

Chapter 99

She turned to look out the window, it was already the waning moon, the New Year was in a little over half a month, and the storefronts down the street were already covered in festive stickers.

The streets are crowded, noisy and lively, showing the vitality that belongs to the city in the cold winter night.

She said softly, "Over the years, I've always told myself not to be sure of a thing, because once you have it, it's sad when you lose it.

So I understand what she's saying, and I'll guard my heart from the worst, and if it ever does happen...I'm sure I'll be well on my way."

The hand, suddenly, was held in a warm palm.

She was stunned and turned to look at Biden Lu, only to see that he just happened to look back as well, his eyes deep and determined.

"You won't be sad or have what's called the worst case scenario, I promise."

Jenny's heart felt like it had been gently squeezed by something.

There was some slight pain, more of an electric shuddering sensation.

She raised the corners of her lips and smiled.

"Good."

The next day.

Clara was discharged from the hospital.

As previously agreed with Jenny, Yu Jianxiu announced the truth five years ago on the school's website.

When the information was released, the response was strong.

Most of the students were present on the night of the school festival, and although they didn't witness the entire event, those who did went back and spread the word, and the matter was already well known.

So when this was announced in an official capacity, the forum was abuzz with discussion and people quickly picked up on the incident from five years ago.

Upon learning that all this was actually Clara's self-direction and that it took five years to find out the truth, there was an outcry.

The event fermented quickly.

It didn't take long for the news to spread from the campus forum to other stations.

With such strong news, the entertainment media and the V's will naturally not let it go.

Weibo soon started a wave of gossip, overwhelmingly full of #Clara's exams five years ago, #Clara's green tea female watch, #Clara's self-directed search.

The speed is staggering.

Both the fans and the PR team were too late to react, let alone have a plan, to such a swift and menacing scandal.

By the time they made the PR copy, the tide of discussion had already pushed it to its peak, and there was no way the heat was going to be removed.

The Friends, as foodies, naturally relish it.

There was quite a bit of internal turmoil within Clara's fans over this incident.

After all, it was the school's statement that still had credibility, and those who originally liked Clara because of her gentle and kind persona couldn't help but feel cheated at this point.

So this is the kind of person they've been defending, chasing, and liking as a little fairy, actually?

Narrow-minded and malevolent, because of jealousy he went so far as to use bitter meat tricks to frame his half-sister, making the other party suffer for five years for no reason!

Huge reversal, ugly reality, like an invisible palm that "pops" in the face of the fans!

There is a large portion of fans who have expressed their great disappointment with such a Clara.

There are not a few that have been deflated back into the treadmill, and all sorts of previously suppressed black material has sprung up.

Playing the big shot, faking illness, firing dedicated people, bullying fellow actresses....

Of course, there are those who have resigned themselves to death and refuse to turn back.

Even after seeing the school's statement with their own eyes, they insisted that their little elegant fairies were being set up.

Maya was so weak, so innocent, and had gotten to this position at such a young age, there must be a lot of people jealous of her!

Therefore, this matter must be a trick played out by those malicious people who have gone to great lengths to do so!

They don't believe me! They're head iron!

They were going to last until the last minute, and no one would believe it unless Clara admitted it herself!

A tornado of abuse started on it, and almost all social networking sites were affected.

Everywhere there was news about Maya Jing.

Originally passersby didn't know much about it and had no interest in it, but it turned out that no matter where they went, there were Clara's brain-dead fans spraying people everywhere.

Just the slightest mention of the subject would get him scolded and stomped on, and suddenly his outlook on Clara dropped.

Who are these people? Why is the quality so low?

You grew up eating manure? What's wrong with you?

The so-called fan behavior, idol to pay the bill, the Friends can be no matter who is scolding people, after all, Clara's fans.

In the end, the already small amount of curb appeal was almost entirely ruined as well.

Meanwhile, the King family.

Clara was so angry at the overwhelming news on it that she just smashed the computer.

She hadn't been in good spirits the last few days because of the shock she had received.

The miscarriage and the scandal had nearly broken her!

The agent, Child Shu, called her in the morning and said that several of the jobs she had originally been approached for had now been replaced by the A-team.

The scandal is still widening, and the endorsement side, now a bit anxious.

If we don't resolve this matter, I'm afraid that that side will also end her contract and even face huge compensation.

Clara only felt that her brain was about to explode!

"Mom, it's all that b*tch's fault! She's the reason I'm like this! I'll kill her! I'm going to kill her!"

She sat on the bed, clenching her fists and shrieking hard, her eyes a fetid red.

Yu Tolian was also distressed.

"Maya, Mom knows you hate her too, but the body in front of you is the most important thing, come on, be good and eat your dinner, we'll talk about the rest later, okay?"

"I'm not eating!"

