

Chapter 881: promoted to demigod

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The bullets shot down from above in a very rhythmic manner, and were easily blocked by Ash and Vichy.

Although he knew that they were approaching him, the demigod gunner had no sense of urgency at all. His shooting was more of a greeting to them than an attack.

There is no doubt that there are traps set up by the demigod gunmen, but Ash and the others have no other choice.

From the moment they entered the building, they stepped into a deadly situation carefully planned by the gunmen. If they had just chosen to flee to the gate, maybe even the gate would collapse.

The magician can be greedy for life and fear death, but he must never be timid and run away. Of course, more importantly, even at this time

At this moment, Ash and Vichy still think that their side has a chance of winning. As long as they can get within seven steps of the demigod gunman, their sword/spear halberd will definitely be faster than the bullet!

From the beginning, only one of them and the demigod gunman could leave alive.

“How many Void Wings do you have?” Vichy asked suddenly

Yaxiu chopped off a bullet and replied nonchalantly.

“Sword-colored phantom wings.”

“Silver and gold gone”

Vichy glanced at Niya, “Just to save her, Niya pursed her lips. Although she didn’t speak, she didn’t evade, and pinned the maid directly.

“If you were there at the time, I would have flown over to save you.” Ash replied, “Although I will feel stupid afterwards.”

“But I won’t break your two virtual wings.” Vichy said, “Is it because she triggered the mysterious chain or the other six “because Dharma Master Fanxing triggered the mysterious chain”

Yaxiu said word by word, “If you want to avenge me so much, I don’t mind if you go to Master Fanxing to trouble you.

The implication is that I don’t mind if you trouble Niya. Vichy naturally understood Ash’s subtext and twitched her eyebrows, but at this time, Fili pulled the corner of her clothes, and the maid had no choice but to pursed her lips and skipped the topic by taking advantage of the opportunity to block the bullet.

Yaxiu looked at Vichy suspiciously. If Vichy troubled him, he would not be surprised at all, but just now Vichy was targeting Niya secretly and secretly, which is very strange, and Niya didn’t offend her.

However, Yaxiu thought about it, she was still going through a series of battles during her menstrual period, and she had a moody personality. Axiu became impatient due to his lack of combat power.

If each Void Wing is a chance to shoot, then Yaxiu, who is left with only the sword-colored Void Wing, can only make one shot at most.

So Ash said, “If it’s necessary, I won’t be stingy with my virtual wings.

“But if you lose all your Void Wings, you’ll become a mortal like me.” Vichy said, “If you’re a Silver, Gold, or Sanctuary Warlock, that’s fine. You can also condense Void Wings through non-combat methods. But you are a legendary magician, without a little magic power, even if you could enter Ruby Mountain before, you could not condense the fourth virtual wing through battle.

“Become a cripple, are you willing?”

“I’m not reconciled, but I’m not giving up.” Ash replied, “As long as you survive, there is always a chance.

“Even if you return to another world then, do you think the sword princess will still want you?” Vichy asked back, “In my time, if one of the couples became a magician, they would often abandon the other. The so-called ‘the first sword of the sorcerer is to kill the person you like’. Now you are a mortal who has fallen back from a legend. As a legend, sword princesses and witches can really Accept the mediocrity of your partner?”

Fili raised her head sharply, staring at Ash waiting for an answer. Although Nia didn’t move, she didn’t consciously stand up.

“What do I usually do?” Ash asked.

Vichy unceremoniously “eats and drinks.”

?? If I go back to reality, what do you think I will do?”,

“Eating, drinking and having fun, the Sleeping Sword Princess Witch?”

“If I go back to reality and become a waste, what do you think I will do?”

“...Small, drink and play, the Sleeping Sword Princess Witch?”

Yaxiu's expression was worthy of me: "I think they have long accepted the mediocrity of their partner." They had already reached the fifth floor while they were talking, and then down to the sixth and seventh floors, and then the demigod guns. hand on the eighth floor. Yaxiu signaled everyone to stop and wait for a while, when the eighth floor sounded the whine of the griffin being shot, he waved his hand suddenly, and led everyone to rush up with all their strength!

The sixth floor and the seventh floor are definitely the most likely area for the Axiu gunmen to attack. They must take advantage of the opportunity of the Six Nations Legion to interfere with the half body gunmen!

But just as they stepped into the sixth floor, the sound of the gunshots, which had been playing around so gracefully, suddenly became violent.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The emergency light, which was always on and off, was broken.

The demigod gunman did not attack them, but first smashed all the emergency lights. Because the fire doors on each floor were closed, and without emergency lights, the entire fire escape was filled with darkness, and not even a trace of light could penetrate.

You can't see without light... Yaxiu's hair stood up in an instant, and when his mind moved, the sanctuary was instantly guarded to the extreme.

Live everyone, and then he dances the short sword with that poor swordsmanship intuition – a clang!

"Hey sword flashes"

Ashish retracted his handgun, blew the smoke of gun-colored magic power from the mouth of the gun, and said with a smile, "But my penetrating bullet can't be cracked with a flash of a sword."

In the darkness, Nia immediately hugged Yaxiu the moment he groaned and fell, stretched out his hand to touch him, and suddenly trembled:

“Your heart...”

“Grazed the heart, it’s not fatal.” Ash tried to breathe calmly, but he still coughed up a large mouthful of blood: “The Sanctuary is useless as a bullet that penetrates the space. In the dark environment, he can use miracles to his heart’s content.”

Although it didn’t hit the heart, it went through his body, breaking his spine. Even with “Le Jian” to relieve pain, the damage to the spine is enough to temporarily paralyze Yaxiu

Fili groped around and helped Yaxiu under the wall and put it down. She reached out and felt blood on her hand. She was so nervous that she was about to cry, “You’re bleeding a lot”

This was not a normal gunshot wound, but a round hole punched directly in Yaxiu’s heart. Yaxiu’s muscles couldn’t automatically gather to stop the bleeding, and the blood naturally took the opportunity to flee unscrupulously.

Feili almost subconsciously reached out and tried to block the wound, but she met another wet hand that was also trembling. She took a deep breath, grabbed Niya’s hand, and pressed Ash’s wound together, as if two people

Stacked together to fight a mysterious fate.

But Yaxiu is very calm, has no virtual wings, the sanctuary is useless, and his body is paralyzed. He can’t walk away. In the eyes of the demigod Gunshou, he is a living target of Dong.

What’s interesting is that when he was really about to die, Ash didn’t have much fear, just worried that he would cause trouble to Igula, Harvey, Sword Girl, and the Witch.

The world has hell, so one day I will meet you again

“Vichy, take them away.” Ash said softly, “This is my last order.”

The sound of shooting came from the eighth floor, apparently the demigod gunman was dealing with the Six Nations Legion approaching him. When he frees his hand, the real storm of bullets will come.

The demigod gunman only fired one miracle gun just now. It was definitely not a restriction, nor was it to slowly kill them, but just to test whether the mysterious chain would work. If Yaxiu guessed correctly, that Fajia just now Penetration is cast with silver mana, and even if the mysterious chain is triggered, it will only break the silver virtual wings of the demigod’s hand.

Since the mysterious chain has not been triggered, the demigod gunman can have no scruples. Ash can’t leave anymore,

But Vichy and the others may still have a chance, as long as they can break through the fire door and rush out – da.

There was a stomping sound on the ground in front of Yaxiu, even if it was so dark that he couldn’t see anything, but relying on the air flow alone, Yaxiu could faintly feel a figure standing in front of him.

“Just say it if you want me to be buried with you.” Vichy’s voice was still light:

“I may not even be able to escape alone, let alone carry these two burdens, and do you think they are willing to throw away your garbage?”

“Then run away by yourself.” Yaxiu coughed twice and said with a smile:

“It’s not bad to let your poisonous snake live to avenge me.”

Vichy was startled, “You said it earlier.”

bang bang bang

Pin! Clang! Clang! Clang!

The bullet and the spiked steel pipe collided to create a symphony of metal, and the short burst of sparks burned through the darkness for a moment.

The turbulent air flow alone made Yaxiu and the others feel the wind blowing

Although the opponent has demigod-level gun skills, Vichy's spear and halberd faction also has a legendary realm! If Ash is not wrong, Vichy also masters some kind of skill similar to the flash of a sword, and can use hot weapons to crack all miracles without limit.

Vichy, the petite maid standing in front of them, was as tall as a mountain fortress at the moment, and she did not let a single penetrating bullet hurt the three of them!

Suddenly, the roar of the Star Bullet Warriors came from the eighth floor, and the demigods had to stop to penetrate the bullet screen and turned to deal with the Six Nations Legion. Ash immediately said: "Vichy, quickly break open the fire door and escape, maybe one day"

But Vichy didn't move or answer, just stood in front of them.

Yaxiu was stunned, and suddenly remembered one thing, in addition to needing cold weapons, Jian Yishan also needs magic power to strengthen the body. If there is no magic power as a rush, the kinetic energy released by the crack miracle is simply what a mortal body can bear.

And Vichy's four phantom wings had been broken off before that.

Snapped.

Vichy fell limply into Ash's arms, the spiked steel pipe crashing to the ground. Feili wanted to reach out to help her up, but she broke free of Feili's hand, turned around and hugged Yaxiu's neck, gasping for blood, her voice hoarse in Yaxiu's voice.

"Tell me, do you want to die?"

"In no mood.

"Then there is no way. I don't have a way for you to not die, but if you want to die, I can give you a way to live."

"What's the meaning"

"I have a way to make that guy die right away,"

Vichy's * breath breathed on Ash's earlobe:

"I can't shout, I say something, you say something..." Vichy said weakly: "The only way to be promoted to a demigod is Law...

"The only way to be promoted to a demigod is to find the angel at the top of Ruby Mountain after condensing the fourth virtual wing.

be tried. "

Rajesh shot all the troops of the Six Nations that rushed in, and suddenly heard such a sentence.

Don't want to die by chatting.

“But no magician has ever been able to reach the top of Ruby Mountain again after condensing the fourth virtual wing.” The other party continued: “Obviously, “the top of Ruby Mountain” is not a real reference, and it can even be used as a confusing factor.

This phrase can be ignored temporarily when solving. ”

“So the only way to be promoted to a demigod is to find an angel to accept the trial after condensing the fourth virtual wing.”

Although Rashid had already killed all the Six Nations Army that rushed over, he still couldn't help but want to listen. No legendary magician can resist the temptation to step into the realm of the gods.

