

Chapter: 1455

Quiet!

The audience was silent!

They all wonder if they are dazzled?

In an instant, the smile on Li Quan's face completely solidified, as if he was struck by lightning, sluggish on the spot!

He could tell at a glance that these people in front of him had unusual identities, but they were so respectful of this rubbish Lin Fan?

What's even more exaggerated is that Lin Fan actually looks like he doesn't respond?

This...

What a joke!

"Yeah, in order to act in a play, you are willing to pay for it, how much did these people pay for it?"

Wang Feifei said with a sarcastic smile, she didn't believe Lin Fan had this ability.

acting?

Li Quan's face suddenly became gloomy, and he felt like that.

After all, Lin Fan's incompetence is well-known in Jiangshi, how could he enjoy such a privilege?

Immediately afterwards, he sneered and glared at Lin Fan:

"Dog stuff, you want to fool me when you think you're looking for some scammers? So you're a big shot?"

Ok?

When the members of Longya heard Li Quan's humiliation that was not life and death, they suddenly frowned.

One of them roared directly:

"How dare you insult him? Do you know who he is?"

But Li Quan didn't care at all, his expression even more disdainful:

"Oh, it really seems like that. These actors are quite professional. They cost a lot of money?"

"You guys, your acting skills are good, are you interested in coming to our entertainment company to develop? But the premise is that you have to beat this bastard to me crippled!"

These Dragon Tooth members exploded with a bang in their heads, crippling Lin Zuo?

This is so crazy!

At the moment, their faces are as ugly as they are.

The leading strong man stood up and walked towards Li Quan.

With a strong suffocation!

Upon seeing this, Li Quan also panicked and scolded angrily:

"What do you want, let me tell you, I'm the boss of Huayu, if you dare to do anything to me, I want you dead and poor people to sit in prison."

However, the brawny man seemed to have heard nothing, and he was pressing forward every step of the way.

"What are you doing in a daze, crippling all these guys!"

Wang Feifei suddenly roared angrily.

But waiting for the security guards to take action, the Longya members had already rushed out, and in just a few seconds, the security guards were knocked to the ground.

That painful groan resounded through the audience!

boom!

Everyone present was stunned, unable to believe their eyes.

Are these guys not actors?

Is it from the martial arts crew? How can you fight like this?

With a few people, a dozen security guards were knocked down in a few seconds, and they were simply neat and effortless.

Li Quan was so frightened that he was about to kneel down, looked at the big man, and said in horror:

"You... don't mess around! I warn you! I have money and I can kill you! If you beat me, you will regret it!"

just!

The big man was holding Li Quan's neck with a smile:

"Come, you come with me!"

Then, without any explanation, he dragged Li Quan, who was already scared to pee, toward the window.

"You take a good look, what kind of cars are those!"

Ok?

Li Quan looked downstairs suspiciously, and immediately saw six overbearing Hummers, side by side in the parking lot, with camouflage bodies and military models.

And this was not what shocked Li Quan. What he was really shocked was the license plate!

At the moment he saw those license plates, he was scared to pee, and his face was pale and whispered:

"Army...military card!"

These guys, came these cars?

Then how could they be the actors invited by Lin Fan?

Who has so much energy to invite military vehicles to cooperate with the acting?

However, there is more to it!

The big man continued to show his credentials to Li Quan:

"Come on, look again, what is written on it?"

When Li Quan saw the two clear words on the certificate, he exploded on his scalp and sat weakly on the ground:

"Dragon... Dragon Tooth?"
