

Chapter 915

Inside the castle, Biden Lu and Jenny Jing were ready and waiting for him.

As soon as he returned and walked into the hall, Biden Lu said, "How's it going over there in Nan Muyong?"

Gu Si Qian tossed his things onto the table and said in a deep voice, "As we expected, this matter shouldn't have much to do with him, it's the work of their first wife's headquarters over there."

Biden Lu smiled slightly, "The people I sent out also have news, now those three people have been secretly controlled by us, they admitted that they did indeed kidnap Bella Qiao on orders, and as for the person who ordered them, it was a great elder within the Nan Clan, named Nangong Suo."

Gu Si Qian's brow furrowed.

"Nangong floss?"

"Yes."

Biden Lu placed several pieces of information that had only just been passed back on the table one by one, then said in a deep voice, "The factions within the Nan Clan are numerous and intricate, and far from being as calm as they appear on the outside."

"According to the investigation, their entire family takes orders from their patriarch, Nangong Yu, but since Nangong Yu has been living in Europe for years and even less so in recent years, the family's affairs are usually handled by the elders below."

"There are a total of four elders in the Nan Clan, all of whom are brothers or nephews of the previous clan leader, and one of the four current elders is Nangong Tian, one is Nangong Xue, another is Nangong Wu, and the last one is Nangong Ru, who planned the kidnapping."

"As far as I know, these four elders alone, although they all have deep blood ties, they are not of the same ilk; normally Nangong Tian and Nangong Wu have a better relationship, while Nangong Xue and Nangong Fluttershy are in a faction of their own."

"But they are undoubtedly all very supportive of the sole clan leader, Nangong Yui, so there isn't usually much of a fight."

"The only larger argument was half a month ago, a few days before Bella Qiao's disappearance, and the exact content of the argument is still unclear, but according to this series of big moves they've made since then, it can be shown that the content of their argument this time should be related to this latter part of the plan."

"And now that we've found out that Bella Qiao's disappearance is related to Nangong Yu, we can deduce from this that Nangong Yu and Nangong Xue should be supporting this latter series of activities."

"As for the reason for capturing Bella Qiao, it's possible that it's true as Xu Changzheng said, that he simply wanted to be a threat to you when dealing with the Dragon Corps, but it's also possible that the rest of the reason is unknown to us."

Gu Si Qian's face sank as he listened to his analysis down like this.

He said quietly, "They're trying to kill two birds with one stone."

"It's possible."

Biden Lu nodded slightly, "Deliberately take advantage of the Chinese Society's move against Bella Qiao, send someone halfway to intercept him, draw the battle to the Chinese Society, enter the battle when we and the Chinese Society both lose, become the final winner, and then turn around to deal with us after destroying the Chinese Society and completely swallowing up his territory."

"And at that time, we're already wounded ourselves, and with Bella Qiao in their hands, causing you to tie your hands, it will be easy to swallow the dragon group again."

Gu Si Qian's face was gloomy.

Jenny's heart was also somewhat horrified.

She never would have imagined that a mere case of disappearance could involve such a great deal of calculation and planning behind it.

She asked with some concern, "So what do we do now?"

Biden Lu and Gu Si Qian looked at her together.

Biden Lu smiled, "Since we've gotten a glimpse of the truth, it's natural to sabotage their plan and go straight for the yellow dragon."

So, the next day, Gu Si Qian set off with his people.

This time, there was no need for Biden Lu and Jenny Jing to take action again, after all, it was true that the Nan Clan had deep roots, but this time, they were acting in secret and it was also true that they wanted to play a dirty trick.

But all dirty tricks can never see the light of day, and since they can't see the light of day, they don't dare to send people out against them in a big way.

So just having Gu Si Qian bring a team of people over to rescue them was already completely sufficient.

Besides, those three people were already under their control, and they had already found out where Bella Qiao was being held and what was going on over there.

By now there should be no word from that side that they have control of the three men.

So, the best way is not to kill the two fish, but to sneak in without the society knowing how they stole the people over while they were still unaware of it.

This way the faces of both sides were not torn, and it avoided causing another war at this critical juncture, and in the end no one got any benefit.

Fortunately, the operation went pretty well.

With a team of men and horses in tow, it didn't take much effort to rescue the people when they arrived at their destination.

When the person was rescued, it was discovered that Joaki was unconscious.

Maybe they've been giving her sleeping pills to control her, so she should have been sleeping there in a daze all this time.

After half a month, seeing the woman he loved again, Gu Siqian was both excited and heartbroken.