“Since “the top of the ruby mountain” is not the real reference, then the “angel” naturally does not refer to the source angel. At this time, as long as you read the prerequisites again, everything will suddenly become clear. ”

“No matter which country's legend, the most important symbol of an angel is to have wings.”

“And the magician who condenses four complete virtual wings, doesn't it look like an angel?”

“So the only way to be promoted to a demigod, UU reading www.uukanshu.com is that after the four-winged magician realizes that he is an angel, his place is the top of the ruby mountain, and then one by one”

“The trial is coming.”

When he heard the middle, Rajesh was weakly aware of the danger, but he still couldn't resist being promoted to a demigod. “And the magician with four complete phantom wings, doesn't he look like an angel?”

“So the only way to be promoted to a demigod is when the quadrupedist realizes that he is an angel, and his place is at the top of the Ruby Mountain, and then one by one” “trials come.”

When he heard the middle, Rajesh was weakly aware of the danger, but he still couldn't resist the promotion of demigod

The huge temptation, and when he heard the last sentence, he found that his four virtual wings were quietly unfolding.

He raised his head slowly.

The ceilings and high-rise buildings that should have existed disappeared at this moment.

The seething blackness, heavier than the mountains, bigger than the ocean. It was crushed from the sky, and if no one could fight against it, everything in the world would turn to dust. Rajesh looked around for a week and found that he was standing at the top right now, and there is nothing higher than him in the whole world thing, where he is is the highest peak, the top of Ruby Mountain.

He is an angel.

Yaxiu stared blankly at the Yuanyuan darkness above everything. The building has not disappeared, and the ceiling is still there, but they can see this darkness, even with closed eyes. It ignores light, matter, and entropy.

Force, time, and space are trivial obstacles.

Even the cage of the star kingdom is not worth mentioning in front of it.

"That's...?" Exactly. Vichy wrapped around his neck and said feebly: "That is the fifth layer of the virtual realm-" "Hell."

Chapter 882: Rust Crow Mode, Ghost King Mode

Let the white cow take a few steps backwards.

When Yaxiu and the others were engaged in an intrigue game with Rajesh, the war on the other side of the city also heated up.

Above the sky, Igula unfolded her virtual wings and invited her to swim in the golden rain curtain. The golden and silver wings drew an elegant trajectory, like a swift in a storm. Demon Yinzhi hugged the cheater's waist tightly behind her, her pink-purple bangs blown by the wind.

When the resentful shadow evil dragon suddenly teleported in front of him, he and Yinzhi's voices quickly sounded at the same time: "The golden rain here is the flowing golden river!" "The air here is indestructible"

The resentful shadow evil dragon swept its tail fiercely, and the sharp saw tail wrapped around the pitch-black evil thunder slapped in front of them. The turbulent shock wave blew away the surrounding golden rain, but even a thin wall of air could not penetrate.

On the head of the evil shadow of resentment stood a black-haired youth. He was wearing a slim black formal suit, white fireworks on his chest, and white gloves on his hands, looking at Igula and Yinzhi indifferently. Before the golden rain fell on them, they had teleported to the top of another tall building, entrenched on it, like a solitary emperor.

The city below has become a sea of lava, the streets have been swallowed up, the buildings have gradually turned into coke, the pungent poisonous gas is permeating the air, and the bitterly prosperous city center has become a forbidden area for life.

In the isolated island in the lava sea, the petite snake-haired girl clenched her ruby staff in front of her. Even though she was surrounded by hot and turbulent lava, she was barefoot and wearing thin clothes like a swimsuit.

After the battle of ghost inheritance, the world naturally knows that these snake-haired elves are a special group of elves living in paradise! But compared to the snake-haired girl, the orange-haired youth behind her is more eye-catching. He is wearing beach shorts and a plastic mop

Shoes, got a drum set from somewhere, and played the background music alone for this war. On the other side of the battlefield, Harvey stood on the overturned tower and raised his hands to gather the blood moon.

He was naked at this time, his body was white, and his eyes were scarlet. Sitting on his shoulders was a little boy. The little boy was covered with black roses, and even his eyeballs were blooming with demonic flowers.

This is the four forces that are at war: the demon Yinzhi and Igula, the evil fork and Harvey, the demon Longyuan and the resentful shadow evil dragon, Jingle bad and the curse spirit

When Harvey completed the blood moon miracle, an evil blood moon rumbled up, hanging high in the sky, obscuring the stars, the blood light shone, and even the golden rain was annihilated and dispersed. The legendary ultimate move, the boiling lava sea rolled up like a curtain and turned into three blazing phoenixes! The miracle blood moon shines! The miraculous burning phoenix!

The blood light fell on everyone equally, and the three burning phoenixes also flew to the three directions separately! But when the blood light fell on the burning phoenix, the strange light started to burn, as if the burning phoenix was the concept of burning in itself, even miracles are not spared! "The light will pass me and wait! The air in front of me can condense the barrier of heaven and earth against all flames!"

Under the order of Igula, the blood moon demon light really bypassed them, but the barrier of heaven and earth in front of them could not stop the burning phoenix at all, and the air wall of Hengdou heaven and earth instantly boiled and burned like a curtain of flame

"Igula, you can't do this. This is the little phoenix summoned by the cursed spirit consuming the fragments of the law. All tangible things are its fuel, the sanctuary, magic power, miracles, and even the golden river can burn." Phoenix was about to collide, and Yinzhi was still calm, "So, you should know how to deal with it, right?"

Igula immediately raised her hand to Phoenix, "There is an absolute vacuum in front of me"

A huge black cavity suddenly enveloped the Fenfa Phoenix. This is because the light cannot enter the absolute vacuum, and it is pitch-dark from the outside. After the burning phoenix let out a clear and clear whine that no one could hear, it quickly shrank like a burnt candle, until the last flame was completely extinguished. With a smile, Yinzhi touched Igula's head and praised, "Igola, you are so smart"

Don't look at how easy it is for Igula to solve the burning phoenix, but if there is no vacuum ability, then the burning phoenix is a miracle of destroying the world enough to destroy the country. It will automatically burn up all things in the world to continue life, and soil, air and even light will become its resources. If the caster does not take the initiative to cancel it, it can even turn the world into an endless sea of purgatory fire.

But creating a vacuum is only possible with space legends, but the space faction is extremely difficult to master, let alone climb to the legendary realm, like the starry kingdom, there has been no space legend for hundreds of years.

As long as there is no magician who can trap it in an absolute vacuum, then it has absolutely no solution, and it can't even resist.

It's hard to say whether Igula's space faction realm has a gold level or not. Naturally, he did not rely on his true strength to create a vacuum, but his magic. The term magic is what Yinzhi told him, because it was given to him by the devil. Technology, of course, is magic.

His magic can be related to what he wants to do and 'speak the way', but according to Ash's naming rules, it can be called "quail mode". In the rusty crow mode, although Igula can't be directly bewitched A living being, but it can deceive all non-intelligent substances. Everything in the world will be changed because of his lies. The air will be turned into a fortress, a storm will erupt out of thin air, the thunder will slaughter the earth, and even the flowing gold river will be moved in just a word. But the more it is created out of thin air, the more mana Igura consumes.

And if you just use the existing substances to distort and change, then the consumption of mana is very small, so deceiving the air and golden rain is the most cost-effective option.

That is to say, the phoenix has a certain wisdom. If it is an ordinary miracle, Igula can even deceive it to 'return to attack the caster! The light falling like blood moon wine will bypass them because of listening to Igula's lies!

Lies deceive one person, ideals deceive all people, and laws deceive all things

On the other side, the Shameful Shadow Evil Dragon, who was entrenched in the high tower, did not resist the Fenfa Phoenix limit book, and chose to teleport directly to Harvey. That is the magic of the Demon Dragon Abyss and the Resentful Shadow Evil Dragon: teleportation. No preconditions, no restrictions, teleport at will

Compared with Igula's Rust Crow Magic, Shadow Evil Dragon's magic is almost simple, but with its brutal dragon body that seems to be cast by violent aesthetics, a natural disaster monster that will appear anywhere at any time is born.

"I don't like the parasitic magician of the Earth Abyss Kingdom." Noticing Igula's gaze, Yinzhi said with a smirk.

Dao: "They always like to turn into ugly monsters, like the better-looking fox lantern dragon and moon shadow dragon, which never change and feel uncomfortable at all."

Can I become a parasitic magician of an imaginary creature? Igula said, "You really understand magicians. I know Zhu Ziyizhuan: "This is actually Amilo's original words. I have driven the stars before. Never seen a sorcerer. "

Resentful Shadow Evil Dragon teleported to Harvey's side, but did not take the initiative to attack. Instead, Harvey grabbed his hands out of thin air, and the blood light turned into a glove to lean on his hand, and then he rushed over to fight Resentful Shadow Evil Dragon. With a punch, with a screeching explosion, the aftermath of the cheap shot destroyed the building below, but Harvey and Ye Jian were swept away by the tail of the evil shadow dragon and smashed into a puddle of flesh.

But at this moment, black roses with budding buds quickly grew from the resentful shadow evil dragon and the demon Longyuan. The symptoms were exactly the same as the night seeing Harvey sitting on Harvey's shoulder! At this time, Harvey and Ye Jian also quickly resurrected from the flesh and blood, Harvey is still in the state of the * Blood Moon Corpse King, but Ye Jian, who has just changed back to a normal little boy, quickly grows black roses.

The black roses that were only used as decorations on Ye Jian's body were now continuously absorbing the lives of the Evil Dragon and Long Yuan.

When the black rose blooms, the limb it is in will wither away, and every black rose that blooms will replenish Harvey's, allowing him to have a steady stream of battery life.

This is Harvey's magic after spiritualization – ghost king mode

Within a certain range around him, all lifeforms will grow black rose corpse spots, and even seeing them at night cannot be avoided. Only Harvey, who has turned into a undead creature, will not be affected. In addition, all sources of damage to Harvey will also grow black rose corpse spots, and in this mode he can be reborn from a drop of blood, immortal! If the teleportation magic of the evil shadow dragon is a technology Flow, that 71-heart-two-day Harvey ghost king magic in 002 was a death-defying flow without any skills.

Because of the black rose corpse spot feature, the enemy will be cursed if they hurt him, and if they get close to him, they will be cursed, and because of the immortality and immortality feature, he is difficult to kill. Team positioning.

However, in the face of the black rose corpse spot, the resentful shadow evil dragon and Long Yuan did not panic at all, only to see the black rose blooming quickly on them and their limbs did not wither, this is the special feature of teleportation Application: Invincible Frames.

