

Chapter 996

"Yeah, as long as people are okay, our family doesn't need money."

At this time, at any rate, Lucian spoke back to the people, following the reassurance.

Mo Caiwei is not really concerned about money.

All these years, although Quexu has been taking her to live in seclusion in the desert, he is a man of light fame and fortune, otherwise he wouldn't be living in seclusion in that kind of place where birds don't live, but he is all skillful, money is absolutely not lacking.

Even in the desert castle, there were hordes of servants and a great sense of paradise-like living.

Therefore, Mo Caiwei would never care about this small amount of money.

She was just frightened, plus she found out that Quexu had chased her out and was a little worried, which was why she couldn't help but be anxious.

Jenny had naturally thought of this as well.

She turned to look at Biden Lu, "Biden, you go with her to see if it's better not to let anything happen to Uncle Que alone."

They were out today and didn't have a bodyguard with them because they didn't want to draw attention to themselves.

Biden Lu nodded and instructed Boss Yu to help take care of their three ladies first, before pulling out to chase after them.

But unexpectedly, before chasing after them, they suddenly saw a familiar figure in front of them.

Gu Si Qian took Bella Qiao with him, and only just arrived here, he saw a man hurrying out after him and bumping into Bella Qiao.

Gu Siqian has always been an extremely protective person, how can this be tolerated?

Therefore, by taking a direct shot, they were able to restrain the other side.

At this time, Quexu had also caught up and was negotiating something with Gu Siqian there.

Gu Siqian Xu heard him say that the man was a thief, and saw that in his hands, he was indeed holding a lady's purse, and with a sudden sinking face, he kicked the other man directly in the crook of his leg, making him kneel down.

The other side about did not expect to encounter such a steel plate today, and in a rush, threw his bag directly into the crowd.

Several people were shocked.

Quexu was busy chasing the bag into the crowd, and the thief, seeing all their eyes chasing the bag.

The subconscious tried to break free.

However, only just getting up, before running two steps, he was met with another kick, right to the chest, and he was suddenly kicked away, falling heavily to the ground.

The thief coughed twice, his face bruised, and he couldn't get up again.

Gu Si Qian was stunned, and as soon as he looked up, he saw Biden Lu walking up to him in the crowd.

Eyes lit up.

"Biden Lu, what are you doing here?"

Biden Lu was also surprised.

I didn't expect to come out to chase a thief and actually meet them.

He picked the thief up off the ground and smiled, "What are you guys doing here?"

Kuskan replied, "Joe and I came over to do some business."

I said, with a subtle hint of a gaze.

Biden Lu immediately knew what he was up to.

There were outsiders and he didn't say anything, but then Quexu had gotten his bag and came over, looking at the thief with a bad face.

"How dare you openly rob something in broad daylight, huh!! see you're tired of living."

He said, swinging his fist to hit the thief.

The thief shrank back in fear and was stopped by Biden Lu.

"Mr. Que, let me introduce you first, this is my friend Gu Siqian, this is Bella Qiao."

Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao both greeted him.

Quexu looked at them, stunned.

He had been secluded in the desert, but it wasn't like he didn't know anything about what was going on out there.

On the contrary.

Having the name of Ghost Doctor, he was actually more familiar with the underground power section.

Seeing Gu Siqian, as soon as he heard his name, he immediately remembered this number.

The eyes were not a little more profound.

He also stopped hitting people, lowered his fist and said in a soft voice, "So you are the boss of the dragon group, recently the dragon group has a great reputation, I've heard a lot about it."

Gu Si Qian smiled faintly, "Compared to the Ghost Doctor, we're just making a living, Mr. Que is too modest."

Seeing that both sides knew each other, Biden Lu didn't explain too much, grabbed the thief and said, "Since this person is stealing from Mom, why don't you bring him over and let them dispatch him."

Quexu frowned at the words.

But in the end, I didn't object and nodded my head in agreement.

Gu Si Qian was still a little surprised to hear about Biden Lu's mother.

After all, he knew that Biden Lu's parents were both long dead.

In that case, the one who could still be called mother by him, wasn't it...?

But it can't be, because neither Mo Caiwei nor Guan Jiwan should be alive anymore.

So who is he calling?

With a puzzled feeling, Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao also followed them to the theater entrance.

In a clearing next to the entrance, Jenny and the others had been standing there, waiting for a while before they finally saw those two familiar figures, walking over from the distance.

They were all delighted with the idea of coming forward.

"Well?All right?"

"Did you get the man?"

Biden Lu threw the thief who had completely wilted in his hands in front of them, "Gotcha."

