

Chapter 941

For Chen Feng, it was only a phone call, but for Chu Qingwan, it seemed to have saved her life.

Chen Feng looked at her as if she was still very disappointed, and immediately said, "Don't worry, I said something non-existent on the phone. I just want them to do nothing to you. You can rest assured that they will never do anything to you. Those who dare to fire you will never let you go with Rose again."

But it seems that Chu Qingwan was not worried about this, she whispered, and Chen Feng said again: "If you want to worry about it, I will go there in person."

Chu Qingwan hurriedly refused: "No, it's all right now."

Chen Feng also asked curiously: "Then why are you still depressed?"

Chu Qingwan moved her lips and said softly, "But I don't know how to repay you. You helped me twice, and one is heavier than one. I really don't know how to..."

Chen Feng didn't expect it to be this kind of thing. He said with disapproval: "It's just a matter of effort, I don't even care about it."

But when Chen Feng said so, he didn't let Chu Qingwan's sorrows dissipate.

Chen Feng asked helplessly: "Then what do you want to do, you can't let me fall again, and then you come and save me."

Chu Qingwan seemed to be thinking too.

Chen Feng thought for a while, and said, "Otherwise, I helped you twice. I can promise my two wishes, as long as you can do it and don't make you feel compelled. What do you think? Sample?"

Chu Qing thoughtfully said, "But you can't say anything particularly simple for me to do. It must have a little practical meaning."

Chen Feng just thought that if she agreed, he would just say anything, just let her not care anyway, but this way, he didn't know how to do it.

But he nodded and agreed: "Yes, but I haven't thought about it yet, so I owe it for the time being."

It was agreed with Chu Qingwan that she only smiled slightly. Every time she saw Chu Qingwan who was silent as ice and smiling like a flower, she felt that the world was really magical, so that the two scenes of ice and fire would appear on the same person's face.

After saying something more, Chen Feng is really going to leave. After such a long time, it is estimated that Bai Xing and the others have been looking for him everywhere.

Sure enough, seeing Bai Xing at the door of the ward, he greeted him with anxious expression.

"Shao Chen, where did you go? We found that you disappeared suddenly, and others didn't know when we asked, thinking you were taken away by that woman again."

Chen Feng hurriedly apologized: "I met an acquaintance and talked a few words. I'm really sorry."

Chen Feng looked at him again and asked, "Are you the only one? How about the others?"

Bai Xing replied, "Hu Xuchen went to the lobby to see you. I'll call them."

Ten minutes later, in Chen Feng's side ward, all three of them had arrived. Chen Feng said, "The man named Dachun died and was killed by the desert wolf woman."

It seems that several people have guessed it. After Chen Feng was in a coma, they also investigated it, so it is not difficult to come to this conclusion, but the identity of the woman made them unexpected.

"Is that woman from Molang?" Bai Xing asked.

Chen Feng nodded: "The woman's shoulder is tattooed with a black wolf head, which should indicate that she is a man of indifferent wolf.”

Several people are digesting this information, but all that can be thought of is that Dachun must know something, otherwise he will not be killed by the people of Molang.

“I think we can go through Dachun’s house again. There may be any clues. If it is about killing Qianchen, that would be the best.”

Although the possibility of knowing this idea is not high, no one opposes it.

“The strength of that woman seems to be very powerful. I just hit her with a punch and I was touched to the seventh or eighth floor, and this is still the situation after the battle between her and the Feng brother.”

Chen Feng also nodded. After the opponent fought him for so long, he also knew that woman, at least in the pinnacle state.

“I’m afraid she is also one of the best among Mowolf. The moves tend to be soft, but the stamina is full. Fighting with her must not be a protracted battle. It is best to break out directly.” Chen Feng thought for a while, worrying: “I just don’t know her. What is the purpose. However, I think that since Molang has already taken action, the day to deal with Qianjia will be fast. At that time, it would be easy to prove the innocence of the young master.”

When Chen Feng said so, Hu Xuchen and the two only managed to squeeze out a smile.

And in Molang’s stronghold in Lanshi, the woman who was fighting with Chen Feng was soaking in the milk bath, quietly enjoying the quiet time.

But a few footsteps made her frown slightly.

At this time, a woman in a black dress walked in slowly. Her face was charming, not smiling but charming, as if she naturally seduce people to touch her.

And she walked to the bath, looked at the woman in the bath, and smiled lightly: “You will really enjoy it.”

The woman in the bath coldly opened her eyes and said to her, “If you can’t tell me a reason for satisfaction, you should know the consequences of disturbing my bathing.”

The flattering woman smiled and said, “I know, it is natural that important things will come, otherwise, who wants to deal with you, a weird guy.”

“Say it if you have something.”

The woman chuckled and said, “There is a very precious thing in Qianjia who is going to be transported out of their treasure house recently. The wolf owner asked me to pay attention, and finally there is a chance to grab the thing.”

The woman in the bath asked suspiciously, “Do it, don’t you need to hide it anymore?”

The woman replied: “The wolf master said that if it is for that thing, there is no need to hide it, just do it directly. If the thousand families know it, then go to war directly.”

The woman in the bath showed a smile, but she still smiled coldly.

“This message shouldn’t make you comment on me anymore.”

But as soon as she finished speaking, she was splashed with milk by the other party, and she frowned in disgust.

“When you are finished, hurry up and leave.”

As for that precious thing, it was also intensively prepared by thousands of families at this time.

Originally such an important matter should never be heard by any outsiders, but only after they had to make a decision, the whole desert seemed to have received a message.

Chihiro Yi was even more furious. He had been reprimanded countless times, but how the information leaked out was impossible to find out.

This matter has also become a thorn in Qianjia's heart, but since the original information has been leaked, the best way is to cancel the original opportunity, but the party who received this treasure has always insisted that Qianjia must take it out.

Chapter: 942

Thousands of families had no choice but to follow the original plan.

In the thousands of secret rooms, there are thousands of clans.

Starting from the left in turn, is the seated Chihiro Art, the current Patriarch of the Thousand Family.

The next one, the only master of the Qian Family, Qianhiro Ken, is also the younger brother of Qianxun Art.

After that, there were several elders and thousands of other families.

It's just a circle, and there are more than a dozen people.

"I want to come, everyone knows why everyone gathers in this secret hall, gift Emperor Taihao, and only you can contact. I don't need to say more, except for the people here, who can disclose this matter."

Qianxunyi's tone is indifferent and cold, and the unique aura of the superior is like freezing the air, making people suffocate.

Looking at the faces of everyone, one by one was silent, but Qianxun Qian was arbitrarily fearless and didn't put this matter in his eyes.

And he was like this, no one in the thousands of families dared to blame anything, everyone knew that if he really revealed the secrets of the thousands of families and betrayed the thousands, then this gathering would be meaningless from the beginning.

The quiet atmosphere made Chihiro Yi speak again: "You don't want to say something?"

The crowd just looked around.

"You don't need to ask here. If they really dare to do it, they have already planned not to be discovered.

No matter how much you persecute, it will be fake." At this time, Chihiro Ken interrupted.

Chihiro Yi didn't continue his words, but just scanned the people in the thousand families.

At this time, one of the oldest clan elders slowly said, "Giant Emperor Taihao, it was originally the most important secret of my thousand family, but if the information is leaked, it can be determined that this matter is the work of the thousand family members, it is too arbitrary. ."

Chihiro Yi frowned slightly, but he was talking about the elders of the clan. He could only lower his posture and said, "Uncle clan, although you are reasonable, but if there are really no members of the thousand family, what is the thousand family? A family whose information is easily leaked? I don't think the clan uncle would think so."