They seemed to stand there and didn't move, but they were using teleport magic every moment, and before and after the teleport was activated, they would be unaffected by the outside world for about one frame, so even if the black rose corpse spot continued The curse can also be avoided by infinite teleportation

At this time, the two burning phoenixes had already flown over, and Harvey didn't mind letting them devour himself at all, but the burning phoenix was actually a living body. I saw black roses growing on them, and their burning The speed is not as fast as the speed at which the black roses can drain their life. At the same time, black rose corpse spots also appeared on the Pyromancer who stood on the isolated city island, but these black rose corpse spots not only failed to grow, but quickly fell off the cursed elves and were blown away by the wind. .

Until now, Igula has not been able to understand the magic essence of the spell spirit, and only uses it as a defensive magic that does not help the attack, and can be called a delay."

All the effects on the Cursed Spirit were infinitely delayed, and the evil dragon of resentment teleported to her face and smashed her tail, and the tail could not be thrown from her face for 10,000 years. Igula tried to deceive the lava to sweep the island, but all the lava it was impossible to get within seven steps of her; Harvey's blood moon radiance was forever stagnant above her seven steps away, and the black rose corpse spot didn't even have a chance to bloom.

The defensive magic of the Cursed Elf is even more outrageous than the spectator mode of Xiu. After all, Yaxiu cannot attack others in the spectator mode, but the Cursed Elf can freely cast spells freely, first creating a molten environment, and then summons the Burning Phoenix.

This is the reason why they fought so fiercely, but so far there have been no casualties and attrition. The teleportation magic of the strongest evil dragon in the field is both offensive and defensive, and the delay magic of the ferocious dragon body rampages the magic spirit is enough to defend against all attacks, and kill the enemy through its own legendary fire technique.

Although the magic effects of the four legendary magicians are different, they can achieve "absolute defense" in a certain sense without exception!!

But this is only a temporary situation, because everyone's magic power is limited.

Every time Harvey regenerates, every time the evil dragon of resentment teleports, every time the curse spirit is triggered too late, every time Igula speaks, it will consume mana. When the mana runs out first, whose team will be the first to be eliminated.

People have now become a delicate game of offense and defense. Whoever can squeeze less magic power and consume more magic power from others will be the final winner! "The land that has been eroded by the lava should collapse"

"The building next to them just fell down to their position! Fountains are pouring out of the ground!"

Following the speeches of Igula and Yinzhi, the island under Cursed Spirit and Leba suddenly collapsed, the crumbling buildings on both sides collapsed, and several clear springs spewed out from under their feet.

Igula glanced at Yinzhi, and Yinzhi made a V-sign in return.

It's hard for Igula to describe this feeling. Whenever he wants to do something, Yinzhi can always keep up with the support immediately, which happens to form a perfect match with him, but does not make him feel overwhelmed, as if they are really close teammates.

If he lied to Yinzhi, he should take care of him. He killed Yinzhi to help set the fire, and more importantly, in the face of Igula's sharp vigilance, Yinzhi could always softly smooth his frizz. She was clearly the one Igura hated most. An arrogant and arrogant woman.

It was this short team formation that made Igula feel more comfortable than ever before, and made him deeply doubt what he was living in the past. If we stay with Otochi in the future, "That monster that teleports around is too troublesome, let's guide everyone to deal with the frivolous man in beach pants below.

Yinzhi whispered in Igula's ear: "His drum kit is so noisy, kill him."

This is exactly what Igura thinks. In this four-way melee, the evil shadow dragon will never be the loser.

Once you notice something is wrong, just teleport away and run away, no one can catch up. And Harvey was with him. Even if Igula didn't say it, Yinzhi would definitely see it. Therefore, the only team that could really solve the problem was the Curse Elf. "Don't you know him?" Igula asked back, "If it wasn't for your introduction, I wouldn't know that the two demons were named Longyuan and Lebad. I thought you were friends." This is what Amilo told me— "Everything Amilo told you"

"Because I don't have a follower like Amilo, I'm nothing, just an ordinary little girl." Yinzhi reached out and stroked Igula's bangs, "So it can only be Amilo who told me. If I know later More, that should be what Igula you told me. The sound of knowing is just right to show weakness, escape, intimacy, and hidden persuasion to please, every word, every word

The movements are like massaging Igula's tense nerves, making the fraudster think that he can still control the situation, even the devil. And this is the true goal of Yinzhi.

Yin Zhi knew very well that even if they could really besiege the bad party with three teams together, there was only a small probability that they would actually be able to reduce the enemy's personnel. In comparison, if Igula, a wild magician who does not belong to any party, can be persuaded to his own camp, that is the biggest benefit of this angel hunt. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com Although this game looks fierce, it is just the face of the demons. Even Yinzhi can't find a wonderful opportunity to kick the enemy out of this game. Suddenly, the world is illuminated by the golden rain. It suddenly dimmed.

Everyone raised their heads, but what caught their eyes was not the starry sky, but the ancient darkness of the boiling abyss.

It is an order of magnitude beyond what mortals can understand, directly awakening the fear of giants deep in the genes of the legendary magician. All the magicians stopped their activities and watched it fall silently, indescribable desperation permeated every one of them.

With an inch of soul, all desires, ideals, and cravings disappeared at this moment, and even the most basic desire to survive turned into a sigh.

Only the demons showed different expressions, Le Bad stopped playing the drums and his face became solemn, Long Yuan raised his eyebrows, Ye Jian tilted his head, only Yin Zhi's mouth turned up.

As the distance approached, everyone saw more details of "it", those ferocious chains and twisted black mist, but at the same time everyone entered, the visual range of "it" – countless pairs of breath-taking sights. Ge projected from the depths of the darkness. Although he didn't look at them at all, he just swept away, but the light was enough to make the souls of the magicians tremble.

They are all legendary magicians standing at the top of mortals, and they can look down on them, except for the six gods who rule the world, there is only one existence left. Those who break through the limits of mortals and step into the realm of gods

When I was very young, Igula was thinking about a question: the gods live in the kingdom of heaven, where do the demigods live? Don't they all live in the kingdom of heaven as angels, so there are no wild demigods?

At this moment, his childhood questions can finally be answered. The Lord of God lives in the kingdom of heaven, and the demigods obviously can only live in a hell!

Chapter 884: Temple of Magi

Latest website: Fili and Nia helped Ashewish leave the fire escape and came to the eighth floor of the building. As soon as they went out, they saw that the corridor was crowded with star warriors, blood mad hunters, and wolves, but the Six Nations Legion only Glancing at them, there was no other movement, and he continued to stare blankly at the sky. However, if they dared to take the opportunity to sneak attack, most of the Six Nations Legion would not stand stupidly and be beaten.

But the healing time alone was precious. They hid in the corner of a piano shop next to them and lay down, while Ash was treating his spine while checking Vichy's injuries.

Vichy couldn't move at all. He was hugged by Yaxiu like a doll. The muscles in his whole body were torn in large areas, the joints where he exerted force were shattered, and the bones of his arms were shattered. , her heart had long been overwhelmed and failed.

She may have created a record that has never been seen before and never came after: defending against the legendary ultimate move with the body of a mortal. The phantom wings were all broken, the magic power completely evaporated, and only relying on skills to block dozens of air-piercing bullets enough to penetrate the sanctuary, even Tamashi could not do such a thing-although Tamashi is a mortal Extreme, but Vichy is an ancient demigod who has fallen into mortal form. "Well done." Ash said casually.

"I hope you can still say this later." Vichy's tone was lazy, she stared at the sky, not caring about her injury, "It's about to start." Nia clenched her sword and turned her back to them, guarding The only notch in this corner. "So pretty," Phili murmured.

As the magician got closer and closer to hell, the four phantom wings behind him became more and more radiant, swaying and holy and bright.

Even if Yaxiu and the others were hiding in a place with a ceiling, they could still clearly see the magician who was about to step into the realm of the gods and the * that was about to crush the magician. Even if they closed their eyes, they could not avoid it, as if a demigod had been promoted. Rituals take precedence over everything else, forcing pop-ups to highlight in all senses. Raj what Kut.

Suddenly, a name appeared in everyone's mind, as if the virtual world was narrating for this grand event, introducing the name of the protagonist to all the audience. After all, whether it was successful or not, this was his last performance.

"What about the mysterious chain?" Ash suddenly asked, "Why didn't the mysterious chain break his virtual wings?" "Because the personality of the path of origin is far superior to the kingdom of stars."

Vichy explained: "You don't think he is still in the kingdom of stars, but in fact he is already on the road of origin. The main purpose of the Fanxing Law is to dare to launch a mysterious chain against him, which is equivalent to taking the kingdom of stars to hell, and the result is It's no better than an egg hitting a rock.'

As * fell, everyone could finally see the details of the bottom of hell. Four vertical and four horizontal chains crossed at the bottom, and the gaps between the chains were covered with Yan Hei's weird vines. When Rajesh approached, these Yan Hei vines slammed violently Inflation shot to attack Rajesh before * falls! "One more chain missing..." "What"

"It's nothing, don't care about touching me, look carefully. Even for me, every demigod promotion ceremony is a precious experience." "I'm treating you!" Yaxiu said angrily. : "Are those vines a trial?" "Ah, those are not trials, at most..." Vichy thought for a while, "Greetings from the predecessors."

While speaking, Rajesh had already taken out two revolver handguns. Obviously, the Star Kingdom has fully automatic weapons, but he actually chose the long-eliminated Revolver to rush to the most important battlefield. bang bang

Facing the rushing vines, Rajesh only fired two bullets, and then the two bullets exploded into hundreds of fragments, each fragment would tear a space node, each fragment would hit other fragments, and finally even A whole piece is like tearing open a picture scroll. The vines of Yan Hei were completely destroyed, and not even a trace of wreckage remained, but a strange transparent ice flow was generated, which froze the space in an instant, and Rajesh was about to be trapped in it!

“Ah, he was lucky, the last challenger was actually an ice magician.” Vichy paused and waited for a while, then turned his head to look at Ash: “Aren’t you going to ask?” “Aren’t you going to say?” Ash side He asked rhetorically while treating her arm.

“The dirt from the chains of the vines in hell, the dirtiest things will always accumulate and invade in the eyes of everyone.” Vichy said: “But it is the dirt of * after all, so the vines have a deathrattle feature, and they will store and destroy them. miracle, and cast it on the next death.”

