office building. “Will he?

Run," Ash asked.

"It depends on how strong his willingness to kill us is." Vichy said, "As a magician who can hide himself, he has a very, very great advantage over us. Because neither we nor the Legion of the Six Nations can see his trace, he can

With unlimited spellcasting in the dark, as long as it takes effect before witnessing, it may kill us first.

"Like this kind of demon being sealed, there are very few retreats in the environment that the magician is difficult to resist. If it is replaced in the first angel hunt

Hunt, this kind of legend that is good at stealth is meaningless at all, and he can be strong with a map cannon.

"If I were him, I would never pass up this opportunity to easily take down a competitor."

"The stealth methods that can make the Legion of the Six Nations invisible are nothing more than light, shadow, earth, and illusion, but the six

The National Legion must have strong perception units, so the probability of light and earth skills with imperfect invisibility is not high, and it is likely to be shadow or illusion. "

"Keep an eye on the shadow, and if you notice something is wrong, you will self-harm to stimulate your senses."

Ash "This will crack shadows and illusions"

"No, it's just to let you know how you died."

Seeing Yaxiu's expressionless expression, Vichy said angrily: "Don't worry, I have killed all the legendary magicians of the spells once, or a few times, just leave it to me to deal with it. After all, the Six Nations Legion is watching below. If he can't

A miracle that can be conspicuous with too much power.

Compared to the four people walking on the escalator, although the speed of the Six Nations Legion is a little slower, they can climb directly.

The wall, like a sea of insects, rushed towards them from the entrance. When Ash and the others came to the eighth floor, they suddenly heard

There was a clear ding sound.

At the same time, a melodious symphony sounded in the building.

When they looked back to the opposite side, they saw a middle-aged man in a black formal suit walking out of the elevator. He had medium-length broken hair and a beard on his face. It was obvious that he was a handsome guy when he was young, and he was handsome when he was middle-aged. uncle.

He took out two shelves from the elevator, which were full of handguns, assault rifles, assault rifles, and various types of Ammo clip. He unhurriedly pulled out the assault rifle, loaded the expansion ammo, and took out the second assault rifle.

Loaded the magazine, finally took out a cigarette from the cigarette case and lit it, and then dual-wielded assault rifles, and the four of them would be Yaxiu.

"avoid"

As soon as Yaxiu's voice fell, the sound of gunshots like a torrential rain fit perfectly into every beat of the symphony, completely pulling the sound away.

The prelude to the feast of joy!

Ash and the others immediately hid behind the obstacle, but soon they found that the bullets were being fired from the sides and even the front!

ricochet

If there is a straight-line distance of nearly 100 meters, and there are obstacles in the middle, can this still ricochet?

They crashed directly into the restaurant on the eighth floor. Even if there are many obstacles, the four of them must gather together, otherwise there will be no

The method can resist the bombs shot from all angles! Block the pin!

The black-clothed gunner's guns never stopped for a moment. He seemed to keep firing while changing bullets. If the gun tube was hot

Just change the gun directly, the dense gun sound and symphony are like a nightmare!

Such an aggressive offensive naturally attracted the Six Nations Legion, but no monster could approach him within ten meters.

The jumping gunshot storm shoots into the monster's mouth, eyes, and even all weaknesses, tearing this group of beasts from the inside!

Vichy took out the mirror to check the situation, but as soon as she lifted it up, a bullet jumped from the mirror to her face.

Even if God avoided it in time, the corners of his eyes were still scratched!

“The Hell”

Vichy’s face was extremely ugly: “The demigod elf archers I’ve seen before are like this.

Hell! This group of rangers can use ammunition to capture all the information in the environment and use it.

The medicine will not be wasted and can even be used multiple times. The legend can be annihilated by long-range weapons alone! The extreme power of Taijutsu,

The ultimate **** of archery!

“He is a legendary sorcerer with demigod spells!

“He didn’t hide at all, he just quietly shot all the flying monsters that approached him! He also

He didn’t stop us from coming, he deliberately lured us into the building, and the range of his divine prison is estimated to be 100 meters

Left and right “But isn’t the suppressing power of archers in the new era too outrageous!? How about other spells in this version?”

It’s no wonder that Vichy was so surprised. After all, in her time, long-range magic was still dominated by bows and arrows, and guns and weapons.

This kind of hot weapon has not been invented yet.

However, she was also too surprised to overestimate the Confucianism. Although the Confucianism has a dominant position in silver and gold, its generation

The price is that it is extremely difficult to advance to the sanctuary and the legendary realm, let alone catch a demigod.

Moreover, in order to achieve this kind of repressive force, Tongshu needs a large amount of ammunition, but the legendary archer no longer needs it.

For bows and arrows, they learn to master a technique called “air release”, which enables them to shoot air arrows without ammunition concerns.

More importantly, the sanctuary is too restrained to domination, that is, they can't expand the sanctuary now, otherwise the situation will be worse.

“Calm down.” Ash took a deep breath: “His ammunition is limited, and he must keep shooting.

Killing the Legion of the Six Nations until he runs out of ammo is our chance—”

Snapped

The marble table they were hiding in was shot, and the gas pipe below suddenly exploded when they moved.

They didn't have time to avoid falling down like rubble!

Pin the block!

Even if he fell into a daze, Su Yaxiu kept swinging his sword, but he still couldn't block all the bullets, and his arms and abdomen were all hit.

Playing, the pain is so painful that I lose all strength, but I can't find a space to heal myself!

pin!

The red-haired figure suddenly blocked in front of him, and the long sword danced like a curtain. Ash immediately took a picture of himself

Said "Le Jian" and took a picture for Niya before everyone could see it.

Don't touch my waist!

"You still care about this now"

Compared to the treatment of injuries, "the pain relief of Lejiانشan is what they need most. They went back to find Vichy and

Phyllis, finding them hiding behind a large rubble, Vichy could hold on even if she was shot, but full of

The scarred Fili also held a short sword to guard a small area, even if her legs were shot and bleeding profusely, she still persisted.

"Niya, don't look outside," Ash said, and went over to treat them, and then the four of them were injured.

The body reluctantly hid in another store, hiding back to back in the corner with the most partitions, alerting all gaps.

Suddenly, Tong Sheng became sparse, and there was no longer a single Tong bullet that shot into their corners. The symphony became melodious, flowing quietly in the air.

He's out of ammo and he's running away

Although there is such a possibility, the oppressive force of the demigod gun technique is enough to shatter their superfluous thoughts. they just want

Tongshou quickly left, and then quietly licked the wound.

“Vichy, didn’t you say that the legendary magician who has killed all spells will leave it to you to deal with it?” Yaxiu breathed shallowly and quickly.

Vichy gritted his teeth and said:

“Aren’t you very confident to fight the sniper just now? Master, it’s time for you to show your true strength.