Chihiro Ken with a scholarly face just smiled coldly, and he didn't seem to like this uncle too much.

The uncle turned his head and stopped talking.

"But what the clan uncle said is not unreasonable. If it is really the information that was forcibly stolen by someone, then if we blame each other like this, isn't it a trick of the other party?"

There was a voice immediately, and there seemed to be some whispers below, and they seemed to agree.

Chihiro Yi knows what these people think, but he keeps things from going to his own body, and his face is a little gloomy because of this.

He said solemnly: "Since everyone can't tell me, I will investigate this matter again. If I find out something, you know the punishment of the traitor by the house rules, so I don't need to remind me."

Can hear the word “house rules”, these people are like eggplants beaten by frost.

Chihiro Yi just wanted such an effect. Looking at everyone, he sneered in his heart, his face still serious: “Then how to deal with the next thing now, I think you always have to say something, otherwise, how can I? It’s not just a laughing stock.”

If you get rid of the punishment, everyone has spirit.

“Given Emperor Taihao with such a valuable thing, as I mean it, I still cancel this plan.” Someone said.

But someone immediately retorted: “Cancellation is no good. If there is no gift to Emperor Taihao, the Sea Lion Tower will never agree. This time coincides with the dark tide of heaven and earth once a hundred years. It is the best time to open that secret place.”

Then someone agreed: “I don’t think it can be canceled. Time is tight. At most, I can change the time for opening the Qianjia Caverns for one or two days to confuse the coveted young people outside, but it can’t be canceled.”

“Cancellation is naturally not possible. Can you refute the rumors and tell the outside world that this message is only false.”

The people of Qianjia said a lot, but Chihiro Yi only heard all kinds of reasons for their refusal to cancel this plan, but there was no way to avoid accidents. Even his brother was just there, like watching a movie.

While there was some confusion, Chihiro Yi noticed a member of the Qian family.

The man was very young, and Chihiro Yi recognized it for a long time before finally remembering which room he came from.

If you count it up, it seems that he shouldn’t be gathered here. An offshoot of a thousand families should only be a marginal person.

But I don’t know why, but he met Qianxunyi’s father, that is, old man Qian. The two had a bit of meaning to have a relationship with one another, and this time the concubine got involved because of old man Qian.

“He will have some effect on you.” This is what Mr. Qian said to him himself.

Chihiro Yi thought for a while, and remembered the other party’s name, Qian Xueqiu.

He opened his mouth and said, “Xueqiu!”

Hearing the Patriarch’s exit, everyone stopped discussing, but all of them were puzzled, not knowing who this Xueqiu was mentioned by Qianxunyi.

And the young man with red lips and white teeth was also taken aback. He didn’t expect Qianxun Art to call him by his name.

“The patriarch!” he replied.

The tone is fairly relaxed, and there is no detention and tension of some young people because of being here.

The impression is pretty good, Qianxunyi thought so, and asked, “Say, what are we going to do?”

Everyone in the thousands of families looked at this strange little guy curiously, but no one seemed to know his origins, and even Qianhiro Ken looked over curiously.

Qian Xueqiu scanned all the curious eyes that looked at him, and said with a serious face: “Since the incident has already happened, you should all know the truth about the fact that it’s hard to get over it.”

He paused, wanting to see the reaction of the thousand family members, but no one spoke.

He had no choice but to continue: “The little nephew thinks that since this is the case, it is better to advertise it, so that they understand that Qianjia has treasures to be shown, and even invite major families to come and appreciate it to make things bigger.”

Before he finished speaking, someone looked at him stunnedly. When he stopped, an elder from a thousand families said disdainfully: “Make things big, you think it is not easy to lose the gift emperor Taihao, right?”

Qian Xueqiu smiled lightly: “I didn’t say that we were going to tell them that what we were showing was to give Emperor Taihao. There is more than one treasure in the Qianjia secret storehouse.”

Chihiro Yi didn’t understand it clearly, but Chihiro Ken on the side seemed to have guessed what he meant.

“With fake and true, it’s a good trick to keep the Mingxiu plank road secret.” He praised.

Hearing his explanation, Chihiro Yi immediately understood.

He admired the general look at Qian Xueqiu, and said, “Okay, I think it’s okay.”

At this time, some members of the Qian Family who had reacted looked at Qian Xueqiu with admiration, but the one who had just spoken didn’t quite understand, but watching everyone’s reaction, experience told him not to speak.

Chapter: 943

Qian Xueqiu nodded and said, “It’s just a little bit of my nephew’s humble opinion. Everything is determined by the owner. However, my nephew still has something to say that although it is a plan for Mingxiu plank roads to keep secrets, but my nephew thinks it can be prevented but those who just know some people who gossip, people who really know the truth, they will definitely do something else.”

Chihiro Yi looked at the others in the room, “Do you have any comments?”

The just appreciation has already surfaced their attitudes, but if you talk about people who know the truth of the matter, then naturally they will have to discuss the leak, which makes this group of people lose the idea of discussing it.

“Things are still coming step by step, let’s solve the current problem first.”

Everyone has the same opinion, and Qianxunyi can only temporarily shelve it, he said.

“Since this is the case, let’s solve the matter of giving Emperor Taihao first, but you must not think that this matter has passed. If you really know something, I hope you can consider it for the benefit of the family.”

“Please rest assured that the Patriarch, since we think that we are a member of the Thousand Clan, we will naturally not take care of the Qian Clan’s interests.” Someone said.

In his heart, Chihiro Yi dismissed what the other party said. He knew what these people did behind their backs. They didn’t do anything that hurt the wealth of the thousands of families, but it was not the time to discuss these things.

“I just thought about it for a while. Since I want to announce the matter, it is better for them to see the information from any trail. Therefore, I decided to open an exhibition to give Huang Taihao and invite the majors The family comes to enjoy,”

The old Zong nodded first, and then everyone else agreed.

This matter is so determined.

Between the sky and the earth, there is a sunset glow, and the birds falling on the horizon are drifting away.

Chen Feng received the invitation of Qianjia, but he also didn’t know what gifted Emperor Taihao was.

He put the invitation letter on the table, with Chu Qingwan in front of him.

"I don't know what kind of tour it is. If you are not interested, just forget it." Chen Feng came to Chu Qingwan to invite her to accompany her to the exhibition.

Chu Qingwan looked at Chen Feng. He was very serious, but also found it strange. She asked, "Why are you inviting me?"

Chu Qingwan's expression was very cautious, as if she was a little scared, as if she was afraid of what Chen Feng would do to her.

Chen Feng hurriedly explained: "The Rose you mentioned when you talked to the manager of your company may also appear at the show."

But saying this, Chu Qingwan still didn't understand: "Then, shouldn't I go?"

Chen Feng said again, "Well! Actually, I think so. If that guy didn't get you this time, he would definitely come to harass you, so if he sees you with me, I think you can be quieter in the future. At least I won't be disturbed by him."

Chu Qingwan's face immediately turned red, and she whispered, "Well, I thought you were..."

"What did you say?"

"It's nothing, but is this not so good for you? That Rose heard that he is the first heir of the Rose family."

Chu Qingwan said worriedly.

Chen Feng smiled and waved his hand: "Not to mention that he is just the first in line heir to a foreign family. Even if he is in China, he is just an heir. The real master will have to wait until he inherits. This kind of son, brother, I am not too worried."

Chen Feng said so, and Chu Qingwan looked at him, and it didn't seem like she was lying.

