

“Judging from your clothes, you are not from an elite family, right? People like you can't even afford to go on trips. How can you see the world? I guess you do most of your learning through reading and watching television. You will never get to see the luxuries within the Tokyo royal residence or the Kremlin. Your background has limited your world view. Similarly, you have no idea how powerful Mikawa Group is in Japan. You will never attain such power and wealth in your life! So you have no idea how powerful the Chu family truly is either.”

“Ants will be ants. No matter how far you go or how fearless you are, the truth is there are always stronger people out there. You are just an insignificant man in comparison to a true bigshot. So young man, I suggest you set your mentality straight and stop acting arrogant. If you want to leave Japan alive, kneel and apologize to the Miyamoto clan and Mikawa Group. On account of your age, I will spare you.”

His indifferent words sounded lofty and disdainful.

Some people were innately imposing.

This middle-aged man was one of those people. Despite not trying to be stern or noble, clout oozed from his every action.

It felt as though he was an emperor talking to a commoner.

“The President certainly is magnanimous. He is going too easy on him if he spares him. If it were me, I would make him pay with his life!”

“You brat, the President just spared your life. Aren't you going to kneel and thank him? Why are you standing there like an idiot? Have you really gone daft?”

Everyone stood around and kept saying such things to Ye Fan.

Chiike Tsubame, Miyamoto Nakanosuke, and the others seemed unhappy about the president letting off Ye Fan and looked rather angry.

But since the president had already come to a decision, Miyamoto Nakanosuke was powerless to override him no matter how angry he was with Ye Fan. He could only abide by the president's wishes. After Ye Fan kneel and apologize, this would all be over.

Chiike Shizuka heaved a sigh of relief. The worry in her heart instantly lifted by a lot.

It was certainly the best outcome for both parties.

It might be a little embarrassing for Ye Fan, but at least he could live, right?

However, Ye Fan suddenly shook his head and laughed while everyone waited for him to kneel and apologize.

He raised his head and looked at the so-called president of Mikawa Group.

His striking face was fearless.

He looked contemptuous and angry.

“You think I have no clue how powerful Mikawa Group and the Chu family are. But let me ask you this. Do you know what the name ‘Chu Tian-Fan’ represents?” Ye Fan laughed calmly.

A warm and uplifting smile radiated from his handsome face.

However, his words sounded threatening and cold!

Yet, no one expected the middle-aged man to look so shocked when he heard the name, 'Chu Tian-Fan'.

“You...you...How did you come to know that name? Tell me! Why...why do you know him?”

The middle-aged man looked hysterical. His expression vastly altered as he deeply roared at Ye Fan and kept repeating his question.

Ye Fan laughed coldly without saying a word when the middle-aged man asked him this.

After a long time, Ye Fan's eyes turned cold.

Then wrath exploded in Ye Fan's heart.

He stepped forward and shouted at the man angrily.

His furious words shook the earth like an unexpected thunder!

“A spark sets the prairie aflame and shakes the world! The Chu dragon sighs and speaks my name! Tian-Fan!”

“Have you ever heard this phrase before?”

HUUU!

A wind raged the moment he spoke.

Ye Fan stood with his hands behind his back in the fierce wind with a cold smile on his face.

His bangs and clothes fluttered and flapped loudly in the wind.

Then Ye Fan threw a bright and simple jade pendant before the man with a wave of his hand as he spoke furiously.

CLANG!

The jade pendant landed on the ground crisply.

The middle-aged man looked down to see a single blood-red character, ‘Chu’, engraved on the jade pendant.

HUUU!

In an instant, the middle-aged man felt as though he was struck by lightning.

It felt as though electric currents were coursing through his body.

He trembled as his pupils constricted. He stared so hard that blood nearly oozed from his eyes.

He stared dead straight at the handsome young man before him like he had seen a demon.

“You...you...you...You are Dragon...”

The middle-aged man was petrified.

His mind instantly went blank at the sight of the jade pendant. All he could hear was nonstop ringing in his head.

It never once dawned on him that this young man was...

The man trembled nonstop and was incapable of saying a word.

Ye Fan's skinny silhouette stood erect and powerful amid his shock.

Boundless majesty and anger radiated from his deep eyes.

He loftily looked at the man before him. Then he shouted angrily, "Rock Dragon, you betrayed your master and didn't obey my order. Aren't you going to kneel and offer your life immediately for your mistakes now that I have come for you?"

"Kneel and offer your life immediately..."

"...Kneel and offer your life!"

Ye Fan's deep roar exploded with internal energy like claps of thunder.

Ye Fan's voice reverberated nonstop in the air.

And rang thunderously!

What?

"The audacity! Is he tired of living? How dare he disrespect Iwai Zen?"

"Reckless fool! I think he really wants to die here. He must be too young to know better."

he up to? Does he want to defy heaven? He's really an idiot!"

Everyone was infuriated to hear this.

Iwai Zen had yet to say a word, but everyone already condemned Ye Fan angrily as they flung nasty words at him.

Miyamoto Nakanosuke stepped forward and bowed to Iwai Zen before he said, "Mr Iwai, this Chinese boy recklessly offended me and even you. He deserves a thousand deaths, and it's absolutely unpardonable! Please execute him!"

Miyamoto Nakanosuke begged angrily.

His voice landed in the ocean like a massive rock leaving huge waves in its wake.

Then everyone else stepped forward and bowed to Iwai Zen in unison and said,

"Mr Iwai, please execute him!"

"Mr Iwai, please execute him!"

Voices surged into the air and converged.

Then they crashed down like massive waves.

Iwai Zen controlled 60% of the nation's finance and stood at the pinnacle of power as Mikawa Group's leader. But just when everyone was urging him to execute Ye Fan, Iwai Zen unexpectedly fell to his knees before Ye Fan with a loud thud!

