

Super Rich Dad Chapter 909-910

Chapter 909

Both Shen Sihai and Shen Feng knew that now their brother would most likely become a breakthrough for the Qinghe Society.

But this might not be without a little benefit for them, at least Shen Zhiqiu had been thinking of how to find an excuse to put on a show with his two brothers.

Then use it to break away from the Shen family and go to Chu Jiang to check it out.

If Yu Shaobai really made a move on him. Perhaps this could also be an opportunity for him to not be able to remain in Hedong.

Thinking of this, Shen Zhiqiu laughed lightly twice before speaking, 'It doesn't matter, if he really makes a move against me, we can take this opportunity to finish what we planned before.'

After hearing these words the two looked at each other and nodded. Then the matter was settled.

On the other hand, Jiang Hao sat alone at home quietly contemplating some things. There were some things in Hedong that he felt he could not figure out.

Ning Kun looked at him and saw that he had not spoken since his return, sitting in his chair like a wooden man, so he could not help but be a little curious and said, 'What's wrong, what's the matter that makes you as motionless as a wooden man?'

After saying this he poured a cup of tea and carried it to Jiang Hao and sat down in front of him, looking at him with a smile on his face.

'I don't know why, I've always felt that there's something vague about this Hedong Shen family, I can't say which aspect it is, but I just have this feeling.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao picked up the tea that Ning Kun had poured and smiled slightly, then frowned again.

After he had met with Yu Shaobai himself. It wasn't that he hadn't thought that the other party wanted something from himself.

But after a moment of careful contemplation Jiang Hao found that if Yu Shaobai was so desperate to get his effectiveness, then he should be planning something.

Otherwise, someone like him really didn't have to go to too much trouble to recruit someone in Hedong, a simple phone call would probably do the trick.

Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao and smiled before saying in a deep voice, 'You don't need to think about the Qinghe Society's side, I've already informed Chu He on my side, they will follow up on the recent movements of the Qinghe Society and then come to a judgement.'

After saying this, Ning Kun was silent for a long time before he spoke with some hesitation, 'As for the He Dong Shen family. Let's wait two days and see, if we still can't find an opportunity, I'll let Li Miao help you think of a solution.'

Many things were now gradually piling up on Jiang Hao's head, and now he had to deal with Yu Shaobai on the one hand to avoid his identity being leaked.

On the other hand, he also had to think of ways to get in touch with the He Dong Shen family so that he could obtain what he wanted.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao rubbed his brow with some headache and said helplessly, 'Has Li Miao's side noticed during this period of time that there seems to be a pair of eyes staring around us?'

Ning Kun shook his head slightly after hearing this. Even if Jiang Hao didn't say anything about this matter, Ning Kun would still check it out carefully.

As a veteran in the intelligence staff of Section Three. He was still being watched when he went out to do his own work, which to Ning Kun was like playing with a big knife in front of a Guan Gong's door.

When he found out about Jiang Hao's visit to Yu Shaobai, his subconscious reaction was that they were being watched, otherwise Yu Shaobai would have been able to get hold of Jiang Hao's address the day after he returned.

That was even better. He even investigated exactly what Jiang Hao was doing, if not for a pair of eyes watching around, then he, Yu Shaobai, was a living god, able to calculate.

The two of them were silent for a moment. Ning Kun let out a bitter laugh and got up to walk to the window to look outside.

'I wonder who that one hiding in the shadows could be, to be able to keep watching us until now without being discovered, looks like an old hand.'

Jiang Hao looked sideways at Ning Kun before opening his mouth and laughing, 'Do you think you're invincible just because you came out of Section 13? Forget it, I'm getting a headache looking at all these things in Hedong right now.'

In comparison, the two most complicated areas on the east side of the city are the east and north of the city.

One is located in a naturally wealthy area, and it has become a habit for them to suppress the northern part of the city, while the northern part of the city is dominated by the Qinghe Society.

The east of the city forces are led by the Shen family. The rest of them are complementary, and the dispute between the two sides has been going on for a long time.

After quietly lighting a cigarette for himself. Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun helplessly and said, 'How long do I have to be a teacher?'