“These frost miracles are the traces left by the last legendary magician who challenged the path of origin. Therefore, this is the greeting of the predecessors, and it is also the most insignificant threshold. If the miracles of the predecessors cannot be dealt with, then He is not even qualified to step into the realm of God. Boom

During the speech, the pure and transparent frozen field has been broken into the tiniest ice crystals; the unscathed Rush spreads out four imaginary quantities, double-holding long-tube revolvers, like an angel descending!

At this moment, there is no obstacle between him and hell! Rajesh took a deep breath, put away the long tube revolver, actively rushed to the falling hell, and stretched out his hands to fight against this unimaginable force.

Almost at the moment of contact, Rajesh was smashed into the smallest child powder by the huge impact of hell, and died silently! “Don’t worry.” Feeling the sudden force on Yaxiu’s hand, Vichy faintly said a word.

Although Rajesh died, his concave phantom wings did not disappear, but stuck to the outline of hell, like a fluttering phantom wing trying to carry a huge hell. When the four virtual wings gradually became longer and larger, a new soul light and shadow was born among the four wings. “What is this?” Ash murmured.

“This is stepping into the realm of the gods.” Vichy said, “Destroy the soul of mortals completely, and then use the virtual wings to absorb the origin of the virtual realm, and re-create a new one that completely suits you according to your own world view, life view, and magic view. , and a perfect soul with infinite possibilities.

“You should have felt long ago that our souls are not suitable for the residence of magic spirits, right?”

Yaxiu nodded. He has always felt that the way the magician receives the magic spirit is very awkward. In short, the magic spirit is stuffed into the soul, but the soul is neither solid nor liquid, and the magic spirit is stuffed like debris. In it, just thinking about Ash can understand why the spirits are always in a bad mood.

It can be used, but it is uncomfortable. It is like a three-in-one cleaning product with a bottle of shampoo, bath and facial cleanser. You can't say it can't be used, but you always feel that you can have a better experience. “It's because the sorcerer is something that shouldn't exist in this world.”

Vichy understated a violent argument: “The relationship between intelligent creatures and magic spirits should be equal. In the distant pastoral era, intelligent creatures and magic spirits would become companions and work and live together. Magic spirits are not meant to live in the souls of mortals. It exists inside, and mortals have never evolved the physiological structure that can control the magic spirit. It is just that the magician has to control the magic spirit, and he has no choice but to use the soul as a temporary resting place.”

Chapter 884: Temple of Magi

Latest website: Fili and Nia helped Ashewish leave the fire escape and came to the eighth floor of the building. As soon as they went out, they saw that the corridor was crowded with star warriors, blood mad hunters, and wolves, but the Six Nations Legion only Glancing at them, there was no other movement, and he continued to stare blankly at the sky. However, if they dared to take the opportunity to sneak attack, most of the Six Nations Legion would not stand stupidly and be beaten.

But the healing time alone was precious. They hid in the corner of a piano shop next to them and lay down, while Ash was treating his spine while checking Vichy’s injuries.

Vichy couldn’t move at all. He was hugged by Yaxiu like a doll. The muscles in his whole body were torn in large areas, the joints where he exerted force were shattered, and the bones of his arms were shattered. , her heart had long been overwhelmed and failed.

She may have created a record that has never been seen before and never came after: defending against the legendary ultimate move with the body of a mortal. The phantom wings were all broken, the magic power completely evaporated, and only relying on skills to block dozens of air-piercing bullets enough to penetrate the sanctuary, even Tamashi could not do such a thing-although Tamashi is a mortal Extreme, but Vichy is an ancient demigod who has fallen into mortal form. “Well done.” Ash said casually.

"I hope you can still say this later." Vichy's tone was lazy, she stared at the sky, not caring about her injury, "It's about to start." Nia clenched her sword and turned her back to them, guarding The only notch in this corner. "So pretty," Phili murmured.

As the magician got closer and closer to hell, the four phantom wings behind him became more and more radiant, swaying and holy and bright.

Even if Yaxiu and the others were hiding in a place with a ceiling, they could still clearly see the magician who was about to step into the realm of the gods and the * that was about to crush the magician. Even if they closed their eyes, they could not avoid it, as if a demigod had been promoted. Rituals take precedence over everything else, forcing pop-ups to highlight in all senses. Raj what Kut.

Chapter 885: 4 wing balance

Hell is still falling slowly, and the four phantom wings are obviously not enough to hold up hell. The light and shadow still condensing in the phantom wings seem to realize this, so he let the four phantoms continue to expand, and the phantoms are getting bigger and bigger. , expand to 100 meters kilometers, until it can wrap hell!

But at this moment, the light and shadow of the soul suddenly turned silver, and in addition to the silver virtual wings, the other three Xu Xi actually began to shrink. “The most dangerous moment has come.”

Wei Xi looked at the sky quietly: "If he is addicted to the perception of magic, he will not be able to complete the four-wing adjustment." "Four-wing adjustment"

"You should still remember how Xu Dao was constructed," said Vichy. "The essence of Xu Dao is the combination of knowledge and magic, so he is now expanding the dangerous nest, which means that if he is madly absorbing the knowledge contained in the virtual realm. Although it can only be temporarily expanded, the knowledge gained can actually increase his magic realm." Ash was a little confused: "Isn't this a good thing?"

"It's really a good thing. When every Ascendant discovers this, they will want to expand the Void to infinity, so that every magic faction can be promoted to the demigod realm. But don't forget, the danger is not what you want. A great philanthropist, on the contrary, the promotion of a magician to a demigod is actually something that enjoys the virtual world, but after the magician builds a soul body, the virtual world mistakenly thinks that the magician has become his own child."

"The advantage of this is that the virtual world will not hinder the promotion of the magician, but the disadvantage is that since it is a child, the virtual world will naturally try to control the magician."

"In order to resist the control of the virtual world, the magician needs to use the four virtual worlds to counteract each other, because each virtual wing is connected to each layer of virtual world. As long as the balance of the four wings is maintained, it means that the will of the four virtual worlds cannot prevail. .

Vichy noticed the evil in Yaxiu's eyes, so he nodded and said: "Yes, that's what you think. The virtual realm is not a unified whole, and each layer of the virtual realm is relatively independent. As a four-pillar * Touch, you should have a deep understanding of it."

Yaxiu suddenly thought that he didn't have any accident in the Sea of Knowledge and Time Continent, but when he arrived in the remote airspace, he was suddenly often targeted by the state of mind, and gave him strange affixes in the dream bubble.

The Mercury Trojan has also said before that the third and fourth layers of the virtual realm are particularly disgusted by the lack of the Four Pillars of God. If he hadn't been drawn into the realm of the stars, his adventures in Ruby Mountain would probably not have been very comfortable,

“Keeping the four wings evenly matched, the magician can maintain his will. This is one of the most dangerous stages of the promotion ceremony: the balance of the four wings.”

Vichy said: “You have to expand your Void Wings extremely well to be able to pass the promotion ceremony, but once you expand Void Wings, it’s easy to indulge in the infinite joy of acquiring knowledge. Believe me, it’s an unparalleled and precious experience, dying in There are countless people who can be promoted at this step.” “Can you only rely on personal will to support it?” Ash asked nervously.

“No.” Vichy’s answer was unexpected. “It actually has a lot to do with your major in sorcery.”

“If you major in magic and are extremely prosperous in the world, and everyone from silver to legend practice, then the difficulty of your four-guidance street will be reduced a lot, because you will feel that the four-layer virtual world can give you the same happiness, So you can easily maintain the four-wing balance.

“The reason for this is because the amount of knowledge of each layer of virtual realm is related to each layer of active magician. For example, if you major in space faction, then you are very easy to save the virtual world to expand and the other three Xi will be ignored by you, because the place with the highest concentration of space faction knowledge must be the remote airspace connected by the rainbow virtual wings.”

“When I was in the fourth quarter, because I majored in the soul and prophecy faction, there were very few magicians in the prophecy faction, and the soul faction was the major magic technique that the elf tribe Exi magicians would switch to major in, so on the whole Gold phantom wings, rainbow phantom wings, and different-color phantom wings are almost equally attractive to me. Except for paying special attention to the silver phantom wings, my balance is not particularly difficult.” “So.” Silver Void Wings that cover the sky “It seems that the gun art faction has not been popular for a long time.”

Although gunsmith is the current mainstream technique, it has been popular for less than a hundred years. More importantly, high-end Mi masters rarely major in gunplay, which means that gunsmiths are generally active in the sea of knowledge and the continent of time. Therefore, when Rassensh was absorbing knowledge, the rainbow wings and the different-colored Xi were almost unattractive to him. Only the silver wings and the golden wings could make him unable to extricate himself. His soul body was almost dyed silver. If it goes on like this... “What will happen to the magician if he fails in the four-wing balance?” Ash suddenly asked.

“To be honest, I don’t know either.” Vichy said calmly, “but the more popular saying among the demigods is that because of which virtual black balance you fail, you will become a virtual creature in some virtual realm. If you see a shadow evil dragon that can only appear in the distant airspace in the Time Continent, that’s probably the unlucky one.” Now, it seems that a virtual creature that is good at gunning will appear in the sea of knowledge.

On the other side of the city, Le Bad Maoruo sighed softly, turning his head away, not holding his hands, the silver wings that wrapped * in the sky.

But the cursed elf girl came over and shook his arm, showing pleading eyes, Leba scratched her head, and after thinking about it, she still reached out to her waistband. He plucked an orange feather from the seventh virtual wing.

“Rajesh, you are really the first person who can advance your salary from me. UU reading www.uukanshu.com” Le Bad blew his feathers, “I will only help you once.”

When the orange feathers dissipated in the air, the golden Xi of La Shishi suddenly expanded to the extreme, and it was evenly matched with the silver Xi, and the brilliance of the soul suddenly became half silver and half gold.

Rashid seems to wake up because of this, he slowly shrinks the golden haloxie and the silver phantom, expands the rainbow phantom and the different-color phantom, until the four sinuses are balanced, and his brilliance returns to pure white.

However, * was still falling, and he had to continue to expand the four phantom wings, but with the previous lessons, he grew very cautiously, until the * was about to be pressed down in front of the tall building, his four point wings expanded to the level of vertical and horizontal The staggered cross wraps the round shell of * from bottom to top! When * stops falling, the four huge phantom wings emit a blazing light, coloring the stars and everything! “Success,” Ash murmured. He has successfully stepped into the realm of God.”

Although Ash and Rajesh were still life-and-death enemies until a few minutes ago, if Rajesh performed the promotion ceremony, Ash still subconsciously hoped that he would succeed.