The sound of gunshots still sounded uninterruptedly, and they heard the sound of broken glass windows and the marching sound of the Legion of the Six Nations.

Everyone felt more and more bad in their hearts, and Vichy exhaled a long breath: “We can’t hide in the same place for too long,

Had to change place—”

boom

The floor burst again, but this time after they fell to the next floor, they were shocked by the corpse wolf and the star wars.

Shi and the Eight-eyed Weaver!

That gunman actually opened up a fast lane for the Six Nations Legion, and then directly dropped Ash and the others over there!

And at the same time, the mind-blowing unison once again fit into the rhythm of the symphony:

The bullets shot in the gap between the monsters, perfect foot-shooting coordination

Keep the fire!

The ring of fire burned all the Legion monsters closest to them to death, even the bullets, but that was all. do

At the cost, Vichy's fourth virtual wing was also broken by the mysterious chain, and her soul was severely damaged again. But it's good

In order to buy time for them to recover and breathe, Ash stood in front of Vichy and swung the dagger to block all the bullets, but his arm was too far.

A high-intensity battle with no breathing at all, even if he has the "Le Sword" battery life, his body is about to die.

to the limit.

At this time, the Legion monsters in the second row also rushed in to attack them, and the star-bombing warriors at the front were like shooting stars.

The sprint came, but Ash was unable to resist.

It's time to let go of Voidwing and block the red-haired and blond-haired figures from appearing in front of him, even if they look shaky.

They were crumbling and covered in blood, like a fragile and beautiful line of defense, but they still forcibly resisted the foot-fire attack.

Even if the price is a few bullet holes in the body again.

With this short gap, Ash and Vichy quickly recovered, gritted their teeth and replaced their defense line, and then the four

Drag the stump to the inner area, trying to find a safe area.

Boom!

At this moment, Ash knocked down something, looked down and saw that it was raw meat on a plate with raw meat?

Yaxiu looked around for a week. Although everything was covered with dust due to the gravel dust and the large-scale collapse, it still didn't matter.

Is able to recognize that this should be the kitchen. After all, the only area that can cause an explosion is a kitchen with a gas pipeline.

But the question is how does it seem to be so complete here?

Between the light and flint, Ash suddenly found that the gathering positions of the Legion monsters were all on the other side, so they were almost on the other side.

Consciousness chooses to go this way.

When Ash turned his head to look at Vichy, he saw that Vichy's eyes showed a brutal light that belonged to the ghost prophet.

boom

A nearby explosion in the kitchen caused the floor to collapse further, but Ash and Nya were uninjured, Vichy and Neither did Phili.

Because the two magicians directly opened the sanctuary, the mysterious chain arrived as expected. When the mysterious chain was broken, Yaxiu's color red

When he was emptying his wings, he finally felt the severe pain in his soul that even Vichy couldn't bear. He could hardly think,

Kneeling down in the rubble, Niya, who was being protected by him, hurried over to help him up:

Ashichi "Crap!

The corpse wolf, who had been waiting on this floor for a long time, learned to take a picture, but Niya had no time to raise her sword before being photographed aside, slammed into the wall, and coughed up blood with fragments of internal organs. Then the corpse wolf raised its second paw, ready to shoot

Dead Yaxiu, the greedy magician, threw Niya hard, and the long sword flew over and pierced the eyes of the corpse wolf.

Eyes, let it growl and scratch its face. And Yaxiu is also barely recovering from the treatment without using the "Miracle of Killing Me".

Wake up, jump up, hold the long sword in the wolf's eyes, and cut its head in half!

boom

Before Yaxiu could take a breath, there was a very unpleasant violent vibration on UU Reading www.uukanshu.com. If you can see it from the other side of the building, the floors above Ash and the others are further collapsing and falling, like an avalanche of natural disasters.

When the symphony reached the last drum beat, the caving of the concrete also came to Ashe's level, and this was the sound that Ashe heard. "Axiu, sister Vichy, sister Vichy she."

Yaxiu turned his head and saw that Feili was holding the unconscious Vichy in the rubble not far away, her voice was so faint

Almost overwhelmed by the shock. At the same time, the ceiling of this floor cracked and collapsed, destroying everything. The only one who can still perform miracles now is Yaxiu. To his left, Phili and Vichy.

Chapter 876: folded wings

Vichy is in a coma, Nia is dying, and Fili is seriously injured.

Among the three, Vichy is the one who should be abandoned the most. Even if she dies, Ashe will not shed a single tear for her. If she falls, he will definitely call himself a fool. But just like the reason why Ashe would not kill her, she If you die, you will be reborn from the soul box, return to reality, and may even break free from the ruby chain.

She is like a big villain in old-fashioned fantasy who can only be sealed. Her death will only bring great disaster to the future. Binding her to Yaxiu is equivalent to sacrificing Yaxiu to benefit the whole world.

Moreover, even Ash has to admit that Vichy is a treasure girl through and through. Her knowledge of her magic realm, and even herself, are of great value. If Ash wants to go further in the path of a magician, there is no better guide than Vichy.

Not to mention that Vichy had saved them from danger over and over again. That's right, she had to save them only because of the constraints of the ruby chain. If there was no chain, she wouldn't immediately backstab Ashe would be considered as her taking care of the overall situation.

She is indeed a devil that the whole world casts aside, a sinister viper, and a tyrannical python, but she is also a teammate fighting side by side with Ash at this moment.

Fili is an indispensable key person. If you lose Fili, the demon, Ash and the other legends will be no different from mortals. They will not be able to participate in the angel hunt, nor will they be able to compete with other teams.

And unlike Vichy, Fili was dragged into a war that did not belong to her. Ash promised to protect her, and Ash should be responsible for her.

But she didn't ask for anything, she didn't question anything, she would do what Yaxiu said, and she would give what Yaxiu wanted. Even if the city was in chaos, she would rush over immediately, and she wouldn't snort no matter how badly she was hurt, like a tail She followed closely behind Yaxiu, she was still an ordinary student a month ago... How could Yaxiu watch her die?

So when the floor collapsed, Ashura threw the sword in his hand without thinking at all!

The sword stabbed straight into the ground in front of Fili's eyes, and when the reinforced concrete fell, a warm yellow barrier stood up to protect her and Vichy inside.

Miracle Sword Body Barrier.

Fili raised her head in surprise, but only saw a winged back in the gap where the sand, stone, and steel bars collapsed. It's like an angel going to **** alone.

black. very dark. Can't see anything.

His head was so disgusting that he wanted to vomit, and there was nothing on his body that didn't hurt.

Niya coughed violently several times, and after coughing up a mouthful of blood, she regained a little bit of her thinking ability. At this moment

She found that the sight in front of her was not pure black, and the golden chalice was still surrounding her, but the light emitted by the golden chalice could not illuminate anything tangible, like a phantom that did not belong to this world.