But she still thought about it.

Attending such an important occasion with a strange man who has only met a few times, even if she has been able to manage the company, she still feels worried in her heart.

She didn't have any dislikes for Chen Feng in her heart, and even those two wishes made her feel a little bit good.

But this seems to bear Chen Feng's love once again.

At this time, Chen Feng said again: "I did this because I was actually selfish. It's not as noble as you think."

As he said, Chu Qingwan raised her head curiously and looked at Chen Feng.

Chen Feng knew that Chu Qingwan was still struggling, and smiled: "For such an important gathering, everyone will definitely bring a female partner, and the beauty of the female partner will be secretly compared by those people, and if I just passed by, They will definitely think that I am very shameless. They will even despise me, so I thought of asking you to accompany me."

Chu Qingwan smiled softly. She also knew that the manners and manners of a female partner on this occasion would give a man extra points, but she did not expect that even a seemingly innocent person like Chen Feng would want this method.

"Then if I refuse to go, am I very sorry to you. Then would you use those two wishes to ask me to pass?"

Chu Qingwan asked suddenly curiously.

Chen Feng didn't expect that she would say this, and thought: "Well, it's not anymore. These two wishes are so important, I don't want to waste it so much."

As soon as he finished speaking, Chu Qingwan was a little happy, but then he didn't know why, and was a little sad.

"I am teasing you, this thing is also a good thing for me, how could I not go."

Chen Feng seemed to be relieved, and looking at Chen Feng's appearance, Chu Qingwan smiled lightly: "But this kind of occasion naturally needs to wear different clothes, but I don't have one yet. You have to accompany me to buy it."

After speaking, Chu Qingwan was a little surprised. If she was asked to tell a man to accompany her to buy clothes, she would never say it. She was always alone, but just now it seemed to be very casual.

For Chen Feng, there is no problem, he agreed.

"This is my honour."

Early the next morning, Chen Feng borrowed a car and went to the downstairs of Chu Qingwan's house to wait.

The car is not too expensive. The BMW 8 Series is even rarer now. It was originally limited to the world. Chen Feng was blackmailed from Baixing.

But even so, the car was parked there, and people still stopped to watch it from time to time, and they seemed to be curious about this beautiful red BMW.

Chen Feng just waited downstairs for a short time, and Chu Qingwan wore a simple floral dress and made up a long braid with refreshing small twists.

The eyebrows are not painted, simple but pure. If you only see it on the side of the road, you would never think that she will be the manager of the commerce department of a large company.

Seeing Chen Feng's car in Chu Qingwan, she curiously asked Chen Feng, who was standing there waiting for him: "Where did you get it from? Why haven't I seen this BMW car?"

Because there are so many people that Chu Qingwan has contact with, you can also recognize a person's status and status based on the car model.

Chapter: 944

Chen Feng smiled and said, "I borrowed it from a friend. I don't know what it is. But it looks okay."

Then Chu Qingwan got into the car and went to the largest commercial building in Lan City.

In the most prosperous area, the cars are like flowing water, and even the best cars have to move slowly in front of the traffic.

Before the traffic lights, looking at the numbers for more than a minute, she said to Chu Qingwan:

"These days, the manager hasn't come to you, right?"

Chu Qingwan said: "He didn't come here, he should know your identity and dare not come again.

However, I haven't been to the company recently, and I don't know what will happen."

She looked worried, her red lips pursed lightly, and her head was silent.

Chen Feng thought for a while, and said, "If you feel embarrassed to stay in the original department again, I'll say it for you and ask them to change you one."

While talking, from a cross-country car next to the car, a hearty young man looked at Chen Feng and the others.

"Beauty, you are so beautiful, I always feel as if I have seen you somewhere. Can you tell me your name?"

He seemed to treat Chen Feng as air, but he talked with Chu Qingwan like no one else.

Chu Qingwan frowned, just raised her head and glanced at him, then ignored him.

Chen Feng coldly looked at this frivolous guy: "Do you think you are very humorous?"

At this time, the other party seemed to have noticed him because Chen Feng opened his mouth, and Yan Yan smiled and said, "Oh, there are still people. I'm really sorry, the beauty is too bright, I ignored the people next to her."

But even though he was sorry, he didn't mean to apologize at all. As he said, he looked at Chu Qingwan again: "What, beauty, how about getting to know, I am Zhao Donglai."

Chen Feng became more angry, and Chu Qingwan had more disgust on her face. If it weren't for the red light, she had let Chen Feng drive, but she still closed the car window silently.

"Hey, beauty..." The man's shout can still be heard outside the car window.

Chu Qingwan then apologized to Chen Feng, "I'm sorry."

She really seems to feel that it's her fault to be struck up to cause trouble, and the shame on her face is so real.

"Why do you want to apologize to me? It's not your fault. Your beauty is luck, but it shouldn't be a burden." Chen Feng said with a trace of doubt.

Chu Qingwan still thinks so: "It's just..."

She opened her mouth, but she couldn't tell.

Chen Feng didn't say more, the red light had passed, and he followed the car in front and set off again.

But just after two or three street lights, Chen Feng found that black Mercedes was still following them.

But looking at Chu Qingwan's expression, Chen Feng did not tell her.

After waiting until the parking lot of the commercial building, the other party actually stopped beside Chen Feng and the others.

Before getting out of the car, the other party walked down and knocked on the window of Chu Qingwan.

The sudden voice made Chu Qingwan a little surprised, she looked at Chen Feng in surprise.

Chen Feng said softly: "It's the guy just now. You are sitting in the car and don't know how to worry. I'll just do it."

Chu Qingwan nodded seriously: "Yeah."

Chen Feng also smiled at Chu Qingwan, trying to make her feel more at ease, and Chu Qingwan did feel something from it.

When I got off the car, I saw Zhao Donglai standing there expectantly.

"Do you want to die?" Chen Feng asked directly.

Zhao Donglai looked up, grinned, and said, "I like your humor, but things have nothing to do with you now. If you are acquainted, just get away from me."

Chen Feng shook his head. This kind of guy might be so lawless just because he was spoiled by the family.

He stopped talking nonsense, closed the car door, and walked slowly towards the other party.

Zhao Donglai seemed to look at Chen Feng curiously, completely unaware of what would happen next.

Originally thought that he would be resolved soon, but Chen Feng tried to push him aside, but he easily avoided him.

This didn't make Chen Feng think: "You actually know martial arts, and you really can't see it at all."

After Zhao Donglai took two steps back, he also knew what Chen Feng meant: "Listen to what you mean, you have also practiced? But if you are frizzy like you, you have to do it. Is it really disgusting like shit?"

Chen Feng was too lazy to talk nonsense with him, and rushed over again, although he knew he could martial arts, but for him, this was just a lot of effort.

But when he played against each other, he knew that he was wrong.

A dozen times of violent fists were dodged by him as if it were difficult, but although it was only a little worse, each time it was so well-measured, it was worthy of hiding, and Chen Feng naturally saw the problem.

"Who are you?"

“As long as I defeat you, does that woman belong to me?” He smiled obscenely, as if it was just for the sake of clarity.

Since the other party didn't want to say, Chen Feng had to think about hitting him until he was willing to say so. He changed his moves, punching and kicking him very sharply. The fist that happened to be avoided, punched the car window beside Zhao Donglai with one punch. , The window of his black Mercedes was immediately broken into pieces and fell into the car.

“Ah! My car.” Zhao Donglai looked at the broken window with pain, but then shook his head and said, “Forget it, I have to go back and buy a new one.”

While he was speaking, Chen Feng approached again.

