

Chapter: 1210

Bought it!

Actually bought it!

Everyone who saw this scene was crazy!

One Rolls-Royce Phantom is worth ten million, and thirty is a full three hundred million!

But this young man in his early twenties just swiped his card to pay the bill without blinking his eyes?

They just think the world is crazy!

Everyone's faces were full of disbelief, as if they had seen a ghost.

Immediately afterwards, it completely exploded the pot!

“My God! My eyes deceive you? Direct order for 30 sets of the most expensive Rolls-Royce Phantom? Or direct credit card? The two men in the end is the story behind ah!”

“That woman, like White Castles southern Iraq ! ” ”

really her! white house's new master of the house, so that four giants took it on board, no wonder there is such a mine! ” ”

..... ”

shook it, resounded through the audience!

Everyone looked at Lin Fan and Bai Yi, and they were full of awe at this moment.

Especially the female salesman.

She held the bank card in both hands, her pretty face flushed, and her body trembled crazily, she was ecstatic!

Because as long as he sells one Phantom, she can draw 1.5%, which is 150,000, and 30 Phantoms is 4.5 million.

This is more than she has earned in ten years combined, it is simply a huge fortune!

At first, she thought that Lin Fan was joking, but now she only feels that her three views are about to be subverted!

This is so inhumane!

Now!

The saleswoman was so excited that she stuttered:

“First... sir, madam! You guys wait here for a while, I'll make arrangements right away!”

Then, she rushed to the finance department hurriedly!

at the same time!

Knowing Bai Yi's identity, the entire 4s shop is completely boiling!

All the employees immediately moved in stools, brought snacks and drinks, served tea and water for the two of them, and squeezed their shoulders and legs. Even their manager knelt on the ground and wiped Bai Yi's shoes.

But at this time Bai Yi looked worried, because the money in Nakari, but the funds of the four giants invested in Xin Bai's.

Such extravagance made her feel uneasy.

As everyone knows, with her husband's property, let alone buying thirty Rolls-Royce, even if it is buying the entire store, it is no problem!

..... At this time, after Wen Qian and Li Sang Hyuk bought nearly two million yuan, they were sent by Shu Lan and others to leave the 4s shop.

But right now!

A shocking roar of cars came slowly from the Rolls-Royce 4s shop on the side.

A brand new Rolls-Royce Phantom drove out extremely elegantly!

“Rolls-Royce Phantom!”

Wen Qian's eyes flashed suddenly, and after seeing this ultra-luxury car, she instantly felt that her big g was not good.

And Lee Sang Hyuk on the side sneered:

“What's so great about Phantom, isn't mine also Phantom?”

Just!

The voice just fell!

boom!

The second one!

The third one!

The fourth one!

Rolls-Royce one after another, from the 4s store, slowly drove out, a full thirty.

“This...this is impossible!”

Li Xianghe was stunned for a while, his eyes were filled with consternation, and he couldn't believe it!

On the side, Wen Qian's heart was beating wildly. I really can't figure out who has such a big hand to buy 30 Phantoms in batches at once.

Isn't this too embarrassing?

Even Shu Lan's eyes were full of jealousy, and she thought to herself: How much commission is there for so many cars?

Now!

Lee Sang-hyuk couldn't wait to ask the Rolls-Royce employees:

“Who is this big hand, who bought so many cars at once?” The employee glanced at Lee Sang-hyuk, then smiled immediately, and said as if showing off:

” Those who came to our shop to buy a car, but now the top dignitaries in Jiangnan, the Jiangnan co-owner!”
