

Chapter 954

With a cold face, he turned to Flower and asked, "Hey, that thing isn't in a coffin, is it?"

Little Flower was tied to the tree, shaking her head no for a moment and nodding.

She wasn't really sure if Master Qiu had come over to bury this thing that night, because she didn't even know it was in the house, nor did she know what the Heavenly Book of Jade was.

Just listening to Liger talk like that, and remembering his grandfather who had been acting strangely lately, just once, that's why he was brought here.

At this point, hearing him ask that, he was not at a loss for words.

How do you know if he buried it in a coffin or not?

When Liege saw that she didn't respond, he didn't bother to wait for her, picked up the iron grip, and just started prying the coffin.

Forgive him for being young and bold, but this was after all a man who had been dead for decades, and he was still a little scared.

After half a day of prying, the lid of the coffin was finally pried open.

A stench of decay that could not be described in words came over him at once, and he was smothered and took several steps back, which he approached only after the smell of the corpse had dissipated somewhat.

But there was nothing in the coffin but a white bone.

The face doesn't change dramatically.

He refused to believe it, and pounded the coffin with a rowan a few times, turning the bones over and over to make sure nothing was hidden inside after.

A surge of anger rose from the bottom of my heart, and I threw my things away and walked over to where the little flower was.

As soon as Little Flower saw his face, she knew things were bad.

He must not have found what he was looking for and was going to take it out on her, what to do?What to do?

Little Flower was in a panic, and by this time, Liger was already approaching.

He squeezed her face in one hand, lifted her head up, and gritted his teeth, "Well, dead girl, don't you dare lie to me!"

Little Flower had a pack of tears in her eyes and shook her head repeatedly.

Liege snickered.

"You said it's buried here, where is it?Where is it?Come over here and point it out to me!"

He said and untied her, then grabbed her by the hair and dragged her to the graveyard.

Little Flower was so frightened by his series of actions that by the time she reacted, the person had been dragged to the edge of the grave.

Li Ge pressed her body, forcing her to face the bones in the coffin, and said angrily, "Find it for me, find me something, if you can't find it today, I'll let you be buried here with your great grandmother!"

His words frightened Little Flower's face white.

Nodded repeatedly, then quickly bent around to find it.

Her feet were just loose now, and her wrists were still tied behind her back, so it wasn't very easy to move around, but she was still working hard to get down on the ground and find it.

Just afraid that Liger would get angry and really bury her alive.

Liger stood up and looked at her with a condescending coldness.

I saw the little flower little by little, finding its way to the front from behind, and finally, suddenly stopping in front of the tombstone.

She looked up at him in surprise and whimpered twice.

Li Ge's eyebrows furrowed as he wondered if he had really let this little girl find it. So they squatted down too.

Just the next second, the face changed dramatically.

"Get out of here!"

He suddenly flipped her over with a slap, then without even bothering to pay attention to her, he quickly dug in front of the tombstone with a rowan.

It didn't take two digs, and then it stopped.

He crouched down and looked closely at the piece.

I saw that the soil was soft, indeed it had been dug not long ago, and further down, the soil was tight, it hadn't rained recently, and that tightness didn't look like it had been recent, which meant that the pit had come to an end here.

But there was nothing inside.

So...it was dug out early!

His face turned very ugly for an instant, and he took a closer look at the dirt, and sure enough, it was new dirt.

"Shit!"

Liege couldn't help but burst into a foul mouth and threw the tiramisu on the ground with one hand.

Little Flower didn't know what was wrong with him, and was a little scared to look at him.

Liege turned to Little Flower.

He sneered, "It seems that that old man of your family, really treats this thing like a treasure, he would rather not take your life than keep that thing, do you think it's worth it for you to keep it a secret for him all the time?"

Little Flower looked at him a little confused, not really understanding what he was saying.

Liger crouched down and looked at her, suddenly changing his tone.

"How about we discuss something, little girl?"

Little Flower froze.

Just listen to him coolly say, "Your old man is like a stone in a latrine, stinky and hard, he refused to let go of that piece of jade before he met you, in that case, I have to let him see something, let him know that the right to speak is not in his hands now, but in mine, don't you think so?"

Little Flower didn't understand what he was trying to do, and didn't dare to take a casual stance, so she could only watch him vigilantly.

Just saw Li Ge suddenly pull out a shining dagger from his back waist.

"It's pretty close to your house anyway, how about this, how about I chop off a piece of your finger and send it to him, he'll see it and know how much you need him right now, and that I, Liege, am a man who does what he says he's going to do, maybe then he'll be able to put up with it and bring that baby in exchange for you, what do you think?"

Little Flower stared in horror.

And ask her how she feels?