'Wait a little longer, until you can enter and leave the Shen family at will. I have already found someone to arrange for you at the school. It won't attract too much attention.'

Jiang Hao was relieved to hear this, then got up and went into his bedroom to rest.

The night looked a little different in Hedong. On the lighthouse in the centre of Hedong City, a woman sat quietly on the lanai looking at the night below.

Her face was shrouded in a black cloth, making it impossible to see her real face.

If Jiang Hao were here he might be able to recognise the other woman at a glance, but he was not there at the moment.

The next day at dawn, Jiang Hao got up as usual and washed up a little, then changed into a clean and tidy outfit and walked to the door to finish his breakfast.

After saying hello to Ning Kun, he went downstairs and got into Han San's car and ran all the way to school.

Han San looked a bit unnatural today compared to yesterday, his eyes were always averted, as if he was avoiding something.

Jiang Hao just casually looked at him twice before he couldn't help but laugh and said, 'What, is something wrong, it feels like you're a bit distracted.'

Hearing this, Han San stopped the car and leaned against the roadside, then bowed his head and said helplessly, 'I'm sorry, I didn't protect you properly yesterday, I shouldn't have let you go to see Yu Shao Bai alone.'

Jiang Hao saw that he was actually bothered by this matter, so he laughed lightly and said, 'It's okay, I can handle some things myself, there's no need for you to get involved.'

He looked very relaxed when he said this, but Jiang Hao didn't know how hard it was for Han San at the moment.

Ever since Li Miao found out about Jiang Hao's private meeting with Yu Shaobai, he almost didn't kill Han San.

Once Jiang Hao was in danger and Han San was not there, Li Miao would wonder why he had chosen him to be Jiang Hao's bodyguard.

Looking at Han San still looking a bit hard to bear, Jiang Hao lit himself a cigarette before saying somewhat helplessly, 'There are many things we can't influence ourselves, let alone others, it doesn't matter, I actually didn't go to see Yu Shao Bai yesterday without gaining something.'

By carefully contemplating the conversation between him and Yu Shaobai yesterday, Jiang Hao was quite sure that he was working on a plan against the Shen family.

He himself, on the other hand, was most likely the key to this plan.

Having realised this, Jiang Hao did not tell Ning Kun, as he felt that he might be able to gain more if he infiltrated alone.

Chapter 910

What Jiang Hao didn't know was that it was his decision that led to the danger he encountered next.

Yu Shaobai was not an easy man to deal with, and it was not as if people who held the same idea as Jiang Hao had not moved such brains.

Even the Shen family had gone to a lot of trouble to insert a nail in Yu Shaobai's coffin. And in order to protect this person, they couldn't even show it too obviously.

The Shen family's source of information on Yu Shao Bai's side had always been a secret, a secret that was even isolated from many people in their own family.

The first time I looked up at the rearview mirror, I saw that Jiang Hao was calm and composed. His own mood slowly calmed down along with him.

Looking at him as he smoked quietly, Han San spoke after a moment of silence, 'Next time. Next time, I definitely won't let you risk your life alone again!'

Jiang Hao glanced at Han San helplessly, it seemed that this guy was getting into a bit of a corner.

Thinking about the possibility of going to see Yu Shaobai alone afterwards, Jiang Hao let out a bitter smile before saying, 'Actually, you don't need to look at it so seriously, I'm a strong man in Hedong anyway, he won't be willing to kill me.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao looked at the time and then urged Han San to drop him off at the entrance of the school.

Han San sat in the car and watched Jiang Hao's back as he walked into the school, and after a moment of contemplation hurriedly drove to the cafe where Li Miao was.

According to Ning Kun's instructions last night, after driving Jiang Hao to school, Han San had to come back to the cafe to meet with Li Miao once.

Although he didn't say what the reason was. But according to his own judgement, I was afraid that it was most likely because they were being spied on godlessly and unknowingly.

As expected, just as Han San had arrived, Li Miao walked out and took a slight survey of the surroundings before dragging Han San and then entering the secret room in the cafe.

At this moment, Ning Kun was quietly standing in the secret room watching the surveillance video projected on the wall, frowning every now and then, as if he hadn't found anything yet.

