Chapter 96 Chamber of Embrace 2

Many minutes have passed since the event started, and all five entrances to the Chamber of Embrace were closed at this moment.

While everybody there waited, a few disciples from the Profound Blossom Sect side decided to introduce themselves in order to attract more attention.

They talked about their backgrounds and what they hoped to achieve in the Cultivation world, quickly gathering the attention of the guests.

"Young Lady, what do you think about him? He seems like a pretty decent guy," whispered an old man from the crowd, his gaze at a beautiful young lady with short black hair.

The young lady coldly snorted at the old man's words. "This is my third time here— if the last two didn't work, what makes you think things will be any different this time?"

The old man sighed at her words, and he replied: "Aiya! Do not blame this old man... I am only here as an escort... If the Young Lady wishes to make a complaint, please go directly to the head of our family..."

The young lady's mood seemingly worsened after hearing the old man mention their family.

"I cannot comprehend Father's thoughts. Why would he send me to this vulgar place to find a husband? This is not only great humiliation to me but also to the entire family!"

The old man shook his head at her words. Even he, one of the most trustworthy servants within the family, does not know of her father's intention for sending his daughter to a shameful place like this.

"Telling me to find a husband from this vulgar place is no different than telling me to pick a husband from some expensive brothel! If this is not humiliation, then there is nothing in this world that could be considered as humiliating, and I will no longer stand for this! Once we are finished here, I will give a piece of my mind to my Father!"

The old man only smiled bitterly at the young lady's endless grumbling.

"No matter how stubborn the young lady is, her father will always be more stubborn..." he sighed inwardly, and he began paying attention to the Profound Blossom Sect again.

His job was to find a suitable partner for the young lady with him today. If he fails again like he'd for the last two times, then he would be at risk for a beating by the head of the family, who was also the young lady's father.

Every young man at the Profound Blossom Sect was more than qualified to be the Young Lady's partner in terms of look, but one would be required more than just appearances in order to be accepted by her family.

After taking a few minutes to analyze all the disciples from the Profound Blossom Sect, the old man realized that he couldn't find anything unique about these young men besides their appearances.

Though, there was one young man within the group that gave off a completely different atmosphere than the others, setting himself apart from them.

"His appearances are definitely something to be envied of, even by this place's standards, but..." The old man scratched his head, feeling perplexed.

"But he has this dangerous feeling around him... and I don't have a clue as to his character or demeanor..."

Suddenly, the Young Lady asked him: "Old Lu, can we go home already? At this rate, we will be standing here until this festival meant for perverts ends..."

"You Father strictly ordered us to not return until this is all over."

"Che..." The Young Lady sucked her teeth in disappointment, and then she began looking at the Profound Blossom Sect disciples out of boredom.

Meanwhile, Su Yang stood there with an irritated expression, feeling as though he was a puppet on display from just standing there and being watched.

He turned to look at Liu Lanzhi and spoke: "How long do we have to be here?"

"Two days," she calmly replied.

Su Yang narrowed his eyes at her before turning to look at the crowd of guests.

There were still at least 40 people there, with only around 10 females amongst the entire group.

Out of these ten females, only half of them had decent faces.

And among these five young ladies, only three of them could be considered average by the Profound Blossom Sect's standards, meaning that they were definitely beautiful ladies in the world outside of this weird place.

A few minutes later, just as Su Yang was prepared to move, one of the female guests stepped forward, becoming the first from the ten there.

When the disciples saw this, they instinctively straightened their backs to look even taller.

Although the benefits these disciples would receive from today's event was nothing really worthy for Inner Court disciples like them, they are doing this mainly for bragging rights and to boost their pride and ego.

If they truly wished to advance their cultivation base, they wouldn't be here standing around and wasting time and would instead be cultivating with fellow disciples that are clearly more pleasant to cultivate with.

In other words, these Inner Court disciples are only here to show one another that they are the superior one when it comes to their charm, something all the disciples from the Profound Blossom Sect took pride in!

As for the female disciples, their reason for joining was much more simple— they wanted more resource from the Sect!

Unlike Core disciples that have an almost unlimited resource for cultivation, they still have to earn the majority of their resources. And although it may sound bad to others, the female disciples actually liked how they get to obtain both resource and Yang Essence from talented individuals at the same time, something extremely rare in a Sect such as this place, as virgin males are even more scarce than pure maidens in this place.

After standing there for a few moments, looking hesitant, the young lady began approaching the Profound Blossom Sect disciples.

When she arrived in front of the disciple surnamed Gu, the smile on his face widened.

"I—"

However, before he could even open his mouth halfway, the young lady walked right past him and continued walking straight towards Su Yang, who was standing not far away behind him.

"Hello, I am Zhu Da, Inner Court disciple of the Blue Wind Valley... May I ask for this brother's time whenever there is an open room?"

The young lady asked Su Yang with a shy expression on her face.

The smile on Disciple Gu's face immediately froze, and his head began burning from embarrassment a moment later. "Su Yang!!!" he growled inwardly, feeling anger as though his family was just murdered right in front of him.

Chapter 97 Chamber of Embrace 3

Su Yang silently gazed at the seemingly docile young lady before him.

She had long black hair, delicate features, and a decent figure. If she were in the world outside of this place, then she'd definitely be recognized as a beauty.

"Ummm..." Zhu Da looked more nervous as time went by without any replies.

Su Yang closed his eyes, and he spoke: "I refuse."

"Wha—!?"

Zhu Da's expression expressed shock for an instant before she managed to put on a stiff smile.

"M-May I ask why? Am I not good enough for this brother?" she asked him, trying to stay calm.

"Although you may be able to fool others with your little act, I happen to have keen eyes for woman, and you are unpleasant to my eyes. Scram before I help you." Su Yang said to her in a calm voice.

Not only was Zhu Da dumbfounded by his seemingly harsh and unwarranted words, even Liu Lanzhi's jaw dropped from shock.