Others in the woolly sheep overcome the virtual realm and break through the limit. Even a mudblood magician like Yaxiu will have a sense of pride and weakness. In the future, they can even go out and brag about the reason why La Shishi can become a demigod. I can't do anything without it. "Oh, he succeeded." Vichy said, "He successfully carried the first hell. The first?"

Yaxiu raised his head abruptly, his sight passed through the ceiling, through the first child hell, until Ruo Jian in the farther deep space, another layer of * fell!

Chapter 886: not sarcastic about your love life

In the civilization of every country and the culture of every race, a legendary place will be mentioned invariably, which is the destination of life, the answer to death, and the agreed end point of all things in the world.

Its name is, the sinners of the sixfold * suffer in hell, the good people sleep in hell, but few people think about one question-

People will continue to be born, but the dead will not disappear. If the six hells really exist, if it can really hold all death, how big is it?

Now, here comes the answer.

When the second * fell, the soul body that Rajesh had just constructed and his four phantom wings that covered the sky were instantly shattered and vanished into ashes.

But this time Yaxiu was not in a hurry. Sure enough, a few seconds later, a new Void Wing and a new soul body appeared. Four larger and more dazzling Void Wings than before were blooming, trying to prevent the fall of the second hell.

However, Vichy raised his eyebrows: "If he hasn't reacted, he can only stop here and go back to the Sea of Knowledge to be a promising virtual creature."

"Why?" Ash asked. "Isn't it possible for him to resist the pressure of the double hell?"

"Yes, but he did it in the wrong way." Vichy said, "If he doesn't know what the * is carrying hell, the second * will definitely overwhelm him."

Sure enough, no matter how huge Rajesh's four wings expanded, even if it could wrap the outline of the bottom hell, the double * was always slowly descending.

Although I don't know what counts as failure, anyone with a discerning eye can see that Rajesh is getting farther and farther from success.

A faint sadness spread in the hearts of the magicians. Although their positions were different and the relationship was hostile, stepping into the realm of the gods was the common goal of all the magicians. Seeing that Rajesh was about to die there, others would inevitably feel the same. Frustrated and lost.

Only Vichy remained in high spirits.

"Thousands of years have passed, and the promotion ceremony has not changed much, which is great, my experience is still useful.

Yaxiu couldn't help but feel a little sour: "It must be easy for you to be promoted to a demigod, right?"

"They say you don't care about touching, can you listen to me a little bit?" Vichy said angrily, "I've always been unwilling to do so.

This secret poison was deduced because the promotion ceremony of the demigods was too dangerous, and it was too dangerous for me to die.

suspect. Don't say that I have only one fire-defense magic spirit left in my entire net worth, even if I am fully prepared in the future.

The two promotions are also close to death, each time is almost dead. ”

“His current fate is the fate of you and me in the future. I am destined to die with you, the stupid master.

Country Household Building

“His current fate is the fate of you and me in the future. I am destined to die with you, the stupid master.”

“If it weren't for the difference between your ribs and chicken bones, I would definitely kick you away.” Yaxiu was so angry that he asked while treating, “But why don't you look afraid?”

Vichy looked at a fool: “Have you forgotten that I have a soul box in addition to reality?”

“Yeah, you still have a second life,” Ash suddenly said, “so you say that you finally succeeded, I will die with you, and then you will be able to break free from the ruby chain after you resurrect.

“As expected of a ghost prophet, I really am not your opponent.” Yaxiu's tone was flat, and he couldn't see his anger.

Vichy stared at him, the corners of his mouth turned up slightly: “Aren't you very angry? Why can a person like me who is full of evil and selfishness survive, while someone like you who just wants to embrace ordinary happiness has to die?”

“No.” Ash paused: “It's not completely absent, there is still a little bit.

“But I know very well that if it wasn't for you, we would be dead now. Even if we will die in the future, you really fought for me for that life, and I should be grateful instead of resenting you.”

“My only regret is that I couldn’t drag you to hell. Now I’m really justified and want to suffer in hell. I don’t even have the qualifications to defend myself. After all, before you go to hell, “Let go of the ghost prophet” That charge is enough to put me above the billions of sinners in hell. ”

Wei Xi looked at him seriously, as if to confirm whether I was telling the truth or not, and suddenly smiled, his eyes were full of seductiveness: “Perhaps this news will make you feel better, even if I am reborn. Poison also follows me. That is, I only get two chances at most, but * it.

Yaxiu thought for a while, then nodded: “Thank you, that is indeed the best news next to saving me. So, why don’t you seem to be so afraid, but rather happy?”

“Because I’m afraid it won’t increase the possibility of me going through the promotion ceremony.” Vichy replied, “But the promotion ceremony hasn’t changed much. My future experience may increase by one, one ten thousandth, one hundred thousand thousand. Shouldn’t I be happy with a 1 in 1 chance of surviving?”

“Perhaps you didn’t notice – we are now in the kingdom of stars, trying to * the achievements of Master Fanxing, which is actually far more likely to take our lives than the promotion ceremony. If Master Fanxing decides to overturn the table, we will There is no chance of surviving at all.”

“God is mainly a thousand times more dangerous than the path of origin, and the biggest enemy of a magician is only a magician.”

“I have experienced more life-and-death crises than you think.” Vichy Youyou said, “Unwilling to be an extraordinary magician like me, if you want to compete for the highest hope, you must live under the blade. If there is a piece outside the heart

Hesitating for a moment, I have long since died without a place to be buried, and maintaining ambition and self-confidence all the time is the most basic survival quality for a person like me. ”

“Even if I have little hope of passing the promotion ceremony, I will do my best to step into the path of origin. Let the odds be damned, the word miracle is for me, a magician who leads to the highest!”

It wasn't just Ash, even Niya and Feili couldn't help but look at Vichy in admiration.

Bo Yaxiu reacted quickly: "Don't be moved by the two of you, she deliberately said very inspirational to invade your mental internal friction, but her identity card is a bad person, no matter how she whitewashes her, she is just a very bad bad person, Don't be fooled by her"

Vichy's head was next to her chest, and he looked up at her: "Are you moved by this?"

"Yes, it makes my blood boil." Yaxiu said angrily: "When I think of being able to drag a magician with such a firm mind to be buried with me, I feel that it is worth going to hell."

However, Ash also restrained the melancholy fear in his heart, raised his head and carefully observed Rajesh's promotion ceremony. As they spoke, the sky was quietly changing.

Rajesh's silver virtual wings suddenly began to straighten and extend, until it turned into a shining silver belt, wrapping around the first

A circle of heavy hell, it looks like the * is tied with a silver belt.

However, my golden wings also bypassed the first * and turned into a splendid golden belt.

Prison is also tightly bound. When he completes those two steps, * will no longer fall, but because of the wings of silver and gold,

The wings are all used to wrap hell, so only the rainbow virtual wings and the heterochromatic virtual wings are left to divide the sky.

"What's going on?" Ash murmured, "His Void Wing..."

"As a magician who suddenly accepted the promotion ceremony, it's really good that he can react." Vichy's tone was full of appreciation: "Actually, if you think about it carefully, you can understand that it is never the magician who bears the hell, but the magician himself."

Our virtual wings. The larger the area where the virtual wing touches hell, the less pressure the * brings. ”

“I couldn’t stop falling just now, just because his virtual wings didn’t touch the second * at all. Now he uses

The silver virtual wing bears the first layer of hell, and the golden virtual wing bears the second layer of virtual wing, which is indeed the right way, but...”

“His golden virtual wings are much longer than silver virtual wings.” Yaxiu also saw it.

The first * is on the bottom, and the second * is on the top. If the perimeters of the two hells wrapped by the virtual wings are equal, the golden virtual wings will have an extra length to bypass the first hell.

“Yes, that is the second stage of the four-wing balance.” Wei Xi smiled: “The virtual wings are destined to be of different lengths, and a dynamic balance must be achieved to avoid being controlled by the will of the virtual world.”

“Wait, then he can balance as long as the four phantom wings are the same as the longest wing?” Ash was a little puzzled: “It’s just that the phantom wings that endure the * above will be a little more.” “Because His virtual wings are really too long.”

Vichy explained: “Every time he grows a phantom wing, the speed at which he absorbs knowledge will be one point faster, and the process cannot be stopped. When his phantom wings are long enough to bind hell, then he is no longer absorbing knowledge, But knowledge is flooding him.”

“Infinitely expand the virtual wings, and the final result is to become a dementia magic spirit.”

“At that point, it’s too late for him to shorten the phantom wings, and increasing the phantom wings will drown his sanity in the deep sea of knowledge. The correct approach here is to use the phantom wings that will attract him the most to bind the bottom one. Hell, that can limit the main flow of knowledge.” Vichy glanced at the silver virtual wings that wrapped the first hell: “Well done.”

“Wait,” Ash’s eyes widened: he seems to be continuing to expand the Silver Void Wing?” “As expected, they are all greedy magicians. “Vichy laughed. “Greedy”

The four-wing balance is only about whether you can be promoted, but also about the result after promotion: the temple of magic. ‘ said Vichy

Said: “Although the four wings will return to their original state after the end, the state of the four wings at the end will directly affect your spells.

The level of the temple. ”

“The larger the virtual wings, the larger the space of the magic temple; the more balanced the four wings, the greater the potential of the magic temple. Although it is not a method without increasing space and potential, it is extremely difficult to obtain.”

“The level of the temple can be roughly divided into upper, middle, lower, and heavenly positions. The most low-level temple can only accommodate one * at most. You may say that it is meaningless if there is no god, but even if there is no god, the more the temple is. Large, the scale of the spells that can be constructed by magic spirits is also smaller and larger, and it can even evolve miraculous power. The lower temple can only accommodate the construction of a hundred magic spirits, while the median temple can accommodate the construction of thousands of magic spirits. .”

“The difference in the number of magic spirits is ten times, and the power of miracles is enough to open up twenty or thirty times. Now, you should have a little bit of understanding.

Understand the importance of the temple, but in addition to space, the potential of the temple is more important. ”

“If your four wings are poorly balanced, for example, your rainbow phantom wings are much longer than other phantom wings, your temple is mostly made of colored glass, and the other magic spirits will be more active except for the three-wing magic spirit. They will all be dead, and even when you don’t pay attention, it will happen that the three-winged magic spirit kills other magic spirits.”

“That’s because Rainbow Void Wing has become the main body of the temple construction, greatly enhancing the three-wing magic spirit and greatly weakening other magic spirits.”

Yaxiu asked, “Isn’t it enough for me to make the Illusory Wings the longest? When it comes to the demigods, I should only be able to use the four-winged magic spirit.”

