

Chapter 984

Next to her, Ann heard her talking on the phone and rushed over and asked, "Mommy, are you going on a business trip?"

Jenny Jing looked down at her and smiled, "Yeah."

She reached out, ruffled Ann's hair and said softly, "Mommy and Daddy may be leaving the country for a few days in five days, so you'll have to take care of your brother at home then, and if he doesn't behave, you can beat him up, but if an outsider tries to bully him, you'll have to protect him too, okay?"

Ani nodded heavily.

"Don't worry, Mommy, I'll take care of my brother."

Jenny Jing nodded happily and lowered his head to k*ss her forehead again before saying, "Alright, let's go eat."

After the family had finished their meal, in the evening, Jenny returned to her room and checked out all the fun places around Kyoto, then called the company and told Xiao He to keep an eye on the company for her before hanging up the phone.

She was looking up information online, and behind her, Biden Lu came out of the shower, saw her sitting there with her back, and came around from behind.

"What are you looking at?"

Jenny turned back and smiled at him, "I'll check out the surrounding spots."

Biden Lu was silent.

He wrapped his arms around Jenny's thin, soft waist from behind and rested his chin on her shoulder.

"I won't be able to accompany you for a few days, so be careful of your stomach when you're alone."

Jenny nodded, "I know."

She paused and then turned back, reaching up to ruffle his watery hair.

"You just take care of the company's business for the next few days, and you can't go to T in five days without you."

Biden Lu smiled, of course he knew that.

Let's not talk about this time, with Lu Lanzhi here, just by Jenny going with her alone, he was afraid that Lu Lanzhi would make some kind of trouble.

Let's just say that Jenny is still pregnant, it's fine to run around in places like Kyoto, but if he really let her go so far away by herself and still leave the country, he definitely wouldn't feel at ease.

Therefore, the two already had a tacit understanding that they must go together when the time came.

Biden Lu leaned over and k*ssed her on the cheek before getting up to blow-dry her hair.

After Jenny Jing finished checking the information, he sent another message to Mo Caiwei, sending her the place she was going to tomorrow for her to choose from, and only after they exchanged information did this go to shower and sleep.

The next day.

Jenny arrived outside of Boss Yu's manor early in the morning.

The person driving the car was Mo Nan, who also knew about her and Mo Caiwei's marriage recognition and was very happy for Jenny.

They didn't have to wait long before Mo Caiwei and Quexiu came out.

They both wore a more casual outfit today, Mo Caiwei wore a light grey casual dress with a hat on her head, while Quexiu wore the same colour as her, both of them were extremely well maintained, and from a distance they didn't look like a middle-aged couple, but rather like a pair of young lovers.

Jenny sat in the car and curled his lips as he watched the pair walk in from afar.

The mind can't help but think that this is actually good.

Wouldn't it be the best thing for Mom to move on from that past and still find her true love again?

Anything to get her to open up and stop being overly sensitive and nervous is actually enough.

She thought to herself, and pushed open the door to get out of the car, waving at them.

Mo Caiwei and Quexu walked out quickly, and as she approached she realized that Hara

There was one more thing that came to Quexu's hand.

It was a white box, and Quexu handed it to her, looking a little uncomfortable.

"This, for you."

Jenny Jing was stunned, looked at Mo Caiwei, took it, and smiled, "What's this?"

Mo Caiwei laughed, "Didn't you say you were pregnant before? This is a high-grade ingredient that your Uncle Que used to find in the desert, it's a great supplement for pregnant women, so take it back and drink the stew afterwards, and remember not to drink too much of it every day, lest it's not good instead of too much."

Jenny only then reacted with some warmth.

She handed it to Mo Nan to put it away and smiled, "Thank you, Uncle Que."

Perhaps it was because he was still not used to the name Uncle Que, only to see Quexu's face become even more embarrassed.

And without looking at her, she nodded frantically and pulled the door open to get into the car.

After getting into the car, Jenny let Mo Nan drive them to the first attraction first.

Because Mo Caiwei had specifically said that she wanted to go to the suburbs, so the places Jenny chose this time were all in the suburbs, where the air was good and the scenery was also good, which was rare in such a developed and prosperous Kyoto.

The car was unable to drive into the area, so it stopped far away.

Jenny took Mo Caiwei and Quexiu inside first, letting Mo Nan park the car before coming after them.

Mo Nan is familiar with this area, plus she is a martial arts practitioner and has fast feet, so there is no fear of not being able to catch up with them.

Jenny was actually not familiar with Kyoto before, but after she married Biden Lu, she moved to Kyoto and has become much more familiar with it over the years.

She had done her homework last night, so the scenery and history of the area was easy to follow.

Mo Nan and Quexu nodded their heads as they listened.

It didn't take long for Mo Nan to catch up.