Besides her own golden chalice, she also saw another floating golden chalice.

“Are you awake? You were in a coma for almost a minute.”

Ash’s voice sounded from behind, as if it was close to her hair. It was only then that Niya noticed that she was not lying on the gravel ground, her hips and back were leaning against another body, even her legs were curled up, and her whole body was hiding in someone’s arms.

Ka!

When Nia tried to leave, there was a very unpleasant sound of gravel sliding around. Yaxiu didn't stop her, just said softly: "Don't move, we were lucky, we just got into the angle between the large piece of floor and the wall. Although it was buried at the bottom, the gap between the stones was huge, and air could come in. . . If the tampering will cause a second collapse, then it will be troublesome."

"I'm sorry if you find this physical contact uncomfortable."

Nia had already understood that the situation was urgent, but she became irritated when she heard what Yaxiu said: "I'm sorry too, after all, I'm not your maid, nor your silly girl, so I won't feel your body. The contact is very pleasant. Can you keep your face away from my hair, the breath you exhale makes me feel sick." Ash didn't get angry or said anything, just turned his head silently.

After taking a few deep breaths, Nia gradually regained her senses and asked, "What about them?"

"They're all right." Ash said, "I used miracles to protect them. Now that miracles are still working, they shouldn't have suffered any harm."

Niya reached out and touched her bleeding forehead, and said calmly, "Of course, they are the ones you care about. You must protect them first... Then why did you go the wrong way here?"

“I thought at the time that I had a way to protect you.” Yaxiu smiled bitterly, “It’s just that after I flew over to pick you up, I also fainted from the pain and couldn’t hold up the sanctuary in time.

There are only two ways for Ash to protect people: Miracle “Blade Barrier and Sanctuary. His original plan was perfect. First, he used the Sword Body Barrier to protect Fili and Vichy, and then used the Sanctuary to protect him and Nia. It’s a pity... .... At this time, Niya also came back to her senses. She vaguely remembered that she saw Ash spread out her golden and silver wings and flew over and hugged herself... She looked “Isn’t it possible that you can’t use superpowers in front of someone like me who’s not special?”

“yes.”

“But I saw your wings just now.” Nia murmured, “The golden and silver ones look like angels.”

“Yeah.” Ash said softly, “You saw it.

"I see what happens." "It's nothing, it doesn't matter much."

"What will happen, don't perfunctory me"

Ash motioned Nia to lower her voice, and immediately they heard a subtle roar and a rustling sound.

"The Legion of the Six Nations knows that we are not dead, and they will dig us out." Ash said, "But before that, we can rest for a while, and the bullets should not be able to shoot in."

"So, what will happen in the end?" Nia clenched Ash's clothes and said in a low voice, "Tell me."

"It's just that I can't pretend to be an angel anymore." Ash shrugged, "The wings you saw have been broken." The dark space fell silent, only the sound of shallow breathing wandered.

Yaxiu is not lying, the losses of the Golden Wing and Silver Wing are not that serious, even if there is a little magic power transformed by the secret poison, it can only be regarded as the icing on the cake.

Instead, it exploded in the kitchen just now, and Yaxiu subconsciously used the rainbow magic power to cast Sanctuary, causing his rainbow phantom wings to be broken by the mysterious chain. You must know that all of his rainbow magic power can be efficiently converted into sword-colored magic power through the eclipse dream secret poison. Now that the rainbow virtual wings are gone, it is really a heavy loss.

And looking back now, Ash realizes that he is stupid. Sanctuary can be constructed with any magic power, but the consumption rate is different. In other words, he could have used silver magic to build a sanctuary, and naturally he would only lose silver virtual wings.

But in that case, Yaxiu, who does not have gold and silver wings, would not have time to fly over to protect Niya—the golden virtual wings are on the upper shoulder blades of the back, and the rainbow virtual wings are on the middle side of the back. The positions of these two virtual wings are not on the same horizontal line. As a flying virtual wing – so it can only be said that everything is the best arrangement.

Just when Yaxiu was thinking about the pros and cons, Nia suddenly asked, “You...you can leave me alone.” You are thinking about this without speaking.

“They are obviously much more important to you, and I’m not someone like you.” Niya’s body turned slightly, even if she couldn’t see it, Ash could feel her staring at him: “Why do you have to come to save me?”

“Although I don’t know what you’re thinking, it’s not as complicated as you think.” Ash smiled and said, “At that time, the situation was urgent, and I didn’t have time to think about the gains and losses. Before I thought about it, my body was already moving.”

“You don’t have to feel that you owe me, you saved me and Vichy before, and now I save you, it’s just like paying off the debt for Vichy... There is no default between us.”

Yaxiu was so comforting just hoping that Niya would not be under psychological pressure, but she didn’t know that word offended her, so she snorted and stopped talking.

But Yaxiu couldn’t figure out Niya’s character, UU reading www. Therefore, uukanshu.com didn’t think much about it, and continued: “It’s not an option to continue to wait here, let’s treat the injury. My “Le Sword” can not only restore life continuously, but also heal specific wounds, but I cast spells. Don’t shine, or I’ll have to break my last wing.”

“Le Sword” can only be used as a continuous buff, but the miracle spells are created by the magician. As a nurse for so long, he constantly adjusts the “Le Sword” during the practice and researches out that it can heal local areas at a high speed. Skill. Yaxiu’s sword-colored Void Wings are still intact, so he can continue to maintain the sword body barrier on Fili's side. Fortunately, his sword-colored virtual wings are almost half-winged, otherwise he would not be able to continue casting spells.

Nia didn't speak, neither for nor against.

Ash hesitated for a moment, then said, "If you want to treat a specific injury, you need to cover the wound with your palm." Then I will die. "Niya said calmly: "You treat yourself, I will close my eyes.

Yaxiu advised: "You are also seriously injured, it is not enough to recover your life, and you will inevitably tear your wounds when you encounter a battle next time.

"Tear to tear, to bleed to bleed, I don't care.

"But without fixed-point treatment, your body is likely to leave scars, so it doesn't matter to you?

"Do you think scars are ugly?

Niya's voice changed subtly, as if mocking, but also relieved: "In your eyes, isn't the cross scar on my face ugly?"

Chapter 877: that person

Ash sighed softly.