But Zhao Donglai knew that Chen Feng's aura was obviously higher than him, so he hurried back away again, the distance from Chen Feng was only the length of a car.

“Hey, I just came up to strike up a conversation, do you want to kill me so much?” Zhao Donglai dissatisfied as he watched Chen Feng's moves getting closer and closer to the ultimate move.

“Without further ado.”

The fist wind tore the air and made a soft noise. Zhao Donglai's hem brushed his fist, but because the speed was too fast, he was directly torn by the fist.

“Hey, hello.” He shouted again, shaking his clothes, and said: “You fellow, don't force me, if you really start your hands, you may not necessarily be my opponent.”

As he said, he really put on a posture to be taken seriously.

Chen Feng was also a little wary, worried that he was really hiding some secret tricks.

But just when he was thinking about trying, Zhao Donglai turned around and ran, grabbed the wall next to him, and in the blink of an eye, he ran a dozen meters away.

Chen Feng looked at his back and thought for a while, but still did not catch up.

“Who is this guy?” Chen Feng murmured.

When he returned to the car, Chu Qingwan saw the same scene just now. She asked worriedly, “Are you okay?”

Chen Feng smiled and said, “How can something happen, I haven't even gotten hot yet. Let's go, that guy should not dare to come back again. But I promised you to take you with you for good shopping.

Chapter: 945

Buying things is a matter of thinking, and women buying clothes require more energy.

Chen Feng was just by his side, as if he had exhausted too much effort, even Chu Qingwan looked at the deserted woman, before shopping, she slightly revealed the woman's purchase.

Naturally, he couldn't let Chu Qingwan pay the money, and after persuading her, he was willing to accept these.

Returning to the car with large bags and small bags, Zhao Donglai's Mercedes was still there, the window was broken, and he could not be seen moving.

However, Chen Feng just took a look, and didn't pay much attention to it.

But when he opened the car door, there was a person in the back seat, and Chu Qingwan hid behind Chen Feng in shock.

That person is Zhao Donglai.

“What do you want to do?” Zhao Dong came and went, and even pried the car door. Chen Feng didn't think he was joking.

Zhao Donglai cocked his mouth, looked at Chen Feng, and said, “Don't worry, I'm not here to fight.”

He sat there very casually, as if not afraid of Chen Feng at all.

Chen Feng looked at him coldly, and said, "You didn't come to die, but you pried my car away. I don't think there is any reasonable explanation for this."

Zhao Donglai leaned there and stretched out his arms, looking tired.

"I went to find someone to check on you, and I didn't expect you to be so good. From Cangzhou to Yanjing, if it wasn't for that person who was indeed my confidant and was very capable, I would think he was lying to me. I was curious. You also seem to be a very ordinary guy, how can you be in front of so many ruthless people without having anything."

Chen Feng sternly said: "You'd better talk about your purpose, otherwise, I will have to ask you to go out."

Chen Feng put a hand on the back of Chu Qingwan's hand. She was no longer nervous and was listening to the conversation between the two in confusion.

Zhao Donglai quickly pretended to be scared, and said, "Hey, you can't be a little more civilized..., don't do it..., can I say it's not enough?"

Chen Feng then let go of Panasonic's fist.

Zhao Dong said, "I know that you are also in the ranks of thousands of families invited to visit the exhibition given to Huang Taihao. You don't need to deny it, I can confirm it. So, I found it just to ask you to do me a favor. "

"Why should I help you?" Chen Feng smiled.

Zhao Donglai finally recovered his cynical attitude, and said seriously, "I can give you things."

Chen Feng looked at him, unable to tell whether his current expression was real or whether it was just a performance.

"Let me? Why do you think I want that thing?"

Zhao Donglai chuckled, "It seems that you still don't know the value of this thing."

"Oh? Don't you seem to be familiar with that thing? As far as I know, this thing has been stored in the treasure house of thousands of families for more than a hundred years. The news of the incident is even less pitiful."

"Huh, that's all Qianjia talking to himself. For a hundred years, if I was in Qianjia then, my Zhao Donglai's name would be written upside down. Qianjia is just a shameless villain." He said angrily.

His anger can only show that there must be something to do with Emperor Taihao and Zhao Donglai.

Chen Feng thought for a while and said, "What you told me, why should I believe in you instead of the Qianjia? They are still me. Half a friend of. And, even so, you want to win the gift of Emperor Taihao from the thousand families. Whatever you think about it, it's just a ridiculous thing, let alone leave it to me."

"Don't you believe it?" Zhao Donglai questioned.

Chen Feng said, "I don't believe it."

Hearing this answer, Zhao Donglai was only a little disappointed, and he still said very seriously:

"Whether you believe it or not, the gift to Emperor Taihao is known as the only key to unlocking the Taihao God's Treasure, and this time the thousands of families will Take it out to prepare to open that secret place with the Sea Lion Tower. You are also trapped in the pinnacle, and maybe there is a way in that secret place."

Chen Feng did not know these things, but they just heard them: "Although I am indeed trapped in the pinnacle state, I have never thought of doing something that is impossible no matter what. It is no different from that. Seek a dead end."

It may be that Chen Feng's tone was too firm, Zhao Donglai was finally disappointed, and then he immediately returned to that madness, saying: "If this is the case, I can't persuade you anymore, but I won't give up like that. Wait. If you see it, you will definitely be interested in him."

When Chen Feng listened to him, he was about to leave, so he wanted to step forward and grab him.

This fellow disturbed him repeatedly, and Chen Feng naturally wanted to teach him a lesson.

But Zhao Donglai turned over, opened the door on the other side, and slipped out of the car.

When Chen Feng wanted to catch, he could only catch up, and he gave up.

When He Chu Qingwan returned to her residence, although Zhao Donglai was a little unpleasant on the road, in general, the shopping process was wonderful.

Those clothes were worn on Chu Qingwan's body, just like a model who just showed clothes.

Qianjia worked very hard to prepare for this exhibition. Although they knew that it was just to divert the attention of outsiders, it was also handled as a formal matter. After all, only a few people knew the truth.

Early in the morning, Qian Xueqiu stood at the venue and walked slowly inward. The layout here is almost the same. The exhibition stand placed in the center is also the highest-level anti-theft device. In addition to viewing from a distance, it is impossible to get close. It hasn't been sent in yet, it's still empty there.

And the whole hall is also extremely spacious, enough to accommodate hundreds of people, this time Qianjia went out for publicity, naturally also invited a lot of people.

Looking to the side, it is the people who are preparing to eat. They are busy preparing. Although there are a lot of hundreds of people, the guests are all distinguished guests. Naturally, they can't lose the face of thousands of families.

At this time, someone came over again, and when he saw Qian Xueqiu, he walked over directly.

"What are you doing here?"

Hearing someone talking to him, Qian Xueqiu turned around and looked at Qianxunqian standing aside. For the grandmaster of the Qian Family, Qian Xueqiu naturally respected: "Uncle Qian, my nephew just came to see if there is anything wrong."

"Well, you have the heart." Qianhiro Ken nodded, and then said, "But what do you think the traitor of the Qian family would be?"

Qianxueqiu didn't expect Qianxueqiu to ask so directly and a little bit cramped, but now that he has asked, he has to talk about his own opinions. If it is perfunctory, Qianxueqiu's temper is not good.

He still thought about it, and said, "In fact, my nephew thinks that things can't just stare at Qianjia, maybe there is something wrong with the sea lion building."