She had two bottles of water in her hands, and after handing one bottle each to Mo Caiwei and Quexiu, she took a thermos and handed it to Jenny.

Jenny was stunned, "What is this?"

Mo Nan smiled, "This is what the gentleman gave me this morning, he said it was a bird's nest, to bring on the road to quench your thirst."

Jenny's face couldn't help but blush a little, and from the corner of her eyes, she looked at Mo Caiwei and Quexiu, angrily saying, "What's the thirst quenching? This bird's nest is smooth and creamy how to quench your thirst, give me water."

That's when Mo Nan smiled and gave her a bottle of water.

Mo Caiwei saw the situation and smiled, "Jenny, you are still pregnant, it's not good to always drink cold water, since Biden Lu let you drink bird's nest, you should drink it, your body is most important."

Jenny's face turned even redder, annoyed in her heart when this man Biden Lu was so motherly, as she said to Mo Caiwei, "Mom, it's fine, I'm not thirsty."

The group said, and went on up the road.

It was about taking into account Jenny's body, so they took a short walk and rested for a while, not eager to finish the neighborhood in a day.

Que Su was a doctor, and a very skilled one at that, so that was why Biden Lu was relieved to have Jenny Jing bring them out.

Otherwise, he wouldn't allow Jenny to do this now just by doing something as strenuous as climbing a mountain.

A few of them had a good time on the way home, playing until it was dark.

Everyone is tired after a long day of running outside.

In the evening, Biden Lu also got off work, Jenny Jing booked a hotpot restaurant and the group went to eat hotpot.

Unexpectedly, only halfway through the hotpot, Jenny received a call from Old Lady Cen.

Chapter 985

On the phone, Mrs. Sham's tone was very gentle.

"Jenny, are you home now?"

Jenny put the chopsticks down and walked outside before whispering, "No, grandmother, is there something wrong with you?"

Old Mrs. Cen smiled, "I'm fine, I'm just asking, I heard that you're... going to T country in a few days?"

"Well, my aunt has her eye on a jade mine, and I feel pretty good about it, so I plan to go there with Biden in a few days."

"Oh, that's so, then you guys be careful on the way, you have to take care of your body, let Biden do any work, you don't want to tire yourself too much."

Jenny smiled, "I know grandmother, don't worry."

"Well."

Old Mrs. Cen didn't hang up, she didn't hang up, and Jenny was too embarrassed to hang up.

However, there was no more talking from the other side, and Jenny wondered what Old Lady Cen meant by that.

After about half a minute, it was too much to bear, and that's when I tried to ask, "Is there something else you want to say to me, Grandma?"

Across the street, Mrs. Sham sounded a little embarrassed.

"It's like this, Jenny, I heard... you found your foster mother?"

Jenny was startled, and his face changed dramatically.

She looked back at Mo Caiwei in the box, then walked to a quieter place and lowered her voice, "Grandmother, how did you know?"

Old Mrs. Cen laughed, "Don't blame your aunt for this, she's just straightforward, there's actually nothing evil about her, she also accidentally let her mouth slip when she was chatting with me at the time, I casually pressed her and she said it all."

Jenny's headache caressed his forehead.

Old Mrs. Cen said again, "Your adoptive mother... is she well? Do you recognize each other?"

Jenny Jing barely smiled, "She's quite healthy, it's just that what happened ten years ago left some psychological after-effects on her, she lost her memory and can't remember anything now."

On the other side, Mrs. Cen gave a surprised "ahh".

"Well, it's better if I don't think about it, it's not a happy thing, but it's a sin to think about it.

Jenny said in a soft voice, "Yes."

Mrs. Sham sighed again.

"Jenny, don't think too much about it, I'm calling over today just to be concerned, since she's your adoptive mother, she's our real family, if she has any difficulties, you can just ask, our Lu family will always be your strongest backing."

Jenny smiled, her heart hair warming.

"Thank you, Grandma, I understand."

"Well, if you're free some day, why don't you have your foster mother come over and we'll meet up?"

Jenny hesitated.

"I'm afraid it's not convenient...for a short time."

"Why?"

Jenny sighed.

"She has PTSD and doesn't like to interact with strangers, so I thought I'd bring her to you when she's better in that regard."

Old Mrs. Cen understood, "So ah, that's okay, there's no rush this moment anyway, first focus on her body, you take good care of her."

Jenny nodded.

They spoke a few more times before hanging up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Jenny breathed a sigh of relief and turned to walk to the box.

There was harmony in the box.

Seeing Jenny return, Biden Lu lowered his voice and asked, "What's wrong?"

Jenny shook her head, "It's okay, Grandma's call."

Biden Lu's eyes were slightly deep, about understanding what was going on, but he didn't ask any more questions.

After the group ate, Jenny Jing and Biden Lu sent Mo Caiwei and her husband back to the manor together before driving home.

