

Chapter: 1524

what!

Hearing this astronomical figure, Bai Yi was instantly stunned!

“How much did you just say?”

She thought she had heard it wrong, and asked again in disbelief.

The waiter snorted impatiently and said coldly:

“One million three hundred and seventy thousand, what’s the matter with your family, the old one is blind, the young one is deaf, did your ancestors give birth to you?”

The harsh humiliation of the other party directly made the Baiyi family blush.

Right now, Bai Yi’s face was gloomy, too lazy to care about the other party, and walked towards the broken drink in that place.

then!

She picked up a fragment and said coldly:

“These wines are clearly OEM wines sold in supermarkets. They all add up to no more than 10,000 yuan, but you charge me more than 1.3 million yuan. Are you extorting me?”

what!

Both the waiter and Li Xijun changed their expressions. They didn’t seem to have thought that Bai Yi knew the goods so well, and they could tell at a glance that these were cheap red wines.

“I said 1.3 million is 1.3 million. Give the money as soon as possible, or I will let you go around!”

As soon as the waiter saw that he was spotted, he tore his face and sneered directly.

“You are extortion, we want to call the police!”

Bai Yi said with a sullen face, she didn’t think that the other party was so rampant that she had already been discovered, and she even dared to ask them for money.

“Call the police?”

The waiter suddenly sneered and said with a look of disdain:

“Our manager’s brother, but the head of this district, you have no use to call the police! If you mess up the matter, you will be the one who is unlucky!”

Bai Yi naturally understands this truth. After all, who can open a star hotel, how can there be no background behind it?

But she just couldn’t understand the other person’s low-looking attitude.

“Then call your manager out!”

Bai Yi said angrily, she was too lazy to talk nonsense with the other party, planning to go directly to the manager to reason.

See if they open the door to do business, do they dare to be so unscrupulous!

However, Lin Fan shook his head when he heard this. Bai Yi was still too naive. If there was no manager nod, how could a little waiter dare to be so arrogant?

I’m afraid!

That manager had already known what was happening here through the monitoring, and he was happy to sit on the mountain and watch the tigers fight.

“Okay, don’t you see our manager? Don’t regret it!”

The waiter gave Bai Yi a fierce look, and then turned to look for their manager.

See it!

The corners of Lin Fan’s mouth suddenly rose up with a cold arc.

Do things, right?

Then let’s see, who can do it!

Aside, Li Xijun also sneered, insinuating that Bai Yi was really an idiot.

Thought it would be useful to call in a manager?

Little did she know that the manager was her alumnus and artillery friend at Harvard, but she promised him that as long as he could help him clean up Bai Yi, he would play with him for free for a month.

In this case, how could he speak for Bai Yi?

Not long!

A man strode over. He was about thirty years old, his face was dark and sunken, his body was hollowed out by the look of alcohol.

He is Du Yue, the general manager of this five-star hotel. As soon as he arrived at the scene, he pretended not to know anything and asked:

“What happened? Who is messing around in our hotel?”

“Manager, just these poor ghosts!”

The waiter pointed at the Bai Yi family viciously.

Bai Yi also hurriedly defended, saying:

“Your staff, blackmail us with shoddy OEM liquor sold in the supermarket. The total amount of these liquors is less than ten thousand yuan, but he wants us 1.3 million yuan!”

Oh?

Du Yue pretended to look at the waiter:

“Is there such a thing?”

“Manager, these wines were taken from the wine cellar. They are clearly priced. They can’t be fake.”

The waiter was weak, and he was a little bit unsure of what Du Yue meant.

Snapped!

At this time, Du Yue directly slapped him, and then scolded angrily:

“You still dare to quibble, where are these wines worth 1.3 million yuan? What if you do such nonsense and bring losses to our hotel?”

See it!

Bai Yi’s family immediately breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, the manager was sensible, otherwise they would really have jumped into the Yellow River.

Even Lin Fan couldn’t help but was stunned. Could it be that he guessed wrong?

just!

Next, Du Yue suddenly turned around and looked at the Bai Yi family:

“I’m sorry you guys, but my subordinates made a mistake. The price of these wines is not 1.3 million!”

“But... thirteen million!”