"Su Yang! What do you think you are—"

"How dare a manwhore like you speak to my daughter like that!" Before Liu Lanzhi could scold Su Yang, another voice loudly resounded from the crowd of guests— it was a middle-aged man.

Su Yang glanced at the middle-aged man with a furious expression within the crowd.

"What did you just call me?" Su Yang's gaze narrowed at him, and the frightening aura surrounding him thickened.

When the middle-aged man saw Su Yang's beast-like gaze, his legs nearly gave up on him.

However, he managed to stay standing, and he even started yelling at an even louder voice.

"I paid your Sect a great amount of resources not to have you insult my daughter! I demand a—"

"Even if you decide to give me the world as a payment, I still wouldn't touch her," Su Yang laughed out loud.

"Su Yang!" Liu Lanzhi called for him. She couldn't understand why he was being so rude, even going as far as to make such inappropriate remarks seemingly for no reason.

"Hahaha!"

Suddenly, another laughter beside Su Yang's resounded— it was a feminine laugh.

Everybody turned to look at the one who'd just laughed; it was a beauty young lady with short black hair.

"This is hilarious! Zhu Da, this is the first time I've witnessed your little act ineffective against someone! Truly a scene to behold!"

"Young Lady!" The old man beside her looked at her with a surprised expression. What was she trying to achieve by meddling in their conversation?

"Lu Lifen! Mind your own business!" Zhu Da called her name in a chilling voice.

The young lady named Lu Lifen laughed even louder at her words: "Or what? What are you going to do to me, surnamed Zhu!?"

Zhu Da gnashed her teeth with hatred, her gaze at Lu Lifen filled with killing intent, yet she didn't dare to refute, seemingly afraid of the young lady with short black hair.

"The Lu Family!" The middle-aged man also looked at Lu Lifen with an unpleasant gaze, but when the old man beside her turned to look at him with narrowed eyes, his body immediately trembled from a dreadful feeling.

"Old Lu!" The middle-aged man mumbled under his breath, and he turned to his daughter and said: "Da'er, forget about him! He's clearly not worth your time!"

Zhu Da nodded, but as she turned to leave, Su Yang mumbled to her: "So it's a family thing, huh?"

Su Yang's words caused Zhu Da to halt for a moment, but she managed to ignore him and walk away.

However, just as Zhu Da passed Disciple Gu, he spoke to her: "To disrespect a fine lady such as yourself, that bastard clearly isn't a man."

Zhu Da stopped her steps this time. "What may this brother's name be?" she asked him in a sweet voice.

"I am Gu Wei, Profound Blossom Sect Inner Court disciple."

"I am Zhu Da—"

"Sister Zhu, correct? How about it, sister Zhu. Want me to comfort you in place of that idiot behind me?" He said, directly going for her hands.

Zhu Da remained silent for a moment before nodding.

Seeing this, Su Yang grinned. "What a great matchup," he laughed inwardly.

"The two of you may enter once there is an available room," said Liu Lanzhi upon seeing the two pair up.

After Gu Wei and Zhu Da paired up, the two proceeded to wait in a separate area, where they could connect with each other while waiting for an available room.

Meanwhile, Su Yang looked at the young lady with short black hair with a slight smile on his face.

He then began moving forward, taking casual steps towards the crowd.

"Where do you think you are going, Su Yang?" Liu Lanzhi called him out before he could even move three steps.

"To pick a partner, of course," he said calmly, dumbfounding everybody there, especially the Profound Blossom Sect disciples. Who told him that he was allowed to choose?

"That's ridiculous! Since when—"

"Are you going to tell me no?" Su Yang interrupted the disciple that was speaking and spoke directly to Liu Lanzhi, who was looking at him with a frown.

"Since when did I turn into some toy on display waiting to be picked and played?" he continued. "I am Su Yang— I choose who I want to embrace!"

There was profound feeling within the words he spoke, especially the last sentence, and the proud expression on his face as he spoke managed to charm many people there.

Even Liu Lanzhi looked at him with wide eyes, seemingly a bit dazed by his words.

Su Yang continued to walk after his words, and he was seemingly heading towards the young lady named Lu Lifen.

When he stood in front of her, Su Yang smiled and said: "I can tell that you are also bored of being here, so why don't we go somewhere quiet to drink some tea?"

The young lady also smiled. "Is there such a place here?" she asked him.

"Of course. It's just right over there." Su Yang pointed to the Chamber of Embrace, giving her a small chuckle.

"Say, I am curious... How did you know?" she then asked.

"Hmm?"

"Don't play dumb now."

"Maybe we can talk about this over some tea? I'm feeling quite thirsty after that conversation just now."

Lu Lifan suddenly became quiet.

"It'll be a boring tea session with no action, if you don't mind," she said a moment later.

"I am only interested in the tea," he quickly replied.

After another moment of silence, Lu Lifan nodded. "Good. Let's drink some tea, shall we?"

Liu Lanzhi watched their interaction with a puzzled expression on her face. Why did Su Yang suddenly become willing to participate when he was so reluctant just moments ago, even going as far as to invite the other individual himself?

Even Li Xiao Mo looked a bit dazed from his actions. He was willing to embrace someone like her when literally almost everyone within the Sect was superior in every way? This caused a bitter feeling in her heart.

And just a few moments after Lu Lifan decided to enter Chamber of Embrace with Su Yang, one of the five doors opened, and the first two that went inside slowly came out walking side by side.

The bulky young man looked as though he'd just come back from paradise, his expression loose and silly-looking, almost as though he was mentally challenged. And the way he walked looked funny, looking as though he would fall after every few steps.

The small young lady beside him, on the other hand, looked perfectly normal. Hell, the only thing that was different about her now from before she entered was that her face looked slightly rosier.

When the other guests saw this, they all did unconsciously swallowed hard. Although they have heard rumors of this place and its great reputations, their expectations just soared to the heavens.

Are their techniques really that great? To the point where someone that small was able to completely tire out a Body Refiner as though she was taking a stroll in the park?

