

Chapter 96

"That's the plan you made for this year?"

The man's voice was low and cold, with the majesty that belonged solely to the higher power.

The project manager bowed his head slightly, his forehead almost oozing with cold sweat.

"Mr. Lu, the company's plan for this year is to keep it intact, and now that the market economy is generally in the doldrums, we all feel that it's not beneficial to expand too quickly, so..."

"The market is depressed...Shoucheng?"

Biden Lu sneered and suddenly threw out the plan in his hand with a snap.

The paper grazed the side of the project manager's face and he closed his eyes in pain.

The conference room went quiet and silent, and everyone held their breath.

Only Biden Lu said in a stern voice: "So you're fooling me with a device that even a fresh graduate can make?Shoucheng?The Visterdem branch has held the success for three years and has declined every year, and I've given you many chances to do so!Now I'm sitting here, and you still have the nerve to take this rhetoric, do you think Lu's can't do without you or do you think I'm stupid for not understanding the current market situation?"

The project manager was scared to death and explained, "Mr. Lu, it's not..."

"OK!! don't think you're capable of taking on that position either, so starting tomorrow, you won't have to come back here."

The project manager stared.

"Lu!!, I was wrong, you can't fire me, Lu-"

However, Biden Lu had already been too lazy to pay attention to him and directly called for him to be dragged out, which was why he said coldly with a heavy face, "Continue!"

The next manager went up to report on his work with trepidation.

The air pressure in the meeting room was so low that it was impossible, but it was good that this manager was competent and reported quite satisfactorily to Biden Lu.

The next one just wasn't so lucky.

Because of a miscalculation of data, Biden Lu just pointed it out, that manager immediately scared to the knees.

"Lu, yes, sorry, I'll take it right back and recalculate."

Biden Lu sneered, and everyone was secretly thinking that this person's career path at Lu's was at an end.

Unexpectedly, just at that moment, a buzzing sound of a mobile phone vibrated.

The crowd froze.

Boss Lu called a meeting. Who dares to bring in a mobile phone?

Everyone looked at me and I looked at you, but I saw Boss, who was sitting on the throne, frown and suddenly pull out his phone from his pocket.

The crowd: "..."

Everyone lowered their heads in silence, so as to be oblivious.

The last thing Biden Lu likes is to be interrupted at work, so he was very unhappy about someone calling him at this time.

However, as soon as I saw the caller ID on my phone, the expression on my face immediately changed.

It only takes a second to go from overcast to sky-high in the sky.

He stood up immediately and went outside to answer the phone.

Everyone was not looking at each other for a moment, and as soon as the people went out, they discussed it lowly.

"Who is it? Looking at Lu's face, it looks like something good is happening?"

"Whoever it is who dares to call Lu at this time and make him so happy must not be a simple person."

"Maybe they've negotiated a multi-billion dollar deal?"

"That's not necessarily true, a list of tens of billions of dollars is nothing in Lu's hands, he's not that happy about it."

Vicky, who had been standing behind Biden Lu, was the one who saw the caller ID on his phone the entire time.

He couldn't help but sniffle at the whispered comments of the executives.

Miss Jing, Miss Jing, in everyone's eyes, you are more important than tens of billions of dollars!

As it turns out, the power of love is great.

Biden Lu went outside to pick up the phone, his voice instantly changed from the low and cold just now, into a warm and gentle one.

"Biden Lu, are you still with the company?"

"Well.

What's going on?"

"You haven't eaten yet have you?"

Biden Lu squeezed the phone and looked out the window, "No."

"Mrs. Chen cooked so many delicious food, I brought it all over for you, if it's convenient you can ask Vicky to come down and pick me up! I'm afraid the front desk at your office won't let anyone in if they don't know me."

She hadn't forgotten the last time she'd been stopped by the front desk at the Muse.

Lu's such an international company, the rules would only be more than Mu's, and no one knew her identity, she really didn't dare to guarantee that Vicky would be able to go up on her own if she didn't come to pick her up.