Quexu also handed the bag to Mo Caiwei, "You check to see if anything is missing?"

Mo Caiwei took it and shook her head after briefly examining it.

"Nothing less."

"That's good." He paused and looked at the thief with a disgusted gaze, "I was going to just beat him up, but Biden Lu said that he stole from you and wanted me to bring someone over to you to deal with him, so you'll see what to do!"

Mo Caiwei sniffed and gratefully looked at Biden Lu.

She knew that Quexu was not a bad person, but he was too single-minded and particularly jealous of evil.

To put it in layman's terms, the IQ is high, but the EQ is low.

He also didn't want to think about the fact that, with his identity as a ghost doctor, if he were to actually beat someone out of something on the streets of T, it would be another piece of trouble then.

They're not afraid of trouble, but it's best to avoid it if you can, right?

Especially, when the other side is not guilty as hell.

Mo Caiwei looked at the thief, only to see that the other party wasn't very young and looked to be in her teens.

Small in stature, with dark skin, a pair of eyes stared at her timidly, as she was being lifted by Biden Lu and was scared, her entire body trembling slightly.

Mo Caiwei asked softly, "What's your name? Why would you want to steal something?"

The other froze and didn't answer.

Boss Yu smiled, "This kid looks like a local, so I guess he can't understand you, so I'll translate for you."

Boss Yu has traveled extensively, and is familiar with the t-speak.

Soon, he was asked.

The child realized this and whispered a couple of words.

Boss Yu said, "He said his name was Kaza and he had no money and wanted money, so that's why he stole."

Mo Caiwei frowned slightly.

"If you want money, why don't you work? Or where is your family? Do you look like you're in your teens and not in school?"

Chapter 997

The words, which didn't need to be translated by Boss Yu, the teenager could read a few of them just from her look.

He didn't speak, lowering his head and biting his lip stubbornly.

Boss Yu looked on, feeling a little intolerant.

Sighing, he said, "This kind of child is usually an orphan, unlike our country, where many refugee orphans have no one to take them in, and end up living on the streets with bellies that can't be filled, and no one is willing to hire them to work, let alone go to school."

Only then did Mo Caiwei understand, and her face flashed with distress.

She thought about opening the bag, taking all the cash out of it and handing it to the teenager.

"Take it, it's not much, but that's all I can do for you, so behave yourself and don't do anything like that again."

The boy froze and looked up at her.

Boss Yu said, "What are you waiting for? Just give it to you and go on."

The young man reacted to this, took the money and turned and ran away.

Quexu frowned, looking at the background of the young man flying away and sighed, "Caiwei, you're just too kind."

Mo Caiwei's appearance was somewhat trance-like.

"It's not that I'm too kind, it's that there are so many poor people in this world, and he's actually just a child, but he has to suffer so much...ugh!"

She sighed.

Jenny didn't want her to be sad, plus, she was a little happy to see that Gu Siqian and the others were here as well.

And so the conversation turned to Gu Siqian and the others.

"Kusken, what are you guys doing here?"

Gu Si Qian smiled faintly, "Come over and do some business."

He said, pausing and pointing at Mo Caiwei and the others, "No introductions?"

Jenny only then reacted, and even smiled as she introduced, "Oh, right, this is my mother, this is Quexiu, my mother's husband."

Gu Si Qian was stunned.

Confusion was written all over his face.

How come Jenny has a mother after not seeing her for a while, or is she Quexu's wife?

Just when he thought that this was the godmother that Jenny Jing recognized, Mo Caiwei smiled and introduced herself, "Hello, my name is Mo Caiwei."

Gu Si Qian shook fiercely.

After such a period of time of Jenny's enlightenment, Mo Caiwei was now less repulsive to strangers.

Therefore, when they saw Gu Siqian and the others at this moment, they were still able to introduce themselves freely.

But Gu Siqian was shocked.

He looked incredulously at Mo Caiwei and turned to ask Jenny, "She's not..."

Jenny pursed her lips, "It's a long story, I'll tell you more later."

Gu Si Qian nodded, an old friend meeting, so naturally, they couldn't just break up, so they made a date to go back to the hotel together and go to a coffee shop near there.

Boss Yu could see that they had something to talk about, and very sensibly left first.

The group ordered a private room, and only after they were all seated did Jenny Jing tell the story of how he and his mother had met some time ago.

Gu Si Qian was shocked after hearing this.

But when you think about it, it's nothing out of the realm of possibility.

After all, when Mo Caiwei died, many people had gone to retrieve her body, but they didn't retrieve it at the time.

However, because at that time, it was the flood season, the river was fierce, salvage more than half a month later, or nowhere to be found, we silently.