“This will happen to the second situation.” Vichy laughed: “Your four-winged magic faction with the largest proportion of spirituality will bully and destroy other factions. If they are all the same magic faction, they will continue indefinitely. subdivision, with purity

Establish a majority and a minority to keep fighting. ”

“The biggest impact of the seven-fold imbalance on the temple is that it will make some magic spirits extremely active. In an extremely unbalanced temple, the magic spirits will fight each other until only the last one is left. If the magician inserts a new magic spirit, will continue

Fight until you can monopolize the entire temple.

“Vishy paused, opened his innocent eyes and looked at Ash:” I’m sorry, I’m talking about the temple, not the Satire your master about your love life. ” puff.

Feili could hardly hold back her laughter, and Nia’s shoulders shook, but she didn’t make a sound.

Ya Xiu’s mouth twitched with anger, but he still had a way to say something, so he took a deep breath: “It’s okay, I forgive you.”

Satisfied, Vichy continued: “But if the four wings tend to be balanced, the temple will be more diverse, and the magic spirits will not only be able to coexist harmoniously, but also the efficiency of constructing miracles will be greatly reduced. Like an unbalanced lower-level temple, he makes the magic The spirit is constructing a technique, and when I turn around, the spirit has already started fighting.”

“The bigger the space, the more diverse the construction, and the higher the level of the temple. “And I,” Vichy said, “I used to have a high-level temple that was second only to the heaven.

“Yeah. UU reading www.uukanshu.com” Yaxiu yin and yang strangely said: “Is this your temple ever inhabited by gods?” “It’s up to you.” Vichy glared at him.

Don’t believe her, how could she, a demigod, be angry because of this, she must be pretending to satisfy my provocative thoughts... Although Ash is very sober, she is really happy to be able to suppress Vichy’s arrogance.

At this moment, the third * fell. With the previous experience, Rajesh F was scattered, but quickly extended the rainbow virtual wings to wrap the eighth hell, and quickly stopped

When the fourth level of * fell, Ash suddenly realized a problem: “If every fish is properly covered with one emptiness, but he only has four emptiness!”

“Yeah, he only has four Void Wings.” Vichy showed a subtle smile: “So, the next step is the most interesting part of the demigod promotion ceremony—”

“Unbearable is hell.”

Chapter 887: The biggest enemy of the magician is only the magician

Rajesh suddenly remembered what happened a long time ago in the three-year cycle.

From his fall into reincarnation to understanding the intention of the music master, there is actually a period of ‘rebellion’ in the middle.

To put it simply, because he was punished for being caught in reincarnation, he wished that other immortals would also take the initiative to make mistakes and commit crimes, so that when the one-year free period ended, the other party would naturally have to fall into reincarnation and suffer.

I'm not doing well, why are you doing better than me?

I made a mistake

Chapter 888: Void wings grow automatically

The Sea of Knowledge Chapter 888 of the Magician's Manual The failure of Rajesh's automatic growth of virtual wings seems to represent the phased end of this angel hunt. After all, after seeing the trial of hell, the angel hunt seems to have become boring, and it has changed since then. It's garbage time, everyone just wants to hurry up and go home, and indulge in the feeling of the death of the rabbit and the fox. However, for the four of them, the next moment is the most dangerous moment.

Vichy's virtual wings were all broken and the serious injuries were not healed. Fili and Nia also took part in it. Although Rajesh's promotion ceremony interrupted the Angel General, it did not stop the Six Nations Legion from continuing to be violent. When they came back to their senses, the building was already crowded with high-level troops.

They should have escaped when Rajesh was performing the promotion ceremony, but at that time Ash was seriously injured, and Vichy's whole body was almost like water. Even if Phili and Nya ran behind them, they would still run.

not far

"If we had known that saving you would fall into such a desperate situation, we should have left you and run away." Ash said.

"I used to master a miracle, and the name was called."

Vichy replied calmly: "The effect is to let the enemy predict my actions, and then I predict his prediction and count him into my trap."

"A lot of people's last words before they die are, 'If I knew this would happen, I should have done it'." Vichy gave him a sideways look: "As a last word, your format is very standard."

"Then what are your last words?"

"I haven't thought about it yet, what do you think of this sentence?"

Vichy raised the iron bar to block Ash's dagger, sparks flying in the dim fire escape.

"Vichy," Ash stared straight at her "I don't mind your offense, but I also said no jokes" so I know how to sting you. "Vichy said calmly, "You were the one who provoked me first."

Seeing that the two men suddenly stopped on the way to escape, Niya didn't react, but Feili looked so anxious that she was about to cry, and suddenly stammered, "My last words are the words of Mr. Rajesh just now. The dust and mist at the end can also benefit the mountains and the sea; at the end of the firefly candle, I hope to brighten the sun and the moon]. Although I am weak and have been dragging my feet, I am really happy to be able to help, even if I die, it is definitely not worthless."

Yaxiu and Vichy turned their heads and glanced at her. At this moment, the footsteps of the Six Nations Legion could be heard from above. Vichy let out a turbid breath and went downstairs first, "Don't be stupid, you won't die here, and neither will I. It fell short at the last minute."

"That's right." Ash motioned them to follow, "No one will die here, the biggest enemy has been resolved, and the rest are just some trash."

Feili breathed a sigh of relief, clenched her fists and smiled sweetly: "Well! We will definitely be able to cooperate well!" As long as someone complains less, it is not impossible to cooperate. "Vichy said." Did someone forget his identity as a maid? Ashe replied, "It's fine if you don't comfort your master when he's in a bad mood, you have to make jokes that cross the line."

“It’s not 12 o’clock yet, you can either break your promise to take back my vacation, or allow me to lose my temper!” Vichy frowned, “You pull the chain, and I will immediately turn you back into a well-behaved and obedient maid. Warm the bed, the maid can satisfy you with anything! Tools can be anything but people have temperaments, especially a demigod who is stuffed into a human body!

Nia called out softly, and they turned their heads to see Fili shivering and looking at them, clenching their lips and daring not to speak. Ashe and Vichy stopped speaking, and ran all the way to the bottom of the fire escape. A group of bombs came on them. Star warriors and crows killed.

These enemies are extremely difficult to deal with when they are not injured, let alone half-life now. Rao is Yaxiu and Vichy fighting desperately, but the surging tide of the Six Nations Legion started them, not only failed to kill them, but they suffered a few more injuries.

Vichy turned his head and saw the Little Ruby Mountain in the central open space of the building. He found that there was no Legion of the Six Nations standing on it, and thought, “Let’s get closer.” Ash didn’t speak, and silently and Vichy pushed the battle line to Little Ruby Mountain. At a certain distance, they immediately noticed a strange change. Bomb.

Whenever Yaxiu made an effective attack, a shotgun shot from nowhere would pierce the target he was attacking, and the lethality was extremely astonishing, even a fully-armed star fighter would be instantly penetrated.

Vichy can also trigger this effect, but not Phili and Nya. Sure enough. Vichy murmured: “So it is. What does “Axiu” mean?

“In Ruby Hill, there are occasional ‘festivals’.”

Vichy explained: “Although there is no unified name, it can barely be called “Flame Festival”, “Frost Festival”, “Sword Art Festival”, and “Heart Festival”. In these festivals, every attack by the magician will trigger the festival special effect, if your spell faction is consistent with the festival, it can be the icing on the cake and perfectly matched, it is simply a virtual world to help you cast spells.

“And during the festival period, there are often a large number of virtual creatures and magician projections. The magicians can almost easily crush these enemies with the special effects of the festival. In addition to obtaining rich resources, they can also increase the speed of the virtual wings. The only downside is that the phantom wings that grow during festivals are often dyed by festivals. For example, in the festival of fire, even if you are a water magician, your phantom wings are very likely to be stained with fire red.

“Even in my time, the magicians were used to the existence of the Ruby Mountain festival, and not many people thought about why there was a magic festival.” Vichy glanced at the little Ruby Mountain behind, “but

Now it seems that these magic festivals are not much different from real festivals.

She smiled softly: “Probably to remember those pioneers who have passed away.”

Backed by Little Ruby Mountain; Yaxiu and Vichy slaughtered the Legion of the Six Nations like cutting melons and vegetables, and their attacks were purely for the purpose of triggering the special effects of gun bullets. Even if they just add to the enemy a little bit, there will be a bullet from a blind spot that will pierce through their enemy. It was almost as if Rajesh were fighting alongside them.

When the Six Nations Legion suddenly turned into various colors of brilliance and disappeared into the air, they didn't react for a while, and after a few seconds, Niya suddenly said “It's over” ...Yes.

Yaxiu glanced at the building that was full of scabs, skinny and broken walls. When the Six Nations Legion disappeared, the building suddenly quieted down, leaving only a faint smell of blood spreading.

Above this building is an office building, and below it is a commercial center. Even if the Six Nations Legion will avoid these ordinary people, the aftermath of the fight between Ash and Rajesh is enough to make these lives disappear silently and unknowingly.

The reassured Fili slumped on the ground, and she turned her head to see a hand exposed under a piece of rubble, and blood was slowly seeping out from it. She stared blankly at this scene, then slowly looked around for a week, leaning against Little Ruby Mountain as if she had lost her strength, looking up at the familiar starry sky through the broken skylight.

When the last drop of golden rain fell into their golden chalice, it caused the effect of turning stone into gold, and the nectar inside turned into various colors: Yaxiu and Niya’s are sword-colored, Vichy’s is soul blue, Phili is a star bright blue. The golden rain has stopped, and the colored beams of light in the distance have disappeared; the angel hunt is coming to an end, and it is time for the celebration of the spoils of Xiti.

Just don’t know why, none of the four people here are happy, and even Vichy is not as excited as usual. Maybe it was because she knew that the spoils would be looted by Yaxiu, she thought.

After sorting out his mood, Vichy took over his Holy Grail and said calmly: “Drink it quickly, I don’t know if there is a time limit. In case the Holy Grail disappears, I don’t want to hear you say what I should have done if I knew it would be like this.

Ash suddenly said, “Let’s have a toast.”

Vichy looked at Yaxiu sideways, Yaxiu avoided her gaze and said, “We have faced a near-death crisis several times, but every time we gritted our teeth and persisted until there was a turning point, we always supported each other and never gave up, that’s why we can be together. Living to the end, shouldn’t we celebrate this? He paused, met Vichy’s eyes, and took the initiative to raise the Holy Grail and hand it over: “Let’s do okay”

For some reason, Vichy felt a little funny, a little angry, and a little helpless. She raised the chalice to clink glasses with Ash, and hummed, “Of course.” Fili immediately felt better, and raised the chalice to clink with them: “Celebrate that I can finally fight with you!” Nia hesitated for a moment, but still joined in Clink glasses: “Celebrate we survived.”

