

Chapter: 1127

“You are so late, why are you coming to the beach? You can’t see anything at night.”

Uncle asked, the sound of the sea can still be heard in his ears, so his voice seemed a bit small, but he still heard clearly.

Lu Xin said, “I just want to come over to relax, but I don’t pay attention to the time. If I am not careful, it will get dark.”

“You know that you girls in the city have the most thoughts. If you are here with us, there is no time for girls to think about your thoughts. It is good to make more money for the family.”

Uncle’s simple thoughts, Lu Xin didn’t refute anything, just smiled at him.

“I don’t know what you think, and I can’t control it. It’s just that it’s still a long time to live. It’s always good to live. You can see more things. If you think simpler, you can live more comfortably.”

It’s like the simplest truth can always reach the depths of people’s hearts. Although the uncle’s words are simple, they seem to make a lot of sense.

Lu Xin smiled lightly: “I’m fine, uncle, you don’t have to worry about me, you go and rest by yourself, he and I will take care of ourselves.”

The uncle really ignored Chen Feng and the others, but entered a room inside.

Only Chen Feng were left beside the fire outside.

Leaning on the flames, Lu Xin’s face was also glowing red, and it looked a little cute.

“What are you looking at?” Lu Xin asked, turning her head.

Chen Feng reacted, but did not say that he was looking at her.

“It just feels like it’s a good thing to be in such a place suddenly and listening to the sea.”

Lu Xin smiled and said, “I thought that rich people like you have only money left in the eyes, and there will be no other happiness at all.”

Chen Feng shook his head and said, “I think I am different from others.”

“It’s a little different,” Lu Xin said. She lowered her head and looked at the beating flames in front of her.

“You seem to be in a much better mood.”

“Yeah! Thank you for coming here with me. I know it’s a bit headstrong to be here.”

Chen Feng also laughed and said, “There are some here and there. This is very willful.”

Lu Xin looked at Chen Feng’s smile under the fire. She didn’t even know what she wanted.

Maybe when Xu Fu died, she would be scared, the kind of fear that seemed to have lost everything, and she still watched Xu Fu being killed by someone, that kind of shadow always lingered in her mind.

After a long time, she finally began to forget, but for herself, she had no direction.

She didn’t know what she was going to do. In the past, she just needed to be with Xu Fu and be his woman. This is all she has.

And she thinks she is also a smart woman, knows how to please a man, at least Xu Fu will leave home for her for a long time, then she is successful.

When she saw Chen Feng at that time, all she thought of was to change to rely on. She was like a dodder, always looking for a tree to survive.

But the big tree rejected her, but it was not completely rejected. Chen Feng took her to Yanjing and gave her a place to live. Don’t worry about life. It seems that for her, this should be the whole life.

But when she really started to live, she felt very tired, so tired that she just wanted to spend a day and a night in bed.

And she did that. For the first four days, except for necessary to get up, she had been lying on the bed, her body was always weak, and her head was dizzy.

It wasn’t until the fifth day that she finally got disgusted with this kind of life. She woke up early in the morning, opened the curtains of the French windows, and saw the Fragrant Mountain in the early morning.

At that time, she thought of many things, including what she wanted to sing. Dream.

That kind of beautiful red maple is life, is the expectation of serious life.

So today Chen Feng mentioned her family, although part of it was because the family did make her feel uncomfortable, it was also a reflection of her past life.

She couldn’t figure out what life was.

“Did you know? I just suddenly felt that I had lived so long for nothing.” Lu Xin said after a long time, breaking the silence.

Chen Feng was also a little surprised. He looked at Lu Xin’s face and seemed very immersed.

“Why do you have this idea?”

“It should be you who gave me this idea.”

“Me? I didn’t seem to do anything.”

Lu Xin held the cup in his hand and said, “You don’t need to know so much, as long as you know that you did it, and I will always thank you.”

Although Chen Feng was strange, he didn’t ask much.

The two of them kept silent like this, and didn’t know when, Lu Xin leaned on the blanket and fell asleep.

The next day, when the sun rose from the sea, Chen Feng and Chen Feng had already bid farewell to the uncle and walked on the way back.

Under the cool wind, the rising sun shone on the sea, shimmering, and shimmering as brilliant as gold.

The shadows of the two figures were stretched very long, walking one after another.

At this time in Yanjing, Liu Xing was still waiting for Chen Feng. He had planned to take him to the company, but he called and told him that he would have to wait another three or four hours.

Liu Xing went to ask where Chen Feng had gone, but he didn’t want to say, just let him wait.

He simply sat in the hotel cafe until Chen Feng appeared.

After sending Lu Xin back, Chen Feng hurried to Liu Xing’s hotel.

“Let you wait until now, I also feel sorry.” Chen Feng still apologized to Liu Xing.

Liu Xing is naturally a little bit angry, but whoever makes the person in front of him be his own boss, all he can do is to forgive him.

“As long as you don’t treat me like this often, I don’t dare to blame my boss.”

Chen Feng smiled and said, “It seems that I can’t do it a second time. Otherwise, if I run you away, I will lose out.”

Liu Xing said, “Don’t talk about it anymore. It’s already too late to get to the company now. If you delay for a while, you can just leave work in the past.”

Chen Feng knew that Liu Xing was anxious to go to the company, so he didn’t say much, and took Liu Xing into the car.

When I came to the company, it was already lunch time, and Liu Xing could be introduced in the morning meeting, but now I can only wait until the afternoon to call up the employees again.

Liu Xing didn’t care. The headquarter of the group was in the central area of Yanjing, surrounded by some important enterprises. Liu Xing just looked at the surrounding environment.

“I think there must be a lot of very powerful people hidden in these companies. If I can invite these people, I don’t know how Mr. Chen will treat them.”

Chen Feng smiled and said, “It’s a courtesy of course. I still lack talents. The development in many aspects is always not obvious, and there is no competitiveness.”