Chapter: 946

Qianxun Qian pondered what he meant, and said in a deep voice, "You think there is a problem with the Sea Lion Tower? The Sea Lion Tower has existed for thousands of years, but I have never heard of it. What happened to him is an outsider. , It is extremely difficult to enter the Sea Lion House, not to mention the kind of mental hypnosis."

Qian Xueqiu naturally knew the horror of the Sea Lion Tower, but there were some things that had to be said.

"The Sea Lion House is naturally difficult to penetrate, but Bo Qian has thought about it. If the Sea Lion House wants to see someone take action against Qianjia, then it is possible for them to leak out the information themselves."

When these words came out, it was as if lightning struck Qianhiro Ken. He was a little startled. After a while, he slowly said: "Years ago, the Lu family in Jiangdong didn't know what kind of enemy he had offended, and he was bloodbathed almost overnight. It's full. That Lu Family Grandmaster didn't even have time to make a move, and even the enemy didn't even know it."

Qian Xueqiu also heard about it. It's just that it's impossible for him to get access to confidential family information, but it's not difficult to find some information. Thinking about this now, it's not hard not to beware of the possibility, Lu Family's matter. Only a big thing like the Sea Lion Tower can do it so decisively.

"Uncle Qian, this is just a little speculation by my nephew."

Chihiro Ken knew what he meant: "Don't worry, even if it's just speculation, I won't say that this is what you said. Those short-sighted people in Qianjia will only fight invincible in the world. What did you make?"

Qian Xueqiu hurriedly thanked: "Thank you, Qian Bo, my nephew just doesn't want to be treated as a grandstander."

Qianxun Qian looked at Qian Xueqiu's careful appearance and snorted: "Now I know that you are so careful when you live, don't you feel tired? Those guys are really annoying."

When he said this, he didn't worry about being heard by anyone at all. Even if someone knew it, they couldn't do what he did.

However, Qianhiroken could only curse a few words. It is not something he can do to deal with them. Qianjia is still in such a situation with the support of this group of people.

Qian Xueqiu had no choice but to laugh with him and no longer explain, and Qianxun Qian also had other things, and left Qian Xueqiu directly.

One hour before the start of the banquet, people finally entered the venue one after another. The exhibition stand in the venue was covered with a large red cloth, and the edge was dragged to the ground, as if it was dyed red.

Not long after, Chen Feng also walked in with Chu Qingwan.

Chen Feng's dress is just a suit, which looks solemn and fits well, without seeing anything special.

On the side, Chu Qingwan was completely different. A bright purple evening dress wrapped tightly around her mature body, her slender waist and thin buttocks, and her white naked back were even more eye-catching, making people reluctant to leave their sight for a moment.

The black and beautiful hair was coiled up, returning to the high standard of the dragon, Luan and Feng and ming, but it was only to set off this face.

Bright eyes and bright lips, Qiong nose and thin eyebrows, delicate and delicate, her appearance is already the focus of everyone's attention, although due to etiquette, no one has been staring, it is not the cast of eyes, Chen Feng can still feel .

He whispered: "I have earned enough face, and I have to thank you for this."

Chu Qingwan was a little uncomfortable: "You are fine, but I have been stared at by these people, and I feel uncomfortable all over."

Chen Feng said: "This kind of pomp is rare. Even those big stars who want to show up in front of so many big people have no chance, but you have already attracted them. If you want to debut, I'm sure, for sure. It's going to get hot soon."

Chu Qingwan was still a little embarrassed. Although she knew that Chen Feng was complimenting, she herself was not that kind of temperament, but she would rather be quieter.

Chen Feng glanced at her and said, "If you don't like it, I will take you aside and eat some food there."

After I have seen something, I will take you out of here.”

Chu Qingwan nodded in response.

After taking a sip of champagne there, the Rose came to the meeting as expected by Chen Feng.

He hadn't seen Chu Qingwan at first, just chatting with a few familiar people, but inadvertently, even in the corner, the beauty of Chu Qingwan was still moving. He caught a glimpse of her and was surprised at first, but after seeing Chen Feng who was also on the side, it seemed that he wanted to understand something.

He sneered and walked over, Chen Feng and Chu Qingwan also noticed him.

“I really didn't expect that you could come here.” He sneered, then looked at Chen Feng and said: “This is the guy who brought you in. It doesn't look like much. If you follow me, I can let it must be much better for you.”

He was very confident, which caused Chen Feng to laugh. Chu Qingwan said coldly from the side: “Who I chose is my freedom. At least it's not someone who is forcing me or threatening me. At least I like it. Individuals are far comparable to some guys who are inferior to humans.”

This was nothing at first, but Chen Feng felt strange. His evaluation was just one person, so it was so useless.

“You...” Rose immediately made a gloomy face: “Last time I didn't know why you let me escape by chance, do you think I can't deal with you anymore. I tell you, I want to kill you but it's simple it's very.”

Chen Feng interrupted at this time: “Mr. Ross, please understand where you are. This is China, not the United States.”

Ross looked at Chen Feng sideways, and said unhappily: “What are you, here is where you are talking, what happened to China? I want to kill this woman, but I want to see if it can stop it.”

Chen Feng couldn't bear it anymore, he just punched him up.

A punch was not heavy, he controlled his strength, but it was enough for Rose to suffer.

Ross was overturned to the ground. If you look closely, you can see that something flew out of his mouth. It was a posterior molar.

Chu Qingwan was taken aback and looked at Chen Feng inconceivably. She never thought that Chen Fengshan would take the shot, and she was still so hard.

When he heard the noise, people immediately surrounded him, and after a while, people from Qianjia came over.

Qian Xueqiu was responsible for some order issues, so he was also the first to come over.

Few people in Qian's family didn't know Chen Feng, but Qian Xueqiu was one of them. He walked over and glanced at Chen Feng, but Chen Feng looked at Rose disdainfully.

Naturally, the wounded is the most important thing. Qian Xueqiu hurried to check on Rose's condition. At this time, he was in a coma. The punch made the corner of his mouth bleed and his cheeks were extremely red and swollen.

Chapter: 947

Although he doesn't know the person lying on the ground, no matter what the situation is, he will always be a little bit wrong about hitting someone.

After the examination, at least people were still alive, and a few people were found to carry Rose to the hospital before Qian Xueqiu stood up and came to Chen Feng.

He was still polite, and his tone was not rude, and said, “Sir, can you explain, in front of Qianjia, if you did something like this, Qianjia didn't pay attention to Qianjia.”

Chen Feng was slightly surprised that the other party didn't recognize him, but he didn't take it to heart. He just snorted coldly, "This guy said he looked down on China, saying that even here, no one can stop him from killing what he wants to kill. People. I couldn't see it, so I hit him in the face with a punch. I didn't expect him to beat him so hard. Before I tried hard, he fell."

Qian Xueqiu said, "But he is a guest of Qianjia after all."

Chen Feng glanced at him and said, "Then what do you want to do, I have already beaten people, is it possible that you still want to arrest me and go see the officer?"

Qian Qiuxue has also been looking at Chen Feng. Although he was in charge of the Qian Family at this time, there are some distinguished guests here, and some people he would never dare to offend. But after watching for a long time, except for the beautiful woman who first glanced at Chen Feng's identity, he would add a lot of points to Chen Feng's identity. In other respects, Chen Feng couldn't see any aristocratic temperament at all, but he still didn't dare to provoke him easily, right. For him, caution can never be wrong.

He said softly: "It is naturally unnecessary, but since the other party is our guest, when he wakes up, at least we have to give him a statement, or compensation, or an apology. These are our obligations."