He once again realized the difference between Niya and Sonia. Although Sonia often plays pettiness like a pampered female college student, she is more reliable than Xiu at critical moments, and she is reassuringly mature; although Niya has experienced many, but will show the temper of children regardless of the occasion. "I think even if I say that I am not ugly," you will only say that I am hypocritical. "Because it is human nature to like beauty and dislike ugliness, not only you, I feel in the mirror myself. ugly. Niya's voice was cold, "I have burns on my arms, stab wounds on my waist, and gunshot wounds on my thighs... The thing I hate the most right now is the mirror. I don't even want to look at my body when I take a shower, I feel sick to myself. . "

Yaxiu did not ask her why she had so many injuries, nor what she experienced. He thought about it and said:

"I know a girl who is very good-looking, but she wants to be the best."

"Although she was from a poor background and her family was poor, she still worked hard to make money while she was studying, buying herself cosmetics, skin care products, beautiful clothes, beautiful hairstyles, opening the corners of her eyes, getting rid of blackheads, and making herself feel better every day. One more day "If she has a scar on her body like you do, she will definitely find a way to get rid of it instead of breaking all the mirrors so she can't see it. You can deceive everyone, but you can't deceive yourself. "

"What do you mean?" Nia asked coldly, "Do you mean to say that I am weak and deceived myself?"

“I just want you to make a choice that will make you happy.” Yaxiu chuckled softly, “When I first met that girl, I actually thought she was superficial, after all, 90 points and 100 points are not much different, really. Is it necessary to spend so much energy on appearance? Then I was scolded by her, she said she knew she was shallow and vain, but she just liked that kind of life and let me mind my own business.”

“I didn’t really understand what she said at that time, until I saw many, many people later, some who were addicted to corpses, some who wanted to subvert the order, some who insisted on certain moral laws, and some who even wanted to destroy the world...”

There are good people and bad people among them. The only thing they have in common is that they make choices that make them happy and never care about the eyes of others.

Nia suddenly asked:

“If that girl asks you, do you like her after she becomes beautiful or she likes the original her, how would you answer?”

“Good question, I think she will definitely ask this question in the future, I have to think about it.” Ash pondered for a moment, “The correct answer is... I like you happier”

“Although I don’t know who that person is, I’m pretty sure your answer will make her angry.”

“The topic is too far away, now the focus is on you.” Ash said seriously: “If you really care about those scars, I can help you remove them in the future.”

“I don’t laugh at a wanted man who loves beauty, I just think she’s cute.”

“I don’t care.” Nia ate what she just said and said stubbornly: “The cross scar on my face can help me scare away those who have bad intentions.”

“I also think your cross scar is very handsome.” Yaxiu stopped chatting with Niya, and touched it directly: “But other injuries still need to be treated, don’t move around.”

When Ash's fingers touched the skin of her waist, Nia's whole body shuddered, and she kept twisting and turning, but she was unwilling to receive treatment. At this moment, she felt a pain in her arm, like being scratched by exposed steel bars.

But even if she struggled, she was confined to Yaxiu's arms, how could it be... She went down the steel bars, and found the clothes soaked in blood, and the body that was penetrated. Yaxiu said calmly, "You can't heal, why are you touching me?"

"You...you here..."

"Unfortunately, the left abdomen was penetrated." Ash said, "Don't worry about it, the bleeding has stopped." "Why didn't you pull it out?"

"Because we are not hiding in three rooms and one living room, there is no room to move... Close your eyes and don't look." Ash grabbed her just scratched arm, "It's only midfield now. Rest, we'll have more injuries later, so we're trying to heal as well as possible now."

"You saved me with great difficulty, I saved you with great difficulty, precious lives cannot be wasted. I can only do this, but at least you can return to your heyday."

This time, Niya finally did not resist, and obediently allowed Yaxiu to treat her injuries. At this time, Yaxiu realized that Niya was actually very petite, and she could easily hug him when she curled up, like a little hedgehog, but he remembered Sonny in his mind.

Ya, it's not like that...how to say it, he can't imagine Sonia being held by him like a small animal, but he can often dream of Sonia preying on him like a female leopard. After finishing the wounds and bullet holes in his waist, when Ash's palm swept across the arc of Nia's hips, he clearly felt the little hedgehog in his arms tremble.

He stopped, "I really can't see, why don't you just tell me where you are hurt? After a moment of silence, Nia said in a low voice.

"Calves." Ankle. "

Niya was wearing short boots. As soon as Ash helped her take it off, she felt the debris inserted into the boots and the dirty blood that came out, so she also took off her socks, "Your foot is hurt too."

"me."

Although Niya's voice didn't sound emotional, she always felt a little embarrassed: "I haven't changed my clothes for a few days."

"It doesn't matter, the smell here is not that good." The warm light of the "Le Sword" flashed on Yaxiu's hand, grabbed the soles of her feet, and found that her toes were curled up nervously, and said with a smile, "But you still have to pay attention to personal hygiene. A handsome girl like you should wear more beautiful clothes to benefit the world. "I don't want to benefit the world. Nia hunched her waist, her body tensed:

"I hate this world, UU reading www.uukanshu.com hate everything."

"Do you hate Phili?" "Hate."

"Where's Vichy, her spear is really good, right?"

"I hate it." "What about me?" "I hate it the most. "

Ash shrugged, helped her pull the sock off the sock and helped her put it back on, then slipped on her booties and tied her shoelaces. It's not easy to do this in the dark. To be honest, Ashe wanted Nia to come by herself, but she only helped deliver the boots and socks. She seemed to suddenly become lazy and asked Ashe for help.

"Anywhere else hurt?"

"and also

Even in a narrow and confined space, Nia's voice was so small that Ash couldn't hear it. He asked "where" again

Niya stopped talking, and Yaxiu suddenly felt that his right hand was being held by the other hand, and then went all the way up, passing the abdomen of the vest line, and finally the palm covered the soft ball, Yaxiu clearly felt it. Still bleeding bullet holes and thumping heartbeats.

You almost died. "

Yaxiu focused on treating Niya's terrifying injuries seriously:

"My miracles can't save mortal wounds...why are you telling me now?!"

Hearing that Yaxiu's voice was a little angry, Niya didn't push back uncharacteristically, but just hummed softly, as if she really knew something was wrong.

At this moment, Niya suddenly said, "Can you introduce that person to me?" Ash asked casually:

"Who Vichy Feili"

"The one who you care about but is not in this world, Nia whispered, "The one who kisses you in my place. "The one who made you care so much about me. "

"The one who made you rush to protect me subconsciously." "The one who looks at me but only sees her in your eyes."

Chapter 878: Intimate big sister Vichy

Vichy slowly opened her eyes and saw Fili wiping her mouth.

She leaned against a stone slab, and the warm yellow sword-body barrier firmly guarded the two of them from the falling rubble. She looked down and found that the injured part had been urgently bandaged with rags, and the source of the rags was right in front of her eyes. Fili was wearing long sleeves and a skirt today, but now she is almost wearing short sleeves and a miniskirt. .

“What are you rubbing?”

