

Chapter: 1601

Half an hour later, Lin Fan hurriedly went to the nearest hospital to the shopping mall, and saw the Baishan couple wiping away tears.

Seeing this, Lin Fan's heart suddenly sank, and he walked up quickly:

“Dad, Mom, in the end what happened? White Iraq hey how I collapsed?”

Shen Yumei cried and shook her head, unable to even speak.

Bai Shan also said with an ugly expression:

“We don't know what's going on. She passed out without saying a few words as soon as she came out of the mall. When she arrived at the hospital, the doctor said that she had heart failure and she was sent directly to the emergency room. Now she still hasn't come out.”

heart failure?

Lin Fan's head is about to explode!

Good thing, how could Bai Yi have heart failure?

The Baiyi family has never had a history of heart disease.

At this time, the doctor walked out, and Lin Fan and the others hurriedly greeted him.

“Doctor, how is my wife?”

The doctor took off the mask and turned out to be a beautiful woman.

But Lin Fan simply didn't have time to take care of so much, he just wanted to know Bai Yi's current situation.

Ye Yuqing glanced at Lin Fan, and then said earnestly:

“The patient's condition has stabilized, but the fetus in her belly may not be kept.”

what!

When Lin Fan heard this, he suddenly felt five thunderbolts.

fetus?

Bai Yi, pregnant?

Right now, he asked nervously:

“Doctor, you mean my wife is pregnant?”

“Yeah, why are you such a careless husband? Your wife has been pregnant for a month. You don't even know that?”

Ye Yuqing said sternly, with a little contempt in her eyes.

And Lin Fan was completely dumbfounded, Bai Yi was really pregnant?

And their children and wife are now lying in the emergency room, unsure whether they are alive or dead?

This made his whole body tremble!

This command of the heroes, the dark emperor who commanded the entire dark world, unexpectedly began to fear.

Fear, I will lose my lover and children!

“Doctor, he is not to blame, we didn't tell him!”

Bai Shan hurriedly came up to explain, and said with red eyes:

“Lin Fan, we originally planned to surprise you today, but we didn't expect to...”

At the end, Baishan's voice choked.

He didn't even think that a happy event would turn into a tragedy.

Lin Fan's brain was blank, and he couldn't hear anything anymore, and rushed to the emergency room.

Then, I saw Bai Yi who was pale and extremely weak in the emergency room.

this moment!

Lin Fan's heart is broken!

He tremblingly stepped forward, went up to grab Bai Yi's hand, and said in a choked voice:

“Wife!”

As soon as he saw Lin Fan, Bai Yi couldn't hold back, and cried bitterly:

“Husband, save our children! Please, save our children!”

Obviously, Ye Yuqing had already told her about things that the fetus might not be able to keep.

Lin Fan's body suddenly shook. This man who was not afraid of fear, he felt that his heart was stabbed severely when he heard this.

“Don't worry, I won't let our children get involved!”

But at this time, Ye Yuqing also followed in, frowning after hearing this:

“Family, please calm down! Now first and foremost is to protect the lives of pregnant women, if you insist, then save the fetus, there is a high probability make pregnant women to take risks.”

“I mind if you give up this pregnancy!”

boom!

Hearing this, Bai Yi felt that his head was about to explode, and shook his head vigorously:

“Don't hurt my children! I beg you!”

“Husband, help me!”

This is the crystallization of their love and the best gift she gave to her husband. If she gave up her pregnancy, she would never forgive herself in this life.

At the moment, Lin Fan also had a cold face, and said angrily:

“My wife and children will be fine, don't touch her, I will find a solution!”