Once in the car, she was quickly checked up and down.

It was a little reassuring to find that she had no external injuries other than being unconscious.

But spare a thought, after half a month of captivity, Bella Qiao was still much thinner than before.

The delicate face was so pale that there was not a trace of blood in it, and the eyes were closed, nestled in his arms like a piece of light white paper, as if it would crumble at the slightest touch.

Gu Si Qian only felt his heart clench.

The person was brought back to the castle that night, and as soon as she got home, a doctor was immediately called to examine her.

The doctor did a thorough examination of her and found that there was nothing physically wrong with her, but her consciousness was rather confused and the reason she had been in a coma at the moment was that too many sleeping pills had deterred her from entering.

And the reason for the confusion of consciousness should be because of that.

Gu Si Qian's face immediately sank when he heard it.

If it wasn't for the fact that Biden Lu and Jenny Jing were watching, they might have rushed over to settle the score with the gang at this time.

The good news is that after a doctor's consultation, he said that the problem is not a big one, and that you just need to rest for a while and take some medicine to take care of your body.

That's how we all put our heads down.

By this time, the night was late.

Jenny Jing looked at the simple and fragile girl lying on the bed, only then did she remember that this was actually the first time she had seen the woman Gu Siqian loved.

She couldn't help but smile, "It's good that the person has been rescued, they say that good fortune has its own destiny, and since she has been rescued, she won't have any more problems, Gu Siqian, you shouldn't worry too much."

Kusken didn't look at her, just nodded.

Chapter 916

He'd been by the bedside ever since Bella Qiao had been rescued, refusing to step back half a step even as the doctor examined her.

Knowing that he was now lost and found, his state of mind naturally wasn't something ordinary people could compare to, so people didn't care.

After a few more subtle persuasions, since it was getting late and the person was fine anyway, just needed to recuperate, they didn't bother and went back to their rooms to rest.

The doctor gave her the medicine and also retired after leaving the medicine she had to take in the morning.

This left only Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao in the room at once.

He sat on the edge of the bed and looked at the woman on the bed, holding her hand in his aching heart.

God knows, it was only at this point that he realized how important it was for him to speak to Jocie.

For the past half month, he had seemed to be a coup, but in reality only he knew how scared he was.

Fear that she would never be found again, that something would happen to her, that one day when she found her, she would see a corpse.

So to see her lying here safe and sound now is not only heartbreaking, it's grateful.

Thank God for giving her back to herself.

From now on, the past, the tangles and feuds that had made the two so incredibly concerned, he would never bring up again.

He would cherish her and never let her be hurt in the slightest again.

Kusken just sat there with her for a long, long time, thinking silently.

The next morning.

Jenny woke up early and came over to this side of the main building early in the morning to see if Bella Qiao was awake.

I didn't expect to meet Ober coming down the stairs just as I walked into the lobby of the main building.

She and Biden Lu had lived here for such a long time, and she was already familiar with Ober.

When you see him, you don't smile and greet him, "Good morning, Ober."

Uncle Ou also liked Jenny, he didn't know Biden Lu and Jenny before, he only knew that the Lu and Gu families didn't deal well with each other.

And the young master of the family will inherit the Gu family in the future, so even he doesn't have a good opinion of the Lu family.

But after this time together, he realized that the two people in the Lu family were both very, very nice people.

As good as your own young master and Miss Qiao are, they are as good as they can be.

So even that put aside past preconceptions and made out with her.

Ober chuckled, "Is Mrs. Luke up so early and coming over to see Miss Jo?"

Jenny smiled and nodded, "Yeah, is she awake now?"

At the mention of this, Ober was so happy that he couldn't see his eyebrows, "Awake and resting in her room, young master is with her."

Jenny Jing sniffed, looked upstairs and smiled, "Is it convenient for me to go up and see her now?"

She didn't want to accidentally barge in and see something she shouldn't.

Naturally, Ober knew what she meant and smiled, "Convenient, convenient."

Only then did Jenny let his mind down and said, "Then I'm going up."

"Eh."

Jenny made his way up the stairs to the room where Bella Qiao had been sent in yesterday.

She knocked on the door and heard a steady male voice from inside, "Come in."

Pushing through the door, I immediately saw the woman sitting on the bed.

Gu Si Qian is sitting on the edge of the bed, feeding Bella Qiao his medicine.

Because her body was fine this time, but her essence was more severely damaged by the sleeping pills, so the doctor didn't prescribe her Xi.