“Sister Vichy, you were in a very bad state just now. Your body was twitching all the time, and spittle was pouring out of the corners of your mouth.”

Vichy also recalled what happened just now – her gold and silver virtual wings were lost to save Ashura, her fourth virtual wings were lost to cast Zhishou Huo, and her colorful virtual wings were lost when she deployed Sanctuary.

She has lost all the phantom wings and magic power, except for the knowledge of the fire-guarding magic spirit, which remains in her soul because she is of the same origin, she is almost no different from mortals, and there is no miracle to speak of.

The impact of losing all the virtual wings is more serious than she imagined. It is not as simple as pain, it is simply paralysis of the soul, and even her own body cannot be controlled.

Even if she counts her past and present life, this moment is her most vulnerable and powerless time.

“You did something wrong, you shouldn’t wipe it off for me, but take out your phone to take a picture.” Even if the situation was extremely bad, Vichy remained calm: “If I encounter my enemy in the future, just this picture Taking pictures of my ugliness will give you endless benefits.”

“It looks like you’ve recovered, Sister Vichy.” Fili breathed a sigh of relief.

“Not necessarily, you touch my underside to see if there is any incontinence.”

“what”

Fili hesitated for a moment, but she still mustered up the courage to reach out and touch it, but she noticed that the corners of Vichy's mouth were slightly upturned and she reacted, "Sister Vichy, you are teasing me again"

"I'm just teaching you how to seduce Yaxiu in the future. For a girl as innocent as you, it is easy to seduce a man's **** by making such a bold move that violates the personality." Vichy reached out and touched the sword barrier next to him: " But in fact, as long as you take off your clothes and get under his quilt, he will basically give in."

We'll have to figure out a way to tell Ash to withdraw this miracle later, Vichy thought. The reason why the Sword Body Barrier has not triggered the mysterious chain is only because the witnesses are two insiders of Vichy and Fili.

Once the Six Nations Corps dug through the ruins and saw the sword body barrier, the mysterious chain would be activated, and the other wing of the **** would be severely broken.

Although Vichy is very happy to see Yaxiu deflated, especially now that all her phantom wings have been broken, but no matter how much grudges there are, Yaxiu is now their highest combat power, and there are also the Six Nations Legion and a The demigod gunner, even if it's just to take care of the overall situation... The ghost prophet Vichy, who takes care of the overall situation, suddenly slapped himself and startled Feili, "What's wrong with you, Sister Vichy?"

"It's nothing, it's just that I hate my body more and more." Vichy said flatly, "I'm about to learn the bad habits of human beings. By the way, what about them?"

Then she saw Phili visibly drop down.

"I don't know where... But Ash should protect Niya."

"What just happened"

"When it collapsed, we and Nya were just at opposite ends." Fili looked down at her fingers, "He protected us with this miracle, and then flew to Nya himself."

Although Fili said it very briefly, it was enough for Vichy to construct the scene at the time and to feel Fili's mood when she saw that scene.

"Ash's judgment is correct." Vichy said, "He has only two means to protect others, one is the miracle, and the other is the sanctuary. If he uses the miracle to protect us, then he himself has to use the sanctuary. Protect Nya." "Yeah."

"But I know you must be thinking, "Why doesn't he use a miracle to protect Niya, and then fly over to live and die with me?"

"It's us." Feili corrected in a low voice.

Vichy: "But if he really chooses this side, you will definitely want to kick me over to Niya's side, so as not to prevent you from checking each other for incontinence..."

"I wouldn't!" Fili interrupted her shyly and anxiously, "and I didn't blame Ash for choosing Nya's side, when the situation was so urgent, it would be very difficult for him to protect us in time! "

"Don't complain" "Don't complain!" "Don't be jealous" "Don't be jealous"

"Then let me tell you what's going on over there." Vichy Youyou said, "In order to maximize efficiency, the sanctuary must be as small as possible, so they must hug each other tightly, with a high probability of It's a face-to-face hug. If they were sitting, Nia's legs should be wrapped around Ash's waist. Nia's legs are straight and long, so it's probably a good experience; and Ash wouldn't waste this rare rest. time, Probably will use a miracle to cure Niya's serious injury, which naturally requires skin-to-skin contact, if Niya hurts any sensitive parts..."

Vichy didn't go on, it wasn't that she felt ashamed or couldn't imagine—she could have said it more violently—but Fili looked at her with tears in her eyes, pursing her lips, pitifully. A little sheep who knew he was going to be kicked out of the sheepfold.

Vichy looked at her wound that had been bandaged, and sighed, "If you complain, you will complain, and if you are jealous, you will be jealous. Are you still worried that I will report to him?"

"But I know that I shouldn't think like this..." Fili sniffed, wiped her eyes with the back of her hand, and made the sound of the kettle boiling from time to time: "He has been very good to me, he will care about me life, protects me, respects my thoughts, senses my unspoken words... he has given me a lot" but I still want more, more, more, more than I can hold. Feili sobbed: "I just don't get it now, but I'm as sad as I lost... Sister Vichy, am I being too greedy?"

"Your fault is not greed, it's not being greedy enough." Vichy said angrily, "If I were you, I would threaten Asher with the identity of a demon, and let him lick his feet, and he would have to lick his feet, and let him lick his whole body. He has to lick until his mouth is dry, so that he can get the strength to get out of bed, even if I lose, and then find a way to kill other people, so that he has to stay here for the rest of his life, no matter what kind of sword girl and witch he likes, he can enjoy his life anyway. I'm the only one, isn't that happier?"

"When the hunt is over, you can do as I say. I promise that there will be more than you can fit."

Fili broke into a smile, rubbed her eyes and said, "I've always envied Sister Vichy."

"What do you envy me? Maid? Or being chained by Yaxiu?" Vichy shrugged, "You don't have to envy me for this, as long as you want, you can chain Yaxiu if you want."

"No, I envy you for being so brave and firm, as if nothing can stop you." Feili said seriously:

"Always passionate and courageous, you are a woman I admire very much."

"You are really suitable to be Ash's wife. You must be the kind of stupid woman who will forgive Ash no matter how many times he cheats." Vichy couldn't help laughing: "Did you forget that we were first How about the next meeting?"

If it weren't for Ash, if you weren't a demon, both of you would have died at my hands. "

“I haven’t forgotten that you are a bad person.” Phili said, “But since Ashe is supervising you, I believe you will “I suggest you say this to Ashe in bed, although it is unlikely, but if he I’ll be happy if I believe it. “Vichy said lazily, “I promise not to forget your great kindness. When I break free from the chains, I will reward you with Ashe, along with chains and collars.” ”

“I really think you will gradually get better, Sister Vichy.” Feili said, “If you break free from the chains now, will you kill me?”

Vichy raised his eyebrows, “If you are willing to be used by me, you will shed, and if you are not willing, you will die.”

