

Chapter 987

The group wandered into the evening and went to another upscale restaurant for dinner.

After dinner, Boss Yu asked them if they wanted to go to the night market or to some entertainment venues.

But because Jenny was feeling a little tired, he refused.

Boss Yu saw no reluctance and sent them all the way back to the hotel.

He doesn't live here, because he runs here a lot. He has his own house in T country and has to go back there at night.

Before leaving, Jenny asked curiously, "When are we going over to the mine?"

Boss Yu smiled, "Tomorrow, because the mine is a bit far from the city, and there's no way to come back the same day I went there today, the place is remote and the security is not good, and it's just not safe to stay there at night, so it's just right to go tomorrow morning and come back in the evening."

Jenny nodded at the words.

Only after Boss Yu left did she return to her room to simply freshen up and lay down to rest.

The next morning, Boss Yu did indeed drive up to pick them up.

This time, he was driving a stretch Lincoln.

A car, with a fridge and wine in it, is a good place for everyone to sit down, and since the drive is over three hours, you can have a drink and have fun without getting bored.

Jenny was pregnant, so naturally she was dripping in wine.

Biden Lu also doesn't drink, and Mo Caiwei and Quexiu are even less likely to drink.

So, in the end, only Boss Yu and Lu Lanzhi were left to drink a toast each.

Along the way a group of people joking and laughing, Mr. Yu is a talkative person, and very good at reading people's opinions, while telling them about the local customs and customs, while saying some harmless jokes with Lu Lanzhi, the atmosphere is very warm.

It was nearly noon before the car finally stopped.

A group of people got out of the car, only to see a desolate, uninhabited area, no one around, the sun shining overhead, it was like being in an isolated place.

It was the first time that Lu Lanzhi had ever been in a place like this, and she was not afraid.

She shrank towards Biden Lu's side and asked, "Boss Yu, where's the mine you're talking about? You're not lying to us, are you?"

Boss Yu smiled: "Look at what Miss Lu said, then how can I lie to you? The location where the mines are usually located is already remote, if it was near the city, it would have been discovered and excavated long ago, the location here is a bit off, but it's close, we'll go over this little hill and it's across the street."

He said, pointing to a small hill in front of him.

Because the hillside hadn't been roaded yet, there was only a foot-trail that the car couldn't drive over, and that's why it stopped on this side.

When Lu Lanzhi saw this, she looked up at Biden Lu.

Biden Lu turned his head and asked Jenny Jing, "Are you tired?"

Jenny shook his head.

"Then let's go over there."

She nodded again.

So the group started to go over the small hill and head across.

Over the small hill, I did see a mine across the street, with holes punched in the bottom, where dozens of workers were toiling away.

A middle-aged man with a sharp eye saw Boss Yu and came running over.

"Boss, you're back."

Boss Yu smiled and nodded, "Introducing to you, this is Boss Lu, this is Boss Lu's wife Mr. Jing, this is Mr. Que, Mrs. Que, and Miss Lu."

Boss Yu was smart, he knew that Biden Lu was a big deal and probably wouldn't want anyone to know that Way he came here.

Therefore, when he was introduced, he did not identify himself, but all were addressed as bosses.

The man smiled at the news and nodded, all greeting each of them.

Boss Yu waved his hand, "Alright, go down and get busy, I'll show them around."

The man was only too busy nodding his head and going down, and Boss Yu extended his hand, "Lu, please."

Biden Lu walked forward with Jenny Jing.

The mine isn't really much to look at, except to look at some information and then look at the surrounding geography and what has now been dug up in order to bring a geological surveyor to see the rest.

Biden Lu had already found a geologist on this side before he came, but the other party was unavailable today and wouldn't be able to come until tomorrow.

After Biden Lu told Boss Yu about this matter, Boss Yu also nodded his head cheerfully.

"No problem, Lu is going to invest such a large sum of money after all, it's only right to get someone to survey it, and when he comes tomorrow, you can just have him contact me, or have him contact me in the morning, and I'll bring him along as well, and I'll have to drive over every morning anyway."

Biden Lu nodded.

After walking around the vicinity, Biden Lu went to the mine to look at the fresh jade that had just been picked up today.

There are many are not yet cut open, still can not see into colour, but just from the cut, you know there must be a lot of treasures.

After reading all of this, he actually had a rough idea of what was going on in his mind.

So then he said to Boss Yu, "When my people come to look at it tomorrow, if it's okay, you can come over and sign the contract with me."

Boss Yu was delighted at the news and nodded vigorously, "Okay, I understand."

He was happy not only to have found a partner for the business, but also to have hitched a ride on the Land family's express train.