She didn't feel good!

She was angry and scared for a moment, staring at him with a deathly glare, while sitting on the ground, taking a fearful step backwards.

Liege was still talking to himself, but he also pressed forward one step at a time.

He smiled gloomily: "Don't worry, my craft can be good, you do not know yet, before ah I studied medicine, as a surgeon, this scalpel on the skill is a masterpiece, I guarantee, said only to cut you a finger, will never cut into two.

And even if you don't have a finger, you won't die, the most important thing is, finger this thing ah, if your old man help you save well, save you in time, you can go back to the hospital to catch, although you may not be alive later, but no way, she has been a man well, you do good, how about?"

Little Flower was on the verge of tears just hearing him say that.

She'd never seen anyone so sick!

Where is this man, this is clearly the devil!

Li Ge's face suddenly went cold, "Okay, stop retreating, you can't retreat any further, be good and give me your hand!"

I said, coming to grab her hand.

However, at that moment, Little Flower suddenly raised her foot just to kick at him, hitting him right between the legs.

It was the man's weakest spot, and Liege grunted and bent over in immediate pain.

When it was too late, Little Flower's foot kicked up another burst of dirt, all of it spilling into Liege's eyes, and he screamed as the knife in his hand came loose, then raised his hand to cover his eyes.

Chapter 955

Little Flower didn't dare to delay any longer, stood up and ran down the hill.

When Liege saw her run, he also immediately trekked after her.

But in the end, he still hurt his eye and that area, and when he ran again, he naturally wasn't as fast as he normally ran.

Coupled with the steepness of the mountains, Little Flower had grown up here and knew the roads around here so well that she could walk with her eyes closed.

Therefore, how could Liege catch up with her if she ran out in a blur?

After realizing the problem, Liger stopped, stared angrily at Little Flower's back, and suddenly pulled out a gun.

"Bang!"

Little Flower's feet were immediately stoned and splattered.

She braked in shock, stopped, and turned to look incredulously at Liger.

Only to see that the Li Ge at this time had already been distinguished from his previous appearance, and his entire body gave off a cold and gloomy air.

He held the gun up to Little Flower and said coldly, "Run, if you run again I'll shoot you dead!"

Little Flower's face went white, not daring to move.

Liege took her in stride and caught her in a flash.

Meanwhile, the villa.

As they were discussing, they suddenly heard a gunshot outside.

All of them were experienced warriors, naturally they were no strangers to this voice, a few faces changed, and in the next second, people had rushed out.

Following closely behind them was Master Qiu, who also rushed out, looking into the black night sky, and said angrily, "It's that kid coming!"

Jenny was shocked and asked, "How do you know?"

"There's no mistaking it, it has to be him."

He said, and started walking quickly in the direction of the gunshot.

A few people didn't dare to delay and immediately followed, all the way to the cemetery, and found no one around, but Old Lady Qiu's grave had been dug up.

The old man's face changed at once, and was incomparably ugly.

To dig up someone's grave after they're dead is just unconscionable.

Jenny and the others couldn't see past it, so Lu Jing crouched down to observe the ground, then pointed in a direction and said in a deep voice, "Run that way."

Gu Si Qian immediately said, "I'll go after them!"

"We'll go together."

Bella Qiao immediately followed.

However, it was stopped by Gu Si Qian.

He looked at Jenny and said, "You stay here with Jenny, take care of the old man, and Biden Lu, we'll go together."

Biden Lu nodded, and Jenny Jing didn't say anything, pulling Bella Qiao and advising in a low voice, "One Li Ge is no match for them, let's wait at ease."

That's when Bella Qiao nodded.

After seeing Biden Lu and Gu Siqian far away, Jenny and Bella Qiao helped Master Qiu to restore the old lady's grave, before returning to the villa.

By this time, it was four in the morning.

Several people had been up all night, but they were not sleepy at all.

Master Qiu was still sitting on the throne, silently baring and smoking a dry cigarette.

Jenny hesitated and asked, "Do you think that if the grave was really dug by Li Ge, he would have actually known that the Heavenly Book of Jade was buried there?"

Master Qiu replied, "It's possible."

He paused and sighed.

"Little Flower didn't know about it, but maybe she accidentally followed me out that night and found me burying something there, but she didn't know the exact location, so that's why she let Liger dig around."

Jenny nodded, the explanation was reasonable.

The first time I saw the old man's face was with sadness, so I couldn't help but comfort him: "Old man, don't worry too much, Little Flower is still able to bring Li Ge here, which means she should be fine, the gunshot that Li Ge let loose just now, most likely because Little Flower wanted to escape, was able to escape, or at least said it wasn't much injured, now that Gu Si Qian and Biden Lu have chased after her, I believe it will be soon. You don't have to worry if people bring it back."