He said so, and at the same time, he was guarding against Chen Summit's anger again, he needed to control the situation not to deteriorate.

Chen Feng wanted to refute something, and Qianxunyi walked over.

People who don't know around are naturally curious about what Chen Fengcheng is, and making trouble in Qianjia's site. Qianjia will not let this matter go, but now he is too weak to face Chen Feng, and he dare not even do anything to Chen Feng.

And the Patriarch of Qianjia came, and some of them grinned.

At the beginning, I saw Chen Feng with such a beautiful woman. How could it be possible to say that he was not jealous. It was just that everyone was a face-saving person and it was impossible to show anything.

But now that Chen Feng is about to suffer, one by one will naturally only gloat. When Chen Feng has committed a crime, he may have the opportunity to kiss that woman.

The thoughts in the heart are so dark, it is estimated that those few smiling guys may be like this.

But when Qianxunyi saw Chen Feng, he was still a little puzzled. He stepped forward and shouted at Chen Feng.

"Shao Chen, what are you?" Chihiro Yi said, everyone was surprised.

The few who were smiling just now were even more stunned, and they couldn't believe it. Maybe in their eyes, Chen Feng was just the son of a small family, but even the Patriarch of the No. 1 Deserters respected Chen Feng so much. They knew that they were. Wrong absurd.

But then I thought about it, but I really couldn't think of any young man surnamed Chen that could be treated like this by Chihiro Art, and then they all looked curiously, wanting to know the identity of Chen Feng.

Chen Feng just chuckled softly at the smiling face of Qian Xun Yi, and said, "I haven't seen him for a long time, why is the face of Qian Pai Master not so good?"

Chihiro Yi smiled bitterly: "I'm a little irritable when I have encountered something. But let's not talk about it. It's just that Chen Shao why you are going to beat people. Is it because that guy provoke you?"

Chen Feng had to say what he had said to Qian Xueqiu to Qianxunyi again, but the two reacted differently.

Chihiro Art reprimanded Qian Xueqiu on the side: "What is there to explain to the foreign devil in this kind of thing? Money, and sold the country.”

What he said was awe-inspiring, and even Chen Feng, the beater, felt that he was doing the right thing. The audience continued to be surprised. As for Qian Xueqiu, she was thankful that he hadn't treated Chen Feng just now. His attitude was already very low.

“Shao Chen, I'm sorry, I really handled the matter just now. I apologize to you.”

Chen Feng looked at him in surprise, seeing his temperament, he didn't look like a flattering villain, but the speed of his face change was really too fast.

Chen Feng didn't say anything to him, but just said to Qianxun Yi: “You don't hold me accountable, I thank you, but if I see that guy again, I will hit him once.”

Chihiro Yi smiled: “As Chen Shao, naturally I don't need to care about this. My Qian Family will not interfere. Everything follows Chen Shao's idea.”

Chen Feng nodded to Qianxunyi, did not speak, turned around and went to Chu Qingwan's side.

Chihiro Art also yelled to everyone around him: “Okay, everyone is gone. There is still half an hour. When that happens, everyone will be able to see the treasure.”

He said so, and everyone dispersed one after another.

Chu Qingwan, who was still worried about Chen Feng just now, was even more worried about Chen Feng when she saw Qianxunyi coming.

Fortunately, it turned out to be so, she was relieved and groaned at Chen Feng.

“You want to scare me to death, how can you do it without a sound.”

Chen Feng smiled and said, “For this kind of goods, what is good to say to him.”

“But you are so reckless...”

“Are you worried about me?”

“You're still kidding me, you don't know what those people were thinking of you just now. If you are like this, I will ignore you.” Chu Qingwan feigned.

Chen Feng hurriedly put away his joking expression, and said, “Okay, I'm fine. Qianjia owes me favors.

That person just started to be like that. Later, he didn't wait until the owner of the house came and immediately changed his attitude. They wouldn't treat me like that. , Even for me.”

After a few words of comfort, Chu Qingwan became a little cheerful, and the two chatted casually with some trivial gossip, and Chihiro Yi walked to the exhibition stand that was covered by red cloth in the field.

“Are you going to start?” Chu Qingwan asked.

Chen Feng nodded: “Although I haven't seen what it is, but from the attitude of the thousand family and the rumors from the outside, this is an incredible thing that has bestowed Huang Taihao.”

Chu Qingwan was even more curious, looking seriously in the direction of Qianxunyi, afraid that she would miss the opportunity to see it accidentally.

Chihiro Yi stood in the middle, looked at a group of people around, and said slowly:

“Everyone, presumably you have also heard from the outside about our Thousand Clan's treasure bestowed on Huang Taihao, but it was originally my Thousand Clan's own business, but I didn't expect to be persecuted and lost the message...”

However, Chen Feng was just looking at the expressions of other people in Qianjia, and perhaps some people still have regrets on their faces.

But when he saw the guy named Qian Xueqiu, he was more indifferent.

I can't see the indignation after the family was assassinated.

This makes Chen Feng a little strange.

And from the beginning, he did not choose to believe Qianjia's words to the outside world. If they were willing to show things out, it would just attract some Xiaoxiao more, which was actually even more unfavorable for them.

So he thinks that Qianjia may have a bigger plan in this matter. Maybe they want to use this exhibition to get the other party out, or maybe there are other possibilities that they haven't thought of for the time being.

However, the movement that just broke out was only one or two thousand family members appearing, which is not intended to be a trap.

Even though Chen Feng was angry with that Rose, he didn't lose his composure. He would do it if he didn't agree with him. He also wanted to get a chance to understand the purpose of Qianjia.

Unfortunately, he didn't seem to be right.

Chihiro Yi said again: "This treasure may not be understood by many people. And since I got this treasure for more than 100 years, I have been studying it. Only recently have I learned something..."

Qianxunyi repeated what Chen Feng had heard from Zhao Donglai. Chen Feng carefully compared the words of the two, but there was not much difference.

And just as he thought of Zhao Donglai, a waiter took a tray and stood beside him.

Chen Feng was alert that the other party had no intention of doing anything, so he just looked back.

But I didn't expect that this was the one I was thinking about, Zhao Donglai.

"Do you want to do it now?" Chen Feng didn't panic, even he had thought that Zhao Donglai would definitely come, he lowered his voice and said.

Zhao Donglai's waiter attire, matched with that kind of immature face, looked like a work-study college student.

He chuckles and said, "You really see me. Although there is only Chihiro Art here, that is not something I can deal with, and this thing may be fake."

Chen Feng stared at him: "How do you know that you haven't even seen anything?"

"The grandmaster of Qianjia returned to the desert, but he didn't even see such an important treasure. Isn't this thing afraid of people stealing it? I don't believe they would make such a mistake." With a tone of disdain.

Chen Feng also thinks it makes sense: "The trick of stealing the sky and changing the day?"

Zhao Donglai nodded, "Maybe, I just didn't see the thing, and I can't say it clearly, but when I see it, I can see the true and false at a glance."

After a long introduction, Chihiro Yi finally wants to uncover the red hijab.

He put his hand on the cloth cover and said, "Everyone, look carefully."

Immediately, he removed the hijab fiercely, revealing the glass showcase inside.

Placed in the showcase is a golden round copper coin, but it is different from ordinary copper coins, not only because it looks to be made of gold, but also because it is much larger than the size of two adult hands. The ones that come are even bigger.

There are four words on the side, but it is not a Tongbao word, but the words "Gift Emperor Taihao" written on it. This is also the origin of the name of this money.

Chen Feng glanced, then turned to wait for Zhao Dong's message.

