

Chapter: 1607

Lin Fan is angry!

He didn't want to care about it, but the other party repeatedly regarded him as a triumphant son, so Lin Fan wouldn't mind letting the other party know who is the triumphant son!

"Boss, don't be afraid of him. We will support you. He dare not do anything to you."

Jin Chengen said arrogantly, while staring at Lin Fan provocatively.

The pharmacy owner didn't put Lin Fan in his eyes, and when he heard this, he felt that his waist became harder, and he yelled:

"I don't want to sell you medicinal herbs to dogs. Get out of here!"

Everyone cast a mocking look at Lin Fan!

And those elder brothers were extremely insulting and swearing:

"Trash, are you deaf? Let you go away, can't you hear?"

"We bought this medicinal material. No matter how much you pay, we will be twice as expensive. What's the matter?"

"To tell you the truth, we are deliberately making trouble and want to kill the patients in your family. What can you do to me? Poor devil?"

Hearing these arrogant provocations, Lin Fan shook his head and chuckled:

"It's great to be rich?"

laugh!

A group of young masters all laughed scornfully, and said even more proudly:

"It's great to have money, what's the matter!"

"The car I drive is enough for you to fight for a lifetime!"

"Humans, confess their fate! Some people are born with a golden spoon, and some are as cheap as a dog, such as you!"

Is it great to be rich?

This seems to be a consistent question from the weak, like a roar of incompetence, how ridiculous.

It's great to have money!

If you have money, you can step on Lin Fan's feet like a dog.

"We can see you a lot of money, it would lend me some flower it!"

Lin Fan laughed strangely.

It's going to rain Niang to marry someone, and some people insist on trying to die, so he has no idea.

just!

His words stunned all the princes and buddies present. Borrowing some money to spend?

Is this guy crazy?

Right now, they burst into laughter again, thinking that Lin Fan was really looking for them to borrow money, and looked at Lin Fan with contempt.

"I really admire you for being so thick-skinned, you are scolded like a dog, and you still have the face to ask us to borrow money?"

"It deserves to eat soft rice, this shameless degree is no one!"

They were complacent and laughed at Lin Fan as a soft food eater, but they never thought that these rich second generations are also idle, taking their parents' money and momentum to go out and enjoy themselves, and domineering.

however!

Lin Fan turned a deaf ear to their sarcasm, but silently took out his cell phone and made a call.

For him, what does it mean?

To fight back, use the most direct and painful way to directly make the opponent desperate!

Lin Fan, always do what he says!

If you say you are playing to death, you are playing to death!

"Called, called, this guy is going to call his wife!"

"I heard that Bai Yi is a rare beauty. She will come in a while. Let's give her a round in front of this trash, hahaha!"

A group of young masters laughed louder, and they didn't even put Lin Fan's threat in their eyes.

This guy is still called a human?

What kind of awesome character can someone who eats soft rice call out?

just!

They didn't know, just after Lin Fan finished that phone call.

The whole Jiang City is in chaos!

.....

boom!

In the office of Jinniu Industrial Co., Ltd., he was kicked away.

The shareholders and the chairman of the board were all dumbfounded. Seeing a group of heavily armed sergeants came in, they all looked horrified.

Long Qianxi walked in with a grin, and said to the middle-aged Yixie inside:

"Xu Huashan, come with us?"

"Young Master Long, I...what did I do?"

Chairman Xu Huashan asked uncomfortably, he didn't remember when he offended Commander Jiangnan.

Long Qianxi laughed more interestingly, saying:

"You are not guilty, but your son has broken the sky!"