"The next pair may go inside—" Before Liu Lanzhi could finish her sentence, two figures could be seen walking towards the open door.

"Hey! What do you think you are doing?!" Gu Wei roared at the two figures approaching the Chamber of Embrace.

"What does it look like I am doing?" Su Yang only stopped for an instant before walking again, causing Gu Wei to flush red from anger.

"You bastard! We were clearly first in line!"

However, no matter how loud Gu Wei screamed at him, Su Yang did not stop moving and walked straight into the Chamber of Embrace with Lu Lifen following behind him.

When the two entered the cave-like entrance, a large rock appeared to block the entrance, locking them inside.

Seeing this, Gu Wei nearly exploded in madness. He turned to look at Liu Lanzhi, and said: "Matriarch! This disciple was clearly wronged and requests the Matriarch to seek for justice!"

Liu Lanzhi looked at him with a bitter smile. What could she do to him? Even though she's the all-powerful Matriarch, Su Yang was a special entity within the Sect, not to mention their complex relationship.

"I will punish him accordingly afterwards," said Liu Lanzhi just to calm Gu Wei down.

"Thank you, Matriarch!" Gu Wei bowed with a bright smile on his face.

The inside of the Chamber of Embrace looked just like a small cave but decorated with a luxuriously large bed in the center of the place.

Indeed, there was only one bed and a few dimly lit light sources inside this chamber with nothing else.

"Huh? Did those two that was here just now really do anything in here? It is too clean in here, almost as if nothing happened here. Surely they didn't clean it with such perfection after doing 'that', right?" Lu Lifen pondered out loud.

"There is something in here that absorbs every last drop of the surrounding Yin Qi and Yang Qi, so you won't find anything remaining in here." Su Yang explained to her without telling her the existence of the Root of Vitality.

"Hmm... Is that so...?" Lu Lifen sat on the bed and turned to look at Su Yang, who was inspecting the place.

"So? Why did you choose me out of everyone out there? Is it because I look the best?" she asked.

"No, I only picked you because you looked bored," he said with a small smile.

"I don't believe you," she quickly replied.

"If you are thinking about taking my purity, then you can forget about it. I did not come here because I desired such things but because I was forced to by my family."

"Understandable, but I really do not intend on touching you," Su Yang assured her again, his gaze still wandering around the place, looking as though he was searching for something.

"I don't believe you," she said again.

Su Yang stopped looking around and turned to look at her with a grin. "I will not benefit much from someone at the fourth level of the Profound Spirit Realm even if I take your Yin Essence."

"..." Lu Lifen eyes slightly widened at his words. How did he know her cultivation base?

Su Yang began looking around the place again, and his weird actions gradually attracted Lu Lifen's curiosity.

"What are you doing?" she asked.

"Looking for a way to dig something out without uprooting this entire mountain," he casually said.

"Pft." Lu Lifen laughed at his reply thinking that he was joking with her.

"Hey, tell me about yourself," she continued.

"Su Yang, Inner Court disciple."

"I don't care about that."

"I am a scoundrel that enjoys embracing beautiful women— it is also my sole reason for living."

"...Are you suggesting something?" she said with a frown.

"Don't worry, you are not in my category of 'beautiful women'," he calmly said.

Hearing his words, Lu Lifen's face reddened, clearly angry at his remarks.

"Are you picking a fight with me? I will have you know that I—"

"Alright, I am ready to leave," Su Yang suddenly said, dumbfounding her.

"What? Already? We literally just got here."

"I have achieved what I came here for, so I am ready to leave— unless you want to stay here a bit longer to exercise?"

Lu Lifen coldly snorted and said: "Let's go! I have misjudged you! I came here believing you to be an interesting individual, but I was wrong!"

She walked to the exit, but after a good minute of looking for a way to remove the boulder from blocking the exit and failing, she gave up on trying to do it herself and turned to ask Su Yang.

"How do I move this thing?" she asked in an irritated voice.

Su Yang shrugged and said: "This is my first time here, so even I do not know."

"What? How could this be..."

After a moment of pondering, Su Yang retrieved a jade slip from his storage ring and began pouring his Profound Qi into it.

"Hey, little girl, how does the Chamber of Embrace work?" He decided to ask Liu Lanzhi as the Patriarch.

"P-Patriarch! Uh... what would the Patriarch like to know about it?" Although she wondered why he was interested in the place, she didn't dare to ask.

"How does it function? More specifically, how does it open and close?"

"Uhh... It opens whenever given Spirit Stones, and it will remain open until at least two individual enters at the same time. Once it closes, it will open again once everyone inside the chamber releases their Passion Qi at least once," she quickly explained.

"So it won't open until the people inside releases their Qi?"

"That's right."

"Aiii..." Su Yang sighed before abruptly cutting the connection.

"What is it? Did you find a way to open this thing?"

"It won't open unless the both of us release our 'Qi'," he said to her.

Lu Lifen's expression drastically changed upon hearing his words. So it won't open unless the two of them embraced each other? That's ridiculous!

"I do not believe you!" Lu Lifen began attacking the stone boulder with all her strength, throwing every technique she have mastered up to this point at the large rock, but alas, it remained unmoving, like a mountain.

"Damnit! You tricked me! You knew that this would happen!" she said angrily.

"Hah? What are you talking about? Why would I need to trick you? Like I have already said multiple times— I do not intend on touching you," he shook his head.

"Additionally, we only have to release our Qi in order for it to open. You are overreacting."

"Che!" Lu Lifen sucked her teeth.

"Then what do you suggest? That we play with ourselves with each other still in the same small room? That's outrageous!"

"Do you have any better ideas?"

"..."

After a moment of silence, Lu Lifen walked to the bed, and then she said: "Listen here! You will not turn around until I am finished no matter what, or else I will kill you on the spot!"

"Yeah, yeah..." he lazily replied.

"Don't test me! I will really do it!"

After saying those words, Lu Lifen laid on the soft bed and began loosening her robes until she could touch her weak spot.