BOOM!

Iwai Zen had suddenly bowed amid everyone's shocked stares.

His knees landed heavily on the ground.

The dull thud echoed through everyone's ears, leaving everyone in shock.

The moment Iwai Zen knelt, everyone was stunned.

The voices that were cursing at Ye Fan stopped abruptly.

Miyamoto Nakanosuke, who had been demanding Ye Fan's execution, stared dead straight in disbelief at the sight. It looked as though he was a rooster whose throat had been grabbed.

"You..."

Silence.

A deathly silence fell.

The world fell completely silent.

It was so quiet that even a pin drop could be heard.

A gentle breeze swept through the air, making the greenery rustle while Iwai Zen knelt on the ground.

This sight was like a slap in everyone's faces.

Everyone was dumbstruck instantly!

Their eyes bulged angrily like a bunch of shocked geese, and nearly popped out from their sockets.

Chiike Tsubame's pupils constricted while Chiike Shizuka covered her mouth in shock.

A quizzical look even appeared in Suzumiya Eigetsu's lovely eyes.

Prior to this, Suzumiya Eigetsu thought she understood this man sufficiently.

From the looks of it now, she had underestimated Ye Fan.

The man was certainly not just the King of Jiangdong!

After all, it was impossible for a provincial leader to make a man like Iwai Zen, who was the president of Mikawa Group, kneel and pay respects to him.

“Master, you really are an incredible man, aren't you?” Suzumiya Eigetsu smiled gently.

The more time she spent with Ye Fan, the more she realized how mysterious and intimidating Ye Fan was.

He was like a boundless ocean that people couldn't help wanting to visit and explore.

“Mr Iwai, what happened? How can an important man like you kneel to him? He is just a kid from China. He is absolutely undeserving of this!”

Suzumiya Eigetsu was probably the only person who was still capable of laughing.

However, Miyamoto Nakanosuke was certainly not in the mood.

He almost shouted as he spoke.

He roared hysterically at Iwai Zen with his eyes bloodshot as he trembled nonstop.

He felt bewildered, shocked, and scared.

All kinds of emotions surged in Miyamoto Nakanosuke's heart.

But Iwai Zen couldn't be bothered with him.

Amid everyone's shock, he knelt on the ground.

Only fear remained on his typically proud face now.

It had been ten years.

Almost ten years had passed.

To be precise, 3000 days had passed since Ye Fan first funded him and offered Dragon God Hall's help.

On many sleepless nights, Iwai Zen would lie there countless times, imagining what kind of person the mysterious Dragon Master was.

Was he a man or a woman?

Was he mature or elderly?

Or was he a young man?

For ten years, Ye Fan served as Dragon Master and devised plans to take over the Chu family. Despite imagining how Ye Fan looked countless times, it never dawned on him that Ye Fan was so harmless looking.

Ye Fan was simply too young.

If not for Ye Fan's words and this Dragon God Jade, Iwai Zen would never believe that this young man was the same man he had served all these years.

Even though it was the first time they met all these years, there was no sign of the excitement of seeing his master for the first time or a sense of gratitude or his benefactor.

All he felt was fear and guilt.

Ye Fan cultivated on Mount Jingzhou's peak a month ago.

Before he went into cultivation, Ye Fan announced the commencement of Operation Ablaze and told Han to send out his orders.

At his orders, all the dragons gathered!

Iwai Zen was one of the four Dragons whom Ye Fan had inserted into Japan, so he should have gone to China to assist his lord!

Instead, Ye Fan learned from Han that the Rock Dragon refused to follow his orders the moment he came out of cultivation.

He didn't respond to his orders and even cut off all communication with Dragon God Hall.

So Han couldn't reach him at all.

They realized that the Rock Dragon whom they painstakingly groomed for ten years had revolted!

Before coming to Japan, Han told Ye Fan to visit Mikawa Group if he had the time and locate Iwai Zen so that they could purge their ranks!

In the past, Han was in charge of doing this.

It was pure coincidence that Ye Fan ended up doing it this time.

Since Ye Fan was going to Japan, he decided to settle this matter.

Ye Fan's imposing aura made Iwai Zen kneel on the ground as complicated emotions flooded his heart.

"D-Dragon Master, what brings you to Japan?"

After contemplating for a long time, Iwai Zen's voice shook as he spoke.

Iwai Zen hung his head perhaps out of guilt. He didn't die to look Ye Fan in the eye.

Ye Fan looked down at the man before him with anger in his eyes.

"Rock Dragon, I see you know that I am still the Dragon Master. I thought you were all grown up and refused even to acknowledge me," said Ye Fan coldly as he smiled. His sinister voice was filled with anger.

All these years, the Dragon God Hall invested in a lot of people. The number of people who betrayed him weren't many, but they existed.

It was normal.

People change.

So it couldn't be helped that there would be a few traitors.

However, Ye Fan was particularly surprised by Rock Dragon's betrayal.

Ye Fan placed high hopes on the four Dragons.

All these years, a lot more effort was spent nurturing them in comparison to pawns like Chen Ao, Li Er, and the others.

How could one of his four Dragons betray him?

It was a real blow to Ye Fan and completely unforgivable.

"Rock Dragon, let me ask you this. Who was the one who sponsored you when you were a beggar ten years ago? Who protected you when you were surrounded by the Yamaguchi-gumi? Who was the one who sent you into Mikawa Group and made you president? I, Chu Tian-Fan, was generous to you. I made you a Dragon and helped you to rise to the top of the trade and control half your country's finances. I gave you glory, power, wealth, and everything you could dream of, but what did you do in the end? You defied my orders and betrayed your master. Rock Dragon, do you admit to your crimes?"