A smart person should know that the capable Biden Lu does business, that represents more than just a pile of business interests, but also the long-term impact.

Not to mention, just the fact that people knew that he was doing business with Biden Lu would raise his profile and credibility as a person by quite a bit.

Biden Lu was not unaware of these little thoughts of his.

But in a high position such as he is, he has long been accustomed to people around him clinging to and looking up to him.

Even if you want to get benefits from yourself, that's normal.

He doesn't mind working with each other as long as the other brings the same benefits to the table as well.

So, when Boss Yu returned them to the hotel, he didn't say anything.

On the contrary, Lu Lanzhi, who had followed them for a big lap today, saw nothing, and her brain was still confused.

When she saw Biden Lu and Jenny walking ahead, she jogged a few steps to catch up and asked, "Jenny, you've seen that mine, right? No problem?"

Biden Lu faintly said, "There should be no problem, after tomorrow's geological survey people go over to look at it and make sure that the ore inside is real, then the contract can be signed."

Lucian was relieved and breathed a sigh of relief, "Oh, that's good."

She said, suddenly excited again.

"Biden, look, this time also counts as auntie bringing in a big deal for you, doesn't it? Are you thanking your aunt?"

Biden Lu looked at her.

Jenny Jing smiled, "What does aunt want?"

Lu Lanzhi was smiling, "I heard that there's a good place in T country called Nocturnal Sky, it's fun, I want to go there at night."

Chapter 988

Jenny Jing knitted his brows.

"Nocturnal? The place is a mess, isn't it? It's too dangerous for you to go alone, Aunt."

Lucian couldn't help but roll his eyes.

"How messy can it get? Can't I bring my bodyguard? Besides, what's a family like ours afraid of chaos, who would dare to mess with us, Biden, don't you think so?"

He said, and gave a pleasing smile to Biden Lu.

Biden Lu was not opposed to her going out, after all, he also knew that Lu Lanzhi's temperament was one that couldn't be turned off.

So, took a card out and handed it to her.

Expressionlessly, he handed over, "Bring your bodyguards and don't cause any trouble."

Lu Lanzhi immediately smiled and nodded, "Okay, I'll remember, thank you great nephew."

Only then did Biden Lu take Jenny Jing and his group to the hotel.

After returning to the hotel, Mo Caiwei was a little tired, so Quexiu took her back to her room to rest first, and met up with Jenny and the others to have dinner together later before coming out.

Jenny Jing also went back to her room with Biden Lu.

Once back in the room, Jenny couldn't help but complain, "You're too obedient to your aunt, we don't know each other well here, and that nature of hers likes to cause trouble the most, if something really goes wrong, what's the use of just bringing along a few bodyguards?"

Biden Lu came over and embraced her from behind, smiling, "Daughter-in-law has taught you a lesson."

The mouth said so, but the hands were not honest at all.

He crouched down and hugged Jenny's thin, soft waist branch, pressing his ear against her stomach.

"Let me hear, did my son talk to me today?"

Jenny stood there, letting him press against her belly and smiled, "It's not even born yet, how do you know it's a son?"

Biden Lu looked up at her, "I planted it I certainly know."

Jenny: "....."

What if you want to beat this man up?

Biden Lu listened for a while, not sure if he heard or not, but finally, satisfied, he stood up and helped her to sit down on the sofa next to him.

Jenny laughed and teased, "Did you hear what your son said to you?"

Biden Lu nodded his head in a fury, "Of course I heard."

"And what did he say to you?"

Biden Lu was inscrutable: "He said that the heavens cannot be revealed."

Jenny immediately knew that he hadn't heard anything at all and was purely teasing himself.

I couldn't help but smile as I punched him.

Biden Lu didn't hide, letting her hit him, anyway, her embroidered fist hitting him was just like tickling him, there was no feeling at all.

After they had been messing around for a while, Jenny got tired and laid down on the couch to rest.

Biden Lu went to the side to handle some official documents that Vicky had just passed on and needed him to go through.

The house went quiet.

Neither of them spoke again, and Biden Lu sat there concentrating on the process until he finished everything and then looked up, only to find that it was already dark outside at some point.

He looked at the time on his watch, it was eight o'clock in the evening.

I was so shocked that I couldn't help but blame myself for being so involved that I lost track of time.

He was busy sitting behind his desk and stood up, only then did he see, either because he was too tired, or perhaps because he had waited too long, that Jenny had fallen asleep crookedly in the sofa.

She was thin and slender, sunk into the wide couch like a paperweight.

It's so pale that the other person can't help but want to protect.