Clara swept down the food that Yu Xiu Lian brought up, grabbed her hand and asked urgently, "Mom, has Rovell come over today?"

"He..."

Yu Xiulian didn't say anything, a hint of embarrassment on her face.

Clara's heart sank.

In a moment he changed colour, "He didn't come?"

Yu Xiulian nodded her head in embarrassment.

"He, he wouldn't come?"

"Maya, don't be ridiculous, maybe he's been busy the last two days..."

"Haha... busy? Busy with what? His fiancée had been victimized like this, with no child and a ruined reputation! You actually tell me he's busy?"

Clara laughed out sarcastically, her great panic coupled with anger making her laugh maniacally like a beast in a desperate situation.

Until the end when I was shaking with laughter and tears.

Yu Xiu Lian's heart was literally breaking as she looked at her like this.

Even hugging her hard, her eyes red, "Maya, don't do that."

"Mom, tell me, does he not want me anymore? Is he in love with someone else?"

"No, you're engaged, he can't go back on his word, Maya, you listen to Mom and don't get any ideas, okay?"

Under Yu Xiu Lian's reassurance, after a long time, Clara finally gradually calmed down.

Her pale face was streaked with tears, but her eyes were raging with endless hatred.

"Mom, we had a hard time getting all this, we can't just ruin it like this, it's all Jenny's fault! I won't let her go, never!"

Yu Xiu Lian seemed to have thought of something and nodded her head.

"Don't worry! We still have one last trump card left to play, and we've already been contacted by someone in Kyoto, so it won't be long before we can put that b*tch through hell once and for all!"

"Well."

Chapter 100

Other side.

Jenny was at work when she suddenly received a call from Biden Lu.

Ask her if she's free at noon and tell her to come over to his place, someone wants to see her.

Jenny was a little surprised, and happened to have nothing to do at noon, so he agreed.

At noon, Jenny went to Lu's, and when he entered the office, he found that besides f, Lu Yanzhi was also there.

Somewhat surprised, she smiled and asked, "What are you doing here, Director Lu?"

Lu Yanzhi looked at her with a smiling face, the more satisfied he became.

How come they look so good?

Those eyes, that nose, were just like the Xie Fang Hua in his mind.

Biden Lu looked at Lu Yan Zhi and said in a soft voice, "He came all the way here to find you."

"Looking for me?"

"Well." Biden Lu said to Lu Yan Zhi, "Tell her yourself!"

Lu Yanzhi's spirit was shaken.

Jenny Jing was a little confused, "Director Lu, what do you want from me?"

"Nothing nothing nothing, I just wanted to ask you if you're interested in acting?"

Jenny laughed.

"There! Do you have any new works?"

Lu Yanzhi's eyes lit up.

"No, right now I'm just busy filming Hidden River Fang Hua Record, and the Evelin you introduced me to earlier is great, she's so much better than other actors of her age, both professionally and in attitude, so I have you to thank for that!"

Jenny Jing had a sneaking feeling that Lu Yanzhi had come all the way over here today, and by no means did he simply want to thank her.

But seeing through it, she didn't say anything, just smiled.

"In that case, may I introduce you to a few more actors?"

Lu Yanzhi waved his hand.

"No, there's no shortage of other roles right now, except for this one, and no one else can come in."

"Oh?What role?"

"Thank you Fang Hua."

Jenny was stunned.

"Didn't Xie Fanghua decide on Clara?"

At the mention of this, Lu Yanzhi did not frown.

"Forget it, originally it was because we couldn't find a more suitable candidate, plus she was paid into the team, so we agreed to cast her in the role, but I didn't expect that there would be such a big scandal now, her image is like this, if we continue to use her, I'm worried that it will affect the team, so after careful consideration, we decided to look for someone else."

Jenny laughed.

"And who would you like to choose?"

"Oh you!"

"Looking for me?"

She pointed at herself in surprise at Lu Yanzhi's serious eyes, sensing that he wasn't joking.

Turning his head to look at Biden Lu, he only saw his gaze was dark and said in a deep voice, "I've already refused for you, but he won't give up and had to ask you once in person."

Jenny couldn't laugh or cry for a moment.

"Director Lu, I'm not an actor, and I've never acted before."

Lu Yanzhi didn't care, "So what? You have the talent, and with my discipline, I'm sure you can shine in this show."

He said, and patted his chest.

Jenny, however, shook his head.

"I'm sorry, Director Lu, but I may not be able to comply with this request of yours."

Lu Yanzhi's face changed at the news.

A nervous face stared at Jenny, "Why?"

"Because I have no plans to be an actor, and I don't like being surrounded by people."

Artist, how glamorous it sounds.

But Jenny, who has been in this circle for several years, is deeply aware of the difficulties behind those superficial scenery.

Even if it is popular, it is just a cash cow in the hands of a capitalist, with millions of people watching, being a marionette that everyone likes.