When only the two of them were left, Biden Lu finally asked about Old Mrs. Cen's call.

Jenny didn't hide it, but told him the truth.

Biden Lu held her hand and reassured her, "Don't worry, I'll talk to her on Grandma's side, I'm sure she won't mind if she knows about Mom's situation."

Jenny nodded.

In the next few days, Jenny Jing took Mo Caiwei and Quexiu with him and strolled through the entirety of Kyoto.

Their relationship had also progressed by leaps and bounds, and although Mo Caiwei still couldn't remember the past, she had clearly stopped rejecting Jenny and was even very close to her.

Jenny Jing looked at Mo Caiwei's radiant appearance, and only then did she curl her lips in relief.

Soon, five days passed.

Boss Yu's side had already been settled, and sent someone to tell Jenny that he was ready to leave.

Jenny then entrusted An'an and Little Jingze over to the old mansion, then packed up his things and went with them to the T country.

Since Quexu was there, there was no need to bring an accompanying doctor.

After all, there weren't many doctors in this world who were even more skilled than Quexu.

Lu Lanzhi had gotten the benefit of Jenny this time, and had been cooperative along the way, not making any more demons.

Instead, that little fresh meat of hers, Huyuan, called a few times halfway through, as if to ask Lu Lanzhi to bring him along, but Lu Lanzhi refused.

Although Lu Lanzhi is fun-loving and most of her day-to-day behavior is absurd, when it comes to getting down to business, she can still prioritize.

Besides, with Biden Lu accompanying her this time, she wouldn't dare to act as recklessly as before.

Biden Lu didn't bother to pay attention to her, and didn't talk to her much on the way.

Angry with Lu Lanzhi, she found Jenny several times in private and complained to her, saying that Biden Lu was ungrateful, and if it wasn't for her aunt when she was young, Biden Lu would have been bullied a lot more outside.

Jenny Jing smiled helplessly, but didn't say anything, just reassured her.

At the same time, he also secretly reminded Biden Lu not to fall too much on Lu Lanzhi's face in front of outsiders.

Within the family, though, everyone is more than a little prejudiced against her because of her unreliability.

But there were outsiders with them now, after all, and it was Lu Lanzie who was in the middle of this business.

If she was too cold towards Lu Lanzhi, it would appear to outsiders that she had no standing in the Lu family.

If word got out, it would be hard for Lu Lanzhi to behave in the future.

Biden Lu did listen to what she said, and for the next period of time, his attitude towards Lu Lanzhi was much better.

The company is also known as the "Lelanding", which is the middle of Jenny's role, while happy, but also couldn't help but think sourly, he brought the child up so big, didn't think that the advent is not as useful as an outside woman to talk.

As the saying goes, a daughter-in-law forgets her mother, so to speak.

But she's always thought about it, and after just a little acid, she quickly put it out of her mind.

It was three o'clock in the afternoon when the group arrived in the capital of T country.

Boss Yu had already contacted someone and was waiting to pick them up at the airport here.

Boss Yu had been in the jade business for years, and there were many jade mines in T country, so he was familiar with the area.

Since he had already made arrangements for a place to land, as well as the people who would come to pick them up, Biden Lu made no other arrangements and took Jenny Jing with him, following them to the hotel.

Chapter 986

With Biden Lu and Jenny Jing there, Boss Yu didn't dare to slow down.

The hotels booked are the most luxurious and largest in t country.

After the group entered, Jenny paid special attention and found that Mo Caiwei and Quexue's room was next to his, knowing that it should be specially arranged by Boss Yu, and his heart could not help but feel a touch of gratitude.

Lu Lanzhi's room was on the other side, but she already didn't like seeing Biden Lu every day, so she was happy to be at ease.

After the group dropped their things off, they went out to dinner.

Now that Jenny is pregnant and has an excellent appetite, she is easily hungry within two hours.

Biden Lu will often bring a little snack snacks on the body to prepare for her, others thought, the president's briefcase, usually put in the hundreds of billions of dollars should be a big contract.

It should never have occurred to you that the CEO could have chocolate and crab bars in his or her briefcase.

Jenny took the snack from Biden Lu and took a bite, satisfied, "It's still best to have something to eat."

Mo Caiwei sat opposite and smiled, "You're pregnant now, it's easy to be hungry, but you also have to be careful, some things are delicious but you can't eat too much, lest the baby's head circumference grows up and it's not good for birth then."

Jenny smiled and nodded, "Okay mum, I know."

Afterwards, when really put the uneaten snack back where it was and stopped eating it.

Biden Lu saw the situation and poured her a glass of water.

"Some water?"

"Well."

Jenny took it and took a sip.

Just then, Boss Yu came over.

He smiled complimentingly, "Mr. Lu, Mrs. Lu, Dr. Que, Miss Mo, Miss Lu, I've ordered the most authentic meal here today, you'll try it later, and if you don't like it, I'll have them change it."

