

Chapter: 1660

Li Xunran looked at Lin Fan with a strange expression, and then said:

“Okay, let’s set off now!”

Then, the two went to Yao Lao’s residence. After arriving, Lin Fan realized that the matter was far more complicated than he had imagined.

Outside the manor, there are already a dozen luxury cars parked, each of which is more than one million yuan, which shows that the owner must be a high-ranking official.

Yao Lao didn’t just want to meet with him, but also called so many people?

Is this something to be announced?

And when they walked into the venue, they saw a group of young people standing on the first floor chatting, with a touch of arrogance condensed between their eyebrows. The elders in the family were in the home council, and they were waiting downstairs, obviously following the elders of the family. This is long insightful.

The moment they saw Lin Fan, these young talents were completely stunned, and then a thick contempt suddenly appeared on their faces.

Where does this stinky beggar come from?

A young man dressed like an old man, even wearing cloth shoes?

I’m afraid that this outfit doesn’t add up to more than one thousand yuan, right?

With this kind of virtue to attend Yao Lao’s dinner, is this guy trying to be different, or is he too poor?

“Xunran, who is this weird flower next to you? Is this just returning from an escape? Hahaha!”

A young man named Huo Dongying walked up and looked at Lin Fan with a playful expression, as if he was looking at a beggar.

Li Xunran’s face suddenly sank, and then angrily scolded:

“Huo Dongying, keep your mouth clean. He has a first name and a surname, and his name is Lin Fan. He is a distinguished guest invited by my master. Let me go!”

“Lin Fan?”

Huo Dongying was completely stunned. Although he was not from the imperial capital, he was no stranger to this name.

“This guy is the rubbish from the Lin family?”

Everyone was in an uproar, staring at Lin Fan in surprise, obviously no stranger to this name.

It’s just that they didn’t even think that this waste would actually appear here.

“Who am I? It turned out to be the Lin family trash!”

Huo Dongying laughed louder, and then stared at Li Xunran playfully:

“Xunran, don’t you think it’s too much for you to bring this kind of garbage to this banquet? We don’t want to be in the same room with such wild species!”

boom!

Hearing the word “wild species”, Lin Fan’s eyes were suddenly filled with cold light, staring at Huo Dongying!

Being stared at by such fierce gazes, Huo Dongying was also in a moment of panic, and a touch of astonishment suddenly appeared in his eyes.

Lin Fan’s eyes seemed to eat him.

Being stared by him like this, Huo Dongying felt like her hairs were standing upright.

But in the next moment, his face suddenly became gloomy, how could he be intimidated by a family abandoned youngster?

Right now, he continued to yell:

“What do you look at! Am I wrong? You are a wild species, a wild species born from a shameless bitch!”

See it!

Li Xunran suddenly sighed helplessly. Why are there so many idiots seeking death?

Immediately afterwards, she stepped back helplessly, for fear of being splashed with blood.

Because she knows very well what will happen to Lin Fan once this monster is angered.

The Lin family is the best evidence!

But these idiots didn’t know that the reason why the Lin family fell apart overnight was because of the man in front of them.

They still regard Lin Fan as the one who was swept out by the Lin family back then!

boom!

The floor suddenly burst open!

Lin Fan’s body suddenly burst out with an innocence and prestige.

He stepped forward with a murderous look and pressed towards Huo Dongying.

The murderous intent in his eyes was instantly rich to the extreme, and he stared at Huo Dongying:

“Say what I just said again!”