Biden Lu stepped forward and put a jacket of his own on her, and carefully touched her forehead and hand, sensing that the temperature was normal, before putting her mind at ease.

He saw that Jenny was sleeping soundly, thinking that she was tired from traveling with him for the past two days.

So then she couldn't bear to wake her up, and gently picked her up across the room, put her on the bed and tucked her in, before turning around and walking out.

At this time, Mo Caiwei and Quexiu were still in their room.

Biden Lu walked over and knocked lightly on the door.

Soon, someone inside opened the door.

Quexu in a suit stood in the doorway and saw that it was him, which was the wrong way to let him in.

However, Biden Lu shook his head.

Mo Caiwei heard the noise and came out, seeing that he was just alone and Jenny didn't come out, realizing that something was wrong, she asked, "What's wrong?"

Biden Lu smiled gently, "It's nothing, I just came to tell you that Jenny is asleep, so I might not be able to go to dinner with you for a while, if you two are hungry, why don't you go eat first, I heard that there are two relatively close restaurants near here, the taste is very good, I'll have someone take you over later."

Mo Caiwei was stunned, she wasn't stupid, it was just because she had been injured, causing her mind to be sensitive and forming a communication barrier with strangers.

So, she quickly understood, and even smiled, "No, we can just go by ourselves, since Jenny is tired, you can accompany her to have a good rest."

Biden Lu nodded, "Then you guys be careful on the road, feel free to call me if you need anything."

The two of them nodded, and only then did Biden Lu leave.

After returning to the room, he found that Jenny had actually woken up at some point.

Biden Lu walked over quickly in a row.

"Did I just close the door and disturb you?"

Jenny looked at him and shook his head.

"No." She paused and looked at herself again with some confusion.

"Why did I fall asleep?"

Biden Lu sat down and gently stroked her hair.

"You were so tired, you just sat there waiting for me and fell asleep."

Jenny Jing just remembered, and smiled apologetically, then remembered Mo Caiwei and the others.

"Yah, what time is it?Shouldn't Mom and the others be out for dinner?"

As I said that, I pulled out my phone to check the time.

Biden Lu even stopped her and smiled, "Don't worry, I've just gone out to talk to mum and the others, they go out to eat by themselves, no need to wait for us."

Jenny was relieved at the news.

Perhaps because Mo Caiwei had been missing for ten years, Jenny always had a feeling of gain and loss, and now that she was especially valued, it was natural to be nervous.

Lu Jing profoundly understood her mentality and didn't say anything, gathering the broken hair by her ears for her and asking, "Are you hungry?"

Jenny touched his stomach.

Don't tell me he didn't feel it just now, but now that he mentions it, he's feeling really hungry.

She nodded.

Biden Lu said softly, "Two choices, one is to have dinner brought over and eat in the room, the other is to go to the restaurant downstairs, which one do you choose?"

Jenny smiled, "Why are there only two options?Aren't we still allowed to go out and look for other places to eat?"

But Biden Lu shook his head, "No, you've been walking around too long today, you can't go around anymore."

Chapter 989

Jenny was at least a pregnant woman now, and she could care less as she herself was fighting for her health.

But Biden Lu couldn't care less.

When Jenny Jing saw this, it was hard to brush off his good intentions, and after considering it, he said, "Then have it brought over and eat it in the room."

Biden Lu nodded, and after asking her what she wanted to eat, she ordered a meal on her phone and had it delivered to her room.

They had dinner, and not long after, Mo Caiwei and Quexiu returned.

Mo Caiwei worried about Jenny's health, came back to see her, each other Jenny is eating dinner, see the situation even stood up.

"Mom, you're back."

Mo Caiwei was busy pushing her into a chair, "Yeah, we went out for a casual stroll and came back, how are you? How are you feeling today, so tired?"

"I'm fine, fine."

Jenny didn't care.

Mo Caiwei, however, was still uneasy, she wasn't an indifferent person, even if she still couldn't remember the past, but she could feel and see in her eyes how much Jenny Jing cared for her during this time, so she was also genuinely good to Jenny Jing.

She looked to the next queer accommodation.

"Suki, Jenny is a pregnant woman who needs regular birth checkups, and with all this running around these past two days, I don't know if it will have any effect on the baby in her belly, so why don't you check her out?"

Jenny was stunned and somewhat curious, "There's no equipment here, how can we check?"

Mo Caiwei smiled, "There is no need for any equipment, your Uncle Que is not only proficient in Western medicine, he has also studied Chinese medicine, and he is also a good hand at taking pulses and asking questions."

Only then did Jenny nodded at the words, "Oh."

Quexu came and sat down across from her, "Give me your hand."