Phili smiled and shook her head, “No, you won’t.”

Vichy almost laughed angrily, “Maybe it’s my appearance that makes you misunderstood, but my real age is four digits,

And we’ve only known each other for a month, Miss Phili. ”

“But you would tell a joke to comfort me when you saw me cry just now.” Phili blinked, “Since you care about me, you won’t hurt me.”

Vichy didn’t know how to complain for a while. In her time, if she cared a little bit about anyone, she would have to recruit relatives and friends to meet the ghost prophet’s plot. [Ghost Prophet’s concern] is almost the same as r Omen of Disaster! It’s even scarier if there’s an actual act of caring, and she’s tried giving birthday presents at someone else’s birthday dinner, then turning it into a corpse party.

But what Vichy wanted to complain the most was that she didn’t tell a joke. If Vichy stood by Fili and made plans, Ash would have been squeezed to the ground. She was teaching love clearance strategies, but Feili thought she was just joking.

“Yes, yes.” Vichy said casually, “I am Vichy, the eldest sister who is loved by everyone.”

Feili smiled and hugged Vichy.

Vichy didn't like this kind of physical contact, but before she could say anything, she heard a quiet voice in her arms:

"Sister Vichy, what should I do?"

Feeling that the clothes on his chest were about to get wet, Vichy said nothing, raised his hand and rubbed Fili's head lightly. In the end is the person chasing the phantom sad, or the phantom chasing the person is more sad.

Chapter 879: It's because you love her

"Jianji and I were just adventure comrades in the beginning, because her talent is swordsmanship, so I also learned swordsmanship. I didn't have the opportunity to be educated by a magician, she learned knowledge from school and then taught me..."

"I also forgot whether there was a confession or not, but she said it was me, so that's who I am."

"Our relationship is not smooth sailing, the main problem is because of me. In a literary way, that is, my heart is broken into pieces, and each piece only likes one person... I feel that if I dare to say this in front of her it's dead."

Without concealing or evading, Ash told Niya the relationship between him and Sonia along the way. He would sometimes laugh involuntarily, and sometimes babble about some impressive details, regardless of whether the only audience wanted to hear it or not.

“Jianji and the witch are waiting for me in another world. They fought in a place I didn’t know to save me.”

Ash said, “The reason why I work so hard is because I just want to go back and meet them again sooner.”

“This is the story of me and Jian Ji.”

In the silence, Ash’s hand clearly felt Nia’s heartbeat speeding up. He tried to pull his hand out, but Nya grabbed his hand tightly, insisting on pressing his hand on the soft spring, as if asking him to feel his heartbeat every moment.

“...Does she look the same as me?” Niya answered by herself as soon as she asked, “It must be the same, otherwise how would you recognize me at a glance... No.”

She reacted: “Is the beauty-loving girl you mentioned just now the Sword Princess?” Ash “Yes.”

“So she doesn’t have scars on her face, she wears all kinds of beautiful clothes every day, her hair is soft and fresh, and she has time to put on good-looking makeup.” Niya said softly: “It’s totally different from me... She’s definitely Much prettier than me.”

“She’s still in school, so life must be very interesting. She’s not full of negative energy and doesn’t need to hide xz...”

“You like her, and she likes you too. Congratulations, you all met someone you like.” She said softly, “It’s great.”

Ash didn’t know what to say here, “I’m sorry.”

“Why do you want to apologize because in that white fog, Jian Ji used my body to meet you privately?”

“you know”

"I just guessed it." Niya said calmly, "I lost the memory of that time. When I opened my eyes, I saw that we were kissing, but you wouldn't kiss me... Although it feels a little weird, it's the only possibility. ."

"Since there is another me in another world, what can't happen?"

"Tell me honestly, do I sneak off to meet you when I'm sleeping? Have we done a lot of things already? Does she "borrow" my body a lot? I don't mind people talking about my body at all Love, I don't mind telling me one by one!" Niya's voice got louder and louder, and finally broke.

Ash hugged Niya, who was struggling hysterically, and didn't say a word the whole time. When Nia was gasping for breath, he said, "That happened from beginning to end, although I can't guarantee it will happen in the future, but I will definitely tell you. .I'm really sorry."

Nia took a deep breath and suddenly asked, "I just want to ask one question – why do you want to protect me?"

"I don't believe that just because I look like her, what is the reason for you to protect me at all costs. You will leave this world sooner or later, do you just want to have a substitute during this time?"

After a moment of silence, Ash slowly said, "If you die, it will have a bad effect on Sword Princess."

"Ah, everything makes sense."

Niya murmured, "No wonder you were willing to cover me in front of the police station when we first met, no wonder you wished me so much to live under your protection, no wonder you flew over to save me without thinking when you saw me in danger..."

"From the beginning, you approached me only for her."

"No wonder you treat me so well, it's because you love her."

Niya's voice gradually became silent, as if waiting for Ash's reply, but Ash just hugged her quietly, like a warm darkness, silently feeling her turbulent heartbeat.

He couldn't say anything, everything he said was just tearing Niya's wound.

From the very beginning, he protected Niya just to protect Jian Ji. If it weren't for the mechanism of emotional inversion, he might not have looked for Jian Ji's shadow in the kingdom of stars.

If he still has a few truths to Fili, then from the beginning, he only wanted to get close to Nya by deception, and he didn't dare to tell the truth to Nya – I will do my best to protect you from now on. , just because you are the shadow of my lover For the person I like, so you can't die Nya is just tearing off his hypocritical mask and smashing his ugly face.

After an unknown amount of time, Ash suddenly felt that his hand was finally taken out by Niya, and then there was a rustling in the darkness, and the slate above suddenly made a squeaking sound.

“Niya, don't move—”

“I'm leaving.”

“what.”

“I’m leaving!” Nia said in a low voice, “I won’t do what you want, and I won’t live for anyone... I want to leave”

“Where do you want to wait for us to spend this hunt-”

“I don’t want to stay with you for a second now!” Nia took a long breath, but she still couldn’t hold back the cry in her voice: “Ash Heath, you make me feel sick and want to vomit, I want to kill you, I want to kill you!”

I actually thought... I should have killed you a long time ago, why didn’t I kill you!? I want to leave you, I feel sick to the point of vomit just breathing the same air as you!”

“There are demigod gunners outside, as well as the Army of the Six Nations. You will die if you leave alone!”

“I don’t care!” Niya slammed Axiu’s chest with a fist, “If I die, will it affect Jian Ji? It’s better to say if it doesn’t matter to me. If my death can make you regret for life, I’m so happy. ”

Ash took a deep breath, trying to ease the situation, “Niya, calm down-”

“Call me Servi!” Niya grabbed Ash by the collar: “And don’t talk to me in that tone, I’m not a sword girl, I won’t listen to your orders.”