Admittedly she had been washed away by the water and was not known to have sunk to the bottom of any river or the ocean.

All of this was still what she had heard from Jenny when she had gone abroad to fall into trouble and was rescued by him.

Now it seems that the good guys have it right, and it really is true.

She didn't even die.

Gu Si Qian too knew how much this news meant to Jenny, and was therefore happy for her.

After talking about Mo Caiwei's matter, it was naturally time to talk about Gu Siqian and the others.

Because neither Mo Caiwei nor Quexiu were outsiders, so at this moment Biden Lu didn't cover up anymore.

He asked directly, "Did you come to T this time for the matter of the Heavenly Book of Jades?"

Kuskan nodded.

He picked up the tea in front of him and took a sip before saying, "Earlier, I got the news that someone over here had a piece of heavenly jade tablet that was dug out from a newly emerged tomb, I wanted to come and see if it was true."

Biden Lu was surprised, "Ancient tomb?"

"Yes, I'm not sure of the details, only a general direction at the moment, but I've asked an acquaintance to help me find out, so I should have something in the next couple of days."

Biden Lu smiled, "I wonder where the ancient tomb is?"

Gu Si Qian said, "It's the tomb of an ancient king that was dug out from near a group of jade mines some time ago."

As soon as this was said, Biden Lu's face became playful.

"A jade mine?" He chuckled lightly, "Ask around, and if there's anything you need help with, you can contact me then."

Kusken, though, didn't notice his appearance and only nodded his head.

"Okay, I know, I'll get back to you then."

A few people sat and drank tea for a while, and then talked about how Jenny was pregnant again.

Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao both expressed their congratulations.

Jenny was a little worried about Bella Qiao's health, but it was good to see that her face was no different from normal people, and she was relieved to hear that she had been taking the medicine provided by Nangong Jin on time, and that there was no more situation like the one at the last wedding for the time being.

We talked until midnight, and then we each dispersed.

On the way home, Jenny Jing hugged Biden Lu's arm and asked, "Do you think Nangong Jin is lying? Maybe the disease in Bella Qiao's body wasn't some genetic disease he was talking about? It's a good thing Uncle Que is here, why don't we let him show Bella Qiao? Maybe there will be something unexpected?"

Biden Lu smiled, "It shouldn't be too much of a lie, after all, Gu Si Qian has also asked someone to show Bella Qiao and indeed didn't find out the cause, and the fact that the Nan Clan has a genetic disease is known to all Nan Clan members, he shouldn't be able to come and make up such a lie, after all, it's too easy to expose."

Jenny nodded, "That's true."

Biden Lu suddenly said, "But you've just reminded me, Que Su has always been known as the Wonderful Ghost Doctor, many of his methods are contrary to conventional medicine, so he has not been well received by mainstream medicine."

Jenny Jing smiled, "Then I'll go talk to him later and ask him to help Bella Qiao tomorrow?"

Biden Lu chanted.

"There's no rush, let's call Gu Si Qian and ask him if he's willing to let Bella Qiao undergo another examination."

Jenny nodded.

So the two of them called Gu Siqian.

Gu Siqian had actually moved on this idea long ago when he saw Quexu.

Chapter 998

After all, he wasn't a rigid and rigid person, and although Nangong Jin had shown him the way to go, if there was another way to go, he wouldn't be able to stick to that one and be at the mercy of others.

In the past, he had also thought of asking Quexu to come out and heal Bella Qiao.

But for one thing, the doctor he hired was no less skilled than Quexu, and for another, Quexu was an eccentric person who lived in seclusion in the desert for years.

He had only heard of the reputation of Quexu, but had never met his people, let alone had any friendship with them.

It's hard enough to find him, it's even harder to ask him to do it again.

But now, since he was Jenny's stepfather, it was different.

So, when he first saw Quexu in front of the theater today, he was already moved.

Just because it was the first time we met, it was not good to bring it up directly, and my mind sought to talk to Jenny and the others when we returned, so they could ask for help.

I didn't expect that before he could open his mouth, Jenny and the others' calls would come in first.

Gu Siqian's heart could not help but rise in comfort, searching for a disciple who had not taught in vain, still thinking of his master when it was crucial.

Gu Si Qian simply agreed to Jenny Jing's proposal.

So, after Jenny Jing hung up the phone, he went next door to look for Mo Caiwei and Quexiu again.

After Mo Caiwei heard of her intention, she said to Quexiu, "Ah Su, I see that Miss Qiao is also a kind-faced person, I like her very much, so you can help her take a look."

