

Chapter 887

"Oh..." Dalia looked at Suzi, "Suzi, is it convenient for me to see your friends?"

"What's the inconvenience? One of them is also your Jun's fiancée. You may see each other frequently in the future. Her name is Rayna, and the other is my colleague, Galia. You will love it if you meet."

Suzi was right. Dalia liked this little girl very much when he saw Galia who was lively like a little pepper.

Rayna, who was standing with Galia, was a little shy.

Dalia asked Suzi in a low voice: "Didn't you say that this girl is also quite savage?"

"She!" Suzi glanced at Rayna: "She is just a nest! She dares to be aggressive when she is acquainted with her. She is stupid if she is unfamiliar."

Dalia was amused.

"That..." Rayna said embarrassingly: "Lenny told me when I came, he said you are him...aunt, let me call you aunt. Aunt. Hello."

Dalia: "Rayna, right?"

"Auntie."

"Why are you so honest?" Dalia couldn't help worrying about Rayna.

Dalia still knew a little bit about Kraig's nephew Lenny. She didn't know how Kraig fell in love with this honest little girl, who was probably carrot and green vegetables.

She could see that the little girl was very, very loving.

However, the Kyoto family is not an ordinary family.

No one in the whole of Kyoto can match the monarch's family, and because of the great family, there will be differences within the monarch's family. The reason why Dalia can be alone is because no one's rights in the entire monarch's family can exceed the monarch's rights. Kraig. But for the remaining people, you vie for me, you rob me, if you are a sincere person like Rayna, you will really suffer.

Hearing Dalia boasting about herself like this, Rayna respected Dalia more: "I...actually, I used to be very bad, and my character was not very good. After I got closer to Suzi, I suffered. I don't have much culture or ability under the influence of Suzi. Please auntie to bring me more in the future."

Dalia smiled and said, "Okay..."

In my heart, the little girl looked more and more happy: "When I come to Kyoto in the future, I still have a companion."

Rayna thought so too, she nodded happily: "Yeah."

Due to Suzi's connection, the four women quickly got to know each other. Dalia was older and therefore more stable, while Suzi and Rayna Galia were about the same age and were relatively lively.

The little servant Lilly always wanted to be in line with the four big beauties, so he always regarded himself as a little adult.

Seeing the four beauties chatting in full swing, the little attendant followed the four beauties with stitches and murmured: "Four aunts, you can have the only one to help you carry the clothes and bags."

"I'm your mother!" Suzi scolded angrily.

"Um, little dumpling... are you sure, you can carry it?" Galia looked at Lilly only kindly.

Rayna said sympathetically: "Oh, my little bun, you...this will crush you so you don't have to grow your head. For a while, you won't have to carry it alone. Auntie will help you carry it."

Dalia, who is a little older, has a kind of motherhood on her body. She squatted down and gently said to Lilly: "The only one, how come you are so behaved, such a sensible baby, you are only six years old, and you know how to help mother and aunt. Are we carrying bags?"

Dalia liked the kid more and more.

In particular, the child immediately said with an air: "Well! You are all my mother's friends. How happy my mother is with you. Seeing my mother happy, I am also very happy. Help you carry your bags. Not tired."

After finishing speaking, Lilly blinked his eyes and looked at Suzi who had just rebuked him.

Suzi's heart was warm, and he hugged Shen's only head and kissed fiercely: "It's really mother's baby..."

Lilly was also surrounded by four big beauties, and he was very happy.

Just like that, no one noticed that not far away, a woman was looking at five beauties, four big and one small.

There was a lot of jealousy and vicious light in the woman's eyes. She took out her phone and dialed out: "Dad, I saw Suzi and Dalia, talking and laughing, and Rayna. They, unexpectedly united. Together!"

Chapter 888

The woman is Jun Liuye.

Jun Liuye married from the Jun family in Kyoto to the Xu family in Nancheng for a reason.

Jun's family is second to none in Kyoto. Jun Liuye naturally looks down on Xu Zetong, but when Jun Liuye was in his twenties, he liked a foreign man.

But never thought that the foreign man is a spy.

Back then, because he wanted to get more information from Jun Chengyin, he deliberately approached Jun Liuye.

Later, the foreign man was found out, but Jun Liuye had been pregnant for five or six months. Fortunately, the Jun family's big business had concealed the scandal of Jun Liuye, and he was pregnant for six months. The child was also secretly dropped.

It was a black kid who looked like a piece of black charcoal from head to toe.

They are all formed, but they have no right to live in this world.

Although Jun Chengyin kept the matter very strict, some people in the upper circles inside knew something about it, so that no one wanted to marry Jun Liuye even if the Jun family was so wealthy and powerful.

Jun Liuye can only marry away to Nancheng.

It happened that Xu Ze had just returned from the same family in the same year and didn't know much about domestic affairs. He thought he was married to the eldest lady who had great wealth. Later, he discovered that Jun Liuye was equivalent to being kicked out by the Jun family.

Jun Liuye didn't go back to her natal house very often, and the Jun family seldom communicated. Xu Zetong couldn't use the power of the Jun family to expand Xu's career.

So, this... For many years, Jun Liuye didn't eat well at her husband's house.

Jun Liuye has always wanted to win some light for her in-laws, and she has always wanted to ease the relationship with her natal family, after all, her father still holds an important position.

At this moment, when Jun Liuye saw that Suzi, Dalia and Rayna were together talking and laughing while shopping for dinner, Jun Liuye's heart trembled.

In the past, it was just that Kraig and Arron had an extraordinary relationship.

Now, the women and children are all together.

Jun Liuye immediately told his father the news.

At that end, his father Jun Chengyin's tone really sighed: "Eh...Since my father was demoted because of your business, Kraig's sphere of influence has been in full swing until now. Instead of me, he became the most authoritative person in our Jun family. Actually, this is not surprising, Kraig has always been towards Arron."

"Dad!" Jun Liuye said: "But this shows one thing!"

Jun Chengyin asked: "What's the matter?"

"Arron is brazen about Jiaxing Island!" Jun Liuye said.

Jun Chengyin: "..."

"Dad, for the sake of Grandpa Shu, you seconded so much manpower to Gasing Island, but now Arron is still so casual. What does this mean? It shows how much you can second to Gasing Island and how much Kraig can second to Gasing Island. Yes. Maybe more than you. If this is the case, Arron is sure to win! This time in the battle of Gasing Island, if Arron wins? Dad, have you ever thought about the consequences." Jun Liuye asked back.

Jun Chengyin: "..."

He hasn't thought about it.

However, the daughter was right.

If Arron was defeated, it would mean that Gasing Island was captured by his Jun Chengyin. Because of this military exploit, Jun Chengyin's position in Kyoto should be overtaken by Kraig.

But if Jiaxingdao falls into Arron's hands because of Kraig and Arron's union, then the Jun family will have to split first.

At that time, Kraig will definitely not let go of his second uncle.

"Liu Liu, you are right. Thanks to you reminding Dad that you can come to Kyoto when you have time. Dad will give Zetong a few projects to do." At that end, Jun Chengyin said to Jun Liuye. .

"Thank you dad, being a daughter should share some worries for you. This is what I should do. I will fly back to Kyoto to visit you with my child in a few days." Jun Liuye said very happily.

"Good."

"Dad, I'm dead."

After closing the thread, Jun Liuye hid behind the pillars of the mall and watched several women talking and laughing.

Suzi looks ruddy and healthy.

The unscrupulous one who smiles with a stern face, at first glance, is uncultivated!