“Isn’t it enough to cooperate just to survive?”

“I’m not Jian Ji, I don’t have anyone I care about, I don’t want to live for a long time.”

“I never regarded you as a sword princess, you don’t have to-”

“Then when we first met, who were you saying ‘I like Miss Servey’ to?”

Ash’s voice stopped abruptly, but Nia seemed to hollow herself out after saying those words. After taking a few deep breaths, she tried again to push the rubble away, but she soon found herself being held again.

“you-”

“Don’t go, I’ll go.” Ash said softly, “I’ll leave your sight, you stay here quietly, okay?”

After a brief silence, Nia hummed softly.

“After I join Vichy and the others, I will try to divert the Six Nations Legion and the demigod gunners away. I can’t guarantee whether there will be further collapse here, but this corner is still safe for now. You run away and try to protect yourself, okay?”

Nia’s voice trembled, “Don’t worry about it.”

Yaxiu raised his hand to prop up the slate above it a little. It seemed that the Six Nations Legion outside had dug a lot, and Yaxiu could barely hold it up. He straightened his waist, groaned, and pulled out his body from the broken steel bars, then moved carefully, placing Niya in the corner. In this corner where Yaxiu could only lie down, Niya could actually curl up and squat. Liaxiu first took a picture of himself with “Lesser Sword”, and then used his heart sword to dig out a place where he could barely put himself.

When he was about to continue digging out, he suddenly took a deep breath and looked back at the darkness behind him: "Although it may be meaningless, I still want to say sorry to you.

"I've always regretted telling you "I like Miss Servi" in order to deceive your trust, but in the end, I despised you and insulted Jian Ji. Maybe you won't believe it, but since then, I have separated you from Jian Ji. "

"You are not someone's shadow, and you are not someone's substitute. You saved me by beheading the golden fish in Canaan City, fighting side by side with me and killing three streets, with handsome cross scars on your face, wearing a few The socks that never change, the violent beauty Nia, Servi.

"I flew over to save you just now, just because you were Nia, Servi, and for no other reason."

After saying it, Yaxiu felt a little more relaxed, and continued: "Since you hate me, I will not chase you in the future, nor will I appear in your sight. I know you will doubt my intentions, but I am sincere. I hope you cherish yourself well, you deserve happiness.

There was no reply in the dark, Niya seemed to have closed herself up, and didn't want to listen to Yaxiu's nonsense any more. Yaxiu sighed, stretched out his hand to carefully dig up the gravel, always paying attention to the movement above, and digging out little by little while not affecting Niya's area.

Ka, when Ash moved a stone, a tiny light passed through many obstacles and coincidentally penetrated into the dust and danced wildly in the light. The voice of the Six Nations Legion also suddenly became clear. Although it sounds like there is still a distance, if you continue to dig, maybe a battle will break out in the next second.

Ash, who was about to dig out, suddenly found that the back of his clothes seemed to be hooked by something and could not move on.

Could it be the exposed steel bars or some thorns, Yaxiu looked back and was stunned.

Under the weak light, he saw Nia squatting in the corner with her legs in her arms, like a curled up hedgehog. She stared straight at the ground, but she stretched out her right hand, and her thumb, index finger, and **** tightly clasped the corner of his shirt. The light just shone on her fingers, allowing Yaxiu to see how tightly she was clenching. He stared blankly at this scene and asked carefully:

“You don’t want me to go”

In the dim light, Riaxiu saw Nia turn her head slightly to look at him, then turned back to look at the ground,

He opened his mouth and seemed to want to say something, but he didn't say a word, but his right hand still clenched the corner of Ashe's clothes tightly.

Ash slowly stepped back and sat beside her. During the whole process, Niya neither spoke nor moved. Although there was no connection, Ash always remembered the picture of the little hedgehog showing its belly. Until this time, Nia was still clenching the corners of his clothes tightly.

Chapter 880: Arcanist

When he told the doctor about this guess, the doctor said he didn't understand, but was shocked and suggested that he go to the psychiatry department downstairs.

In short, the hospital could not find out the cause. Later, his mother brought him a special medicine from abroad, and the condition was controlled. As long as he took the medicine regularly, he would not have an attack.

"It must have been because I didn't rest well last night. I was too tired. It's all Jiang Yuyi's fault. He insisted on coming to my room to play games in the middle of the night..."

Although he said so, his heart was quietly heavy, because Zhang Yuanqing knew that the effect of the medicine had begun to weaken, and his disease had become more and more serious.

"I will increase the dose in the future..." Zhang Yuanqing put on cotton slippers, went to the window, and opened the curtain with a brush.

Sunlight rushed in, filling the room.

In April in Songhai City, the spring is bright, and the oncoming morning breeze is cool and comfortable.

“Dong dong!”

At this time, there was a knock on the door, and the grandmother shouted from the door:

“Motoko, wake up.”

“I can’t afford it!” Zhang Yuanqing ruthlessly refused, he wanted to go back to sleep.

Spring is bright, and it’s the weekend again. Wouldn’t it be a waste of life if you don’t sleep in?

“Give you three minutes, I’ll wake you up if you don’t get up.”

Grandma was even more ruthless.

“I know, I know...” Zhang Yuanqing immediately softened.

He knew that grumpy grandma could really do this.

When Zhang Yuanqing was still in elementary school, his father died in a car accident. The strong-willed mother did not remarry, so she brought her son back to Songhai to settle down and left it to his grandparents to take care of him.

She plunged into her career and became a strong woman praised by her relatives. Fun Court

Later, the mother bought a house herself, but Zhang Yuanqing didn’t like the empty flat floor, and still lived with his grandparents.

Anyway, my mother goes out early every day and returns late every day, every three or five business trips, and she is devoted to her career. Even if she does not work overtime on weekends, she will order takeaway when it is time to eat.

What he said the most to his son was “Is there enough money, not enough to tell my mother”, a strong woman mother who can satisfy you financially, sounds very good. Download love reading pp, no ads and free reading

But Zhang Yuanqing always smiled and said to his mother: The pocket money given by my grandmother and aunt is enough.

Well, and auntie.

The woman who had to come to his room to play games last night was his aunt.

Zhang Yuanqing yawned, unscrewed the door handle of the bedroom, and came to the living room.

This house in my grandmother’s house has an area of 150 square meters, including the public pool. When Zhang Yuanqing sold the old house to buy this new house, Zhang Yuanqing remembered that it was more than 40,000 square meters per square meter.

In the past six or seven years, the housing price in this community has now risen to 110,000 per square meter, nearly doubled.

It was also fortunate that my grandfather had foresight back then, and when he replaced it with the old house, Zhang Yuanqing could only sleep in the living room. After all, now that he was grown up, he could no longer sleep with his aunt.

