

Chapter 981

"Tell you the truth, Mr. Jun, how many years have I waited for you with these weapons? I really feel distressed to buy these weapons with my personal financial resources."

"But now, I got it without spending a penny! In order to let you jump in, I planned for six years! You really jumped into the pit. I have to say something to you, thank you, Uncle Jun! "

"You..." Jun Chengyin raised his wrist abruptly. He looked at Arron with anger, the truth punched Arron's head open.

However, Jun Chengyin dropped his hand weakly.

Unless he lives enough.

Now, Jun Chengyin has no ability to fight Arron.

"Uncle Jun, if you don't try to hurt my heart over and over again, how can I swallow your one-third of your weapons? It's all you asked for."

"You can't beat Kraig even if you don't lose a third of your weapons in Kyoto, let alone you lose a third of your weapons now?"

"Uncle Jun, your time is over. You can't beat Kraig, and you can't beat me Arron! I think Kraig's face, spare you once!"

After some words, Jun Chengyin wanted to find a place to drill.

After Arron finished speaking, he ignored Jun Chengyin.

He only said to his wife: "Suzi, are you tired? I haven't gotten home since I got off the plane. Let's go."

Suzi nodded: "Husband, let's go home."

The couple passed Jun Chengyin and went straight out.

The only thing left is that you become a shade, like air.

But the waiter came up with the bill, and she handed it to Jun Chengyin: "Sir, please pay the bill."

Jun Chengyin: "Get out!"

The waiter laughed angrily and looked at Jun Chengyin: "You old man! Are you going to eat Bawang meal? We are a high-consumption place. The private room fee for this private room is more than 1,000. Do you want to go wrong?"

Jun Chengyin: "If you don't get out, I will kill you!"

The waiter stumbled down like a ghost, and yelled as he ran: "Hurry up, there is a tyrannical old man in the private room. He doesn't pay the bill and he wants me to get out. I said he was going to kill me. ."

Jun Chengyin: "..."

He was really confused.

Although he knew that this private room had nothing to do with him, it should be Arron and Mr. Shu or his granddaughter who should pay for it, but at this moment, if he does not pay for it, Jun Chengyin really can't get away.

Moreover, it will become a big joke that everyone spurns.

At this moment, Jun Chengyin's eyes turned red.

He hurried to the front desk, paid the bill while apologizing, and chased him out.

At this moment, Jun Chengyin wanted to chase Arron to get the bill back!

After chasing the door, Jun Chengyin saw a car parked outside the gate of this leisure club.

This car, Jun Chengyin, is the most familiar, it is the car of his nephew Kraig.

Kraig's now unique boss in Kyoto is much more prestigious than when he was young, and Kraig's limelight has long overshadowed his second uncle's limelight.

At this time, two people slowed down in the car.

Sure enough, it was Kraig and the woman that Kraig took wherever he went, Dalia.

Dalia got out of the car and rushed to Suzi. He looked up and down, left and right, as if two people were sisters.

There were tears in her eyes: "Suzi, I can't get in touch for the past half a month. I'm almost dying of anxiety."

"I called you the night you first arrived at Gasing Island, but you keep shutting down and shutting down all the time."

"You...are you okay on the island, the only one, why didn't I see the one?"

As soon as Dalia's voice fell, he was hit by someone behind him. When she turned her head, she suddenly screamed, "Ah...what is this?"

Chapter 982

What appeared in front of Dalia's eyes was a burly beast doll that was thick and half-length.

What is this!

Dalia was really scared, tears of scared flowed out.

However, Lilly, who was holding this explosive animal doll, looked at Dalia with innocence and innocence: "Aunt Shanshan, you... are you scared?"

When he heard the childish innocent voice, Dalia endured fear and looked down, and saw that the only little friend of Shen was holding the doll to please Dalia.

"Auntie, the doll for you." Lilly said.

Dalia: "..."

"You little thing, you want to scare your Aunt Shanshan out of nowhere, let's see how Uncle Jun beats you!" Kraig raised his wrist and squeezed his only nose.

Dalia immediately felt distressed again: "Kraig, don't scare the children!"

Kraig: "..."

"Auntie, do you like it for you?" Lilly asked, tilting his head.

Dalia: "..."

She wants to say she doesn't like it, okay?

She nodded insincerely, and then summoned her courage to hand it to Kraig.

I'm so scared of this doll.

I really can't understand the brain circuit of Xiaopenyou, why is it so strange.

Looking at Kraig, the man was not scared at all. He teased the doll. He raised his hand and pressed the button on the doll. The doll immediately made a ghostly sound.

Dalia: "..."

Kraig laughed wildly.

"Auntie, hug." Lilly opened his hand for Dalia to hug.

Dalia bent over and hugged Lilly in his arms, and looked at Lilly with incomparable affection. The expression in those eyes was as if Lilly were her own child.

"The little thing scares you so much, you still like her so much. You can just recognize her as a damsel." Kraig said to Dalia.

Dalia immediately nodded happily: "Okay!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Suzi blurted out: "Sister Shan, take advantage of you to give birth to Mr. Hejun, give birth to several! You have to have more births!"

When Suzi saw Elder Shu telling Arron that he still had a younger brother, Arron's face immediately had a look of surprise. At that moment, Suzi knew that anyone in this world would like to have multiple relatives.

There can be one more.

Therefore, Suzi hopes that Dalia will have more lives.

Suzi can also see that Dalia actually wants a child in his heart. Not to mention Suzi can tell, even Shen's only child can see that Dalia wants a child very much.

The only reason why he gave Dalia this Explosive Beast doll was to hope that Dalia could have his own child soon.

As soon as Suzi's voice fell, he saw that Dalia's face flashed with loneliness.

It was only an instant, Dalia immediately returned to a gentle smile on his face and said: "I... don't want children."

Suzi: "..."

How could a woman who loves children so much not want her own children?

When Suzi was about to ask, another car drove up next to them.

When the car stopped, Lenny and Rayna got off immediately. At the same time, Rayna shouted excitedly: "Suzi! The only one! I finally saw you!"