She then turned to look at Su Yang again, who was sitting by the entrance in the lotus position with his eyes closed, seemingly cultivating.

Seeing this, she heaved a sigh of relief, and her hands slowly approached her nether region the next moment.

DUAL CULTIVATION

Chapter 98 Chamber of Embrace 4

Time quickly passed as Su Yang cultivated in silence. However, the background noises behind him would occasionally disturb the peaceful environment.

Lu Lifen's slightly heavy breathing could be heard every once in a while, yet it didn't sound anything like pleasure. Instead, it sounded more like she was getting tired, even irritated.

"Are you done yet? It's been over an hour since you started, yet we are still here, even though you seemed quite eager to leave before," said Su Yang, his sudden voice startling Lu Lifen, who was so focused on herself that she'd totally forgotten about his existence.

"Shut up! I have never done this before, so I cannot help it! What about you? All you have been doing is sitting there! When are you going to relieve yourself, too?! There's no meaning if only I do it!" she yelled back.

"You really think I'd do something as shameful as playing with myself? Who do you think I am? I can relieve myself without touching myself." Su Yang said in a bragging voice, dumbfounded Lu Lifen.

Was that really something to be bragged about?

Although self-pleasure was in no way a shameful act with countless people doing it daily, such a statement could not be said the same for Su Yang, who has never touched himself before, as there was no need for him to do such a thing when he could easily have someone else do it for him at the snap of his fingers.

Lu Lifen stopped touching herself and retrieved her hands from inside her underwear, and she stared at Su Yang with an odd expression.

"You can relieve yourself without touching yourself? Is that even possible?" she asked him with a doubtful gaze, feeling a bit ridiculous herself for asking such an odd question.

"If I can't even do something as simple as controlling my own Yang Qi, can I even call myself a man?" Su Yang said as he shook his head, thinking that it was only natural that he'd be able to do such a thing.

"Really? Then why didn't you say so in the beginning?! We could have left this place by now if you had told me before I started doing something like that!"

Su Yang laughed at her words, and he said: "You think an ability like that could be learned through one's mouth? Even if I lecture you for a hundred years straight, you still wouldn't understand it."

It had taken him thousands of years of experience in order to fully master this technique, yet this little girl who wasn't even 20 years old actually thought that she'd also be able to learn it? How laughable!

Lu Lifen frowned at his words, feeling even more helpless now. "Then what else can I do? I have been trying to release my Yin Qi for the past hour without any results! If anything, it's actually hurting right now!" she said as she pointed to her nether region.

Su Yang looked at her with a strange expression on his face. "Even people half your age would be able to relieve themselves without any help, yet you cannot do something as simple as satisfying yourself? How pure are you, really?"

"Shut up! Unlike you sensual Cultivators, I am a normal Cultivator who does not need such knowledge in my life!"

"Your future husband will be sad, you know?"

"Fuck! You really are a despicable person!" she glared at him angrily.

Su Yang shook his head, and then he approached her. "We will never leave this place at this rate. How about I help you with your Yin Qi?" he said to her in a nonchalant voice.

"You want to what?! Get away from me, you pervert! I will kill you if you dare to touch me!" Lu Lifen backed herself to the wall when she noticed Su Yang walking towards her.

"Do I really look like someone who'd force myself upon others? I am just offering my services to you so that you can satisfy yourself. I won't touch you anywhere you do not want," he said in a voice filled with sincerity.

Lu Lifen stared at him in silence.

After a few moments, she opened her mouth to ask: "What will you be doing to me, exactly?"

"A back massage to loosen your body, strengthening its sensitivity to anything it touches," he said.

"A back massage? That's all? Really?"

"Are you forgetting where this is? We are in the Profound Blossom Sect, a reputable place known to many, or else there wouldn't be so many guests such as yourself here today, not to mention the Matriarch is right outside. If I, an Inner Court disciple of such Sect, does something as immoral as forcing myself onto a guest, who would want to come here for services anymore? I'm not stupid enough to risk my entire life, even ruining my Sect's hard-earned reputation at the same time for a little girl like you," Su Yang shook his head with a dejected expression, looking as though he was offended by her distrust for him.

When Lu Lifen saw his expression, she realized that she had been overreacting this entire time. He was right. If the disciples of this Profound Blossom Sect could not be trusted, then why are there so many guests here today?

"I'm sorry for doubting you... even though I am here as a guest..." she apologized in a low voice. "I guess it's probably because I am still mad at my family for sending me here..."

The sad expression on Su Yang's face instantly disappeared, and a smile appeared in its place instantly. "I will accept that apology if you lay on this bed and allow me to massage your back," he said.

Although Lu Lifen was still feeling hesitant, she nodded her head regardless, and she approached the bed in small steps.

Once she was on the bed with her back facing to the ceiling, Su Yang slowly moved his hands towards her slim figure.

DUAL CULTIVATION

Chapter 99 Lick It More!

The moment Su Yang's fingers touched her back, a wave of tingling sensation surged within her body like an electric current.

This unexpected feeling in her body caused her to let out a surprised moan.

"Ahhh~" Her moan slightly echoed in this small place.

When she realized what she had done, her face flushed red. What had happened just now? What did he do to her body?

It was at this moment Su Yang slithered his fingers across her back with snake-like movements, spreading the tingling sensation all over her body.

"Mmm~"

Lu Lifen's body trembled, and her hands naturally turned into fists, stiffening the muscle in her body.

"Relax your body..." Su Yang's gentle voice entered her ears as he pressed his fingers into her soft body.

"Ahhh~"

Another unintentional moan escaped her mouth.

"W-What is this feeling?" Lu Lifen was shocked at the reaction of her body; it felt as though even a gentle wind created by Su Yang's moving hands could cause her body to tingle with delight.

This feeling of pleasure was something she couldn't experience when she was playing with the most sensitive part of her body, yet she was feeling such a strong sense of contentment at this moment from a mere back massage.