Zhao Dong looked carefully. Although it was a long distance away, he was a martial artist after all, and distance was not a problem.

“If you haven’t seen it before, you will definitely be guessing what it is, but now that you see it, I think everyone may be disappointed, but I have to tell everyone that this is his original appearance. Cheng, weighing one catty and four taels, has four characters in the book “Gift Emperor Taihao”.”

After Chihiro Art was introduced, Zhao Donglai finally finished watching it. He whispered, “That’s how it is, I know.”

“Really or not?” Chen Feng asked.

Zhao Donglai pretended to be high-sounding: “Do you know that this item has a nickname called Zijintai.”

Chen Feng naturally shook his head. He had never seen it before, and it was even more impossible for him to know such an unusual nickname.

Zhao Donglai did not continue to suspend Chen Feng’s appetite, and directly explained: “He is not exactly gold. In the subtleties, he wears purple gold. The scattered pieces are like a sitting platform. It is a purple gold platform, and if you look carefully, although there is also purple gold on it, the scattered position and quantity are much different.”

Having said so, just say it again, it is false.

But at the same time, Chen Feng also admired Zhao Donglai. He could remember such subtle details so clearly.

Zhao Donglai seemed to know what Chen Feng was thinking, and said, “I have a good memory since I was a child. If I want to remember things carefully, I can basically remember them clearly. I have played with Zijintai, so I recognize them clearly.”

Chen Feng did not affirm his statement. He would not completely believe him just because of Zhao Dong’s words.

Zhao Donglai said again, “I’m leaving. Since they have moved the personnel out of here, the authentic product may be tightly protected somewhere. Do you have any ideas, but I have been waiting for you.”

Chen Feng looked at Chihiro Art who was still pretending to be in the field. Although he seemed to really like the fake, for Chen Feng, staying on was just a waste of time.

“I will leave with you.” He said to Zhao Dong, and then lowered his voice and asked Chu Qingwan: “I want to leave first, and I will ask the thousand family members to help send you back, okay?”

When Chu Qingwan heard that Chen Feng was about to leave, she felt a bit resentful in her heart, but then she thought that she had nothing to do with Chen Feng, and she had no reason to stop Chen Feng, but nodded helplessly.

Chen Feng followed Zhao Donglai and left the venue.

Under the ground of a mountain, only seen from the outside, the lush greenery is just in the shade of the mountain, and the trees are a bit shorter than the south, but the underground at this time is completely different.

The tunnel is narrow, and only one person can pass through at a time. The dark road seems to be covered with moss, a bit slippery, but this place is a secret place for a thousand families.

Qianhiro Qian went to the front, and there were four or five thousand children behind him, all of them looked solemn and unsmiling.

With the light in his hand, he walked inward, about a hundred steps, and finally descended to a cellar.

And in front of the heavy metal gate, there is an open space, and the six people standing there will seem much smaller.

It is a full height of seven or eight people, and the width is also the same. It is a huge circular gate, and the complicated metal machinery is the basis for locking it.

One of those thousands of children seems to have never seen it before, and is now staring at this miracle dumbly.

Chapter: 949

It is almost impossible to rely on manpower to open such a huge gate.

Naturally, there are some institutions here, otherwise Qianhiro Ken will not just take so few people.

The children of those faces shined at him together so that he could clearly see in front of him. He walked to the door and took out a small key from his chest, and under the huge metal door, there was a small dark Grid, Qianhiro Ken inserted something into the keyhole of the secret grid.

Rotate gently, and the hidden grid will be opened.

But inside are more complicated perforations, densely distributed according to what rules, about one hundred and eight.

Chihiro Qian started to unscrew the keyhole in a certain order. He was very serious, because if he made a wrong one, he could only open it again after a month.

But fortunately, a grandmaster, his hand is very stable, his memory is also good, and there has been no problem until now.

He knew in his heart that there were fewer and fewer keyholes that needed to be opened, and after a while, it would be all right.

“What sound?” A child of Qianjia whispered to the people on the side.

And he just wanted to deny it, but he heard it at the same time, and the faint footsteps came from the other end of the tunnel, and it seemed that someone was coming.

“Someone?”

At this time, the voice became clearer, and the other three people also heard one after another.

But Chihiro Ken was at a critical juncture, his mind was concentrated in the keyhole, so he didn't know what was happening around him.

“The four people will hold each other first, and the sixth brother will illuminate the tribe.” One of the children of Qianjia immediately reacted.

And just after he finished speaking, the footsteps became hurried, and the person seemed to be close at hand.

Except for the one who illuminates Qianxun Ken in the past, the other four have set their postures. They are all outstanding among the thousands of juniors. If they are ordinary characters, they can deal with them on their own. It is impossible to be without resistance, not to mention that they are just delaying time and waiting until Qianxun's work is completed, unless the other party is also a master, otherwise it is difficult to have a chance to escape.

The voice was close to their ears, and several people finally saw each other's figure. The unexpected person was a woman.

She was slender and slender, her face covered by black gauze, she was not real, but she looked like a very beautiful woman.

If Chen Feng was here, he would definitely recognize the other person, this guy was a Molang's person, and it was the person who fought with him in the factory that day.

The four members of the Qian Family didn't dare to distract themselves, and stared at the Mowolf woman with all their attention.

If the other party had never expected to capture these thousands of disciples by her appearance, she just glanced at it casually, and immediately started to do it.

Qianjia is good at using swords. He had already held the hilt of the sword just now. When he saw the opponent's figure suddenly rushed, the four long swords were pulled out at the same time with a chuckle.

The woman in Molang also had a weapon in her hand, a scarlet dagger, which looked a lot more hideous.

Ding Ling made a violent noise, and the dagger and the long sword were confronting each other. In the darkness, sparks could even be seen.

But the sound did not even last for the tea time. When the sound stopped, everything ended with it.

As for who wins and who loses, the one who illuminates Qianhiroken can see clearly after some light.

There was only one person standing in the field, with a small body, no matter how he looked at it, he was not one of his family brothers, so it could only be that the other party was still alive.

He has never seen such a horrible situation. The four family brothers are all talented masters in martial arts. They are young, but they are all characters in the stage of dynamism. Even when ordinary people meet them, they can only surrender. For the sake of this, now that the four of them are working together, they can't even take the time for the other party to drag a cup of tea.

Although I was very unwilling to believe it, looking at the ground again, it was clear that there were four corpses, and it was impossible to be other people, just those brothers.

He suddenly became angry and really wanted to rush over to avenge his brothers.

"Stay steady." A sudden stop sounded in his ears.

He woke up abruptly. If he rushed over impulsively just now, not only could he not survive, but the major events in the family would also be destroyed, then he had made a big mistake.

After being awakened, he stabilized himself slightly.

But on the other side, the woman has come,

Without hindrance, her figure is very fast, just in the blink of an eye, she has already arrived in front of the two people of Qianjia.

The fierce dagger was aimed at Chihiroken's body like a venomous snake. If he doesn't move, he will definitely die. But if he fights back, the lock in his hand will be broken as a result. It can only be opened a month later. This is the same. He couldn't bear it.

The poisonous snake was already in front of her, and the woman's expression was cold and she couldn't see any relaxed gesture. She seemed to have a foreboding that Qianhiro Ken would do it.

And as expected, Qianhiro Qian shouted, "Little thief, Grandpa has been waiting for you for a long time."

It was just a shout, and the sound was like shaking people's hearts, and fear suddenly rose in the heart.

A thunderous fist slammed on the path of the opponent. If it collides, I don't know if the woman's petite and weak body will disperse at once.