Master Qiu nodded again.

Immediately afterwards, I don't know what came to mind, but I laughed to myself.

"I've always felt sorry for Li Ge's family, if I hadn't accidentally killed Li Zhong's parents back then, I wouldn't have let their family become like this, but if he really hated me, he could have come at me, I wouldn't have resisted even if he wanted to take my life, but Little Flower is innocent, so why would he focus on Little Flower?"

Jenny Jing was silent for a moment and said, "Actually, there is a sentence that I don't know whether to say or not."

The old man waved his hand, "You said it."

Jenny Jing said in a deep voice, "Actually, as things have developed to this point, I don't think that Li Ge's coming over this time has much to do with the quest for revenge, otherwise, he could have just killed Little Flower, so why would he threaten you with her again to get you to hand over that piece of Heavenly Book of Jade?"

Master Qiu frowned, "What do you mean?"

Jenny Jing smiled faintly, "I just think that he should just use the guise of hatred to make you feel guilty about him and not be able to bear to kill him, and then take the opportunity to get what he wants, as for whether to take revenge or not in the end, he doesn't really care, and even his suspicion that Li Zhong's death had something to do with you guys is just an excuse."

The words struck the old man hard.

Rather back to some flavor.

He frowned tightly, and after a moment of silence, he said, "You have a point, I was the one who was blinded by a leaf before, it looks like that kid should have been instigated by someone, this matter has to be investigated even if Little Flower comes back."

He said, an anger in his voice.

After all, it was one thing to seek revenge, it was quite another to be instigated to kidnap Little Flower with another purpose in mind.

Jenny saw the silence and couldn't say anything else.

She looked at the time and saw that it would soon be dawn, and Gu Si Qian and Biden Lu would not know when they would return, so she said, "Old Master, why don't you take a rest first, and I'll call you when they return."

However, where does the old man get any sleep?

Now he was angry and furious, just waiting for them to bring the man back and question him properly.

So only waved his hand, "I'm not sleeping, if you guys are tired, you can go to sleep, there are several guest rooms on the ground floor, you're all girls, I'm not going to help you clean up, you can clean up and go to sleep."

Jenny smiled, "Of course we're not tired, we're just worried about your health."

The old man looked at her and smiled, "Worried about me? Don't worry! Old man when I was dining and sleeping back then, you weren't even born yet, this is just a bit of a late night, I can still carry it."

Since he said so, Jenny would no longer be persuaded.

Nodding, the three of them continued to sit in the living room and wait up.

It wasn't until dawn, nearly six o'clock, that Gu Siqian and Biden Lu came back in style.

They were followed by two men, one tied by a rope, the other end held in Gu Si Qian's hands, and the other, a frightened-looking Little Flower.

Chapter 956

"Grandpa!"

As soon as she entered the door, Little Flower pounced on Master Qiu.

Master Qiu shakily stood up and caught her, unable to hold back his old tears.

"Eh, my good granddaughter, you're finally back!"

Little Flower buried her head in his arms, and both father and grandson cried tears of joy.

Only after crying did Master Qiu lift her face and look at it like a treasure, "Quickly let grandpa take a look, is it hurt anywhere? Is everything okay?"

Little Flower shook her head, "I'm fine, Grandpa, it was these two brothers who saved me."

She said, turning to point at Gu Si Qian and Biden Lu.

Master Qiu smiled in relief, "Grandpa Qiu knows, they are Grandpa Qiu's friends, I'm the one who asked them to save you."

Little Flower sniffed and gave them a grateful glance.

At this time, Li Ge, who had been silent, said angrily, "Surnamed Qiu! You killed my grandparents and my father! You and I are inseparable! What's the point of tying me up like this? Untie me if you can. Come on! Let's duel! Do what you did with your brother. Fight! Come on!"

He was mad as hell and tried to rush forward, but was held firmly in place by Gu Siqian.

A kick to the crook of his leg brought him to his knees.

Only then did Master Qiu turn to look at him, but his gaze was cold and calm.

"Liege, you keep saying that you want revenge, but let's not talk about what you're doing now, whether it looks like seeking revenge or not, let's talk about your father, what does his death have to do with me?"

Liege sneered, "How dare you argue? Don't you dare say that you didn't secretly send someone to kill him."

Master Qiu sneered, "I, Qiu Yunzhen, have always acted openly and honestly, if I killed someone, I never denied it, but if not, don't even think of putting it on my head."

"You're lying!"

Liege's eyes were anguished, yet Master Qiu didn't seem to bother paying attention to him anymore.

He turned to look at Jenny.