So, Jenny extended his hand out.

Quexu placed two fingers on her pulse, and after a moment, asked her to pass the other hand over.

After a few moments of careful observation, he stood up.

"It's okay, she's fine."

Jenny retrieved it, put the upraised sleeve down, and smiled, "Mom, look, I'll just say it's fine."

Mo Caiwei helplessly laughed, "You ah, you just don't take your own body seriously."

Although Jenny didn't care, Biden Lu was very concerned.

Therefore, solemnly said to Quexu, "Thank you very much."

Quexu faintly said, "No need to be polite."

A few people talked for a while, and Mo Caiwei was afraid of disturbing their dinner, so she left to go back to her room.

After eating, Jenny Jing asked Biden Lu to accompany her to the balcony for a walk to take the edge off.

It happened to be at this time that Ann called.

Ann has her own phone now, and often texts and calls Jenny, though the words are just a few, either because she misses Mommy or asks what she's doing.

But in fact, loaded with, are children full of dependence and care.

Jenny held her phone as she walked around and chatted with her.

I don't know why, obviously Little Jingze is her biological child, but at home, Little Jingze is actually a little closer to Biden Lu, instead it's Ann, sticking to her so much that it's more like a mother and daughter.

And, as Ann grew up, the outline of the little beauty began to emerge, Jenny actually wonderfully discovered that she looked more and more like herself.

This not only surprised her, but also Auntie Liu and the others, who all laughed that An An was just like her, carved from the same mold.

Mrs. Sham found out about this too, but the old lady was so knowledgeable that she didn't think anything of it.

Instead, they laughed and said that the child was destined to be with Jenny Jing, and the two of them had a mother-daughter bond, so naturally, the more they looked alike.

In any case, the people around them didn't think it was anything, so Jenny Jing naturally wouldn't think much of it.

Only Biden Lu, watching the way An'an was sticking to Jenny Jing, crossed a gloom in his eyes.

After Jenny and Ann finished their phone call, they were ready to wash up and go to sleep.

But then, all of a sudden, I got a phone call.

The call was from Lucian.

As soon as the connection was made, I heard Lu Lange's cryptic voice.

"Biden, come and save me, something's out, something's wrong!"

Biden Lu's face turned pale, "What's happened?"

"I...I think I killed someone!"

.....

Twenty minutes later, Jenny Jing and Biden Lu arrived at an underground bar where Lu Lanzhi was.

The so-called underground bar, something that normal bars wouldn't dare play, this place has it all.

Like black boxing, like some extremely revealing performances, and some dirty, bloody dealings.

Biden Lu never expected that Lu Lanzhi would come to such a place to play, and his face was gloomy the whole way.

Jenny's heart was also alarmed and suspicious, she knew Lu Lanzhi's temper, because she had always been very jealous of Biden Lu, so if there wasn't really something big that she couldn't handle, she usually wouldn't call him.

In the hotel, Mo Caiwei and Quexiu also heard about their hasty departure and called to express their concern.

Jenny was not good at telling them in too much detail for fear of worrying them, but only said that something had happened to Lu Lanzhi and they were coming over to take a look so they didn't have to worry, then hung up the phone.

Mo Caiwei saw the situation and knew she couldn't help, so she didn't add to the confusion and told the two to be careful and be safe, then hung up the phone.

When they arrived at the bar, they found Lucian sitting on a couch that was stuck in the lobby.

Across from her lay a man with a body covered in tattoos.

The man, who appeared to be small, about 5'6", lean and very dark, was lying on the ground, bleeding from his head, not knowing if he was alive or dead.

Upon seeing Biden Lu and Jenny Jing, Lu Lanzhi immediately stood up and ran over towards them.

"Biden, Jenny, you're here."

Jenny Jing held her up, looked around at the group of men and women who were like a group of demons dancing around and asked, "What's going on?"

"I..."

Before she could speak, across the street, a brawny man stepped forward.

"Hey, are you guys her family?"

Jenny nodded.

She took Lucian's hand in hers and asked the other, "What's wrong?"

The man pointed at the person lying on the ground, and then pointed at Lu Lanzhi, "This woman, killed my best brother, and now I want to find her to pay for it, since you are her family, take the money out, otherwise if this goes to court, it won't be as simple as taking the money."

"That's right, just get the money!"

"It's a bargain that you'll only have to pay for killing someone! Hurry up and get the money out."

The other side was so crowded, every one of them looked muscular, and with the dim light of the bar and the smoky atmosphere, one couldn't help but feel intimidated.

But Jenny was colorless.

There was no expression on Biden Lu's face either.
