

Chapter: 1665

boom!

At this moment, the atmosphere of the audience completely burst!

Everyone showed a horrified expression!

Some even almost fell off the chair!

Country... Lord?

What a joke!

This new president was actually promoted by the name of the leader himself?

How can it be!

The owner of the country is busy with his business, and he is concerned about national affairs. How can he care about the personnel changes of a small China Medical Association.

Everyone was dumbfounded, feeling like they were listening to the heavenly scriptures, everything was so incredible.

Even Zhang Jianjun was completely panicked at this time, shaking his head in horror:

“Impossible! This is impossible! You must be deceiving people, how could you be able to open the back door for a person, what identity is the country leader!”

“Lao Yao, you are spreading rumors! It’s illegal!”

The host personally rolls the name!

How good can a person be to win such a honor?

Zhang Jianjun doesn’t believe it!

Everyone present did not believe, how could there be such a person in this world?

Unless Hua Tuo reincarnated!

Bian Que is born again!

As for Zhang Jianjun’s rebuttal and everyone’s surprise, Yao Lao ignored him, just said indifferently:

“What I said is true. If there are rumors, I am willing to bear all the consequences!”

“The reason why the Lord chose him as the new president is also very simple, that is, this person’s medical skills and development prospects are far above me!”

boom!

The moment they heard this, everyone trembled fiercely.

The eyeball seemed to split from the socket.

Is this special? Did you hear it wrong?

The other side’s medical skills are better than Yao Lao?

What a joke!

Yao Lao is China’s genius doctor!

Recognized as the first person in China’s medical skills!

The most versatile doctor!

Even in the international arena, he is well-known for a long time. I don’t know how many countries and hospitals around the world have issued invitations to him, and the conditions are so good that they can be comparable to national treasures.

Therefore, Yao Lao in China has the title of Hua Tuo II, and all doctors regard him as the spiritual leader.

But Yao Lao now said that the new president is more clever than his medical skills!

How is this possible!

Everyone can’t believe this is true at this time, because in their eyes, medicine is always like a god.

And now, there is an existence beyond God?

just!

It’s more than that!

The real blockbuster, this has just begun!

The corner of Yao Lao’s mouth curled up, and a playful smile was outlined:

“In addition, the age of this new president is not more than thirty years old!”

hiss!

Everyone took a breath of air at this moment.

The shock that was difficult to attach was also pushed to the commanding heights at this moment.

Oh my!

A genius doctor under thirty?

real or fake?

Is there such a good person in this world?

How far this kind of existence can go in the future is simply immeasurable!

Huo Dongying and the younger generation are all dumbfounded, which means that the new president is the same age as them?

At the same age, the other party has already taken the top spot in the Huaxia Pharmaceutical industry!

How good is such a person!

At this moment, Huo Dongying and others felt ashamed, and felt that compared to the new president, they were not even worthy of shoes!

But at this moment, Liu Xi was also full of admiration, with green eyes, just listening to her was already rippling with her heart, and she was full of admiration for the new president!

The new president is a legend!

At this time, they all can’t wait to see how sacred that mysterious new president is!

At this time, Zhou Botong’s face was as ugly as it was, and he finally knew that what his master said was not him at all.

Elder Yao never thought of letting him inherit the position of chairman!

“Yao Lao, don’t sell it, let the new president come out and see you!”

Someone said impatiently.

People who are promoted by the leader of the country, they all want to know what kind of person it is!

Hear the words!

Yao Lao smiled:

“Boy, come out!”