Vichy’s fighting spirit is high, “Celebrate that I will break free from the chains and kill Ash and then lead to the Supreme to hold the great scepter.” Ash smiled, he looked at the bullet casings on the ground, and said, “Celebrate our victory over a powerful The opponent. The four people raised their heads and drank the nectar of the Golden Holy Grail beside the Little Ruby Mountain. All the injuries were healed in an instant, the depleted magic power was instantly abundant, and the body and soul were also growing at a high speed.

Instead of falling asleep, they could clearly feel the changes in their bodies. UU reading www.uukanshu.com When Niya and Feili were immersed in their better and better changes, Yaxiu's face suddenly turned pale.

"Looks like you've found it." Vichy reached out and touched Ash's back, "This is the consequence of seeing hell." "The power you have always relied on will become the curse you fear the most." Miss Phili, Miss Servey, you turn your heads." Fili pointed to herself, "I also want me to be not a devil." Vichy "But do you have the heart to let Miss Servey be excluded by the three of us?"

Feili thought of it right, and went to hold Niya's arm. The two of them clearly hated each other dozens of minutes ago, but after the common adventure of the fire escape, their relationship has grown by leaps and bounds. Niya is not happy with Fili's closeness, but she does not refuse.

When they turned their heads, Ash unfolded his virtual wings and turned to look at the little ruby mountain next to him.

Through the reflection of Little Ruby Mountain, he saw that in addition to the seventh phantom wing that continued to grow and the fourth phantom wing that had been condensed more than half, the silver phantom wing that should have been completely folded by the mysterious chain grew three feathers at this time.

Even in the gap of observation, Ashe watched the fourth silver feather grow. The virtual wings are growing automatically.

“Looks like I can’t fight anymore.”

Seeing the golden rain stopped and the bright stars occupying the sky again, Yinzhi patted Igula’s buttocks like an old Siji, hugged his waist and said, “Let’s go, let’s chat with them.

Igula glared at her, but still flew over behind her back.

Coincidentally, Harvey also came here with Ye Yuan on his back, but Harvey had already exited the icy-cold state of fire and returned to the appearance of a black-skinned and curly brick mover.

“You look better when you’re a corpse,” said Igula.

“Thank you,” Harvey was very pleased. “I think so too.”

Yinzhi covered her mouth and snickered, and Igula rolled her eyes helplessly.

The Longyuan side and the happy and bad side were at both ends, but when they saw the actions of Igula and others, they also gathered together, and the four teams faced each other at a safe distance.

“Happiness is bad, I feel sorry, I know you must be very sad.” Yinzhi said, “But you have to bear with it, because this is just the beginning, you will be completely out sooner or later, so you have to get used to it sooner or later. ”

“I don’t care at all, I had expected it.” Leba was the only demon standing in front of the magician, and the cursed elf girl was floating behind him, “Yinzhi you are lucky this time, your magician and Yejian The magician you know, or we will definitely be the first to besiege you.

When Igula and Harvey join forces, the demons immediately recognize that they are a gang. LeBad would say that, but it’s not their secret alliance, but it has always been a self-evident consensus to join forces to crowd out the Gospel team. Ye Jian tilted his head and looked at Yinzhi with a small smile on his lips, apparently tacitly acquiescing to the bad music. Yinzhi raised his eyebrows: “See you at night, our cooperation is so successful this time, why don’t we join forces to deal with these three-pointed and octagonal ugly monsters in the future?” Okay. ” Ye Jian smiled and said, “I’m fine.

Le Bad put his hands on his chest, calmly watching them cheat.

“Boring.” Long Yuan took the young magician away, “Next time we meet, we will decide between life and death.”

Le Bad and the cursed elf girl left silently, and after saying hello to Igula, Harvey also left with Ye Jian. Igula looked at the backs of them leaving and asked, “Does such a test make sense?”

“It doesn’t make sense, I just want to meet other demons.” Yinzhi touched Igula’s head: “It doesn’t make sense to do anything, little Igula. You know, don’t always think about conspiracies in your mind, it will break of.”

“However, some meaningless things may become meaningful at some point. The point is to accumulate little by little, and push little by little. Sooner or later, the stones will become as unshakable as mountains, and the creeks will converge. Jiang He is so unstoppable, isn’t that more interesting than conspiracy?”

Igula nodded thoughtfully, and Yinzhi puchi-laughed: “I’m just talking nonsense, do you take it seriously? You, you think what I said is meaningful, this is a cure for a disease, and a beautiful girl can say it. nonsense

“Come on, let’s go back to Amilo.”

They flew all the way back to the hiding place where Amilo was hidden, and Igula arranged a miracle of traps around Amilo, which was enough to hinder the assault of the Six Nations Legion. Because Amilo drank Yinzhi’s Holy Grail before, Amilo’s Holy Grail naturally stayed, and it was already full of nectar at this time.

Yinzhi took Amilo’s Holy Grail and turned to look at Igula, “In order to prevent me from falling asleep after drinking it, I’d better tell you little Igula first. Don’t worry, I’m not warning you not to do it, I believe in little Igu very much. La, you will definitely take good care of the sleeping beautiful girl.”

Igula raised his eyebrows, “What did you say?”

“This is a meaningful sentence.” Yinzhi’s lips were pressed against the edge of the Holy Grail, and his tone changed in vain: “Do you choose to follow me, or choose to be crushed to death by hell?”

[Secret Poison of Hell] “Number of infected people: 160” “Secret Poison Reinforcement Level: 160%”
“Secret Poison Current Effect:

① The magician’s four virtual wings grow super fast (the enhancement level reaches 300% to obtain extreme enhancement, when it drops to 100% for relief, when it drops to 50%, it becomes a gain effect);

② Non-artists (completely unable to connect to the virtual world) quickly forget the secret poison and related content, until they wake up again after becoming a sorcerer.

③ Immediately after the four wings of the magician are complete, carry out the ritual of carrying hell. When Ash saw the details of the secret poison of hell, he finally understood why Vichy was always reluctant to deduce this secret poison.

The most terrifying thing about the secret poison of * is that it cannot escape. Your Void Wings will immediately become sensible, growing super fast every minute and every second. It seems like a good thing that a magician can’t ask for, but once the four wings are complete, * will immediately come to you.

It’s like final exams, death, growth, and all that you can’t control.

You can’t stay the semester, you can’t live, you can’t be a kid. You have to move on.

In other places, the magician can only do nothing to wait for * to come, which is why Vichy said they are dead. But they were in the kingdom of stars, and they had a chance to breathe.

“The miracle of breaking the Void Wing is only common in hell, and it is almost impossible for mortals to do this.” Vichy said, “But the mysterious chains of the Star Kingdom just happen to allow us to break the Void Wing at no cost.”

“Although it hurts the soul a lot, it’s not worth mentioning compared to death, it’s just...” In the past, Vichy would definitely reveal the cruelest truth without hesitation.

But maybe she was a little tired, she suddenly lost the mood to play, and said casually: “You know what I’m going to say.”

“I know. Ash said softly, “However, why are there so many people infected with the secret poison of hell?”

“Because as long as you step into the realm of the gods, the automatic growth of the virtual wings is no longer a bad thing.”

Vichy said: “Although demigods can completely consume the secret poison, more demigods leave the secret poison of hell, and regard Void Wings as a magical resource for infinite regeneration.”

At this time they left the building and went to the street outside. Vehicles crowded the road and pedestrians passed out on the side of the road, but now that the rain has stopped, they should be awake soon.

“I gotta go.”

Niya said abruptly, everyone was startled, and then Feili immediately took her hand: “Why?”

“Isn’t the reason for the wanted criminal enough?” Niya replied calmly.

“But Ash can definitely protect you!” Fili said seriously: “Don’t you believe him? There is no need to leave. I will play with you every day and practice swordsmanship with you!”

Niya seemed to be moved, but still shook her head: “I don’t accept any help from him.”

“But, but, just treat it as if I could help you, okay?” Phili flashed: “Axiu promised to fulfill all my wishes. My wish is to let you live in a safe and comfortable place. You don’t accept him. help, accept my help!”

“Do you think I’m the kind of person who deceives myself?” Niya said coldly. “I’m not you, and I won’t be a pet for others.”

Fili blinked and muttered, “I can fight alongside Ash!”

“That’s a battle pet, okay?” Nia shook off Fili’s hand and glanced at Ash: “I’m leaving.”

“Yeah.” Ash had expected this, and waved goodbye to her.

Niya didn’t accept his help from the beginning, even if the relationship eased now, she wouldn’t accept it, because what she cared about was not comfort at all, but a hidden place where she could feel at ease.

Even if she really believed in Yaxiu, she wouldn’t be able to change her life habits for a while. But now if she was in trouble, at least she might turn to Ash for help.

Thinking of this, Ash shouted, “Niya, wait, I’ll give you my mobile number.”

But when she heard Yaxiu’s words, Niya walked faster and even ran. Ash had no choice but to signal Vichy and Fili to wait in place. Run away.

He saw Nya turning into an alley, and he turned in as well.

The sound of footsteps in the alley soon stopped because the people running in front had already stopped and waited.

“Why are you running so fast?” Ash walked up to Niya and asked strangely, “I just want to give you my cell phone number, you can call me if you have anything in the future.”

Nia replied, “I’m fine.”

“I mean, if something happens to you later_”

“I said, I’ll be fine!”

Yaxiu blinked and hesitated for a while, “Then you can find me if you’re okay.”

This time Niya finally didn’t refute, Yaxiu waited for a while and said, “No pen, why don’t you take out your phone and remember? I’m afraid you will remember wrongly.

100%

“...My mobile phone has been broken long ago.” Niya turned her head, “The mobile phone card is a real-name system, I don’t have one.”

Yaxiu thought for a while, and put his mobile phone directly into her hand: “Then you use mine, I will send you a number tomorrow when I change the mobile phone, or you can directly call “Fili” and “Rose” in the communication , “Vichy”, “Aunt Blonde”, “Son Black”, everyone in there can find me. ”

Niya eyebrows a lemon “You still have a son”

...that’s two of my friends who respect me as they respect their father, so that’s why I made that note.

Nia checked her phone and raised her eyebrows: “Your pet and your maid often send you messages.”

“That’s Fili!” Ash’s tone increased: “If it’s just a joke, it’s fine, don’t call her that in normal communication.”