Medicine, but rather some herbal medicine prescribed specifically to restore clarity and nourishing effects to the Godai.

At this time, Gu Si Qian was patiently feeding her spoonful by spoonful.

Seeing her come in, Gu Si Qian stopped what he was doing and turned to ask her, "What are you doing here?"

Jenny Jing smiled, "I came to see how Miss Qiao is doing."

She said, stepping closer.

Last night, because it was so late, and because Georgie herself was not in a good state, she didn't really observe the girl too much.

At this point the other woke up and took a closer look, only to find that it was also a beauty.

She couldn't help but smile, "It looks like you're getting better."

Bella Qiao looked at her blankly for a few seconds before asking, "Are you..."

Gu Siqian introduced, "She is Jenny."

There was a pause, and then, "Biden Lu's wife."

Kitty Qiao stared at him with a sudden realization.

"Oh, I remember, you're SEVEN!"

Jenny smiled and nodded, "Yes, that's me."

Jackie suddenly became embarrassed and touched her head, "What a privilege to meet you, you know? You used to be my idol!"

Jenny raised her eyebrows in surprise, "Really? I don't know about that."

As if Gu Si Qian didn't quite want them to say too much, he interrupted them coldly when he saw that Jenny Jing had finished looking at the people.

"Okay, now that people have seen it, you can get out, right?"

Jenny stalled and stared at him in a bad way.

"Hey, what's that tone of voice? I came to see someone with good intentions, not to see you, so what right do you have to kick me out?"

Bella Qiao also laughed, "Ignore him, I just woke up and my head is still a bit foggy at the moment, when did you guys get here?"

Jenny Jing then told her about the things that he and Biden Lu had come over, and even told her roughly about the events that had happened during this time.

A moment ago, she was clearly angry that Gu Siqian had driven her away, but now, after briefly going over the events that had happened during this time, she suddenly realized that Gu Siqian had literally worked hard to find Bella Qiao all this time.

It's almost as if you're gambling your family's fortune on it.

Now that the man was back and well awake, it was natural to want to spend more time alone with her.

Here I am, and it looks like I don't have the eyes to disturb someone's duo.

She smiled awkwardly at the thought.

"Well, you guys keep talking, I have other things to do, so I'll leave you guys alone."

Bella Qiao nodded and said, "When I'm feeling better, I'll come back to you."

Jenny nodded and smiled at her in a friendly manner, before turning around and going out.

After she left, Bella Qiao Fang turned to look at Gu Si Qian.

She looked at her a little disapprovingly and said, "Why did you just treat her like that? They're guests from afar, how bad is this?"

Kusken looked at her with deep eyes.

The emotions contained within that glance were very complex, and it wasn't clear whether it was pleasure, relief, or something else.

Bella Qiao looked a little startled.

She touched her face and asked curiously, "What's wrong? Do I have something on my face?"

Kusken said quietly, "No."

I said, getting another sip of the medicine and putting it to her mouth, "Open your mouth."

Only then did Bella Qiao obediently open her mouth and drink the mouthful of medicine.

Chapter 917

It was only after he had finished a small bowl of medicine that Gu Siqian called the maid and took the bowl out.

He sat back on the edge of the bed, looked at Bella Qiao, and asked, "How much of this time do you remember?"

At the mention of this, Bella Qiao's face went indifferent white.

She looked at Gu Siqian, her bright eyes showing a bit of a blank look.

Gu Si Qian's eyes darkened.

As soon as she looked at her face, she knew that she could only remember nothing from this period of time.

It was actually a bit strange to say the least, all this time, Bella Qiao had been locked up in that place by them, and no one usually came to take care of her.

According to her own words, they did not mistreat her or torture her or anything.

And other than those two things, she couldn't even say anything about the memory of the time.

She herself didn't know what was going on, and Kuskan didn't know what she had been through during this time, and naturally, she didn't know any more.

Currently, he hadn't told anyone about this problem, not even Biden Lu and Jenny Jing.

There's actually one other important point.

I don't know why, but Bella Qiao is back, she's still the same person she used to be, and her appearance hasn't changed much.

But Gu Siqian just had a vague feeling that there was something different about the current Bella Qiao than the old Bella Qiao.

It wasn't an inexplicable bending of the mind or his own hocus-pocus, but something that could really be felt in the eyes and in the look.

He didn't tell anyone this for fear of overthinking it.

It's also because it's just a gut feeling that doesn't mean anything, and it's more likely that you're just overthinking it.

