

Chapter: 1708

At this time, Xu Yourong also recovered from the sluggishness, and a touch of splendor flashed in his eyes.

Twenty-something, that is to say that he is not an old man in the seventies and eighties?

Then I still have a chance!

This can be said to be the most happy message she heard today!

The idols you like are the same age as you, so they may develop and develop in the future, right?

Not just her!

The female colleagues present, after hearing that the chairman is less than 30 years old, all seemed to be idiots, with green light in their eyes.

“Oh my God! The chairman is less than 30 years old, don't I still have a chance?”

“I don't know if the chairman is married. Even if I get married, I don't mind. I'm happy to be a wife or a mistress!”

“Which capable man has three wives and four concubines? But the question is, are you worthy of him? You became the chairman of Washington Pharmaceuticals in your twenties. Among such people, Dragon and Phoenix are not matched by ordinary women!”

“I've decided! Tomorrow we will meet the chairman by chance in the chairman's channel together, is there anyone together?”

Hear the words!

Lin Fan looked embarrassed and smiled bitterly.

But Xu Yourong's face was flushed, he was particularly resentful, and he looked worried, obviously with a sense of crisis.

“No, the one you mentioned is the chairman's secretary!”

Lin Fan quickly jumped out to deny, but he couldn't let people know his true identity.

Ok?

Everyone suddenly looked at Lin Fan in confusion.

“how do you know?”

This guy has seen the chairman?

“Because I have met the chairman, I went there when New Bai's and Washington Pharmaceuticals were discussing cooperation. He is already in his 70s.”

How many is seventy?

Upon hearing this, the female employees present seemed to have been splashed with cold water, and they froze in an instant.

They are in their seventies and they are old men. No matter how capable they are, they will be old-fashioned. Can't they let them marry an old man?

Isn't it dead for being a joke?

And Xu Yourong also looked disappointed, so that he could only regard the genius doctor Lin as a person whom he admired all his life.

Lin Fan was relieved to see that everyone believed his words.

Soon, when it was time for get off work, Lin Fan just walked out the door and saw Li Xunran with an ugly face, standing at the door waiting with a gloomy expression.

And after seeing Lin Fan, she walked over in a stride, and said straightforwardly:

“My family wants to see you!”

“Things are getting bigger, if you don't go, they won't let you and Bai Yi go, so...”

Lin Fan frowned suddenly and said in a bad tone:

“Who said this?”

He wanted to see, who dared to threaten him!

Li Xunran smiled bitterly and said in embarrassment:

“Both!”

Lin Fan was taken aback first, then sneered:

“Interesting, lead the way!”

just!

Li Xunran did not move, but said slightly pleading:

“Lin Fan, I have a merciless request, can I ask you not to kill?”

She understands Lin Fan's temper and also knows that if this guy wants to kill someone, no one can stop him!

Lin Fan just smiled and said:

“Then it depends on how well they do it.”

...

When Lin Fan arrived at the Li family, he found that the entire Li family was already at war, and everyone's faces were full of strong hostility.

“Li Xunran, you shameless bitch, do you still have the face to come back?”

Li Xunran's second aunt yelled in humiliation.

At this time, Wang Gamei was also standing in the crowd, with a sinister smile on his lips.

Obviously before they came here, Wang Gamei had already fanned the flames.

Li Xunran glanced at Lin Fan, but felt an unprecedented sense of security. When he straightened his waist, he said coldly:

“This is my home, why can't I come back?”