"If only this could last forever..." She thought to herself as her body slowly submerges itself into paradise.

An unknown amount of time passed for Lu Lifen since she went into a mythical state of harmony, and suddenly, the heavenly feeling that wrapped her body abruptly stopped.

She turned to look at Su Yang with a puzzled look, wondering why he'd stopped.

"I am done. Your body should now be sensitive enough that even someone as unskilled as yourself would be able to please."

Lu Lifen stared at Su Yang with a blank look.

"Go ahead— I will be waiting for you to finish over there," said Su Yang as he pointed at the corner, sounding as though he really had no other intentions in his mind.

"W...Wait!"

Lu Lifen grabbed him by the sleeves before he could take two steps.

Then with a blushing expression, she spoke: "S-Since we are already at this point, why don't you help me with the rest?"

"Hm?" Su Yang turned to look at her with a pondering expression. "I won't understand you if you are being this vague," he said in a genuinely puzzled voice.

Although Lu Lifen somehow knew that he was faking his perplexion, she still decided to explain to him in detail her desire.

"I-I want you to help me with releasing my Yin Qi..." she said in a timid voice.

"Are you sure? Even though you were so reluctant with me touching you?"

"Stop playing innocent and help me already! I am saying that you can touch me!" she said in an aggravated tone.

"Hmm... what should I do?" Su Yang continued playing hard to get.

"If you help me, then I will also help you in return!" Lu Lifen said loudly.

Hearing her words, Su Yang smiled. "Since you are this stubborn, I guess I can help you."

Lu Lifen pouted at his words, but since he accepted her request, she decided to let it go.

Su Yang sat on the bed, and he patted his lap. "Come, sit on my lap."

"Hah? You want me to sit on your lap? Why do I have to do something that embarrassing?"

"You find this embarrassing, yet you want me to help you release your Yin Qi? Are you sure you want to do this?"

"..."

Lu Lifen frowned, but she didn't have anything to refute him with, so she turned her body and pressed her soft buttocks on his lap, sitting on him like a child sitting on her parent's lap.

"Then I will begin..." Su Yang said a moment later, and she timidly nodded.

Su Yang then loosened her robes and slipped his right arm into her dress like a snake slithering into its prey's home.

Lu Lifen could feel his warm hand slowly approaching the region in-between her legs, causing her body to stiffen. Her breathing pattern quickened, and her entire body shivered from Su Yang's gentle breathing on her neck.

A moment later, she could feel something touch her bottom lips, and her legs instinctively closed itself.

"Relax..." Su Yang whispered from behind her ears, and as though his voice was imbued with magic, her tense body began loosening itself. He then began spreading his legs— guiding Lu Lifen's legs to spread open with his.

Seeing herself in such a position, Lu Lifen's head flushed red.

"T-This is so embarrassing..." she mumbled to herself.

Su Yang then wrapped his left hand around her waist, and his right hand began caressing the closed slit to her cave.

"Ahhhhh!" Lu Lifen moaned loudly with her head bending backward. If Su Yang wasn't embracing her waist tightly, then her body would've sprung forward like a bridge.

"Wow, you are already this wet?" Su Yang said in a teasing voice at the slippery sensation.

After caressing the outside of her nether region for a few seconds, Su Yang began spreading apart her closed pussy with his fingers to touch the little pearl in her body.

"Aaahhhh!"

As though a beast was awakened inside her, Lu Lifen howled loudly, and her hands circled behind her, tightly embracing Su Yang's head.

Lu Lifen's lower body wiggled around nonstop, yet Su Yang's finger somehow managed to stay on her little pearl with absolute accuracy.

"W-What is this feeling!?" Lu Lifen loudly exclaimed. "I feel as if my mind is going crazy!"

The intensive feeling in her bottom lips aroused a profound sensation all over her body, and after only a few moments, she could already feel something welling up inside her.

"W-Wait! I feel like peeing!" Lu Lifen became terrified at the thought of peeing herself when someone was touching her so passionately.

"Don't worry, that just means you are almost ready to release your Yin Qi..." said Su Yang as his finger moved increasingly faster.

"I-It's coming! It's—Ahhhh!" Lu Lifen suddenly released a sharp moan, and her lower body squirted a large amount of liquid, soaking Su Yang's hands in holy water.

Lu Lifen slumped on Su Yang's chest after she finished releasing her Yin Qi with an exhausted look on her face, yet her body was still twitching from the burning sensation that continued to excite her body.

Su Yang slowly retrieved his wet hand from within her robes. He then licked his hand with a nonchalant expression.

And when Lu Lifen saw him tasting her liquid, her body became even hotter.

"Hmm... your Yin Qi is surprising vigorous with energy," said Su Yang. "It'd be a waste to leave it alone."

After saying those words, Su Yang laid Lu Lifen's exhausted body on the bed.

"Let me clean you up," he said with a smile.

"Eh?" Lu Lifen did not understand the meaning behind his words at first, but when he began taking off her underwear, her heart raced even faster.

After stripping Lu Lifen of her underwear, Su Yang lifted her robes, revealing to him her soaking wet pussy.

And although Lu Lifen was nervous, she didn't say anything to him and allowed him to do as he pleased.

Su Yang then spread open her legs and approached the slit between her legs with his mouth.

"Aaaaaah!" Lu Lifen moaned loudly when she felt something warm lick her pussy.

"W-What is he doing?!" She lifted her head, and the scene of Su Yang licking her slit entered her view.

"Mmmh... aaah..."

The tingling sensation caused her to moan, and her body fell back on the bed, feeling as though all of the strength in her body was being absorbed by a mysterious force.

After licking clean the Yin Qi from outside her cave, Su Yang proceeded to open her closed lips with his fingers, and his tongue began brushing her pink.

"Ah... ah... ahh..."

Feeling something entering her tight cave, Lu Lifen trembled from the intense euphoric feeling in her body.

"More! Lick it more!" Lu Lifen said in an alluring voice.