Biden Lu's eyes were deep.

"You're coming over?"

"Yeah."

"Okay, I'll get him down here right away."

Biden Lu hung up the phone and returned to the conference room.

Everyone immediately ended the gossip and looked like they were sitting down for a serious meeting.

However, it was seen that Lord Boss just picked up his jacket that he had hitchhiked to a chair, and then he commanded in a deep voice, "Dismissed."

What?

People didn't react too well at the moment.

The manager who had made data errors during the report just now was also a bit startled and stumbled, asking, "Mr. Lu, that, that I this..."

Lu Jing stared at him deeply.

"Call back and redo it and submit it to me tomorrow morning."

The manager was stunned, then nodded his head repeatedly as if he was amused.

"Yes, Lu, I'll be done in the morning."

Biden Lu left with Vicky.

Back in the president's office, he said in a deep voice, "You go down and pick up Jenny."

Sumi pursed his lips to hold back a smile.

He knew that it must be Miss King who had come.

Otherwise the president couldn't have been so nice.

Vicky obediently agreed and was about to turn around and walk out when Biden Lu called him back.

"Wait."

Vicky returned, and Biden Lu frowned slightly, pausing for two seconds before instructing, "You say hello to the front desk, and if Jenny Jing comes over in the future, just bring her to my office directly."

Vicky was fiercely shaken.

The president is going public?

He didn't dare to ask any more questions, so he answered in succession and respectfully retreated.

Ground floor lobby.

When Jenny arrived, Vicky was already waiting in the hall.

Upon seeing her, he immediately greeted her with a smile.

"Ma'am, you're here."

Jenny gave him the thermos in his hand to hold and asked with a smile, "I didn't disturb your work by coming at this time, did I!"

Sumer smacked the corner of his mouth.

The president has stopped the meeting because you're coming over, don't you think?

It was just that he would never dare to say this, so he smiled and said, "No. Did you bring the president dinner? It just so happens that the president is hungry, and was just talking about where he was going to eat."

They joked around and got into the lift.

The staff at the front desk saw them enter and immediately gathered together.

"Eh, did you guys see the woman who just went in?"

"I see, she's the one Suteko was talking about! It's quite pretty looking, I wonder which daughter is the daughter of a thousand."

"What's her relationship to the president, anyway? The president has never liked women in his office, and I can't believe he would make an exception for her."

"That's right, Su Special Assistant even gave us a special greeting, saying that in the future she'll just bring it directly to the president's office when she comes, so looking at it, the relationship must be unusual!"

"It's not the president's girlfriend, is it?"

"No way! The president's girlfriend, not the Kwan family's..."

"What are you guys talking about here during office hours?"

Chapter 97

A cold voice was heard, but it was the lobby manager who came over.

Several of the front desk saw their boss coming and immediately returned to their original positions like a mouse to a cat, one by one.

"Manager, we didn't talk about anything."

"Yeah, yeah, we didn't say anything."

The lobby manager is just to see them get together only to scold, usually they really have a little touch fish what, most of them are also open eyes closed eyes even.

So they didn't care anymore, and said in a deep voice: "Now that Lu is sitting in the company, it's no better than before, so be careful when you go to work! It's not like I can bail you out if I get caught."

The crowd heard that they knew she was telling the truth, and were busy being good.

"Manager, we'll never do it again."

Only then was the lobby manager satisfied, and with a "hmm" he left.

The lift goes all the way to the 48th floor.

After the "ding" sound, Summers walked out with her and went straight to the president's office.

It wasn't the first time Jenny came to Biden Lu's office, but it was different from the last time, when it was lunch time and all the people in the secretary's office had already left!

It was bare, so no one knew she had been here.

And today, Biden Lu all stayed to work overtime, the people in the secretary's office naturally did not dare to leave early.

So she had to harden her heart and walk out under a pair of searching eyes.

The heart is a little remorseful.

All she could think about was how she was going to please the man to make up for last night, forgetting that everyone was still off duty at this point.