So Rao was now basically certain of what she must have gone through during the time that Bella Qiao was unconscious, but he still hadn't told anyone about this thought himself.

Thinking thus, he reassured in a quiet voice, "It's nothing, don't be imagining things."

Bella Qiao nodded blankly.

After calming her down, Gu Si Qian spent some time with her again.

At this time, perhaps the residual drugs in her body were up, and Georgie felt a little sleepy.

Kusken then stayed with her again and let her lie down.

It wasn't long before Georgie was asleep again.

After she fell asleep, Gu Siqian left gently.

In the garden downstairs, Jenny was sitting there drinking morning tea with Biden Lu.

Now that Bella Qiao had been rescued, everyone's heart was relieved, so even their moods relaxed with it.

As for the Chinese Association, there's no need to rush for now.

Because that side is now being attacked from several sides, it has long since reached a very crisis point, and without much more effort on their part, it will naturally fall.

Now their target, instead, will be on the South family.

If it was true, as they suspected, that all of this had been planned by the Nan Clan, then the destruction of the Chinese Society should not be the end, just the beginning.

The next period of time is the real battle.

Think of it this way, it's still early anyway, so there's no rush for this moment.

As they were drinking their tea, they saw Gu Si Qian come out of it.

Jenny smiled and waved at him, saying, "Why don't you stay with your little Bella Qiaoao?"

Gu Si Qian came over with a grimace and said, "She just finished her medicine and went to sleep."

Biden Lu raised his eyebrows, looked at the watch on his wrist, and said in surprise, "Sleeping again?"

"Well."

Jenny was also a little appalled.

She couldn't help but laugh, "Is she feeling ill? Didn't you just wake up, why are you asleep again?"

Gu Si Qian looked at the hidden colour of worry beneath her smile, his eyebrows were slightly darker, and he said in a deep voice, "It's probably because the drug in her body hasn't been completely removed, and last night the doctor said that this kind of symptom, she should continue for a few more days."

The two men listened.

"As long as it's okay, it's a good thing she made it back this time, but then she just needs to recuperate."

Kuskan nodded.

The three of them sat there and had a brief discussion about the current situation, and their plans for the next steps.

The Chinese Association is now a strong crossbow, and at this point, neither one will give up again.

Biden Lu had already contacted Kepler's side in the morning, and Jenny Jing had also contacted the Zijin family's side, and their opinions were to take advantage of the situation and directly take all of the Chinese Club's territory.

Jenny and Biden Lu were fine with it, but to be on the safe side, they still told them what they had found out during this period of time, about the Nan Clan's possible involvement in the muddle.

Although Kepler and Zhuge Feng were surprised, they were not shocked.

After all, it wasn't any one family that was going to deal with them, but all of them together, and even if the Nan Clan wanted to make any moves, they would have to weigh whether or not they could eat all of these powers in one go.

After some deliberation, we all had no opinion on the final outcome.

So, they went back to their rooms to rest.

At noon, Georgie woke up.

When she woke up Gu Siqian was not there, the curtains were half drawn and there was warm sunlight coming in from outside, illuminating the entire room.

Georgie got out of bed and headed out.

As soon as I reached the door, I heard a quiet laugh from the garden outside.

She walked down a long corridor to a terrace near the garden and took a look, only to see that it was Jenny walking Gu Siqian's two large dogs in the garden.

It was a golden retriever and a shepherd, only she was backing away from them as she brought them food.

Biden Lu just sat on the side quietly watching with a spoiled and gentle smile on his face.

Jenny loved dogs and always felt that they were the most loyal animals in the world.

So it was fun to play with them.

The two big dogs seemed to like her too, and kept going after the snacks she had in her hands.

As he was playing, Jenny occasionally looked up and saw Bella Qiao standing on the first floor terrace.

She stopped and fed the snacks to both dogs before smiling up at her, "You awake?The sun is nice outside, want to come down and walk?"

Bella Qiao hesitated and nodded, "Good."

She turned and headed downstairs.

Gu Si Qian didn't know what he was doing at the moment, and the entire main building was devoid of him.

Bella Qiao didn't think too much about it, and turned straight to the garden at the back, Biden Lu saw them two women together, and it was inevitable that a man staying here by himself would make it hard for them to whisper, so he made an excuse to leave.

Jenny took the two dogs with him and Bella Qiao just took a slow stroll through the garden.

"You're awake, how are you feeling physically now?"

Bella Qiao, perhaps because she had slept for a long time, always felt a little uncomfortable on her body.