Hearing her passionate plea, Su Yang pushed his entire tongue into her tight cave.

"Yes! Aaaaah~"

A few moments later, Lu Lifen could feel the peeing sensation returning.

"It's here again! I am going to release my Yin Qi!" she exclaimed loudly, hoping Su Yang would move away from her warning.

However, Su Yang did not move even after her warning, and he continued to pleasure her with his mouth.

"I'm coming!" Lu Lifen suddenly said, and her body began twitching vigorously.

A second later, her body released a mouthful of holy water that went directly into Su Yang's mouth.

"Aaaahhh!" Lu Lifen covered her face as she moaned loudly.

A few moments later, Su Yang removed his mouth from her bottom lips, and he swallowed all the Yin Qi in his mouth.

The instant he absorbed the Yin Qi, Su Yang could feel his cultivation base slightly rise. Although it wasn't anything significant, there was a clear sign of growth in his cultivation.

"Haaa... Haaa... Haaa..." Lu Lifen breathed in an exhausted manner.

For her to experience such intense pleasure constantly, even releasing her Yin Qi two times with almost no breaks in-between, her virgin body was nearly out of energy at this moment.

However, despite feeling tired, Lu Lifen still managed to lift herself to a sitting position on the bed.

"Are all the disciples in this place like you? And to think that you are only an Inner Court disciple..." Lu Lifen couldn't imagine how blissful she would feel if a Core disciple displayed his techniques when an Inner Court disciple like Su Yang was already this skillful.

"Hahaha!" Su Yang suddenly burst out laughing. "Don't compare me with the amateurs in this place! Although I am only an Inner Court disciple, my techniques are without a doubt the best in this world, let alone this Sect meant for children!"

Lu Lifen looked at him with an unbelievable face. Although she couldn't compare his techniques with another, she had a feeling that he was not being arrogant at all.

"Anyway, I have released my Yin Qi— It's now my turn to help you," said Lu Lifen, who was no longer feeling as bashful.

After allowing Su Yang to do something like licking her treasured area, her sense of shame had reached a new high.

"Come lay on the bed and allow me to please you," she said while patting the bed.

Su Yang smiled and said: "Although I have no expectations for a virgin like you, who couldn't even satisfy yourself, I am interested in what you'll do..."

He then laid on the bed and waited for her to make her move.

Chapter 100 Are You Even a Man?

Lu Lifen stared at Su Yang, who was resting on the bed with a relaxed expression, looking as though he was taking a nap.

"How can he be so calm in such a situation?" she wondered to herself, feeling as though her pride was damaged by his nonchalant demeanor.

Her hands began reaching for his robes, loosening the silk belt around his waist. She then grabbed his pants and pulled it down slowly, revealing a soft-looking graceful snake that was seemingly in a slumber.

"This is a man's..."

This is Lu Lifen's first time witnessing a man's penis, and she was slightly taken aback by its shape that resembled a flawless piece of sausage.

"But why is it flaccid? It's different from the rumors..." Although she had never witnessed a man's treasure in her life until today, her friends had taught a thing or two about it to her, yet the thing before her eyes was completely different from her friends' description.

"If you keep staring at it, it might jump and bite you," said Su Yang, who was falling asleep from the silent atmosphere.

"..."

Lu Lifen was slightly baffled by his words. It will jump and bite her? Does it work like that?

"But what am I suppose to do with that?" she asked him in a puzzled voice. "It's all limp—unlike what I've heard."

"Then what have you heard?"

"Umm... that it's supposed to be hard and savage-looking? But yours is cute and limp..."

Su Yang didn't know whether to laugh or cry when Lu Lifen called his little brother 'cute'.

"You mean like this?" Su Yang controlled the Qi in his body, and his slumbering brother began growing longer and thicker, like a rising snake— until it resembled a dragon.

Lu Lifen gasped at the shape-shifting phenomenon that happened before her very eyes, and the idiom 'A Carp leaping through the Dragon Gate' appeared in her head, but in this case, it was a snake that had entered the Dragon Gate, evolving into a real dragon.

The thing before her was no longer a slumbering snake but an awakened dragon instead!

"So... So big..." Lu Lifen mumbled, and her fair hands unconsciously reached for it.

A slightly cool sensation entered Su Yang's head, but his face showed no other reaction besides profound calmness.

Seemingly fascinated by the shape and its very existence, Lu Lifen began stroking the stiff, warm rod in her hands gently.

"Aiya... you really are trash..." Su Yang sighed when she stroked his little brother whilst it was dry.

"It can't be helped as it is my first time doing this!" she refuted, using her inexperience as an excuse.

"I am not talking about your techniques! Before you touch it, you should at least make it wet, or else the dry rubbing will hurt the individual!" he said, baffling her.

"It works like that? But how am I supposed to—"

Before she could even finish her own sentence, her quick mind recalled how he had helped her with his mouth, causing her to feel perplexed.

"Do I really have to use my mouth? Is there no other way?" she wondered.

However, as hesitant as she was towards the situation, the very nature of her body was intrigued by the opposite sex, even desiring to experience what a man would taste like.

And slowly, the female hormones in her body began overtaking her mind, causing her mouth to approach the thick stick before her eyes, with her tongue slightly sticking out, looking as though she was licking ice cream.

When the tip of her tongue touched the hot stick, her body trembled from excitement, and a strong sense of lust surged within her heart.

Lu Lifen began licking every inch of the meat stick in her hands, quickly soaking the entire thing with her saliva.

"Haaa... haaa..." Her intensive licking caused her to be out of breath within moments, forcing her to take a break.

However, even as her mouth separated from the thick stick, her gaze continued to linger on it, seemingly ensnared by its tyrannical presence.

After she regained her breath, her mouth approached the treat again.

Su Yang, who was still resting on the bed with his eyes closed, suddenly felt something warm and soft envelope his little brother. He opened his eyes and lifted his head to look at Lu Lifen, who had managed to stuff his entire thick rod into her mouth.