Quexu still had that cold face, but the words he spoke were incredibly gentle.

"Okay, I'll watch it for her tomorrow."

Mo Caiwei turned back and looked at Jenny, "Your Uncle Que has promised to just set up an appointment with Miss Qiao tomorrow, and we'll meet again then."

Jenny nodded happily and said goodnight to them again before leaving.

The next day, Georgie made plans with them to meet at their hotel room.

After all, it was useless to have those instruments for this kind of disease in Bella Qiao's body, or would Quexiu have to see it in person to know.

And they were begging for help, so naturally it was not good to let Quexu go too far, so they simply walked over to meet him.

Jenny went down to pick them up and brought them to Quexu and Mo Caiwei's room, where a group of people were sitting on the couch, while Quexu and Bella Qiao were sitting on either side of a table next to them.

Quexu first took her pulse and checked a few places on her body, like behind her ears, her nails and such.

Jenny was looking at it as a novelty.

She asked Mo Caiwei in a low voice, "Mom, Bella Qiao's illness seems to be a very serious illness, Uncle Que is just looking and looking, can you see anything?"

Although I don't know what kind of illness Miss Qiao has, and I don't know much about medical science, I do know that if a person's internal organs are really out of order, there will be some corresponding changes in her appearance, even if it's only very subtle, which can be discovered by careful observation."

Jenny nodded his head in realization.

"So that's it."

After a short time, Quexu finished his inspection.

Gu Siqian quickly stepped forward and asked in an urgent voice, "How is it?See what it is?"

Quexu turned to look at her and asked in a deep voice, "Is she a member of the Nan Clan?"

The crowd was shaken.

Mo Caiwei was unconcerned about this, and thus, still a little confused.

"The Nanns?What's that?"

But Jenny Jing and Biden Lu, as well as the three Gu Si Qian knew, not only knew, but also understood that Bella Qiao was really from that family.

Gu Si Qian had a glimmer of hope in his heart right now.

He didn't hold back and nodded, "Yes."

Quexu's face was cold, "I can't cure this disease."

"What? Can't even cure you?"

It was about having too much faith in Quexu's medical skills, Mo Caiwei's subconscious felt that there was nothing in this world that he couldn't cure except death.

I never thought I'd run into it here.

Because Bella Qiao was Jenny's friend, plus, she felt that this girl was good-natured and gentle, and she liked Bella Qiao from the bottom of her heart.

Therefore, they pursued the question, "Suki, is she seriously ill? Why can't it be cured? Is it missing some kind of medicine or is it broken somewhere?"

Que Su sneered, "If it were true that which place is broken, that would be easy to do, mending where it is broken is, but unfortunately, it's not which place that is broken, it's her whole body, from blood to muscle tissue, as long as she carries that person's genes in her body, with the kind of cells that belong to their Nan Clan's unique characteristics, it's impossible to live safely and unharmed."

Everyone was startled when he said that.

Gu Si Qian's face had become very ugly, and Bella Qiao's face, too, was faintly pale.

Jenny Jing patted her shoulder comfortingly, looked towards Que Su and asked, "Uncle Que, the fact that you can explain this disease so clearly means that you've studied it, right? Then there's no way to find anything?"

Que Su sneered, "Method? There's no way to account for this disease, because it doesn't count at all, unless her blood is drained, her flesh picked clean, even her bones removed, and the thing might disappear."

The faces of the crowd, not to mention the faces of the people, changed again.

Bella Qiao frowned.

"Why? Dr. Quee, could you be more specific?"

Quexu looked at her.

I don't know what it was because, but Jenny felt that ever since Quexu knew that Bella Qiao was from the Nan Clan, his attitude towards her had changed.

It seems that all of a sudden it went from being initially amiable to being tit-for-tat, with a hint of hostility.

She didn't know where the hostility was coming from, but she believed she should be right.

Only Que Su coldly said, "This is not a disease, it's a kind of mutated cell hidden in your body and brought about through heredity, this mutated cell has been dormant since you were born, and when a certain moment comes, it will suddenly grow larger and devour the other cells in your body, so your organs will rapidly fail, and you will grow old and die, no more than half an hour at the earliest."

Bella Qiao's face swished all white.

What he said was, in fact, no different from what Nan Muyong had said before.

Gu Si Qian also realized this and went forward to ask urgently, "Then can't there be some way to kill those cells? It's like targeting some cancer cells now."

Quexu smirked.

"Kill? How? This cell in her body is not in one place, but all over her body, from the blood, the heart, down to a hair's breadth, so to speak, she and this cell are in a symbiotic relationship, to die together, are you going to kill her as well?"