“Pet pet pet pet pet pet pet! She is your pet!” Niya instantly exploded: “I’m going to say, why do you care about me!?”

Yaxiu sighed, he turned his head and glanced at the alley, and said, "That's it, I'll contact you later, you pay attention to safety, see you next time."

When Yaxiu turned around and took one step, two steps, three steps, the familiar resistance came from behind again, as if something hooked him.

He turned his head to look at Niya, who was wiping the corner of his clothes, and asked, "Is there anything else?"

Nia bit her lower lip, looked down at the ground, looked up at him, and then slowly turned her eyes away.

"I gotta go."

"Yeah." Ash nodded. "I know, I won't stop you."

,please

Nia blushed and raised her voice a little, "I'm leaving."

Yaxiu thought for a moment, then asked tentatively, "Actually, you don't want to leave? Are you waiting for me to keep you?"

"No! I must leave, I will never accept any help from you!"

Nia said decisively, "I'm not that kind of pet... Fili."

Ash was confused, "Then what do you think?"

Nia pressed her lips together; her face with the scar on the cross under her red hair was shy and angry at the same time, but her eyes were timidly fixed on Ash like a newborn fawn, wrapped in a layer of vagueness. water mist.

“I’m leaving.” She repeated weakly, as if she was about to cry, but the three fingers of her right hand still rubbed the corner of Ashe’s clothes, as if Ashe would not let him go for a day without understanding.

If I knew it would be like this, I should have studied hard with Igula... Looking at Niya, who was strong and lost, although Ash still didn’t understand, he vaguely felt what she wanted.

One hand went over her waist and the other into her hair, and Ash gently took Niya into his arms. He felt that Niya’s body was tense and very nervous, but in fact he was also very nervous. Not only did he not understand Niya’s mood, he didn’t even know how he should be feeling.

Niya didn’t move like a piece of wood, didn’t reach out to hug him, just silently clinging to his body, with such force that it seemed like she was trying to push him away. Yaxiu felt angry again, and there was a hint of helplessness, so she had to hug Niya tightly, her petite body was almost rubbed into Yaxiu.

I don’t know how long it took, Yaxiu heard two coughs and coughs in his arms, he immediately let go, and then Niya quickly left his arms, turned around and faced him with the back of his head.

“I gotta go.”

After that, Niya left quickly along the alley, her red hair was flowing and her steps were brisk, and even if she couldn’t see her face, she could feel the rest of her good mood.

Ash scratched his head, turned to leave the alley, and saw Vichy leaning against the wall at the corner of the alley.

“Just say what you want to say.” Ash pouted, “It’s still your vacation now, whatever you want.”

“No, I don’t think you’ve done anything wrong. On the contrary, I think you’ve done it right.” Vichy patted him on the shoulder.

“What’s the meaning”

“I thought you understood what I meant.” Vichy said, “Niya is the projection of Jian Ji, right?”

Yaxiu didn’t even think about being able to hide the ghost prophet, and nodded.

“That’s right, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com It’s better to have an alternative than nothing.”

“I don’t see her as a substitute.” Ash stared at Vichy, “and you’re forbidden to speak like that.”

“Whatever you say,” Vichy poked Zhai Yaxiu’s chest with his fingers, “but do you really understand our situation?”

“Only in the realm of stars where the Void Wing can be broken can we avoid hell. Once we return to reality, the Void Wing will grow rapidly, and then we will have to face the promotion ceremony.”

“In other words,” for some reason, Vichy had a sadistic interest in his heart again at this time, and directly revealed the cruel truth to Ash: “If you are willing to stay in the kingdom of stars, you can continue to live.”

“But if you have to go back to reality in order to reunite with the Sword Princess and Witch...”

Then there is only * waiting for you.

On the second day of the 'Golden Rain Cataclysm', in Mengsi's villa, everyone finally recovered and gathered in the hall to start sorting out information. Igula turned off the TV that was broadcasting the post-disaster reconstruction news, and glanced at Ash who was sitting in an electric wheelchair: "Your new equipment is very handsome. Can nitrogen accelerate drifting and turning?"

ot Rose said, if my feet touch the ground, she will resign. ot Yaxiu replied helplessly.

Rajesh's penetrating shot directly punched a hole in Ash's spine. The Lejian was only temporarily connected to his spinal nerves to restore his mobility. The regeneration time of bones was dozens of times longer than that of flesh and blood, even with the Lejian, at least It takes a week to heal.

As long as Ashe continued to use the Music Sword for himself, no one would even find out that his spine was broken. However, after he reunited with Rose who was safe and sound, he completely relaxed and passed out. Rose went to the emergency channel to conduct a physical examination for him, and then she saw from the X-ray a picture of a broken body body.

In Rose's words, assistants can help employers to hurt others, but they must not allow employers to hurt themselves, otherwise it will be a stain on her career.

Sitting in a wheelchair was Rose's last compromise. Rose originally wanted him to lie in the ward for a video conference, but he was not allowed to leave even one step. He had to have a catheter inserted to urinate. When Ash heard the last sentence, he immediately rolled over. Crawling hugged the wheelchair and roaring to be discharged.

But don't say, the electric wheelchair is quite comfortable, the waist bears well, and elastic cushions can be added. The hand rest is made of skin-friendly material. Sitting up has the pleasure of playing a remote control car. Yaxiu wants to replace all the chairs with wheelchairs. .

At this time, Rose and Fili came over with the fruit platter, and Ash coughed twice and pointed to the grapes on it. Rose glanced at him and was about to carry the grapes over, but was stopped by Vichy reaching out.

Today, Vichy returned to her usual maid outfit. She raised her eyebrows and picked the grapes just as she was about to put them into Ashe's mouth, but Ashe avoided it, ot I don't eat grape skins. otot line. Ot Vichy smiled and tore the grape skins with his fingernails, revealing the crystal clear flesh, and stuffed the flesh into Yaxiu's mouth in Fili's envious eyes.

Rose raised her hand ot actually we have tools for peeling grapes. ot

"No, no, I want her to do this kind of pointless repetitive work slowly." Ash said, "This is her punishment for joking about going beyond the limit yesterday."

ot master, did you forget that it was you who provoked first? ot Vichy's smile was so sweet that it was about to fall apart.

ot that's why I didn't let you wash your feet. ot Yaxiu said: ot you have 70 mistakes, I have 30 mistakes, you have to pay back 40 after offsetting. ot ot Why did I make so many mistakes? In my time, there was a saying 'the first to flirt is cheap', master, have you learned it? ot ot, so didn't I take the initiative to make a good deal with you later? This is my provocative apology. otot your invitation to clink glasses is an apology ot Vichy laughed angrily.

"I said yes." Yaxiu was very stubborn: "The question of who comes first is settled, and the next is the question of content. If you just scold me or my friends, I won't care about you, but you It's not good to cross the limit, if I don't discipline you, I will definitely not be able to sleep."

Igula reminded ot to scold him, not to scold his friends. ot

“I’m fully aware of my mistakes, master,” Vichy said sincerely, “but I have a question: does telling the truth go beyond the line?” ot doesn’t count. ot

“Then when I see the mistresses in the future, I just tell my knowledge truthfully, without any subjective assumptions, without any inner description. It shouldn’t be beyond the limit, right?” Yaxiu looked at Vichy quietly, He said: ot I want to eat the pineapple that you peeled with your own hands. ot

Vichy walked towards the fruit bowl almost as a victor. Igula looked at them and said: ot may be my delusion – but has your relationship become much closer? Even if Lord Vichy made a serious mistake before, Ash, you dare not punish her for being emotional. ” ot Don’t you have a better adjective than ‘intimate’? Like hatred, estrangement, invincibility and the like. ot Yaxiu said angrily: ot I didn’t dare to do anything before because I was afraid that she could control my mind through my emotional fluctuations. Now that I found out that she is just a paper tiger, I can naturally worry less. ”

paper tiger

Igula and Harvey looked up at the Ghost Prophet, who was peeling a pineapple with his bare hands, and the latter smiled politely.

“Also,” Ash paused, “I’m going to let Vichy join our battle sequence.” They were really shocked.

Joining the battle sequence is to treat Vichy as a teammate for tactical training, but it also means that all the cards of Ash, Igula, and Harvey have to be told to Vichy, otherwise, how can cooperation come from? There will inevitably be miracles involved. The strongest point and the weakest flaw in the game is equivalent to letting Vichy master all their information!

You must know that in the Kingdom of Senluo, Tamashi is not considered their battle sequence. After all, the black crow has to fly through Yaxiu even to join the battle. The relationship between the black crow and Yaxiu is like a dragon knight and a dragon; Sanctuary Chikara and Astrologer Gwen are also not in the battle sequence. Igula is not at ease telling them about his cards, nor does he think they can increase their combat power by joining the battle sequence.

So is Vichy eligible to join their battle sequence?

The answer is no doubt – in the first Angel Hunt, the addition of Vichy brought their team’s combat cooperation to a higher level, and Ash was even afraid that Igula and Harvey would rely too much on Vichy! As for trust, UU Read www.uukanshu.com Ash still dominates Vichy, and there are few relationships more stable than slavery!

They should have brought Vichy into the battle sequence long ago, but they didn’t because they were less afraid of being dominated by Vichy than because they were trying to reduce their contact with Vichy as much as possible.

Even Ash at this moment, if there is a button in front of him that can make Vichy die forever, he will press it without hesitation! The only reason Vichy is alive is that they haven’t found a way to completely cut off Vichy’s resurrection.

Even the greedy Igula and the indifferent Harvey never wanted Vichy to continue to live. Vichy is not the same as the silver lamp, the evil of the silver lamp is only from the cruel arrangement of fate, and the evil of Vichy is that she is the cruelest arrangement of fate!

They can still be determined to kill Vichy now, but if they become teammates, they will contact more frequently in the future. Yaxiu knocked on the whiteboard at the back, ot In order to survive, we have no time to waste our combat power. ot

“Yeah.” Igula was also relieved: “Since there is * ahead of us, why should we be afraid to be side by side with the devil?”

Phili blinks ot why is afraid of me ot

ot dear, because you are so cute that everyone can’t help but bite you. ot Vichy finally peeled the pineapple and used a toothpick fork

Pick up a piece dipped in some salt water and hand it to Ash: ot and unless I really get enough power to turn things around from the angel hunt, I'll have to go to * with you too. ot

“However, it’s not impossible for you to survive.” Wei Xi glanced at the Quartet forces on the whiteboard, and there was coldness in his eyes:

otIf you are willing to be dogs, wagging your tail is also a good way to live.