The scene of Lu Lifen swallowing his entire penis had caused him to feel surprised, as he didn't expect her to be so ferocious as a maiden.

Lu Lifen's movements stopped when she realized what she had done. Her mouth was full, and she even felt its frame in her throat. However, despite doing something this ridiculous, there was a sense of comfort in her body, feeling as though such actions was only natural for her.

Soon, she began moving her head in an up-and-down motion, causing the small room to be filled with gagging sounds.

While Lu Lifen served Su Yang with intensive and deep fellatio service, he stared at her with a weird look— it was an expression someone would have when their expectations had been surpassed.

As for Lu Lifen, she was completely absorbed in satisfying her awakened lust at this moment, seemingly in a trance.

Time passed quickly, and unbeknownst to her, half an hour had passed.

During this time, even Lu Lifen herself couldn't comprehend where all this energy was coming from that allowed her to continuously suck on Su Yang's penis. There were times when her energy almost ran out, but before it could completely vanish, more energy would surge within her body out of the blue, almost as though there was something helping her recover.

Little did she know that this was all Su Yang's doing. Every once in a while before her energy would exhaust, he would exert some of his Profound Qi through his penis and into her mouth, helping her recover.

As for why he was going through the effort by helping her keep her energetic, it was simple. He really enjoyed her intensive but amateurish deepthroats; it reminded him of someone in his past life, who really enjoyed intensive acts like this.

Although Su Yang has had his little brother sucked countless times in his past life, there were only a few individuals that would dare to take it all in their mouth, and seeing Lu Lifen, who has never participated in sexual acts prior to today willing to swallow his treasure whole, he was without a doubt impressed.

"Haaa... Haaa..."

A minutes later, Lu Lifen finally decided to stop.

She then looked at Su Yang, who was laying on the bed comfortably, with an unpleasant expression, and said: "When are you going to release your Yang Qi?! I have been doing this embarrassing act for what felt like an eternity, you know!"

But despite her complaints, she was actually just displeased by the fact that she wasn't able to make him release his Yang Qi whilst he easily made her release her Yin Qi within minutes.

"Hmm? Oh, I nearly forgot about it," he casually chuckled.

As someone with god-like skills in the art of pleasure, if he didn't want to release his Yang Qi— even if he was feeling pleasure— he could easily hold it for as long as he desired.

And it's this perfect control over his own body that differentiates Su Yang from every other disciple within the Profound Blossom Sect, even other men in general. His control with his own Yang Qi was beyond perfect and almost limitless, whilst everybody else would only be able to hold it for a few minutes at most before being forced to ejaculate!

"But are you sure you want me to release my Yang Qi now? Even though you were so engrossed in satisfying yourself just now? Once I release it, we will be done here, and you may never receive another chance to fully satisfy yourself ever again."

"Hmph! You talk as if you are the only man in this world! Even without you, I will be able to satisfy myself after today!" Lu Lifen said.

Su Yang smiled at her words, and he nodded: "Very well... if that is what you wish—"

"Wait!" Lu Lifen suddenly shouted. "Despite my words, since we are already here today, I might as well satisfy myself to the fullest, right? My family did pay a hefty price to bring me here today, after all."

"About that— the Profound Blossom Sect will be returning to everyone what they paid for the event," said Su Yang, dumbfounding her.

"What? Why would they do that?" Lu Lifen asked, looking baffled by the news.

"Never mind the small details," he said with a smile. "Anyway, do you still wish to continue, or are we finished here?"

"Hmph! Of course, we are not finished here! And we will not be finished until I manage to make you release your Yang Qi, as that was my original intent!"

"Once I experience something for an extended amount of time and it stops, it'll only get harder to please me if you return to it," he said with a slight shoulder shrug.

"..." Lu Lifen stared at him with a pondering expression.

After another moment, she spoke: "I still have other places I can please you with, you know!" she said as she lifted her dress, revealing to him her soaking wet undergarment.

Su Yang smiled and said: "Are you sure?"

"Do I really have to repeat myself? Are you even a man?" she replied in a cheeky tone.

"..."

The smile on Su Yang's face instantly disappeared at her words, and when Lu Lifen saw this, her body trembled from a dreadful feeling.

"Very well... I shall show you why a maiden like you shouldn't be so cheeky in front of me when we are on the same bed."

He then stood up on the bed and stripped away all of his clothes, dazzling Lu Lifen with his flawless figure.

"You should strip as well since it will only get in the way," he said in a calm yet domineering voice.

Lu Lifen forcefully swallowed her saliva, wondering what she'd just gotten herself into.

"Too slow!"

Su Yang's arms suddenly flickered, disappearing from his sides for an instant.

Lu Lifen felt her body suddenly become lighter, so she looked down.

"What?!" She was shocked to find out that almost all of her clothes had disappeared! Her dress was gone, and even the undergarment for her breasts was gone! The only thing on her body at this moment was a mere piece of wet underwear that revealed the shape of her bottom lips!

Lu Lifen then looked at the thing that was in Su Yang's grasps, and sure enough, it was her clothes! How did he manage to strip her almost naked in an instant? Hell, she didn't even realize that she had been stripped even though he did it right before her eyes!

"You... How—"

Before she could even say another word, Su Yang pressed her down to the bed and seductively stared at her in the eyes.

And almost instantly after her back touched the bed, Lu Lifen could feel a gentle air blow past her legs. If she had to take an educated guess, then she was completely naked at this moment from her head to the toes.

"Last warning," he said to her.

Despite feeling a bit dazed at the situation, Lu Lifen still spoke with a grin on her face: "Not twice, but three times? You really are a pansy—"

"Aaaaaahh!"

Before Lu Lifen could even finish her sentence, she felt something enormous and long enter her body through the pink between her legs, and her body overflowed with an indescribable sense of pleasure, forcing an ear-piercing moan out of her.

Blood dripped and stained the white bed, indicating that Lu Lifen had really lost her virginity.