She didn't like it.

So, she tries to respect the ideas and choices of the artists under her hand as much as possible.

But not willing to let myself get deep into it.

Lu Yanzhi was a little lost when he saw her resolute attitude.

Jenny Jing's gaze flickered as he suddenly smiled, "Director Lu, why don't I introduce someone to you?"

Lu Yanzhi was sickly, "Who is it?"

"Nina, have you made contact?"

"Nina Hua?"

He frowned.

He did know about this person, after all, she was pretty and famous, but I heard that she had a bad temper and a deep background that was hard to handle.

Truth be told, the director has been reluctant to accommodate the actor in his position, and thus, never wanted to use that lady.

Jenny Jing nodded, "Yao Yao has a good personality, those outside are all rumors, if you think it's okay, I'll talk to her! Rather than handing over such an important role to an amateur like me, I think you should give it to her, who is better suited to play Xie Fanghua than me."

Lu Yanzhi looked at her with a grudging gaze.

"All right then! You talk to her first, and I'll contact her if she has the imagery too."

"Well, that's settled then."

After sending Lu Yanzhi away, Jenny didn't want to stay here any longer, there were still a bunch of cases waiting to be dealt with over at the PR department, so she greeted Biden Lu and was ready to leave.

Yet the man called out to her.

"There's a party tonight, come with me?"

Jenny was stunned, "But I have work at night..."

Biden Lu frowned.

His deep eyes locked with hers, his gaze grudging as he said, "I realized that having you come to Serenity International seems like the wrong decision."

Jenny was confused, "How so?"

"You're too busy to spend any time with me."

Jenny: "....."

"Jenny, why don't you leave this side alone and just mind your starlight, it's easier..."

"No."

Jenny interrupted him without thinking, "You invited me here yourself, and now you want to go back on your word, there's no door!"

She's been working at Serenity International for a while now, and honestly, she loves the atmosphere here.

She wasn't one to leave halfway, especially when it came to work, so she couldn't leave at this point.

Jenny waved his hand, "Okay, doesn't he just want me to accompany you to the party tonight? I know."

Only then did Biden Lu smile.

"Then I'll pick you up tonight."

"Well."

Jenny left Lu, and at 6:00 p.m., Biden Lu did indeed come over to pick her up.

Instead of going anywhere else, they drove straight to Greenwater Hills.

Jenny still didn't know who he was going to meet tonight, but sensing that the man was in a good mood, asking him and not telling him, her heart couldn't help but also add a little more curiosity to tonight's meeting.

Inside the Green Water Villa, the Peony Pavilion Box.

Several young men are sitting on the couch.

Tailor Feng crossed his legs and looked at the door expectantly, smiling, "Third brother said today that he would bring his little sister-in-law over to show us, guess who this little sister-in-law will be?"

Next to him, Snapshot raised an eyebrow proudly, "You don't know, do you? Hey hey! I've seen it before. How was it? Do you want me to tell you first?"

Tailor Feng gave him a blank look and snorted disdainfully.

"Proud of what? I prefer not to ask you, I'll find out for myself later."

Chapter 101

Jenny had never expected that the party that Biden Lu was talking about would be meeting his friends.

So when stepping into the box and seeing a couple of young men sitting there, the brain was a bit muddled for a moment.

"Cousin, cousin-in-law, you're here!"

Snap Xie was the first to come up to greet them, and the rest of them were stunned at first when they saw Jenny, and reacted one after another.

Even followed by a greeting.

"I've always heard that Third Brother hid a beauty in Visterdem, but today I finally met her."

"Hello Third Sister-in-Law, I'm Tailor Feng."

"Hello Third Sister-in-Law, I'm Gu Jisheng."

"....."

Faced with their enthusiasm, Jenny smiled stiffly and nodded his head in response to each of them.

Secretly tugging the corner of Biden Lu's coat, he smiled and whispered, "Biden Lu, why didn't you tell me it was to see them?"

These dudes, she had heard of them.

As the offspring of four big families in Kyoto, he and Biden Lu almost grew up wearing the same trousers, needless to say, the most important thing is that no matter which one of them is singled out, he is the one who makes countless women scream madly.

It's a rare occasion to be gathered here today.

Biden Lu slightly hooked his lips and held her hand.

"Who told you not to come back to Kyoto to spend the New Year with me? Had to ask them to meet in Visterdem."

Jenny: "....."

It was half a month to the New Year, and Biden Lu had mentioned it to her once before, asking if she wanted to go to Kyoto.

She refused then, and the two of them were not yet ready, though their feelings were growing stronger by the day now.

Hearing him say that at this point, although I felt that this man was a bit childish, I couldn't help but feel a tinge of sweetness rising in my heart.

After all, the weight of these people in Biden Lu's heart was obvious.