She was bound to be seen if she came over like this, and then her relationship with Biden Lu probably wouldn't be able to be hidden.

Just the thought of it made Jenny want to retreat.

"That... Suteuke, why don't you just bring my food over for me, and I won't go in."

Summers looked at her with difficulty.

"Ma'am, the president already knows you're here, and he'll be disappointed if you don't go."

Jenny laughed awkwardly.

"But...so many people outside your office..."

Vicky smiled, "Don't worry, the secretary's office is now under my control, and the people in it are all carefully selected by me, no big mouths, so no one will say anything."

Jenny was relieved to hear this, feeling slightly relieved.

The Office.

Biden Lu is handling the work at hand.

Vicky knocked on the door and he said in a deep voice, "Come in."

Vicky pushed the door open and didn't enter, only smiling sideways at Jenny, "Madam, you can go in."

Jenny nodded, took the thermos from him and walked in.

Biden Lu looked up at her.

She was wearing a lotus-pink dress that came down to her ankles, a thin jacket of the same colour, and a pair of lotus-pink flats on her feet.

The whole thing looked a little more gentle and ladylike than usual.

His lips overflowed with a smile and he said in a warm voice, "Sit down for a moment, I'll be right back."

Jenny nodded, she could tell that he was really busy.

She sat obediently on the couch by the door, picking up a magazine and flipping through it.

Biden Lu's office is usually filled with financial or military magazines or newspapers, so it is obvious that he is only interested in this area, but it is rare to actually see an entertainment magazine under the coffee table.

On the cover of the magazine is Michelle Kwan, a top-notch actress who has won the Hundred Flowers Award and the Golden Rooster Award in recent years and is regarded as the most beautiful queen of film.

By the way, Jenny was quite fond of this Guan Xuefei.

After all, she's pretty, she's an okay actress, and she's not at all on the same level as the current flow of flowers who are empty and actually act like a mess.

And I've also heard that she comes from a distinguished family, and is one of those people who would stomp their feet in Kyoto and shake the ground.

Being an actress was just a dream of hers.

And because of that, she almost never had a scandal, and the dirty, dirty things in the entertainment industry had even less to do with her.

Such a person would be liked by whoever said it.

Jenny was looking at the magazine with quite a bit of interest, but Biden Lu had put down the pen in his hand and stood up.

"What are you looking at?"

He walked towards her.

Jenny tilted his head and smiled, raising the magazine in his hand.

"Entertainment magazine."

In the meantime, Biden Lu's gaze swept over the cover of the magazine, imperceptible.

Jenny Jing tsked, "Before I saw that you didn't have any entertainment in your office, I thought you weren't interested in that, but it doesn't seem so! Do you also like Kwan Sheffield?"

Biden Lu's face was pale, and he went to the bathroom to wash his hands and said in a soft voice, "I don't like it."

"Then why do you have her magazine?"

"Probably some unsuspecting person put it here randomly after reading it."

Biden Lu didn't seem too willing to talk much on the subject, and sat across from her after coming out, smelling the aroma emanating from the thermos.

"What do you have with you?"

Jenny was instantly distracted by him, putting the magazine away with him and uncovering the lid of the humidior.

"It's all the food you like to eat, Mrs. Chen is very kind, I guess seeing that you're busy these days, so I made a lot of delicious food."

She uncovered it one by one, and the food inside really was full of colour and aroma, and just the smell of it made people's fingers tingle.

Biden Lu set up the dishes for her, and he unbuttoned the cufflinks of his shirt when he washed his hands just now.

At this time the sleeves were pulled up halfway, revealing half of the strong little arms, holding the chopsticks in an especially s*xy and alluring manner.

Jenny served him a bowl of soup first and said, "Have some soup to warm your stomach before you eat."

Biden Lu nodded, seeing her also holding a small bowl of soup and taking a small sip, her gaze deepened.

"Why did you think to bring me food today? Has Mrs. Lu suddenly decided to go the virtuous route?"

Jenny choked, almost choking on her soup.