"Aaaa— Aaaahhh!" Lu Lifen continued to moan loudly as the intense heat in her body did not pause.

Su Yang did not stop moving his hips despite just tearing her seal, even hitting her harder than any of his previous partners, yet there was not even the slightest sign of pain on Lu Lifen's delightful face.

Her eyes were rolled all the way back, and her slim body curved upwards like a bridge.

Clearly, she didn't mind Su Yang being rough with her, even finding it extremely pleasing with her body screaming with lust.

Lu Lifen is obviously someone who naturally enjoys rough sex to some extent, but she herself wasn't aware of this— except Su Yang, who easily saw through her very nature, hence why he decided to do it rougher than usual.

Soon, the small cave-like room echoed with sounds of ecstasy endlessly. Lust flooded through Lu Lifen's whole body. Her blood burned with passion, and all of her reason was washed away by the waves of pleasure viciously hitting her body, slowly becoming a slave for pleasure.

"Aaah! Aaah! Aaah! More! Faster! Harder! Aaah! Aaaaaahh!"

Time passed slowly as the two indulged themselves in pleasure, and unbeknownst to Lu Lifen, many hours had passed since she entered the Chamber of Embrace.

During this time, her pink hole has naturally shaped itself to fit the frame of Su Yang's rod perfectly, flawlessly wrapping itself around him to ensure that the both of them were enjoying each other to the fullest.

"Haaa! Haaa! Aaaaahh!"

Lu Lifen moaned, releasing her Yin Qi for the countless time.

Su Yang continued to transfer his Profound Qi to her during this whole time, recovering her energy as their session grew more intensive as time passed.

Unlike his dual cultivation with Lan Liqing who was a Cultivator at the True Spirit Realm, Lu Lifen was only at the Profound Spirit Realm, so her energy was extremely limited. If it weren't for Su Yang's constant support, both her body and voice would've long exhausted itself.

"More! More! More~!"

Lu Lifen begged for more, and the two continued to cultivate without stop.

Outside the Chamber of Embrace, everybody from the guests to the Profound Blossom Sect disciples was staring at the chamber Su Yang and Lu Lifan entered at this moment, their mind filled with shock and awe.

"H-How long have they been inside?" Someone within the crowd asked.

"Uhh... they've been in there since the start of the event, and it's almost coming to an end..."

"What the hell are they doing inside?! Surely, it shouldn't take this long for them to finish!"

"Did they perhaps fall asleep inside?"

"The two of them basically locked this one room for themselves for two days straight, reducing the total rooms by one for everybody else! How shameless!"

While the guests wondered why it was taking so long for Su Yang and Lu Lifan to come back out, the Profound Blossom Sect disciples stared at the entrance with frowning expressions.

Even Liu Lanzhi was staring with a serious expression.

As disciples of the Profound Blossom Sect, they all knew how the Chamber of Embrace functioned to some extent.

"The Chamber of Embrace does not allow people to sleep in there and will automatically open its entrance even if one of them falls asleep for more than an hour," said one of the Inner Court disciples to the others.

"And they cannot stay idle inside without cultivating since the Chamber of Embrace will also automatically open up if neither of them releases Qi within five hours..." said another.

"So the only reason why they are not coming out is simply because one of them has yet to release their Qi ever since they went inside!"

"What?! Impossible! There is no way anybody can endure this long! For two whole days!? That is physically impossible!" Gu Wei exclaimed loudly in disbelief.

He was not the only one. Every other disciple, even Liu Lanzhi was feeling doubt at this moment.

"That brat Su Yang released his Yang Qi only a few minutes after we started during our time together... so could it be that young lady the reason why they are still inside?" Liu Lanzhi pondered.

However, she quickly found this reason to be even less likely, as she had experienced his divine techniques herself before.

"It's impossible for Su Yang to be unable to satisfy this young lady who is clearly a maiden when his techniques had easily conquered even my experienced body," Liu Lanzhi thought to herself.

"Just what the hell are they doing inside?"

Everybody— except a few poor individuals— waiting outside have already had their experience inside the Chamber of Embrace, so it was only Su Yang and Lu Lifan that has to finish their session.

"Haaa..." Li Xiao Mo sighed at the situation.

She had been approached by almost every guest here for the past two days, yet she declined all of them without a single thought, so she was one of the few here that has yet to enter the Chamber of Embrace.

"Just what are you doing inside, Su Yang?" she wondered to herself, her face filled with a gloomy feeling.

When the other Inner Court disciples saw her condition, they almost wanted to approach her and give her a hug, but knowing her character when she's in a bad mood, none of them dared to actually approach her.

After a few more minutes of waiting around, a rumbling sound came from the Chamber of Embrace, causing everyone there to turn their heads.

The only closed door finally opened after two whole days, and a figure slowly walked out.

"It's him! He's finally out after two days!" someone exclaimed in excitement.

It was Su Yang, and he looked completely normal. Hell, if they compared him now to when he first went inside two days ago, they wouldn't be any noticeable change about him no matter how much they looked!

His clothes were speckless, and his long black hair was still neatly tied behind his back, looking as though he'd only went on a stroll.

"What the fuck? Does he look like someone who'd just had sex for two days straight?" someone asked out loud.

The people silently shook their heads at the question. Hell, he doesn't even look like someone who'd taken a nap, let alone have sex for two days straight.

Seeing his clean appearance, the peoples' doubt grew, and their curiosity peaked. Just what did he do inside for the last two days?

"Huh? What happened to the young girl that was with him?" asked another.

When someone questioned about Lu Lifen, the old man that came with her frowned deeply.

He then jumped through the crowd and landed in front of Su Yang.

"Where is my Young Lady?" he said with an intimidating air surrounding him.

With a smile, Su Yang spoke: "She's resting in Heaven now."

When the old man heard his words, his expression blanked for an instant. His eyes then quickly turned red from fury, and the cultivation base of a True Spirit Realm exploded from within his body with his head reduced to a red-faced, wrathful mess.