"Since you have rescued Little Flower as promised, then I should naturally do what I promised you before."

I said, taking out the piece of heavenly jade from my pocket and giving it to her.

"Here's what you asked for, put it away."

Jenny Jing's face was delighted, and he took it in succession, saying solemnly, "Thank you, old man."

Master Qiu smiled and didn't say anything.

Next to him, however, Liger was excited.

"It's a heavenly book of jade and silk."

He stared at his pupils, mumbling, his entire body as if he was insane, staring at the jade piece in Jenny's hand.

"It's really a heavenly book of jade, that's my stuff, give it to me, give it to me!"

I said, and tried to struggle towards Jenny.

However, how could Gu Si Qian let him have his way?

Another kick, and then another punch, knocked him right down to the ground, making it difficult to get up again.

Gu Siqian said in a deep voice, "Master Qiu, I have another impertinent request."

Master Qiu raised his hand generously, "Go ahead."

Gu Si Qian turned his eyes towards Li Ge who was lying on the ground with a white face, his gaze was cold, "I feel that this person is very much like a member of my right family, so I want to bring him back for a proper interrogation, and I would like to ask for Master Qiu's permission."

Master Qiu frowned at the news.

In any case, Li Ge is considered to be the grandson of his former brother Li Department, and he felt guilty to Li Department and his wife, as well as Li Zhong, so when Li Zhong designed the death of Little Flower's parents, he didn't take revenge back.

So, in fact, even if you know it's Lee

Ge kidnapped Little Flower, and with Little Flower's life at stake, he was unwilling to pursue Ge Li.

Gu Si Qian saw his dilemma and added, "I promise not to hurt his life."

That's when Master Qiu nodded, "Okay, this is your business, I won't interfere."

Liger screamed in horror at the sight of it.

"No!! I'm not going with them!! I'm not going with them! Qiu Yunzhen, you killed my grandparents, my father, and now you want to put me in the hands of these people, don't you have a conscience? Are you out of your mind?"

Gu Si Qian frowned, not bothering to listen to him yell nonsense, and just struck him with a hand blade, knocking him unconscious.

Master Qiu looked at this scene, and although he was a little unable to bear it, he didn't say anything in the end.

Only after dealing with all this did the party bid farewell to the pair and left the Wanjia village.

They weren't in a hurry to return to Kyoto, but settled in Pingcheng first, ready to return after they had rested.

After a sleepless night last night, several people were exhausted, and Gu Si Qian handed the five-flowered Li Ge over to Qin Yue's care before taking Bella Qiao to rest at ease.

When I woke up, it was already afternoon.

The only people who came with them this time were the few people Qin Yue had brought with him, Vicky and Mo Nan were both left behind in Kyoto to help with affairs.

Qin Yue had already prepared a meal for them, and a few people got up and simply washed up and ate together before arriving at the room where Li Ge was being held.

After all these hours, Liger looked decidedly quieter, all tied up and just sitting on the floor watching them coldly.

Gu Si Qian's group, who had settled down on the sofa, sized him up and said indifferently, "Say, what is your origin?"

Liege didn't say anything, turning his head to the side in a big show of resistance to the end.

Gu Si Qian was not in a hurry and smiled coldly, only lifting his chin slightly and passing a look to Qin Yue.

In the next second, a knife slammed into Liger's thigh.

He screamed, his face white with pain, his body shaking, his cold sweat swishing down.

Gu Si Qian smoked a cigarette and lit it, still with that same cloudy tone.

"You don't have to tell me, there are many ways I can slowly work my way around you, if you don't believe me you can try."

Liger stared at him through gritted teeth and a half-hearted, "Yuck."

"You're trying to get any information out of me, dream on!"

Gu Si Qian's eyes narrowed and he smiled faintly.

"So, you really do have another identity?"

Liege choked.

Kusken smiled again, "There's no rush, I told you I could take my time with you."

He signaled again, and right after that, he saw Qin Yue pull out the knife that was stuck in his thigh, and slammed it into his calf again.

Liege's whole face was blue with pain, the veins on his forehead were pulsing, and the sweat was like staying in a steamer.

After Jenny had given birth, she couldn't quite watch this kind of bloodshed, so she coughed lightly and said to Biden Lu, "You go out with me for a walk."

Biden Lu nodded and got up to help her walk out with him.

There were two more screams from behind him.

Jenny's heart also jumped twice, and Biden Lu held her hand tightly and whispered, "There are some people who can't pry their mouths open without this method."

Jenny nodded, "I understand."

Her face was still a little pale, looking at the long corridor in front of her, she whispered, "I just saw that blood was a little uncomfortable, like I couldn't breathe very well, so I'll be fine if I come out for some air."