When Li Miao walked in with Han San, Ning Kun said without looking back, 'Did you notice anything wrong on the way to school with Jiang Hao?'

Han San shook his head after a moment of contemplation, he was already in a bit of a state of mind today. And because he had deliberately stopped for a while on the way, he hadn't noticed anything unusual.

Li Miao looked at Han San with a hint of disappointment in his eyes, 'I asked you to protect Mr. Jiang, I asked you to be attentive, not to just drive a car and then prepare to block a bullet for him.'

Han San rubbed his head somewhat aggressively and spoke, 'I might have been a bit out of shape these past two days, but don't worry, I'll adjust quickly.'

Ning Kun looked like he had seen something at this moment and hurriedly reached out to signal for the video to stop. Then he slowly zoomed in on the video and finally found a black-robed man in the picture.

Looking at this man who was crouching on the corner of the street. Ning Kun turned his head to Han San and said, 'Come over and see if this is the man who invited Jiang Hao to meet with Yu Shaobai yesterday?'

Han San went up and took a quick look before saying, 'Yes, it's him! Although it's just a video, I can still seem to feel a somewhat grim aura about him when I look at him.'

Ning Kun fell silent as he listened. Looking at the video his fingers tapped the table with a rhythm and fell into deep thought.

Right now this person was Yu Shaobai's person has basically been concluded, but for some reason, Ning Kun always felt that things were not as simple as what he saw now, they seemed to have overlooked certain things.

Realising this. Ning Kun closed his eyes and fell into deep thought, carefully recalling every person they had come into contact with since they arrived in Hedong.

Then he opened his eyes and looked at Li Miao and said, 'Sort out all the major and minor events in Hedong in the last year, I don't care how thick it is or how many there are, I want to read through them all.'

After hearing this, Li Miao said with a slightly embarrassed expression on his face, 'This is not a big problem, but I am afraid that the two branches in the west and north of the city may be a bit difficult.'

Ning Kun looked at Li Miao and said in a deep voice, 'The focus of the problem lies in the west and north of the city, where Yu Shaobai's real power comes from. If we can study all of them, the Qinghe Society will not become a threat to us.'

Hearing these words, Li Miao nodded before retreating. Then he contacted the two branches in the west and north of the city and asked them to compile and transmit the information over.

On the other hand, Han San stood in the secret room and looked at Ning Kun with some hesitation and said, 'Should I do something?'

After hearing this, Ning Kun shook his head and said, 'No. You don't have to do anything, just stay here. We'll have to go over it again later when you go to pick up Jiang Hao.'

Hearing this, Han San nodded, then walked a little nervously to the side and sat down.

For some reason, the uneasy feeling in Ning Kun's heart was getting heavier and heavier as he watched the videos, as if something was right over their heads and he didn't notice it in general.

Thinking of this, Ning Kun's face became somewhat gloomy, because he did not know who was hiding in the shadows.

The unknown was often the most terrifying, and compared to the man with the grim aura that Han San had said, he did not put the other party in his eyes.

Such a person might be a good helper, but definitely not a good intelligence officer.

A really good intelligence officer would never have any special markings on his body, nor would he make too much of an impression.

Like the man in the video, he was instantly recognisable through the video, and once such a person was discovered once, he would become a firefly in the night, unable to hide anymore.

The time passed slowly, and when Jiang Hao finally got off work, Ning Kun looked at his watch and said, 'Go pick up Jiang Hao now, remember, it doesn't matter if the route is a little detour, just think of it as a walk around town.'

After hearing this, Han San nodded, grabbed the car keys from the table and walked out.

And Li Miao walked out of her office at this time, then holding a thick stack of information in her hand on the desktop, she smiled bitterly and said; 'These are the more interesting things that have happened in Hedong this year, I've just sorted them out.'

After saying this, Li Miao took out a book from the documents and spoke, 'There are a few things among them that are most interesting to people.'

The first one was the rumour that the third young master of the Shen family, Shen Zhiqiu, had saved a woman's life, but the woman mysteriously disappeared six months later, and since then the third young master would basically disappear a dozen or twenty times a month.

The second is that Yu Shaobai took over the Qinghe Society and the first thing he did was actually to kick all the members of the older generation out of the Society.