On the long dining table next to the living room, the culprit who caused his headache was drinking porridge with ‘gugugugu’, and the pink slippers were curled up and down at the bottom of the table.

Her facial features are exquisite and beautiful, her round oval face looks quite sweet, and there is a tear mole at the corner of her right eye.

Just getting up, the big fluffy and messy waves were scattered, which made her a little more lazy and charming.

The aunt's name is Jiang Yuyi, who is four years older than him.

Seeing Zhang Yuanqing come out, the aunt licked the porridge next to her mouth and said in surprise:

"Yo, it's not your style to get up so early."

"Good job your mother did."

"How can you scold someone?"

"I'm just telling the truth."

Zhang Yuanqing looked at his aunt's beautiful face, full of energy, bright and moving.

It is said that the dark night will not treat people who stay up late, it will give you dark circles, but this law does not seem to work for the woman in front of you.

When the grandmother in the kitchen heard the movement, she stuck out her head and looked at it. After a while, she came out with a bowl of porridge.

Grandma's black hair was mixed with silver threads, and her eyes were sharp. At first glance, she looked like that kind of old lady with a bad temper.

Although loose skin and shallow wrinkles robbed her of her elegance, she could vaguely see that she had a good appearance when she was young.

Zhang Yuanqing took the porridge handed over by his grandmother, Gululu took a mouthful and said:

“Where’s Grandpa?”

“Going for a walk.” Grandma said.

My grandfather is a retired criminal policeman. Even though he is old, his life is still very regular. He must go to bed at ten o’clock every night and wake up at six in the morning.

The pretty aunt was drinking porridge and said with a smile:

“After breakfast, Auntie will take you to the mall to buy clothes.”

Are you so kind? Just as Zhang Yuanqing was about to agree, the grandmother beside him gave him a murderous look:

“If you dare to go, break the dog’s leg.”

“Mom, why are you like this.” The aunt said with a **** on her face: “I just want to buy some spring clothes for Yuanzi, you are not happy? Although the nephew has a foreign word, but it is also a kiss~”

Grandma tried her best to break the law, “You also want to be interrupted by the dog’s leg?”

The aunt pouted and lowered her head to drink porridge.

As soon as Zhang Yuanqing heard the game between the mother and daughter, he knew that his grandmother would arrange a blind date for his aunt again, and the quirky aunt wanted to drag him to stir up the water.

I used to do this in the past. I took my nephew on a blind date and sat there for a few minutes. The socially arrogant nephew would get the blind date. The two men had a great time talking, from the people's livelihood plan to the world situation. thing.

All she needs to do is drink a drink and play with her mobile phone. The blind date will also feel that she has shown enough social experience and knowledge in front of the beauty, so she will feel happy and feel good about herself.

Jiang Yuyi has been delicate and cute since he was a child, and is the object of praise from the neighbors. He is handsome, sweet and well-behaved, and is very popular with elders.

Such a beautiful girl, of course, my grandmother must be strictly guarded. When she was in junior high school, she was not allowed to have puppy love, and she was not allowed to go out with male classmates.

The youngest daughter did not disappoint her. She didn't have a boyfriend until she graduated from college, but when she entered the society, especially after her 25th birthday at the beginning of the year, her grandmother couldn't sit still.

My heart said that I just don't let you fall in love early, and I didn't let you be a leftover girl. How many years of youth can a woman have?

So he called the old sisters, collected information on young talents from all over the world, and set up a blind date for his daughter.

"Grandma, she made it clear that she doesn't want to talk to someone else, and a twisted melon is not sweet." Zhang Yuanqing nibbled at the buns and suggested himself:

"Would you like to arrange a blind date for me? My melon is so sweet."

Grandma said angrily: "You're still young, what's the hurry. There are all female classmates in the university, so you can't find them yourself? If you make trouble again, be careful and I'll beat you up."

Grandmother is a southern woman, but her temper is not gentle at all, and she is very hot.

Even Zhang Yuanqing, the mother of a career woman, did not dare to contradict her grandmother.

I've grown up, I've been a craftsman for several years... Zhang Yuanqing muttered in his heart.

After breakfast, at the strong request of my grandmother, my aunt went back to the room to change clothes and make up, and went out on a blind date.

Auntie put on light makeup, which made her look more bright and moving.

The aunt threw a "you know" look at him, carrying her bag, twisting her waist and going out:

Zhang Yuanqing returned to the room, changed into a black shirt, jacket, and running shoes in a hurry.

After a few minutes, he opened the bedroom door.

Grandma was cleaning in the living room, and when she saw him come out, she stopped what she was doing and looked at him silently.

Zhang Yuanqing imitated his aunt's tone:

“Mom, I’m going out on a blind date too.”

“Go back.” Grandma raised her broom and threatened: “If you dare to step out of this door, the dog’s legs will be interrupted.”

“Okay!” Zhang Yuanqing returned to the bedroom in a good manner.

Sitting at the desk, he held his mobile phone and sent a message to his aunt:

“Death before leaving the apprenticeship, the hero is full of tears.”

The aunt should be driving, and the content of the reply was concise and to the point.

“I was stopped at home by my grandmother. You should go on a blind date yourself.”

Auntie sent a message.

Zhang Yuanqing opened the latest full content of Aiyue pp for free, and Jiang Yuyi’s angry voice sounded from the speaker:

“What do you want!”

The aunt withdrew one voice, and then sent another one, this time with a different tone, coquettishly and cutely:

“Good nephew, come quickly, my aunt loves you the most, u~”

O woman!

Acting like a cute girl and trying to make me touch my grandmother's scales? At least have to give out a red envelope ah.

At this time, a slightly harsh ringtone came. Zhang Yuanqing came to the living room. Under the watchful eyes of his grandmother, he pressed the call button of the building intercom and said:

"Which one!"

"express delivery."

Sound came from the speakers.

Zhang Yuanqing pressed the door button, and after two or three minutes, the courier boy in uniform took the elevator upstairs, holding a package in his arms:

"Is that Zhang Yuanqing?"

"it's me."

I didn't shop online... He signed for the receipt with a confused look. UU read www.uukanshu.com and glanced at the package information. The package did not write the sender, but the address was Hangcheng, Jiangnan Province, next door.

He returned to the room, found the paper cutter from the desk drawer, and opened the package.

Inside is the anti-fall air cushion wrapped with a black card and a yellow letter.

Zhang Yuanqing picked up a black card the size of an ID card. The material seemed to be metal, but the tentacles were extremely warm. The card was exquisitely made, with a light silver cloud pattern on the edge and a black full moon in the center.

The black full moon is very delicately printed, and the irregular patches on the surface are clearly visible.

what? With doubt, he opened the envelope and opened the letter.