She stared up at him, "Don't you like this route? Then I'll change it tomorrow."

Biden Lu laughed.

"No need to change it, I like it."

Jenny snorted.

Biden Lu suddenly said again, "But I'd like it better if you cooked the food yourself."

Perhaps too excited, Jenny suddenly choked.

She coughed twice, looking at him in surprise.

"You want to eat my cooking?"

Biden Lu said in a soft voice, "Isn't it normal for a wife to cook for her husband?"

Jenny laughed dryly twice.

"Oh...I can make it, but I'm afraid you won't dare eat it."

Lu Jingzhen paused for a moment.

He looked at her with deep eyes, his eyes full of love.

"As long as you make it, I dare you to eat it."

Soon, Landboss would find out just how much he had screwed himself with that boast in the first place.

Jenny laughed awkwardly and didn't continue.

After finishing her meal, she saw that Biden Lu seemed to have something else to do, so she cleaned up the dishes and said, "You go ahead and get busy, I'll go home by myself first."

"Wait."

Biden Lu called out to her and suddenly took out a box from the drawer and handed it over.

Jenny was stunned and reached for it.

Opened it up, but it was a brand new phone.

She couldn't help but brighten her eyes and asked with delight, "For me?"

Biden Lu said, "The one you had before can't be used anymore, the phone card has been repaired for you, so the data from the previous phone has also been copied in for you, so you can see if there are any more problems."

Jenny was busy booting up the computer, and after checking a bit, he found that not only was the data all of this copied over, but even the photos were not a single one missing.

She couldn't be happier.

"Thanks."

Biden Lu smiled.

"If you really want to thank me, stay with me until I get back together, eh?"

He leaned close to her, his hand wrapping around her waist in a natural grip, and brought her into his arms.

Jenny's face involuntarily blushed a little, thinking that it would be fine to go back at night anyway, so she simply didn't refuse.

Chapter 98

For the rest of the day, Biden Lu continued to work, while Jenny Jing sat on the sofa and studied the new phone she had just gotten.

She first sent a message to Nina Hua, then opened Weibo.

As a Gold PR, it's essential to stay on top of what's going on in the entertainment industry.

Aside from some privately-raised informants, most of the time, it's still necessary to network to keep up with the latest news about other artists.

The microblogging hotlist includes a promotional teaser for Hidden River Yoshinobu.

Jenny clicked in to watch it, as the drama has been hot on for the past two years, so the Friends were excited to know that it was now about to start filming.

Released today, it's just a simple poster teaser, a quaint and gorgeous exuberant mountain river poster with the title of the film and the star's name on it.

It is estimated that in two days, the makeup photos will be taken and the makeup poster will be released.

The biggest curiosity in the drama is the female lead Clara and the male lead Ying Mo Han.

As a result, they were the most vociferous in the comments section.

The next is the second female, Winnie Xie.

In contrast, Evelin, who played the third female, was much more transparent, and her name didn't even appear in the comments section.

But this was not surprising, after all, although Evelin was not a newcomer, she was really not very famous.

She first retweeted the crew's tweet with her work number, and then Ai Evelin, followed by the sentence: "The mountains and rivers are a million miles away, embarking on a journey.

After exiting Weibo, Nina Hua messaged back over.

Her new movie is going to kill in the next few days and she's going to end up needing a bit of filler footage, so it's busy.

Jenny's accident, she still knew about it from a bystander.

This circle in Visterdem was so big, the Mu family was suddenly targeted and made such a big commotion, it was impossible for Huashi as a local snake not to know.

Fortunately, nothing happened in the end, Nina is also considered relieved, just Jenny's phone is broken, has been unable to contact her, this time suddenly received her text message, natural hurry to reply care about.

Jenny curled her lips and reported her peace.

Nina Hua was still furious and scolded that idiot Fedora in a text message.

If the Mu family hadn't already taken the initiative to send people out of the country, they would only be relieved if they had to be personally picked up and taught a lesson.

They chatted for a few moments, but Nina Hua had work to do, so they didn't continue.