Mo Caiwei smiled, "Brother Yu, it's really too much trouble for you."

Mr. Yu laughed: "No trouble no trouble, you are not familiar with this side of the well, I ah because of business, to run to this side often, five or six times a year is considered less, sometimes in order to keep an eye on the mine, half a year to live here."

Jenny Jing sipped his water and intoned, "How long have you been in the jade mining business here?"

Boss Yu smiled: "Ten years or so, there used to be more mines here in t country, but in recent years they've been exploited so much that good mines have been few and far between."

I said, as if I was afraid they would be worried, and even vouched for it.

"But I promise you, this mineral I'm taking you to this time must be one of the best found in the last ten years, I didn't tell anyone about this, it was only when Miss Lu came over that I told her about it, and it was fate."

It was rare for Lu Lanzhi to be complimented, and she smiled at the sight of it.

"Of course, I've been in business for so many years, that's not to brag, nothing else, this luck and vision is a unique share, no one can compare."

Jenny pursed her lips and laughed, Biden Lu has been too lazy to pierce her cowhide like this, so he didn't take the conversation.

Only Mo Caiwei praised honestly, "Really? That Miss Lu is really capable."

Lu Lanzhi smiled and waved her hand, "Well said, well said, it's just ordinary competent."

Soon the waiter came up with the food.

As expected, the colours and aromas were all there, and a delicate dish was presented like a piece of rare and beautiful art, making people want to drool just by smelling the aroma.

Jenny looked so appetizing that he picked up his chopsticks and started.

The rest of us are starting to chopsticks, too.

However, at this moment, a loud noise suddenly came from outside.

Several people were stunned, drawn to look out by the noise.

At this point, the rest of the restaurant drew past, not even eating, to put down their dishes and go outside.

Boss Yu said, "You guys eat first, I'll go out and see what's going on."

Biden Lu nodded, and when Boss Yu left, he took a spoon and gave Jenny Jing a bowl of soup, saying warmly, "Have some soup to warm your stomach first."

Jenny nodded and gave another bowl to Mo Caiwei, "Mom, you drink too."

Mo Caiwei was a bit nervous at this time, she was the one who was most afraid of this sudden change, and at this time, seeing the soup that Jenny handed over, she seemed to remember that she was surrounded by many people, which made her relax a bit.

She took the bowl of soup, managed a smile, and nodded.

Jenny held her hand and softly reassured, "Mom, don't be nervous, maybe it's just them locals fighting and it has nothing to do with us."

Quexu also held Mo Caiwei's other hand, "Jenny is right, don't be afraid, even if anything happens, there's still us, we'll protect you."

The warmth of the atmosphere caused Mo Caiwei to completely put her mind at ease.

She nodded and smiled, "I know, I'm at ease, don't you worry about me."

By this time, Lu Lange couldn't sit still.

She loves to watch, so she put down her chopsticks and said as she walked out, "You guys eat first, don't wait for me, I'll go out and check it out too."

Biden Lu had no choice but to go with her.

Soon after, I saw Lu Lanzhi and Boss Yu return together.

Lu Lanzhi's eyebrows danced, "This t country is really new, you just didn't see, a man who looks like he's only a meter and a half, actually almost killed a man who's a meter and a half, that body, tsk, I'm looking scared."

Jenny raised an eyebrow, "A fight?"

Boss Yu laughed: "Not counting the fight, this side of the folk fierce, like to fight boxing, I guess there is some personal grudges in the street happened to meet again, so a little bit of cutting up, fisticuffs no eye well, on the injury is a little serious."

Biden Lu Cope said, "This side of the t-fist is very powerful, and it is rumored that nine out of ten men can fight."

Jenny couldn't help but tease, "Is that them or you that's good?"

Biden Lu narrowed his eyes, "What do you think?"

That tone and gaze made Jenny instantly understand, and his heart was in awe, and he was busy praising it squarely, "Of course you're awesome."

Biden Lu laughed lightly.

This scene of their two lovingly fell into the eyes of Boss Yu across the street, and his eyes flickered slightly, his heart understanding even more of Jenny's position in Biden Lu's heart.

They say there's no truth in a mansion, and it seems that it's not necessarily so.

At least this Mrs. Lu in front of him was different from the giants he'd seen before.

After the group ate, Boss Yu took them out for a walk around town again.

This side of T is very different from China in terms of customs, people, architecture and food.

Jenny had been to a lot of places before, but had never really been to T country.

Biden Lu did come here twice, but no matter where he went, it was always because of business, and he was usually surrounded by a large group of people, and never really relaxed to observe these places properly, so his familiarity was not much better than Jenny.

It's a good thing that you've never been here before, but because you've watched a lot of TV dramas, you're familiar with many of the customs and traditions.
