

Chapter: 1856

Lin Fan sighed and said:

“Don’t you think the upper part knows? They know that Lin Hongtu and the temple are secretly colluding, and they know what the temple will do next, but they chose to look on and ignore it!”

what!

The expressions of Nihuang and Rowling changed again and again.

“It’s impossible, why did they do that?”

Lin Fan is a military seat, and he can’t save Lin Fan. What good is it for them?

“Because I am too powerful, in addition to being the Huaxia Army Seat, I am also the King of the Blood Prison, and even the Chairman of Global Bank.

“Any military seat is not as threatening as mine. Have you ever heard of the cut?”

Ni and Huang were speechless.

Because of Lin Fan’s existence, has it threatened national security?

and so...

They want to weaken Lin Fan’s power and influence through internal friction?

Lin Fan smiled helplessly:

“The things in the temple are very complicated, and it’s hard to say a word or two.”

“Then what’s the point of staying here, go abroad! Anyway, the Lin family is almost finished, and your wish is already fulfilled!”

Rowling urged:

“As long as you leave the country and return to the blood prison, no one can help you.”

just!

Lin Fan shook his head and smiled bitterly:

“I...can’t go! Because I am the seat of Huaxia. It is my responsibility to defend the safety of the country, society and people!”

“People have already treated you that way, why are you still stubborn, do you want to die?”

Rowling angrily said, Lin Fan was thinking about protecting his family and the country, but what did he get in return?

It is suspicion!

It is fear!

Rowling feels worthless for Lin Fan!

“Because of this, I have to stay here. I want to let them know that I, Lin Fan...never thought of treason!”

“I, Lin Fan, are always the same. I am the seat of Huaxia! Born for the people and the country!”

Lin Fan smiled and said, at this time he had already made plans to stick to this land no matter what.

Never leave!

If it is dead, let it die as Mingzhi!

“You, stupid!”

Rowling shuddered with anger. She was a woman and could not understand the so-called family and country feelings, shrouded in horse leather.

She only knows that being alive is the most important thing.

Especially, she only knew that she didn’t want Lin Fan to die, and she couldn’t control so much of the others!

On the side, Nihuang, who has been silent, said with a gloomy expression:

“I won’t let you have something, absolutely not!”

With that said, she left without looking back!

She was going to figure out what was going on, and at the same time she also had to make sure that Lin Fan would never be harmed.

Rowling refused to give up and said:

“Xiao Fan, come with me! You have suffered enough over the years, don’t lose your life in vain!”

From being abandoned, to becoming the king of the bloody prison through life and death, and to the son-in-law, how much has Lin Fan suffered!

But now, he still wants to die for the country?

Stupid, this is so stupid!

Rowling didn’t want to watch Lin Fan go so wrong!

She doesn’t want Lin Fan to die!

It’s time for this child who has been suffering for a lifetime to enjoy the blessing!

Lin Fan smiled bitterly:

“I’m leaving, who will block the sanctuary? What about the innocent people of China? What about the army armor who died because of me?”

“It’s because of me, how can I just pat my butt and leave?”

Rowling knew that she had no way to persuade Lin Fan, so she stamped her feet with anger:

“You, you are simply unreasonable! I don’t care about you!”

With that said, Rowling got into the car in desperation!

And this time!

Lin Fan sighed up to the sky, a wry smile appeared at the corner of his mouth:

“A country, a country can have a home!”

How could he ruin the homes of so many innocent people because of himself?

Lin Fan didn’t have a brain disease, so why did he want to die?