Perhaps because she was there, Biden Lu wasn't busy for long, and finished his work after about half an hour or so.

On the way home, Jenny suddenly received a phone call.

It was Mrs. Yu's.

She was a little surprised.

Since the last time at Clara's birthday banquet, Old Lady Yu had turned against her in public because of her affair with Rovell Mu, there had been no contact behind her.

She didn't know if Old Lady Yu had learned the truth of the matter later, but in any case, some things had already happened, so she couldn't pretend they hadn't.

If the previous because of the mother's relationship, to Yu old lady still have a few feelings of admiration.

After that time, these few feelings that were already thin, faded away.

She was, after all, a cold-hearted person, and her inherently limited true love was only willing to be given to a few people who truly cared and believed in her, but as for the rest....

No imposition.

Jenny picked up the phone.

Across the room came the old woman's old, kind voice.

"Jenny ah, are you busy?"

Jenny faintly held her lips, "No, what is your problem?"

The undisguised detachment in her tone silenced the other side for a few seconds.

Old Lady Yu sighed.

"Are you still mad at me for what happened last time, when I was wrong about you?"

"No."

Regardless, Old Lady Yu had been kind to her mother and had given her a lot of care when she was a child.

Blame is impossible, but it's probably just a little disappointing to have thought of the other person as someone you could trust, only to find that the so-called trust was just that.

Old Lady Yu said, "I haven't had the face to call you all this time, that's why I felt it was so wrong to wrongly blame you that night in front of so many people.

The night before last, I heard your great uncle talk about your match with Clara, only to find out that even five years ago you were wrongly accused, child, you have suffered for so many years."

Jenny was silent for a moment.

There was a faint sourness that spread through the heart.

She managed to pull her lip back and said quietly, "Thank you for your concern, it's over, I didn't take it personally."

"It's good that you didn't take it to heart, you're a good kid and you'll be on your way."

"Thanks."

Jenny didn't say another word, and the phone fell silent.

A kind of frozen atmosphere lingered between them.

Not that it was intentional, but Jenny really didn't know what to say.

She didn't really blame Old Lady Yu, but there was no way to push the envelope and talk about everything like she used to.

Only after half a moment did old lady Yu square off.

"I heard that you and Biden Lu are together?"

Jenny's heart thudded.

She scanned the man driving next to her out of the corner of her eye, somehow feeling guilty.

But since the other party knew all about it, there was no need for her to hide it.

"Well."

The old lady sighed.

"He's not your good match."

Jenny knitted her brows.

The subconscious was a little disgusted by that statement.

But she didn't say anything, as long as she understood some things in her heart, there was no need to explain them to everyone.

"Do you have anything else?"

When Old Lady Yu saw that she didn't want to talk about it, she sighed again and didn't say anything more.

They had a few casual conversations and then hung up.

Biden Lu asked, "Did Old Lady Yu call?"

Jenny was stunned and looked at him in surprise.

"How do you know?"

Biden Lu smiled and didn't say anything.

Jenny looked suspiciously at his phone, "You didn't wire me, did you?"

Biden Lu: "....."

"Mrs. Land, the sound of you answering the phone is not loud, but there was limited space in the car, and I'm still young enough to have no hearing problems, so it shouldn't be too strange to hear you on your phone, right?"

Jenny: "Oh."

After a pause, he said, "The old lady said that you are not my good match."

Biden Lu: "....."

The corners of his eyes smacked hard and his face sank.

Jenny looked at him, narrowing her eyes half-seriously, half-jokingly, "Either you think I've elevated you, or you have some other secret you're hiding that I haven't told you, but they all know, so they're side-stepping me and trying to remind me."

The man's grip on the steering wheel tightened unconsciously.

He sank to his knees and said in a cold voice, "Nonsense! Don't you ever associate with these people again! I don't mind making them stay somewhere else if they try to talk nonsense to you again."

Jenny couldn't help but giggle when she saw that he was serious.

"Just kidding, why so serious?"
