

Chapter: 1532

what!

Li Xijun couldn't help being stunned. The VIPs they invited this time, but even their bosses had to be respectful.

If this is negligent, what's the matter?

Who is so courageous to stop their distinguished guests?

Then, Mayweather didn't bother to talk nonsense, took Li Xijun and hurried downstairs!

Snapped!

When he reached the lobby on the first floor, he went up and gave the security captain a hand to change it, and roared:

"Blind your dog's eyes, dare you stop my VIP?"

The security captain didn't dare to slap after being slapped, and said aggrieved:

"But this, obviously what you meant?"

Hearing this, Mayweather almost exploded in anger, and roared like crazy:

"Fart your M! How could this be what I meant? When did I give this order?"

The security captain looked at Li Xijun, weakly saying:

"It was obviously the young lady who asked me to drive them away just now."

Ok?

Mayweather immediately looked at Li Xijun angrily.

Li Xijun also exploded his hair on the spot and scolded angrily:

"What nonsense are you talking about, when did I ask you to stop our distinguished guest? This is obviously..."

just!

Halfway through the conversation, she almost bit her tongue.

Because at this time, she suddenly thought that she seemed to have asked these security guards to drive away the Baiyi couple. It is possible that the guest the boss invited this time was...

Thinking of this, Li Xijun immediately weakened his legs, and a deep consternation appeared on his face.

No... it wouldn't be so coincidental, would it?

Humph!

Mayweather was too lazy to talk nonsense, he snorted directly, and said viciously:

"I'm going to see them now, if I find out who you are playing tricks on me, I will keep you from eating and walking around!"

Then, a group of people walked toward the door mightily!

At this moment, Li Xijun no longer listened to her feet, she was crazily looking forward to it, Bai Yi and the others must not be the people

Mayweather wants to see, otherwise she would be completely finished!

just!

The sky is not as expected!

The moment he saw Bai Yi at the door, Mayweather greeted him like a pug:

Li Xijun has never seen that flattering face!

Then, Mayweather stood still in front of Lin Fan and his wife, and then bowed deeply:

"Mr. Lin, Miss Bai Yi, these idiots have dashed against you with eyesight, and I hope you don't blame them!

There is a deep awe and apology in the voice!

boom!

For a moment!

Then Li Xijun had a numb scalp and was paralyzed on the spot!

Panicked, she panicked completely!

At this time Li Xijun was almost insane.

This is impossible!

How could Bai Yi be the customer they are cooperating with this time?

She clearly heard that Bai Yi had a miserable life because of marrying a waste in the past few years.

What qualifications does such a person have to make her boss so in awe?

Make a mistake, this must be a mistake!

Li Xijun only felt that his brain was blank, and the whole person was already weakly sitting on the ground.

"Boss, did you make a mistake? The special customer you are talking about is this bitch?"

Li Xijun asked incredulously.

Bitch?

Hearing this insult, Mayweather almost bit his tongue off and stared at Li Xijun angrily.

"Asshole! How dare you insult Miss Bai Yi? She is the president of New Bai's, the only pharmaceutical company in the world that can independently develop a new type of drug!"

boom!

Li Xijun suddenly felt his eyes go dark, and almost lost his breath.

New Bai's?

How could she not know this company?

The product has just been released and it has become a global sensation!

Today, all pharmaceutical companies in the world want to cooperate with them, and the degree of their desire can be described as crazy.

Because whoever can cooperate with the current New Bai's is tantamount to mastering the lifeblood of global medicine.

And Xinbai's, a little-known company, is also destined to rely on that magical vaccine to become the world's leading pharmaceutical group.

And such a potential stock, its holder turned out to be Bai Yi?

impossible!

This is impossible!

This bitch, who was obviously taken away by her, was forced to nest in the city of Jiang where the birds did not shit, and was destined to be an ineffective woman all her life.

How can she lead a world-renowned pharmaceutical company?

However, there is more to it!

Immediately afterwards, Mayweather continued:

"In addition to being the master of the Xinbai clan, Miss Bai Yi is still the most powerful woman in the entire Jiangnan!"
