

Chapter: 1666

Then, the door of the meeting room opened, and a figure walked out under the eyes of everyone.

It turned out to be Lin Fan!

The moment they saw Lin Fan, Huo Dongying and the others were immediately dumbfounded!

Not only them, Zhou Botong and Zhang Jianjun are also completely dumbfounded. Yao Lao wants to hand over the position of new chairman to this kid in front of him?

Is Yao Lao crazy?

What do you know, this kid!

Right now, Huo Dongying was furious, and instantly roared:

“Lin Fan, who allowed you to come in, is this a place where you can stay? Get out of here!”

“Yes, this is a conference room for powerful people in the medical field. What kind of thing do you have to stay here?”

An insult and swearing resounded in an instant!

“I made him come!”

At this time, a slightly angry voice sounded.

Dozens of gazes were staring at Yao Qiqi.

Then everyone present, their scalp numb, dumbfounded.

The new president that Yao Lao said was the guy in front of him, right?

“Lao Yao, what do you mean, he is an outsider, what qualifications does he have to come here?”

Zhang Jianjun asked in astonishment, suddenly feeling a bad premonition in his heart.

however!

Just when everyone was confused, Old Yao went straight to Lin Fan, and then stood still in front of him, saying with an indifferent expression:

“Let me introduce to you, this is the new president of our China Medical Association, Lin Fan!”

boom!

One word stirred up thousands of waves!

Zhou Botong and others were all crazy at this moment!

In each of his eyes, there was shock and anger!

Lin Fan, the new president?

What a joke!

This guy, how can you do it!

boom!

Zhang Jianjun directly slapped the table angrily, glaring at Yao Lao:

“Lao Yao, you are joking about the future of Huaxia Traditional Chinese Medicine!”

Is this scum in front of him comparable to him?

It’s nonsense!

Both Zhou Botong and Zhang Jianjun felt that Yao always humiliated them. How can this kid be compared with them?

Even if he is a great master, he is only a little accomplished in martial arts. He knows nothing about medical skills. What qualifications does such a guy have to lead the entire Chinese medicine?

It’s not just Zhou Botong and others!

Even the younger generations like Huo Dongying completely exploded after seeing this scene!

Huo Dongying even directly exclaimed:

“Impossible, what qualifications does this waste have to be the president?”

Ok?

Huo Dongying’s father turned his head and stared at him suspiciously:

“Do you know this person?”

With a sneer at the corner of Huo Dongying’s mouth, he said:

“Dad, this person’s name is Lin Fan. He is the trash who was swept out by the Lin family back then. How can such a guy be qualified to lead Chinese medicine?”

Lin’s waste?

Hearing this name, everyone present changed their expressions drastically.

Right now, they all cast contemptuous glances at Lin Fan. Obviously they all knew that there was such a person, and the Lin family still wanted to get rid of him.

Even if he becomes the president of the Medical Association, I am afraid that it will not be long before he will become a dead person. Their medical association may also offend the Lin Family and Zhang Jianjun for this, and the gain is not worth the loss!

Right now, Huo Dongying’s father stood up and said coldly:

“I am opposed to him becoming the new president. I think he is not qualified and embarrassed by the important task, and cannot be compared with Zhang Bu!”

With his opening, everyone present also had a plan, and they all opened their mouths and said:

“I also don’t agree! What qualifications does a Lin family’s waste man have to lead the entire Huaxia medical industry?”

“Master, you are indeed too reckless. Although this guy is a great master, he doesn’t know anything about medicine. How can such a person carry forward Huaxia Medicine?”

These old foxes are all human beings, and it is impossible for them to let someone like Lin Fan serve as the new president. If this is the case, it seems natural to please Zhang Jianjun at the moment!

And see here!

Huo Dongying suddenly laughed triumphantly:

“I heard that there is no Lin Fan, you can go away! Want to be the president of the Medical Association? Next life!”

They had stepped on Lin Fan’s feet for a long time, but once Lin Fan became the president, he would be their immediate boss.

No matter it was Huo Dongying or Liu Xi and others, there was no way to accept it.

And Lin Fan was also completely stunned. He didn’t even think that the reason Yao Lao would call him over was to make him the president of the Medical Association.

Is this going to let him lead the rhythm of Chinese medicine?

In the face of the dissatisfaction of the people, Yao Lao looked like a man in his chest, and said astonishingly:

“Then if I tell you, he is the genius doctor Lin?”