The significance of the specially arranged opportunity for her to meet with them was self-evident.

Jenny cocked her lips and gave him a look, then motionlessly twisted a hand on his waist.

The man eats the pain and doesn't show it, but instead the smile on his face grows deeper.

The group re-entered the seat.

Biden Lu introduced Jenny Jing to them once again in earnest, before ordering the food to be served.

With his friend there, Jenny was more reserved at first.

But the good thing was that the group of people were of similar age, and Tailor Feng, who was good at livening up the atmosphere, it didn't take long for Jenny to get acquainted with the group.

These dudes are notoriously difficult out there, but they're easy to talk to their own people.

Needless to say, Xie Snap, as the second son of the Feng family, Tailor Feng has been researching new ai technology and has also given Jenny Jing a very cute little ai toy dog as a gift.

Gu Jisheng did not follow his predecessor in politics, but chose to study medicine and is now a famous surgeon despite his young age.

He was a steady man, not very talkative, always smiling lightly, giving people a gentle feeling like a spring breeze.

A dinner that was a lot of fun.

In the middle of the day, Jenny went out to use the restroom and met Yu Si Bai halfway.

Yu Si Bai, as the most outstanding person of the Yu family's generation, has always been very important to the old lady.

When I was young and Jenny's relationship was still good, but then grew up, and midway through Yu Si Bai studied abroad for a few years, we all drifted apart.

Seeing her, Yu Si Bai was surprised.

"Jenny, what are you doing here?"

Jenny didn't resent him and smiled lightly, "Come out to eat."

Yusebai looked at the box behind her.

Peony Pavilion.

His eyes darkened.

There's a box in Greenwater Lodge that's always closed to the public.

It's the Peony Pavilion.

It's said that someone has been chartering it for years, and even if people don't show up, it's not open to the public.

He once inadvertently inquired about it, only to find out that the person was Biden Lu.

Yusebai looked at her, "You do get along with him though."

Jenny knew who the "him" he was referring to.

Old Lady Yu didn't approve of her being with Biden Lu, and thought Yu Si Bai must have known it too, so Jenny Jing had no intention of talking to him more and only nodded faintly.

"Nothing else, I'll go in first."

She said, turning to the box.

Just two steps away, Yu Si Bai's voice suddenly came from behind.

"He has a daughter, did you know that?"

Jenny's steps froze in place.

She turned her head and looked at Yu Si Bai in shock.

Yu Si Bai's brow furrowed slightly and hesitated for a moment before saying, "I thought he would tell you, but judging by your reaction, you don't know?"

Jenny didn't say anything.

Yusebai sighed.

"The Yu family has dealings with the Guan family in Kyoto, so I was able to hear some news that he and the Guan family's daughter, Guan Xuefei, are said to have been engaged since childhood, and I don't know if that child is Guan Xuefei's, but at least, until now, the engagement hasn't been broken.

Jenny, we grew up together, I don't want you to be cheated, and I don't want you to get hurt, so I'm telling you this, as for whether you believe it or not and how to handle it, you can decide on your own!"

After Yu Si Bai said that, he left.

Jenny stood there dumbfounded, his mind blank.

The blood on his face also swished and faded, becoming pale.

A bone-chilling chill leaped up from the soles of his feet all the way up.

Ice cold her whole body, right to the heart!

He's...engaged?

And a child?

After a while, the door to the Peony Pavilion's box opened from the inside, and Biden Lu came out, seeing her standing in the corridor and stepping forward.

"Why are you standing here?"

It was only when I approached that I noticed that she was frowning badly.

Reaching down and probing her forehead, he was concerned, "What's wrong? Uncomfortable?"

Jenny looked at him fixedly.

The man's eyebrows were saber-eyed and his face was written with undisguised care and concern.

But these are suddenly full of irony at the moment.

She shook her head, misplaced her gaze, and said quietly, "I'm fine."

After that, he turned around and went into the box.

The next time, Biden Lu felt that the woman beside him was clearly somewhat absent-minded.

There was no longer any happiness, but instead, there was a strong sense of heart.

By association, the man seemed to understand something when she went out to the bathroom earlier.

But he didn't say anything.

After returning home in the evening, Jenny went to the bathroom early to take a shower, and when she came out, she found that the man had gone to the study, saying that the company had some urgent matters to deal with temporarily.

She didn't care and went to bed on her own.

That night, she had a dream.

The dreams were disturbed and a lot of things were happening.

There were ones from when she was a child, ones from years ago when she was abroad, and some blurry, blurry images of men.

Finally, freeze-framed in the dim corridor, Yuusebaek's words to her with a sympathetic and worried gaze.

Jenny awoke with a start.

The daylight was shining outside the window and it was ten in the morning.

She was shocked and turned to look beside her, the bed was already empty, the cold temperature reminding her that the man had been gone for a long time.