The woman's eyes were silent like a beast, and she didn't seem to see any emotional changes in her body.

And then, the body that would never change direction in the air suddenly retreated back, completely violating certain rules.

Chihiro Ken was also surprised, but then he saw that there was someone behind the woman, and hiding in the air was the reason why they dared to do so.

"Earth evil." Qianxun Qian suddenly yelled, and the son of Qian's family who had just illuminated Qianxun Qian inserted the key into one of the keyholes, and with a soft click, he opened the door and was approaching again. step.

It turned out that in order to prevent this situation, several thousands of children were already familiar with the location of these one hundred and eight holes. At the critical moment, Qianxun Qian only needed to report the position, but the test was that they were careful enough.

Taking the key out of the keyhole, a layer of sweat oozes out of the face of the Qianjia boy.

Looking at the two Molangs again, the other one also gradually emerged from the darkness. She was also a woman with a soft and charming appearance, not as good as the other with a black gauze covering her face.

“Thousand Lords, did you expect us to come a long time ago?” The feminine woman chuckled lightly. Qianhiro Ken was unwilling to laugh with them, but he was also curious about the identity of the other party, and asked, “Who are you? You dare to covet my thousand treasures.

Chapter: 950

Neither of them answered, and the feminine woman chuckled even more.

Chihiro Ken didn't dare to go too far because he opened the door, and for a while, the two of them didn't come forward, and didn't know what they were waiting for.

“Aren't you coming up?” Qianhiro Ken asked.

It was the feminine woman still speaking: “Thousand Lords, you still don't have to worry about us. After the door is opened, we will naturally leave and go up and fight with you. If it wasn't for our brains, we wouldn't dare to think like this.”

Qianhiro Ken was curious, wondering if what the woman said was true or false.

“You wait until the door opens and leave. Are you just coming here to kill my four thousand children?”

“If the Thousand Lords are willing to think like this, that's okay, just as if we were a little bit dirty with those high feet, that's why we were murderous.” The woman smiled.

Qianhiro Ken naturally would not believe this: “But when the door is opened, do you think you still have a chance to escape? If you let you run away like this, wouldn't I be very shameless.”

If these words were spoken from the general population, the two Molangs might sneer, but they were spoken by a master, and they naturally knew the weight.

But if they hadn't thought of this early, how dare they provoke the grandmaster's beard.

“Our sisters have always liked excitement. If we can escape from the hands of a thousand masters today, there will be more bragging capital outside in the future. If we can't escape, we can only say that it is the life of our sisters, and no one can blame others.”

Speaking of this, Qianhiroqian has nothing to say. He reports a name of Tiangang or Earthsha from time to time, and then the children of Qianjia will be unscrewed in the corresponding keyhole, and he has to repeat each step. Confirm, but it can't exceed the time.

Although it looks light, the pressure in the heart is huge. Not to mention the impact of the failure on the entire Qianjia, and what is missed is the opening of the entire Taihao Secret Collection. This expectation is also shared by the Sea Lion House and the Qianjia, almost There is nothing to lose.

Qianxunqian secretly counted how much he had left, and he kept staring at the other two. When that moment was over, he would do it. At his speed, the two of them would never be able to run away.

But looking at it, there was some inexplicable surprise in my heart.

The two of them didn't have any fear from start to finish, and they didn't even show a trace of hesitation. Is it true that they are not afraid, or as they said, they enjoy this kind of stimulation even more.

But although I can't understand, Qianhiro Ken is a direct person, just do it.

Time seemed to pass slowly, and neither side spoke anymore, just waiting for the door to open again.
“Tiankui.”

This was the last position. Before the voice fell, Chihiro Ken’s figure was already close, and the anger he had accumulated for so long burst out immediately, like an overwhelming force.

Thousands of people lost to the wrath of the grandmaster.

Although the realm has already reached its peak, it is naturally impossible to compare with the master. As soon as Chihiroken’s body arrived, the two people over there began to retreat. They were also fast, but the distance from Chihiroken was still pulling in.

Thousands of children standing in front of the gate let out a long sigh of relief, and finally everything is over.

Looking at the door in front of him, it was opening little by little, the sound of machine amplification, the sound of metal running-in, and the sound of stones rubbing against the iron door, all of a sudden, it was like a karaoke hall with chaotic movements.

But even though it was mixed, that kind of aura still made people surrender, as if Taishan collapsed before, it would never be possible to keep his face unchanged.

Of the four people in the cave, three of them had no time to wait and see.

With a punch, the silk thread that the feminine woman set up in the hole was just before Chihiroken’s fist. When Chihiroken sensed something was there, he immediately retracted his fist.

With just a light touch, he felt the tenacity of the silk thread. It was by no means an ordinary thread. If Qianhiro Qian had just moved on his own way and continued, although the silk thread could be broken, he would inevitably be injured himself.

It’s almost like using his own strength to get to the front line to get rid of his attack.

And the slight stagnation just did not stop Qianhiro Qian, he chased him up again, this time with defense, condensing the qi a little, it can also be against this kind of silk thread blocking.

It was almost cut off, and even obstacles could not be achieved.

Seeing Chihiroken was about to get close, the woman who covered her face turned around and cut with a dagger, but she didn’t expect Chihiroken to react so quickly. After avoiding it, he reached out and grabbed the woman’s wrist.

Seeing the opportunity, the feminine woman hurried to remedy the situation, and an embroidery needle rushed towards Chihiro Ken’s face, and Chihiro Ken had to give up temporarily, turning her back and avoiding it.

But at this moment, the Qianjia kid who was standing in front of the door just now smiled slightly.

He slowly walked towards the door that had opened a gap.

Originally Chihiro Ken would not notice what was happening behind him, but when the Chihiro kid moved, the light in his hand also changed, and Chihiro Ken subconsciously glanced.

“Qianyan, what are you doing?” After seeing it, he shouted sharply.

But the son of the Qian Family named Qian Yan didn’t seem to hear Qian Hun Ken’s words at all, so he walked in directly.

Chihiro Qian immediately thought that something was wrong, and couldn’t care about chasing the two women in front of him, turning around to catch Qian Yan.

Looking at the situation, the two women wouldn’t let Chihiroken leave, and they also turned around to stop them.

But it is a pity that if it is to escape, there may be hope. There is almost no chance for such a head-on head-on. Just a hard punch will knock the masked woman back a few steps away.

The other's hidden weapon didn't even wipe Chihiro Ken's side, let alone block it.

And Qian Yan had already walked in.

The things inside are piled up in a mess, mostly treasures like gold and jade. The light hits it, and the reflected light is really beautiful.

And there was an empty door inside, Qian Yan walked towards the inside, it was just an empty room, one of which was sitting on the platform, and the platform was empty, and then there were seven other doors, each with a gossip mark on the door frame.

Qian Yan turned around to look at the door he walked in, and the door was "Xun".

He thought for a while, then walked to where the dry character was.

At this time, there was also movement outside, and it seemed that Qianhiroken had come.

But Qian Yan didn't seem to be in a hurry, just staring at the door blankly.

Qianxun Qian stepped on his feet, carrying dust, and extremely heavy, as if even the treasure house was shaken by the whole.

And one step further, Chihiro Ken had already walked under the Sunda Gate.

He looked at Qian Yan and asked coldly, "Are you a traitor to the Qian family?"

Qian Yan chuckled and shook his head: "I am not."

Qianhiroken was taken aback for a moment. At this time, he would deny: "If you want to die, Lao Tzu will fulfill you, you guy who eats inside and out."
